Bank Appropriation to Purchase Land

Stonson-Winfield Bill Would Speed Creation of Big Bend National Resort

Feb. 20.—Investment of $1,400,000 to produce a permanent park said will exceed a million dollars annually from tourists, and in a bill Rep. Coke Stevenson introduced on Feb. 20, to purchase land for establishment of the Big Bend National Park. A companion bill was introduced in the Senate by H. L. Winfield of Fort Stockton.

More than six million people visited the 26 National Parks in this year, Rep. Stevenson said. "Many such tourists would be attracted to the Big Bend if that area became a National Park. It would mean increased revenues to the entire state, through the collection of gasoline taxes, and the hotel accommodations, and other purchases."

The bill would produce this added annual revenue, and the bill would have to appropriate $1,400,000 to purchase the 788,000 acres with boundaries that have been established for the park, the state owns approximately 140,000 acres of this land, in the acreage to be purchased. There is no railroad through it. It is a wilderness of great frontiers of Texas, rich in scenic values and which prompted congress in 1908 to pass legislation to purchase our Texas de-authorized its establishment of a National Park, provided that Texas would acquire land and deed it to the national parks. The government cannot purchase land to establish national parks. Rep. Stevenson, former speaker of the house, said that travel agencies estimate the average tourist in America spends five dollars a day in the park. The revenue would come from expenditures by tourists in maintenance, and pay rolls. Big Bend would be an all-year around area National Parks like the other, are open and used for months in the year. The revenue values along main roads would be increased by Big Bend to an extent that many would exceed by many $1,400,000 the Legislature asked to appropriate. Stevenson pointed out that no legislation is required for the park, that development through construction its maintenance, and its would be taken over by the national Park Service. It is certain of big annual revenue from a small investment—statement that should be the present session of the Legislature."

SPONSORS PARK BILL

Senator Winfield, Fort Stockton
Who this week introduced a bill in the Senate to appropriate funds for purchase of land in the Big Bend area, to be converted into a national park. Coke Stevenson of Junction introduced a similar measure in the house.

Administrators of School Chosen for 1937-1938 Term

At a recent meeting of the Sanderson School Board, the superintendent, all principals and the athletic coaches were re-elected for the 1937-38 school term. They are as follows: R. D. Holt, superintendent; Duane Smith, high school principal and coach; Bernice Morgan, elementary school principal; Perry Dawson, principal of Sanderson Mexican school, and A. B. Caraway, high school mathematics teacher, assistant football coach and head basketball coach.

The election of regular teachers will take place at a later meeting of the board.

Members of the school board present at this meeting were: R. H. Murrah, president; W. H. Savage, secretary, and Bustin Canon.

Members and EOS Celebrate Birthday of George Washington

Members of the local Masonic Order of Eastern Star held a joint meeting here last night at the Masonic hall in celebration of Washington's birthday. A pleasant social hour was held during which many games were played, and patriotic songs were sung. Refreshments of coffee, cake and coffee were served to the large number in attendance.

HOLIDAY OBSERVED

Monday, February 22, George Washington's birthday, was observed as a holiday here by the Sanderson State Bank, the post office and the Western Union. In the morning an appropriate program was sponsored by the Masonic and O. E. S. at the hall.

REPAIRMENT OF NEW FORDS

Mr. Ferguson, local Ford dealer, delivered a car of the 1937 model on Monday afternoon. The repairment consisted of four new tires on three of the 85-horsepower models, and one 60-horsepower model. On Tuesday he delivered one of the 85-horsepower models to Mrs. Duane Smith, and another to E. W. Hardgrave.

County Agent is Here; Calls Meet Tomorrow at 10

Ernest L. Williams, recently appointed county agent for Terrell county, arrived here last Saturday and has taken up his duties in connection with the soil conservation program that is being carried out by the U. S. Department of Agriculture under the direction of Secretary H. A. Wallace. Mr. Williams was formerly county agent of Frio county with headquarters at Pearsall.

Mr. Williams has called a meeting of all Terrell county ranchers to be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of acquainting the ranchmen with the different phases of the conservation program, and to organize, so that actual work may get underway at once.

Stockton Gagers Cop Dist. Honors For Second Time

Fort Stockton.—Though but few schools were represented in the games last Friday night, fans of this place and those who accompanied the visiting teams enjoyed thrills a-plenty and witnessed all teams doing their level best to cop honors of the district.

Ozona, who thrilled crowds in every one of its games in district championship play, went into the finals with Fort Stockton, and were nosed out by the narrow margin of one point the score being 26 to 25, and gave the Fort Stockton teams its second district championship in a row.

The First Games of the Meeting Were Barstow vs. Toyah, and Alpine vs. Ozona. Emerging with Wins were Ozona and Barstow.

Fort Stockton and Sanderson had drawn byes, and in semi-final play Fort Stockton, pitted against Barstow, won an easy victory to the tune of 33 to 21. Ozona waded through to semi-final honors, first downing Alpine and then, by a last minute rally downed Sanderson, 32 to 29. Placing Sanderson in the consolation bracket against Alpine, who rallied from his defeat by Ozona in the early play, to upset Toyah, 26 to 15.

In consolation play Alpine won over Sanderson, 34 to 15.

Trophies were awarded to Fort Stockton, champion; Ozona, runner-up, and Alpine, consolation.

Good Progress on Dryden-Sheffield Road Reported

John Stovell, engineer in charge of construction on re-routing the Dryden-Sheffield road, in an interview Tuesday night, stated good progress has been made in the past few weeks, notwithstanding the lack of heavy machinery, which would speed up the work.

At present a crew of about 27 men are at work at a point called the Sheffield hill, about 6 or seven miles from the town of Sheffield. A goodly part of the hill has been put in shape, and it is expected will be completed by the end of next month. After that, according to Mr. Stovell, the work will rapidly move to completion. At present the only tools used in the construction work are picks and shovels, a tractor, scarifier and a grader.

The completion of this road will save the residents in this section many miles traveling to San Angelo and town to the north.

REGULAR MEETING OF P. T. A. NEXT THURSDAY

The next regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held Thursday, March 4, at 4 o'clock. Duane Smith principal of the high school, will be the leader, and the subject will be "Cooperativeness."

Other features will be music by the high school band and special music by Miss Louise Taylor, and a number by 6th grade pupils.

ABOUT OUR LIBRARIES

Denton.—Did you know that if every individual in the State of Texas would try to draw one book out of the 56 public libraries there would be four people to every book. Of the thirty-six cities in Texas above 10,000 in population, seven do not have tax-supported libraries, and 2,800 rural communities are without library facilities.

Considerable progress has been made in recent years in the building of libraries for the use of the general public and in educational institutions, but the State is still deficient as measured by standards of the older commonwealths.

The library work of the State is administered by the State Library and Historical Commission. Under it the state library, which is housed in the capitol, has been built to a collection of approximately 180,000 volumes. It is next to the library of the University of Texas in size. The Houston public library contains 162,081 volumes; the Dallas public library 123,448; San Antonio public library, 112,852; Carnegie public library, Fort Worth, 108,667.

In 41 colleges and universities of the state there are 35 books to every student enrolled. The University of Texas library, with almost 500,000 volumes, is the largest in the state, and also possesses a number of notable collections. Next to the University of Texas, Rice Institute, Houston, has the largest college library with 118,700 volumes; Southern Methodist University 85,000, Baylor, 65,216, Texas A. & M. 52,728, and Texas State College for Women 50,500.

Mrs. Ketchum, 69 Well Known Here Dies in S. Angelo

Funeral services were held in San Angelo last Friday afternoon for Mrs. Berry Ketchum, 69, pioneer West Texan and wife of an early day ranchman of the Pecos country. Mrs. Ketchum died at a San Angelo hospital on Thursday after an attack of pneumonia.

Born July 25, 1869, Mrs. Ketchum was married in May, 1889 at San Saba, and came to Knickerbocker with Mr. Ketchum. The couple resided at the Birch Creek ranch, now part of the XQZ ranch. There they resided for 14 years. Mr. Ketchum raised cattle and horses.

The couple moved to a ranch west of Sheffield in the Pecos country later. Mr. Ketchum died in 1914.

Mrs. Ketchum was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. She made her home recently with a daughter, Mrs. Clyde A. Bowen, Sterling City.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Gus Duncan, Kingman, Arizona; Mrs. Haskell W. Cathey of Rankin; Mrs. Bowen of Sterling City; two sisters, Mrs. John Girvin, San Angelo, and Mrs. Henry Ketchum, San Saba; and 8 grandchildren. Burial was in Fairmount cemetery, San Angelo.

The Ketchum family were well known in this section, their ranch being located a few miles across the Terrell county line.

BROTHER DIES IN LUBBOCK

Mrs. J. W. McKee received a message Wednesday morning that her brother, Edgar Overstreet of Lubbock, had died in that city Tuesday night. She and Mr. McKee left immediately for Lubbock to attend the funeral which was held Thursday. Mr. Overstreet formerly resided in this section of the country.

Another brother, H. W. Overstreet, of Del Rio, met Mr. and Mrs. McKee here early Wednesday morning and accompanied them to Lubbock.

TAKING EXAMINATION

Roy Milton Bogusch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bogusch, left last Saturday for Austin, and this week is taking examinations before the Texas Bar association for permit to practice law in Texas. Roy is a graduate of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., being a member of the class of '35.

Bishop Boaz Will Hold Revival at Fort Stockton

On Wednesday of this week, in Fort Stockton, began a revival meeting, which will be conducted by Bishop Hiram A. Boaz, and Dr. C. C. Hightower, presiding elder, according to the Pioneer, published in that city. The meeting will be held at the Methodist church.

The article continues:
"Bishop Boaz, widely known as an educator and leading churchman all over the Southwest, has been to Fort Stockton numerous times in the past, but the securing of a full week of his time is considered an outstanding achievement for a church in a town Fort Stockton's size."

Dr. Boaz is bishop of the West Texas-New Mexico conference, and his home is in Fort Worth. Dr. Hightower, also well known in this section, resides at Roswell, N. M., and is presiding elder of the Roswell district. He will be in charge of the revival from Wednesday of this week until Saturday, and Bishop Boaz will take charge Sunday, Feb. 28, for the remainder of the week.

Both men are well known in Sanderson and it is likely that many of our people will take this opportunity of hearing them during the revival.

Returns Under S. S. Act Bust Be In By Feb. 28th

Guy Bunting, deputy collector, of El Paso, was in Sanderson Wednesday assisting those who needed help in filling out their income tax and social security tax reports.

Mr. Bunting stressed the fact that this was the last week in which employes' and employers' taxes, imposed by Title VIII of the social security act, must be paid. The tax, together with report must reach the office of the Internal Revenue at Austin by the last day of February. He stated that all firms employing one or more persons must remit the tax. Those employed in agricultural and ranching, domestic service, service performed by an individual who has attained the age of 65, in the service of the U. S., or in the employ of a State, or political subdivision thereof are exempt from the tax.

TAKEN TO SAN ANTONIO HOSPITAL FOR TREATMENT

E. M. Thornton, father of Miss Marjorie Thornton, teacher of Spanish in our high school, was taken to San Antonio last Saturday for medical treatment. Mr. Thornton sustained fracture of two vertebrae when a truck he was driving collided with a highway truck in Fort Stockton about two weeks ago.

Mr. Thornton's home is in Alpine and he passed through here on the S. P. train which arrives in Sanderson at 7 o'clock.

NEW BUSINESS

A new business was started in Sanderson last week when Mrs. Luella Lemons opened up at her home the cooking of and placing on the market Vita-sealed potato chips. In making the potato chips Mrs. Lemons uses only the best grade of potatoes and vegetable oil. The potato chips are being sold in Sanderson by all the stores and in several of the restaurants and cafes.

LIBERALIZE PENSION LAW

By a deciding vote this legislature this week passed a bill liberalizing the present system of distributing old age pensions. The plan includes a county setup, and the commissioners will be asked to gather data regarding the need of individuals in each county, and it is hoped that by this system aid will be given to those who are actually in want.

Column Right

"What fools these mortals be!"

—Shakespeare—or somebody. Went fishing last Friday. Set-up included us and Jack Caldwell, just from Idaho, but he has whipped out all the streams in Montana, Nebraska, and the Northwest generally. So we figured with such an expert, the fish were already in the sack. Next thing was to commandeer Martin Bodkin's flivver, vintage of '28, load in the provisions, and away. On the road it was coolish, so we had to lower the windshield. Couldn't see a foot through it—one of the first experiments in shatter-proof glass which, if left in the sun, melted the composition and left the driver in complete privacy as far as the road was concerned. So, up it went and we shivered the 42 miles to the river, arriving at famed Shafter's Crossing about 5 p. m., after losing the road to another point at which we intended to fish. No bedding, just about grub enough for two good meals, we were in a quandry—yes, that's it, a quandry—for the water up and down from the campsite sure looked good. We tossed up a quarter and decided to stay, open car and no bedding to the contrary. After a snack we set out about 30 or 40 hooks, well baited, and with rod and reel searched about 5 miles of that river without a strike. Darkness came, so we abandoned the rods, but until past midnight ran those lines with religious punctuality, and finally retired, by a roaring fire, propped against seat cushions. At 2 a. m. aching in every joint we arose to replenish the fire from time to time, and waited 176 hours until daylight. A run of the hooks disclosed the numbing fact that not one bait was missing, in fact they hadn't been tampered with. Sez I, "They didn't bite yesterday afternoon, they didn't bite during the night, we'll get 'em this morning; they've got to eat some time." But they fooled us. At noon the baits were just as when we put them in Friday p. m. Disgusted, we gathered up lines, kits, baggage and hied homeward. Never could figure why we didn't catch some fish—had bait both for the fishers and the fish. It's our last trip to that putrid stream, and our one ambition this side of Jordan is to lay hands on the galoot who in a moment of exotic idiocy called it "The Silvery Rio Grande."

We are thankful for one biographer of Washington. He said the general went through the rigors of war without being ruffled, but on a fishing trip he flew off the handle pronto if they fish did not bite. Proof, beyond a doubt, hat he was human.

Well, folks, as it has often been said: you don't have to be a fool to fall in love—but it sure helps.

The Anti-salooners are waging a campaign to oust all bartenders. Looks like they have an idea in that move. Take the woman element out of anything and the men begin to lose interest.

Monday night was a nightmare. About ten bells a herd of canines began a celebration or a free-for-all, which is all the same to dogs. Hardly had they subsided than the felines started on a jamboree. A cold sweat broke out on our forehead as we prayed that the next number would not be that choir chanting "Love Thy Neighbor."

Mumps to the right of us, Mumps to the left of us, Mumps on both sides of us, Make elders feel like a fool, They sure look swell, But they feel like —, Bu the kids with them yell, I won't have to go to school.

A bill is being introduced by our congressman, Ewing Thomas, asking that a tax of $1 be levied on imported sand. We hope it becomes law; maybe the grocers will keep it out of the sugar.

Lady took exception at our—she said wisecrack—at the jumpy judges on the supreme bench. "The constitution," said she "is a sacred document, and should not be tampered with." We reminded here that it has been tampered with some 20-odd times since the first writing, and needs the services of a good plumber now.

Bracketville.—What was believed to be a small meteor flashed low over Las Moras Park here about 4:30 o'clock Monday morning, according to reports. The meteor was accompanied by a loud explosion that shook buildings in the neighborhood, but searchers could find no trace of the missile from the sky.

Mrs. John Trotter Entertains Friends

Last Saturday evening, at her home, Mrs. John Trotter was hostess at a surprise party, given in honor of Mrs. Luella Lemons, whose birthday occurred on that day.

After the arrival of the invited guests, Mrs. Trotter passed out squares of paper on which were printed a different letter which, when pieced together spelled out "Happy Birthday." A huge birthday cake was then brought in, the candles on it being arranged in the form of a question mark.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Trotter's hospitality were Mesdames Luella Lemons, the honoree, E. B. Litton, N. E. Charlton, G. W. Carpenter, and Addie L. Boling; Mrs. Trotter's grandson, Charles Daniels, and Mrs. Lemons' grandson, Edward William Wheeler.

Tuesday Bridge Club Is Entertained

Mrs. B. Carson was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon bridge club when she entertained this week at the home of Mrs. L. A. Lowe. Pink stocks in an attractive vase was the decoration used in the living rooms where several interesting games of bridge were played.

Mrs. C. M. Breeding was holder of high score for the afternoon, and Mrs. Bustin Canon held second high score. Framed pictures were given as prizes.

A refreshment plate of sandwich loaf, pineapple salad, coconut macaroons and coffee was served by Mrs. Carson. Members of the club present were Mesdames W. A. Banner, Bustin Canon, Robert Duncan, Walter Grigsby, John Harrison, P. J. Holman, Mary Lou Kellar, Lee McCue, C. M. Breeding, Jim Nance, Austin Nance, D. A. Pollard, C. P. Peavy. Club guests were Mesdames L. A. Lowe, Max Bogusch, and J. C. Kern.

Missionary Society Holds Meeting

Mrs. John Neal was the cordial hostess to the Methodist Missionary society on Monday of this week. Mrs. Lewis Lemons led a program on "Christian Missions and World Health." She gave her listeners a vivid picture of the great work that is being done in the Orient by doctors and nurses.

Mrs. George Turner, who has been ill at her home here for several days, was taken to Del Rio last Thursday night for medical treatment.

Miss Nelle Lea spent several days in San Antonio this week visiting with friends.

Baptist W. M. U. Has Social Meeting

On Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ira Deaton, with Mrs. S. A. Cook as co-hostess, the regular social meeting of the W. M. U. of the Baptist church was held. Mrs. O. H. McAdams was the program leader and the topic for the meeting was "The Jew."

Refreshments of cherry jello salad, cookies, coffee and tea were served to the following members and visitors: Mesdames D. C. Bandy, O. H. McAdams, A. B. Dyer, Mary Lou Kellar, Maude Sullivan, H. E. Fletcher, R. H. Lewellen, W. M. Dyal, B. L. Van Cleave, Odie Wickliffe, Annie Nance, C. F. Stavley, E. E. Johnson, B. L. Van Cleave, A. D. Brown, O. T. Schupbach, J. L. Newton and Miss Una Lee.

Culture Club Will Meet Today

The postponed meeting of the Culture club will be held today (Friday) at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. John Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Odie Wickliffe were business visitors in Fort Stockton Tuesday.

Auxiliary Holds Regular Meeting

Mrs. W. E. Lea was hostess to the Auxiliary on Washington's Birthday, when the following members were present: Mesdames N. E. Charlton, W. E. Grigsby, W. R. Holland, P. J. Holman, J. H. Lochausen, McDuffy Kessler, J. V. McCall, J. W. McKee, Joe D. Nichols, Lee McCue, John Nichols, Eearl Pierson, D. A. Pollard, and W. H. Savage. Dr. McCall came for the social hour.

Mrs. Pollard took a picture of the group. Much business was dispatched as the church year will end in March. The Auxiliary will close its books with the budget more than met, all causes of the church having received an offering, and the local work was not neglected.

Mrs. W. E. Grigsby with the aid of Mesdames Earl Pierson, John Nichols, J. W. McKee and McDuffy Kessler led the members along African trails in a very vivid way—and the needs of the Congo were made very plain. Many members have read the study book "Congo Crosses," which opens eyes to the sorrows of the African woman. With prayers and songs and a devotional led by Mrs. W. H. Savage, this proved a meeting of more than usual interest.

Mrs. Lea served cherry pie with tea and coffee, while the group lingered for a happy social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vaughn and their niece, Miss Estelle Harris left for Valentine Thursday, where they were joined by Jeff Vaughn, and from there the party went to El Paso where they will spend the week end.

Mrs. Helen Downie and sons, and her mother, Mrs. Walter Gregory, who are spending the winter in San Antonio and where the boys are attending school, spent the week end at the Downie ranch. They motored here Friday and returned to San Antonio Monday afternoon.

Newton-McElroy Nuptials at Ft. Davis

On Wednesday afternoon, February 24, at Fort Davis, the marriage of Miss Quinnie McElroy of this city and Malcolm W. Newton of Valentine was solemnized.

The bride is well and favorably known here, having made Sanderson her home since last June. Previous to coming here she taught school in Valentine. While here she was employed at Kerr hotel and cafe.

The groom is from Valentine, and is employed in the car parts department of the T. & N. O. Ry. at that place.

Following a short wedding trip to Carlsbad Cavern and points in New Mexico and Arizona, the couple will return to Valentine to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Carruthers were in town from their ranch Monday and were guests for the day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Hicks and son spent the week end in town from their ranch on the Independence, visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Southall and daughter and Mrs. Hattie Southall of Eagle Pass spent the week end here visiting Mrs. D. T. Southall's mother, Mrs. Maude Sullivan.

Mrs. Russell Dyer was a visitor in Del Rio last Saturday going down to attend a party given by Mrs. Sam Draper at the Woman's Club in that city.

Mrs. Hugh Rose and daughter returned Wednesday from Del Rio after a visit of several days with her mother, Mrs. Judith Streigler.

Current Comment

Let me tell you folks, Saturday was a bad day to play volleyball, but the girls kept right on after each mouthful of dust was consumed.

She is just a quiet, simple little girl, never boasting or giving herself credit for nothing. She won first place in the typing contest at Marathon—Margaret Mims.

Mildred Hurst is getting pretty fast in shorthand. I wonder if she could take down one of Bert's speeches?

Do you ever stop to think how proud you should be of your school, its ready equipment and teachers willing to help you in every need?

The Marathon girls seem to have plenty of yells. You could hear everything from "Come on, Gang," "Let's Stop 'em Gang," to "That's all right, under it."

Bertha Mae O'Bryant never knows her lessons, or even what they are (she says), but just the same she generally has a little white card complimentary of the Princess Theatre each month.

First Grade

The class is enjoying the beautiful colors and the fragrance of five hyacinths which are now in bloom. The flowers have also been used in the art class in very satisfactory manner. The children have drawn some very nice hyacinths.

There have not been many absences for two weeks now, and there is very noticeable improvement in reading, numbers and writing since the attendance is better.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

Mildred Hurst
"The Elopement," the play the Dramatic Club is working on is well under way. The characters, four in number, have been assigned parts and are going around with a copy of "The Elopement" under their arms. Characters are Elizabeth Brown, Wesley Lochausen, Jimmy Goodykoontz and Mary Beth Banner. The play is rehearsed each day and will be given in chapel at an early date.

Dates of District Meet at Stockton Set for Apr. 9-10

At a meeting held in Ft Stockton last Saturday of representatives from this scholastic district, April 9 and 10 were the dates decided upon for holding the district meet which is always held in that city. In case of bad weather the committee decided that the meet would be held April 16-17.

A. B. Caraway acted for Sanderson in the drawing of opponents for the events in the district meet. In girls' debate Terrell county will meet Crockett county first. In girls' doubles in tennis Terrell county drew a bye and will play the winner of the Ward-Brewster counties set. Terrell county boys will play against Pecos in boys' doubles in the first games. In girls' singles Terrell county drew a bye and will play the winner of the Ward-Reeves counties game. In boys' singles in tennis Terrell will play Crockett in the first game.

Information concerning the 1-act play and boys' debate schedules has not been received.

Typing Students In Trial Contests With Marathon

In a practice typewriting contest held last Saturday in Marathon, seven representatives from the local high school participated. Marathon was represented by 3 students.

In the final scoring the results were: Margaret Mims placed first, Bertha Mae O'Bryant and Vauccell Henderson tied for second, and Bennie Mussey took third place. Other Sanderson students placing were Juanita Sibley fifth, Maria Bustamente sixth, and Ethel Laura Nance eighth. Marathon's representatives placed in fourth, seventh and ninth order.

Mrs. Jim Nance and Mr. W. D. O'Bryant furnished transportation for the contestants to Marathon. Marathon will come here to type in a return contest some time before the bi-county meet, March 19.

A Racquet From Morning til Night

Tennis seems to be the major sport of the hour! Morning, noon and night, one can see from ten to twenty boys and girls awaiting a turn to bat the balls back and forth across the tennis net.

One of the reasons given by the girls for taking up this healthful exercise is to reduce. They play tennis for two hours and a half, and then go home and eat as much as a working man. What price exercise! The boys say they play tennis to gain weight, and they are the ones that usually lose it instead of the poor girls.

This sport seems to be making good sports out of the students that are going out there. They play two games out of three, and the winning team takes on two other players. This shows that not any of the students are selfish enough to wish to keep the whole court to themselves.

We are anxiously awaiting for the other court to be finished. Until then—pleasant exercise!

Seniors Select Maroon - Silver As Class Colors

Maroon and silver were chosen as the class colors for this year's graduating class at a meeting last Wednesday afternoon. Nelle Lea, Mildred Underwood and Sammie Carter were members of the color committee.

The diploma committee's suggestion that the color of the backs of the diplomas be black leather, and that the lining be of burnt orange was accepted by the class. This is the high school color combination. Ribbons on the diplomas will be in these colors also. Jack Bogusch, Joe Kerr and Dorothy Lewellen formed the committee on colors.

Marathon Stages Comeback Over S. H. S. Volleyists

Dorothy Lewellen
Last Saturday afternoon in a wind and dust storm, the Sanderson volleyball team went to Marathon with their coach, Mrs. Ulbricht, for a return game there. Marathon defeated them in all three games by the following scores, 15-0, 15-9 and 15-13.

The following girls made the trip: Sammie Carter, Adair Edmiston, Benny Mussey, Pauline Bell, Nelle Lea, and Dorothy Lewellen, who acted as captain in the games.

In the first game it was hard for the Sanderson team to get accustomed to the outside court, to say nothing of the wind and dust. After the first try they went into a huddle and promised to do their best to win the following games. The score was brought up considerably, but too slow, to overcome the Marathonites, and they were defeated again. With the final game coming up Sanderson was either too stubborn or too proud to let Marathon take three in a row, remembering that "the third time is a charm." So in that spirit they started the final round with a zip that put them in the lead only to be beaten again by a final spurt on the part of the Marathon team, 15 to 13.

Marathon may come here this week end for a return game. If you read about this game come out and boost the volleyball girls. They need the public's interest and help.

George Washington

George Washington was born on 11, old style, or February 22, new style, 1732.

So great was his impression on the world, that strangers undertook to construct for Washington a suitable family tree. One of his genealogists wrote to Washington concerning his ancestry. He replied politely, giving the names of the Virginia Washingtons, but explaining that he knew practically nothing about the family in England.

In 1658, two brothers, John and Lawrence Washington, who had emigrated from Sulgrave in 1857, and settled at Bridges Creek, purchased lands in Westmoreland county, Va. John became prominent in the family. When he died he left a fair estate to the eldest son, Lawrence. Lawrence's second son was Augustine, who married first—Jane Butler. He had three sons and a daughter. The second wife was Mary Ball by whom he had four sons and two daughters. The eldest son of this second marriage was christened George.

George was leader among his boy friends. He was tall and muscular and matured early, both mentally and physically. He was a clever horseman, could outwalk or outrun any of his companions.

In 1759 George married the daughter of Col. John Handridge and widow of Daniel Parke Custis. When she married Washington she brought him a considerable amount of money.

From the cares of a Virginia landlord Washington's attention was soon distracted in 1798 by rumors of war with France. He was appointed commander-in-chief of the provisional army, and for many months busied himself with the details of organizing this new force. When the danger of war passed, he returned to his usual round of duties at Mount Vernon. There, on December 12, 1799, he was exposed in the saddle for several hours to cold and snow, with the result that he contracted acute laryngitis. The disease was a simple one, but according to the methods of the time, the chief remedy, which was useless, was bleeding. The doctors called the disease quinsy, but Washington's throat was closing and he was being slowly strangled to death, but he bore it all quietly, gave his last instructions clearly and concisely. Two days later he died.

The news of his death caused mourning in Europe as well as in America.

SHORTHAND STORY

Mildred Hurst
Stubby fingers, chewed pencils, harried expressions, and wild hair! Notice these symptoms among the pupils in high school? These characteristics denote a frenzied shorthand pupil.

One pupil said he had spent the first semester learning one thing and the next semester unlearning it. My, what a time those poor people are having. They have to take dictation at 60 words a minute, and be able to read it back. We could all take it at 100 words a minute, but the trouble of such a feat would be trying to read it back. There's a word missing here, or all the "f's" look like "v's," so everything is quite a jumble.

But, nevertheless, we all want to become excellent stenographers and go to State in shorthand, or even set a world's record, so we just take it and grin.

The Snooper

It's too bad the boys lost at the district meet, but we do have consolation that we lacked just three points of being as good as Ozona team, that went into the finals against Ft. Stockton, who took off all honors.

The speeches about the volleyball games in Marathon were grand, but no one mentioned we were beaten 15-0 in the first game until Mr. Holt called their attention to it.

Here's the question of the week: Ask Albert Appel where his senior ring is. I wonder what answer he'll give.

Julian O'Bryant had a hard time on Washington's Birthday. He was knocked out by a hobo, and the poor kid lost nearly a whole day of school. Which did he mind most: being knocked out or missing school?

We notice that Prince Dishman has been courting a little blonde girl from Marathon. Tell her to bring her girl friends next time, for Bob Lea.

Marjorie has a hard time trying to stay on the right side of her boy friends, but I notice she and Wilton Dishman were together the other night, so I suppose they've made up.

San Antonio must be a pretty good town, as Nelle Lea missed a couple of days of school this week.

What will the poor debate students do when they must begin practicing three times a week at night for about two hours? This is a question they will be trying to solve for now until district meet.

What has happened to our nice young romance in which James Allen was a participant? My, my, what a way to put it!

Assembly program are decreasing. We haven't had assembly in three weeks. These teachers need to put into use some of our grand talent in the Sanderson high school!

The new has not worn off the tennis court, because some students still have the energy to get to school before 8 o'clock in order to play tennis.

New typewriters have been placed in the typing room; so all the students who wondered where their 50 cents rental for typewriters was going can see for themselves. Seeing is believing.

At a senior meeting it was hard for them to decide on class colors, but finally ended up with maroon and silver. Boys, what colors!

The Junior class is really going to give the Senior class a big surprise this year. You may look forward to it, Seniors.

Extem Topics Are Received; Only 2 Students Entered

At present only two students have entered the extemporaneous speaking contest. They are Ethel Breg and James Allen. More are wanted to participate in this division of the bi-county meet work.

The supervisors for this division are Miss Martin and Mr. Holt.

A list is sent from Austin to each school with a few topics listed on it. The list sent to Sanderson school contains four main topics and five sub-topics upon which to speak. The following are the topics sent to Sanderson high school:

Texas History, State News, Farm Tenancy and The Spanish Civil War.

In all there are 40 main topics from which to draw. On the day of the tryouts the pupils draw one of these from the box, and he is then given a few minutes to prepare his speech on the subject he has drawn.

Next week more topics will be printed in this paper.

H. E. NEWS

By Ethel Lea Riley
Originally at home economic rallies only the clothing phases of the work were included, and the rally was called "The State Girls' Clothing Contest." In 1930 the name of the State meet was changed to "Homemaking Education Rally" in order that other important phases of the work could be included.

The emphasis in the rally has always been placed upon achievement by individuals. Excelling one's own record, we believe, is of much greater importance than winning over others.

The following is a record of the State Meets, with dates, places of meeting, and approximate number of contestants and teachers in attendance at each:

1919-20, Austin, 49; 1920-21, San Antonio, 150; 1921-22, Houston, 400; 1922-23, Fort Worth, 500; 1923-24, Galveston, 500; 1924-25, Austin, 600; 1925-26, Beaumont, 500; 1926-27, Waco, 500; 1927-28, San Antonio, 500; 1928-29, Dallas, 550; 1929-30, Houston, 500; 1930-1931, Lubbock, 400; 1931-32, Mineral Wells, 475; 1932-33, Mineral Wells, 800; 1933-34, Austin, 900; 1934-35, Corpus Christi, 880; 1935-36, San Angelo, 1180.

We are planning to enter the Rally this year which will be on April 29 to May 1.

Ruth Murrach and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Murrach, entertained members of the home economics club last Friday night at their ranch home with a Valentine party. The party originally was planned for the week of Valentine's day, but due to illness it was postponed one week.

Games and decoration were in the Valentine motif and a Valentine box was the main game of the evening.

Refreshments were served to Elizabeth Brown, Maxine Clatfelter, Adair Edmiston, Mary Beth Hardgrave, Ethel Laura Nance, Juanita Sibley, Ethel Lea Riley, Margaret Jane Higgins, Laverne Halley, and Mrs. Leona Ulbricht, club sponsor.

Track Entrants Shaping Up for Bi-County Meet

Much interest is being shown in track work at high school this week as preparation for the bi-county meet in Marathon March 19. Some new equipment has been purchased and other equipment is being built by the boys.

The school bought a rubber discus, regulation weight, and a vaulting pole. A shot was among equipment already on hand. Mr. Smith and the track boys have built five high and five low hurdles, and prepared the pit for the broad jump. Pole vault and high jump standards have also been built.

At the bi-county meet Sanderson will be represented in the following events: javelin throw, pole vault, shot put, high and low hurdles, broad jump, 100-yard dash, 800-yard run, one mile run the mile relay.

Working out for events in track are Weigand, Short, J. Allen, Appel, Druse, R. Lochausen, W. Lochausen, Lewellen, Lea, Haines, Bogusch, K. Litton, Harris and Sullivan.

EAGLES LOSE

The basketball season ended last Saturday with district games in Fort Stockton. Sanderson lost to Ozona in the first try, going into consolation against Alpine and were again defeated, 34-15.

During the season Sanderson played 15 games, won 7, lost 8, for a percentage of .407. Five members of the squad will graduate this year: Appel, Sullivan, Harris, Kerr and Bogusch.

In Alpine last week end the 8th grade team defeated Langtry by a 22-20 score, but the 7th grade team, and a team from the 5th and 6th grade lost to Alpine teams.
