LISTEN TO LUKE

Lots of people have expressed some surprise that both the Terrell County Schools and Terrell County were not fabulously rich as a result of the oil and gas industry in Terrell County. This fact was made known after we read what we did last week about our ideas of conservatism of the tax money to which we were entitled and got over and above the specific needs of those two government agencies.

The valuation of some $7 1/2 million dollars in the two taxing agencies does not mean that they have that much money. They only use that as a basis for establishing the tax rate which apportions the amount of money they would get if they got it all. And what tax collector gets it all? Oh, eventually, some taxing group will sue for delinquent taxes, but even that does not get all of the money, and certainly there is some cost to suing for taxes.

We feel that there is a great advantage in conservatism in every branch of government. We like a local government in that we have men responsible for the making and spending of money who are taking it out of their own pockets in the making and consequently are pretty conservative in the spending.

If we had a group of men in our commissioners' court and on our school board who were not spending any taxes, they would not be concerned with where the money comes from, or particularly interested in how it goes. That is the situation we are faced with now on a national scale.

Those who are spending the money are not paying even an infinitesimal portion of the number of dollars they are spending for what do they care? They quit a $300-a-month job to spend literally thousands of dollars to get a political position, and all at once they begin seeing nothings and we mean zeros, or ciphers. Raise the deficit by $5-billion special millions here, and hundreds of thousands there, when all the time they're just spending the income of future generations. What do they care?

There should be lots of local interest in the Fourth celebration here next week. Coming on Tuesday — as it does this year — few people will have an opportunity to take off on a trip over that holiday.

We hope that a large crowd of people will take part in all of the activities of the day, thus making the day more enjoyable for all.

Then, too, we would like to see more people staying off the highways over that period, thus saving more lives, possibly.

We see no point or reason in an individual accepting an air of careless abandon just because it is a holiday of some sort. The consideration for the safety of others should be sufficient cause for sane and sensible celebration of any and all holidays.

Have you noticed the green appearance of the hills around town in recent days? What a difference some rainfall makes in the appearance of this country!

And what a difference it makes in the growth of weeds in the yards, too!

Monte Corder Is Top Ram Buyer At San Angelo Sale

J. M. (Monte) Corder of Terrell County was the top ram buyer at the San Angelo ram sale last week in that city and sponsored by the American Rambouillet Breeders Assn. He bought 25 of the 26 rams offered for sale at the auction and paid an average of $408.20 for the rams. Top price paid at the auction was for a Miles Pierce 4-tooth ram which brought $1,050.

In addition to the 25 stud rams, Corder also bought 39 registered rams in singles and pens for a total of $7,185, which made his total purchases $17,390.00 for breeding stock he bought at the sale.

S. L. Stumberg, also of Sanderson, purchased 41 rams for a total of $2,912.50.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Mitchell and children, and H. E. Gatlin all of Sanderson were also at the sale.

.30-Inch Rain Falls Wednesday Night

Sanderson received about 25 or 30-inch of moisture Wednesday night early. Rain began falling about 7:45 p.m. and lasted only a few minutes.

Exceptionally heavy gusts of wind preceded the rain, but immediately prior to the shower the winds subsided and the rain fell almost straight down.

Clouds continued all through the night and Thursday dawned heavily overcast with the promise of more rain.

It appeared that to the south of Sanderson there was heavier rainfall, and possibly some hail, but no reports were available at press time Thursday.

More Than 140 County Residents Get Social Security

By the end of 1960, more than 140 people in Terrell County were receiving old age and survivors insurance benefits. The total benefits paid to these people for December 1960 was $5,926.

According to H. P. Thomas, manager of the Odessa social security district office.

Nationally, almost 15 million people were receiving about a billion dollars a month in old-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits at the close of 1960. Many of these people were made eligible for benefits by the changes in the law made in 1960 — such as the reduction in the amount of work required to qualify for benefits and the removal of the age 50 requirement for disability benefits.

Payments to a retired worker with no dependents receiving benefits averaged $70.00 in December 1960; to a retired couple both receiving benefits, the average payment was $124.00. The average for an aged widow was about $58.00.

Last year was the 20th year that social security benefits were payable, and the 25th anniversary of the Social Security Act, which became law in 1935. Changes in the law since that time have brought more than 9 out of every 10 people in the United States protection by old-age, survivors and disability insurance — protection paid for by taxes on employees, their employers, and the self-employed. Earnings will be reported to the social security accounts of more than 75 million workers during 1961.

Of the total, 140, there were 87 in the aged group, and 53 children and young mothers.

Incentive Price Set for Wool Of 1960 Market

The payments on shorn wool under the National Wool Act will be 47.6 per cent of the net proceeds received during the 1960 marketing year, according to the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office. Where applicable, appropriate deduction will be made for unshorn lambs purchased.

It was also pointed out that one cent per pound will be withheld and paid to the promotion fund.

The payment rate on unshorn lambs sold is 80c per hundred-weight and the promotion fund deductions from lamb payments will be 5c per hundredweight.

The office stated that every effort was being made to expedite the issuance of the incentive payments to area ranchers.

Wolfcamp Field Designated In Terrell County

The Texas Railroad Commission has announced designation for a new field in District 7-C.

It is the Brown-Bassett (Wolfcamp) gas field of Terrell County opened May 2 with the dual completion of Sinclair Oil and Gas Co. No. 1 Alma H. Poulter, an extension westward of the field.

It was finalized for a calculated absolute open flow of 4.85 million cubic feet of gas per day, with gas-liquid ratio of 91,000-1, and through perforations between 6, 221-272 feet, which had been fractured with 15,000 gallons and pounds, and washed through with 1,500 gallons of mud acid. Gravity of the liquid is 60 degrees.

It was completed May 8 as a 3 3/8 mile northwest extension to Ellenburger production for a calculated absolute open flow of 10.5 million cubic feet of dry gas through perforations between 14, 174-596 feet.

Location is 1,980 feet from the south and 2,280 feet from the east lines of section 21, Block 1, TCRB Survey.

Traffic Death Toll Compared To Flood Of Galveston In 1900

J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association and coordinator of the annual "Slow Down and Live" program makes this comparison:

September 8, 1900, was a warm cloud-flecked day in Galveston. Slowly the skies turned yellow the beating of the waves on the wooden wharves increased in tempo, the skies darkened and the wind came. Inexorably, the sea rose about and through the city. Houses crumbled and washed away. Trees and railroad ties spun through the streets on sand and mud-filled torrents. Babies were wrenched from their mother's arms and husbands watched helplessly as their families were swept away or crushed by falling debris. When the sea and the winds receded 6,000 people were gone.

The Galveston tidal wave was one of three of the most dreadful "natural" disasters the United States has ever experienced. The Titanic, which struck an iceberg on a clear evening in April, 1912, carried 1,517 people with her to the bottom of the sea. The Johnston flood, in 1889, swept away the lives of 2,209 people. By appalling coincidence, these three disasters prove that man is more destructive to himself than any of the forces of nature. In the three disasters a total of 9,726 lives were lost. In just three consecutive summer months June, July, and August, 1958, 9,726 lives were also lost. But in 1958, man, himself, was responsible. The same number of men, women and children were needlessly slain in traffic accidents on our streets and highways during those months — the exact number lost in the three "natural" disasters. And the terrible toll goes on, year after year, unheeded by the motoring public.

Musick asks the help of every conscientious driver in the State of Texas in preventing needless disaster on our highways this summer. In a special statement, he stated that speed is our number one killer and that even though special enforcement programs are now in effect, the major responsibility must rest upon the public. He urged that every motorist pay special attention to the "slow down and live" safety program, now being sponsored for the 9th consecutive year.

"We must halt the needless slaughter on our highways," he said. "With citizen support and sane, safe driving practices, we know we can!"

Austin — Texas' tax debate continues. Not as lively now as during the legislative session — but many voices are being heard. It's sort of a "speak now or forever hold your peace" period. Some tax bill, undoubtedly the biggest in Texas history, will have to be passed in July or August, and those with something to say are rushing to get their licks in.

Legislators report that the small-scale "great debate" is proving very helpful in stirring up opinions from previously silent constituents. They're hoping to discover enough home district reaction to guide them to a swift, sure solution when they return for the special session July 10.

Eight Central Texas lawmakers, in reply to Gov. Price Daniel's report to the people, say that raising $341,000,000 in new revenue will require a "broad coverage tax."

Although five of the eight voted with the governor during the session, several objected to a "hit and miss" tax approach.

Some say that people in their district object to selective taxes on the grounds that "it's not fair to tax my product and not my neighbor's."

In the Wind

A number of new approaches to tax plans already batted around during the regular session are being worked on by lawmakers during this interim. Among plans being considered are these:

1. A new sales tax that would be linked, Siamese-twin fashion with a corporation income tax.
2. A 2 per cent tax on everything selling for $5.00 or more with the usual food and drug exemptions.
3. Selective excise taxes of 2 per cent on a long list of items, but generally exempting the bed rock necessities of life.

New Committee at Work

Governor Daniel's new tax study committee, made up mostly of the board chairmen for various state agencies, got off to a diplomatic, soft-voiced start.

Several lawmakers took a dim view of having "another study group", recalling that the last one had come up with a payroll tax plan that never caught fire. Texas voters, they pointed out, selected their legislators to write the tax laws and will hold the legislators responsible for the outcome.

Members of the committee made it clear that they don't intend to dictate to the Legislature. But they do hope to be able to indicate some possible paths of compromise among the various plans for which the legislators have shown favor.

Committee is to meet July 6 to write its report for the special session.

Down the Drain?

Some legislators are fretting over the loss in state revenue resulting from the Legislature's failure to pass a tax plan during the regular session.

Here is the way they see it:

1. Bills passed by a simple majority vote take effect 90 days after the close of the session. If a tax bill had been passed in the regular session, it would have taken effect the last of August and money from it would be accruing September 1 when the new fiscal year begins.
2. If a bill is passed by a simple majority in the special session — say about August 10 — it will not take effect until November 10.
3. A $340,000,000 tax bill covering the 24-month period would raise money at the rate of about $13,000,000 a month. But between September 1 and November 10, nothing would come in from the new bill. This waiting period of two months, would mean the loss of some $35,000,000 in state revenue which would have been raised if the same bill had been passed earlier.

Question that immediately arises is: Can the Legislature pass a tax bill by a two-thirds vote of both houses so that it will go into effect immediately? (As done in 1959.)

Today Legislators are dubious. As the new tax bill is expected to affect more items, many Legislators feel that it would be unfair to expect businessmen and store keepers to get ready overnight to charge all sorts of new taxes.

New Worlds To Conquer

With the election of John Tower as U.S. Senator, exultant leaders of the Texas Republican Party feel they have a foot solidly in the door.

Beyond that door, they hope to swing wide, is a two-party Texas with the GOP sharing political power in Texas on a roughly equal basis.

New goals are being considered carefully. All but one (Travis) of Texas' big metropolitan counties went for Tower, as well as large sections of West Texas. In these areas, except where a very popular Democrat is entrenched, the Republicans can be expected to bid for places in Congress, the Legislature, and even county jobs.

First test is due in Bexar County where Congressman Paul Kilday is due to resign to become judge of the Court of Military Appeals Bexar County went for Tower last month.

Under the present law, Kilday's successor will be determined in a one-shot, high-man-wins special election, probably next fall. There is some talk of trying to get the Legislature, during its special session, to pass a law which would require a run-off in special congressional elections. This would reduce Republican chances.

Contempt of Court

Court of Criminal Appeals ruled that a person cannot be held in contempt of court for an act committed outside the court room.

In the case in point, a district judge had held a man in contempt of court for assaulting him (the judge) at a filling station. The Judge sentenced his assailant to 72 hours house imprisonment and a $100 fine.

Nope, said the appeals court. Contempt of court has to take place in the court room.

State Capitol is having a relatively quiet period — somewhat like the "eye" of a hurricane.

Legislators are at home, and Gov. Price Daniel has gone to Hawaii for the National Governors' Conference. Officially, the "time out" ends July 10 when the special tax session begins.

But despite the lull, sharp gusts of differing opinion are still blowing. Before leaving, Gov. Daniel issued a parting blast at lobbyists in particular and critics of his anti-sales tax stand in general. He is thinking of asking for tighter lobby control measures.

particularly in regard to raising of money spent to influence legislation. He also accused opponents of his tax plan of being unwilling to compromise.

With the moving of Lawrence Janes to Ozona this weekend, it is entirely possible that Sanderson and this area will be without ambulance service. This fact is causing some concern to many residents here.

We will not attempt to offer a solution to this fact, as we don't know a feasible solution. It is the opinion of some that the county should furnish an ambulance, or subsidize the cost of operating one to some degree. It is the opinion of others that while the operation of an ambulance is a deficit business - according to some - it is still not the responsibility of the county to furnish such a service.

I know that if I had the price of an ambulance I wouldn't buy one for the profits to be had in its operation or the fun of driving it. I would figure it to be a philanthropic and welfare act.

It is certainly true that if some person - possibly me or mine - needs an ambulance tomorrow, it would be good to have one. But, really, whose duty or obligation is it to furnish every, or most, or some emergency facilities?

The people of Sanderson went together to buy fire fighting equipment, and have sought donations every year to maintain it, add to it, and so forth. Possibly that is the answer. But we pose this question - most any driver can drive a fire truck, but can most anyone do the things necessary for an ambulance driver to do - such as know how to handle certain kinds of patients, render first aid when required, etc.?

We are not being arbitrary, we are searching for an answer. It is you, and I, that will possibly be without the facilities of an ambulance. Do you have any ideas?

We will be glad to get behind any sensible and feasible move if one is indicated to be necessary for the procurement of such a facility and will be glad to hear from any reader-citizens on their opinions and ideas.

CARD OF THANKS
Most sincere appreciation to all my friends who sent cards, letters, flowers and other thoughtful remembrances to me while I was in the hospital. They meant so very much to me and to my family.
