SALVAGE CAMPAIGN IS UNDER WAY

CULMINATE IN BIG RALLY DAY
SEPTEMBER 11; STORES TO CLOSE
FROM 10:30 A. M. UNTIL 3:30 P. M.

Salvage depots designated by the Victory Zone chairman at the Ferguson lot are being contacted by citizens in districts and with citizens county rounding up their scrap metals and rubber, all in preparation for the Big Rally on September 11. This will be a success.

Business men of the town have been requested to close their stores from 10:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. on September 11. In those hours it is hoped that the salvaged war materials will grow by many thousands of pounds.

Meeting Of Club In H. Savage Home

Members of the Sanderson Club gathered at the home of Mrs. W. H. Savage for a meeting Thursday, August 27. Mrs. J. W. McKee was the guest of honor. This meeting was the opening of a new year for the club during which time an itinerary tour of Latin American countries will be made.

Guests arrived at one o'clock and found card tables in the living room laid for a Latin American luncheon. Everyone attempted the translation of the menus found at each table, although few were able to do so. The menu was served in Spanish and consisted of a special dish from each of the different Latin American countries. This dinner luncheon was served on plates of Mexican blue glassware. The centerpiece was a bud vase with lilies and maidenhair fern and the dessert was served in blue tureen on small blue plates.

Bomber Pilots Are Reminded by Scroll, Bond Buyers 'Ride With You' on Attacks

Inglewood, Calif.—War Bond purchasers throughout the United States this week were reminded in growing number to the announcement by North American Aviation that they could "autograph" a B-25 bomber. J. H. Kindelberger, company president, revealed.

Requests that "my name be written on a bomber that'll fly over Berlin or Tokyo" were contained in thousands of letters, telegrams and postcards listing the serial numbers of bombers purchased by the writers.

So overwhelming is the response, Kindelberger said, that the "autographs" will be printed on scrolls which are to be placed in the bombers before they are delivered to the armed forces of the United States.

The scrolls will carry the following message addressed to the crew:

"Signifying their patriotic desire to ride in spirit with you in this North American B-25 bomber, these Americans have given serial numbers of War Savings Bonds they have purchased, and have requested that their names accompany the crew on every mission. Wherever your duties

WILL YOU DO YOUR PART?

Citizens of Terrell County are again called upon to get out and do their part in the effort being put forth for the winning of the war. They have been called upon to collect every piece of junk available so that it may be sent in and converted into materials that the United Nations so sorely need.

The Salvage Campaign starts Saturday, and continues through next week, culminating in a supreme effort by every man, woman and child on Friday, September 11, with that day set aside as Junk Rally Day. This is not merely a local junk rally. Every county, town and hamlet in the United States is putting forth just such an effort to collect the scrap. The public has been informed as to the type of junk needed and why it is needed. . . . and local people, and particularly the business men of the town, are getting behind this drive because they realize its vital importance.

You, too, are urged to realize just what this effort will mean to those conducting the war . . . to those boys of our own community who are fighting for us and who need the equipment which will be forged from junk salvaged over the nation. You are urged to gather every available piece of scrap iron, steel or rubber, small or large, and put it where it can be picked up by the Boy Scouts or carry it to the salvage heap. Members of the Salvage Committee are counting on you to do your part. . . . The boys in the services are counting on you to do your part. . . . And Uncle Sam is counting on you to do your part. Will you do it? We believe that you will.

Service Firms Must File Ceiling Prices By September 10th

Filling stations, laundries, shoe repair shops, dry cleaners, and all others who render services either to consumers, wholesalers or manufacturers were reminded this week by J. M. Hayre, chairman of Terrell County War Price and Rationing Board, that they are required by OPA regulations to file their ceiling price lists with the local county board before midnight of September 10th.

"Anyone affected by this regulation," Mr. Hayre said, "is invited to come by the office of the county board and obtain a sample copy showing how these statements should be filed."

"The government and our friends and neighbors need to cooperate to make price control effective. It will help all of us to maintain the security of our businesses and our homes. We are counting on every supplier of services to do his part."

Mr. Hayre pointed out four things which suppliers of services must do:

1. Find out the ceiling price for every service supplied, why this was the price charged to each class of customer during March, 1942, and if the service was not actually supplied but was offered, the offering price now becomes the selling price.
2. Keep all existing records showing any of the prices charged during March, 1942. If a supplier (Continued to back page)

Game Warden Employs Sleuth Tactics In Capture of Off-Season Deer Slayers

By MRS. A. N. ALKIRE
(In Alpine Avalanche)

Again it has been demonstrated that if Game Warden Tom Redford gets on your trail, you might as well stop and let him talk to you. Your car may outrun him and give you temporary freedom, but in the end you'll find you've only wasted gasoline and tires . . .

Two men, said to be from Oklahoma, learned the truth of the foregoing paragraph one night recently. Mr. Redford had learned that deer were being killed illegally in the mountainous country beyond the Bloys camp meeting grounds and was watching for the killer. One night soon after he began his vigil he sighted a car on the road near the camp ground traveling toward Fort Davis. He attempted to flag it down with his flashlight, but instead of stopping, the driver almost ran over the game warden and continued on his way at high speed.

Mr. Redford gave chase in his own car, but was soon hopelessly outdistanced, being barely able to catch occasional glimpses of the receding taillight. But he continued the pursuit and near the Red Barn ranch, a little way outside of Fort Davis, he found where a car had pulled

Penalties Imminent For Tax Delinquents Warns S. S. Director

Frank Scofield, collector of internal revenue, announced this week the release of special delinquent notices to all employers of the Austin District who have not filed employer's tax return reporting wages paid to employees during the quarter year period ended June 30, 1942.

"My office heretofore has lodged very few complaints against social security and Federal employment taxpayers who have not filed their returns and paid the tax on time," Mr. Scofield stated. "The law has now been in effect for more than five years and by this date every such taxpayer should fully understand the importance of filing these returns on time and must know the severe penalties which may be imposed for delinquency. In view of this fact and because of the unusual amount of work which my office and field forces are called upon to perform, not only with respect to all other taxes imposed under the present war program, the Treasury Department feels that it is not possible nor reasonable to require Deputy Collectors to unnecessarily spend their time in an effort to contact delinquent taxpayers. The present program which I am required to carry out as Collector of this District provides that taxpayers who disregard their obligations as to the filing of returns on time shall be referred to the United States District Attorney with full report of the violation. I sincerely hope that every employer of this District will immediately file any return due and otherwise bring his accounts up to date as required so that it will not become necessary to make complaint of such violations to the Department of Justice."

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold a meeting Thursday of next week at 4:15 in the afternoon. All school patrons and other interested parties are urged to be present for this meeting, which will be held in the high school auditorium.

The Rev. Taft Holloway spent several days here this week visiting.

Your Soldier Boy Eats a Ton a Year While in the Army

College Station — Johnny Doughboy is a husky young fellow and he does a stiff day's work. That's why he eats a lot more than Mr. Average Citizen. That's another reason why the nation's farmers are producing vastly increased amounts of food in the Food for Freedom program.

The Texas USDA War Board points out that the records of the U. S. Army Quartermaster Corps and the Department of Agriculture indicates that:

- Every day a soldier drinks more than a quart of milk in some form or other. A civilian drinks less than a quart in two days.
- Every day a soldier eats almost seven pounds of food. That's three pounds more than a civilian eats.
- Every week a soldier eats 9 eggs. A civilian eats fewer than 6 eggs a week.
- Every week a soldier puts away 5½ pounds of meat, poultry and fish. A civilian eats less than 3 pounds.
- Every year a soldier eats 1¼ tons of food. A civilian eats less than ¾ of a ton.
- Every year a soldier eats 2,485 pounds of food. A soldier eats 1,406 pounds. It takes half a ton more to keep a soldier fit.

For sheer planned brutality, the Axis have proven themselves comparable to the barbarians of ancient history. In World War I there was much talk of atrocities. But many of the atrocity stories were made up out of whole cloth for purposes of propaganda. Real atrocities were scattered and relatively rare, and they were not done as a matter of governmental policy. In World War II, to the contrary, murder and rape and devastation are pursued by the Germans and the Japanese almost as a matter of routine—and that fact has been completely substantiated by reputable eyewitnesses. It makes little difference to the Gestapo whether a man is guilty or innocent, as the mass executions of hostages abundantly testify. The Axis radio, at times, actually boasts of the wanton slaughter of non-combatants.

President Roosevelt, during the course of a recent warning to Axis officials that retribution would come when the war ends, said, "The practice of executing scores of innocent hostages in reprisal for isolated attacks on Germans in countries temporarily under the Nazi heel, revolts a world already united in suffering and brutality. . . . Civilized people long ago adopted the basic principle that no man should be punished for the deed of another." That principle has been entirely abandoned by the Axis.

The Axis is deliberately exterminating entire populations. Hitler himself has said that the Poles must be liquidated—and, according to reports which have seeped out of Warsaw, the death rate has assumed incredible proportions, especially in the Jewish areas. Starvation is rampant in Greece, and some authorities believe that within two years, under present conditions, the Greek people will virtually disappear. Men who have escaped from Jap concentration camps in Hongkong and elsewhere, say that the Japanese are pursuing an almost identical policy. Captured soldiers and civilians alike are given almost no food. They are denied all medical supplies and attention. Sanitary conditions are literally horrible. And these people, as a result, are dying like flies.

One of the latest Axis innovations, shoot every male resident, and send the women and children to forced labor within Germany. For every attack made on Axis officials, major or minor, dozens of innocents are executed. When a really important Axis official is killed, such as "Hangman" Heydrick of the Gestapo, the toll of slaughter runs far into the hundreds.

When the war ends, as the President has said, the men responsible for this will be brought to justice. And a long list of quislings within the occupied nations who are working hand in glove with the Axis will also have to face judges appointed by the people in whose ruin and torture they have collaborated. In the meantime, Hitler's barbarous tactics have not broken the spirit of the conquered nations. To the contrary, the flame of revolt burns ever higher. Sabotage goes on. Germans are found dead in the towns and countryside of France, Greece, Holland, the Netherlands, the Balkans, etc. And in all of the occupied nations, amazingly well developed "undergrounds" exist.

The men who belong to these undergrounds are unknown. The names of many of them will never be known. Theirs is the most risky and desperate of undertakings. Every second of the day they must face the specter of death by torture. This is the highest kind of human courage. Life recently ran an article on the French underground which is especially effective. The leaders quietly and continually plan sabotage of the Nazi war effort in French factories. They print little newspapers which are widely circulated and which bring to the enslaved French people news of the world outside their borders. As part of this work, the French Underground has compiled an interesting "blacklist" of men and women who are marked for assassination. All the names on that list belong to Frenchmen who have sold out to Germany. And some of the names are world famous: Petain; Weygand; Laval; Derain, the painter; Mistinguett, the celebrated music hall star; Carpentier, the pugilist; Maurice Chevalier, the movie actor; etc., etc. The Free French have pledged that not one of the men and women on that list will escape swif justice at the earliest possible time.

To quote the President's warning once again, "The Nazis might have learned from the last war

This week—Remember?

September 2, 1932

Miss Kathleen Sullivan has been elected to teach at Comstock and will leave today, Friday, to assume her duties there.

Sanderson and Terrell County, as well as surrounding territory both east and west of here, has had splendid rains this week. Within an hour's time Tuesday afternoon close to two inches of rain fell within the city and all streets for awhile were like rivers.

Considerable excitement prevailed at the Punch Roberts ranch, situated in Brewster County, when late last Sunday afternoon, Edward William Wheeler, the 21-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wheeler, could not be found.

The little fellow, who is a good rider despite his age, was riding a pet pony, and went off while the rest of the members of the family were at the supper table. When darkness approached and he could not be found around the ranch house, search was instituted for him. He was found about 9 o'clock that night about 2 miles from the house astride his pony and waiting for someone to come and loosen the reins which had been caught on the limbs of a tree. When rescued, the little fellow was very unconcerned about the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nance and children returned Sunday from El Paso where they visited relatives for several days the past week. Accompanying them were Mrs. Nance's mother, Mrs. F. N. Harrell and son Willis. The party went through the Carlsbad Caverns Saturday.

Monahans News—Two contracts were let Tuesday, and one prior to that time on the Pyote Army Flying School which is to be constructed just west of Pyote, it was announced by officials.

Sabinal Sentinel—Shipment of a carload of rubber, comprising about 53,000 pounds, brought home to the people of the community the successful scrap rubber drive staged here recently. This carload shipment was not the total amount collected—much of the scrap rubber remains to be shipped out.

Ozona Stockman—Lambs are getting scarce in Crockett county and buyers are beating the brush to buy them at 11 cents a pound. They've not all been sold, but perhaps contracts are already signed for most of Crockett county's 1942 crop and, with buyers on the hunt, the balance won't be long unsold.

Fort Stockton Pioneer—Rep. R. E. Thomason, congressman from the 16th District of Texas, was a visitor in Fort Stockton Monday on a tour of the district and inspection of the new military facilities in this area.

While here he visited Miller Field with Lt. Gov. H. L. Winfield and expressed great satisfaction with the site, type of construction being done, and with the operation of the 9th Army Air Force Flying Training Detachment.

Don't yank that appliance cord -- it may be hard to replace

YANKING an appliance cord loose in the manner illustrated above not only frays the covering and loosens connections, but also may result in a blown fuse from a short circuit. Perhaps you are not guilty of this practice but it's well to remind yourself continually that it's going to be necessary to handle your electrical equipment with "kid gloves" these days.

With the electric appliance industry devoting its full efforts to war production, appliance cords among other things are going to be hard to replace. You'll need them to continue to enjoy the step-saving, work-saving convenience of your electric appliances, so handle them with care. Disconnect appliances by pulling the plug, not the cord—and when you put the cord away, coil it loosely in a drawer instead of hanging it over a nail or hook. Your cords will last longer and you'll be making a small but important contribution to the wartime conservation program.

As I Was Saying . . .

By Aynah Nemus

In San Antonio, last weekend, I mused around town with several reserve aviation cadets who had been at Brooks Field for several months without seeing the inside of a plane. In fact one of the group was perturbed at a spectre he saw and exclaimed, "What is that?" "That's an airplane." "Oh."

At an ice cream counter (They sat down at it by mistake) they chatted about goings on.

"O. B.," inquired one, "How come you're not in the Marines?"

"Oh, I enlisted for marines, but they looked at me physique and put it in the cavalry. A jeep ran me down at camp and they brought me to. I passed out again and they brought me two more. But in the mix-up they shipped me to Georgia with the signal corps. When they discovered the error there, they started me back to Texas; but the trains got crossed and I wound up in North Carolina in the quartermaster corps. The coast guard mistook me for a member because I couldn't swim, but before I got far with them, a M. P. grabbed me and put me in a cook's corps guardhouse, and we headed for Denver.

"At St. Louis, a blackout put me in a nurses' corps, but as luck would have it, they found me out. I fell in the river in the rush, and they drug me out at New Orleans for levee duty. I fell in love there and when she moved to San Antonio, I followed her. My uniform got me a job as bell hop in her hotel; but one day I forgot to stop the elevator at the top floor and an airplane caught me at 5,000 feet. They took me for a mechanic who forgot to get off at the field and brung me in.

"I was looking for a left-handed bomb rack and went into a class-room and here I am. This army sure works funny, but I ain't gonna buck their decisions, see."

No one seemed surprised at his adventure, and I don't think they even believed him. That made me mad, because I did.

Lee Roy Williams of Carrizo Springs visited here Tuesday and Wednesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tisdale.

Mrs. J. A. Oberling returned last week from New Orleans, La., where she has been several weeks with her daughter, Laura, who has undergone two operations there recently.

Kenneth Litton left Saturday for San Antonio where he reported Monday at the Marine headquarters and was assigned to a training station. He volunteered several weeks ago.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Helen Downie last week were Mrs. R. F. Spencer, San Antonio; Tom Burns, San Antonio; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shaw, Austin.

Week-end guests in the home of Mrs. Helen Downie were Lt. and Mrs. Ed Downie and Lt. and Mrs. Harry Sanders, all of Pecos.

LOSES HIS MONEY ON AERO STUNTS

"Pennies have fallen from heaven" and at the expense of Fitz Lee, flying instructor at Miller Field, operated by Pacific Air Schools, Ltd. While doing snap rolls with his student over the irrigated lands north of Fort Stockton, he recalls seeing his billfold, containing $32 and several very valuable licenses needed in his work, fall from the plane. Some worker picking cotton, plowing a field, or irrigating, should be watching for a black zipper-type combination billfold and license holder. Mr. Lee offers a reward for its return. The licenses can be re-issued, but require much routine to secure them a second time. -Ft. Stockton Pioneer.
