LISTEN TO LUKE

There has been very little said in our hearing about the proposed hospital for Terrell County. This may seem strange to some and not so strange to others, depending on how you look at it, and how your thinking goes.

There is a cloud of uncertainty which has stayed over this area for some time now, and there is never any assurance that it will go away. This uncertainty is in the economic future of Sanderson.

This fact has caused some concern for some time to the leaders of the county and to many of our citizens.

There is no reason to try to close one's eyes to the facts as they exist, and there is no reason that we know of to try to hide the facts.

The unsettled railroad management-employee relationships, a prime factor to many local residents, the lack of rain and lack of prospects for a good lamb and wool market has caused another segment of our economy to take a closer look at life; the lack of increased and intensified interest in oil and gas exploration or production or leasing, too, has had its effect on the economic situation here. Coupled with all of these factors, is the resulting slump in business generally in Terrell County.

Each citizen and resident has some concern that is an important thing to him and is uppermost in his own mind and action.

Any obligation that is undertaken by any individual or group requires some planning, some thinking, and some hope and faith.

With these individual problems there is also a certain amount of selfishness and unselfishness for the general interest of others. That is inevitable.

With these facts in mind on the part of many people, it has been difficult for any of them to jump in and take the lead in making the hospital project to a speedy decision. There is also the fact that a time for "consideration" may be the most valuable time spent prior to the question of "a hospital or not."

The people of the United States have been "led" into a heck of a mess, and all of this "forward progress" that we have heard about has been rather slow in gaining footing and as it continues, the slipping seems to be most noticeable.

All of the facts possible in presenting a true picture of the hospital project have been presented to the people and it is not proper that we, as free thinkers, would be led into anything. You are a qualified taxpaying voter and know what you want and what you can afford, and whether or not you want to sacrifice anything for a hospital in Sanderson.

It is a presumption that the issue may be brought to a vote November. If it is there will be no untimely delay in anything.

Since the issue is approved by voters, and it will mean savings of some money for local taxpayers to have the vote then, in connection with a vote for some proposed constitutional amendments.

There is also the fact that at that time, we surely will have a clearer picture of the way the things stack up regarding our economic standards, such as a possible railroad management-employee settlement, rain, or the continuation of a drought, the end of the marketing season for lamb and wool, etc.

We will be forced to publicly pick up and eat some crow meat for the recent public statement of Governor John Connally concerning his ideas on the right of

'Homemaking' Courses Explained

Mrs. J. D. McDaniel

The previous articles on homemaking gave a general overview of the Homemaking Course and a resume of what a student in Homemaking I will study.

Students enrolled in Homemaking II are different from students in Homemaking I in that they are more serious minded, and interested in new challenges that directly affect their lives. At this age they are trying very desperately to establish their independence and carve their own particular character. The homemaking class provides opportunity for them to gain knowledge which contributes to an increased understanding of self, family and friends, along with skills in decision-making and in assuming responsibilities with less dependence on adults.

The course includes increasingly challenging learning experiences to meet the needs and interests of this age group in the areas of family housing, foods, clothing relationships, health, care of the sick, and child care.

Management of home activities; home improvement; arrangement and use of housing space; selection and use of equipment and furnishings; safety practices in the use and care of household equipment; improvised equipment for home and yard are some of the subjects discussed in family housing.

In clothing, plans for meeting personal wardrobe needs; purchase of satisfactory clothes; natural and man-made fibers; fabrics requiring special treatment; construction of garments for self and other family members; care of clothing; and improving skills in grooming and dressing on the individual basis, are the things that he student will study.

Plans for meeting personal and family food needs; marketing; speed methods in preparing meals and their service; table etiquette; foods for entertainment are the problems involved in food for the second-year homemaking girl. Skills and abilities required to meet new family situations; personal responsibilities in maintaining successful family relations; enjoyment in the home with family and friends; planning for wise use of money to meet personal needs are the things covered in the family relationship lessons.

Special care and feeding of the sick in the home; improvised equipment for use in care of the sick; precautions for maintaining health; and first aid are taught these advanced students in the course. In child care, understanding and guiding the behavior and habit formation of children in the home and community are taught.

"Are we educating our girls who are marrying younger than ever, to fill their role as women? We believe that marriage and family are important life goals for most of our students. If they have not had homemaking they have had very little if any training for the role they have chosen for the remainder of their lives," Mrs. McDaniel concluded.

Mrs. Roy Harrell is visiting relatives in Ozona.

Pictured above are the pupils in the special summer class for coming-first-graders who are learning the English language. The classes are Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to noon at the Lamar Ward School with Mrs. Orba Court as teacher.

LL Play Ends With Dodgers Victors

The Dodgers, coached by Gene Thompson and assisted by Ronald Carroll, cinched the lead in season play last Friday night by winning over the Giants in a 5-4 thriller.

The Giants, coached by Bob Turner and assisted by Tilden Stewart and Ernest Couch, and the Yankees, who were coached by L. R. Hall, put up a good season of play during the entire schedule.

The managers and the Little League officials, as well as the boys who made up the teams, expressed their thanks to the citizens of the town who have helped in so many ways to make the season successful.

All-stars, chosen from the local teams, will journey to Sheffield Friday night for a game there and Sheffield will return the match on Saturday night, August 3.

Boys that were named to the all-star team include Oscar Rodriguez, Vernon Munson, Junior Garcia, Leslie Hall, George Ybarra, Larry Turner, Terry Kessler, Barney Maples, Oscar Lopez, Alex Chalambaga, Manuel Olivias, Johnny Freeman, Mike Turner, Milton Lemons and David Bolinger was named bat boy for the team.

In the Pony League the Sanderson Eagles placed second in the league which was composed of three other teams, all from Alpine. All-stars from the Eagles to join the winning Tigers for district play-off on July 30 are Tommy Weigand, Frank Garcia, and Charlie Garza.

Dalton Hogg, manager of the organization, stated that all teams had suits this year and they now have money on hand for the opening of next summer's program.

Explorer Post Elects New Officers Here

Marquez was named vice-chairman of the district cabinet and Turner was elected cabinet secretary.

Bill C. Cooksey has been named Post Advisor of the Explorers, replacing W. L. LaFleur who resigned.

Mrs. M. D. Kelly Buried Monday

Funeral services were held in El Paso Monday morning for Mrs. Marvin D. Kelly with interment in the National Cemetery in that city.

Mrs. Kelly was found dead in bed at her home by friends on Thursday morning, apparently the victim of a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly are former residents, moving to El Paso 14 years ago.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sisters and four brothers, including H. G. Cates of Sanderson.

To Sgt. and Mrs. Bill Knight of Omaha, Neb., was born their second child and son on July 10. He was named Brett Alan. His birth weight was six pounds and seven ounces.

Mrs. A. T. Freeman, the maternal grandmother, with her son and daughter, John and Barbara returned home Sunday night from Omaha where they had been visiting the Knights for three weeks.

To Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gamblin of Ilo, Peru, was born a son, their second child, on July 7. His birth weight was seven and one-half pounds and he was named Lairon Brent. The Gamblins are former members of the faculty of the local schools.

Mrs. J. W. Happle Breaks Ankle

Mrs. J. W. Happle was taken by ambulance to San Antonio last Thursday after she had fractured and shattered several bones in her ankle in a fall at her home that morning. She underwent orthopedic surgery Saturday morning and is resting comfortably, according to reports. The leg is in a cast to the hip.

Her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Web Townsend, accompanied her to San Antonio and have remained there.

Joe Williams Receives Camping Awards at La Junta

Joe Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams, was named best all-around cowboy at Camp La Junta where he recently spent six weeks. Joe was the leader or bull-dozer of Top-Hand Ranch for boys 11-13 at the camp.

New Check Law Effective Aug. 22

A new law which goes into effect August 22 in Texas will carry with it a mandatory jail sentence upon conviction of all worthless check charges, according to information received this week. The new law will also prevent filing of worthless check charges in Justice Courts, and all such charges will be filed in either County Court or District Court, whichever has jurisdiction.

The new law, which was passed by the last Legislature in the form of amendments to the previous law on worthless checks that was passed in 1959, provide that "punishment shall be by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding two years, and by a fine not exceeding $1,000" for a first conviction on any worthless check, including ones under $50.

Conviction of a second offense according to the law, brings confinement the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than two years, and by a fine not exceeding $2,000.

The law is quoted further: "If it is shown upon the trial of a case... where the amount of the check, draft or order is less than $50, that the defendant has two or more times before been convicted of the same offense, regardless of the amount of the checks included in the previous convictions, upon the third conviction, the punishment shall be by confinement in the penitentiary for not less than two years nor more than 10 years."

For violations of the act involving checks of $50 or more punishment is prison confinement for not less than two nor more than 10 years.

Previously, charges of worthless checks under $5 were filed in the Justice Courts. This practice has been eliminated since a justice of the peace cannot assess a jail sentence, which is mandatory under the new law.

It was also pointed out that the court costs in all worthless check cases filed in County Court would be $27.70, higher than the minimum $15.50 costs of cases filed in Justice Courts. Thus a person convicted under the new law will also have a higher court cost to pay.

One other detail of the new law is that it will prevent the county and district attorney from being used by anyone as a collector of bad checks.

The law also provides that "if any person who has filed a complaint with any district or county attorney of this state alleging a violation of this act, or who has furnished information to any such district or county attorney which has resulted in the acceptance by such district or county attorney of such complaint, or who has testified concerning such a violation before a grand jury of this state which has thereafter returned an indictment on such violation, shall suggest to or request the county or district attorney in charge of such prosecution, that such case be dismissed, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500."

All worthless check complaints that are filed before the effective date of the new law will be handled under the existing laws.

Roscoe Taylor Dies Tuesday At Home In Del Rio

Roscoe Taylor, T&NO conductor of Del Rio, died in a hospital in that city Tuesday afternoon, according to word received by friends here. He was eating ice cream with his wife at home when he was stricken with what he thought was indigestion and died soon after he was admitted to the hospital.

'Roundup For Boys Ranch Begun

F. M. Wood has been named "wagon boss" for the fourth annual West Texas Boys Ranch Roundup which is currently under way. The Roundup is one of the means of financing the operation of the Ranch.

Ranchmen are asked to mark a few head of livestock in each shipment for Boys Ranch and proceeds from the sale of this stock will go to the Ranch. There will be no sale fee for the specially-designated stock. It was pointed out.

The Ranch has 80 boys in its care, 64 in residence on the ranch and 16 placed in foster homes and work homes under its supervision.

The Ranch has become famous in this area as a home for "hard luck" boys, most of them from broken homes, or no homes at all. It is financed entirely by free-will offerings of West Texans.

Previously, the Roundup has furnished as much as one-sixth of the Ranch's total annual budget. This means the stockmen's donations of unwanted animals have supported more than 60 boys for two months.

All help that can be given by ranchmen of this area will be greatly appreciated, Wood said.

Gov. John Connally says Texas is making a lot of progress on civil rights without demonstrations and disturbances. He urged Texans to avoid the trouble which is plaguing other states.

Roy Evans, secretary of Texas State AFL-CIO, indicated mass demonstrations are needed in Lower Rio Grande Valley to improve working conditions of the Mexican workers. Connally commented such statements are irresponsible and inflammatory.

Governor also rejected labor's appeal for a special session of the Legislature to abolish right-to-work laws and enact state minimum wage, saying he saw "no need, emergency or desirability" for such a session.

Evans said labor's traditional role is to try to inflame people against injustice, and he intends to keep on trying to do that.

Quick Change
 From one of the unpaid boss jobs to a $16,500 a year assistantship is the story of Dr. J. B. Copeland of San Antonio.

When the Legislature created the new job of deputy commissioner of the Health Department Dr. Copeland resigned as chairman of the State Board of Health to accept the job of deputy commissioner. He had been Board Chairman for the past 10 years.

Loans
 Frank Miskell of Austin, who headed up the Texas Legislature's studies on the loan shark problem, will be the administrator of the new law which regulates licensed lenders.

Miskell was chosen by the State Finance Commission to be the first Regulatory Loan Commissioner. He will assume his duties on August 23.

Dry and Wet
 Texas is spotted with drought and flood points.

Texas Water Commission found that reservoirs declined a little in June. They wound up the month 76 per cent full, so there's room to store more floods when and if they come.

In general, Northeast Texas reservoirs are full, while those in South Texas are shrinking.

Roads
 Highway construction is one thing dry weather helps.

State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer reported that contractors on state-federal projects completed $24,073,319 worth of work during June.

But there's plenty yet to do. They hold contracts which total $382,872,803 and another $25,000,000 worth of contracts will be issued this week.

Do Fence Them In
 Texas Highway Department has endorsed the idea of building "median rails" on busy urban expressways.

Rails — heavy-duty fences that keep traffic from careening into opposite lanes — have been or will be installed on expressways around Houston, Fort Worth, and Austin.

Also under development by highway engineers is a woven wire mesh fence — similar to back-yard chain-link jobs — to reduce headlight glare and to prevent pedestrians from crossing the freeways.

Oil Holds Up
 Despite recommendations by several major oil buying firms that Texas production be cut in August, the Railroad Commission held the line.

Production will continue at the July rate of 283 per cent of capacity of the wells. Independents praised the action.

Higher Education
 Texas Committee on Education Beyond the High School has selected one of its members as a paid executive director.

He is Dr. A. B. Martin, president of Amarillo Junior College. He will coordinate all staff work for the big study.

Committee has one year to finish its study and report to the governor and Legislature.

Congressman ED FOREMAN Reports

CPUSA's Gus Hall Praises JFK
 What's the best way to help the Communist Party? Work to defeat Republican candidates in 1964 — This is the recommendation of no less an authority than Gus Hall himself, the Soviet-trained general secretary of the CPUSA.

Conversely, Hall wrote in the most recent issue of "The Daily Worker", official publication of American Reds, "... election of Republicans can be expected to

Gen. Waggoner Carr on seriousness of a state-federal dispute on reclaimed lands in the tidelands; swapped hot wires with ex-Sen Bob Baker after Baker accused him of impeding Padre Island Seashore project; and insisted that Carr get Supreme Court concurrence on Carr's ruling that a new law reorganizing the School Land Board is valid.

Pollution Question
 Texas Water Pollution Control Board granted a permit to discharge thousands of gallons of "treated effluent" into the waters of Copano and Aransas Bays in connection with plans for a big new resort motel and marina at Lamar Townsite, Aransas County. Objections voiced at public hearings led to the Commission's action in instructing backers of the project — American Liberty Oil Company — to extend the point of discharge 500 feet farther out into the bay area.

Airman First Class John Eaker of San Antonio was a weekend visitor with friends here. He returned on July 4 from a tour of duty in Turkey and will be discharged in eight more months completing four years of service in the U.S. Air Force.

bring down on the U.S. what to Communists is worse than eternal perdition — freedom from Soviet dictates." Although he held to the usual Communist line that both major American political parties have certain ties with "imperialists", Hall praised President Kennedy for keeping "lines of communication open" with Russia. JFK atoned for his blockade of Cuba, Hall declared, by "quartering" Cuban exiles and banning raids, bombings and invasions of Castro's stronghold.

Hall's 10,000-word report, entitled "Political Parties and the 1964 Elections," was particularly praiseworthy of JFK's handling of Civil Rights, noting that the president had sent troops into Mississippi and Alabama. "The recognition of these realities does not make one a partisan or a supporter of the president," the CPUSA's No. 1 spokesman said. "At the same time, they do not isolate us from the broad movement which has relationships with the Administration."

The "broad movements", Hall explained, include youth and civil rights groups engaged in "ever more militant mass actions", peace movements and labor organizations. Through all such lines, he added, the CPUSA can "keep a constant line of contact with Administration forces." Hall said that almost all "people's political movements," which is the way the Red indoctrinated refer to programs they want furthered operate "within the orbit of the Democratic Party." He urged the "serious left" to support these movements wholeheartedly.

The Hall message, originally delivered in May at a secret meeting of Communist leaders but not made public until last Sunday, directed the American

Reds to concentrate their attack on "rightist" forces which are about to "capture the leadership of the Republican Party on all levels". Hall told the Communists not to put up their own candidates in 1964 or support any movement for a new party, but to support "Negro candidates, peace candidates and labor candidates" in the primaries. "We can give the ultra-right war forces a trouncing," Hall said. "This can be the election that creates the firm foundation for a new political alignment in our country."

Among legislative and judicial "reforms" the Communists must work for, Hall asserted, are the abolition of states rights, the abolition of a literal junking of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

Don't put away those road maps just because your child is still in diapers. People who make babies their business say that with a few simple precautions an auto trip with infants can be easy . . . and even enjoyable.

According to Bauer & Black, makers of Curity baby products, modern technology has solved the two main problems of infant travel — feeding and laundry.

"For short trips, plastic bottles with overcaps are ideal," said W. O. Elson, medical research director for Bauer & Black. "Mothers can sterilize bottles, nipples, and formula by the 'terminal' method before they leave. A small ice chest will keep the formula safe, and the overcap guarantees that the contents remain sterile."

For longer trips, Elson recommends that mothers rely on bottles of sterile nursery water, plus six-ounce cans of evaporated milk. Each time the baby is fed, open a can of milk, pour into a bottle the proper amount of milk, sweetening and water, and discard the rest of the milk. "Before a trip of any length," he cautions, "consult your baby's doctor."

Disposable diapers and diaper liners — which today are as comfortable and effective as the gauze variety — eliminate laundry worries while on the road.

"Each time the baby is changed," suggests Elson, "place the disposable diaper in a separate paper or plastic bag, and get rid of it next time you stop."

Other hints on how to make your trip pleasant and easy are:

Stick to your baby's schedule. Aim at 250 to 300 miles a day. Stop driving by 5:00 p.m. Make motel reservations in advance, at motels with baby beds if possible. Check weather forecasts. Plan your route through or near population centers. Use safety locks on doors, and never leave a child alone in a locked car. And remember that even on the highway your child needs his regular daily amount of cuddling and playing.

To aid you in packing for your next trip with an infant, clip and save the accompanying checklist of articles needed.

the individual to own and operate — without government intervention — property and business; to serve whom he pleased and under whatever circumstances he chose, etc. This was in direct conflict with the wishes of LBJ, with whom Connally had been closely associated politically in previous years. LBJ urged the governors of all the states to go along with the administration's civil rights program.

We feel that Connally is right — morally and legally.

I feel that any owner of any business should have the privilege of selling any or all of his merchandise — or none of it — to whomever he chooses. I feel that any consumer should have the right to buy from whatever retailer is willing to sell to him or not to buy from those with whom he does not care to do business. If we are forced to sell to you, you should be forced to buy from us, and we don't want it that way! Do you?

We feel that there is some obligations in our business as well as other phases of life, but obligations are more of an attitude, not a compulsion.

People who want others to trade at home should do a lot of trading at home themselves. But none of us have to — legally — but none of us should not want to.
