

LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert: ---
 It has very little if anything to do with the season, and only with the time of year because this is the time of year when it is happening, but ---
 It seems perfectly ridiculous to us to draft anyone into the army or punish anyone for not obeying the call to the draft, or any related or similar action and let Cassius Clay continue to pursue his boxing career as a free man when he is accused of evading the draft and has not been tried for that crime.
 There has been a lot in the newspapers recently about the delays in trials up to a year or two, and this is certainly the truth. Oftentimes a person accused of a crime commits a second one while he is out on bond awaiting trial for the first one. Then there are others who have a long wait in some jail because they are not able to make bond, spending months and months while awaiting trial.
 And there are many who are upset now and making a concerted effort to apprehend and stop the widespread and common practice of driving while intoxicated. The governor is pledged to stopping or slowing down the incidence of this violation and the Texas Department of Public Safety is the instrument that has been dedicated to this cause.
 We have said many times before and we will say again, and again, and again --- There is nothing like equality and speed in meeting out justice!
 We know, and everyone else must recognize, that there will not be any time soon a just society. The main reason for this is the fact that our society now and for some time to come will be made up of people and people are going to show their prejudices, in one way or another.
 All things just are not equal in this life!
 These inequalities are sometimes difficult to explain to young people when we, at the same time, are trying to explain many other things regarding their actions, behaviour, and ideals.
 Last week was a wonderful week for us! We got two notes of "thanks" for two separate things which we considered routine and normal. So the thoughtfulness of those two persons was greatly and genuinely appreciated. We also had three people - neither of whom were business people - to tell us they agreed with and appreciated our remarks in the column last week about trading at home.
 There is a lot of concern about this lack in the business and consumer communities of Sanderson. And there should be a lot of concern - and more!
 This problem is like a lot of other problems - we have to consider someone else some of the time, and that is difficult to do at times! Some people call it selfishness!
 And in our opinion, the problem will be solved by the individual action of individual consumers.

Federal Help To Local Schools For 199 Disadvantaged

Congressman Richard C. White has announced the allotment by the Office of Education, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, of $1,937,759.49 to the public schools of the 16th District under Title I of the elementary and secondary education act.

Each school district determines whether to apply for its allotted funds.

Federal grants under this title are for special programs for educationally disadvantaged children. They are based on the number of children from low-income families, families receiving assistance under the Aid to Dependent Children provisions of the Social Security Act, and children under public care in institutions or foster homes. There are 13,209 qualifying children in the 16th District, according to figures supplied Congressman White by the Office of Education.

The allotment for Terrell County is 199 children, the same that has been reported for the past three years, and the amount is $29,193.29.

'Chrismons' Topic Of Program By Presbyterians

A program was presented at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday night, December 6, by the Women of the Church.

Chrismons - decorations for a Christmas tree with a Christian symbolism - which had been made by the members were explained and displayed and then hung on a tree placed in a corner in the front of the sanctuary. The purpose of the making of the Chrismons and the program was to try to give a deeper significance to the Advent season and to the proper significance and manner of observance of Christmas.

The tree will remain in the church until Christmas.

Those humble men, abiding their flocks by night, were privileged to see the wondrous Star of Bethlehem, and to know it heralded the coming of the New Born King.

From that time, mankind has heralded His coming year after year, and marked the time as one of renewed hope and faith through His teachings.

We extend to you our sincere wish for a Christmas of hope and faith in a measure so full that it will abide with you for all time to come.

Merry Christmas

This is Christmas!

Light the candles on your tree of hope, for this is Christmas! Let your heart refresh and take joy and gladness, for this is Christmas!

Listen to the melody in all creation; it is there for those who will hear. Forget the trials of the hour. He who has learned the secret of trust will have no fear, for he can make this day of days one of gladness and praise-giving. For this is Christmas!

Merry Christmas

As you gather round the Christmas tree with family and friends to sing the glad songs, remember our wish: A hearty, happy Christmas to all!
