Six Ways Terrell County Housewives Can Save Wheat

Six ways Terrell County housewives can save wheat for hungry millions abroad were suggested this week by Mr. A. A. Shelton, Chairman of the Terrell County Famine Emergency Committee.

"By following these conservation measures, we can stretch our supply of wheat and release huge quantities for 500,000,000 men, women and children in battle-torn countries in danger of starvation," he said.

1. Serve less bread at each meal and make sure that none is left on the plate.
2. Substitute other foods for bread—for example, one small serving of potatoes replaces a slice of bread.
3. Serve wheat cereals less often. Substitute fresh fruits and juices for wheat cereals at breakfast.
4. Make use of left-over and stale bread. Stale bread can be used as toast and as bread-crumbs in puddings.
5. Buy only what is needed both bread and flour. Flour keeps less well in the home than any other place; and
6. Serve fruits and other desserts instead of pastries and cakes.

HEALTH NOTES—

AUSTIN, Texas, June 20. If your work is such that it causes excessive perspiration, add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take to help prevent heat cramps. This is advised by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, to prevent a possible increase in the number of heat victims as the Texas thermometer hits 95 per cent and above.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting heat cramps or heat fag. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body may lose as high as 40 to 50 grams of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be prevented by taking salt in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, tablet salt may be added to each drink of water. Milk is a source of salt and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating.

Heat cramp is characterized by pains (cramps) in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases, by nausea and vomiting. The body temperature remains about normal likewise the pulse rate. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then the abdominal muscles begin to cramp.

Senator Allan Shivers, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, of Port Arthur, Jefferson County, Texas, receiving a check for his filing fee from Capt. Roderick Donald Steele, Texas' oldest voter. In presenting the check, Captain Steele, representing the citizens of Port Arthur, expressed the voters' appreciation for his 12 years faithful service to the district and reminded him that he was the youngest senator to take the oath of office when first elected to the Senate. (Shivers is now dean of the Senate).

Captain Steele for many years has refused to tell his age, but old-timers say that he is now 106. He still works daily as a marine surveyor, climbing over ships to inspect their cargoes.

May Establish Texas Guard Unit In Marfa Area

The possibility of a mechanized cavalry unit of the Texas State Guard for "the Marfa-Alpine area was learned here this week, by the Times through G. W. Fuller, of the United States Employment Service who is stationed at Marfa. Mr. Fuller was here Monday on business connected with the duties of his office.

Mr. Fuller, who holds the rank of Lt. Colonel and is with the 3rd Battalion of the Texas State Guards, was in hopes that enough of our ex-service men as well as citizens would be interested in organizing a unit here and thus be able to take advantage of the training they would receive and would be eligible to the use of the facilities of the unit that would be in Marfa.

He stated that the city of Marfa was busy trying to locate grounds to meet the qualifications as set out by Maj. Gen. Fred L. Walker, who is reorganizing the National Guard, and that if suitable grounds were secured, the Federal government would erect an Armory there.

Mr. Fuller stated that he had contracted several men here and that all seemed to be interested in the matter and should a unit be organized here the members would receive financial benefits. He also said that we have enough reserve officers here to train the men.

Lions Club To Sponsor Picture Show June 29

"Getting Gertie's Garter," starring Dennis O'Keefe and Marie "The Body" McDonald will be shown as a midnight matinee at the Princess Theatre, Saturday night, June 29.

This matinee is being sponsored by the Sanderson Lions Club to raise funds to apply on the cost of constructing Lions Field, the newest attraction for pleasure seekers in this community. Tickets are to be sold by members of the club in advance of the showing.

"Getting Gertie's Garter," taken from the hilariously successful stage comedy of a generation ago, will start its rollicking shenanigans at the Princess Theatre, June 29, through United Artists release.

Marie "The Body" McDonald is Gertie. And the fondly inscribed bejeweled garter is given her by Ken Ford, a promising young scientist played by Dennis O'Keefe. But Ken doesn't play for keeps.

When the story opens, years after the giving-of-the-garter he is married to Patty, played by Sheila Ryan, and Gertie is engaged to his best friend, Ted Dalton, played by Barry Sullivan. It is the day before Gertie's wedding and everyone is very festive and happy.

It takes a sunny day, however, for a successful picnic. The long-forgotten garter pops up in a larceny case. And Ken who has just been elected a Fellow in a superduper scientific society, is served a summons to appear in court next day and testify. The dazed Ken is horrified. He has nightmare visions of his amorous inscription being read at the trial—and of its violent effects on his wife Patty and the staid members of the Society of Scientific Research. Ken may be dazed—but he has ideas. His idea is to get the garter and destroy it.

Gertie is willing. But the garter has already been sent to the country home of Barbara and Billy Ferris, played by Binnie Barnes and Jerome Cowan. Barbara is Ted's sister and is giving the wedding.

Ken dashes down to the Ferris establishment, with Patty who is suspicious of his peculiarly distracted manner, hot on his trail.

Ken, unnerved by Patty's untimely arrival, becomes desperate. Before long he plunges the whole household into confusion. The garter appears and disappears as unpredictably as an April shower, driving the anguished Ken to the verge of collapse.

One hilarious episode follows another as Ken flounders more and more deeply. And the tangle finally straightens out in a wild and woolly climax but happy.

Edward Small's production is a roistering comedy that rolls along at a merry pace. The zippy dialogue and topsy-turvy situations are brilliantly exploited by a cast that seems to enjoy itself as much as the audience.

Attending Methodist Youth Caravan Training Center

Miss Feliciana G. Torres, a public school teacher of Cotulla and whose home is Sanderson, is attending a Methodist Youth Caravan Training Center at McMurry College, Abilene, Texas, for 10 days in preparation for voluntary service during the next seven weeks in local Methodist churches in the Mexican Conference, which comprises Southern and Western parts of Texas.

Selected because of her experience and leadership in Christian youth work, Miss Torres is one of 14 adult counselors who are being trained at the McMurry College center for work with 44 college young people in the 14 caravan teams.

Trained in special areas of young people's work, each caravan team will seek to "help revitalize and strengthen youth programs of the seven Methodist churches they will successively serve, giving a clearer vision of the Christian's responsibility in every phase of life." Emphasis will be placed this year in work with returned servicemen and women as one effort to win them back into active participation in church programs. Special teams will serve in housing communities and rural areas.

Sponsored by staff members of the Methodist Board of Education, Nashville, Tenn., the McMurry College training center is one of five being held in various parts of the country, training 352 caravaners in worship evangelism, world friendship youth programs, community service and recreation. Now in its eighth year, the caravan movement has reached more than 135,000 people in some 2,000 churches across the nation.

Bids On Paving Park Road Project Asked

The State Highway department is asking for bids, in an advertisement which appears in this issue of The Avalanche, for base and asphalt topping on the 23.65-mile section of State Highway 227, from Marathon south (Big Bend National park road.)

Bids are to be opened in Austin June 25, 9 a. m.

The section to be paved, according to the notice, starts at the junction with U. S. 90 one-half mile east of Marathon, at the intersection of the Marathon-Fort Stockton road.

Right-of-Way Secured Right-of-way for the approximately 24 miles of the new road, which follows generally the original route, was secured by the Brewster county commissioners court last month.

Survey work on the remaining 16 miles to the park entrance at Persimmon Gap was announced 75 per cent complete three weeks ago by George J. Kempen, resident engineer who stated that a paved road from Marathon to the nation's newest park by next year is probable.—Alpine Avalanche.

LIONS ROAR—

Well another week and another meeting passed and those members who were absent at the Thursday meeting certainly missed a treat, for not only did the Methodist Ladies put on a good feed, but what an entertaining program there was.

W. W. Sudduth, president of the club introduced Bill Risley a guest, who furnished the entertainment. Risley a magician performed for some 40 minutes with feats of magic. Risley is a senior student at the Cheyenne Wyoming high school, held his audience spellbound during the time he performed the many tricks for them.

The club is to sponsor a mid-night show at the Princess Theatre on Saturday night, June 29. Proceeds from the show will go toward the expenses incurred in fixing and maintaining the Lions softball field.
