ISTEN TO LUKE

Albert: -

There was some anxiety inted by some local residents by Sunday morning when it gan to rain. And who can the them?

The shower that fell Friday ternoon late and the one that learly Sunday morning were tessings to this parched earth of there was no reason for the way things turned

What water might have startidown the creek from the est went into the gravel in the nek bed immediately as there as no water running visibly, wording to all who went to

But one good look at the mek bed just west of town and a conditions that exist there was a person leary of what can appen again if there were to a build-up of the proper elements which percipitated the mod of last June.

The conditions that existed at the time of that flood are except the same—only more somewin that the banks of the material and particularly on the curves the creekbed where the warrieft the channel before. There into very much of a channe.

There seems to be less resistte available now, in other ords to contain the creek withits banks, according to these trained eyes.

and Downie Street seems to destined as the new channel r Sanderson Canyon when the at rain comes.

The aggregate has arrived for e seal-coating and re-working the local streets and maching is busy in the preparation of all streets for the project.

Work will probably be going earnest by the time this is in print.

Little groups spring up here it there over the nation and e world demanding their this to this and to that and tir "rights" always include me sort of a dole from some urce or another.

retty soon, the lowly taxpayis going to be a minority

Reduced Rate On Electricity Is Announced

Jimmie Caroline, manager for Community Public Service Co. in Sanderson, has announced a voluntary reduction averaging 12 per cent for residential users of electricity in the area.

He stated that the downward revision of rates is a continuation of the long-established policy of the company to voluntarily reduce rates to residential customers from time to time as conditions permit.

The reduction has come about due to operating economies and increased consumption of electricity in the home, particularly in refrigerated air-conditioning.

Savings under the new rates are proportionately larger to the above-average use residential consumers, such as those with summer air-conditioning though all customers using over 6%-kilowatt-hours of electricity per month will be benefitted. The minimum bill will be slightly increased.

Residents of Sanderson will realize the savings on their electric bills under the new rates on statements prepared from readings made on and after October

Jim Powers Is Victim Of Gunshot Wound

Jim Powers was the victim of an accidental gunshot wound at his home in Dryden early Tuesday morning.

The accidental death ruling was given by Justice of Peace J.

A. Gilbreath after an inquest at the home.

Mrs. Powers stated that after she and her husband had finished their breakfast, Mr. Powers said that he was going to go and load his rifle and put it in the pick-up. She said he carried the rifle with him every day and he had said that he had shot at something the previous day, accounting for the necessity of reloading the weapon.

He had walked into the back bedroom and after hearing the shot, found her husband on the floor. Death was instantaneous. Mr. Powers was standing near the closet where his ammunition was kept when the gun discharged. The 22 Hornet was fully loaded when examined by Sheriff Bill C. Cooksey who assisted in the examination.

The body was taken to Ozona and funeral arrangement are to be under the direction of Lawrence Janes Funeral Home of that city.

The accident occurred just before 7:00 a.m.

Besides the widow Mr. Powers is survived by a son, J. W. Powers of Odessa; two daughters, Mrs. Bobby Walsh of Del Rio and Mrs. Bubber Mathers of Marathon; his father; four brothers. Tom Powers of Ozona, Louis Powers of Sonora, Gordon Powers of Ubana, Ill., Ted Powers of Abilene; seven sisters including Mrs. Gladys Clark of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Dink Lindley, San Antonio, Mrs. Dorwecz Scoggin, Ballinger, Mrs. Ella Mae Aley. Arkansas, Mrs. Nora Curry, Irving, Mrs. Ruth L. Picket, San Angelo, Mrs. Dovie Sprinkle, Winters; 12 grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Mr. Powers was born October 6, 1902, at Crosscut, the son of Rev. F. M. Powers who is now in a rest home in Christovai, and the late Mrs. Powers. He was married to Odie Ford on July 18, 1925. They came to Terrell County 30 years ago and he had worked on several ranches, at one time had a cafe in Dryden and for the past 17 years had worked for the commissioner of Precinct 2.

Funeral services for Mr. Powers have been set for Thursday. 10:00 a.m. at the First Baptist Church.

Gas Plant Has Perfect Safety Record

The Terrell Gas Plant of El Paso Natural Gas Co. was honored Tuesday night, Sept. 14 with a steak supper served to the employees by the company in connection with the Safety Department for the perfect safety record of the plant.

Following the supper, Joe Kohlman, division safety engincer, introduced special guests, Ralf Allen, personnel director; T. J. Crutchfield, division superintendent; and H. P. Logan, director of pipe lines and operations.

Other guests from Jal, N.M., and El Paso included R. H. Barnett, division superintendent of the field department; Paul Trout, superintendent of gasoline plans; Roger Van Bramer, division superintendent of the company's treating plants; L. G. Sweatt, division superintendent of compressor stations; Tom O'Donnel, safety director: Bill Angus, assistant safety director; Chuck Chesbro, pilot; Keith Foster, USF&G Co. Rep.; Bobby Frances, personnel department; and Johnny Hodges Kenneth Clinton, and Roy Watson, who are safety engineers.

Mr. Kohlman gave a report of the plant's outstanding safety record in 1964. Mr. Logan presented each employee with cither a lighter or money clip with name engraved. Six of the men to receive the awards have been at the plant since its beginning in 1960. They are: Charles Smith, Syd Brooks, Bili Hall, George Featherston, Richard Sowders, and Bob Norred. Others receiving awards were: Jimmy Dishman, Ernest Adair, Lee Watson, Johnny Burleson, Dean Garland, Darrel Crowder. H. C. Scott, and James Cooper. Frank Felts, Elmo Barnes, Bobby Smith, Carl McMahon, and Carl Hogg also received awards but have moved to other plants and were not present.

Recognition was given to Charles Smith, Terrell Plant Superintendent, for outstanding service to the company. He accepted a large plaque on behalf of the plant's safety award,

1-Inch Rain Falls Sunday

A 1-inch rain fell on Sanderson and the surrounding area early Sunday morning. There were some reports of heavier rainfall — up to two inches.

The slow-falling rain began falling at about 2:00 a.m. Sunday and many local citizens got out early to cast an apprehensive eye on the draw.

No water ran down the draw, it all being consumed by the gravel before it reached Sanderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grigsby and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Rose returned home Sunday from Midland where they attended the wedding of Fred T. Baker Jr. and Miss Shelley Hartma. Saturday evening.

Eagles Bow To Ozona By 35-0

The Sanderson Eagles hosted the Ozona Lions Friday night and lost their first district game of the season by a 35-0 score.

Ozona broke into the scoring early in the first column early in the first period when their fleet-footed halfback George Cox ran the ball over from the 7-yard line in the first offensive effort of the Lions. The extra point was added by Humberto Ramos.

Ozona scored three times in the second period, twice on plays inside the 5-yard line and once on a pass play from the 20-yard line. Thomas Dehoyas made the first TD for the Lions in the secone frame and Billy Carson ran the second one over. The pass play was a pitch-back to Pon Seahorn who threw to Randy Upham for the TD. Ramos converted all three extra points.

The half-time score ended 28-0 in Ozona's favor.

In the third period Billy Carson scored from the 6-yard line and Ramos added the extra point.

In spite of receiving several breaks by penalties and fumbles, Sanderson was unable to launch an effective offensive.

Sanderson crossed the 50-yard line only one time during the game and that time went to the 24-yard line where they had a pass intercepted.

Dryden Hit By Twister Tuesday, Damage Heavy

Practically every building in the community of Dryden, 21 miles southeast of here, was damaged by the heavy wind and hail which hit about 6:15 p.m. Tuesday.

There were no serious injuries, but two sheepshearers were treated in Del Rio for minor injuries, according to Sheriff Bill C. Cooksey. One of the men had a broken finger and the other was bruised by the hail.

The old Purple Sage Cafe and several of the courts were unroofed, as was the house of W. E. TenEyck, a driling mud warehouse was destroyed, almost every window on the south side in the town was knocked out and there was resulting damage by water. The windmill at the Vic Littleton house, the former home of the late Mr. and Mrs. John T. Williams, was twisted, and a railroad car was blown from the Southern Paci ic tracks and deposited on the highway.

REA power lines and telephone communication was disrupted by the wind.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

On many occasions, and for many years, the nation's independent business proprietors voting through the National Federation of Independent Business have opposed increas- have their own local governing encroachments of State ment which is represented in Dept. into all phases of American activity, as well as interfering with other nations.

Without State Dept. American taxpayers would have saved many billions thrown away in so-called foreign aid State Dept. interference

C. W. Harder destroyed Winston Churchill's top protege, Anthony Eden, and turned the near East over

A case in point is the cold war now being waged against the Republic of South Africa by the State Dept. This is perhaps the only African nation not taking U. S. foreign aid. It is returning 13 to 17 per cent on almost a half billion dollars in American investments. It is the largest gold producer in the free world and maintains small put potent armed forces against communism. Yet South Africa cannot even buy arms or warships from the U.S. for cash.

Big blocks of land have been given to the Bantus, to develop their own communities. They the national government, three Bantu universities, almost 30,-000 Bantu teachers. In 16 years among 11 million Bantus there are more college degrees than have been awarded to 70 million other native Africans in the past 50 years.

In addition, it is recognized they have the right to practice their own religions and customs. For example, in their religion, they believe in polygamy, so in their own towns and on their farms polygamy is recognized. More than 12,000 Bantus own businesses.

It is perhaps quite fruitless at this date in history to compare the freedom of Bantu immigrants into South Africa with the American treatment of either the native Indians, or the colonizing Mormons.

The Republic of South Africa is not only militant opponents of communism, but what is perhaps more important, is an exponent of free enterprise.

They get not, neither do they ask, one cent of U. S. foreign aid. And it is indeed ironical The Republic of South Africa when the U. On the other plus arms is being handed out freely to jungle African nations, some ruled by communists, not to mention those where given opportunity, they negroes from the midlands eat American missionaries and

Unwilling Criminal

As you pause at a red traffic light, a stranger leaps into the back seat of your car, presses a gun against your head and snarls:

"Get going!"

If you do get going, are youaside from your other troublesguilty of a traffic violation for going through a red light?

Obviously not. Although you went through the physical motions of breaking the law, you had no real choice in the matter. You were a toy of circumstance, acting under harsh and overwhelming coercion. When is coercion an excuse for what would otherwise be a crime? First, the law will consider how intense was the pressure to which you were subjected. It must be

For example, a man who took part in a holdup was excused because he acted under a direct threat of being shot by his companion. But a man who delivered bootleg whiskey was not excused merely because he was afraid of losing his job.

Second, besides the intensity of the pressure, the law will consider how serious was the misconduct you were ordered to commit. Running a red light is not so horrendous a deed that the law cannot afford to overlook it.

But suppose you had been ordered not only to go through the red light but also to run down a luckless pedestrian who happened to be in the path of your car.

That would be a different story. In theory, a few states do accept coercion as an excuse even for homicide. But in fact, such an excuse is rarely accepted in court. At the very least, the law would expect you to take every reasonable chance to avoid the killing of an innocent

In one case, for instance, a man on trial for murder protested that he had been commanded to fire the fatal shot. But the court rejected this excuse, saying that instead of firing at the victim he should have turned the gun on his own threatener.

Said the judge:

"He could not elect a course absolutely safe to himself, and slay an innocent man, rather than take some risk."

• Industry returns to the streams approximately 93% of the water it takes out. The 7% consumption accounts for only 2% of the water consumed in the United States by all users of water.

• Industry uses on the average each gallon of water two and one-half times before it is discharged.

• Two out of every three gallons in industry are used for cooling purposes and normally do not require treatment before discharge.

 Industry spends $100 million per year to operate the facilities it has installed at a replacement cost approaching $1 billion to treat its final wastes before discharge.

 More than half of the plants reporting treat incoming water before use, while 69% treat water before its released.

Today, the processes of many newly built plants are designed to minimize the production of wastes. Industry, also withdraws large quantities of sea water and brackish water, thus helping to conserve fresh water supplies.

It is reassuring to know that with the growing population and the expanding industrial capacity, that industry is doing its share to use this abundant resource wisely, to help assure ample supplies for all beneficial competing demands now and in the

with a LAND BANK LOAN

When you choose a tractor or a cowhorse, you do so with great care—to be sure it fits your particular need—that it will work for you effectively. When you need to borrow money, the loan should be selected with the same careful consideration. Here are some of the important things to look for in a long-term farm or ranch real estate loans

- 1. The right to pay "on or before" without penalty.
- 2. A long-term loan with reasonable interest rate and payments geared to YOUR operation.
- 3. Convenient loan service with homefolk who understand your problems.

A Land Bank loan offers all of these advantages and more. See us for details on how you can make money work for you.

DPS Offers Jobs For 70

Austin -- Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, announced today that the DPS has job opportunities in the uniformed services for over 70 young men interested in a career in law enforcement.

"The positions include opportunities for adcanced education and an excellent physical conditioning and a chance to participate in an outstanding public service, " Garrison said.

Those who qualify will receive a salary while in training. They will undergo training at the DPS Law Enforcement Academn in Austin, studying such subjects as Texas Highway Law, accident investigation first aid, professional driving, care and use of firearms, and many others.

Upon graduation from the 16week training course, the trainee is commissioned into one of the DPS uniformed services. Assignment is based on talent and ability as well as the desire to serve in a particular branch. The services include: Highway Patrol as well as License and Weight, Driver Licensing, and Motor Vehicle Inspection.

Mike Wood has enrolled at Sul Ross College for his sophomore year. He attended Texas A & M Iniversity last year. Travis Williams, who attended the University of Texas last year, will also attend Sul Ross this term
