RANCHERS O. K. SOIL SAVING MOVE

Over Sixty Sign to Support Program; County Committee of Three Elected

EARLY ONE MILLION ACRES INVOLVED

Over sixty Terrell county ranchers were present last Saturday morning at the courthouse to hear details of the government's soil conservation program outlined by Ernest L. Williams, the county appointed agent for Terrell county.

The meeting, which opened at 10 o'clock, was presided over by J. Kerr, banker and ranchman, who welcomed the large number of interested ranchers present upon his motion, Judge G. J. Shaw was appointed chairman of the meeting.

Williams was introduced by J. Henshaw, and in an address the agent expressed his appreciation at having been selected agent for this county, and his belief that it would be of greatest help to the ranchers in the new program.

Outlines Program
Williams pointed out that normal carrying capacity is rated at 40 units (livestock) per acre. The range building allowance for ranch shall be determined by applying $1.50 by the grazing unit (livestock units). He stated that ranchers would be allowed $96 a mile to build fences. Other amount allowed for improvements, such as re-seeding, watering or furrowing, ridging, mader dams, terracing, etc., is quoted by the agent.

Animal units means, Mr. Williams explained, means the unit of measurement of the number of stock in terms of 1 cow, 1 horse, 5 sheep, 5 goats, or the equivalent thereof.

Capt. L. E. Bailey of Ft. Stockton, agent for Pecos county, also addressed the meeting and urged ranchers to back their county agent, and to cooperate with him in every way, stating that he had a well qualified in every way one who knew the ranching business. He pointed out that the success of a county agent depended on the cooperation given by the people he served, and that the ranchers' success is the agent's success.

Definition of Lands
Range land, under the conservation program, Williams stated, means any land which produces range without cultivation or general irrigation and which is used for the pasturage of range livestock.

Ranch land means all range land, other than that owned or controlled by the U. S. government or any agency of it, in which an operator has such a legal estate or interest as to give him control of it for the duration of the 1937 agricultural conservation program, which was used by the operator in 1937 as a single unit in producing range livestock.

Deferred grazing implies the withholding from grazing a portion of the ranch during the period from the time range vegetation starts growth in the spring until seed has matured in the fall for the purpose of permitting the re-seeding of the range land.

At the meeting Saturday fifty-eight ranchers signed for participation in the project, involving approximately 797,396 64-100 acres of land. Since the meeting ranchers have signed up, bringing the total to 62. Mr. Williams said that circular letters have been mailed to all ranchers. "I would appreciate it if every rancher interested would fill out the circular and mail it to me as soon as

HIGHER EDUCATION

Denton.—Texas can justly boast of the size of her state and the hospitality of its people. They can speak with pride of their industries—oil, cattle, and cotton. And they could—thou seldom do—exult over the higher educational facilities which reach into every corner of the state's vast area.

No section of the state is beyond the reach of some of the higher educational institutions. There are 116 colleges, universities and academies in the state, 71 of which are fully accredited. In the accredited schools that are 51,950 students enrolled, and the unaccredited institutions claim 11,320, making a total of 63,270 young men and women registered in Texas schools of higher learning. The enrollment in a single school varies from 90 to more than 8,000.

The state supports 16 colleges and universities. Largest of the state schools is the University of Texas, at Austin, with more than 8,000 students in its regular session. Following in size are A. & M. at College Station; Texas Tech at Lubbock; and Texas State College for Women at Denton. This latter school being the largest standard college for women in the United States.

Within the state's borders are 33 denominational schools, 4 private schools, and eighteen municipal schools. Junior colleges number 34, and they are topped by 36 four-year schools. There are 61 accredited coeducational schools in the state, 6 women's colleges, 3 men's colleges, 7 teacher's colleges, 2 medical schools, and 2 theological seminaries. Texas also provides for the education of negroes, with four negro colleges enrolling approximately 5,000.

Loma Alta Cafe Entered, Looted

The Loma Alta cafe of this city was entered some time during the night Thursday, or before the opening hour Friday morning, and a quantity of cigarettes and some candy was taken. The cash register was opened and all the contents taken, which included cigarette coupons, an ice book, and about $4.50 in small change.

The intruder or intruders evidently were hungry, for on the counter were a can of tomato juice and pineapple juice, and the pie case also had been opened, but they evidently were scared away before they had eaten any of the articles.

Entrance was gained by tearing off the screen from a window in the rear of the building, and prying the window open. Footprints were visible on a lard can which was near the window through which they crawled.

PECOS AGENT HERE

Capt. L. E. Bailey, long time agent for Pecos county, was a visitor in Sanderson Saturday, and assisted in perfecting the organization for the soil conservation program in this county. Marsh Lea, also of Fort Stockton, accompanied him here.

"It is possible," Mr. Williams said, "it is hoped that every rancher in the county will sign up," he said, "it will greatly benefit all who do so, but will affect in no way those who do not wish to take part in the conservation program."

The program will be prosecuted in earnest during 1937, with December 31, 1937 as the deadline for those who wish to take part.

Ohio's Goode No. 1 Drilling Below 9,000 Level; Order Additional 1,000 Feet Casing; Leasing Here Active

Drilling continues in the Ohio Oil company's Goode No. 1 test in the eastern part of Terrell county. At midnight Monday the drillers had reached a depth of more than 9,000 feet, without any change in formation. At 8,960 ft. the bit encountered a black sandy shale. They are seeking the Ordovician.

An additional 1,000 feet of casing has been ordered and it is presumed drilling will continue to the additional 1,000 feet or until a commercial flow is struck.

The location of the well is 330 feet from the south line and 2,152 feet from the east line of section 26-161, GC&SF Ry. grant.

Leasing and assignments continue active in this county, the following having been filed for record this week.

Oil and gas lease, F. C. Bates Jr., and wife, Aileen Bates, to G. J. Dennis, 80 acres out of section 29, block 1, I&GN Ry survey. Also 40 acres out of section 31, block 1, I&GN Ry. survey.

Assignment of oil and gas lease, Fred S. O'Neil to Maybelle Carey, 25 acres out of section 43, block D-6, Terrell county.

New Streamlined Coaches Through Here to the Coast

Twelve new streamlined coaches for use on the Southern Pacific lines on the west coast, passed through Sanderson Monday afternoon, arriving here about 1 p. m.

The cars included parlor cars, day coaches and cafeteria, and will be used on the daylight run between San Francisco and Los Angeles. The cars have lovely upholstery, concealed lighting, air conditioning, and are the latest in railroad coaches. They were painted a tone of orange.

During its brief stop here a large number of citizens were on hand to see it. School was dismissed for a short time so that the children could see the train. Officials in charge of the train opened doors on both sides between two of the coaches, allowing the children to pass through and get a glimpse of the interior of one of the coaches.

This was the second streamlined train to pass through recently, the first going through last week, and was pulled by one of the new streamlined engines. The train came from Chicago.

SUPREME COURT REFUSES BANK NIGHT CASE REVIEW

Austin, Marh 3.—The supreme court refused a motion for rehearing Wednesday made by the City of Wink in a suit seeking to stop operation of theatre bank nights there.

The effect of the action was to leave unchanged a recent judgment which knocked out a city ordinance prohibiting bank nights without determining whether they were in violation of state statutes.

KESSLERS HAVE A BOY

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Kessler are the parents of a son, who arrived at their home in Thurston last week. They have named him Rudy.

Jim Haley Gets Man; Frustrates Burglary Attempt

Early Wednesday, while making his rounds as night watchman, Jim Haley came upon a man attempting to enter the Curry Pharmacy. The would-be intruder was at the back door and had a long screw driver trying to pry open the door. Surprised in the act he crouched and tried to get away but was halted by Haley.

A search of his person disclosed the screw driver, pliers, an assortment of Yale keys, and two passes, a Texas driver's license issued to Cecil F. Williams, which he said was his name, and a social security card. He stated his home was in Chicago and that he had been on the west coast. He said he thought the place he was trying to enter was a bakery or store and that he wanted something to eat.

Williams was placed in jail and fingerprinted, the prints being sent to the Department of Justice in Washington, and to officials at Austin.

TO FIGHT PINK BOLLWORM

Austin, March 1.—The senate finance committee today appropriated an emergency fund of $11,000 for pink bollworm eradication by the Department of Agriculture.

Stock Show and Rodeo at Angelo Opens Saturday

San Angelo.—Seven special acts will be featured at the daily rodeo performances during the Fat Stock Show here beginning next Saturday, March 13. Culbertson Deal, manager, has announced. There are two women trick riders, one male fancy rider, two trick and fancy ropers, one trained horse with his master and a clown with his trained mule.

Pauline Nesbitt and Reine Shelton are the woman riders. Miss Nesbitt is new at the show here, but has a "bag of riding tricks." Miss Shelton was here last year and was one of the performers.

Dick Griffith is back again with his trained riding horse. Bob Calen and Chester Byers will twirl their lariats between events each afternoon. Both are tops in their lines and they have appeared here previously. Calen will be the announcer of events, while Byers will serve as one of the rodeo judges.

Murle Alexander, Vancouver youth, with his trained horse, "Smoky," has been signed for a seven-minute act during the rodeo program. Alexander's horse is two and one-half years old and has been given training since he was 11 months old. The horse does about 35 tricks.

New to the rodeo this year will be Jimmy Nesbitt and his trained mule, "Billy Sunday." Nesbitt is from Denver and is one of the best rodeo clowns in the Southwest.

BEAUTY SHOP MOVED

Grace's Beauty Shop, which had been located in the Curry Pharmacy Building, moved the first of the week to the Bohlman building next door to the City Drug.

The building was entirely re-modeled and re-painted, giving the shop a nice up-to-date place. With the new arrangements in the shop they are better able to take care of their trade and the shop is large enough that they have installed a private booth to care for their Mexican trade.

There are two operators in the shop, Mrs. Grace Wheeler and Mrs. Althea O'Bryant.

The will of the late attorney bequeaths the entire estate, estimated by the administrator at $25,000, to three living sisters and the children of a deceased sister (the children being considered as one unit in sharing the estate).

Mr. Ogle will have headquarters in Austin, and his duties will be to visit all parks in West Texas in the interest of the project.

There are two such positions in Texas, the other being held by a man in the East Texas area.

Mabry is a former Sanderson boy, who attended our public school, and his friends congratulate him on securing this appointment.

President Roosevelt Asks Cooperation Of States in Soil Conservation Project

Washington.—President Roosevelt sought Saturday to enlist all states in the national campaign to save farm lands from blowing away in dust storms or in being washed away in floods.

He asked all governors in an identical letter to obtain passage of legislation along the lines of a model soil conservation law suggested by the Agricultural Department.

The standard state soil conservation districts law allows a group of 25 or more land occupiers to form a conservation district, set up rules for use of land and compel a recalcitrant minority to comply where it is for the public good.

The agricultural conservation service of the Agricultural Department has conducted a series of demonstrations to teach farmers how to

"Forgotten Land" At Ft. Davis Will Sell at Auction

Fort Davis, March 2.—The "forgotten land" of the old military reservation at Fort Davis will be sold at auction to the highest bidder April 10. Advertisements of the sale have been inserted in the weekly newspapers in this region by the central land office, Washington.

The land was lost for a quarter of a century. It consists of eight lots of 9.56 acres each, lying on the east and northeast edge of Ft. Davis. Originally there was 30 lots, making a total of 268.80 acres but 22 acres were sold in 1910. An army officer auctioned them, and it is expected an officer from Fort D. A. Russell at Marfa will do the calling this time.

The "forgotten land" was discovered by R. C. Withers, surveyor of Ft. Davis. Several months ago a movement was launched by interested persons to have the land offered at auction. Most of the lots are open pasture land and not embraced in the present area of the old military post here, but lie a quarter of a mile east and southeast of it. The old fort site was leased land, but apparently the "forgotten land" was purchased by the war department for a drill ground. Many citizens can recall troops of cavalry racing back and forth across it in daily drills.

There's an old saying, "He that tootheth not his own horn the same shall not be toothed." What chance has a horn these days against the more modern saxophone?

Hopkins Defends Necessity Social Security Law

Washington, March 2.—Harry Hopkins, Works Progress Administrator, defended today the necessity for a long-range social security program, asserting that one of his great problems was to get "responsible citizens" to think of the scope and cost of the work to be done.

At his press conference he declared that it was "nonsense" to say that workers would rather take federal relief checks than to seek regular employment; that private charities were virtually through in dispensing relief, and that it was essential that positions of dignity in society be given to persons benefited by the government's relief program.

"There is a tendency to deal with the security problem as a temporary matter, and such is not the case," he said. "A great many people will always have to get at least part of their income from public benefits, though they will not always be the same people."

COURT WILL MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the county commissioners will be held next Monday, Feb. 8 at 11 o'clock in the courthouse. Outside of the regular routine business the court will probably select a depository for county funds, and also for the schools funds for the next two years.

ATTENDS UNCLE'S FUNERAL

Mrs. Luella Lemons received word Wednesday of the death of her half-sister, Mrs. Millie McFarland, which occurred on Monday at her home in San Diego, Calif. Mrs. McFarland was a resident in this section many years ago, her husband being engaged in the ranching business in Brewster county. She had frequently been a visitor here in the home of her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Buchanan and son, Jackie, returned to their home in Dryden Monday from Brenham, where they were called last week to attend the funeral services held for Rep. James P. Buchanan, who died earlier in the week at Washington, D. C., of a heart attack. Rep. Buchanan was an uncle of A. F. Buchanan.

Column Right

Our old friend, Travis Moorman, editor of the Pecos Enterprise, was disappointed because this column muffed the Rubinoff-Peggy Garcia affair. Well, we just figured it was obvious. Peggy is just another gold-digging blond, but at the same time it is evident that Rubinoff had been doing a little fiddlin', and it was on the radio, either. It's seldom a blonde gets snagged, but it look like little Peggy is IT this time.

The next complaint was from Jim Ross, editor of the Madera Valley News, who is doing a fine job of supplying the valley with a newspaper. Jim insinuates disloyalty on our part, because we are boosting Highway 90, and inquires: "Have you forgotten the Old Spanish Trail?" Nay, nay, Jim, but you know the old saying: "When in Rome wear a toga and shoot roman candles."

That disposes of our fan mail, so we'll turn to the late lamented war. At last an Englishman, of the royalty worked up the intestinal fortitude to tell the Limeys that America won the war, before and after we took a hand in the melee. As a nation England cannot make such an admission, for if it did, the last excuse for not paying its war debt would be swept away.

But, on the other hand, England has just passed legislation to curb crooners on the radio. For that we recommend Uncle Sam cuts the debt in two.

"Carveth Wells to Explore Galveston," was a headline in last week's Enterprise. Funny, when we were there last the city had not only been discovered and explored, but every section was settled. Don't know which we will have to study over again, history or geography.

There's an old saying, "He that tootheth not his own horn the same shall not be toothed." What chance has a horn these days against the more modern saxophone?

Sit-down strikes! It must make old timers gnash their teeth. In the old days a strike meant tear-down, knock down, and drag out. We're either becoming a nation of inbred sissies, or getting plum downright lazy. O tempore, O mores, O rats!

PROPOSE BILL TO EXEMPT WOOL MILLS FROM TAXES

Austin, March 1.—A proposed constitutional amendment exempting textile mills, canning plants, and wool scouring plants from all state ad valorem taxes seven years today received approval of a senate committee.

Senator Houghton Brownlee of Austin, the author, said exemption would attract industries to the state.

"Texas-produced wool has to be shipped all the way to Boston for scouring," he said. "With scouring plants in the state tremendous shipping costs would be eliminated."

The proposal set Aug. 23 for an election.

'Twas This Way

The Cotton-Picker Cotton is harvested today exactly as it was when Eli Whitney invented his cotton gin way back in 1793.

Great strides have been made in harvesting other crops. But in cotton little progress has been made since Revolutionary times.

John Rust got his idea for the picker watching his grandmother at her spinning wheel. She moistened her wheel to make cotton stick to it.

Mr. and Mrs. Col Coats and son P. C., were in town Wednesday from their ranch.

Current Comment

Six weeks exams are over and we are glad! What did you make on this one, and what did you make on that one, or has the last one been graded? These are a few of the questions you hear.

Dick Mussey thinks he's so smart that he just can't get along without a quarrel with Miss Martin.

There are only three more months of school, and there ONE holiday.

Juanita Sibley was the lucky girl last Monday night. That makes two from Sanderson H. S. this year.

Everyone is talking about the new student. It's a strange why new students and teachers are such curiosities.

We wonder why Essary Haines has to practice his public speaking every afternoon and why all the teachers like Jimmy so well.

New Tennis Court Being Shaped Up

Preliminary work is being done on a second tennis court located on the school grounds, by the P. T. A. E. W. Hardgrave is directing the hauling of sand and gravel and Duane Smith, assisted by the high school boys, is doing most of the labor. At a meeting of the P. T. A. yesterday, definite plans were to have been made for raising funds to complete the work.

According to Mrs. Hardgrave, president of the association, approximately $125 will be needed to complete the court and the P. T. A. will have to raise additional money to that now in the treasury. "From observation is evident that another court is needed," Mrs. Hardgrave pointed out. The P. T. A. recently completed the present court and its popularity among the students for pleasure, physical education, and contest practice, is increasing daily.

Gold Medals For Representatives Literary Events

As a memorial to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Downie, pioneers of Terrell county, Mrs. Octavia Downie Smith of San Antonio has notified the high school of her desire to present gold-filled medals to the high school representatives of Sanderson in all literary events at the bi-county meet.

Last year Mrs. Smith was the donor of a $25 prize to the student who wrote the best essay on the history of Terrell county. The prize was won by Jack Bogusch.

The eighteen medals which Mrs. Smith will present to participants of Sanderson high school's first bi-county meet will be similar to those awarded by the high school last year. They are oval in shape and have the words "University Interscholastic League, 1937," engraved on the face. On the back is stamped the event for which the medal was awarded.

Medals will be awarded as follows: Girls' debate, 2 medals; boys' debate 2; senior girls' declamation 1; junior girls' declamation (high school) 1; senior boys' declamation 1; junior boys' declamation (high school) 1; girls' extemporaneous speaking, 1; boys' extemporaneous speaking, 1; essay writing 1; 11-act play, 2, for boy and girl actor; high school spelling, 1; shorthand, 2; typewriting, 2 medals.

MARCH 9TH DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES IN BI-CO. MEET

The Sanderson schools have been notified by C. G. Matthews, director-general of the bi-county meet that all entries in contests of bi-county participation must be turned in to Marathon by next Tuesday, March 9. This is ten days before the meet and is an interscholastic League ruling.

This is the first time that Terrell and Brewster counties have united in a bi-county meet. The winners of first and second places will represent their schools at the district meet in Fort Stockton in April. Awards will be ribbons.

First Grade

Bruce Brown and Warren Neil Webb brought big bouquets of redbud to school Tuesday. Edward Wheeler has two pink hyacinths in bloom this week.

The class celebrated the birthday of Texas independence Tuesday by drawing maps of the state and by listening to the reading of Texas Flag Primer.

Class members were weighed Tuesday, and also measured to see how much they gained in height since September.

DEBATE Mildred Hurst

By this time the debate between Sanderson and Marfa will be over, but the effects will remain.

Whichever is the winner will set out to work for the bi-county meet in Marathon with a will to win it; and the losers will have begun to study more than ever.

Teachers Attend Trans-Pecos Meet In Alpine Today

Today has been declared a holiday in Sanderson schools to enable the teachers to attend the Trans-Pecos division meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association in Alpine today and tomorrow.

Principal speakers at the meeting will be Supt. Vierling Kersye, Sacramento, Calif.; Dr. William L. Wrinkle, State Teachers College of Colorado; Dr. B. F. Pittenger, professor of education, University of Texas; Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president College of Mines in El Paso; B. B. Cobb, secretary, State Teachers association, Ft. Worth. Miss Nell Parmeley, State Supervisor of Music will direct community singing.

The meeting will consist of lectures and discussions of present importance in education, and will be followed with sectional meetings.

The faculties of Sanderson high school, grammar school and the Mexican school plan to attend.

There will be one more holiday for the Sanderson schools, that of March 19, the date of the bi-county meet in Marathon.

Fish Take Trips Around the World

The Freshman class has been taking imaginary trips around the world, or across the world, which ever notion strikes them, and putting it into theme pictures and form. We wish them all the good luck and happy landings. Margaret Mims is sailing for London on $5,000.

Marjorie Canon is also sailing for London, but she thinks she can make the trip on $1,000.

Mona Breg is going to Yellowstone National Park by train.

B. F. Davis tops the list by rushing to the south pole on the Pan-American Airline with only $10,000 in cash.

John Fisher Carlton will run up to the Carlsbad cavern on the train with $500.

Ruth Murrah will go to New York by train on $500.

Mary Bess Hardgrave steps out in a new V-8 to New Mexico with just $53.30.

Ethel Laura Nance also will go to Honolulu.

Reginald Monroe will go to Old Mexico by car with $300.

Edith Walsh will visit in Utah at Zion National Park on $150.

C. G. Carpenter will motor to Washington on $700.

MRS. MITCHELL DONATES TEN VOLUMES TO LIBRARY

Mrs. Alex Mitchell of Sanderson last week donated ten books to the Texas history shelf of the high school library. Mrs. Mitchell has been a frequent donor to this library with magazines, subscriptions to magazines, and books. The books donated last week all deal with Texas history. They are "The Raven, a story of Sam Houston by James Marquis; "History of Texas," Newton & Campbell; "A Vaquero of the Brush Country," J. Frank Dobie; "Cowboy Songs," Lomax; "Tongues of the Mounty," J. Frank Dobie; "Cattle Brands," Andy Adams; "Log of a Cowboy," Adams; "All the Brave Fight," Venable; and "Spanish Explorations in the Southwest," Bolton.

Of course, all of you know what this is all about. Last evening the Sanderson high school debaters, girls and boys, believe it or not, contested the Marfa high school debaters on the state question. We'll tell you all about it next week. Hope you enjoyed the argument yesterday.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Actors are said to be temperamental, but "you ain't seen nothin'!" Just step on the set where "The Elopement" is being rehearsed. Jimmie, while reclining off-stage, amuses himself by toying with the bass horn, and blows energetically into it to imitate, in an extravagant manner, the wierd cry of an owl.

Mary Beth insists that Jimmy really fell in love with her so they can put some feeling into the embrace.

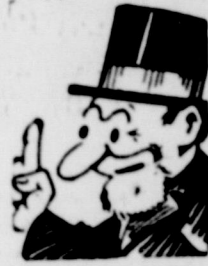

Wesley, waiting impatiently, accuses Jimmy of trying to do the embrace scene poorly so he can rehearse it repeatedly.

Elizabeth, not a day under 45, can't decide whether she is so old that she can't reach high "C" when calling the butler.

Then, there's the question of the ladder. Mary Beth liked it so well she insists sitting on top of it even when she is not in the scene. She has seen other famous actresses pose like that.

The Snooper

Seeing the streamlined train was a thrill for some and others were greatly disappointed. A few of the students expected to see a train, engine included, like they see on the cover of the magazines, but those were the one that were disappointed.

Last week it was Albert Appel that had a senior ring missing. This week we can add James Allen to the list. Who will be next? Just ask some of the girls and you may find out.

Mildred Hurst had been working rather hard last week, so she had an outline of how she was to spend the week end. There was to be no studying, but going to bed early, taking naps and eating plenty. Who wouldn't like to take a rest if he could do all that?

Mr. Holt has been absent from school part of this week on account of illness, and we can truthfully say that there is something missing without him in his office.

The debaters were ready to take on Marfa yesterday. All they need is a little more practice and then they will be ready to take anyone on, even Bert Herbert!

Friday is a holiday! There is really no need to mention that, because everyone can keep up with the holidays.

Don't ask Jack Bogusch how long it takes him to walk to the school, it might embarrass him. P. S.—I believe it must take at least 10 or 15 minutes, but that doesn't hurt him any.

Nobody should mind going with Juanita, because she won $60 at the show the other night. I bet the boys will all be trying to go with her. If there are any gold diggers among them!

The cast of the dramatic play all have to go to bed early. We don't know why. Well, I do, because anyone that can be at school by 8 every morning to practice needs plenty of sleep!

Mr. Caraway must be having fun with his commercial arithmetic class because three-fourths of them are failing. Pep up, students, make it at least 50-50.

Everyone is look forward to the bi-county meet at Marathon to be held March 19. Get out your ears and come along with us. Surely anyone can travel 60 miles over a good road to see students of Sanderson high school perform.

We have a new boy in school this week, but he is a little too young for the junior and senior girls to be very much interested in, but what about the lower classmen? We don't know either.

Shorthand Class Has Ambitions

A few shorthand students have taken the fanciful notion into their girlish heads of going to state in that old form of writing—shorthand. Three afternoons a week, from four to five, take a look into the shorthand class. You will see people bent over their shorthand notes quickly writing shorthand, as fast as their minds will instruct their fingers. It is all right trying to write the shorthand, but the trouble comes in reading it back and typing into a presentable form. "You's" is just like "yours," and everything is quite simple if you have written it so you can read it. We'll be seeing you at state some of these bright days, if our pencils, minds and fingers hold out.

DECLAIMERS SELECTED

With Mrs. Ervin Grigsby, Mrs. M. Kessler and Miss Vera Wade as judges, the fifth and sixth grade reading classes had their eliminations March 2 in declamation. The following were selected: Fifth Grade Boys: W. T. Frazier, first; Bill Cochran, second; Don Allen, third. Fifth Grade Girls: Eloise Stid-

Volleyball Girls Want Return Tilt

Dorothy Lewellen
Well, the volleyball girls are planning on playing another game with Marathon soon. They have been practicing every evening and seem to be pepping up with their quick playing. Their coach, Mrs. Ulbricht, is right out there in the middle of the game if there isn't enough to play on a side. She seemed to be enjoying her part in the game last Monday afternoon, for she was really playing volleyball with the girls.

Since the Sanderson team motored to Marathon week before last, it is Marathon's time to return a game at Sanderson. The date has not yet been set, but it will be advertised in advance. When you see it advertised please plan to attend, for it will be the girls' last game.

ham first, Edna Mae McAdams second, Janice White third. Sixth Grade Boys: Dewain Hill first, Lloyd Deaton second, Ross Staveley third.

Sixth Grade Girls: Jane Ulbricht first, Kathryn Garrish second, Bill Jo Corder third. The final eliminations in junior declamation will be held soon.
