Child Dies in Del Rio of Pneumonia

Magdalena Flores, 2-year-old daughter of Lolo and Dolores of Sanderson, died in Del Rio hospital last week of pneumonia and meningitis.

The board submitted the letter to the Times with the belief that it will be of interest to Billy's many friends here in Sanderson. The text of the letter follows:

"Terrell Co. Selective Service Board
Sanderson, Texas
Dear Friends,

"This is just a short note to let you know that I am quite well pleased with my new location here in the army.

"I have been stationed here at the Midland Army Flying School for about three weeks. This particular field is a bombardier school primarily, as well as a ferry command station.

"We have several hundred bombardier students here at a time, but each group stays a comparatively short period. Their work is divided into two phases: (1) several weeks of ground training, followed by (2) several weeks of actual practice. At present, the first group have just started their actual practice, while the second class to attend school here are just entering upon their ground training.

"I wish each of you would see the tremendous bombers and powerful fighting planes which land on this field. Within a few days time, a person can see most every type of combat plane which is in production in the United States today.

"Even a casual observer can soon realize that the United States Army Air Corps is preparing to do a tremendous job in the very near future.

"I would like to take this means of thanking you men, both individually and as a board for the courtesies you have shown me in the past, and for granting me permission to volunteer into the branch of service which I most desired.

Your friend,
W. J. (Billy) Ferguson Jr."

TEACHERS SELECT NEW SCHOOL TEXTS IN FOUR SUBJECTS

New textbooks have been selected by the Sanderson Schools from the multiple list of five books each in English grammar, general science, Spanish and biology.

A committee of high school teachers recently examined the books in each subject and selected one of the five books. The books selected are to be used in the local school for the next five years. A few books are selected each year, thus allowing an equal distribution of funds each year.

TSCW Library School Selects Sanderson As Training Post

In a letter received by the Sanderson Schools this week the Texas State College for Women has requested that the local library be made available to senior students from that school in order that they may do practice work in library studies.

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Kinkler, librarian in the Sanderson High School, the school and community library has made rapid progress and improvement. Miss Kinkler is serving her first year in this capacity, having come from Texas State College for Women with a major in the field of library science. This is the only college in Texas which offers a college degree in library science, and at the same time is accredited with the American Association.

The full text of the letter, addressed to Supt. R. D. Holt is as follows:

"March 5, 1942
"In compliance with a request which the American Library Association is making of schools accredited for the training of school librarians, Texas State College for Women is planning this year to send each of its graduating Library Science seniors out into a representative high school library for two weeks of practical experience under the supervision of a qualified school librarian. Whenever possible, each girl is being sent to the school nearest her own home which meets our requirements. We expect each one to cooperate in every respect and observe all the regulations of the local system. The time selected by the college is from Monday March 30, through Friday, April 10.

"Would you be willing to extend the privilege to one or more of our seniors? If so, we shall greatly appreciate the courtesy, and will send you or your librarian a blank for a report which we should like to have of the girl's experience.

Very truly yours,
Mary S. Buffum, Director
Library and Library Science
Texas State College for Women
Denton, Texas"

Sixty new Presbyterian Hymnals have been ordered and are expected to be at the church by Easter Sunday.

The devotional hour, "Influence of Mothers' Prayers," was led by Mrs. John W. Byrd. An interesting discussion of the program topic, "The Family and the Church Pew," was led by Mrs. McKee.

Ration Books, Supplies and Instructions Are Received for Rationing of Sugar

OPA EXPLAINS PROPER USE, CARE OF RATION BOOKS

Before the stamps of the War Ration Books may be used, the person for whom it was issued must sign it as indicated in the book. The name of a person under 18 years of age may be signed either by himself, by his father, mother, or guardian.

For future reference, make and keep a record of the serial number of your book and the number of your issuing Ration Board as indicated in your book.

Your first War Ration Book will be issued to you containing twenty-eight Ration Stamps. Other books may be issued at later dates, and the following instructions will apply to your first book and to any later books unless otherwise ordered by the Office of Price Administration.

In order to obtain a later book, the first book must be turned in, therefore you should preserve War Ration Books with the greatest possible care.

1. From time to time, the Office of Price Administration may issue orders rationing certain products. After the dates indicated by such orders, these products can be purchased only through the use of War Ration Books containing valid War Ration Stamps.

2. The orders of the Office of Price Administration will designate the stamps to be used for the purchase of a particular rationed product, the period during which each of these stamps may be used, and the amount which may be bought with each stamp.

3. Stamps become valid for use only when and as directed by the orders of the Office of Price Administration.

4. Unless otherwise announced, the Ration Week is from Saturday midnight to the following Saturday midnight.

5. War Ration Stamps may be used in any retail store in the United States.

6. War Ration Stamps may be used only by or for the person named and described in the War Ration Book.

7. Every person must see that his War Ration Book is kept in a safe place and properly used. Parents are responsible for the safekeeping and use of their children's War Ration Books.

8. When you buy any rationed product, the proper stamp must be detached in the presence of the storekeeper, his employee, or the person making delivery on his behalf. If a stamp is torn out of the War Ration Book in any other way than above indicated, it becomes void. If a stamp is partially torn or mutilated and more than one-half of it remains in the book, it is valid. Otherwise it becomes void.

9. If your War Ration Book is destroyed, stolen, or mutilated, you should report that fact to the local Ration Board.

10. If you enter a hospital, or other institution, and expect to be there for more than 10 days, you must turn your War Ration Book over to the person in charge. It will be returned to you upon your request when you leave.

11. When a person dies, his War Ration Book must be returned to the local Ration Board, in accordance with the Regulations.

12. If you have any complaints, questions, or difficulties regarding your War Ration Book, consult your local Ration Board.

Miss Mae Featherstone and Miss Vashti Mixon visited with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patterson in Crane last week-end. Mrs. Patterson is a sister to Miss Mixon.

J. Chastain; second vice president, Mrs. A. B. Gates; third vice president, Mrs. James Caroline; secretary, Mrs. Chester Surratt; treasurer, Mrs. John L. Newton; and parliamentarian, Mrs. W. H. The High School Choral Club presented several musical numbers and were followed by a presentation by Mrs. J. W. McKee of "First Aid and the Home-maker."

Room attendance award for the previous meeting was won by the first grade, and the award for attendance for this meeting went to the seventh grade, the first such award won by that group this year.

Meeting just prior to the regular meeting, the executive committee of the P. T. A. voted to add another $100 bond to their defense purchases.

District League Meet Set In Ft. Stockton For April 10 and 11

The annual district meet of the University of Texas Inter-scholastic League will be held in Fort Stockton on April 10 and 11, according to information received from Supt. J. F. Reeves, director general. Mr. Reeves recently secured the opinion of each member school concerning the meet. Since the majority of the schools in the area are in favor of the meet, the regular contests will be held. Drawings were made on February 27.

Literary events will be held on Friday, April 10. The events scheduled are one-act play, debate, typing, ready writing, declamation, shorthand and extemporaneous speech. Tennis is also scheduled on Friday with all other athletic events placed on April 11. Volleyball and track are scheduled for Saturday. Ward schools may be represented at the district only in declamation and in ready writing.

The Sanderson Schools expect to send representatives, where the contestants desire to furnish the cars, in track, volleyball, declamation for ward school, one-act play, ready writing and typewriting and perhaps other events. The opportunity to compete with other students seems to be the principal advantage of these contests.

SON TO KYLES

CULTURE CLUB TO MEET

The Sanderson Culture Club will meet at the home of Mrs. A. D. Brown next Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Preceding the regular meeting will be an executive board meeting at 2:00.

PERSONS URGED TO RETURN EXCESS SUGAR TO MERCHANTS NOW

DATE NOT SET; TEACHERS GIVEN REGISTRY DUTIES

Announcement was made the latter part of last week that a supply of Ration Books and instructions to registrants and registrars had been received and that other necessary supplies would be received within the next few days.

The Ration Books and instructions were received by County and District Clerk D. L. Duke and were turned over to Judge R. S. Wilkinson for distribution to the registration points when the date is set.

Wilkinson Sets Trustee Election For April 4

R. S. Wilkinson, Terrell County judge, has set April 4 as the date for the election of two trustees for precincts two and three of the Terrell County Common School District No. 1.

Polls will be placed at the schoolhouse in Dryden for precinct two, and at the Cecil Arvin Headquarter ranch in precinct three. The polls will be opened at 8 o'clock in the morning and will remain open until 7 o'clock at night.

Only one candidate has announced for the county trustee position. He is John Harrison who is now serving out the unexpired term of Ernest Miller who vacated the position to accept defense work in California.

Junior Women Meet At McAdams Home For America Study

The Junior Woman's Club met Thursday, March 5, at 8:30 in the home of Mrs. O. H. McAdams with Miss Mae Featherstone and Miss Una Lee as co-hostesses.

Miss Mabel Henshaw gave an interesting review of "The Literature of the Americas", and Mrs. Conway Pickard gave a report on "National Heroes of Latin America."

A lovely plate with a hand-painted picture of the Alamo was served to Mesdames Wm. Aston, James Caroline, Jack Hayre, Bill Jourdan, Bill Matthews, Conway Pickard, and Jack Deaton, and Misses Mae Featherstone, Una Lee, Armenta Ragsdale, Frances Willms, Margaret Kinkler, and to two new members, Mrs. Sam Bays and Miss Earl Eubanks.

The next meeting of the club will be held Thursday, March 26, at 8:30 in the home of Mrs. Jack Deaton, with Mrs. Bill Jourdan as co-hostess.

Birthday Party Given Mary Lou Cargile On Seventh Birthday

Mary Lou Cargile celebrated her seventh birthday Saturday at a party in her honor at her home.

Indoor games were played followed by the opening and admiring of her gifts. Ice cream and birthday cake were served.

Balloons and Easter Rabbit candy baskets were given to the following guests: LaNell Hoskins, Billie Henshaw, Gail McElroy, Patricia Ann Casey, Marilyn Courtney, Sylvia Link, Wanda Brewer, Douglass Attaway, Jimmie Caroline, Grady McGeehee, Jackie Savage, Jim Turner, and Phillip Ogle.

Mary Lou and her guests entertained their teacher, Miss Una Lee, Miss Kate Frazier, Mrs. Beal and Mrs. Cargile by singing their new school songs.

The registration will be held in Sanderson at the American Ward and the Mexican Ward Schools and will be conducted by teachers of those schools. Persons who desire may also register at the Dryden School or at the Independence School. No other places will be maintained for registration and all persons in the county are urged to register at one of the above mentioned schools when the date is announced. It was also pointed out that the Ration Books are not sugar rationing booklets, but are general rationing booklets and may in the future be used for any number of things, such as hosiery, radios, bicycles, etc. To further stress the importance of registering, it was stated that without the booklets, persons would not be able to secure other articles than sugar which may be rationed at a later date.

To prevent this unfortunate state of affairs the instructions suggested that all persons who have on hand more than two pounds of sugar per person should return it to their grocery who would refund the purchase price. If this isn't done stamps will be torn from the book representing the amount of sugar on hand above the allowable two pounds per person. As result of this method persons who have a large amount of sugar on hand may find they have no stamps left with which to purchase other rationed items.

Registrants are advised to take especially good care of their Ration Books as they have the same value as United States currency, according to the Washington Office of Rationing. The books should be kept in a safe place and no stamp should be removed from the booklet except in the presence of the retailer, his employee, or person authorized by him to make delivery. If stamps are detached from the booklet contrary to these regulations the stamp will be void. Punishments ranging as high as ten years imprisonment or $10,000 fine, or both, may be imposed for violation of the law pertaining to the Ration Book.

FORT DAVIS DISPATCH SUSPENDS PUBLICATION

Alpine Avalanche—Publication of the Fort Davis Dispatch has been suspended for the war period by the owner, Eli E. Smith, who got out his last issue February 27. He left town the first of the week, for Farmersville, where his parents live, there to join Mrs. Smith who had preceded him.

HIGHLAND CLOCKS REMAIN IN FORMER TIME ZONE

Alpine Avalanche—War time in this West Texas Central Standard zone has been much discussed since war time came in, with a view to getting an adjustment in the Trans-Pecos area but a letter from Congressman R. E. Thomason said that a change would require an act of Congress and that any change is highly improbable.

Dark night still prevails here at 7 o'clock in the morning, here on the western edge of the time zone. Many persons felt that the object of war time, to conserve electric current as one objective, was being defeated. However, it is pointed out that with summer coming on, mornings will soon see daylight coming earlier.

OZONA TO RECEIVE LOWER WATER RATES

Ozona Stockman—To cooperate with the local "Plant for Victory" campaign, sponsored all over the nation by the U. S. ## As I Was Saying . . .

By Aynah Nemus

The Old Judge broke into our crowd one day and I turned to him and ask him: "Judge, we been discussing the present generation and how it compares to the old days. Maybe you've got something on that."

"I'm an old man," he said "and a gettin' on in years, but the more than three score that are behind me have seen a lot of things happen;

"They say that the younger generation has gone to pot. I'm saying it ain't.

"An uneducated person nowadays is either plain lazy or blind. As old Lytle Jones in Fort Stockton says, you can pick up more education from trash paper on the streets now than was taught in school in the old days.

"So why should people not say what they know. Before, we were afraid to say anything because there might be some one in the crowd that didn't know what we were talking about, and we hated to break up an argument to explain. Now everybody knows what everybody else knows, and there's no sense in

DISTRICT 30 LEAGUE MEET SCHEDULED FOR APRIL 10-11

Fort Stockton Pioneer—District 30 Interscholastic League events will be held this spring as in former years. It has been decided by a majority of schools participating in the annual event, Supt. J. F. Reeves, director has stated. The meet is scheduled for April 10-11 and will be staged at the local high school. Questionnaires were sent following discussion on the probability of discontinuing the meet this spring to each school of the seven counties—Loving, Reeves, Ward, Pecos, Crockett, Terrell, and Brewster—of the district, which participate in the meet each year.

CITY OF WINK WINS SUIT ON WARRANT

Wink Bulletin—In the District Court of Winkler County this week a jury hearing testimony, which consumed the greater part of Tuesday, rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant, City of Wink. The case was styled Clay Material Company vs. City of Wink, wherein the city was being sued on a warrant in the amount of $1,834, issued in 1929, with interest, attorneys fees and court costs. It was found by the jury in evidence submitted, city records, etc., that the city officials at that time, were not authorized to issue the warrant then or at any other time, which in their minds made it illegal.

trying to keep a hog pen a secret to the folks down wind.

"People with badges on the way didn't dare step outside the door, because someone might ask embarrassing questions. Now, when I tell five-year-olds the stork brought them, they usually whisper to each other: 'Shall we tell him the truth, or let him go on bein' ignorant?'"

"Mayhaps they do make love in the open more'n before; maybe they do say things that would reddin' grandma's face; but the same loving was done then and the same things was said. They jist kept them to themselves.

"Here's the words to a song you don't remember:

"Horse and buggy sweethearts, Used to spark for a lark; Love doesn't change, It's always been the same; But now you take your baby out.

And park in the dark, It's still loving but it's got A different name.

"And it's still the same only more fun, because before we just went out by ourselves; now they take along a crowd and sing 'The More the Merrier.' People now aren't afraid to let others know their thoughts and they feel that their actions have as much place as the white of an egg. It may not be essential to an end, but it keeps things together on the way

"And it's said that men aren't the men they used to be. I'm saying they are. They do just as much work now as then. The only difference is they don't get as tired and dirty now.

"And yeah, the criminals are younger now. Bosh! I'll confess that when my wife's little cousin started stealing, he was old enough to swipe my watch from my pocket without my knowing it; but he had to tiptoe to reach it.

"They condone the younger generation because what they do ain't fittin' to be seen in the public eye. The public eye ain't seen yet what it wants to see. Its main fear is that it'll never see it."

Yesterday I heard the Robin, Music pealing from its throat, Just outside my bedroom window, Saying: "Can I borrow your overcoat?"

A tourist returning after a trip abroad was asked the usual question by the customs official: "Have you nothing that is dutiable, madam?" "No." "Then am I to understand that the fur tail hanging below your coat is your own?"

BABES ON BROADWAY (Sunday and Monday)

Ten years ago he was Mickey McGuire, five years ago he became Andy Hardy, and today, he's about anybody you would like him to be, from Carmen Miranda to Richard Mansfield. . . that's Mickey Rooney.

She began her movie career singing college songs at pep rallies, then the misunderstood farm girl in "Wizard of Oz", now she's Sarah Bernhardt, Fay Templeton, and other greats as they come . . . that's Judy Garland.

They've been together in six pictures, and they're together again in the seventh, "Babes on Broadway." She started his Andy Hardy pictures for him, and they're still on the paths upward.

This time it's a musical, with songs of minstrels, love, America and Brazil. They're cast as poor hopefuls in New York who can't find a producer to hire them, so they produce their own show, and although they have but one person in the audience, he's enough.

There are songs aplenty, from the good old ones such as "Waiting for the Robert E. Lee", "Mary's Grand Old Name", to the new ones popular on the radio, "How About You" and "Babes on Broadway". There are sixteen altogether in the show.

James Gleason, Fay Bainter, and Alexander Woolcott, veterans who were famous before the two stars were born, are in there to help Virginia Weidler, 13-year old veteran, for the first time in her long career, sings and dances.

NEW YORK TOWN (Wednesday and Thursday)

People are New York conscious, even deep in the heart of Texas, and Hollywood seems to get a delight, and lots of money making them that - a - way. When one steps down from a train in the Big City, he knows already just what he wants to see—Radio City Music Hall, the Empire building, Grand Central Station, Rockefeller Center, etc. The movies have taken in all angles, from Park Avenue to the waterfront in every means and environment.

In the picture coming next week, the audience will see New York through the lenses of the camera of a street photographer, one of those guys who snaps your picture and then gives you a card saying for fifty cents you can get so many reprints and for two bits more, have them done in colors. Fred McMurray is that cameraman.

He snaps Mary Martin's picture and because she doesn't have enough money to eat on, much less buy a picture, he takes her under his wing and proceeds to help her with the business of knowing New York. The fun begins when he shows her how to mooch food from celebration parties, lunch counters, etc. He even makes a racket out of a quiz program. And finally he tries to get her married to a rich mug.

Robert Preston's screen father owns much, and Bob has a right to much of that much, so Fred picks him for the marital victim, which is all right with Bob.

Akim Tamiroff, who one never expects to know in each next picture, is a refugee painter trying to keep from being sent back to home in the old country. Lynn Overman, though legless, manages to get around right well and help out in the pinches.

"Freddy, where is River?"

"After some hesitation I know 'actly, but away."

Don Allen, we wonder why it is that you go by Ruth Ann's so often.

Poor Allister! What will he do now that Marianne has moved?

Yes, Clara Alice, we'll all lend you our hankies to cry on. We hear you told Jackie goodbye three different times.

W. T. Frazier, where are your manners? Don't you know it isn't nice to pass up girls when you could give them a ride?

Theron, did you have fun last Saturday night? Oh, you don't know what we mean. I wonder why.

Joan, which one is it—Frank or Harold? Snooper would really like to know.

Why was Virginia Ruth threatening to murder a certain girl after reading Snooper on February 28?

Snooper would like to know the different hours different ones got home after the party Saturday, Feb. 28.

A certain little freshman girl is more interesting than all others, isn't she, Ross?

Tom, why were you singing so happily? It couldn't be a new girl, could it?

Bob Nichols, what hit you in the show Wednesday night?

Loyd Deaton, someone was looking for you in the show Wednesday night. Can you guess who?

We notice Donald Smith is courting an underclassman.

Clara Alice was wishing someone would come to the show Wednesday night. Oh, we all know who it was.

Girls, if you want to attract Bob Nichols, just hit him with a spit-ball.

H. E. Girls Studying Child Care, Clothes

Each day finds more and more mothers stepping into defense and other jobs left vacant by men who have joined our armed forces. What's to be done about the small children they leave at home? Very likely child centers will be established away from points of invasions—perhaps in West Texas or in the Middle Western states. Chances are that young girls will have charge of these child centers.

The homemaking IIb class has been studying child care. The things taken up under this subject were formation of desirable habits, daily routine discipline and clothing.

A child should not be spanked for his wrongs, but a more effective punishment is to deprive him of some of his privileges. For example, if a child abuses his toys, take them away for a while. When he has learned his lesson, give it back to him. Be sure to correct your children when you hear them tell tales that may be "cute", but must be corrected. It is in early childhood that a lifetime habit is formed. See that they have plenty of sunshine and the right kinds of food. It is important that a child should have the right food acquirments. A child should have three regular meals a day, sleep should be at least 14 to 16 hours a day, and plenty of sunshine and play outdoors with other children.

When buying children's clothing, be very careful as to the kind of material, making sure it is soft and not scratchy. The print or design of material should not be of big flowers or big check, but small, dainty prints. The design of dress should not be fancy but cute and attractive and also be sure that the dress doesn't fit tight and irritate the child.

Children should be taught to be independent and help care for themselves. Any child who has reached two years of age can begin to dress himself. The child's garments should open down the front and have large buttons. Belts and ties are unnecessary and should not be placed on the garments of very small children.

OUR FLAG
By Lizzie Belle Phillips
When our flag goes passing by,
With its red, white and blue,
Dear Uncle Sam
It makes me think of you.

When our flag goes passing by,
With its colors bright and gay,
I think of our fighting soldiers
Day after day.

When our flag goes passing by,
With colors nice and bright,
Buy defense bonds and stamps
And help our country right.

When our flag goes passing by,
With beautiful red, white and blue,
Do you ever stop to think,
That the soldiers are fighting for you?

They will make a nice little nest
Where their baby birds will rest.

And hurt her head
Then she went to bed
And next morning she was dead!

H. E. Girls Learn Of Clothes Budgeting

When a girl chooses her wardrobe she must think of all the things she has on hand that she can wear and that can be made over. She wants to know what accessories she has to wear with each dress. She must also consider if the material is durable, fast colored, and suited for the occasion for which it is to be worn. It has to be the right color and design to suit her personality. If she is a timid girl she would not want a loud dress but one in pastel colors, and visa versa.

A girl must consider her budget when choosing a wardrobe. If she is on a limited budget, she can have only the things she needs. She must consider how much she has to spend for the seasons of the year. She would usually spend more in the winter because the materials are heavier and naturally cost more. If the girl wanted a coat and a suit she would have to decide which she wanted and buy one one year and the other the following year as to have enough money to have what she needs through the other seasons.

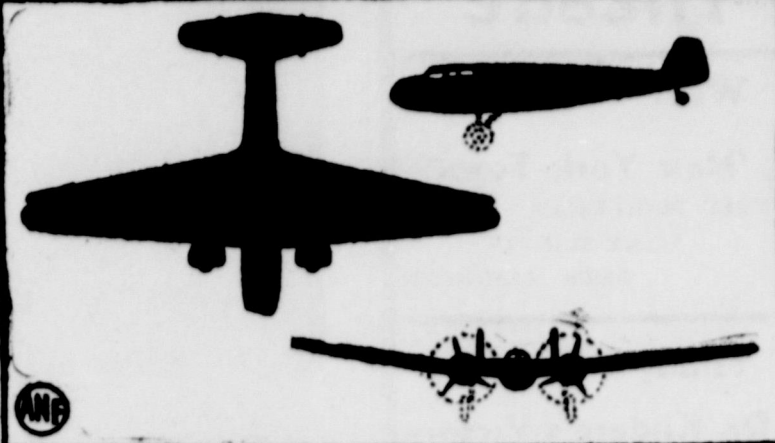

The girl should make out a plan for her wardrobe for two years in advance. The reason for this is she may have something that she can make over for the following year. She may have accessories she may use with things she will buy. It is always wise to plan the wardrobe for two years.

Now is the time for a girl to plan the wardrobe carefully because of the war. Material is going to be hard to get now because it is needed for war purposes. Things are costing more, so now everyone should plan carefully and wisely so as to have enough durable and comfortable clothes as well as smart, and attractive clothes.

Similar in size and detail to the Junkers Ju 88, the craft has landing gear which is retractable into engine nacelle, leaving lower half of the wheels protruding. The bomber is used by both the Japanese Army and Navy. Note the swept-back tapered wings and the twin tail structure.

I want... FIGHTING DOLLARS

America must be strong. Every man and woman must contribute their strength to the strength of America at war.

Some are carrying guns—some are flying planes—some are giving their blood on ships at sea.

YOU on the home front must buy those guns—those planes—those ships. That must be your contribution to freedom under fire! BUY DEFENSE STAMPS AND BONDS TODAY—buy them with every penny you have to spare!

Why Build CASTLES IN THE AIR? BRING THEM DOWN TO EARTH!

If you have had the notion for a long time of building a home, or repairing the home you have, or modernizing your barns and stock shelters, put the notion into action.

Materials are available in our stock, and the government does not want you to neglect the upkeep of your homes or the erection of new ones when they are needed.

24-Hour Alert

The men who guard our coastlines are on the alert 24 hours a day. Aircraft spotters, naval patrols, and the pilots who range far out at sea maintain a constant watch for enemy movements. They know that upon their vigilance depends the safety of the nation.

Unceasing watchfulness is also demanded of the men who provide your electric service. Theirs, too, is a 24-hour-a-day job... the job of maintaining a service vital to war production, to all industry, to business, agriculture and the home. They must be on guard against possible causes of service interruptions... quick to act in case of storms, floods or other emergencies. Day or night, they must be ready to uphold the tradition of the electric business: "The service must not fail."

On the power front, as on the coast defense lines, unrelenting vigilance is the watchword for the duration.

Soldier of industry... guardian of your electric service... the line-man, like the men in uniform, is ready day or night to go where duty calls.
