Sanderson Eagles To McCamey For Second Conference Game

The Sanderson Eagles, none to happy over two defeats this season left Saturday afternoon for McCamey, for their third game of the season. This game being their second district game.

In their first tilt with the San Felipe Mustangs at Del Rio, they were defeated by the count of 6 to 0. The following Friday they went to Iraan for their first district game, being on the losing end of a 39 to 0 score.

Coach Counts was very optimistic Thursday on the prospects of the game at McCamey. He had his fingers crossed, hoping for a dry field, so his midgets might have a chance to open up with their aerial game.

Quoting the coach, "We're going to give those fellows some fast and fancy action, of course a dry field is in our favor, after all my boys are small and a good playing surface is what we need to make our aerial game click."

The following is the tentative line-up for the game:

Jimmy Davis at left end; Arthur Calk, left tackle; Edward Chastain, left guard; Natividad Cardenas, center; Jim Davis right guard; Monte Goode, right tackle; Melvin Kennedy, right end; J. M. Harrell, quarterback; Bob Edwards, left halfback; Temple Stumberg, right halfback; Boscoe Yeates, fullback.

Other squad members making the trip include: Dishman, back; Jessup, left end; Thompson, back; Talbot, guard; Chamberlain, guard; and Fitchy Magill end.

World Communion Day to be Observed in Local Churches

Sunday, October 7, is World-Wide Communion Day. All the churches of Sanderson are participating in the observance of this day with appropriate services. On this day the Christian people around the world gather at their respective churches to commemorate the Lord's Supper. Whether you would find yourself in some remote spot on the globe, or right here at home in the church of your choice, you will find these groups gathering together. Nothing quite emphasizes the unique oneness of the Christian faith, in spite of smaller differences, so clearly as the observance of this service instituted so long ago in an upper room in the city of Jerusalem.

Cemetery Association To Meet October 10

All people interested in the Sanderson Cemetery Association are requested to meet at the Courthouse, Wednesday, October 10, at 7 p. m., for the purpose of appointing a board of trustees, and for the election of officers.

Everyone interested in this association are urged to be in attendance at that time.

METHODIST RALLY DAY

Rally Day will be observed by the Methodist Sunday School according to Mrs. H. E. Ezelle Sunday School Superintendent Sunday morning at the 9:45 a. m. hour. A Rally Day program has been prepared by the various departments of the school, and will be presented at this time. Pupils will be enrolled for the new Sunday School year at the close of the program. The people of Sanderson are invited to attend this service.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Secret, and daughter, have recently returned to Sanderson to make their home. They formerly resided in Presidio.

Reorganization Of Agriculture Agencies Recently Announced

The reorganization of Department of Agriculture agencies recently announced by Secretary Anderson recognizes the effectiveness of former committees by given them additional responsibilities. The reorganization is strictly administrative. It does not affect farm legislation, such as the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act and the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, which are still on the books to help farmers deal with farm problems.

It will be some time before streamlining of the activities involved can be completely effective, since the new PMA consolidates functions previously performed by 14 agencies of the Department of Agriculture. At any rate, administration of the Agricultural Conservation Program, Commodity loans, crop insurance, and milk, butterfat, beef and sheep payments will continue without change under the elected county committees. Additional functions will be added to the work of county committees as the reorganization plan is perfected.

The principal aim of the new organization is to centralize responsibility for USDA Farm Programs and actions affecting the production, price, and marketing of farm products. In the future farmers will deal with only a single office on these matters. The County Office of their Agricultural Conservation Program (AAA) Committee. The new plan should give better and more direct service to the farmers and to the public.

COMMUNION SERVICE

Rev. John Klassen, pastor of the First Methodist Church, announced this week that the Methodist Church plans to observe the World-Wide Communion Day at its regular morning service Sunday, Oct. 7.

At this time the Choir is going to wear its new robes, recently purchased.

He also stated that the gas has been connected and a stove installed and that the auditorium will be comfortable next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cade went to San Angelo Wednesday to return Mrs. Cade's mother, Mrs. E. Miller, here to recuperate from a recent operation.

Terrell County's Quota Announced In War Chest Drive

Mrs. Sid Harkins, County chairman of the United War Chest drive in Terrell County announced this week that our quota in the present drive which opened Monday October 1, is $2,000. This is the same amount as that of last year.

National War Fund agencies are handling the peak load of the war period right now—and for the next six months will be busier than ever before. When the shooting war ends armies don't fold up overnight. Neither do services in their behalf. When hostilities cease starving, homeless people don't suddenly wake up to find they are enjoying the life abundant. Then, and often only then, can the necessities of life, which we call relief, be made available.

To keep the victory won will require a USO much more than before for the lonely occupation troops in far-distant lands, for trainees who will eventually replace them, and for the wounded here at home; a full budget for United Seaman's Service, for War Prisoner's Aid until every American prisoner is repatriated and restored to health; a full measure of relief to the homeless and sick in Europe, in the Philippines and in China.

Until democratic governments can be established to provide law and order and some degree of economic security, the helping hand of 13 European relief agencies will be needed. The program is temporary to provide a stop gap until each nation can take over on its own. For at least six months, and probably a year therefore, there can be no substitute for the service of the private agencies. As President Truman has said, their role is "indispensable and unique."

This appeal is made to the people of Terrell County that they might understand the urgent need for funds to carry on this great work. Let's do our part in this drive.

Car Reported Stolen Recovered On 90 West Of Sanderson

A car belonging to Rev. Clifford Spencer, pastor of the Sanderson Baptist Church, was recovered about five miles west of town about midnight Wednesday after having been taken from in front of his home about an hour earlier.

Rev. Spencer stated he was in his study about 11 p. m., when he heard the motor of his car start. He got to the door in time to see the car turn the corner going towards town. He immediately called Sheriff Jim Nance and within a very few minutes the car was found on the highway west of town.

An investigation revealed that the oil line had broken, causing a bearing to burn out.

A sailor was apprehended and lodged in the local jail in connection with the case.

Veteran's Body Found Along S. P. Right-of-Way

The remains of N. L. Murphy, 26-year old discharged veteran, was sent overland Tuesday to his home at Corsicana, Texas, for burial. Murphy was found along the Southern Pacific right-of-way Monday morning about 10 o'clock, eight miles west of Sanderson.

An autopsy revealed he died from a fractured skull, and a broken neck.

It was reported that Murphy was enroute from California to Galveston, Texas, to visit a sister.

Sometime before Murphy disappeared from the east-bound train he had inquired of the conductor as to when the train would stop, stating that he wished to get off at the next station. He removed his suitcase from the rack above him and set it down by his seat. He also had given an unidentified soldier a note, stating, "that if anything should happen to him whom to notify," giving an address in California and one in Galveston, Texas.

RESEARCH
A salesman representing a firm of efficiency experts managed, several years ago, to gain admission to the office of a small manufacturer, one who employed fewer than 200 people. The solicitor made a sale. He induced his prospect to hire the services of the system fixers who, he promised, would show the owner how to save a great deal more of his factory's annual earnings.

After contracting for this rather high-priced advice, the owner of the business was impatient for results. He could hardly wait for the first "expert" to come and prune out needless expenses. Less work and more profit on the same volume always seems attractive. Finally came a polished man of 40 with conspicuous rims.

He Liked Action
The owner of the plant and his hired adviser walked solemnly together through offices and shops. They were returning to the main office when the expert's eye fell upon an idle man—an old man, sitting at a desk looking out a window. As soon as they were out of ear-shot, the expert exclaimed: "That old fuddy-duddy is a net loss. Discharge him! He is just sitting there dreaming."

"Do you suppose he is dreaming?" inquired the owner of the factory. "Day-dreaming, to be sure," replied the expert. "Well that's just fine," said the owner. "Now we won't be needing your help. Every so often that old chap has a day-dream, and the cheapest one he ever had was worth half million dollars to this business. Don't disturb him as you go out."

Ideals Have Life
Creative work has its peculiarities. It takes place inside people's heads, and superficial critics don't look that deep. First comes the germ of an idea; then careful analysis. Since no one can know all about anything, research is necessary. Research is costly too, because it must be carried on by men who have special knowledge and special skills.

Inventions don't go into production direct from the dream stage. Manufacturing profits begin when multiplied copies of an invention start coming off the assembly, but mass production permits no guess-work. The dream is necessary but numberless laboratory tests and exhaustive practical experiments must pave every invention's road to market. Many a good idea has died unworked for the lack of research—too costly.

Increase the Yield
In America are factories—geese able to lay golden eggs, such as employment, prosperity and progress. The fertile 14-carat gander in the flock is Research. Without this motivating influence industry may start its post-war program and pursue a well charted course, efficiently amputating cost after cost until there's nothing left to cut off, but it's the road to ruin.

Not many weeks ago I read a scathing criticism of American business. In it the author hoisted a red flag in warning against capitalism. He pointed to hundreds of thousands of dollars spent annually in industrial research by a mere handful of wealthy corporations. I have only this to say: I hope they spent all he said and more, because the brightest spot in the outlook is research.

HUDSPETH COUNTY NEWS SIERRA BLANCA—Unless Hudspeth county ranchmen get rain soon a great deal of cattle here will be moving. Since there is no pasture near they will be put on the market. Some ranchmen have already disposed of some of their stuff. They can buy feed only in limited amounts and their tanks (most of them) are dry.

Joe O'Keefe, who ranches here on a large scale for many years and still owns 200 sections near Sierra Blanca, said, in discussing drouth conditions here, "It is getting serious. Cattle have held up well but it can't continue unless it rains soon."

Jess Moseley, Frank Mathers Billy Tidwell, Ira Hector, Gordon McAdoo, and several other ranchmen of the county, have expressed similar opinions.

THE ALPINE AVALANCHE — On the first round after baiting the string of cyote guns being used in the southern end of Brewster county, the two men found 13 dead cyotes shot with the guns, and several other guns had been pulled off but no varmints found in the brushy area. County Agent Frank Newsom reported yesterday.

Complete reports on the trial will be published at intervals throughout the three-months trial, according to Mr. Newsom.

THE OZONA STOCKMAN—George Teague of Crane and Kay Black of Ozona have been matched in an eight-calf roping match in the local arena next Sunday afternoon as the feature of the Sunday afternoon show sponsored by the Ozona Roping Club.

Vic Montgomery barged into a big-time potential last Sunday when he hung up a local calf roping record. Vic snagged his Brahma and wrapped him up in a 10.6 second flash, better than a half second faster than Champ Toots Mansfield's sizzling 11.1 here a week before. Vic's record was in the third jackpot roping of the afternoon's five.

THE UVALDE LEADER-NEWS —Conditional releases whereby ranch owners in the Laredo Air-to-Air Gunnery Range have been able to reoccupy approximately 300,000 acres of 630,000 acre project, were executed over a period of five days after the range had been declared surplus by the Army Air Forces, according to an announcement made by Brigadier General E. H. Marks, Division Engineer of the Southwestern Division.

Approximately a dozen of the larger ranches, together with a number of small tracts located in the area, have been turned back to their original owners and a major portion of this returned land is already being occupied for grazing, the announcement said.

In order to make available every possible acre of land at the earliest possible date, the Real Estate Division under the supervision of Lt. Colonel Leonard M Cowley has established an office in the County Court House at Carrizo Springs with H. R. McDavid in charge. Ranch owners living in this area will be able to make arrangements to reenter their properties by contacting McDavid. In addition, E. L. Early, attorney for the Real Estate Division, is temporarily located in Laredo where he is contacting ranch owners or their legal representatives, and with the cooperation of the U. S. Special Attorneys, is securing releases of properties which were taken under lease by the Government through condemnation proceedings.

What is Peace?

PEACE is more than the absence of war. Peace is a friendly handclasp, small talk on a front porch, friends in for dinner. real peace — the feeling in our hearts that all is right once more.

Peace is a birthday party, a Christmas tree, an Easter service in a white church. Peace is people helping instead of hurting one another, trusting instead of suspecting, tolerating instead of hating.

Peace is meeting on equal terms. It's honoring a man for what he is instead of defaming him for what he isn't. This is peace. And until we have all this, we won't have

Right now, we can make a good start towards this goal. For, right now, in our County War Chest campaign, we have the chance to help our neighbor. To help him regardless of who he is or how he worships. To act together in mutual trust and confidence.

THE EAGLE NEWS

THANK YOU ONE AND ALL
The senior class of 1945-46 to express their thanks to many parents who helped us off on our trip this year.
Let's thank those who provided the sweets because that is the way we ate most of. Mrs. Harnott, Mrs. Geaslin,
Mrs. Northcut, Mrs. Geaslin,
Mrs. Harrison, and Mrs. Robert Harrison. From Dryden made the trip for us. Mrs. Goode and Mrs. Babb made the cookies.
Mrs. Stumberg loaned us the car that we drank out of. Mrs.
Downum gave us the chocolate that tasted so good on the mornings. Alfred Shelton lent us the tent that helped keep some of our clothes from getting ruined. To them we send thanks.

We can't forget all of the things that we had. They were sent by Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. Mc-Camey, Mrs. Cooke and Mrs.
Downum. To all of them we give thanks.
We also wish to thank the Allison and the Magills for the trip that we had to eat.

THE SENIOR CLASS

AND THE CAMPUS
If you are wondering I think is the subject of discussion around the campus week you won't have to wonder long. Nothing has happened that can compare with the Senior Trip. Thursday at noon the girls that sort of stood from the rest of the high school girls—yep, the senior girls all ready for their trip. Not this column is turning into style page, but maybe it is nice to record how they dressed. There was the Miss Doris McSparran
dressed up in a tomato red dress with black patent high heels as with all other dignified seniors) her name, Wilma Northcut, was dressed good enough to eat in a black and white check wool dress black patent sandals. That vision in a pink suit was other than Hazel Babb that lovely brown patent shoes and shoes to match were "out of this world". Cookie tripping in a few minutes in a ducky little aqua wool later proved to—oh well skip that. "Margie and
"—(Jessup and Driggers) in blue and white and black white respectively. But I guess to complete the picture I'll have to mention Ol' in turquoise wool with suede shoes and head-

boys seemed to have a human job when it came loading the truck—everyone that all of that "stuff" not possibly be put on one but leave it to the seniors "dood" it!
wonder if all those smiles really wishing us a pleasant trip, or if the underclassmen just glad to be rid of us all? Who said that? At rate, everyone was very sympathetic when old man drove us back a day and it seems that there more than one junior to enjoy the dance that was the climax of the trip at Harrison's Saturday night. (They didn't get the fried chicken supper in the evening, though.) the way, all the senior girls dressed up in black that night and it have been mourning for day that was chopped off the ? Not likely, I'll have to admit. It was a swell trip if it was just two days long.

Never to be forgotten to the seniors was the evening in Villa Acuna. The supper at La Macarena, the shopping in all the little holes in the walls. Of course Garner Park and swimming for hours are memories that would be lovely to repeat—in fact I hear that the seniors are considering repeating them.
Just ask any senior, and they will tell you what good help Hazel and Melvin made when we stopped for hamburgers at Langtry. They seemed old hands at this cafe business. Everyone seemed to be really "hugging" the stove about that time. It couldn't have been because it didn't seem logical to take coats and bathing suits on the same trip.—It was though.
I could keep this up for hours (I hear you say thank goodness you are not) but really it is time I let somebody else rattle for awhile. So I'll be seeing you at a later date—namely, next week. So long!

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

The Junior Class had charge of the assembly program for Friday, the 23rd of September.
The program was a one act play entitled, "Who Gets the Car Tonight?" The characters who presented the assembly program are:
Mr. Jones, the father, Edgar Wells; Mrs. Jones, the mother, Ora Mae Blackwelder; Paul
Jones, the son, Edward Wheeler;
Mary Jones, the daughter, Mary Agnes Frazier; Jack, Mary's boy-friend, Noel Stirman.
The play takes place in the family living room, where there seems to be a disagreement as to who gets the car. But all ends not so well because no one gets the car.
Thanks to the Juniors for a good performance.

JUNIORS TAKE OVER
Ah, yes, when the seniors left the juniors took over. They even went so far as to sit in the senior's place in assembly but that didn't last long for Mr.
Counts put them in their place.
That's o. k., juniors, one of these days we'll be the real m-c-o-y. Hope, pray, and cram.
Last Saturday a few of the Juniors were invited to the senior party at Harrison's.

Mary Nell and Jeanette went to Marfa on the week end, and so we hear, were followed by a couple of good looking Marfa guys.
Benny Edgeworth has left our junior class, she is now attending school in Del Rio.

ODDS AND ENDS
Hazel Babb
Ho hum—Another Monday after a pleasant week-end. Sweaters and skirts are the order of the day since last Friday. And they look good. A few sleepy-eyed senior are wandering into ye ole library reporting a pleasant trip until old man weather took a hand. But it's an evil wind that blows no good, and most west Texans were pleased with the rain.
Joe Ross Phillips was around last week weighted down with medals and very happy to be back. We also see Maurine Frazier is home for a visit. Another ex, Doyce Wells, that was seen around the campus a lot left for the Army last week. If you don't believe me, just ask Aggie.
Al Dishman is still seen around the ole stomping ground once in awhile.
Been missing Mrs. Hasty around for the past week, but are always glad to welcome Mr. Klassen back to our faculty if only for a few days.
The last week was an idle one for the football boys as far as games are concerned. They've been having some heavy work-outs. None the less, this week we play McCamey over there.

KATZ KLAW
Hello folks! It's the Kat back again welcoming everyone.
The first bit I have to tell you takes place in Iraan. I guess everyone knows about the game so I'll skip that. The Iraan band really did a swell stunt staying in step and all. Come on kids let's learn to do the same. Back to what I started to say — Iraan gave us a dance after the game and strange though it is, very few Eagles were there.
I saw Monte, and Aggie, Doyce and Birdie, Bill and Pichie (a romantic couple) and several juniors and sophomores. Mostly girls however.
We wonder why Mary Allen was so disappointed when we missed the dance. Could it have been a certain blonde Iraan boy??? And who were the two

THIRD GRADE NEWS
Doris McDonald has entered the third grade. She has been ill and unable to attend school until this week. We are happy to have Doris with us.

SPORTS TID BITS
All the people talk about sports but this week there isn't much to talk about. There hasn't been any sports this week because for one thing, the seniors were gone and we all know how the seniors help out on the sports. So until next week we will be waiting.

MORE TO MARRIAGE THAN MAKING A HOME!

Preparing meals, caring for that there's more to a hap-

Electrical Safety Tips
NATIONAL FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
OCT. 8-13

Permanent wiring, installed according to the National Electrical Code and properly fused, is safe from fire hazards, although frequently fires are blamed on "defective wiring" simply because no other origin is apparent. When a fire is traceable to electrical causes, it is usually due to an improper installation and subsequent neglect or to misuse of electricity or electrical equipment.

Follow These Safety Suggestions

- 1 Have your wiring inspected to see that it conforms with the National Electrical Code, your local code or other recognized safety standard. Correct any hazardous conditions.
- 2 Specify code requirements when making additions, alterations or repairs to your wiring.
- 3 Deal only with a capable, experienced electrician. Do not entrust wiring to an inexperienced "handyman" or the safety of the job may be impaired.
- 4 Never use a penny as a substitute for a fuse. Fuses are current limiting devices, designed to cut off current before damage can result if a short circuit or overload causes wires to overheat. Pennies or fuses that are too large may allow wires to become hot enough to ignite insulation, possibly causing a fire. The right size fuse for most household branch circuits is 15 amperes.
- 5 Use only appliance cords bearing label of the Underwriters Laboratory, which signifies compliance with rigid safety standards. Do not drive nails or tacks through cords, place them under rugs or in contact with radiators or other heat sources.
- 6 Use only asbestos-covered cords with heating appliances.
- 7 Always disconnect an iron (especially a non-automatic) if you leave it standing on ironing board while you answer phone or doorbell.
- 8 Never put away an iron or other heating appliance until cool.

EAGLE NEWS—

SENIOR TRIP

I'm the little skunk who went on the Senior Trip. Thursday afternoon, I was sitting up in Harrison's shrubbery and boy were they working trying to get things loaded. Dudley just picked me up (his mind must have been on someone else) and packed me in too. Sitting on top of the coffee pot (the only space left) I looked around. They were getting ready to leave. Zoooooom... went Clyde Gene, Jack, and Joe!!! Mr. and Mrs. Bradford, Jimmy, Margie Driggers, Marjorie, and Jim Davis were in the head (behind Clyde). Next was supposed to be Dudley. Cookie, Holmes, and me. But Bill, Monte, Hazel Bobby, and Mary soon caught up with us and passed us by. Next zoomed by Cooke's car with J. M. Wilma, Budgy, Bosco, and Maxie Last but not least was Mrs. Jessup's car with her, Mrs. Magill Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. McSparran Mrs. Harrison, and all the cookies and cakes. They all wanted to pass us by because they knew Dudley was trying to drive with one hand and they wanted to eat when they got to Garner. Between Comstock and Del Rio the noble seniors all stopped and talked to an old school mate, Sammy Timmey. They all regretted not having him with them (me too). After a long time we came to Del Rio. Mrs. Harrison and Mr. Bradford got a bus to take us across. I sat on the back with no one. We had a wonderful time in Villa Acuna (hi-cup—pardon). We ate dinner at the Magalina, which was wonderful!! I watched those moon-eyed seniors try to dance!!! You should have been there. We all went shopping before returning to America.

The old bus driver wouldn't turn off the lights until the boys yelled, or pardon, was it the girls? Boy! was I relieved when we all got by the custom officers!! He was nosy—ask Doris Mc.

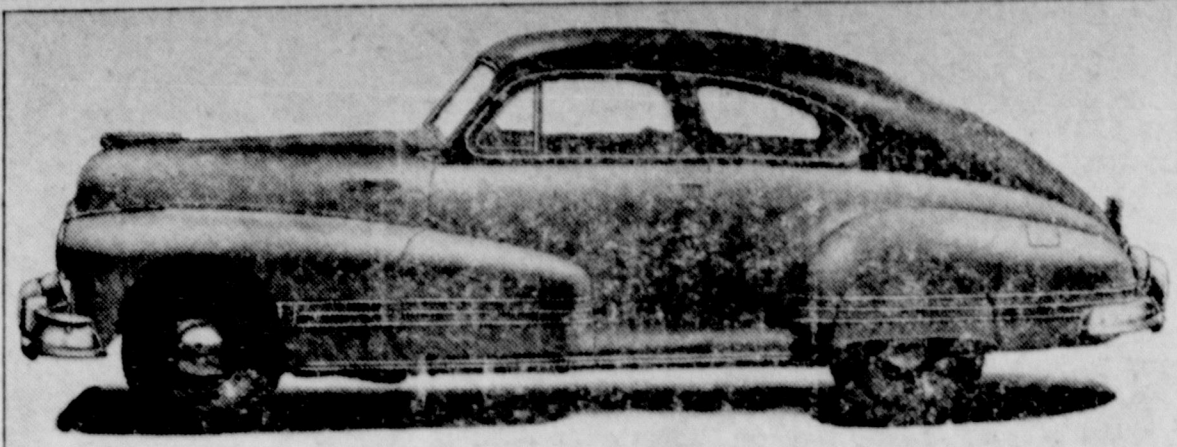

Garner Park!!! It's beautiful and I love those play mates. And I'm not referring to the boys when I say Harrison and Magill. Those were the nicest women ever I seen!!! Next day we had a wonderful time—swimming, dancing, eating, and all. That evening we all dressed up (I washed my white stripes) and started in town to see the football game between Uvalde and Junction. It started raining just before the game and rained the rest of the night. All the bed rolls except the mothers and a few boys were drenched!! Mrs. Harrison started to get in hers but I was on top of it getting a drink and not liking my company—she stayed up in the car all night. Didn't you Mrs. Harrison??? I ate a wonderful supper of two goat hams which the mothers thought were put up out of the rain but not out of my sight.

Returning to the pick-up by the cars, I saw the girls being served cake on the daintiest napkins. Ask some of them about it. The boys were all in a big pallet spread out on the concession floor.

The next morning we packed up in the rain and started for home. Boy was it cold!!! We stopped under Devil's River Bridge and made a big fire—Burr!!! We stopped in Comstock and ate cake, went on to Langtry ate hamburgers and then came home.

It was a swell trip and everyone where I got to see everything at the fried chicken supper and dance.

It was aswell trip and everyone enjoyed it. Maybe we'll go take another trip—how about it seniors????

The new 1946 Pontiac has been revealed by H. J. Klingler, chief executive of Pontiac Motor Division. New design and reapplication have added to the Pontiac's long, road hugging appearance. Note the curving bumpers which extend to protect fender skirts and set off the car's overall sleekness.

danced some, but talked most of the time. (Sunday you know) and there were more cute couples to be seen among the crowd. Everyone had a swell time thanks to Earline.

Saturday night Birdie had a slumber party. There were Mary Nell, Carolyn, Jeanette, Betty Ann, and for some odd reason Birdie was there. I haven't figured that out yet. Can you? They all enjoyed dinner (supper to you) and went to the show. They must have had a swell time because they were all at church the next morning. You should have seen them. After church they had lunch and went to the show. Everyone had a swell time, thanks to Birdie and Mrs. Turner.

THE PAINTING OF S. H. S. FOR 1945 - 1946

The freshman class went upon the hill side to paint the S. H. S. Wednesday afternoon September 19, which is done every year by the freshman class.

After climbing a long time the freshmen finally reached the top. The first thing was to put the out-of-place rocks back in place. Some began clearing off the weeds and smaller rocks. After that came the white washing. When we got through with the first S. we ran out of water. After getting more water we did the H. and then we ran out of lime. Soon we got more lime and finished the job. It was a very exciting time but we all will leave the job for some other class to do.

LIBRARY NEWS

LEATHERNECK EMBLEM BLOCKS JAP BULLET

MAUI, T. H. (Delayed) — A bronze Marine Corps emblem blocked the course of a Japanese bullet which struck Pfc. Neal L. Markley of Oakland, Cal., in the back, probably saving his life.

The 24-year old Marine was fighting on Iwo Jima when the Jap bullet hit him from behind struck the cap ornament in his pack and drove it into his spine. The lead base of the bullet fused to the metal ornament.

The blow temporarily paralyzed but did not seriously injure the Californian. As he lay helpless on the ground, mortar shell fragments wounded him in both legs a few minutes later.
