COUNTY AID SOUGHT IN STREET PAVING

Civic Clubs and Individual Tax Payers to Urge Commissioners To Assist Worthwhile Project

Members of civic clubs, the American Legion, Sanderson Culture Club, Ranch Home Demonstration Club, individual property owners and citizens interested in the community welfare will be on hand Monday morning at ten o'clock when the Commissioners' Court convenes in regular session. The purpose of the mass movement is to seek the support of the commissioners in obtaining some financial aid from the county in the project for paving the streets of Sanderson.

Many have expressed the belief that with some assistance from the county the remaining expense incident to the paving will be borne by property owners and the entire city would have good thoroughfares throughout and much of the dust would be eliminated.

The move was suggested at a meeting of the Rotary Club last week and a committee was named to procure an approximate cost for the work. At the regular weekly luncheon of the club Wednesday expressions from representatives of other organizations were presented as favorable to the move and it was decided that a united effort of all those interested would be more effective if presented to the court en masse.

Curbing and storm sewer construction would benefit the program but it was deemed impracticable at this time. The natural drainage of the city streets is sufficient to take care of the normal flow of rainfall and the natural caliche base of the city streets makes the need or curbing unnecessary.

It is hoped that all those interested in this move will appear with the organized groups when they present the matter to the commissioners Monday morning.

The Rotary Club president, Jack Hayre, has indicated that a committee would be named to meet with groups from other civic organizations from time to time to discuss ways and means of carrying on any worthwhile projects of community interest. The Times suggested such a move several weeks ago when we noted the need for combined effort in civic problems. The needs of the community may be noted and cataloged as to priority for projects for the community as a whole to undertake.

Twenty members were present at the Wednesday luncheon of the Rotary Club.

BERNIE KERR IMPROVING

Bernie Kerr is reported to be improving very satisfactorily. He was taken to San Antonio in an O. T. Sudduth and Co. ambulance last Friday night following an internal hemorrhage. Dr. John W. Pate accompanied him to that city. Jimmy Caroline drove Mr. Kerr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kerr, to San Antonio and they remained at their son's bedside. They will not return home for several days.

O. F. Cresswell, of Alpine, was here on business Wednesday.

RIFLE CLUB HERE ACTIVATED BY NRA CHARTER

Word was received this week that the Terrell County Rifle and Pistol Club of Sanderson, has been granted a charter by the National Rifle Association. Made up of rifle and pistol enthusiasts the club will be headed by Ray Turner, president.

The new club will conduct registered NRA tournaments on its range and has dedicated itself to teach safety with firearms to all members of the community.

Other officers of the club are: Hal Tyler, vice-president; O. T. Sudduth, executive officer; J. J. Whistler, chief instructor and W. W. Sudduth, secretary and treasurer.

Site for the range has been selected on the Bill Goodwin property east of town. Clearing has been done and all facilities for the outdoor range will be completed in the near future, it was announced. It is thought that the association will furnish the local club with four Garand rifles and a number of Springfield. Most of the enthusiasts here have their own arms. The number of rifles and amount of ammunition to be furnished will depend on the club membership.

New members will be accepted for the club and plans for the regular meetings and range firing will be announced later.

Mr. Whistler, who has been selected as chief instructor, is well qualified in that capacity, having been instructor in the navy for a number of years.

Casa de Mexico To House Firms and Offices

SAN ANTONIO, August 6. — Casa de Mexico International Building, the only structure in the nation planned and constructed to house the activities of firms doing business with Latin American countries, now is in the final stages of completion on West Houston Street in San Antonio.

First tenant to take up quarters in the million-dollar structure is the Consul General of Mexico in San Antonio, Gustavo Ortiz Hernan. Others who moved in during the past week were the Mexican government tourist bureau and the Mexican Chamber of Commerce.

The International Building was constructed by G. A. Lucchese, president of International Enterprises, and the development eventually will include a 2,500-seat motion picture theatre. Lucchese conceived the five-story structure and its 87 offices as a center for the "promotion of trade, travel, commerce and culture between the people of the United States and the people of Latin America."

Designed by the San Antonio architectural firm of N. Straus Nayfach & Co., the building has many unique details, some of which have been taken from the historic missions of San Antonio. Many of the features are an interesting combination of modern French and Mexican architecture. An auditorium with a seating capacity of 150 will be available for the building's tenants.

Visitors to the State Fair at Dallas, October 4-19, are promised the best balanced and most complete program in the institution's 61 year history, according to Ray Wilson, the fair's livestock manager. More and bigger premiums have been posted for swine, sheep and goats. The pre-breed and dairy cattle, horses and mium list totals $59,000. A $4,000 purse has been provided for the Brahma cattle competition and $1,000 for the Ayshires, not heretofore figured in the prize money.

Palmcino horses will present their own show October 5, 6 and 7. Races are scheduled for the closing days of the fair, October 17, 18 and 19. The fair has acquired a new $216,000 cattle barn.

J. J. Nance Funeral Wednesday Pioneer Terrell County Resident Dies in Del Rio Hospital Monday

Joe J. Nance, 77, long-time resident of Sanderson, died in a Del Rio hospital Monday morning, August 4, at 11:45. Mr. Nance had been ill for several weeks and was taken to Del Rio eight days prior to his death. The body was returned here by O. T. Sudduth and Company, who were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mr. Nance served as sheriff of Terrell County for several years and had been a resident of the county for forty years.

HIGH PRICES PAID FOR RAMBOUILLET RAMS AT SALE

Sheepmen of West Texas showed confidence in the Rambouillet breed of wool sheep for this section of the state in the recent sale at San Angelo. There were 437 Rambouillet rams sold at an average price of $107.42. A Texas record was set in the purchase of the top priced ram, a yearling consigned by Dempster Jones, of Ozona, which went to Miles Pierce, Ozona, for $1100.

Terrell County ranchmen buying at the sale last week were: John D. Harrison, who bought ten head for $775; A. D. Brown ranch received 29 head at a total of $1,770; Downie ranch purchased 20 head, including one stud ram, total $2,255; and G. K. Mitchell bought five head for $400.

Sid Harkins, Seth Davenport and Montie Wallace, manager of the Downie ranch, have taken delivery on several Columbia rams bought by Mr. Harkins on a recent trip to Utah. The Columbia breed is a Rambouillet-Lincoln cross that is becoming increasingly popular in this section.

SANDERSON VFW WINS TWELFTH INNING BATTLE

The Sanderson VFW team took one of the most thrilling baseball games of the season Sunday when they beat the Villa Acuna Ellos 5 to 4 in the twelfth inning.

Acuna Ellos 5 to 4 in the twelfth in the last half of the twelfth M. Ochoa tripped scoring A. Escamilla with the decisive run. This was a closely contested game from the beginning and proved to be a pitchers' battle.

Baseball lovers enjoy these games that are up to the best in most cases. Seldom does one see that class of baseball outside of the big leagues.

Remaining scheduled home games for the veterans are: August 10, Piedras Negras Consolidated, August 17, Del Rio All-Stars; August 24, La Rosita Minsters.

Admission of 25c and 50c is charged to help the veterans pay expenses of the games.

Consideration of Amendment Vital in Special Election

When the voters go to the poles on August 23 they are urged to consider the College Building Amendment as the most vital issue at stake for the voters of Terrell County.

A great many people have been misinformed or have formed a hazy conception of the proposed amendment. There will be no increase in taxes because of the passage of the bill. All state supported colleges and universities will benefit in the 30-year building program.

The College Building Amendment allocates the 5 cent unused portion of the presently authorized 7 cent state property tax for Confederate pensions to a 30-year building fund for the 14 state schools other than A&M Colleges and the University of Texas. At the same time it reduces the 35 cent general property tax to a maximum of 30 cents. The 2 cent tax for Confederate pensions will not be disturbed, nor will the balance of $2,838,747 in the Confederate fund be touched.

Many of our prominent Texas leaders have already endorsed the amendment. Governor Beauford H. Jester, who championed it from the very first, has commended it to all Texans. Lt. Gov. Allan Shivers, Attorney General Price Daniel, State superintendent L. A. Woods, Speaker of the House W. O. Reed, and the presidents of the 16 state-supported colleges and universities are numbered among the many supporters of this measure.

More than thirty state-wide civic and professional organizations quickly jumped to the support of the proposed amendment. Among the first to announce an endorsement were the Texas League of Women Voters, Texas Press Association, Texas Newspaper Publishers Association, Texas Pharmaceutical Association, Texas State Teachers Association, and the American Legion Department of Texas.

Last Polio Health Hint: Avoid Sudden Chilling!

Sudden chilling such as plunging into cold water on a very hot day should be avoided as the sixth and final health precaution that should be observed in the polio season—June through September—the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis cautions through its local chapter.

Scientific research financed by March of Dimes funds has shown that when laboratory animals exposed to the polio virus were suddenly chilled, twice as many developed acute and paralyzing attacks of the disease as did a control group which had been protected from sudden temperature changes.

Therefore, take no chances. To be on the safe side avoid sudden chilling, the National Foundation advises.

atoes, really a fruit but often regarded and used as a vegetable, are easy to can at home. Yet few people ever bother to do so until the next crop comes. To can, select fresh, firm, ripe tomatoes and wash them. Scald in small quantities a cheesecloth square over the tomatoes and dipping into hot water is an easy and effective way of scalding. Pack and process as quick as possible after scalding. Let the tomatoes stand after canning. It is likely to cause flat sour. If exposed to air after skinning they also lose food value. Tomatoes are an important source of Vitamin C (ascorbic acid) which is needed in daily diet for good health. Always cut out the hard cores and green spots before canning and avoid canning tomatoes from which decayed spots and fungus growths have been removed. The Ball Blue Book recipe for Regular Pack directs that the prepared tomatoes be packed solidly into hot jars. Add one teaspoon salt to each quart. Do not add any liquid. Process 45 minutes in hot water bath. Or, another method given is to boil the prepared tomatoes five minutes, pour into hot jars, add one teaspoon salt to each quart and process 20 minutes in hot water bath. To can tomatoes whole, prepare them as above, being careful not to cut into the seed pod when removing the core. Pack into hot jars as closely as possible without crushing. Add one teaspoon salt to each quart, and cover with hot tomato juice or puree. Process 35 minutes in hot water bath.

With its exciting love story set to the stirring tempo of thundering hoof-beats and flooded with the thrills and color of the world's greatest racing classics, "The Homestretch," starring Cornel Wilde and Maureen O'Hara opens at the Princess Theater Wednesday, August 13. The film reveals the story of a boy and a girl whose conflicting personalities catapult them into a race across the world in search of the thrills of the turf which welds their turbulent romance into a truly great love. In filming the picture, no expense was spared in capturing the gripping drama and colorful spectacle of the sport of kings against which the unusual romance is unfolded. Some of the greatest racing scenes ever recorded are included in the picture with the camera visiting eleven world-famous race tracks including Ascot in England, Palermo, South America, and Churchill Downs, Jamaica, Aqueduct, Hollywood Park, Santa Anita, Belmont, Hialeah, Arlington and Saratoga in the United States. In addition, the Ascot Gold Cup, the Gran Premio Nacional, the Kentucky Derby and other racing classics highlight the picture's absorbing and fast moving action. Cornel Wilde, who won such wide acclaim for his outstanding portrayals in "Leave Her to Heaven" and "Centennial Summer," assays another completely different type of role in "The Homestretch." As the debonair Jock Wallace, he portrays a happy-go-lucky, easy-natured spendthrift who makes his living from the race horses, and either has a pocketful of money

Beat the Boys and the Birds to the Cherries

"Cherries are ripe!" When that little schoolroom song is in season, get busy in your kitchen! The robins, or other two-legged predators, answering to such names as "Butch" and "Porky", may consume the luscious crop of the old cherry tree before you can say, "NEXT WINTER'S PIES!"

To can cherries by the cold pack method, wash and stem them. Pit or leave whole, but prick whole ones with a needle. Pack into hot jars. Cover sour cherries with boiling sirup made of one part sugar and one part water of cherry juice. Cover sweet cherries with sirup containing one-half to one part sugar and one part liquid. Process 20 minutes in hot water bath.

The hot pack method calls for one-half to one cup sugar to each quart of pitted cherries. Add the sugar to the cherries and let stand one to two hours. Simmer 10 minutes, then pack into hot jars and process 10 minutes in hot water bath.

These directions are taken from the famous Ball Blue Book of home canning methods and recipes. If cherry pies, tarts and cobbblers made from home-grown cherries won't satisfy your family's craving for this piquant summertime fruit, put up cherry jelly, pickled cherries, cherry preserves, Maraschino cherries, and preserves combining cherries with pineapple, raspberries, etc. Canned Bing cherries are delicious to eat as dessert or in salads. You'll never lack for princely meals with cherries in your closet of canned foods.
