LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert --

There is no way to count in dollars and cents, or by any other measure we know of, the amount of good that has come to this country as a result of the rains since the first of the month.

If one is able to judge a little bit by the growth of grass and weeds in the yards around town, then it would be safe to say that the ranges which got some of the beneficial rains should be in pretty good shape. And from our slight observations during the past week - from the highway - there has been some improvement made that is noticeable.

We went to Fort Davis Saturday with some company and the road all the way shows the results of lots of rainfall, and we even saw some of the rain falling. We don't know that we have ever seen the country around Fort Davis more beautiful.

While we were there we were fortunate in being just on time for their Saturday noon program of the recording of the retreat parade, lowering of the colors, and passing in review. It was a very impressive ceremony and one we would recommend to all who would avail themselves of the opportunity of witnessing it. It is good for an American Heritage uplifting and reminder.

We also talked to some people there and they said that since the visit of Mrs. Johnson to the old fort and Big Bend National Park, that tourist business had increased almost beyond realization and there are some plans for some increase in the facilities there to take care of them. We cannot possibly see how or why this should make a difference, but it seems that it does and has.

Speaking of the growth of weeds and grass in the area, we are saying in a most constructive way - only to call attention to something that some may not know exists - the fact that tumble weeds are about to take possession of the Santa Rita Cemetery.

We mentioned once before about the abundance of the weeds over town, in areas where they had not been noticed before, but we didn't know at that time about their taking over the cemetery.

While the ground is good and wet would be a good time to get in there and do something about getting them out.

Our community has always taken pride in the appearance of their cemeteries, a fact that we have noticed and been proud of since we first came to Sanderson. It was, indeed, a blow to the entire town to have the destruction we had at the cemetery at the time of the flood, but that is no reason why we should figure that there is no chance to stay up with the work needed down there.

We know of many people who have plots there who have done a lot of work and have things looking real good in parts of the allowed grounds. We commend them for their attention, their efforts, and the results they have shown, and heartily recommend this as a remedy for any unkempt appearance that may be prevalent there.

FAIR WEATHER AHEAD! AND FUN FOR YOUNG AT FFA CHILDREN'S BARNYARD

All the animals will be there - and so will the youngsters who like to get a close-up look at all types of animals and their youngsters. Time and place will be the 1966 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 8-23 in Dallas, at the Future Farmers of America Children's Barnyard, located in the big red tent adjacent to the Livestock Coliseum.

Rains Continue To Soak County

Rains in varying amounts have continued to fall on Terrell County since last week. There have been three showers locally, leaving .62-inch of rain in the official gauge of Ervin Grigsby since September 10. There was also a trace of rain fell Friday morning, adding little to the total.

On September 10, .37-inch was recorded locally; .07 on the 14th, and .24 on the 15th.

In some areas of the county more than 12 inches of rain have been reported since September 1. This is generally in the central and north central parts of the county, although the rains have not been general over any of the ranches that have reported. The fall rains have left varying amounts of rainfall in relatively closely-spaced gauges, according to the information received, sometimes with more than an inch variance in one shower on the same ranch.

The weather continues to be cloudy most of the day, with Sunday being the clearest and warmest day of many days past.

Most of the rain that has fallen since about the first part of the month has been in light showers or steady sprinkle, affording a benefit from the water that has fallen. Sanderson Canyon has run only one time since the rains began about the first of the month, and watersheds in the north and central part of the county have also had little runoff.

Mrs. Carlos Dunn went to Lubbock Saturday to visit with her daughter, Carla, who is a freshman student at Texas Tech. She will visit in Abilene with her mother, Mrs. Ross Clark, and Mr. Clark before returning home.

Ballots Mailed For Referendum on Wool Promotion

Ballots to vote in the wool referendum went by mail to known eligible voters September 9. The referendum will not affect the wool payment program itself, which has been extended by Congress through 1969. The voting will determine whether producers want to continue financing wool and lamb market-promotion activities for the same period through deductions from the wool payments they receive.

Deductions under the new agreement would be up to 1 1/2 cents a pound for shorn wool sold and 7 1/2 cents per hundred weight on unshorn lambs, compared with one cent and five cents in the past.

Ballots may be cast--by mail or in person--at the ASCS County Office serving the county where the producer's farm or

Van Horn Romps On Eagles, 19-7 Here Friday Night

The Sanderson Eagles fell to their Van Horn cousins last Friday night here in their second game of the season. The score was 19-7.

The Sanderson Eagles received the opening kickoff and went to the Van Horn Eagles 42-yard line before they were forced to punt. There was an exchange of the ball on a fumble, a pass interception and another fumble before the quarter ended with Van Horn in possession on the Sanderson 42.

Early in the second period the Van Horn barefoot kicker punted the ball to about the 1-yard line from where Sanderson moved the ball to the visitors' 40. In the ensuing series of downs, Van Horn went to the 15 and fumbled and Sanderson had to punt out. From the Sanderson 32 Willie Ibanez caught a pass that went all the way and the try for the extra point was no good.

The half ended with Van Horn ahead 6-0.

Eagles To Play In Grandfalls For Conference Game

The Sanderson High School Eagles will play in Grandfalls Friday night of this week in their first conference bout of the season. The game will get under way at 7:00 P.M.

Grandfalls played the Fort Stockton B team last week which was their first game of the season.

Sanderson should have better luck with Grandfalls than with either of the other previous opponents, but the Eagles will still miss the services of Tommy Hayre and Ray Adams who had knee injuries from the Imperial game, the first game of the season.

Closed Season On Phone Wires

Shooting at or near telephone wires can be very bad manners, according to Bill Gilliland, local manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Asked how this could be bad manners, Gilliland said, "Well, it is bad manners to interrupt a person who is talking, and a single hunter, by shooting through a telephone line, can interrupt thousands of conversations."

Gilliland is urging all area hunters to "mind their manners" this season and avoid shooting at or near telephone lines.

Electric Co-Op To Meet Saturday

The Rio Grande Electric Cooperative, Inc. will hold its 21st annual membership meeting in Brackettville on Saturday, September 24. The meeting is scheduled at the Fort Clark Guest Ranch in Brackettville. Registration for the members will begin at 9:30 A.M. with the business portion of the meeting starting at 10:00 A.M. at the old Theater Building on Fort Clark. The business portion of the meeting will be followed immediately by the annual barbecue which is held at the swimming pool on the Guest Ranch.

The election of directors will include replacements for directors whose terms expire this year. Directors whose terms will expire include Roger Rose of Sanderson, who was nominated for re-election. Additional members named as candidates include Felix E. Harrison of Pumpville, Herbert Brown and Lee Dudley of Sanderson.

The old picture below shows the visit of some well-known person to Sanderson sometime in the late-20s as indicated by the vintage of the automobiles shown in the picture. The VIP is just behind the railroad employee in the cap with back to camera and the small boy walking west. The suited man is talking to a local citizen and all eyes of the crowd are upon him. Ellis Winkler owned the former Raysor store at the time. Anyone who knows the occasion and the visitor is asked to inform The Times for the information of our readers and curiosity. The picture is the property of Mrs. W. J. Ferguson Jr.

MAKE THE DOORBELLS RING

YOU CAN BE A POLITICIAN

A politician, according to the dictionary, is someone who is versed or experienced in the science of government. In less elegant terms, he is someone who understands and takes an interest in the affairs of his city, state and country.

And, when his interest becomes active, when he works at it, he becomes "the most important politician in the world" because he then is party to making the final decisions in our political life.

Who, today, are these politicians?

Actually, they come from all walks of life. In fact, during the past five years more than half a million people have taken political action courses and have prepared themselves for responsible party work. Today, precinct committeemen, members of their block and precinct organizations, and candidates' campaign staffs are increasingly made up of professional people, of labor leaders, and young business executives, of anyone whose primary interest is good government.

The very people who are active in political party work are the same people who support and work for school issues, or their local community drives.

They are volunteers who have no personal axe to grind. They are motivated by two things:

- They want to make their voice heard in government, and in formulating the policies and platforms of their party.
- They want to have a part in persuading good, qualified men to run for office, and then in working to elect these men.

This is the image of today's politician. And there is a place in his party for everyone who wants to take part.

Political organizations are made up of people—nothing else—just interested people.

If you have an interest in the political affairs of this country, then you are already a politician. The question is: How good a politician are you? Are you willing to sit on the sidelines and let others run the show? Or are you determined to do your part, to make your influence felt, as the most important politician in the world?

The need is there; the choice is up to you.

DR. E. A. ROBERTSON, STOCKTON DENTIST DIES

E. A. "Sundown" Robertson, 63, a long-time dentist in Fort Stockton, died in a San Angelo hospital about noon Monday. He had been in ill health for several months.

Funeral services were pending at this writing Tuesday.

Dr. Robertson is well known in Sanderson, having served the people of the county one day a week several years ago. He also will be remembered to baseball fans as a "pretty fair country pitcher", playing in "town team games" on Sunday afternoons in during the 30s.

F. M. WOOD, JR. HOME

F. M. Wood, Jr. was brought home Thursday from an Alpine hospital where he had been receiving treatment for ulcers and he is recuperating satisfactorily.

His son, Mike Wood, will not return to college this semester since his father became ill.

W. H. Dishman escaped serious injury Friday evening when his car was wrecked on the bridge just east of Sanderson over Sanderson Canyon. He was coming into town and had to swerve to keep from being hit by a car on the wrong side of the road, according to reports, and his car spun into the side of the bridge and tore up the rear end of the vehicle. Dishman had only superficial bruises.

JOHN CARRUTHERS' UNCLE DIES IN FORT STOCKTON

Survivors include his wife, two brothers, and three sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carruthers, Jr. attended the funeral service for his uncle; also Mrs. Bert Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Pinky Carruthers and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Louwien. Mr. Roberts was a brother of the late Mrs. J. W. Carruthers, Sr.

Culture Club Plans Committee For Park Work

The Sanderson Culture Club met Thursday afternoon in the dining room at the Oasis Restaurant with Mrs. L. H. Gilbreath as hostess.

After calling the meeting to order, Mrs. S. D. Harrison, president, let the members in on the Club Collect and the National Anthem was sung with Mrs. L. G. Hinkle as pianist.

Mrs. W. H. Savage called the attention of the members to the work that Dr. Atgar is doing for the March of Dimes and to an article, "Particular Work For Congenital Malformation Resemblance," written by her which was recently published. Her itinerary for speaking engagements in Texas was noted.

Plans for the organization of a steering committee for the new park were discussed. Since the Culture Club is a part of the contract with the S. P. Railroad whose property the park is located, it was decided that the president would contact the president of every service club and civic organization in the community, asking that a representative be named to a steering committee before further work and plans were started. Some work has already been done at the park and it can be made a beauty spot by and for the entire community, as originally planned.

The first of the year's programs was presented by Mrs. Hinkle who discussed "Creativity: A Successful Step Into the Unknown", using charts to illustrate her remarks.

A salad plate with tea and coffee were served for refreshments.

Also present were Mesdames E. Farley, N. M. Mitchell, A. Gatlin, E. H. Jessup, D. Brown, H. E. Ezelle, C. Goldwire, W. J. Murrah, and Leola Hill, a guest.

—(Heb. 13:5)

In searching for greater happiness in life, we may look to other persons or things for the answer. We may think happiness depends on friendships with others. But in our search have we looked in the right place—in our own heart? Happiness is within us. It is a state of mind, a feeling in our heart. When we look to God for happiness, we find it in the everyday things in life. Happiness is peace of mind, and the realization that God satisfies every longing in our heart and fills our life with good.

Next week will be the time for the showing of the new cars by dealers in Sanderson.

We have always had lots to say about such an occasion because it is a life-blood to us as well as to the car dealers here. The sale of new cars and used cars in Sanderson and Terrell County is a big business and the cause of lots of money changing hands, through several hands. Besides the car dealers and the car buyers, there are other transactions, such as loans, insurance, license plates, etc., that are a direct result of the sale, and such side effects as the advertising, pay rolls that are associated with the business, etc., etc.

The showing of the new cars is also a big thing in most every town where they have car dealers. Even those who are not in the market for the new car like to go by and drool over the nice-smelling and nice-looking new cars.

Then there are the tires that have to be kicked, and horns that have to be honked!

Watch for the new car models, you will enjoy looking at them and the dealers will enjoy showing them to you.

A Motorist's Prayer

Lord, impress upon me the great responsibility that is mine as I take the wheel of my automobile.

Give me always a deep desire to protect human life. When I would be careless, remind me of the homes where there is sorrow and loneliness, or of hospitals where broken, suffering bodies lie in anguish because someone forgot.

Write inelibly upon my conscience the fact that each time I take the wheel of my car, I am a potential murderer--that in a matter of a few careless moments I could be face to face with dire tragedy.

Give me grace to practice the virtues of patience and thoughtfulness at all times. Help me to show the same courtesy and kindness to other motorists that I expect from them. Amen.

SAM HOUSTON'S HOME — Thousands of visitors to historic Huntsville each year make a pilgrimage through this white cottage which was once the home of the famous Texas statesman. The house is part of the Sam Houston Shrine located across from Sam Houston State College. Other points of interest here include a museum containing clothing, weapons, books and rare documents owned by Houston. Nearby is his old log law office and the frame building shaped like a steamboat in which he died.

Junior High Teams Play In Rankin Last Saturday

The two teams from the Sanderson Junior High School went to Rankin Saturday of last week for their first football game of the season. Coaches Roger Goertz and Lawrence Barber and several parents accompanied the teams.

The 7th graders wound up with a 0-0 tie in their game. Coach Goertz stated that the boys moved the ball well in the first half, but the second half was a defensive game, with Rankin on Sanderson's end of the field most of the time. It was a good defensive game for the lads during the second half, according to the coaches and they were proud of the boys for not giving up a score to the host team.

The 8th grade team fared not so well and lost by a 14-0 margin. Both the Rankin scores were in the first half and on running plays. The Rankin team used a double wing which was unfamiliar to the Eagles and following some half-time instructions, they were able to contain the Red Devils' offense. The coaches said that even though the local boys were outweighed by several pounds per man, it did not stop the hustle and effort of the Eagles and they were trying right up to the last whistle.

The next game for the junior teams will be Thursday afternoon when Grandfalls comes to Sanderson for a 5:00 o'clock game.

Boys who participated in the games in Rankin were: James Billings, Jim Cash, Juan Saenz, Roger Sanchez, Paul Ybarra, Santiago Flores, Juan Garcia, Barton Harkins, Damon Harrison, Oscar Lopez, George Rubio, Blain Chriesman, Ross Dunn, Steve Litton, Travis Spann, Randall Louwien, Ronnie Stewart, Manuel Parada, Oscar Rodriguez, Rolando Rodriguez, Reymundo Arredondo, Leslie Hall, Brad Harrison, Bill Littleton, Manuel Olivas, and Gary Stuart.

Response Given To Plea For Help, More Is Needed

There was some response to the plea for help that was made through the columns of The Times for drivers of the ambulance, according to Troy Druse. "But more help is needed if we are to efficiently operate the facility for the benefit of all the people in the county without undue hardship on just a few of the people", Druse stated.

To give an example of the work load, Druse cited four nights running when the ambulance was called to Cedar Station, the other side of Dryden, with the necessity of going on to Del Rio to take the injured people. "These trips were not the only trips the ambulance made during the past couple of weeks, but added to the calls made to take care of our local people, they add up to quite a burden on those who now drive the ambulance", he said.

It was pointed out that there would be a first aid course made available to those who would be driving the ambulance, so that they could have some confidence in being able to do something for the injured when they were called to do so. It was pointed out and stressed that the ambulance drivers would be expected to do only so much in the care of the sick or injured, and that they would not be called upon to do more than could reasonably be expected of them in such an emergency.

"The main thing we are obligated to do", Druse stated, "is to get the sick or injured safely to a doctor within a prudent and reasonable length of time so that they may be treated professionally."

Anyone who feels that they can devote some time to the preparation for such emergency trips and the undertaking of the responsibility is asked to contact either Druse or Sheriff Bill Cooksey.

To Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Slover was born a daughter, Hope Ann, on September 12th in a Fort Stockton hospital. Her birth weight was seven pounds and twelve ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Massey were in San Antonio the first of the week to attend the state Republican Convention.

John Ed Robbins now has the rating Specialist 4. He is section chief over equipment on Okinawa. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robbins.

Jack Hardgrave Is Injured By Rearing Horse

Jack Hardgrave has been in a Fort Stockton hospital since last Tuesday recuperating from injuries received when the horse he was riding reared up and fell over backward on him. Mr. Hardgrave received a broken leg, just above the ankle, and severe bruises, with slight injuries. He said the horse fell just to one side of him and he used his leg to try to ward off the fall or push himself out of the way of the falling horse, causing the break in the leg.

Hardgrave was shearing sheep at the time of the accident and had some of the men carry him into the house so that he could call into town for aid. At the time, he complained of severe pains in his back and pelvis region, and feared injury to his spine or pelvis at the time, since he was unable to move his legs.

David Hardgrave, who had enrolled in Lubbock Christian College this semester, has returned to the ranch and will not be in school at the present time.

Future of 'Poverty Program' for County Said Hinging on Meeting Monday Night

There will be a meeting Monday night, September 26, in the county court room to decide the future of the Community Action Program in Terrell County. Everyone who is interested in seeing that the program is carried out is urged to be present, according to Bill Smith, vice-president of the organization locally.

Smith stated that the attendance at the meetings up to now indicates little interest on the part of many of the citizens of the county, and unless this increases there is no chance to develop a Community Action Program in the county.

L. E. Muller is president of the local group, and Mrs. Smith is the secretary.

The previous meetings have been attended by as many as 23 persons, but there has been no one, as far as is known, at any of the meetings who qualifies for assistance under the "poverty" sections of the program.

A new line of cars has been added to the Chevrolet products, according to E. J. Hanson, owner of McKnight Motor Co., and he will have one of the cars for display.

Dudley Harrison, owner of Dudley Motors, is going to have his new building ready for occupancy for the new Ford and Mercury showing, but stated that it was going to be in an unfinished building.

Proposed Museum To Collect Items Of Texas Rangers

The Texas Department of Public Safety is interested in securing authentic objects used by former Texas Rangers at any period in history to be permanently placed in a public museum being developed at Department Headquarters in Austin.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS Director and Chief of the Texas Rangers, asked anyone interested in contributing such items as guns, knives, belts, badges, spurs or any other authentic Ranger items not completely deteriorated, to write him at Box 4087, NAS, Austin, Texas 78751.

"We are attempting to preserve for posterity in this museum a top-flight collection of Ranger mementos to symbolize the glorious tradition of the oldest police force on the North American continent with statewide jurisdiction," Garrison said.

"We feel that this museum can provide an invaluable service for the State of Texas by commemorating for present and future generations the historic bravery of the Texas Rangers in preserving law and order and protecting the people of Texas from frontier days through the space age."

Garrison said the museum is to be established at a central location in the Department of Public Safety Headquarters and will be opened for public viewing upon its completion, the date of which has not yet been determined.

"We hope we will be able to obtain from public-spirited Texans a collection of Ranger paraphernalia that will become one of the most outstanding historical tourist attractions in the state," said Garrison.

Big Bend Airport Funds Promised

An airport that would serve the Big Bend National Park moved at last closer to reality earlier this week when a spokesman for the National Park Service said that a proposed bill in Congress would provide $450,000 toward its construction.

Site of the proposed airstrip would be just north of the boundary to Big Bend National Park and adjacent to Highway 385.

It would be 100 miles closer to Big Bend than any airport of comparable size, those being the Fort Stockton and Marfa-Alpine airstrips.

Daniel Beard of Santa Fe, southwest regional director of the National Park Service, said that the bill has not yet been introduced, according to reports.

The air strip would be for the use of private pilots and would be similar to the facilities near Grand Canyon National Park.

Mrs. Elmo Searcy and daughter, Glenda Rae, of Van Horn, former residents, came down for the ball game Friday night and remained until Sunday to visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Golden and children moved to Fort Stockton Monday.

Machine Will Manufacture Barbed Wire At State Fair

Visitors to the 1966 State Fair of Texas can see Sheffield "A to Z" barbed wire being made in "slow motion" at the Armeo Steel Corporation exhibit. Armeo's William O. Buffe (right) and Richard Jensen (left) explain the machine's operation to Paul Swaffar, executive secretary of the American Hereford Association.

If you've ever wondered how barbed wire is made, now's your chance to find out. This year, at the State Fair of Texas, a production-line barbed wire machine will be in operation, Oct. 8-23, at the Armeo Steel Corporation exhibit.

The machine, capable of producing more than a mile of barbed wire every hour, will be operated at one-fiftieth normal speed to let Fair visitors see production details in "slow motion."

Two main strands of specially-coated 12 1/2-gauge wire and two strands of 14-gauge wire are fed into the machine. Barbs are cut from the 14-gauge wire and wrapped around and through the two main strands at five-inch intervals. The wire then is twisted to lock barbs in place and wrapped on 80-rod (1320-ft) reels.

The eight-ton exhibit highlights development of a special aluminum-bearing zinc coating that increases service life of Sheffield "A to Z" barbed wire by up to 50 percent—a major breakthrough in barbed wire's 80-year history.

The Armeo exhibit is currently on a tour of State Fairs in six states, including the Ozark Empire Fair in Springfield, Mo.; Iowa State Fair, Des Moines; Nebraska State Fair, Lincoln; Kansas State Fair, Hutchinson; Tulsa (Oklahoma) State Fair; and State Fair of Texas, Dallas.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" By C. WILSON HARDER

The tremendous emigration to the large industrial Northern cities of some 12 millions from primarily Southern rural areas, has carried with it racial, political, and economic problems.

The war-like bombings, burnings, and lootings that have exploded in major civic areas for the past years, especially during humid summer months, may well foretell a national crisis with dimensions as divisive and disastrous as a second Civil War.

C. W. Harder

In every major Northern city, the movement of the more financially fortunate has been a race to suburbia: first the upper-middle class, now the middle class, leaving behind them a city populated in the majority by poor, slum-dwellers. Cities have, in most cases, been allowed to deteriorate into ill-lit seamy streets adjacent to the old commercial areas, lined with delapidated housing, lacking proper sanitation, and adequate police supervision for growing populations afflicted with unemployment and poverty.

In an effort to analyze current economic needs, the NFIB tallied the first six months of a continuous year-long 1966 survey to which 43,529 independent business proprietors answered. Nationally, 26 per cent replied that there exists a supply of available skilled labor in their area. Asked if they would be willing to train unskilled labor in their operations, nationally 67 per cent said yes. Among 33 per cent of businesses that reported expansion since last year, 72 per cent said they would be able and willing to train unskilled labor to meet their needs.

It is important to note, however, that around 85 per cent of these businesses are located outside the large cities, thus accounting for their labor shortages, inasmuch as the great mass of unskilled labor are city dwellers.

A long, hard look should be given to the future economic structure of the nation, with more emphasis stressed on development outside the crowded cities, which movement can be aided by proper tax incentives without spending tax money.

If the big cities continue to attract the vast hordes of unskilled workers for which there is no market, the eventual relief load on these large civic areas will become an unshippable burden.

Another economic shock might be absorbed if the government now prepares for the cessation of the present wartime boom, becoming aware of problems of a normal peacetime economy, encouraging commerce and industry to locate in the less-developed areas of the nation, for the well-being of business as well as for the betterment of the economy. The consequences of continued rising, warfare, and destruction in the major U.S. cities will bring with it greater problems than the social and economic chaos and destruction destroy not only businesses and dwellings, but the values and ideals of a nation founded upon fair play and equal opportunity.
