Mrs. Olivares, 106, Is Buried Here

Funeral services were held on Sunday morning, Dec. 22, at St. James Catholic Church, for Mrs. Asencion Olivares who died on Thursday, December 19. Rev. N. Femenia said the Rosary Mass Saturday at 9:00 p.m. with the members of the Sodality of Our Lady of Guadalupe present. Burial was in the Santa Rita Cemetery with Owen Funeral Home of Fort Stockton in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Olivares, daughter of Margarito Hernandez and Petra Vasquez de Hernandez, was born in the little town of Doctor Arroyo, N.L., Mexico. Her age has been determined at approximately 106.

In May of 1884 she married Brijido Olivares from Hacienda del Canelo. They had eight children, three of whom died at the hacienda. In 1910, during the Mexican Revolution, they fled from their hacienda, losing all of their belongings, and settled in Saltillo, Coahuila. In 1911, Mr. Olivares died, leaving her with five children.

About 1914, a son, Brijido Olivares Jr., came to Sanderson to work at the drug store owned at that time by the late Mrs. W. F. Bohlman. A year later, Juan Antonio joined his brother and opened a barber shop — now Joe's Barber Shop. In 1918, a daughter, Elisa, now Mrs. Lalo Ochoa came to Sanderson and finally, in 1919, Mrs. Olivares, with her two youngest children, Jose and Eva, joined them to make their home in Sanderson. Brijido and Juan Antonio later returned to Mexico.

Mrs. Olivares had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lalo Ochoa, for the past 40 years. She was active up to four years ago when she fractured her hip in a fall, and failing eyesight forced inactivity.

The three surviving children living in Sanderson are Jose Olivares, Mrs. Lalo Ochoa, and Mrs. Eva Hernandez. Her 11 grandchildren are: Manuel Ochoa, Monahans; Jose, Juan Antonio, Norma Olivares, and Grace Hernandez, San Antonio; Mrs. Donald Ludwig, Reading, Pa.; Ernestina Ochoa, Juan Jose, Sylvia, and Rosalinda Olivares, Sanderson; Mrs. Rodolfo Rodriguez, Medias Aguas, Vera Cruz, Mexico. There are 22 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandchild.

Pallbearers were four grandchildren, Manuel Ochoa, Jose, Juan Antonio, and Juan Jose Olivares, and two nephews, Isidoro and Alfonso Olivares.

Out-of-town relatives here for the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Ochoa, Monahans; Jose and Juan Olivares, Grace Hernandez, and Norma Olivares, San Antonio; and Mrs. Esther Olivares, El Paso.

Items Stolen From Site of Highway Construction Work

The theft of several items of equipment and some gasoline were reported to Terrell County officers last week. The theft occurred on the night of December 26.

Reported as stolen were two electric drills, a power saw, an electric hammer and about 20 gallons of gasoline.

Misses Irma and Josephine Martinez of San Antonio visited here during the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Isabel Perez and family.

Mark Attaway of Lubbock is visiting here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Attaway. The Attaways met their son Douglas Attaway, and wife in Odessa to get Mark.

Bob Cat Killed On James Ranch Thought Rabid

A bob cat killed on the Lewis James ranch in the eastern-central part of the county, was presumed to be rabid, according to Mr. James. Ranchmen in that area are alerted to be watchful for other animals in a similar condition and for a possible spreading of the disease.

Mr. James reported that the cat came up to the house acting in a very strange manner and he killed it immediately.

The head was not sent off to ascertain the contagion by rabies since there was no definite need for such information, according to local officials.

Wool Program Is Changed To Calendar Year

Producers are reminded that the 1963 marketing year under the National Wool Act has been changed to the calendar year. Incentive payments for the 1963 marketing year depend on completing all details of furnishing all necessary information to AS CS personnel as quickly as possible. All applications must be completely processed during the month of January.

Marketings completed after December 31, 1963, will be eligible for payments under the 1961 program.

No incentive payment on mohair is expected, since it appears to be evident that the national average price per pound for mohair has exceeded 76c during 1963.

Quiet New Year Is Observed Here

An exceptionally quiet new year was heralded in Sanderson, according to local officers.

There were some firecracker explosions and a few shots fired from shotguns or rifles.

The only public gatherings were a midnight Mass at St. James Catholic Church and a watch service and dedication communion service at the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilbreath spent last weekend in Lubbock with their daughter, Mrs. W. T. Edwards, and family, and her mother, Mrs. Zoe Wisdom, and her sister, Mrs. S. J. Hitt, and family. Mrs. Edwards and her four children accompanied her parents home for a week's visit.

Some Snow Falls Monday Morning

Some snow fell locally early Monday on the heels of the cold front that moved into this area at about 8:00 p.m. Sunday. The snow did not stay on the ground, but freezing temperatures permitted it to collect on car windshields, etc.

Heavier snows were reported to the west with W. R. Stumberg reporting a ground covering to the north of Longfellow.

The temperature moderated some Tuesday, with freezing temperatures every night this week. Tuesday and Wednesday were both clear.

Ex-Sandersonian Killed In Affray In San Angelo

Noe Flores, 30, of San Angelo died early Sunday morning as a result of stabbing wounds received in an affray in that city. He was a former resident of Sanderson.

Two men are charged in San Angelo with the death of Flores and another man Raul Ysaguirre-Martinez, also of San Angelo.

Flores was born in Sanderson October 13, 1933, and had been living in San Angelo for about 20 years working as a cabinet maker. He is survived by his widow, two sons, two daughters; his mother, Mrs. Frank Flores; four brothers, Nick, Frank, Tony and Henry, all of San Angelo; and three sisters, Mrs. Pauline Robles, Mrs. Stella Flores, and Mrs. Adela Rodriguez, also of San Angelo.

Local SCD Has Two New Projects

The Rio Grande-Pecos River Soil Conservation District has purchased five roadside signs and started publication of a quarterly newsletter, in order to better inform the members of the work being done in the district. The three feet by five feet signs will be erected on each of the five highways entering the district. They are lettered on both sides and show "Entering Rio Grande-Pecos River Soil Conservation District" on one side and "Leaving . . ." on the other. Signs such as these are erected at the boundaries of many districts throughout the U. S.

The first newsletter will be mailed in January and will contain information and photographs about current activities within the district as well as past accomplishments. The newsletter is intended to impart the most current information on conservation and to keep landowners and operators informed about activity in the district.

To Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hutchinson of San Antonio was born their first child, a son, on Sunday, December 22. His birth weight was six pounds and three ounces and he was named Charles Wade Hutchinson Jr. Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Robinson are maternal grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Kip Gatlin and son, Todd, are leaving Saturday for their home in Phoenix, Ariz. They accompanied his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gatlin, to Del Rio to visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Buchanan. Mrs. Kip Gatlin and son also went by plane from Midland to Oklahoma to visit a few days with her mother.

Retiring Soon? SS Office Has Helpful Information

Planning to retire soon? One service often overlooked is the help your social security office can give you, even before that last day of work comes. Knowing when and how to file an application for social security benefits and just what proofs will be needed can save unnecessary trips to the social security office and speed the delivery of your first check.

One item that you are sure to need is your social security number. Take your social security card with you when you visit with the social security office; as it identifies the earnings record upon which your benefits will be based. Also take some proof of your age with you. A birth certificate is preferable, but other evidence can be used too; the social security office will be glad to furnish you with a list of acceptable proofs.

There are other proofs that may be required in your particular claim for benefits. It may be a copy of last year's federal tax return if you are self-employed, proof of your wife's age your child's birth certificate, or some proof of your marriage. The number and types of proofs required will differ with each case, so it's best to find out ahead of time just what will be needed. To be sure of prompt service, inquire before you retire.

Alert Businessmen Aid Capture Of Florida Suspect

The cooperation of a businessman in Dryden and Sanderson resulted in the apprehension of a man from Florida wanted for transportation of a stolen vehicle across a state line. The man was picked up here by Deputy Sheriff Dalton Hogg Sunday morning.

The case was reported after the occupants of a new Pontiac tried to cash American Express travelers' checks for an odd figure. After investigation, it was learned that the vehicle they were driving was stolen in Georgia and they were picked up Tuesday on a charge of transporting a stolen vehicle across a state line.

Wild Chase Ends In Terrell County Capture of Pair

A wild chase after two men in a stolen car which began in Del Rio, ended in Terrell County early Friday morning with the apprehension of the pair by local officers.

Terrell County Sheriff Bill C. Coosey, Texas Highway Patrolman Malcolm Bolinger, and Texas Ranger Forest G. Hardin were responsible for the capture of the pair about 10 miles east of Dryden.

The men were driving a car which had been reported stolen in San Antonio. Del Rio officers tried to stop the car and in the chase which followed, the motor in the chase car burned out and Val Verde County officers called ahead. A road block was set up at Comstock by Border Patrolmen, but the car sped through the barricade. The call came to Sanderson about 7:30 a.m. Friday.

Coosey and Bolinger were in one vehicle with Ranger Hardin in a second car. The suspect car was encountered about 20 miles east of Del Rio and said to be traveling at an extremely high rate of speed. Both of the chase cars turned around and in the process, the suspect car ran Hardin's car off the road. Chase at an extremely high rate of speed continued for about 10 miles and the suspect car was finally stopped about a mile east of Dryden.

The driver and passenger were returned to Del Rio by officers from Val Verde County and they were taken back to Schulenburg where they were wanted for car theft. It was learned that the pair had stolen a car in that city and driven it to San Antonio where they were involved in an accident. They fled the site of the accident and stole another car there, the vehicle they were driving when apprehended, according to the officers.

The driver of the vehicle was said to be a parolee on a burglary conviction.

Teens Turn Out by Thousands To Join March of Dimes TAP's

Thousands of teenagers across the nation have found a way to have fun while doing an important community project.

They have joined the Teen Age Program (TAP) of the 1964 March of Dimes in the fight against birth defects and arthritis.

Many are helping to carry out the public education program against birth defects, today's greatest unsolved childhood medical problem. Others are assigned to help with the Mothers' March for the March of Dimes. A great many choose to think up their own projects in their schools or suburbs.

Whatever job, it is important, because the fight against birth defects is vital to every young person who plans to have his own family someday, after completing school and career preparations.

Heading the TAP program are Judy Meyers, 18, Aurora, Colo., and Philip Dawson, also 18, Jamestown, N. Y., who are the national TAP co-chairmen for the 1964 March of Dimes this January.

Judy, a freshman at the University of Colorado, was a vice president of Mu Alpha Theta, mathematics honor society at Aurora High School, and Philip, a freshman at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, was a member of the National Honor Society at Jamestown High School.

Both young people feel that a high scholastic rating is not only desirable but necessary in today's world. Both feel that good marks give a teen leader added prestige with his peers.

"It's terribly old-fashioned to think that the Big Man on Campus is a 'C' student," Judy and Philip said. "More often than not, he's an 'A' student who is also aware of the importance of community activities."

Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Meyers of Aurora. She became a March of Dimes volunteer several years ago because she wanted

GETTING TO KNOW YOU: Little Virginia Paige, 5, who was born with a birth defect, gets acquainted with Philip Dawson, 18, of Jamestown, N. Y., and Judy Meyers, also 18, of Aurora, Colo., who were appointed national co-chairmen for the 1964 Teen Age Program (TAP) of the March of Dimes. Thanks to the latest medical techniques, provided by March of Dimes funds, you'd never know that Virginia, who lives in New York with her parents, was born with a serious birth defect.

"to do something useful." She decided to study languages at the University of Colorado for the same reason, because she thinks that linguists can be of service to their country in the coming years.

Philip, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dawson of Jamestown, comes from a family active in community service. His father is a deacon in the First Presbyterian Church of Jamestown, and a district commissioner for the Boy Scouts of America. Philip first heard of the March of Dimes through his mother, who was active in the Mothers' March for the March of Dimes during the years the Salk vaccine was being developed and tested.

Currently, Philip plans to go on to law school after college. He has tentative plans for a career in politics, "because I feel that this is an interesting part of our present-day life."

Both young people feel that if teens throughout the country are told the importance of the March of Dimes programs against birth defects, arthritis and polio, they will volunteer in great numbers for January's March of Dimes.

They based their predictions on two things: (1) neither Philip nor Judy ever had any trouble in finding volunteers for their March of Dimes projects in their home states, and (2) both teens pointed to the fact that the Peace Corps never has any trouble in finding volunteers.

"Young people today want to do something useful, along with putting forth every effort to do justice to their scholastic programs," the two national March of Dimes volunteers said. "Just because a teen wears sloppy clothes sometimes and is a little loud other times doesn't mean that he doesn't want to do something worthwhile. The vast majority of teens want very much to be good, useful citizens."

AUSTIN—Pres. Lyndon Johnson's holidays would exhaust most ordinary mortals.

The President arrived in Austin on Christmas Eve, his homecoming delayed by a congressional crisis over the $3,000,000,000 foreign aid bill. Abandoning his announced schedule, he went to the Governor's Mansion for a 30-minute visit with Gov. John Connally.

Stopping his party's helicopter at the ranch of another close friend, A. W. Moursund, the President joined Moursund in an hour of deer hunting, before he finally got home to hang up his Christmas stocking. There he spent a happy time with his family and relatives and numerous close friends.

Christmas Day at the LBJ Ranch also found the President confronted with problems. He expressed concern over the fighting in Cyprus, penned messages to Greek and Turkish Cypriot leaders and General Cemal Gursel, President of the Republic of Turkey.

Then he took newsmen on a tour of his ranch, handed them ashtrays as presents, and explained a cut he had just ordered in federal employment. All this he did before settling down to his Christmas dinner and the opening of presents under the tree.

Before dawn the next day, he and former Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee left "The Little White House" on a deer hunt. Both bagged bucks.

The President was back at the ranch house, working in his office, before noon and conferred with Secretary of State Dean Rusk by telephone, repeatedly, on the Cyprus crisis.

Later, he named a nine-member committee of experts to evaluate foreign economic and military aid programs and recommended how to strengthen them.

In doing his homework for the important Erhard visit, Johnson conferred in person with these distinguished government officials at the ranch: Secretary Rusk, Under Secretary of State George W. Ball, Special Ambasador Christian Herter, Agriculture Secretary Douglas Freeman and McGeorge Bundy, special assistant for national security affairs.

Theodore Sorensen, special White House counsel, was summoned to assist in preparation of the new President's first state of the union message. It will be delivered before the Congress on January 8.

Thomas C. Mann, assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs, and John A. McCone, Central Intelligence Agency director, were among others called to confer with the President, in addition to regular staff members.

Press members from Washington and foreign countries, as well as the native Texans of the State capital beat, were invited back to talk and eat with the President on Friday.

In addition to official talks there was a program of fun for Chancellor Erhard, a portly ex-professor. He toured Fredericksburg, home of many German-speaking Texans, and attended church at Bethany Lutheran Church there Sunday. More than 200 turned out for a barbecue luncheon honoring the Chancellor at the Stonewall High School gymnasium three miles from the ranch.

When Erhard departed, Johnson turned immediately back to the national budget and went into a huddle Monday with Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and the joint chiefs of staff.

So it went as the President wound up his "holiday" and prepared to return to the regular schedule in Washington.

Press Coverage

For many years, Austin's state-ly Driskill Hotel has been President Johnson's home away from home for some 75 to 200 news reporters. They "cover" the White House, whether it is on the Potomac or the Pedernales.

The Crystal Ballroom, usually the setting for brilliant Christmas and New Year's balls, has been a working pressroom during the 1963 holiday season. The "Press Center" covers the hotel's mezzanine and extends to quarters occupied by White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger and his staff.

In the Driskill, the press corps waits for word of cuts in federal employment, the President's luck at hunting, statements on Cyprus and on repercussions from his meeting with Chancellor Erhard of West Germany.

At times, the news from Johnson's LBJ Ranch near Stonewall is delivered via a "press pool," in which four reporters are assigned to represent all their colleagues. Other times, the whole corps is bundled into buses for the trip to the ranch over U.S. 290 and the newly-designated Ranch Road No. 1.

Some of the press-center set up will remain intact in the Driskill Hotel for presidential visits in the future. This may be for the next year, or the next five years, or perhaps, the next nine years, according to voters' reactions to the news that this army of reporters turn out.

Animal Health Appointments

During his convalescent period in the Mansion, Governor Connally picked two new members for the Texas Animal Health Commission to succeed Dr. Robert Hartman of Victoria and George Apple of McKinney.

New commissioners are Dr. J. Ray Martin of Coleman and C. E. (Ed) Knolle of Sandia. Dr. Martin, a graduate of the Veterinary School at Texas A & M has practiced veterinary medicine in Coleman since 1946.

Knolle is co-owner and manager of Knolle Jersey Farms in Jim Wells and Nueces counties. A University of Texas ex-student he is past president of the Texas Jersey Cattle Club.

School Drop-Outs

During the holidays Governor Connally has been Texas' second biggest newsmaker (second only to President Johnson). He stirred a lot of interest when he turned attention to what is considered by many to be the state's first problem: School drop-outs.

Connally asked the Texas Education Agency to develop a plan for pilot programs to help local school districts find solutions to the drop-out situation. He described it as "one of our most severe educational and economic problems."

According to the Governor: "Last June, Texas high schools graduated only 87,640 of the 196,032 first-graders who entered school in 1951. Nearly 59,000 dropped out before reaching the 9th grade and 50,000 left between the 9th grade and graduation."

Connally quoted a Texas Employment Commission prediction that by 1965, the nation will have three young people without high school diplomas chasing after every two jobs available to them, while there will be only five high school graduates available for every seven jobs requiring that much education.

Here's why more and more stockmen are switching to MoorMan's

Feeding MoorMan's with grain and roughage makes sense to an increasing number of stockmen. And growth in numbers of livestock fed MoorMan's is even greater than this tonnage chart indicates—because each ton of MoorMan's concentrated concentrates balances and fortifies more farm-grown feeds than most ordinary feeds or supplements.

MoorMan Products are research-proven three ways by more than 75 skilled research workers: Through development and quality control; in exhaustive tests on this or one of our other two Research Farms, totalling 1,280 acres; and in Field Research on hundreds of working farms and ranches in various parts of the nation.

Typical of MoorMan leadership was first-in-the-industry development in 1952 of protein-mineral-vitamin blocks for self-feeding to cattle on grass or roughage. Gigantic presses like this turn out 10 different Mintrate® Blocks to fit varying pasture or roughage conditions. More than 18,000,000 Mintrate Blocks fed successfully.

YOUR MOORMAN MAN

MIKE TURK
Drvden, Texas

Helpful suggestions on feeding and management of livestock and poultry are supplied by MoorMan's Research and Service Departments—based on our Company's experience since 1885. This is only part of on-the-farm service provided by MoorMan Men.

You, too, can hold down your total feed cost to produce meat, milk or eggs when you feed MoorMan's with grain and roughage. You buy only the essential ingredients you cannot raise or process yourself—just proteins, minerals, vitamins, antibiotics and other working ingredients in "one-package" concentrated concentrates. You buy no filler, no added fiber, no grain by-products.

I'll be glad to give you an estimate of the low cost of feeding on a MoorMan Program.

or Frank Miskell issued a total of 1,630 licenses to be displayed by consumer credit companies which make loans up to $1,500.

All of these licenses - ranging from a single lender in New Boston to a 60-office Family Finance chain - now will be under state supervision.

Loan lobbyists estimated earlier in the year that there were 2,200 loan offices in the state, but only 1,895 filed letters of intent to file application for a license.

Commissioner Miskell refused to license 30 applicants, and nine of these have suits against the state pending in federal and state courts.

Slant-Hole Sums Recovered Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr announced the recovery of $110,000 from two defendants accused of slant-hole oil well operations.

Of this, $10,000 was recovered from G. M. Jordan of Kilgore, following a judgment entered by 53rd District Judge Herman Jones, and $100,000 from J. G. Walker of Tyler, charged with operating wells illegally.

Carr said the money will be placed in the State Treasury.

The attorney general ruled that an agreement of passage of title made by joint owners of a motor vehicle would not be sufficient to authorize the State Highway Department to issue a new certificate of title to the motor vehicle in the name of the surviving joint owner.

He also made a ruling on fee collections in criminal convictions, other than homicides, and ruled out Texas A&M University's claim to a $3,000 educational bequest which has been held in the Governor's Suspense Fund nearly 30 years.

Officials of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engine men believe a Texas law requiring "full crews" for trains will keep firemen here on the job in spite of a recent national arbitration board ruling aimed at the elimination of some firemen from railroad crews.

But the Texas Railroad Association does not believe the state law will prevail. Furthermore it estimates the ruling will not immediately affect more than 20 of the 1,800 railroad firemen in Texas.

Motorists Warned Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, issued a special warning to car owners that tough NEW amendments to the Texas safety responsibility law becomes effective on January 1.

Amendments require that drivers prove their ability to pay for damage to others in traffic accidents. All accidents resulting in $100 or more damage, injury or death must be reported in writing to the DPS within 10 days.

Licenses will be suspended unless both operators and owners of cars in accidents coming under the law can prove adequate liability insurance coverage.

Minimum requirements are $10,000 covering liability for one person; $20,000 for two or more persons; and $5,000 property damage. Otherwise they must establish financial responsibility, if they are at fault.

Suspension of licenses and registration will be for a period of two years unless requirements of the safety responsibility act are fully met.

Industrial Effort Cited Texas Industrial Commission won the 1963 professional trophy award of the Society of Industrial Realtors for its efforts to bring industry to Texas.

Society, which headquarters in Washington, presents the award annually to the State or Canadian Province with the most effective industrial development program.

Award will be presented at a banquet in Washington on January 31.

During the last year 317 new plants and warehouses have located in Texas. Texas ranked second only to New York in these locations during the first half of the year.

Construction Rises The seasonally-adjusted index of total construction authorized in Texas in November amounted to a three-per-cent increase over October.

UT Bureau of Business Research predicted that the November gain probably will cause the construction industry to top its 1962 total.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas public school cafeterias will serve 2,400,000 pounds of chicken in months ahead. This is Texas' share of 50,000,000 pounds bought by the U.S. Department of Agriculture with school lunch funds.

O. J. McCullough, Houston tool manufacturer, has applied for a charter for the National Association for the Advancement of White People.

Former State Sen. Bob Baker of Houston, who ran unsuccessfully for governor in 1962, picked up official filing papers here and said he will be a candidate for statewide office again.

Water storage in Texas reservoirs increased 26,100-acre feet in November. This brings the total to 7,200,000-acre feet or 61 per cent capacity.
