PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION SPONSOR LAMB AUCTION, FESTIVAL

Parent-Teacher organization in raising funds for carrying out work planned for the year.

When supper has been finished and all feel like settling down comfortably no better place will be found than the high school auditorium where a racy review of Sanderson talent will be given. There will be good clean entertainment for all and the laughs will climax an afternoon and evening of pleasure.

Officers of the organization feel that this plan of finance will be a worthwhile undertaking as the people of the community are ranch minded and will cooperate in the event as they have always done in the past. Those wishing to make lamb or cash contributions to assure the success of the auction should see C. V. McKnight or R. E. Corder.

This will not only be a Lamb Sale, but a Feast and Fiesta with ample food and entertainment for all ages. Plan to be present for this affair Friday, October 3, and watch for further announcements concerning the variety of entertainment, etc.

Registrants Must Advise Board of Change in Address

Registrants under the Selective Training and Service Act must promptly notify their local board of any change of address or become liable to severe penalties provided by the Act, General warned them today.

General Page said he had been advised by National Selective Service Headquarters that many cases of delinquencies investigated by the Department of Justice have been due to carelessness of registrants concerning their duty to report changes of address, or ignorance of the law requiring them to do so.

The Selective Service Act provides that any registrant who violates the law shall be liable to fine and imprisonment, the Director pointed out. This punishment, he said, is specified as "by imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

It is the policy of the Selective Service System, General Page stated, and of the Department of Justice which is charged with enforcement of the Act, to take action in those cases where there is willful intent to violate the law. Nevertheless, he stressed, investigation of borderline cases is taking up much valuable time of local boards and of Department of Justice Agents which should be devoted to urgent work for National Defense.

Registrants are, therefore, urged to notify their local boards immediately of any change of address to avoid being reported to the United States District Attorney as a delinquent.

General Page also emphasized that registrants who are expecting to be called into a branch of the armed forces to which they have made application should notify their local boards and report all developments in connection therewith. This, he said, will enable the local board to cooperate with the registrant in his particular ambition to serve his country.

Alfred E. Creigh Jr., T. R. Kuykendall, and D. L. Duke were visitors in San Antonio Tuesday and Wednesday.

Ms. and Mrs. Howard Stavley and little son of Brawley, Calif., arrived here Wednesday for a ten day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stavley.

It Happened in Sanderson TEN YEARS AGO This Week—Remember?

September 18, 1931

At a regular monthly meeting of the Commissioners Court which met Monday of this week, a milk ordinance, defining milk and certain milk products and milk producers and prohibiting the sale of unadulterated milk or milk products, and regulations of inspection of dairies and milk plants, was adopted. Provisions were also made for testing, distribution, sale and denaturing milk and milk products. The ordinance covers nine pages, is on record in the county clerk's office, where it may be seen and read by the public and those interested in the ordinance.

Most of the ordinance is based upon rules and regulations of the United States Public Health Service Standard Milk Ordinance.

Besides the adoption of the milk ordinance the commissioners the paid the regular monthly accounts of the county.

By the time the average college boy of today succeeds in accumulating the horsehide, the pigskin, the coonskin, and finally the sheepskin, poor father hasn't much hide left, either.

Mrs. J. R. Black visited in Del Rio the first of the week.

The high school orchestra, under the supervision of Band Director Cecil C. Camack, made its initial bow before a high school audience Thursday night at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting.

Sanderson and Terrell County in general are in need of a drenching rain, as is evidenced by the drying up and crisp stage of foliage.

Mrs. Helen Downie and sons have returned to their home in San Antonio following a month's visit at the Downie ranch.

WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

The Texas Mohair Weekly—Rainfall, which gauged 95 of an inch fell here during the past week, with many sections surrounding the city reporting as much as three inches.

On account of the rainfall being quite cold, freshly shorn goats suffered considerably, and a few died from exposure where there were no pens provided to take care of them following shearing.

Sixty-two one-hundredths of an inch of rainfall was recorded here Tuesday, when a slow rain commenced to fall around half-past four o'clock, and continued a slow drizzle well up in the morning. If it was not for the fact that goat shearing is in full swing at this time, ranchmen throughout this particular section of the state would welcome from three to four inches of precipitation, as range sections are very dry in some localities.

Again Wednesday night rain over widely scattered sections. The gauge here registering 33 of an inch Thursday noon, after the reading of .62 Wednesday.

Monthly Bulletin, Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission — Increasing interest in the conservation of Texas wildlife is indicated by the enactment of 105 new laws in this field—a record number—by the Legislature this year. Most of these were local measures about to expire, but were of general nature and state-wide application. The general law added protection to doves, carrier pigeons, eagles, prairie chickens, shrimp, muskrats and deer.

Will J. Tucker, executive of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, notes that one of the new these were local measures to ex-local laws may foreshadow a changed legislative policy in game regulation. This measure gives the commission authority to fix open and close seasons, to determine bag limits and in other ways to husband the fish resources of the big Possum Kingdom Lake in Palo Pinto, Stephens and Young Counties. Success in this project may induce the Legislature to give the commission more state-wide leeway in game regulation.

While some of the new laws do not go as far as they might, the rae in the right direction. Better conservation of the tate's game and fish resources will help Texas as a tourist stata and will add materially to the state's income.—Dallas Morning News.

The Uvalde Leader-News — Starting on Tuesday, September 9 with .09 inches of rain falling with the 1.77 which fell on Wednesday night, September 10 now shows total rain of 2.67 inches in the first ten days as compared with only .31 for the whole month last year. It was the first rainfall here since August 26 when .10 was recorded which added to the .21 falling on August 9th made a total of .31.

The Eden Echo—A good old-time soaking rain, the first in some weeks, fell over a wide area Monday night and Tuesday morning. The fall lasted for several hours, and amounted to 3.16 inches in Eden, with the fall being nearly uniform for some distance, especially south through the next several counties.

The State Observer — Three highway projects to cost an estimated $200,000 were scheduled last week after a special meeting of the State Highway Commission.

The three projects — general improvements, grading, drainage and surfacing—are in Aransas County, on highway 35, to cost $82,000; Pecos County, on highway 67, to cost $28,000; and Reeves County, on highway 235, to cost $90,000.

The State Observer—Deficit in the state's general revenue fund amounted to $28,737,677 as of September 5, State Treasurer Charley Lockhart reported last week. This figure compares with $29,103,524 at the last semi-monthly report, and $23,297,331 a year ago.

A TRANSFORMATION

A transformation was made this last week-end about one mile west of town which was a great thing for the Sanderson High School football squad. This transformation consisted of transforming the old Airport into a real gridiron, in comparison with fields formerly used. The chief transformer was the County grader, under the supervision of Coach Hunter, Assistant Coach Thornton and Principal Smith, and the fine work of the football squad in clearing away the weeds and the rocks. Sanderson has long needed a football field, and we believe that this is a good start in getting it, as this field has plenty of parking space, and more than enough room for a large grandstand.

Here's hoping that we can look forward to a real sodded field that will "bring out" the best in every boy that goes out for football in the future.

NEW STUDENTS

There are eight new students enrolled in the Sanderson High School for the 1941-42 school year. Billie Babb, ninth grade, comes from Ballinger; Virginia Ruth Raney, ninth grade, is from Rocksprings; Jacky Duke, tenth grade, is from San Angelo; Carlis Lansford, eleventh grade, is from Brownwood; Loyd Deaton, twelfth grade, is from Del Rio; and Roy Thompson, eleventh grade, is from Nocona.

She also attended North Texas Teachers College and the University of Texas. She has had three years teaching experience in Goliad County. Miss Kinkler's hobby is kodaking. Swimming is her favorite sport. She enjoys classical, semi-classical, and popular music and likes to read. Blue is her favorite color, and fried chicken holds first place in the line of foods.

fast foods are very important to your body. Milk contains minerals, fats and carbohydrates; meat and eggs contain proteins and vitamins; fruits contain vitamins; and cereals contain carbohydrates. These foods make you grow, build you up, repair defects, act as fuel to make you go, and protect and regulate your body. If you are not hungry when you arise, make yourself hungry. Fruit will do it. Fruit each day. Keeps the doctor away! A breakfast a day, Makes happiness stay!

LIFE OF A SENIOR

The youngest member of the senior class this year was born December 7, 1925. By accident he was named Dewain Hill. He started to school in Sanderson, but after his first year, he went to Big Lake for awhile. Dewain, being a handsome young man, is very popular with the girls. He has blue eyes, red hair, a freckled face, and weighs about 140 pounds. He is sorry to say that he has to stay on the ranch when he is not going to school. His subjects this year are: Typing, Civics, Band, Commercial Mathematics and English IV. English is his favorite. Dewain has many habits, his worst is eating. He claims his favorite dish is T-bone steak with French fried potatoes. He simply despises vegetables. Dewain has a hobby also, sleeping. He does very well with all his studies, and we hope he succeeds through life as he has in the past.

SNOOPER

Looks as if James Albert is having troubles with his girl friends. Who is this Adeline is going to church with every Sunday night? Come, come, tell us Adeline.

Seems as if Charles has lost his technic with a certain young lady. Is that so, Charles?

We wonder why Maurine Frazier goes to the City Drug every afternoon.

Donald Babb was heard inquiring about the name of a certain new girl the other day. Could it be that he likes them all?

Sophomore boys outnumber sophomore girls about five to one. We haven't heard any girls complaining.

Saturday afternoon, Billie Joe Corder and Marybelle seemed to be having a picnic in J. D. Vincent's car. Where were you J. D.?

We hear a certain bunch of Juniors and Sophomores crashed the Senior party the other night. We wonder why.

Marybelle was over heard saying if the seniors didn't bring the money for their rings that she would be graduating behind the bars. Seniors, you can't let your prey down like that!

Snooper expects to see everyone at the ball game Saturday afternoon. Be there to yell for the Eagles.

PLANTING POT PLANTS

We the girls of the Ia H E Class of 1941-42 have been planting cacti and pot plants of all kinds. We are very interested in our work and think we will like it very well all through the year. This first week, we planted plants to make our room more attractive. We are learning how to arrange flowers in vases attractively. We have already planted:

Lace fern, which is used in corsages; wild Jew; geranium; Boston fern; begonia; artillery fern; fishhook cactus; button cactus; star cactus; devil's pin-cushion.

We planted these in small coffee cans in which holes were made for drainage, and painted them green and red or put crepe paper around them. Three or four cacti were planted in each container to make it more interesting.

We have learned we should water the flowers and ferns every other day, and the cacti about once or twice a month.

We wish to invite the public to visit our class and see the work we are doing. (continued to page 4)

LITTLE STORIES

By WILL E. JAMES

"KEEP TO THE RIGHT"

Traveling the highways and byways, always where there is danger or likelihood of a collision between cars or pedestrians, or what have you? you will very likely see a sign staring you in the face, "Keep to the Right!"

These signs blazon forth the law of the road; they never mislead you, and if followed you may rest assured there will be no obstruction in the way.

In any walk of life the admonition, "Keep to the Right!" should never be disregarded.

As an illustration. Everyone, or most everyone, has read of the noted and eccentric newspaperman, writer and scholar, Horace Greeley. In a story oft told anent Horace Greeley illustrates the necessity of always "Keeping to the Right!"

Entering a building in somewhat of a hurry, Mr. Greeley found himself facing a revolving door, which usually responded to the slightest touch. This day the door seemed to be stuck and required considerable pressure to open or revolve. Finally, heaving with might and main, Mr. Greeley heard a dull thud on the other side of the door, and passing through he was surprised to find a young man sprawled at full length along the floor. Stooping to give the young fellow a helping hand to arise, Mr. Greeley took advantage of the occasion to admonish him thusly:

"Young man, let me give you some wholesome advice. As you go through life always keep to the right, then you won't knock anyone down but a damphool, and you don't have to apologize to him!"

In its program of improvements now being carried out the Princess Theatre has redone its lobby, placing its ticket booth in the center near the front. Doors have been placed at either side of the booth.

These dooms, not only keep the cold blasts of winter from the occupants of the show house proper, but they have been so placed for the convenience of the general public.

There are no signs there, but the unwritten law of the road holds good just same—"Keep to the Right!"

One door is for those entering and the other for those leaving. If you are following the instinct of "keeping to the right" there will be no confusion or colliding with others, that is, if they too are following the same admonition, and are "keeping to the right!"

In case of fire, or some other panicky conditions, there is nothing surer of restoring order like "Keep to the Right!"

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hillin and daughter, of Fort Stockton, were visitors in Sanderson Monday. Mr. Hillin attended a meeting with local 4-H Club boys and Mrs. Hillin visited with her aunt, Mrs. Maude Sullivan.

Second Lieut. Fred L. Yelton Jr. was a visitor in Sanderson Friday of last week with his sister, Mrs. Orville Work, and Mr. Work. He, accompanied by Mrs. Work, continued to Tularosa, N. M., where they will visit with their mother, Mrs. Fred L. Yelton, before he continues to Washington, D. C., where he will be stationed. He was formerly at San Antonio.

MORE TOURISTS IN TEXAS IN 1941 THAN PREVIOUS YEAR

Austin — Tourists coming to Texas during this summer's vacation period apparently have been seeing more of the Lone Star State and driving more miles in Texas than did tourist last year. This is indicated by a survey by the Texas Highway Department made at the 11 courtesy and information stations operated during the summer by the Department at the various points of entry into the state.

It is shown by a six week's summary of the stations' operations, from June 17 to July 27 this year, that 13,272 out-of-the-state cars stopped at the 11 stations. Those cars covered 7,650,525 miles in Texas. It was estimated by checking their proposed routes. This was an average of 493 miles per car in 1940. Thus, it appears tourists are traveling about 25 per cent farther in Texas this year.

A number of other interesting features are revealed by the facts compiled at the stations. The figures show that only 11 stations were operated this summer, as against 13 last summer. The 11 this year, however, will have served about as many cars during the 14 weeks they were open as the number for 1940, when a total of 31,012 stopped for information.

During the six week's period covered by the present summary (June 17 to July 27), 23,049 cars were served at the 11 stations operated by the Department this summer. Of these, 9,777 were Texas cars, and 12,272 were out-of-state automobiles.

California cars stopping at the stations outnumbered all others, totaling 2,3354 vehicles, while only 7 cars from Rhode Island were listed. A comparison of the estimated number of miles driven in Texas per car by states shows Maine led with 1,200 miles, and Oklahoma being lowest with 403 miles per car. However, it was noted that Oklahoma cars served numbered 1,778, while only 12 cars from Maine stopped, indicating that the New Englanders who stopped for information really traveled over the state to see it after coming all the way from Maine to Texas, and that the neighboring Oklahomans journeyed on many short tours, or trips, into Texas.

The Highway Department courtesy and information stations are operated during the heaviest summer months of tourist travel. The 11 operated this summer were located at Texarkana, Gainesville, Denison, Wichita Falls, Texline, Glenrio, Pecos, Canutillo (near El Paso), Laredo, Orange and Marshall.

The War Department is co-operating with the Selective Service System in carrying out the obligation of the Government to obtain civilian jobs for returning soldiers. In every camp it is gathering the occupational and educational history of the soldiers together with all data concerning the military career of each that is pertinent to civilian employment. This data will be distributed to local board Re-employment Committee by National Selective Service Headquarters through State Headquarters.

The Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 provides that a man inducted into military services shall be given a certificate of satisfactory service if he contemplates training to the satisfaction of the Army. The Act then specifies that:

"In the case of any such person who, in order to perform such training and service, has left or leaves a position, other than a temporary position, in the employ of any employer and who (1) receives such certificate, (2) is still qualified to perform the duties of such position, and (3) makes application for re-employment within 40 days after he is relieved from such training and service—

"(A) if such position was in the employ of the United States Government, its territories or possessions, or District of Columbia, such person shall be restored to such position or to a position of like seniority, status, and pay;

"(B) if such position in the employ of a private employer, such employer shall restore such person to such position or to a position of like seniority, status, and pay unless the employer's circumstances have soon changed as to make it impossible or unreasonable to do so;

"(C) if such position was in the employ of any State or political subdivision thereof, it is hereby declared to be the sense of the Congress that such person should be restored to such position or to a position of like seniority, status and pay."

The Act also provides that persons restored to their jobs shall not lose seniority and shall be considered as having been on leave or furlough. It further stipulates that "persons so restored shall not be discharged from such positions without cause within one year after such restoration."

To make use of the facilities being provided to aid in his re-employment, the soldier has only to fill out the information requested on forms being distributed by the Army, and get in touch with the Re-employment Committee attached to his local board if he is a registrant, or local board nearest his home if he is not, as soon as he returns.

General Page stated that a Re-employment Committee for each of Texas' 351 local boards would be appointed by Governor Coke Stevenson within the next few days

Cagney, Davis Win Top Comedy Honors 'Bride Came C.O.D.'

It's a laugh hit at the Princess Wednesday and Thursday, September 24 and 25. Living up to the intriguing promise of its title and exciting star combination, "The Bride Came C.O.D.," with James Cagney and Bette Davis, easily walks away with top comedy honors.

The two stars have pooled their considerable talents to make "The Bride Came C.O.D." hilarious entertainment. Cagney, who had some practice in his recent hit "Strawberry Blonde," approaches his comedy role with an effortless savoir faire that is a joy to behold. As for Miss Davis, playing her first light role in several years, she proves that comedy is just as much her forte as drama.

The story adapted for the screen by Julius J. and Phillip G. Epstein, twin scenarists responsible for some of the screen's fittest output, has the supreme virtue of getting comedy from legitimate situations, rather than trumped-up ones. Briefly outlined, the plot concerns itself with a spoiled young debutante who becomes engaged to band leader. Planning to elope, they hire a taxi plane to take them to Las Vegas. The pilot, however, decides he can make more money delivering the bride C.O.D. and unmarried to her father, who opposes the union. He captures the bride, flies off with her, but they are grounded in the desert. They find shelter in a nearby ghost town, populated solely by a phisosophical old inn-keeper. From then on, it is a tug of war between the heiress and the aviator—with the girl trying to get back to civilization and her fiancé, the man trying to keep her until he gets his plane fixed and deliver her to her father. During the battle they reluctantly fall in love with each other. The climax is refreshingly different and it shouldn't be spoiled by giving it away.

An unusually grand supporting cast lend able aid to the stars in bringing the picture to such a high peak of perfection. Jack Carson is marvelous as band leader, so egotistical that when his bride-to-be tells him she hates him, he asks with genuine amazement, "How is that possible?" Harry Davenport is even better than his usual best as the ghost town inn-keeper, and Eugene Pallette is properly apoplectic as the bride's father. Stuart Erwin does a clever caricature of a radio gossip columnist who tries to engineer the wedding in order to have a juicy item for his broadcast.

Rail oddities

200,000 REFUGEES WERE CARRIED TO PLACES OF SAFETY ON RESCUE TRAINS OPERATED FREE OF CHARGE BY THE AMERICAN RAILROADS DURING THE GREAT OHIO RIVER FLOOD OF 1937.

INCREASING THE AVERAGE LOADING OF CARLOAD TRAFFIC BY ONE TON, THROUGH SUCH IMPROVEMENTS AS BETTER PLANNING OF SHIPMENTS OR IMPROVED PACKAGE DESIGN, ADDS THE EQUIVALENT OF 40,000 CARS TO THE NATION'S FREIGHT CAR SUPPLY.

TON MILES - 5 Months 1918
150,572,516,000 REVENUE TON MILES

TON MILES - 5 Months 1941
169,766,757,000 REVENUE TON MILES

THE AMERICAN RAILROADS ARE NOW MOVING, SMOOTHLY AND SWIFTLY, MORE TONS OF FREIGHT MORE MILES THAN THEY DID IN THE PEAK WAR-YEAR OF 1918.

and George Tobias contributes a clever comedy bit as Cagney's dumb but adoring assistant at the airport.

If it's laughter, entertainment and sparkling romance you're after, treat yourself to a seat at the Princess and see "The Bride Came C.O.D."

Starrett Heroine Refused 'Double' For Riding Scenes
Although Frances Robinson never got nearer the Old West than a dude ranch in Arizona, it was inevitable that at some time she would be cast in a Western picture. She has been riding horses since she was four years old.

Currently appearing at the Princess Theatre, Friday and Saturday, September 26 and 27, as Charles Starrett's leading lady in Columbia's "Outlaws of the Panhandle," Miss Robinson is a genuine army girl, born at Fort Wadsworth, Staten Island, and raised at army posts in every section of the country until she was nine.

Her father, Captain James Arad Ladd, U. S. A., put her on a horse as soon as she was able to walk, and she became one of the best riders for her age in the country. However, Capt. Ladd when Frances was only nine years old and Mrs. Ladd took her daughter to California, chiefly to help them forget their tragic loss.

Being near Hollywood, the mother enrolled her daughter in the Professional Children's School in Hollywood. Three years later, Frances was given a screen test and appeared as the daughter of Irene Rich in "The Climbers."
