LOOKING AHEAD

PENNY WISE

History in war can not be bought with money alone. There is something to do which can not be bought in terms of money. Wars always take a heavy toll of life, limb, health, and human happiness. Along with all this, war costs a vast amount of work. Money is only a medium of exchange, a relatively accurate measure of the work performed.

The United States, now in the midst of the biggest struggle of history, is spending money at a rate of 100 billion dollars a year. With the highest tax rates applied in this country, our government is raising money at a rate of 40 billion dollars a year, borrowing the difference. Taxpayers will be in the front line of the war effort. If things go along as they probably will.

War obligations usually are paid faster than they are paid. Nobody is expecting Uncle Sam to liquidate the war debt on its anniversary day. It will be 200 million dollars by July 1, 1944. That is for every body this can be retired at a rate slower than fighting. Experts in various political camps agree that costs of the war will approximate 20 billion dollars a year. It's a safe bet.

20 billion dollars is a big job to work off in a year, but it can be done. We are raising 40 billion a year now with everybody working; surely we raise 20 billion after the interest payments on debt are in the 20 billion. We do it if employment is high, if we are still plentiful and paid. We can do it with tax rates cut in half, unless there is work.

People who work will pay the share of post-war taxes. Two thirds of our national income was wages and salaries. Politicians may try to Wall Street millionaires, but it will not be enough. The people who pay tax on incomes of $25,000 or more were in one stadium, all our incomes would be there, and the whole assembly not pay half of 20 billion a year—not even with a 50 percent income tax. There are enough millionaires.

The Employment Stabilization Program is designed to promote the greatest amount of war production and all workers can cooperate to this end by full compliance with the Plan.

If workers are to avoid a penalty of an unemployed period when they move from one Area to another, they must secure Statements of Availability from their former employer or from the USES located in the Area of their former employment.

The Employment Stabilization Program is designed to promote the greatest amount of war production and all workers can cooperate to this end by full compliance with the Plan.

FIFTH WAR LOAN SCHEDULED TO START JUNE 12 AND CONTINUE THROUGH JULY 8

TERRELL COUNTY QUOTA $100,000; LARGEST TO DATE

A state quota of 464 million dollars for the Fifth War Loan, June 12-July 8, has been announced by State Chairman Nathan Adams of the War Finance Committee of Texas. This is the largest sum yet and the drive will be "a big and vital effort," Adams said.

Of the total, $236 million has been set for individual Texans alone, $125 million of this to be in Series E Bonds.

The quota set for Terrell County is $100,000 according to an announcement by Chairman C. P. Peavy.

"It is going to be big and tough—the biggest and the toughest drive," Adams said in warning that all of the nearly seven million people of Texas must face the facts.

But "it can be done," Adams insisted. "It has been proved."

He pointed out that during the Fourth War Loan more was raised than the total quota for the Fifth. The overall goal for the Fourth was $395 million and Texans subscribed $480 million.

"No one is exempt," Adams said. "Our boys are dying for you and for me. Think of the invasion and you cannot think of not buying war bonds."

"Our victory volunteers must, of course, do a large part in cutting out the great Texas market," he said in praising the past efforts of the victory volunteers.

"It will be a severe home-front test for every person in the state," he said.

"Every penny from Memorial Day poppies sold in this and in thousands of other towns, villages and cities in the country, is contributed to the welfare and rehabilitation work of the American Legion and Auxiliary," according to Mrs. R. E. Corder, president of the local Auxiliary unit.

Many people have wondered what will become of the money collected Saturday, May 27, and it was pointed out that children left fatherless by two world wars are the special concern of the Legion and the Auxiliary. "The veterans and their dependents are the ones who benefit from the poppy sale," she said.

"Not only from the money that results from selling the poppies, but also from having something tangible to do instead of having to rest, read or talk. These men in the government hospitals are glad to keep their fingers busy and their minds occupied with the intricacies of fashioning the poppies. Needy wives and children also receive benefits from the sale of the flowers."

The government looks after the physical welfare of the disabled men who are in hospitals in almost every state, but there are things which the government cannot provide, such as the understanding aid and the personal attention that so often helps a disabled man and which often helps to keep a family together when the chief breadwinner is incapacitated.

This is what the money from the poppy sale helps to accomplish. It is hoped that this year more and more people will buy the poppies and show their interest in and their sympathy for the men who have fought for them and are now struggling to get back to the point where they can again become self supporting.

The materials from which the poppies are made are furnished free to the veterans by the American Legion Auxiliary and Volunteer workers teach the disabled men to make the poppies. The entire poppy program from the supplying of the poppy materials, to the distribution of the finished flowers to the American public, is under the management of the Auxiliary.

The Junior Woman's Club met for a luncheon at the Kerr Hotel Saturday May 13, at 12:30 o'clock.

The center piece on the table was a bouquet of larkspur and bridal wreath with a United States flag. Favors were book marks with the "Pledge to the Flag" inscribed. Place cards were triangular shaped and tied with red, white and blue ribbons. Mrs. James Todd and Miss Mildred Coughran provided the decorations.

On the program Mrs. Gay Franks gave "Part-Time Samaritans" by T. E. Murphy. The book section, "Dune Boy" by Edwin Way Teale was interestingly reviewed by Mrs. Russell Walker. It was decided the program for next year will be based on the Reader's Digest, and more club and community talent will be used.

Those present were: Misses Armenta Ragsdale, Coughran, Margaret Kinkler, Anna Lee Allen, Marion Brieger, Margaret Lattimore and Mesdames C. G. Bradford, Walker, T. W. Cox, Todd, Roy Deaton, Franks and Conway Pickard.

Supt. Tom Holley was a business visitor to Fort Stockton Friday of last week.

Mrs. H. D. Williams visited here Thursday. She was enroute to Houston where she will visit several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lester of Robstown are here visiting with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Talbot.

Mrs. A. L. Fawcett went to San Antonio Tuesday where she visited until Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Little Epperson.

HEALTH OFFICER ADVISES REGULAR VISITS TO DENTIST

Contrary to the popular belief that pyorrhea is incurable, this is only true in the most advanced cases. Dr. Geo W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises those persons who even suspect the presence of pyorrhea to take and seek an early diagnosis so that proper treatment can be instituted while the disease is still curable.

Early detection and proper treatment represent the formula for a successful cure. This means that the dentist must have an opportunity to discover the presence of pyorrhea at the earliest possible moment since the symptoms are often so vague that the patient is unaware of its existence," Dr. Cox said.

"Regular visits to the family dentist are therefore extremely important."

The treatment of pyorrhea is not an involved procedure. In the average early case one of the main therapeutic features is the proper hygienic care of teeth and gums as outlined by any reputable dentist. Carelessness regarding mouth hygiene is usually the basic cause for the condition.

The family dentist can usually remove the cause of the trouble, Dr. Cox said, and when this has been done intelligent routine home-care of the mouth by the patient will effect a cure in the majority of early cases.

Concern regarding pyorrhea should not be based upon the misguided notion if its incurability, according to the State Health Officer, but rather that it be discovered by the dentist when still in a curable stage.

FROM TEXAS TO TOKIO

Lt. Marvin R. Drum and Mrs. Drum visited here Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Grigsby. Lt. Drum is stationed at Camp Barkley, Abilene.

Tom Breeding, stationed in the Solomon Islands writes his sister, Mrs. Mary Lou Kellar, that he has been promoted to chief carpenter's mate. Says he is getting along fine and that he is looking forward to the time when he can come home.

The Japs seem to be losing their money right along. Mrs. Maude Sullivan has received from her son, Pfc. Dick L. Sullivan of the South Pacific, a piece of paper money. The bill, shorter and wider than our dollar bill, is worth "10 yen" according to printing on one side of it. Or maybe we should have said that was its value in Japan but the only value it has now is as a souvenir. On the other side of the bill appeared the picture of a former emperor or "big shot" (we suppose) and in each corner was printed a small number 10. In the top center appeared the rising sun.

Dick stated that his camp is in a grove of cocconut trees, and that he used to like cocconuts but he didn't like them any more.

Miss Margaret J. Higgins, yeoman third class, of the Waves, arrived here Wednesday from Washington, D. C., for a 14-day leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Higgins. She flew by plane to San Antonio. Miss Higgins is in communications of the Navy Department and says that she likes her work very much.

Lt. Joe N. Kerr, Jr., who has been stationed at Pecos as an instructor, is now at Bryan Field, Bryan, where he is receiving special training in instrument flying. He stated that he would be there about a month.

T. W. Cox, who has been stationed here with the Immigration Service, left Monday for San Antonio where he was inducted into the navy.

Lt. and Mrs. Herbert Brown and little daughter, Diane, have been here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Bustin Canon and with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brown. Lt. Brown has been stationed near Austin where they have been making their home.

Pvt. Dewain E. Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hill of Sanderson, has been assigned to the AAF Training Command Radio School at the Sioux Falls Army Air Field, Sioux Falls, S. D., for training as a radio operator-mechanic. Upon completion of a 20-week course, he will be fully trained to take his place as a member of a highly skilled bomber crew of the Army Air Forces.

Aviation Cadet Patrick F. Sullivan, son of Mrs. Maude Sullivan, has reported for duty at Frederick Army Field, Oklahoma. Upon completion of a 10-week course at this advanced twin-engine school for bomber pilots, Cadet Sullivan will be awarded his wings and commission June 27th, before being assigned to one of the nation's big bomber transition schools for the combat training that will fit him to take part in the cloud of invasion over Hitler's Europe or Tojo's shrinking Asia.

Capt. Seth R. Davenport has been in England two months now and says he wishes every American could stay there for a while so they would really appreciate America. He made a trip to Stratford on the Avon and saw the house Shakespeare was born in. James Davenport, D. D., a distant relative of Capt. (Continued to page 4)

AT THE PRINCESS—

"HAPPY LAND" BEAUTIFUL STIRRING SCREEN TRIUMPH

A great and heart-warming picturization of MacKinlay Kantor's "Happy Land" comes to the screen of the Princess Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, and brings with it a stirring film experience you'll cherish for all the days of your years.

For this inspired filming of MacKinlay Kantor's best-loved, best-seller, which features Don Ameche, Frances Dee, Harry Carey and Ann Rutherford, is the story of the greatness of an every-day man and woman who found themselves only after they thought they had lost everything... of all the laughter and tears and courage of an American boy and girl—rolled into one great human story as gallant as America's own dauntless heart.

As such, this triumph of hearts too strong to break, of courage too valiant to shatter, and of love too powerful to be conquered is as glorious a story as any victory on the battlefield, "Happy Land" is indeed a picture that mists the eyes, arouses your laughter and warms your heart with the joys and dreams of triumphs of people you'll find a rare delight to know.

In what is an inspired triumph of casting Don Ameche appears as Lew Marsh in whose friendly drugstore a small town's great drama of tears and laughter is played; Frances Dee as Agnes, his wife, whose courage conquered the cruelest thing that can ever happen to a woman; Harry Carey as lovable "Gramp" who was destined to change people's lives even if he had to change worlds to do it; and Ann Rutherford as Lenore Prentiss, the girl who made herself over to the image and likeness of the girl of one boy's dreams. All give truly superb portrayals, matched by the outstanding support of Cara Williams, Richard Crane, Henry Morgan, Minor Watson and Dickie Moore.

William Allen White, the famous editor, said: "If I had but one gift that I could give to everyone in the land, high or low, rich or poor, military or civilian, it would be 'Happy Land.'" The film version of "Happy Land" gives a heightened meaning to that statement. Happy, indeed, is the land that can give us such a story! And happy are you who can thrill to it. For this will always be a happy land while there are men and women like these to laugh with, to love with, and to share every gallant moment with.

"THE GANG'S ALL HERE" HAILED AS MUSICAL TOPS

Now we know why they shout, "Hail Hail," before "The Gang's All Here."

For that's just how critics the country over are acclaiming a great, new musical triumph scheduled to show Sunday and Monday at the Princess Theatre.

And when they say, "The Gang's All Here," they mean just that, for the picture boasts a dazzling galaxy of musical stars in musical history, headed by Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, radio's $64 question man, Phil Baker, and Benny Goodman and his famous Orchestra, with a brilliant supporting cast of top-notchers including Eugene Pallette, Charlotte Greenwood, Edward Everett Horton and Tony De Marco as well as James Ellison, Sheila Ryan and Dave Willock.

All in all, "The Gang's All Here" adds up to the most lavishly lovely, tunefully terrifically glorious musical of the year, what with Alice singing love songs as only she can sing them, Carmen as delightfully delirious as ever, Phil Baker "knocking them in the aisles" with his high hilarity, and the king of swing beating out the solid-sending rhythms that have made him America's No. 1 band leader.

The screen's crowning musical achievement has all that, and a heavenly helping of romance too. In one of the most delightfully exciting stories of the year, lovely Alice is cast as a night-club trowper who, without knowing it, is forced into competition with handsome James Ellison, an army hero, who contrives to keep the two girls apart by the ingenious device of splitting himself into two distinctly different and diverting personalities. Phil Baker, and Benny Goodman and his Orchestra, are aptly cast as "themselves" on the indisputable theory that "who can ask for anything more?"

HARRIET HILLIARD HEADS CAST OF TUNEFUL PICTURE

A mirthful matrimonial mishap is the story basis of the comedy-musical picture, "Honey-moon Lodge," coming Tuesday to the Princess Theatre. Announced as a laugh-filled movie spiced with sparkling vocal and instrumental interludes, the new film has a special cast which promises solid and satisfyng entertainment. Harriet Hilliard, David Bruce, June cent and Rod Cameron are headliners.

Those familiar with this wartime problem know that young folks go to places they shouldn't only when the proper places

HANNAH HASTYWASH - who habitually overloads her washing machine

Overloading a washer strains the motor and decreases washing efficiency. To heavy a load on wringer may lock rolls and even strip gears. So don't try to handle too many clothes at one time a la Mrs. Hastywash. Follow manufacturer's recommendations for loading. And check these other points on washer care:

- Don't plug in while agitator or wringer are in gear. You may blow a fuse.
Empty pins, nails, etc., from pockets to avoid damage to water pump.
Remove buckles, large buttons, etc., to prevent chewing up of wringer rolls.
Lift agitator and clean agitator shaft frequently to prevent "freezing" of agitator in one position.
Release pressure on wringer rolls when not in use. Saves springs and rubber.
Rinse tub and agitator thoroughly after each washing. Remove all soap curds and lint. Leave cover off tub until dry to prevent musty odor.
If stored near dust source, cover washer when not in use.
Lubricate your washer regularly, following manufacturer's directions.

Your washing machine is more valuable than ever in these days of household help shortage. Give it the care and attention it needs. Make it last!

 The program was developed by State health departments, the U. S. Public Health Service, and the Office of Community War Services of the Federal Security Agency and the Federal Works Agency. Federal funds, administered by FWA, were made available by the Lanham Act to establish and maintain the centers. Most of them are operated by State health departments and a few are operated directly by the federal Public Health Service. The Public Health Service provides consultation service to the other cooperating agencies, and also provides specially trained physicians, nurses, and technical personnel to operate the centers.

HISTORY OF THE 1944 GRADUATING CLASS

The purpose of this history is primarily to present to the students of Sanderson High School a clear and unprejudiced insight into the character and work of the 1944 class, and we hope that it may serve as a memento of the happy hours spent under the roof of Sanderson High.

On September 3, 1933, fifteen very small, meek, and somewhat frightened youngsters formed the first grade room. Among these fifteen could have been found Mary Nell Higgins, Maurine Frazier, Harold Surratt, David Duke, James Kerr, Freddie Talbot, John Louis Whistler—all members of the 1944 graduating class.

For seven years we labored in grammar school—during which time we were exposed to all the rigors of grammar school life. We were over-awed by verbs, fractions, and making illustrated booklets. Under the very capable leadership of some teachers and the very strict discipline of others, we had our ups and downs, as would be expected.

As we progressed through the years some of our classmates left us and the present classmates were added to our number. At the beginning of our third year, we welcomed Billy Joe Short and Maurine Cox as fellow classmates, and one year later, Harvey Rogers and Frank Stavley joined our number. In the fifth grade Bland Gates was welcomed, and in the seventh, our number was increased to include Harvey Agullar and Alonzo Cash. Thus we graduated from grammar school and launched on our career as high school students.

In September, 1940, the mild and trusting freshmen almost immediately after entering the portals of Sanderson High, were transformed into most harassed beings. The forms of "belt lines" in vogue in 1940, and the fact that all regarded the "innocent freshman as legitimate prey, were responsible for this change. Aside from the tortures of initiation—among which was a trip to paint the S. H. S. and Mrs. Duke's sunrise breakfast—the remainder of the freshman year proved calm and unexciting

Retired Workers Not Receiving Benefits May Be Eligible Should Contact the Social Security Office For Information

Inaccurate advise from well-meaning but inadequately informed friends may be costing some retired workers money in the form of old-age and survivors insurance benefits. Elliott W. Adams, manager of the San Angelo office of the Social Security Board, said today. The same kind of advice also may be keeping benefit checks from widows children and parents of workers who die, Mr. Adams said.

Mr. Adams advised that each worker who is 65 or over and has been working in covered employment should get in touch with the nearest office of the Social Security Board as soon as he quits his job. If he is qualified for benefits, the Board will advise him in filing a claim.

Similarly when a worker dies, the widow or other close relative should immediately contact the Social Security Board field office where complete assistance will be given in filing a claim for survivors' benefits, Mr. Adams said.

Contacts may be made by personal visit, by letter or by telephone.

Several retired workers who have delayed filing their claims have informed the Board that friends had told them they were not eligible, Mr. Adams said. "The best thing to do," he added, "is come to our office and secure correct information."

"Many workers of retirement age tell us that they did not realize that they may continue to earn credits toward benefits af-which added greatly to our benefit as we were absorbed in becoming accustomed to our new surroundings.

During our Sophomore year, Eugene Thompson joined our class. We, as bold and confident Sophomores, avenged ourselves on a new crop of fishes. It was during this year that we began to find our separate fields of interest. Many took the rugged road of science and math; while others of a more adventurous nature set forth into the unexplored land of history. Those who were planning to travel some day sojourned in the fields of Foreign Language, but we all trudged down the long trail of English Grammar and Literature. Some had special gifts from nature and these wandered off into the green valleys of art and down the rivers of music. Skating this year became a favorite sport and the social activities were climaxed by a large skating party at the Higgin's barn.

The Junior year started off very excitingly with five new members: Jay Tom Holley Wilma Woodruff, James Albert Mansfield, Bill Calk, and Frances Nevarez with Mrs. Bradford as our sponsor.

The first of many and varied activities was our feverish attempt to elect our candidate, Maurine Cox, queen.

Shortly after mid-term, we began rehearsing for our Junior play, "Almost Summer." During rehearsal we discovered much hidden talent in David, Jay Tom, and John Louis, in their piano and vocal rendition of "El Rancho Grande". After a very successful debut as actresses and actors we began preparation for our Junior-Senior Banquet. We chose as our motif, the Mardi Gras—the theme of which was carried out in the invitations, programs, and table decorations of floats representing story book land. This momentous occasion was followed by a dance given by the Junior Mothers at which the Mardi Gras theme was carried out in a beautifully decorated hall. This year we made a contribution to the War Effort by giving up two of our classmates—James Albert Mansfield and Bill Calk—who volunteered for service in the defense of their country.

In beginning our last year as ter reaching age 65, or that they may work in covered employment, even after benefits start, without sacrificing their retirement insurance rights," Mr. Adams said.

"The true facts are that a worker may qualify for retirement benefits at any age above 65. He merely gives up his benefit for those months in which he earns as much as $15 in covered employment."

RECEPTION HELD FOLLOWING RECITAL
 Following the recital Tuesday evening presented by the pupils of Mrs. May T. Wilson and Mrs. James O. Todd, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. McAdams for the pupils and their parents, and those who assisted the two teachers with their program.

Punch and cookies were served to approximately 100 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. White arrived here Tuesday from Lytle where they have made their home for the past several months. Mrs. C. I. White had been visiting with them since Sunday, and returned here with them.

A daughter, Mrs. Jeff Pugh, of Laredo, brought them to Sanderson. Mrs. Whote who has been ill for several weeks, is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Chandler of Ozona arrived Wednesday for a visit with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chandler. A granddaughter, Betty Jo, plans to return with them and will spend the summer in Ozona.

There is probably more love in cottages than in palaces only because there are more cottages than palaces.

What if the flatterer does borrow money? Praise must be deserved, and that's the easiest way to deserve it.

dignified Seniors we again had our most beloved Mrs. B. as sponsor. Our minds were busy with the planning of our first assembly program and the Senior trip. On September 16, 1943, the Seniors left Sanderson High to explore the wilds of Garner Park for two days of fun. Swimming, hiking, wading, singing, eating, dancing, and moonlight strolls were featured in the never-to-be-forgotten journey. Of course, "seeing the sights" of that thriving metropolis of Garner Park and Uvalde was very instructive in itself, as traveling is always broadening to the mind.

On October 7, our Senior rings arrived, and on October 30, we crowned our candidate, Maurine Frazier, Queen Neewoloh II. The Senior class was well represented: Frank Stavley was our King, Mary Nell Higgins as Duchess, and James Kerr as Duke.

During the month of October we presented the one-act play, "Be Home By Midnight", sponsored a barbecue supper, a Mexican dinner, baseball game, and cake walk.

Climaxing the Christmas holidays the Juniors and Seniors met in the Library for an old fashioned Christmas tree and party.

The Spring social season was opened by Mrs. Tip Frazier honoring the Seniors with a lovely dinner in her home. This was followed by a barbecue supper at five-mile hill given by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Higgins.

Play rehearsals started March 26—the play selected being, "Don't Keep Him Waiting". Rehearsals were a repeat performance of our singing and playing artists whose hidden talents were discovered during the Junior rehearsals—the favorite song still being "Rancho Grande". On April 28, after dress rehearsal Mrs. Duke entertained the Seniors with a lovely buffet supper in her home, followed by a dance. The play was presented on April 29 to a large and appreciative audience, after which Mrs. Kerr entertained the Seniors and dates with a dance.

Since the school year has not ended we are looking forward to many more social events among which is the Junior-Senior Banquet and dance. Our time by no means has been entirely consumed by frivolities, for along with the fun went the serious side. We have struggled through Math, and Physics; and we have not forgotten to do our part in selling bonds and stamps; contributing to the American Red Cross, and helping to entertain our soldiers stationed in our vicinity.

On May 14, we will have our Baccalaureate Services and on May 19, we will leave the portals of Sanderson High School never to return as students.

Thus will end the History of the Class of 1944.

Ernestina Ochoa is making an apron from a dress. Graciela Luisa Calzada, and Harriet Pierson are making aprons from sacks. Engracia Perez is making a little boys shirt from a man's

New Version of an Old American Tradition

We were sitting on Ed Carey's porch, enjoying a friendly glass of beer, when a squadron of fighter planes goes over—in tight formation—swift and trim and powerful.

"There," says Ed proudly, "goes an American tradition."

"What do you mean, tradition?" Eben Crowell says, "America's a hundred sixty years old—flying's the newest thing there is."

"But those planes," says Ed, "they're the best in the world—the best made and the best flown. That's what I mean by an American tradition: making things, doing things. Just a little better, whether it's an airplane or a railroad or a glass of American beer like this."

And from where I sit, Ed put his finger on what makes America great—and will be her great. The urge to do things just a little better—from planes we make to the glass beer that we enjoy. Things to be proud of—all of them!
