Following a Scripture reading by the pastor, M. H. Goode, Sr. applied the mortar. The cornerstone used to seal the opening is made of Pennsylvania marble. Inscribed on its face is "First Methodist Church, 1899-1945."

The Post Office Department has extended the ruling prohibiting the mailing of newspapers to service personnel overseas without their written request to include members of the Navy Coast Guard and Marine Corps. Heretofore this ruling applied only to Army personnel.

Subscription renewals, as well as new subscriptions, are covered in the new ruling, and a request must be filed with the newspaper to renew a subscription to anyone in the armed forces receiving his mail through an Army or Navy post office.

Persons who have entered subscriptions to APO or FPO addresses are asked to secure requests for renewals as well as new subscriptions. The person sending the paper overseas must be responsible for obtaining the request.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THIS COMMUNITY

How long will the war with Japan last? Everybody has an answer to this question but our best advice is not to base your bond buying on whether you think it will take weeks or years to win in the Pacific. The best war conduct is always to be on an all-out war effort basis.

General Douglas C. MacArthur gave you the tipoff on what to expect before your relatives and friends take over a wrecked Tokyo. In the Philippine campaign only 185 Japanese surrendered in a slaughter which cost them 308,180 men.

Buy bonds in the 7th War Loan with a spirit of an American in combat. Give it to the Japs full force and with all your weapons. That's the way to do your part in the vital, mighty 7th War Loan. Now—all together.

Al Creigh, Jr., Posted As Guard When Listed Missing

A letter from the War Department recently received by Alfred E. Creigh, Jr., Alpine, concerning his son Pfc. Alfred E. Creigh, III, states that the status of the former Sanderson boy, who was reported missing in action since last December 24, has not yet been discovered.

The letter did disclose the mission to which the paratrooper together with another member of his outfit, had been assigned at the time he was reported as missing. Private Creigh's platoon was sent to destroy the highway and railroad bridge crossing the Salm River at Vielsalm, Belgium and he and another member of the platoon were posted as guards to warn friendly troops of the impending explosion.

According to the message, "the fuse was lighted and the two guards took cover after being informed shortly before midnight. This was the last contact made with Private Creigh and he was subsequently reported missing in action when his whereabouts could not be ascertained."

The lists of liberated prisoners of war received to date have been carefully checked, "but the name of Private Creigh does not appear on any of them." Assurances were given to Creigh that the military authorities are using every means available to them to determine the status and location of missing personnel, examining captured enemy records, interviewing soldiers participating in the same engagement and others just returned to military control, as well as prisoners taken by our forces. He was told in the letter that when an additional report concerning his son was received, he would be notified immediately.

OVER $18,000 IN WAR BONDS SOLD AT BOND PREMIERE

Over $18,000 worth of Series "E" bonds were sold at the box office of the Princess Theatre Saturday night when the management presented a bond premiere at eleven o'clock that evening, showing the film "Tomorrow the World."

Theatre-goers were admitted free to the film with the purchase of a Series "E" war bond. Although the showing of the premiere picture did not bring a full house, a fairly good crowd was in attendance. Individual purchases of bonds were in large denominations, the manager said.

Mrs. O. H. McAdams was hostess to the Baptist Missionary Society Monday afternoon in her home.

The program, on "Today's Youth—Tomorrow's Hope," was led by the hostess, and Mrs. A. D. Brown gave the Bible study. Subjects discussed during the program were "Today's Youth," Mrs. T. M. Beckett, "Youth and World Missions," Mrs. R. D. Craig, and "Light Tomorrow with Today," Mrs. Maude Sullivan and Mrs. J. H. Brookshire.

Ice cream and cookies were served by the hostess to the following: Mesdames Clyde Word, Maude Sullivan, J. H. Brookshire, C. Spencer, Annie Nance, A. D. Brown, T. M. Beckett, J. Y. Hobson, Ivy Robertson, M. A. Robertson, and R. D. Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Southall of Eagle Pass, and Mr. and Mrs. John Green, Jr., spent last weekend with relatives here.

Capt. Joe Kerr, Jr. Operations Officer Of 365th 'Hell Hawks'

A NINTH AIR FORCE FIGHTER-BOMBER BASE, Germany—Capt. Joseph N. Kerr, a P-47 Thunderbolt fighter-bomber pilot from Sanderson, Texas, has been appointed operations officer of the Ninth Air Force's famed 365th "Hell Hawk" group.

The Texas officer, son of Mrs. Josephine R. Kerr, flew more than 60 dive-bombing and strafing missions against Nazi targets in front of American ground forces on the western front. As operations officer of the veteran "Hell Hawk" group he is directly responsible for all flying activities of the outfit and for the training of newly assigned pilots.

Captain Kerr graduated from Sanderson high school in 1937 and attended St. Mary's University, San Antonio for two years. He was employed by the Magnolia Petroleum Co., in San Antonio, until he entered the army in November, 1941.

MEETING DATE CHANGED

The Ranch Home Demonstration Club will meet at 10:30 a.m. July 10, in the home of Mrs. C. P. Peavy, instead of on July 2, as was planned. All members are urged to be present.

WORKERS PROSPER

Workers in America still favor the system of free enterprise. Dominantly, our labor is in favor of open competition. The reason is that working people in America see how they have fared all right with private enterprise. Labor leaders express themselves freely in favor of capitalism.

Nobody has the working people of either country fooled. They have the truth in both cases. In England, labor has had a pretty shabby deal; in America the worker has lived well. The important question is this: British workers oppose capitalism and American workers favor it—can it be possible that they are talking about the same thing?

HAVE SAME NAME

Prior to World War II, the economic system in Britain was called private enterprise—same as in America. Moreover the two were quite a little alike, at first glance, except that wages on this side of the ocean were high and American workers lived more than twice as well as the British workers, trade for trade. The difference was that private enterprise in Britain was not free.

Private enterprise in England was hog-tied. Competition there was not actually open. Wasteful monopolies operated within the law. Private business concerns were fenced in with legal restraints on this and government restrictions on that. What they had was government-bossed private enterprise. Business men couldn't make money and therefore couldn't pay their workers.

Socialistic Labor
Working as hard as they could, British workers couldn't earn enough to live well. They needed new tools and modern methods so they could produce more; so their employers could pay better wages, but the employers could not buy better tools. They were so restricted that they couldn't make any money. Result: Labor unions formed a socialistic party and grabbed the government.

The same thing can happen here. America can keep free private enterprise and the prosperity that goes with it. With prosperity and progress, American firms can pay their workers well. But silly restrictions and heavy taxes can choke out profits. Without profits there will be no new tools, no progress, no better wages. Unhappy workers bring socialism. Socialism, nowhere in the world, has brought wages half as high as America now enjoys.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whistler left for San Antonio Saturday where Mrs. Whistler attended a chiropractors' convention Monday and Tuesday of this week. Mr. Whistler is having dental work done there.

FEAR THIS

Political developments in England this summer have made a show, profitable for Americans to watch. Peace in Europe is really felt in England; terror and bloodshed ceased for a time—for a long time we hope. Britain's post-war problems are upon her and they are almost exactly like ours will be when our war is over in the Pacific. There is however, one big difference.

The difference lies in what the working people think. British labor is socialistic, in large part; American labor is not. The British workers don't think they fared very well under the system in which private capital owned the factories and private management operated them in so-called competition. English laborers figure they would be better off if the government owned everything.

Workers in America still favor the system of free enterprise. Dominantly, our labor is in favor of open competition. The reason is that working people in America see how they have fared all right with private enterprise. Labor leaders express themselves freely in favor of capitalism.

Nobody has the working people of either country fooled. They have the truth in both cases. In England, labor has had a pretty shabby deal; in America the worker has lived well. The important question is this: British workers oppose capitalism and American workers favor it—can it be possible that they are talking about the same thing?

THE ALPINE AVALANCHE—Following two days of record heat for this area, with official temperature readings of as high as 100, last Saturday, local showers the past few days have brought back the usual mild summer weather to the Highland country.

The best rain reported in the area was on the Bird ranch south of Alpine Wednesday afternoon where three-fourths of an inch was recorded, covering a considerable area. Mrs. Bird said yesterday. The same afternoon a part of the John Lane and Vernon McIntyre ranches southwest of Alpine had some good local showers, with some hail.

THE BIG BEND SENTINEL Marfa—The Presidio area is at present the scene of an interesting experiment as cotton dusting in the Presidio valley, throughout 500 acres, may aid greatly in determining the true worth of "DDT," new in insect control, and developed when insecticides from the usual, foreign sources became unavailable.

The headquarters for the work is the Presidio station of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

A cooperative program of U. S. D. A. quarantine and research divisions the dusting series is from an airplane, flown in the early morning hours by Clyde Bryant of Elko, Nev. He uses a government plane of 185-horsepower, flying at a height of four to eight feet, and dusting about fifteen pounds to the acre from a 400-pound hopper in the plane. Bryant is experienced in the work, having fought grasshoppers and crickets in similar manner in several states.

THE UVALDE LEADER-NEWS—One of the largest auction sales ever to be held in this section of Texas has been announced by the operators of Garner Field primary flying Uvalde. The sale is to be on Thursday July 5, beginning at 10 a. m. There will be approximately $100,000 worth of equipment and all to be sold in one day. The sale will be in one of the large hangars, so will be held, rain or shine.

THE OZONA STOCKMAN—Contract has been awarded by the Crockett County Fair Association for repairs to the fair park grandstand, unroofed in a recent windstorm, it was announced this week by association officials. The grandstand top is to be rebuilt, using all materials salvaged from the damaged top plus necessary new material. The contract calls for a labor bill of $700 on the job.

MORGAN, MASSEY, PLAY IN "GOD IS MY CO-PILOT"

"God is My Co-Pilot," starring Dennis Morgan and Raymond Massey, comes to the Princess Theatre Sunday and Monday. Taken from the best-selling autobiography by Col. Robert Lee Scott Jr., of the Flying Tigers this motion picture is the story of a man's faith in his cause, his God and his way of life.

Briefly, the story is concerned with the life of Col. Robert Lee Scott, Jr., a gallant warrior and a brave flier. It is his story, told in his words—the jargon of the winged hellions of the Flying Tiger wing of which he was a part and in whose annals he cut a permanent niche. Scott (portrayed in the film by Dennis Morgan), a Georgia-born boy with the stars in his eyes, yearns for wings with a ferocity that eventually wins for him a pilot's commission in the Army of the United States. Pausing momentarily to woo and win the lady of his choice (Andrea King), Scott devotes his spare moments to perfecting a combat technique that is to stand him in good stead in later years.

"THUNDERHEAD," SEQUEL TO "FLICKA," HERE WED., THURS.

Patrons of the Princess Theatre will be transported to a world all Americans love best by way of a story close to all hearts, when the glorious Technicolor filming of Mary O'Hara's best-loved, best-seller, "Thunderhead—Son of Flicka" comes to the screen with Roddy McDowall, Preston Foster and Rita Johnson heading an outstanding cast.

This new film immediately draws comparison with its sensational screen predecessor, "My Friend Flicka." It is this reviewer's happy privilege to report that in every way, the current film is even more heart-stirring more unforgettable than the never to be forgotten "My Friend Flicka." It has all the power and sweep of the latter but is even more thrilling in its exciting action.

A Toast TO AMERICA!

These gentlemen of Japan are drinking to us. They are raising their cups in the hope that Americans will get "tired" carrying on a bitter war thousands of miles from home. The Japanese high command is counting on us to help her hold her stolen empire.

The only way we will upset this Jap strategy is to become acutely aware of certain jolting facts:

Do you know that Japan, the "master-race" of 70,000,000 now controls nearly a half-billion people—nearly a quarter of the world's population?

Do you know that Japan right now has sufficient materials and food to carry on for many years at the present rate of attrition?

Do you know that the Japs are making planes as fast as we can knock them down? One of our returned Navy fliers just recently said he chased a "Judy" (they're not fighting the old type Zeros any more!) for forty miles . . . and the Jap simply pulled away from one of our fastest planes!

Do you realize that it's 14,000 miles from France to Tokyo . . . that we can't wait for the leftover arms from Europe to beat Japan . . . that the Jap Military is counting on this very barrier of distance to cool our ardor for war?

Do you realize that we have never taken one of her stolen islands without having to account for every last man on it—that our first two years of fighting yielded tens of thousands dead Japs but only a few thousand prisoners?

These are cold facts. Let's look at them coldly, honestly.

If we haven't enough ships, we must build them. But a citizenry complacent in the idea that one of the world's strongest empires is a pushover doesn't build them fast enough.

If we haven't enough guns, planes and tanks, we must make them. But that means staying on our war jobs until our war jobs are finished.

The question is not "Can we beat Japan?" It's "When?" "How?" And at what cost in lives?

The answer is up to every last one of us.

It will end as soon as 130,000,000 Americans and their allies, fighting and working together, make it end.

I feel like I'm home already

As a kid I lived near the Southern Pacific Line. We got up when the "Argonaut" rolled by in the misty dawn and went to bed to the throb of the Sunset Limited thundering west into the night. I knew every engineer along the line and old Mr. Dan, the station agent, was my buddy from the time I was knee-high to a car wheel.

I just landed back in the States for my first furlough in 32 months. And stepping onto the platform of a good old S.P. train makes me feel like I'm home already.

That's the way most folks feel about the Southern Pacific—and that's the way we like them to feel. For in spite of our tremendously increased war traffic we are still trying to see that those who must travel can do so in comparative comfort. Though our service may not always meet our strict pre-war standards, there has been no rationing of friendliness and courtesy.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation and hope you'll give us a chance to show you again some day just how smooth and efficient friendly Southern Pacific service is at its best.

HOW DEEP WILL YOU DIG the MIGHTY 7th WAR LOAN?

THIS YEAR, the 7th War Loan has to raise just about as much as was raised by two loans up to this time last year. You can see in the picture above one reason why . . . why that boy and millions like him must continue to have every advantage money will buy to do the job and get home again. War bond money buys food, clothing, weapons and ammunition.

War bond money buys medical supplies and convalescent care. War bond money helps bring him home faster. That much for your conscience . . . This much for your pocket: $4 for every $3 invested, at maturity; guaranteed security—the same security that backs the dollars you put into the bonds; the world's best investment.

Almost every Texan knows that General Dwight D. Eisenhower is a native of the Lone Star state. Few, however, know where "Ike" first looked into the clear Texas skies, for his birthplace has been variously reported as Tyler, Paris, Denison and Commerce.

Now comes the general, himself, to solve the mystery, with an explanation that proves even War Department records to be incorrect.

In a speech delivered in London just before the supreme allied commander returned home General Eisenhower stated flatly that he was born in—Denison!

His parents once lived in Commerce. But it was Denison that the famed commander says he was born—and he should know. So that's that!

Another famed military leader born in Texas is Lt. Gen. William H. Simpson, commander of the American Ninth Army. He was born in Weatherford.

General Simpson recently was awarded the insignia of "knight commander of the most excellent order of the British Empire." The investiture was made by King George, in person.

And, since this seems to be a column on generals (the enlisted GI's usually get all the kudos here), still another Texan wears the stars—Lt. Gen. Ira C. Eaker, deputy commander of the Army Air Forces.

General Eaker, who used to thrill San Antonians and others with his daring upside down flying, was born in Eden, near San Angelo. Last week he was back in the West Texas homeland visiting his father, Y. Y. Eaker and passing the time of day with old friends.

While he talked with tanned-faced cowboys amid scenery that has not changed in 50 years, a modern touch was given the event by scores of planes that roared overhead.

And the general was as happy

★ TERRELL COUNTY HEROES ★ ★ ★ IN SERVICE ★ ★

JAMES ALBERT MANSFIELD

was born February 11, 1926, in Sanderson, Texas, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mansfield, both residents of Sanderson at the times of their deaths. James Albert attended school in Uvalde, Texas, when the family made their home there and went to school in Sanderson after the family moved here. Before he enlisted in the Navy in October of 1942, James Albert was employed on various ranches in this vicinity. Sworn into the Navy at Houston, Texas, he was sent to San Diego, California, for boot training, and subsequent training he received at Norman, Oklahoma, Little Creek, Virginia, and Fort Pierce, Florida. He returned to Little Creek before being sent to New York and a port of embarkation in December of 1943. Within the same month James Albert landed in England and from there went into the Continent to serve in two campaigns, Normandy and Germany. He has been awarded the Purple Heart and two Commendations. Mansfield, a coxswain, is a member of the U. S. Naval Reserve, serving in the Amphibious Forces. At present home on a 30-day leave, he will report to El Paso July 7 for further orders.

as the youngest GI to be back in Texas!

A lot of Texans, of course, are not so lucky. Many are coming back these days with wounds and go to army hospitals instead of to their homes. But they aren't forgotten!

The USO Hospital Circuit is operating overtime to keep the lads happy. Full troupes of en-tainers visit army hospitals each week to give performances for wounded men. When the boys are unable to leave their beds to attend the show, the troupes perform in the wards giving just as complete a show for a dozen as for thousands.

USO shows are financed by the National War Fund through local campaigns in each county. In addition, war fund money supports War Prisoners, United Seamen's Service, Relief, Philippine Relief and other war-related agencies.
