CAVALCADE BRINGS TEXAS HISTORY TO LIFE

DALLAS, Texas.—Cavalcade of Texas, one of the "must see" things at the Texas Centennial Exposition, recreates the hilarious spirit of the Big Bend country in above scene of the Jersey Lilly saloon where Judge Roy Bean was all the law there was West of the Pecos. Just below are the famous Wilson Clydesdales, valued at $100,000, drawing one of the covered wagons across the largest stage on earth; lower left, a tragic moment during the Comanche attack on Fort Parker in 1836; at right: Lorraine Meeks, a member of the cast, dressed as a lovely Spanish senorita, wears, a comb brought from Spain by her ancestors a century ago. And below—still the crowds come, jamming the entrance at every performance, waiting to see one of the greatest shows on earth at the Texas Centennial—Cavalcade of Texas.

PRACTICAL COOKERY

(Dept. H. E. T. S. C. W.—CIA) Denton.—In many families cookies are almost a daily staple. Perhaps a few suggestions for varieties with which to replenish the supply will add a new interest.

Sugar Cookies
1/2 cup butter.
2 eggs.
1 tablespoon cream.
2 1/2 cups cake flour, sifted.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
1 teaspoon flavoring.
Cream butter, add sugar, beat until light, then add beaten eggs and cream. Sift flour and baking powder together and add; then add flavoring. Chill dough then roll and cut in shapes as desired. Bake 10 to 12 minutes in a hot oven at 475 degrees.

Filled Cookies
1 cup chopped figs, raisins, or dates.
1 cup sugar.
2 tablespoons flour.
Juice 1/2 lemon.
1/4 cup boiling water.
Cook together until thick, and cool. For cookie dough use sugar cookie recipe. Roll as plain sugar cookies then cut in rounds. Put teaspoon filling on round of cookie dough. Cover this with another round of cookie dough and press edges together. Bake 10 to 12 minutes in hot oven.

Date Bars
5 egg yolks.
1 cup cake flour, sifted.
5 egg whites.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
1 pound chopped dates.
1/2 cup chopped Eng. walnuts.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
Beat egg yolks until light, add sugar and salt and mix thoroughly. Sift flour and baking powder together three times. Add dates and nuts, rubbing well through the flour to separate them. Add to the egg and sugar mixture. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Pour into greased tin to 1 inch thickness. When taken from the oven let stand in pan until cool. Cut in bars 1x3 inches and roll in powdered sugar. Bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees.

Spritz Cookies
1 cup butter.
2-3 cup sugar.
3 egg yolks.
2 1/2 cups cake flour, sifted.
1 teaspoon flavoring.
Cream butter, add sugar, mix thoroughly. Add beaten egg yolks, then flour and flavoring. Fill the cookie press, force through in the shapes desired on the ungreased cookie sheet. Bake 8 to 10 minutes at 400 degrees.

Peanut Cookies
2 cups brown sugar.
1 cup butter.
2 eggs.
3 cups cake or pastry flour sifted before measuring.
1 teaspoon soda.
1 teaspoon cream or tartar.
1 cup chopped peanuts.
Cream butter, add sugar and beaten eggs; sift flour, soda and cream of tartar together and add. Mix thoroughly. Add chopped peanuts. Chill dough then roll out and cut or form in rolls size of small tumbler. Chill until it is firm. Slice and place on greased baking sheet. Bake 10 to 12 minutes at 475 degrees.

Coming Attractions at the Princess

RAFT CAPTURES ALLURING LADY IN "IT HAD TO HAPPEN"

She was as lovely as a statue, and just as cold until a blazing love made her melt into the arms of the most masterful man she'd ever met!

That is the type of role Rosalind Russell plays in 20th Century's "It Had to Happen," to be shown at the Princess Theatre tonight and Saturday, September 4 and 5, which stars her with Geo. Raft as the screen's new sensational new romantic team.

The story, adapted from one of Rupert Hughes' originals, is the romantic tale of a man who battles his way up from the slums to the top of the political heap, inspired by a lovely lady who is always beyond his reach.

How fate finally manages to throw the lady, Rosalind Russell, into the path of the self-made George Raft, and the stormy and hilarious time they have before their romance is brought to a happy conclusion, is revealed in this picture. In the supporting cast is such fine actors as Arline Judge, Leo Carrilla and Alan Dinehart.

"NOBODY'S FOOL" IS A HEAP OF HILARITY WITH EDW. EVERETT HORTON

One of the season's most swiftly paced comedies comes to the Princess Theatre next Monday for one night only, when "Nobody's Fool" opens, starring that prince of comedy, Edward Everett Horton, who is presented in the role of a small town waiter, who goes to the big town to present his idea of how modern homes should be built.

The self-sufficient know-it-all becomes involved in a battle between two groups of real estate racketeers. He does not realize he is being kidded and that makes the situation even funnier.

Then he becomes interested in Glenda Farrell, member of the mob, who flings wisecracks at his head—but they bounce right back at her. Things begin to pop when Horton crosses battle-axes with Cesar Romero, chief of a rival crowd.

It is conceded that Horton has an excellent role in this picture in which he is the central figure of a succession of swift moving and ludicrous situations. For the big Laugh-of-the-Month be sure and see "Nobody's Fool."

Mrs. Lee Grigsby and grandsons, Francis and William, visited in Carrizo Springs last week with her sister Mrs. L. E. Stamper.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Doty left last Saturday for San Antonio to visit in the home of their son, Henry Doty.

"RHYTHM OF THE RANGE" STARS BING CROSBY AND GEORGE BURNS

They haven't got the coyotes singing Hi-Di-Ho, but in almost every other way the Old West has gone swing in Bing Crosby's latest—"Rhythm of the Range," which comes to the Princess Theatre on next Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 9 and 10, with Crosby, Bob Burn and Frances Farmer in the central roles.

"Rhythm on the Range" makes a cowboy out of Burns and opens its story when the crooner buys a prize bull at a rodeo in New York and starts west with the animal in a box car. In the reels that follow, a rollicking romance is punctuated by the bazooka-playing of Burns; swing music by the world famous band of Louis Prima, and western songs and antics of Crosby, Burns, Miss Farmer and the bul; also by Martha Raye, a new screen comedienne find.

Warren Hymer, George Stone, and James Burke add tuggery to the story by trailing Crosby and Miss Farmer across the continent with the idea of kidnaping her and demanding a ransom from her wealthy father.

Crosby and Miss Farmer are thrown together when the girl—fleeing from a society marriage—stows away in his box car. By railroad, on foot, by auto and by trailer the pair fight their way to Arizona, hauling the bull along.

Bob Burns makes his screen debut as Crosby's cowboy pal who is taken by storm by the dynamite of Miss Raye. Their romance also has a trans-continental flavor, beginning aboard a passenger train in which Burns is heading for the same ranch.

Interspersed with the singing of Crosby, the bazooka playing of Burns, and the dancing of Miss Raye, makes this picture exceptional entertainment.

What to Wear at College? Hints That May Help

Denton.—If you're going to college, your chief interest at the present time is a suitable wardrobe. Stores all over the country are cooperating to show the most suitable and smartest fashions that will find their way to colleges and universities this fall.

Suppose we look first at the street and sports clothes. Sweaters, jackets and blouses are tops on any campus—they are your first prerequisite. They are plain, boyish models that can be slipped on and then forgotten, or you can select one of the twin sweater combinations with the new interesting belted back. For dress-up occasions, there are boucle sweater suits that will find their way to many informal open house receptions.

Skirts should be just as plentiful and varied as the sweaters. They can be plaids, checks, or solids, and you can make interesting combinations by wearing a contrasting jacket.

You'll certainly want a suit. The new town models have a short fitted coat over which is worn a tweed topcoat trimmed in a large fur collar. They are especially adaptable to the needs of college girls. Girls at the Texas State College for Women (CIA) find them excellent for week end football games. In addition, you should have a sport coat for the classes—something casual in camel hair or the like.

An afternoon dress that can be worn to teas, college functions, or for dinner in town is a necessary item, and some of the wool shirt-

Dryden News

Mrs. Roy Haley Correspondent

Oscar Bentley and family were in Dryden on business Saturday. Richard Haley and Buck McCain are on Pink Sherrod's ranch this week helping to build a rock tank.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Kessler returned the last of the week from a three weeks visit in Fort Worth and Dallas; also in Houston and San Antonio, and are now busy telling us all about what they is to be seen at the Centennial.

Mrs. John Taylor was in Del Rio Tuesday and Wednesday on business.

Roy Haley made a flying trip to Del Rio Wednesday where he attended to business matters.

There were 102 decks of fat lambs shipped from Dryden during the month of August, being consigned to different points of the country. Shipping here still continues.

Hollis Haley is home this week visiting for a few days before he leaves for Lubbock to enroll at Texas Tech. Richard Haley and Edwin Smith will also attend that school. They will leave Saturday, September 15.

Myrtle Carter, employed at the Loma Alta cafe for some time, resigned her position this week, and after Saturday, Sept. 5, will be at the Maybell Beauty shop, and will be glad to see her friends when in need of beauty work.

3,000,000th at Exposition Feted

Mary Ellen Twitty, a 10-year-old Dallas lassie, was feted by the Texas Centennial Exposition because she was the 3,000,000th visitor. Presents and free entrance into all the exhibits made the day a memorable one for the Miss, who was driven through the exposition grounds in the famous 3,000,000 V-8 Ford, now on exhibition at the Ford Motor Company's exposition building.
