George Ochoa Crash Victim

Young Mexican Says Greely Haywire; Dies Shortly After Accident at Street Intersection

One night without a bed in which to sleep, and only one meal did not prove so satisfying to David Zepeda, 14, of this place, who left home some time Monday afternoon to follow the advice of Horace Greely: "Go West, Young Man, Go West." Getting as far as Valentine the young man became very hungry, and it was while cutting wood for an elderly lady there that he decided that home was the best place after all, and when the first freight train, heading east, came along he boarded it, reaching his home early Wednesday morning. His explanation to his mother for his absence was that he thought "he wanted to see the world, but had changed his mind." Young Zepeda was not missed until late Monday evening and, after a diligent search for him, local officers were notified of his disappearance, and on Tuesday morning a search was instituted. The youth, who is attending the ward school here, seems very interested in his studies, and his family were at a loss as to why he should leave home.

Social Security Forms Delivered To Employers

Blank forms, to be filled out by employers, were received by the different business firms here on Monday of this week, through the local postmaster, Clyde Griffith. They must be filled out and returned to the postmaster on or before Saturday, November 21. The information called for on the form is required under Treasury regulations for use in establishing basic records under the Social Security Act, which will be put into effect January 1, 1937. After employers make their reports stating the number of employees he has engaged, blanks will be delivered to him for each individual employe. Each employe will fill out his blank and return it to the post office, where each will be assigned a federal number.

President's Thanksgiving Message

The following is the full text of President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving proclamation.

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the 26th day of November, 1936, as a day of national Thanksgiving.

The observance of a day of general thanksgiving by all the people is a practice peculiarly our own, hallowed by usage in the days before we were a nation and sanctioned through succeeding years.

Having safely passed through troubled waters, it is our right to express our gratitude that Divine Providence has vouchsafed us wisdom and courage to overcome adversity. Our free institutions have been maintained with no abatement of our faith in them.

In our relations with other peoples we stand not aloof but make resolute effort to promote international friendship and, by the avoidance of discord, to further world peace, prosperity and happiness.

Coupled with our grateful acknowledgement of the blessings it has been our privilege to enjoy, we have a deepening sense of our solemn responsibility to assure for ourselves and our descendants a future more abundant in faith and in security.

Let us, therefore, on the day appointed, each in his own way, but together as a whole people, make due expression of our thanksgiving and humbly endeavor to follow in the footsteps of Almighty God.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 12th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1936, and of the Independence of the United States of America the 161st.

(Signed)
FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

WAS 82 MONDAY

C. F. Cox, Sr., celebrated his 82nd anniversary Monday. One of west Texas' early settlers, Mr. Cox is still spry and mentally alert at this advanced age. The day was quietly spent at his home and thoughtful reminders from his children made it a happy occasion. He had one special wish, however. As the day ushered in another span for him it also ushered in the deer season and he yearned for a "mess of venison."

The thrilling new Universal serial "The Phantom Rider," with Buck Jones in the leading role, which will begin tonight, Friday, Nov. 20, at the Princess Theatre, deals with the efforts of a band of outlaws to gain possession of valuable ranch lands and a gold mine in anticipation of the building of a railroad. Mystery, suspense and fast action are said to be skilfully blended, with the lone Phantom rider waging a fight against the outlaws. A strong cast supporting Buck Jones insures good entertainment throughout the 15 episodes, one of which will be shown every Friday and Saturday.

Cooperation In Filing Returns is Urged by Dept.

Austin.—The first step toward the collection of taxes under the Social Security Act in the First Texas district was taken by Frank Scofield, collector of internal revenue, with the distribution of 30,000 forms to a list of possible taxpayers. They are for employers of eight or more persons not in agricultural or livestock work or domestic service in a private home. The act does not apply to employees of the federal or state governments or any political subdivision of these, such as cities, counties or school districts.

Mr. Scofield explained in a statement issued here that his present lists probably are not complete and that many returns doubtless will be sent to some of those who are not liable for the tax and that many others who are liable will not receive a blank until they ask for it. He urges that all who receive forms study them carefully to determine if they are liable for the tax, and if so that they will fill out the return carefully and accurately after January 1, 1937, and mail it to his office in Austin, together with the tax due, so that it will reach here not later than January 31.

Employers who fail to get a blank and who employ eight or more persons not in the excepted class are urged to communicate with the collector immediately and request a blank. Failure to receive a form, unless requested, does not relieve an employer of liability for the tax and for penalties in case of delay in filing return. The returns are made on Form 940. The period covered by the forms just distributed is the calendar year 1936 and the rate is 1 per cent of an employer's total payroll of those not in the excepted classes.

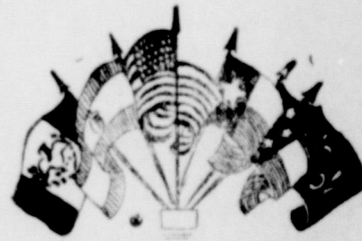

It is the tax levied under this title for which Texas employers may get credits of 90 per cent of the federal tax if such 90 per cent is actually paid into the state unemployment fund under the act passed by the last special session of the Texas legislature. The state payment must have been made before the credit may be claimed.

1835—The Provisional Government Council enacted legislation on Nov. 19 to purchase food clothing and other supplies for the army.

1835—On Nov. 21 the first from the United States to join the Texas revolutionary forces arrived near San Jacinto.

1836—An act was passed by the First Congress of the Texas Republic on Nov. 16 to enable President Houston to appoint a minister to the United States. He appointed William H. Wharton.

1864—On Nov. 15 an act was passed making it a penal offense for any officer to prevent a prisoner from consulting a lawyer. This indicated the extremity to which arbitrary military power had been stretched.

Former Angelo Druggist to Reopen In Building Occupied By Eveready

Calvert Curry of San Antonio arrived here last week, and this week is busily repainting, remodeling and otherwise getting the building formerly occupied by the Eveready Pharmacy in shape. Mr. Curry has leased this building and in a few days will reopen it as a model drug store.

Mr. Curry is an experienced druggist, having been associated with his brother at San Angelo in a similar business for many years. He has been a registered druggist for nine years. He is a son of Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Curry of Franklin, Texas, his father being a practicing physician for 38 years. His father-in-law, Cam Longley, is engaged in the ranching business in this county, near Pumpville. Mr. Curry came to Sanderson highly recommended in his particular line of business.

"It is my intention to put in a complete line of pharmaceutical and medicinal drugs," Mr. Curry stated, "and I will be in position to fill any doctor's prescription, using only the purest of drugs."

In addition to handling a complete line of drugs and sundries, he stated he will also handle a line of candies, cigars, cigarettes, tobaccos, soft drinks and ice cream.

Nimrods to Happy Hunting Grounds; Deer are Reported Plentiful and Fat

The opening of the deer and turkey season on Monday of this week found many hunters from all sections of the state passing through Sanderson, enroute to the hunters' mecca—the Big Bend and the Davis mountains, where they hope to bag their share of venison. Fine range conditions have maintained throughout the late summer and early fall, and deer are reported plentiful and in prime condition. However, the only turkeys in this section of the state are those in some rancher's back yard. Wild turkeys are unknown in the Big Bend and Davis mountains, although many efforts have been made to plant them in those areas.

The season on black-tailed deer is very short, lasting but fifteen days, or until November 30. But the season on white-tailed deer is open from Nov. 16 through December. This applies also to wild turkey. Open season on quail is from December 1 to January 16.

Many local hunting parties have been out this week, but just who brought in the first deer of the season was not learned.

'Twas This Way

By LYLE SPENCER

Wrapped in Cellophane

LITERALLY everything from darning needles to oil-burning furnaces are delivered wrapped in cellophane. The last ten years have seen the rise of this amazing paper which has brought millions to its exploiters and a new sales argument to manufacturers.

The honor of its discovery belongs to Dr. J. E. Brandenberger, a Swiss chemist who was born in 1872 and educated at the University of Bern. Along about 1900, while he was working in a textile factory in France, his boss gave him the job of inventing a tablecloth impervious to dirt.

In trying to produce such an ideal fabric, he stumbled on the idea of combining very thin sheets of viscose with sheets of cotton cloth. The tablecloth was no good but the thin sheets of viscose proved to be a swell idea. It was the beginning, as Dr. Brandenberger called it, of the cellophane.

Cellophane is essentially viscose or modified cellulose solidified into thin sheets instead of threads as in rayon or artificial silk. Rayon and cellophane are made by the same process from the same materials, and are really the same thing except that one is in threads and the other in sheets.

Neither rayon nor cellophane amounted to much until a way was found to make them moisture-proof. Since then their rise has been rapid, although neither is yet the perfect product it someday will be.

WILL STUDY IN ILLINOIS

Lee Hardgrave left Thursday morning for Peoria, Illinois, and will enter the Bradley Polytechnic Institute, and take a course in watchmaking and jewelry. Lee is very talented in this line of work and his Sanderson friends know he will make a success of his work there.

Coming Attractions at the Princess

'SING, BABY, SING, IS NEW HIT FROM 20TH HIT MINT

With Alice Faye swinging torchy new tunes and romancing with Michael Whalen, Adolphe Menjou going daffy and roaming around in his nightie, Gregory Ratoff, the demon dialectician who mangles the English language, the king and queen of comedy, Ted Healy and Patsy Kelly smashing all laugh records, and the Ritz Brothers bringing a new kind of musical clowning to the screen, "Sing, Baby, Sing," will come to the Princess Theatre tonight and Saturday.

The play is laugh-jammed and the laughing starts right in the opening scenes and only the sizzling songs and romantic love-making provide interludes from the side-splitting mirth.

Ratoff, a theatrical agent, aided by his secretary, Patsy Kelly, and Ted Healy, his stooge, is vainly trying to get a new job for Alice Faye, who has been fired from a night club.

On her last night at the club Menjou disrupts her performance by insisting on putting on the balcony scene of Romeo and Juliet. Ratoff visualizes big publicity and calls in the newspaper reporters headed by Michael Whalen, but Menjou finally winds up in an alcoholic ward. Ratoff way of crashing in to see him is by having Healy pose as Menjou's personal physician.

Menjou is now ready to promise anything for a drink, but buy rum is all Ratoff can get for him, telling him it is "South American brandy."

Whalen, who has fallen in love with Miss Faye, believes she is just another gold digger and he writes a scathing story about her and Menjou that brings Menjou's manager speedily from the coast. In the meantime Ratoff has obtained a contract for Miss Faye, on a coast-to-coast network, providing Menjou will appear with her on the opening program.

CHARLIE CHAN RACES IN NEW MYSTERY HIT

Neck and neck with death, half way round the world, Charlie Chan races a ruthless murderer in his most baffling case in this interesting series, entitled, Charlie Chan at the Race Track, a 20th Century-Fox picture coming to the Princess Theatre Monday, November 23.

Opening with the thrilling Melbourne sweepstakes in Australia, the scene of the film races across the Pacific, where the murderer first strikes, to Honolulu and then Los Angeles, with Chan on the killer's trail.

Chan encounters thrilling and exciting experiences during the chase. A huge gambling ring that stops at nothing has switched the favorite in the Santa Juanita handicap with an inferior horse.

Chan alone discovers the fact, but the killer kidnaps the wily Chinese sleuth the day of the big race. Chan is faced with an infrared ray dart that kills with the speed of light and a deadly foam emitting venomous poison. By a ruse Chan escapes from his captor, and arrives at the track just as the big race is about to start, and the murderer is about to strike again.

Warner Oland is featured as Charlie Chan and is supported by an admirable cast.

"RAMONA" FILMED IN PERFECT TECHNICOLOR

Adapted to the screen from Helen Hunt Jackson's immortal love idyll, "Ramona," Twentieth Century-Fox picture produced in the new perfected Technicolor, comes on Thursday and Friday, November 26-27 to the Princess Theatre.

"Ramona" is a picture fairly teeming with romance—fiestas, fandangos, songs, roses, secret trysts, mission belle, stolen kisses, tears, love and laughter. It is one of the greatest love stories ever unfolded on the screen. All the rainbow beauty of adventure-crowded California of the early days have been recaptured and again, as of old, Ramona goes to meet love in the purple dusk.

Loretta Young and Don Ameche heads the cast of screen favorites including Kent Taylor, Jane Darwell, Pauline Frederick, Katherine De Mille and John Carradine, with supporting players to run into the thousands.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Watts, Mrs. S. H. Underwood and son Ross, Mrs. Pat Beard and Miss Kate Frazier spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Garrison at Pumpville.

Current Comment

By Vaunceil Henderson You hear all this about the holidays now, but just wait! After Christmas there will be that long five months without a break.

The first thing one says when you mention a test is "Did you pass it?"

I've heard talk of a Spanish class after school. None other than the present Juniors. Have mercy, Miss Leah!

Don't look out of the window, Jack—(Bogusch).

Please get your budget up by Friday, typists, as Miss Childers can't stay up there with you every evening, much less on Saturdays.

We actually will be glad to see some new books in the library.

If the Sanderson Times comes up with that back sheet blank some of these days, you'll know the reporters weren't in a mood to write.

We want the volleyball girls to beat those Marathon girls when they come up here; we're all for you.

Wasn't Jimmy cute in that little dress? I'll bet the boys sure do chide you about it, Jimmy.

The sad part of it is that some rascals want their nickels back. It does me a nickel's worth of good to laugh that much!

The game Friday will be the last one this year. So let's make it a big affair.

First Grade

The first graders had a very happy experience Monday afternoon. They took their readers home for the first time, to enjoy them with their parents.

Lowell Jessup is now enjoying the story about his pets with his grandmother. He took the chart page and sentence strips home for his grandmother to see.

Jeanette Cobb and Willy Griggs brought plants to school.

The class planted some bulbs last Friday. Billy Carter, Warren Neil Webb and Avis McDonald brought suitable soil for the bulbs. Benjamin Carpenter and Edward Chastain brought shovels which were necessary in planting the bulbs.

The class is enjoying the health program under Miss Moore's supervision.

Shorthorn-Eagle Game at Park, 3 This Afternoon

The Marfa Shorthorns and the Sanderson Eagles will scratch it out for the final game of the season for the Eagles today at Legion Park. The game was originally scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 21, but was changed to this afternoon at 3:30. This is a return game—an annual affair between the two schools.

In the first game the Shorthorns poured it on the Eagles, but the statement is again made that it was the first game some of our boys ever played in. They've had plenty of experience since then, so the Shorthorns will have to watch out.

We would like to see as many as that ball park can hold out there this afternoon. If you cannot find parking space, you may perch on the rodeo chutes and root until your lungs burst.

The Eagle regulars will start the game, and it is probable that Bogusch will be at his post in the backfield.

Nurse Sets Dates For Vaccination In Health Move

Reports signed by Miss Ruth Moore, itinerant county health nurse, are being handed to pupils and mailed to parents this week. Miss Moore also announced her definite program for the remainder of her stay here which includes dates for special vaccinations to be given and tests to be made.

This week regular physical examinations are being made of the grammar grade students by Miss Moore, assisted by Dr. W. H. Doty county health officer, and Dr. P. W. Mallory, physician. Last week vision tests were made by Miss Moore of children in the town's three schools. This week physical examinations are being made and next Tuesday, Nov. 24, smallpox vaccinations will be given those pupils in the Mexican school whose parents desire it done and have signed slips to that effect.

The vaccinations will be given in the American schools Wednesday, Nov. 25. The children of Dryden school are included in the general health program.

Periods Schedule Revised to Allow Pupils See Game

Classes will begin at 8:45 this morning and school will be dismissed at 3:30 this afternoon for the scheduled Marfa-Sanderson football game to be played on the local gridiron this afternoon. The game will be called at 3:30, sharp.

All six periods will be met in high school today according to the regular schedule. The lunch period will be shortened to 45 minutes; classes begin at 12:45 instead of 1:00.

The Marfa football game is the final game of the season and is a return game. Sanderson played its first football game of the season in Marfa on September 26.

MEMBERS OF DRAMATIC CLUB PRESENTS PROGRAM

By Mildred Hurst The proceeds from the first pay chapel program, sponsored by the dramatics club Tuesday morning were $8.76. The program was in observance of the National Book week, and the money will be used to buy new books for the library.

The club presented two short skits from plays, one from O. Henry, the other from "A Midsummer Night's Dream," Shakespeare. Pupils from high school and grammar school and several visitors attended assembly.

Taking part in the play were Jimmy Goodykoontz, Adair Edmiston, Lorene Ross, Emma Fay Harris, Marjorie Canon, Margaret Gregory, Ruth Murrach, Wesley Lochausen, and Maxine Claffelter. Miss Leah directed the play.

Do You Know How to Study?

One of the most frequent causes given for failure of pupils in their work in both college and high school is that they do not know how to study. In order to be successful in the business of going to school—the business of studying—the pupil must know how to use the tools of study which are the tools of the trade of going to school. These tools are time, teachers and books. Do you know how these may aid you?

Make time serve you. Do not waste it. Do not put off until tomorrow that task which should be done today. Only a certain amount can be learned each day. The process of learning cannot be rushed too rapidly. Budget your time wisely by setting aside a certain amount of time each day for study and then actually use that time in study, not in dreaming or sleeping.

Teachers are employed to aid you in learning. Some pupils expect the teachers to do all the learning and then let the pupil merely come in on the finished product to enjoy the results of the work. Teachers can guide and direct you in your study. Do you go to them for help when you need it, or do you merely place all the responsibility of your success or failure upon the teacher? Teachers can merely aid you. They cannot do your mental development and study for you.

Finally, the most important tools of learning are books. In books there is stored up all the knowledge of the human race. The individual's success in school depends to a great extent upon his ability to get information and ideas from books. This is still true in spite of any new curriculum or plans which may be proposed for the public school. The pupil who knows how to read well silently has the advantage in study. Do you know how to use good books intelligently?

H. E. News

By Sarah Kelly

The first year H. E. class has been studying breakfasts and cooking foods which are used on breakfast menus. After serving several breakfasts among themselves they decided to have one for their mothers. Friday morning, Nov. 15, the class gave this breakfast.

The table was laid with a white linen cloth with yellow chrysanthemums for centerpiece. The menu consisted of grapefruit, baked eggs, bacon, Post bran muffins, butter, and coffee.

Those present were Mesdames J. S. Nance, R. H. Murrach, E. P. Halley, B. Canon, E. H. Hardgrave, R. D. Holt, S. M. Mims and Clyde Higgins. Mr. Holt and Mr. Smith were invited guests.

HOLIDAYS, HURRAH!

School will turn out Wednesday evening, November 25 for the Thanksgiving holiday and will not take up until Monday, Nov. 30.

The Christmas holidays begin on December 22, and we will all be back to school on January 4, 1937, a new year.

WHO'S WHO IN THE EAGLE TEAM

We often hear some girl or person say "I didn't know he played football," or, "I thought he played football." So, in an effort to acquaint you with our football heroes, we give you "Who's Who in S. H. S. Football."

ALBERT APPEL: Co-captain and guard; weight 160 pounds; 2-year letterman; senior; No. 6. "Red" is playing his third and last year with the Eagle squad, and was elected co-captain this year. He is the only two-letter man on the team. He leads every offensive play and also plays a mighty defensive tackle.

JACK BOGUSCH: Co-captain and quarterback; weight 170 lbs.; letterman and reserve; senior; his number is 7. Jack, also playing his last year with the team, was shifted from end to the signal-calling post. Elected co-captain with Albert, he calls every play while in the game. He does all the passing and his share of the running. Plays a defensive half.

JOE KFRR: Tackle; weight 180 pounds; letterman; senior; number 8. Joe can always be depended upon to play a great game and has stopped many a play at the line of scrimmage. This year he drops back in the backfield to kick the ball out of danger.

JAMES ALLEN: End; weight 145 pounds; letterman; senior; his is number 17. Coach Smith converted "Windy" or "Nell" from a tackle to an end this year and it looked as if he found his calling. He is one of the best offensive ends in the district, and made many a gain for the Eagles this year. He plays a defensive end also.

PAT SULLIVAN: Center; he weighs 140 pounds; senior; number 4. Sully is playing his first and last year, as he is the first senior on the team. He has filled the important position of center, also showed he was able to play end and in the backfield. Plays

Ticket Sale Ends This Week; Fish Have Slight Lead

By Pat Harris

Well, folks, the final game of the season is right in front of you. It marks the end of the season for the Eagles and the close of the ticket sales contest among classes in high school.

At the beginning of the sale there were four home games, but the McCamey game was switched to McCamey, so we've had but three home games.

In the sales of the last two games interest of Sanderson people showed a slight decline. This shouldn't happen. We should try to build up instead of tear down. So buy a ticket and be at the game this afternoon and see the scratching and goring between the Eagles and Shorthorns.

In the contest, up to date, the Freshman class has a nice lead over the other classes. The seniors are closing in fast on them, however, and gained quite a bit in the last sale.

So buy a ticket from a member of some class and help decide the Winnah!

SCRIBES CHANGE DATE

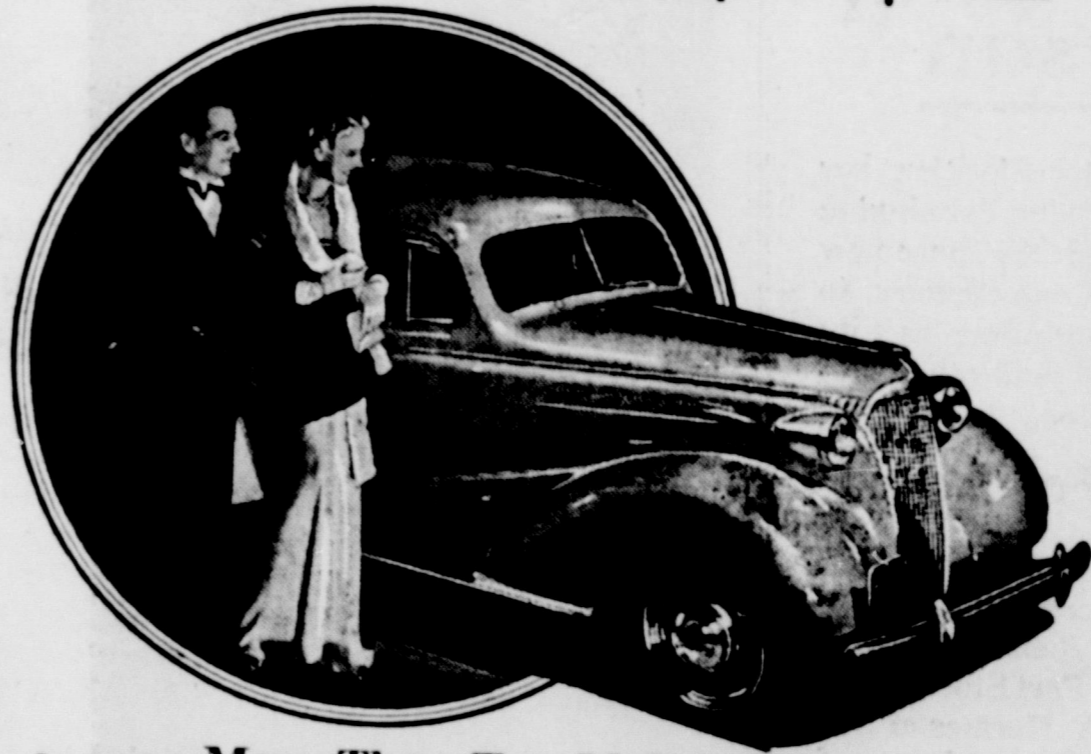

The Newspaper club meeting date has been changed to each Friday of the week instead of Monday, at 11:30, so that members will have more time to get up their newspaper reports.

anywhere on defense but it makes no difference in the number of tackles he gets.

ESSARY HAINES: Fullback; weight 150 pounds; letterman and reserve; number 2. "Brains" is the only one of last year's lettermen who will be back next year. He has made many a gain thru the middle of the line, and is the outstanding blocker in the backfield. He backs up the line on defense where he gets a nice percentage of tackles.
