WHAT ARE THEY HOWLING ABOUT?

A cost of living survey made by the WPA in 59 representative cities provides an interesting picture of how the average family spends its money.

According to this survey, the average family had an annual income of $1,260.
Food took 35.6 per cent, clothing took 14.6 per cent, and housing 17.6 per cent.
Recreation absorbed 5.9 per cent and transportation 4.3 per cent. An what do you think was the smallest item of all? You'd never guess, if you've been listening to the "high cost of power" political school. For the smallest item was electricity which took just 1.5 per cent of the average family's income!

And yet, of all the necessities of life, it is electricity which comes in for the greatest amount of talk—and it is electric industry which has been assailed more than any other industry by our socialisticallyminded politicians.

Troop 60 Holds Court of Honor

Last Tuesday evening the Boy Scouts held their regular Court of Honor in the Scout home at 8:00 p. m. Scoutmaster Duane E. Smith awarded the badges.

The Tenderfoot badges were awarded to Joe Bean, Sam Bell, Weldon Blackwelder, Bill Cochran, Bobbie Lee McCue, W. T.
Frazier, Curtis Litton, Harold Haynes, Cherry Miller, Terry Miller, M. G. Northcut, Jack Turner, James O'Conner and J.
D. Vincent.

Four Scouts received second class award. They were James Blackwelder, Marshall Cooke, Earl McDonald and James Mc-Donald.

Two first classes were awarded to Bill Davis and Kenneth Litton.

Two star awards went to Malcolm Davis and Bill Davis.

ADDS TO HOME

Clyde Griffith has just had completed the addition of a spacious bed room to his home, in the north part of town. The annex, being one of the same construction as the original home, blends in nicely and adds to the comfort, convenience and general beauty of the residence. Earls Pierson and B. C. Farley did the work.

SENIORS ON TOUR

Thirty-six members of the senior class from Wilson, in the Panhandle county of Lynn, passed through Sanderson Monday afternoon, taking time out for lunch and a survey of the city. They were a merry, vivacious group, and well they may be, for the folks of their home town treated them to a trip that includes every Texas Coast City, Mexico City, then to San Antonio, and Austin on the home trail.

Invite Ranchers And Feeders to Annual Field Day

On May 28 the Madera Valley Experiment Station, at Balmor-hea will hold its annual Field Day for farmers and ranchers of this section. Cattle feeding tests which have been carried on during the past several months will be closed at that time and the results of the tests will be given out to those interested in cattle feeding. These steers will be marketed immediately following the closing of the test.

Representatives will be present from the A. & M. College, and from many other organizations.
A short program will be given in the afternoon. Speakers will include G. W. Barnes, of College Station, John Simpson, of Sweetwater, George Jones, of Marfa, Dr. Frank Mathews of the poison weed laboratory at Alpine, John Jones, animal husbandman of College Station, Dr. I. B. Boughton, veterinarian of the Ranch Experiment Station, a representative of the Fort Worth stock yards, and others.

Representatives of machinery manufacturers will also demonstrate some of their new and modern equipment during the day and everyone interested in farming, ranching, or cattle feeding is invited to spend the day at the station.

A free barbecue lunch will be served on the station grounds at noon.

Deadline in Soil Program Shows Increase of 16

One hundred and seven ranches with a total area of 1,511,450 acres have been entered in the 1938 Range program, according to Ernest Williams, county agent, May 15 was the dead line set by the State committee and on that date last year 84 ranches with an acreage of a little over one million acres was entered.

Contractors of dirt and masonry work, well-drillers, and others are far ahead in the amount of work done this year. Williams stated that at this time last year only three or four tanks had been built. To date, dirt tanks have been completed on nine ranches, concrete or rock dams on five ranches, and others under construction on several more places.
Eight wells have been drilled.
Some terracing has already been done with more to start soon in the Pecos river country and north of Sanderson. Pear and lechuaguilla is being eradicated on five ranches.

Record Crowd at Cold Cookery Clinic Held Here Tuesday Afternoon

Cavalry Units Here Tuesday Bound for Home

The Fifth Cavalry, stationed at Fort Clark, and the 12th Cavalry, stationed at Fort Brown, arrived in Sanderson Tuesday afternoon, and camped here that night, starting their homeward trek at six o'clock Wednesday morning. In both units there were approximately 1200 men.

Both men and their mounts appeared to be in fair shape after the grueling maneuvers near Balmorhea, which began last month, and ended May 11, one week ahead of schedule.

Both men and officers spoke very highly of the people in the Madera Valley, and appreciated the many courtesies extended to them, which helped to make their stay a pleasant one. Asked if it was true that the war games were called off on account of severe sandstorms in that section, the men and officers laughed. "Why," they said, "there's sand storms at our home stations, and they don't worry us at all. We'd be a fine bunch of fighting men if we let a little wind scare us off."

One officer said, "There was one or two bad days, all right, but I was glad of it, for it fitted nicely into the scheme of things, and proved that both men and their mounts could take it." He added that the war games in the valley were the best held in many years.

Prospects Good for High School Grid Team—Line Is Light But Fast

On invitation a Times reporter was on hand Tuesday evening to see the high school Eagles put through a stiff scrimmage, their opponents being seniors and members of the faculty.

After watching a while it was evident that the Eagles for 1938 will be a faster team with more fight than last year's squad. On defenses there will be a big improvement over that of last year.
On offense there is lots of room for improvement. The light line lacks the charge that is essential, and ball carriers must be taught to follow their interference.

All in all, we believe Coach Smith is doing a good job with the squad and, whether or not they chalk up a majority of victories in the games scheduled, the fans are going to see some real football games this year.

The lineup at present, in which some changes may be made before the season starts is as follows Lewellen, right end; Canon, right tackle; B. Allen, right guard; D.
Allen, center; O'Bryant, left guard; M. C. Davis, left tackle; K. Litton, left end; W. Dishman, quarter; R. Loehausen, right half;

Air Mail Week to get a personal letter from the actress by writing her. She will answer all air mail letters sent her. Today is the last day.

STUDENTS STRIKE

When it became known Monday that the school board refused to re-elect A. E. Lang, superintendent of the Monahans schools the students walked out in a body.

Important Dates In the Democratic Primary Calendar

didates for state and district off-dacy with the County Democratic precinct offices, is June 18.

June 20 is the date set for the sentee voting begins and July 11

BUILDING NEW HOME

Work was started this week by C. M. Breeding, contractor, on a new home for C. J. Watts, local agent for the T. & N. O. The home will be of frame stucco construction, with five rooms and bath. The home is being built under the Federal Housing Administration, its location being on a lot adjoining the old fire station.

NEW MEXICAN CONSUL

A visitor in our city last Friday was Fausto H. Ajurea, who was enroute from Mexico City to Alpine where he will take up his duties at the Mexican Consulate recently created in that city.
Senor Ajurea was formerly stationed in San Francisco, Cal., and has spent many years in the diplomatic service.

LONGHORNS BLANKED

For the third consecutive time a team from the troopers at Marfa handed the local team a whitewash in a game played last Sunday at Legion Park. With Roy Bogusch on the mound, the customers saw a fair ball game until the sixth stanza, when "Rosy" blew up and the soldier boys shoved five runs across. Before the game was over they added three more. The Longhorns failed to score.

Souvenir tickets which are now being sold for three for $1.00, will be used to finance the rehabilitation of the grounds for presentation of the Golden Jubilee of the State Fair of Texas, and also to provide for the budget for various departments of the "World's Largest State Fair."

The campaign for the disposal of the tickets got underway when the nineteen directors of the State Fair subscribed for one book of tickets for each employe in their firm. Since the meeting when the original subscription was made, various business firms, civic organizations, fraternities and others have subscribed for one book of tickets for each employe or member of their organization.

Goal set for the sale of tickets is 100,000 books, or 300,000 tickets.
President Otto Herold said here recently that he expected the issue to be oversubscribed.

The tickets come three in a book, and each book has a souvenir cover printed in five colors, with gold the predominating note, significant of the Golden Jubilee celebration. Cover for the tickets was so designed that purchasers may keep the cover as a memento of the Golden Jubilee Celebration of the State Fair of Texas. The above is a facsimile of the ticket and the same design is executed on the ticket in five colors.

ALPINE—
According to the Avalanche, bids will be opened on May 24 for seal treatment of Highway 90 between Alpine and Marfa, a distance of approximately 25 miles.

BARSTOW—
As a result of an election on May 10, when the vote overwhelmingly favored moving the county seat of Ward County from this place to Monahans, an unofficial move has started to annex the Barstow area of Ward County to Reeves County. It has also been rumored that a new contest in the outcome of the recent election will be filed.

ALPINE—
R. M. Bankhead, for years superintendent of the Del Rio schools, was elected to head the Alpine schools at a recent meeting of the school board, according to the Avalanche. Drury Wood, superintendent of the Alpine schools for the past five years goes to the Del Rio schools in a similar position.

BALMORHEA—A hard rain was reported by the Texan in this section last week. The precipitation added three feet to Balmorhea lake, which is four feet under capacity, and assures the farmers plenty of water for irrigation until late summer.

FORT STOCKTON—
With one-half of the purchase money raised a huge neon sign will be erected in Fort Stockton, according to the Pioneer. The sign, which will be placed at the intersection of North Main street and the Old Spanish Trail will direct tourist to the town's business section and to Comanche Springs. The sign will be 5 feet high and 10 feet wide, and will cost $600.

MONAHANS—
The formal opening of a new Coco Cola distributing station was the incentive for the News to issue a special edition of 24 pages last week. The plant was opened by Jno. C. Dunagan at a cost of $75,000. The special issue was a very remunerative one, judging from the number of congratulatory advertisements from business firms over a wide area.

FLORESVILLE—
Training in Boy Scout Craft was rewarded last week when Hudell Wright of Troop 114, plunged in to the San Antonio river and rescued 10-year old Mary Louise Flores. After regaining the bank with the unconscious girl Wright began to apply artificial respiration and continued until the girl was out of danger.

PECOS—
Pecos, more than any other West Texas town, has a habit of getting what it goes after. Recent accomplishments were the final realization of the Red Bluff dam, a federal building, a new County Courthouse, an elementary school building, etc. Now, according to the Enterprise they want a municipal auditorium, and an application has been filed with PWA for $72,000 with which to build it.

TO SAN ANTONIO
Mrs. O. T. Schupbach left last Thursday for San Antonio going down for medical treatment. Mr.
Schupbach and daughter, Mrs. W.
E. Stavley and Mr. Stavley left Tuesday for San Antonio upon receipt of a message that Mrs.
Schupbach would probably have to undergo an operation. No word had been received from her up until the Times had gone to press. Her many friends in Sanderson wish for her a speedy recovery.

Senior Class Picture

I hesitated when I was asked to prepare this picture of the Class of 1938 for your inspection. I was not an artist, and everyone knew it. Any of my teachers could tell you that I was never especially proficient in drawing anything—except attention—and could never paint anything successfully—not even my face. Besides, the Class of 1938 is a very lively subject for even an expert to attempt to sketch. They are never any of them alike, nor apt to be found twice in the same place or position. Even a snapshot could never catch them in anything better than a blur. Besides, I am only one person, of decidedly individual opinions, and could only look at my classmates through my own eyes. I cannot see them as they see themselves, nor even as you might see them if you might stand for a time in my position and be able to look at them from my point of view.

But, as it seems my fate to be expected to hold the mirror up before these fifteen boys and girls who have been my classmates for so long and be to them that power that would, as Burns said:

"The glibbie gie us To see oursel's as others see us."

I can only paint them in such words as appear to me to express them as I see them. This, then, dear friends, is the Class of 38 as I see it today. (I am sure you will pardon the exact measurements, as I would make a better carpenter than I would an artist, and have always been very fond of mathematical statistics. I speak in figures).

The Class of 1938 is made up of fifteen members—nine boys and six girls. We range in age from Troy Druse's 18 years, 7 months and 9 days, to Mildred Fawcett's 19 years and 8 days.

We range in height from Bertha Mae O'Bryant's 5 feet to Houston Chandler's 6 feet. We range in weight from Bertha Mae's 100 pounds (feather brain and all), to Houston's 160 pounds.

Taken together as the one in body that we are supposed to be in spirit, we make up an individual of sufficient age to know a great deal, if he's ever going to begin to learn, for he would be 262 years old, surely an age of wisdom and power, and dignity, verging upon veneration. Our height is 588 feet, 8 inches, which certainly raises us far enough up in the world to allow us to tower above our enemies and to look down upon the inferior undergraduates. You can see, too, what a heavy proposition we are by the fact that taken together, and even giving due consideration to Bertha Mae's dainty figure, we tip the scales at exactly 1998 1/2 pounds. Someone has libelously hinted that this weight is the same, either with or without Bertha Mae, but we think this is hardly a fair accusation, and we do not expect any of you to give it any consideration. Our head is of sufficient capacity to hold even the vast amount of knowledge we have been cramming into it for the past four years, for we require a hat that measures one-hundred and ninety-five. Some say this may be due to the numerous pencil curls worn by some of the girls, but we pass this over in silence. And if we do not make the success in life that we desire and expect, it will surely not be because we cannot gain a foothold upon the world's battleground, by way of our colossal understanding, for we wear a number 113 shoe.

This is the Class of 1938 in her big moments. Then even her class picture has to be taken on the installment plan. But we have not at all times such a mighty sense of vastness. Sometimes our pride sinks to a mere average capacity, and Miss Owen assures us we have a splendid capacity for averages. We have been investigating this line, too, but will not bore you with a recital of the resultant statistics.

We are accomplished in all things. We have often proved to you how well we can sing, dance, read, recite and perform in many entertaining ways before the public. We have all proved our prowess in athletics, and won many honors for our class and school. We all like to do steady work under the tutelage of some person older than ourselves. We will appreciate it if you will kindly refrain from unkind insinuations along this line. Indeed, what we do not know has seemed to our teachers to be very much worth the learning. That may be one of the reasons why we know it, but we have nothing further to add along this line.

We have within our ranks, poets, musicians, actresses, preachers, statesmen, philosophers, professors, judges, lecturers, physicians, authors, artists, warriors and one United States president. Do not ask me to specify the which or the who. Ask me thirty years from now, and perhaps I may be better able to say, for, of course, they are still in a state of partial development, and while I can tell you what they are now, "It doth not yet appear what they shall be."

But this, friends, is a subdued picture of the Class of 1938, crudely sketched from my present perspective. I did not use the brilliant colors of my imagination, lest I should lay myself open to the charge of undue self-appreciation or exaggeration. Far be it from our wish to run such a risk as that! Needless to say that while the Class has from the very beginning been glowing with color and brightness, it is only a glimpse of the great things that are to come, when Life, as the master artist, mixes the shades that have been decreed by the forces of destiny for the painting of the permanent and eternal canvas that shall last throughout the ages as the perfect and indestructible Class Picture of 1938.

SENIOR POETRY

Distributed on this page we give you some of the masterpieces of our Senior poets. I assure you that they didn't write these of their own free will and accord. I might also add that Albert Weigand was voted the most poetic boy in the Senior class.

If you are tired of living, Let Miss Owen start to giving You English every day, And soon I bet you'll pass away.

15 GRADUATES THIS YEAR

Members of the graduating class of the Sanderson high school are:

Now Prince, you know it is not nice.

To cause the class to jump and laugh.

Just one more move and I will do the unjust thing of whipping you.

—Hs—

I often laugh aloud in glee.

When I look at Albert's nose,

'Cause it reminds me of a pear,

Or a piece of garden hose.

Last Will of Seniors

We printed here the last will and testament of our beloved class of 1938.

Upon the behalf of my client, the class of 1938, I wish to distribute the gifts she held so dear to her. As death drew nigh she realized she must part with and leave her treasures behind.

There has been a mad scramble for her possessions, but she has tried to be just, as well as generous and impartial, and distributes wisely unto those who will make the best use of the gifts that served her so faithfully thru life.

The following may seem but trifling bequests, but we hope they may be accepted, not as worthless things lavishly thrown away because we can no longer keep them, but as valuable assets to those who may receive them, as a continual reminder of the generosity of heart displayed in our free and full bestowal.

To Bobbie Allen—All the excess perfume that Prince Dishman has been bestowing on the girls.

To Mary Beth Banner—Bertha Mae O'Bryant's ladylike manners.

To Johnnie Bricker—Bert Herbert's personality and ability to make himself heard.

To Margaret Gregory—Prince Dishman's schoolgirl figure.

To Elizabeth Brown—Helen Turner's athletic ability.

To Hicks Canon—Jimmy Goodykoontz's good looks and habit of being teacher's pet.

To Robert Chandler—Troy Druse's stored up spitballs and chalk and energy with which to throw them.

To Clyde Morris—A little of Albert Weigand's height.

To Maxine Clatfelter—Allen Hardgrave's singing ability.

To Cyle Farwood—Rosa Mae Clark's red hair—but please do not take the temper that goes with it, because you don't need a double dose.

To John Glenn—Bert Herbert's responsibility of keeping up with his girl friends. Quite a job for one boy, John.

To Emma Fay Harris—Wesley Loehausen's grades and notebooks. However, we fear they might not prove of much value.

To Eugene McSparran—Bennie Mussey's habit of being ready on time.

To Dick Mussey—Holden Murrach's cute smile, cowboy boots, and hat.

To Laurence Gutierrez—Mildred Fawcett's ability to play the radio.

To Doyle Vincent—Vaunceil Henderson's dainty hands.

To Margaret Bowman—Houston Chandler's football playing ability.

And, last, to our faculty we wish to bequeath all knowledge and information we have given them from time to time in our test papers and themes. If the faculty sees fit we give them permission to give to the world any bits of wisdom we may have extended unto them.

All the rest of our property, whatsoever and wheresoever, of what nature, kind and quality it may be, and not hereinbefore disposed of, we give to our beloved superintendent, for his use and benefit absolutely.

And we do hereby constitute and appoint the said superintendent sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, we, the Class of 1938, have to this our will, written on one sheet of parchment, set our hand and seal this twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight.

Honor Students In Senior Class Get Many Awards

Bertha Mae O'Bryant and Jimmy Goodykoontz, valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of the 1938 graduating class of the Sanderson high school, will receive numerous awards due to the fact that they made the highest grades in their class. These awards are of considerable variety and should be desirable to any student.

The valedictorian is to receive a scholarship good for tuition in any state school in Texas. The name of the honor student in each first-class high school is sent to the State Department of Education, and no state school sends out a scholarship until the student decides which school to attend. Other scholarships received, which will be awarded to Bertha Mae O'Bryant are from Southwestern University, University of San Antonio, Incarnate Word College, Hardin-Simmons University, and Draughon's Business College.

The salutatorian also will receive scholarships in a number of schools. Included in this list are Hardin-Simmons University, Schreiner Institute, Southwestern University, and the University of San Antonio.

The valedictorian of each high school also receives one year's free subscription to "Readers Digest," with the idea of continuing the education of the student.

In addition to the above senior honors go certificates for scholarships and medals to each student who makes the highest average in his class for the year.

Certificates For 6th, 7th Grades

All pupils promoted from both the sixth and seventh grades are scheduled to receive certificates of promotion at the close of the school term. In the past only the seventh grade pupils received these. From now on the seventh graders, as long as they are housed in the high school building, will be considered as a part of the high school, and pupils when promoted to the high school building will receive the certificates. This applies also to the Mexican school.

Pupils in the sixth grade are as follows: Don Allen, Donald Habb, James Blackveider, Lois Barrience, Weidon Blackveider, Carolyn Bodkin, Bill Cochran, Marshall Cooke, Mary Corder, Bill Davis, W. T. Frazier, Charline Holland, Harold Haynes, Giles, Holmes, James House, Edward Kerr, Betty Hurst, Curtiss Litton, Edna Mae McAdams, Wilma Lois Moorefield, Dan Murrach, Ellridge Murray, Kathryn Neil Nance, M. G. Northcutt, James O'Connor, Margaret Pierson, Donald Smith, Elouise Stidham, Janice White, and Margaret Ruth Yeates.

Pupils in the seventh grade are as follows: Sam Bell, Jr., Clarence Chambers, Dewain Hill, Cherry Miller, Terry Miller, Earl McDonald, James McDonald, Willie Peoples, Wilma Peoples, Pablo Perez, Charles Rogers, Jr., Ross Stavley, Bill Stirman, Jack Turner, Jesus Trevino, J. D. Vincent, Patty Billings, Billy Joe Corder, Anita Cardenas, Winno Jean Holmes, Maurine Haynes, Mary Belle Hollobeke, Mary Kelly, Alois Lowellen, Marjorie Morris, Adeline McConaughy, Lois Bea Osgood, Josephine Rider.

When I gaze into my magic crystal I see many things. Among them the Senior class in 1948; and if you will listen I will tell you many strange and interesting things about them.

I see Wesley, wait now, yes it's Wesley. I see him working in the post office. In comes a beautiful school teacher with red hair. Of course it's Rosa Mae. Wesley won't get much work done now because she—there's a wedding in June.

Far away I see Prince Dishman. He's going to A. & M. College. They say he will graduate soon for he only needs six semester hours. Vaunceil Henderson has been waiting ten years for Prince to get out so that they can be married.

Now I see Houston Chandler carrying a star and pistol. He's sheriff now you know. He's married too, guess who? None other than the former Miss Mary Beth Banner, and they now have three bouncing babies.

Tacked on the postoffice wall I see a picture of Albert Weigand. There is five thousand dollar reward for the only child of the wealthy James R. Goodykoontz who married the former Bertha Mae O'Bryant of Sanderson, Texas.

Allen Hardgrave will be a radio crooner, the second Bing Crosby. His contract forbids him to marry for fifty years, but he is the sweetheart of every housewife and chorus-girl the country over.

Bert, alas, commits suicide because Houston marries Mary Beth Banner.

Helen Turner is an old maid school teacher.

Holden Murrach is in San Antonio in an institution for the insane.

Mildred Fawcett is serving hash in the Depot lunch room but she plans to quit soon as she is going to marry Troy Druse who is official dog catcher of the City of Sanderson.

Bennie Mussey is now a rich rancher's wife as she is married to Hicks Canon.

And now the picture grows dim and it will take ten dollars to get me to tell the rest.—Allah Bendo.

—Hs—

Bert while in the study hall, Seems busy as can be,
But in reality,
He does nothing at all.
