LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert:----
Much concern has been expressed by several responsible citizens about what, if anything, has been or is being done about the young man who was caught in the act of taking ladies' undergarments from a clothesline recently. This concern was shared in The Times families also, as was expressed in this column at the time of the disclosure of the facts we had.

Mrs. Luke had a talk with Sheriff Dalton Hogg Friday and he related a series of known and suspected events involving the young man ranging from fondling small children to the taking of the undergarments over a period of two or three years. We would agree that if these acts are only misdemeanors, that conviction of a misdemeanor and then release again to repeat the crimes and pestilences would not be the answer. And let's not lose sight of the fact that he was and is a juvenile, according to Sheriff Hogg.

What the lad has been needing for some time is professional help from some kind of a doctor that could help him get his thinking straightened out, or if this kind of treatment is not possible, then some sort of action that would render him incapable of acts against society that were contrary to human decency and the safety of women and children. This is the way we see it. You may see it differently!

Word also comes to us from Sheriff Hogg that finances have stood between the boy's receiving what he needed -- even an initial psychiatric examination -- and not receiving it. Efforts are now being made to see if such funds are available, or what help might be available, or where one might turn when in such a need, and then steps taken along what is considered the best path of treatment from those available.

Sometimes we wonder about the values we place on certain things compared to others! What value can be placed on the lives of children -- and we don't mean their physical lives, but the useful productive life of a person in a progressive society!

There are children in our schools who have different types of problems that are detrimental to their ability to progress in school as rapidly as they should, according to what we have been told, and there are probably some other students with other problems that would prevent them from reaching a greater potential than they now have.

Surely, no one would presume that if a child got a complete education in all of the mathematics, that this would be all he needed; or that if a person had the ability to play chess exceptionally well, but could not retain the things he read, that if he were developed as a chess player that this is the best way to go. No more! Not now!

MAST Program For Area Considered

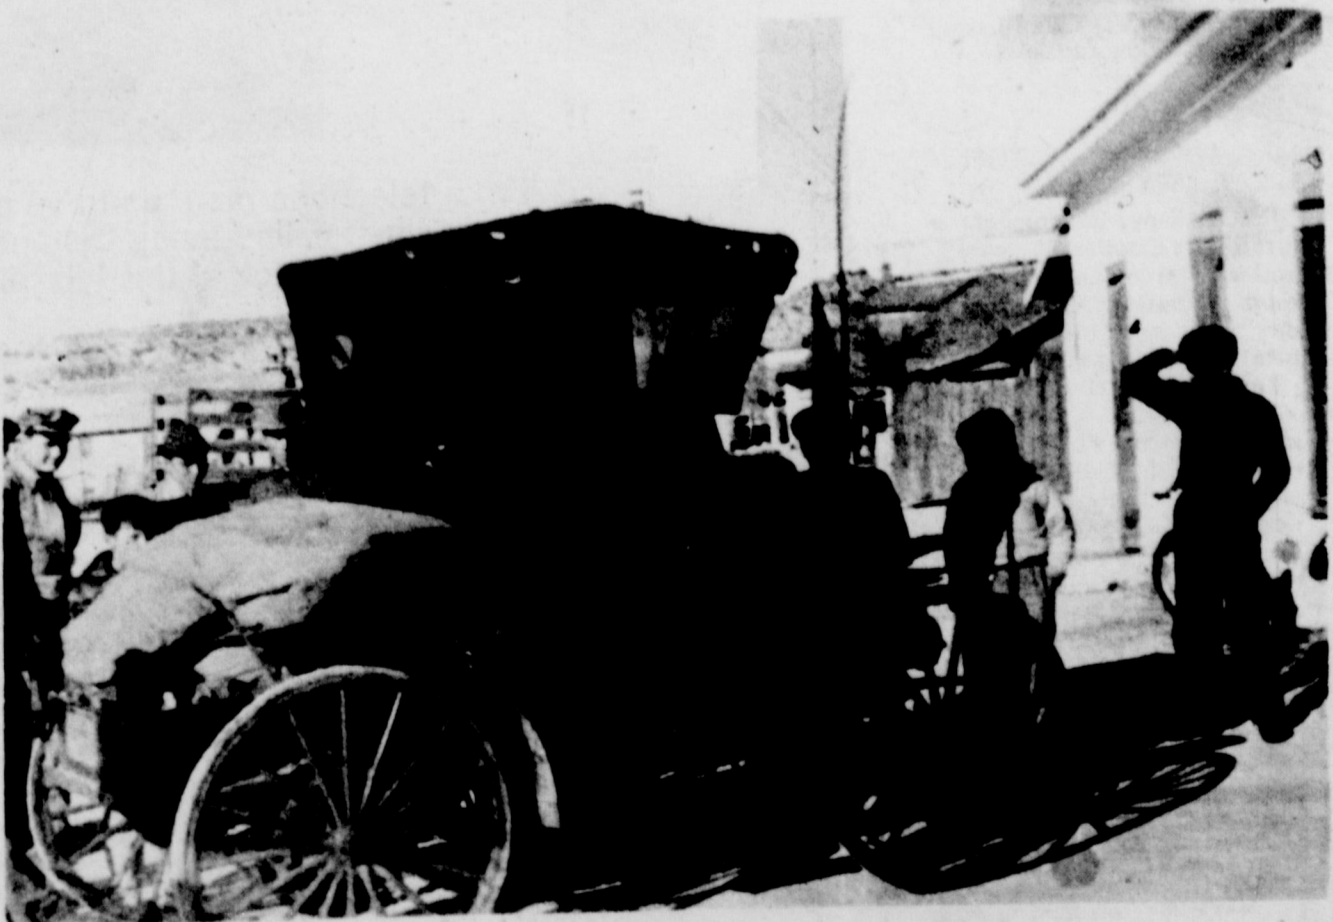

Approximately 75 interested persons from this area met in Del Rio Wednesday afternoon in an initial attempt to establish a Military Assistance to Safety and Traffic (MAST) program in the area. Attending from Sanderson were County Judge R.S. Wilkinson, Carlton White, and W.W. Sudduth.

The meeting, set up under the auspices of the Texas State Department of Health and the Middle Rio Grande Development Council, was attended by law enforcement officers, local government leaders, hospital personnel, military personnel and State Health Department officials from Austin, Kerrville, Junction, Sabinal, Ozona, Langtry, Uvalde, Killeen, Brackettville, Eagle Pass and Del Rio.

The meeting was held to form the initial phase of setting up a MAST program to be based at Laughlin Air Force Base and which would serve an area within a 100-mile radius of Del Rio, which includes all or part of 20 counties.

An old car going through Sanderson some time was snapped by Ellis McDougal and the picture from his collection was loaned to us by his niece, Mrs. Carl Davis. The vintage or make of the car is unknown to us, but quite a bit of interest is indicated by those around the old vehicle. There may be considerable trouble in breaking spokes, wearing out rims, or many other difficulties involving the wheels, but there were no flats, blow-outs, or throwing rubber worries.

Steve Allen, who is working in San Antonio was a weekend visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen, and Gary. Miss Nelda Kay Sudduth, who also is employed in San Antonio, came with him and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O.T. Sudduth.

Mr. and Mrs. J.N. Tucker left Sunday for their home in Pampa after visiting with their son, Jerry Tucker, and family.

trained in determining the facets in a person that causes his lack of progression, and people trained to iron out these wrinkles to help in a complete development of a child.

Time was when such students were called "dull" and were considered "hopeless" in certain areas of academic development.

No more! Not now! But only when we as a society and group determine that we are interested enough to do something about helping these people as much as we can.

What we are trying to get around to saying in a way that is not concealed, misleading, or misunderstood, is that we should exert every effort to do everything we can to help every student become as useful member of society as is possible with the means and finances that we have. And we don't know how much we have to work with until we have exhausted every effort to help.

That's the way we look at it

Eagles Swamp Balmorhea 27-0; AA McCamey To Invade Sanderson

The Sanderson Eagles swamped their hosts, the Grandfalls Cowboys, Friday night of last week by a 27-0 score in a non-conference fray against that Class B school. It was the second win for the Eagles this season.

Sanderson will have a tough assignment Friday night when the host the Class AA McCamey Badgers in another pre-district meeting.

The Eagles were able to score in each of the four quarters Friday night in Grandfalls. The first-quarter score was by Kendrick Harrell who carried the ball 45 yards for the score. Bill Mott kicked the extra point.

The score in the second period was on a pass from Chago Flores to Mott, good for 40 yards and 6 points, with Kendall Billings adding 2 more points on a plunge through the line in the point-after-touch-down.

The Eagles got the ball down to scoring range early in the third period and Harrell was named for the try from the 1-yard line. The point-after try failed.

In the final frame, Floyd Watson thrilled Sanderson fans by running a Cowboy punt back 80 yards for the last tally of the game. The PAT-try again failed.

Coach Willie Myers turned in the following statistics for the game, which also reflect the one-sided score:

Sanderson	Grandfalls
1st downs	14
yards rushing	184
yards passing	125
passes tried	24
passes complete	10
intercepted	2
fumbles	1
penalties	9 for 65 yds.

Coach Myers gave Kendrick Harrell the outstanding offensive nod for the evening. He carried 12 times for 87 yards. The defensive effort went to Jimmy Davis, Ike Billings, Nelson Cooke, and Robert Kline, Myers stated.

Mrs. R.L. Casillas was taken by ambulance to a Del Rio hospital Monday afternoon.

The mail balloting to choose two committeemen will close December 1, 1972. Petitions must be limited to one nominee and must include a written certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected. The petitions must be signed by at least three eligible voter, but voters can sign as many petitions as they wish. The petitions may be mailed to Box 397, Alpine, Tx., 79830, or left at the SCS office in Sanderson. To be eligible a nominee must be eligible to vote in the county ASC election, must reside in the county, and shall not have passed his 70th birthday. The candidate may not have served three consecutive terms as ASC committeeman. To be eligible to vote a person must be of legal voting age, and have an interest in a farm or ranch as owner, tenant, or sharecropper. Minors who supervise whole ranching operations are eligible to vote. Most persons eligible to participate in ASCS programs are eligible to vote. ASCS programs are non-discriminatory and administered without regard to race, color, creed, sex or national origin. Because Texas recognizes community property rights, spouses of eligible voters may also vote and hold the office of committeeman. Clarence Jessup is the committeeman with the expiring term. He is finishing his third consecutive term; therefore, he is ineligible to have his name on the ballot. His successor will be elected for a three year term. Mr. Jessup has been committee chairman for the past seven years. Gilbert Bell presently serves as regular member of the committee, having filled the vacancy which occurred when Lee Dudley resigned to run for public office. Mr. Bell was an elected alternate. Alternates serve only until the next regular election. The elected candidate will fill the unexpired portion of Mr. Dudley's term, one year. Herbert Brown is the other member, with two years left in his term of office. The incumbent committee hopes there will be at least six petitions to nominate. Whatever number is lacking, if any, will be chosen for the slate of nominees at the regular meeting of the committee to be held on November 1, 1972. Mrs. L.G. Hinkle, her son, Glen Bob, and her mother, Mrs. Clyde Higgins, were in San Antonio last week for Glen Bob to fill an appointment with an orthodontist and also to have a medical check-up.

At 60 mph a '73 Ford LTD rode quieter than an airborne glider.

On July 27, 1972, General Radio Co. tested a '73 LTD against an airborne glider. Both at 60 mph and with identical sound level meters. The result: the Ford was quieter. But the new LTD is more than just quiet. It is well made from its power front disc brakes, power steering and automatic transmission, standard equipment, to its luxurious, comfortable, roomy interior. There are 16 new Ford models to choose from and each will convince you that quiet is the sound of a well-made car.

Ford, the company that built the first basic, solid, reliable car seventy years ago—has built today's basic, solid reliable car: Pinto. It's become America's top selling economy car for more reasons than economy. Here are some of those reasons: A 1600 cc. engine developed and perfected in over 10 years of actual driving. Rack-and-pinion steering. Solid welded body, electrocoated to fight corrosion. 4-speed transmission—lubed for life. Everything we've learned in seventy years of car making—all the basics—we build into every Pinto Wagon, Runabout and Sedan. When you get back to basics, you get back to Pinto.

AMTRAK Reports Recovery After Passenger Loss

According to information seen and read recently, passenger service on AMTRAK, the National Railroad Passenger Corp., has risen in recent months. There was a net loss of $84,547,000 for the first six months of 1972, according to information received. The reported loss for the fiscal year ended last June 30 was $153,370,000, the information source stated.

The loss figures were contained in a summary report to Amtrak stockholders. Because the corporation did not go into operation until May 1, 1971, there were no comparisons available for previous years.

Amtrak said its losses "confirm to projections made last year."

It said revenues were up, but that they were offset by higher operating costs and a one-time charge of $2,626,000 in the second half of the fiscal year to reflect an agreement with Penn Central.

It said the number of passengers increased from 2.4 million in May and June of 1971, to 2.7 million during the same period in 1972, an increase of nearly 14 per cent.

It said on-time performance for its intercity trains averaged more than 72 per cent in August, up 4.5 per cent from July.

SP Is Microwave Common Carrier

Southern Pacific Communications Company has been granted construction permits by the Federal Communications Commission for the first segment of its proposed 11-state common carrier microwave network.

The permits enable SPCC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Southern Pacific Company, to construct microwave stations to provide a full range of specialized voice and data communication services to private line customers in business, industry, government, or education, according to J. N. Albertson, SPCC vice-president and general manager.

The planned 11-state system will stretch along the Pacific Coast from Seattle to San Diego, and from Los Angeles to East St. Louis, Ill., with service to intermediate points such as Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, Del Rio, San Antonio, Houston, Dallas-Fort Worth, and Pine Bluff.

Applications for stations between Los Angeles and East St. Louis are presently pending before the FCC, Albertson said, and applications for remaining segments will be filed shortly.

Construction of the first segment should be complete in about nine months, he added.

"The Federal Communications Commission last year decided, in a major policy change, that specialized common carriers could help meet the growing public need for communications service," declared John Geier, SPCC marketing manager. "It was anticipated that such carriers could offer greater flexibility, provide supplemental capital for the rapidly expanding communications market, offer highly specialized services, and stimulate innovation through competition."

Geier said SPCC hopes to help fulfill those expectations and join with other common carriers, both existing and specialized, in creating a new national communications network.

Southern Pacific Transportation Company, another subsidiary of Southern Pacific Company, currently owns and operates the nation's largest private microwave radio relay system with about 500,000 channel miles from Portland, Ore., south through California and east through Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Missouri to East St. Louis, Ill.

"Southern Pacific Communications' proposed network will overlay, to a great degree, the existing Transportation Company system," said Albertson. "Start-up costs can thus be minimized and service made available in a relatively short time. And we have the considerable advantage of more than 20 years' experience by Southern Pacific in microwave engineering, construction, and operation."

Firestone 500 Steel Belt

It's really tough... tough because it has two armor belts of steel under the tread. These steel belts give excellent protection against impacts, cuts and bruises. Steel belts resist tread "scrubbing" on pavement to give long tire wear.

Steel cords in the two belts are set so close together it takes 805 feet to make just one tire. This steel is so strong a single cord will pull a car!

Steel—along with modern polyester body cords and a deep, rugged, wide tread—make this the tire to put between you and tire trouble.

Fred Fellows, left, of Big Fork, Montana, and Joe Beeler, right, of Sedona, Arizona, will combine their artistic and roping talents at the OS Ranch Steer Roping and Art Exhibit September 30th, and October 1st. While their paintings and sculpture are on display in the OS Ranch Headquarters along with 28 other Cowboy and Western Artists, Fellows and Beeler will be competing in the team roping in the OS Arena some 300 yards away. Both men are as handy with a rope as they are with a brush.

The top five 1972 national money winners in steer roping will be in the 32-roper invited field who will match skills for a $15,000 jackpot near here Sunday afternoon, Oct. 1, in the second annual O.S. Ranch Steer Roping.

They are Allen Keller of Olathe, Colo., current leader with $7,412 in earnings in Rodeo Cowboy Association sanctioned events, John Miller of Pawhuska, Okla., Roy Thompson of Tulia, Walter Arnold of Silverton and Olin Young of Peralta, N.M.

Five others in the "top 20" steer ropers also are in the field.

Biggest money winner competing, however, will be Ronnye Sewalt of Chico, ranked fifth nationally in calf roping with $18,355.

The steer roping will climax a weekend of competitive roping with calf roping and team roping planned Saturday, Sept. 30, for area ropers.

Added this fall to the roping-all for the benefit of West Texas Boys Ranch at San Angelo -- is the O.S. Ranch Art Exhibit in which paintings and sculptures of 30 of the top cowboy and western artists will be offered for exhibit and sale in the historic O.S. ranch house, which has been restored for the occasion.

Many of the exhibiting artists plan to attend the weekend events and at least two of them, Fred Fellows of Big Fork, Mont., and Joe Beller of Sedona, Ariz., will compete in the team roping Saturday.

A beef barbecue will be served both days at the ranch for art and roping fans, several thousand of whom are expected.

FUN FESTIVAL TO BE HERE TUESDAY OF NEXT WEEK

James Word and Wayland Taliaferro returned home on Monday after spending several days at Lake Amistad.

STUDENT PLAN BON FIRE FOR OCTOBER 5

Old lumber and "burnable" items will be collected by the Sanderson High School student council on Thursday, October 5, for the bon fire which will be held at the Eagle Field that night.

Local residents are asked to have available items ready for the students to pick up beginning immediately after school on that date so that the combustibles may be gathered in time for the conflagration and pep rally that night.

CORRECTION

In last week's Times we stated that Miss Margarita Pena of Odessa visited here, etc. It should have been Miss Lupe Pena who visited here and it is she who has her LVN license and is working at the pharmacy in the Odessa Medical Center. Margarita is still a checker at the Double T Grocery.

MISS JACKIE BOB RIGGS
IN SUL ROSS RODEO FOR TT
 Miss Jackie Bob Riggs represented Texas Tech at the Sul Ross Intercollegiate Rodeo last weekend. She split 2nd and 3rd in barrel racing in the first go-round and split 3rd and 4th in the average. There were 47 girls competing in the barrel races.
 Miss Riggs is a freshman at Texas Tech in Lubbock and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Riggs.

Mrs. R.S. Wilkinson spent the weekend at home, but returned to Cuero Monday to be with her mother, Mrs. J.M. Bass, who is seriously ill. She has spent several weeks with her mother.

MAST Program

Wallace D. Lawson, state MAST coordinator, and Jimmy Dunn, of the Division of Civil Defense and Traffic Safety, informed those at the meeting there is no promise that the Del Rio MAST program will be approved in Washington, and that this initial meeting was an attempt to have one established here.

At that point in the meeting Col. Roland Siefkin, chief of operations at Laughlin, presented his discussion on the amount of support which Laughlin would be able to give a local MAST program.

"We will give this community and area our utmost support in establishing this program, both now and after it is established, if it is approved. However, I would be derelict in my duty if I did not inform you of the limitations we face at Laughlin," stated Siefkin.

"First and foremost is the fact that at Laughlin our mission as a base is the training of pilots. We are assigned two helicopters for emergency search and rescue during our operations.

According to regulations, we must have one helicopter either in the air or on alert during the hours which we are flying. Currently we fly from about 7 a.m. until sometimes 1 a.m. or 2 a.m. so this ties up at least one helicopter nearly everyday," stated Siefkin.

"Also, we have no personnel to keep a helicopter on alert to fly MAST missions 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The Air Force does not provide us with an excess of men and materials, only the number needed to conduct our mission. Therefore, we are limited in what we can do. It will more or less be up to the flight operations officer to decide at the time if we can handle a MAST flight or not."

Dunn then explained how a MAST program is set up in a community. First, the request must come from the local community, by that from officials in the 100-mile radius. Second the community must certify that the program would not interfere with ground or air ambulance in the community. MAST does not want to be in competition with an established business.

Third, the local community must install a heliport at the hospitals to be used and the community must buy and install communications equipment at the hospitals and in the aircraft, he said.

Also during the meeting Capt. Jerry Kinsey, a pilot with the 507th Air Ambulance Service at Ft. Hood, gave a talk and slide presentation on what the MAST program is and how it has worked in San Antonio.

Also in attendance at the meeting were Capt. Mark M. Warner, flight operations officer, Laughlin Air Force Base and Maj. Carlos De Los Santos, commander of the 507th Air Ambulance Service at Ft. Hood.

After the presentations by the military and Health Department personnel, the group voted to continue in an attempt to have a MAST program developed at Laughlin and voted unanimously to elect Mayor Alfredo Gutierrez of Del Rio the chairman of the local MAST Coordinating Committee.

In summation of the meeting, Steve Wenger, regional health service planner for the MRGDE, stated the problems faced by this area in attempting to have a MAST program operational here.

"First is the fact that this area was not approved for a MAST area in the first place; second, Laughlin is limited in what cooperation they could provide. However, we do have several things in our favor, one being that nearly all officials, law enforcement and government, are interested in the program; second, we are organized, which puts us ahead of anybody else in the state. No other community has organized to this point so we are ahead. And third is the fact that even though Laughlin can not maintain a 24-hour vigil they would be able to be airborne in a relatively short time if the need arose.

Mr. and Mrs. W.D. O'Bryant went to Fort Stockton Monday afternoon for medical attention.

College students here last weekend to visit parents and friends included James Druse from Texas Tech; Bob Murrah, Blain Chriestman, Misses Barbara Brown and Marsha Monroe, Pat Mott Jr. and Steve Litton from Angelo State University.

Jr. High Eagles Bomb Imperial 24-0, To Host Marfa

Sanderson Junior High Eagles beat Imperial there last week by 24-0. Sanderson chalked up 326 yards in total offense, while holding Imperial to 80.

In the second period, Sanderson scored two touchdowns, one for 80 yards being called back due to an infraction of the rules, and the other two scores were both in the third frame. Bernie Castro, Frankie Flores, and Johnny Zepeda each scored 8 points, according to Coach Larry DeVasto.

Castro was named as the outstanding defense player by the coach, who also mentioned Oscar Arredondo and Zepeda, each of whom recovered a fumble, and Ruben Calzada, who intercepted a pass.

Sanderson will host Marfa this afternoon at 4:30 in their first home game of the season.

Business visitors in Fort Stockton Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilbreath and Mrs. T.W. McKenzie. They also visited with L.H. Gilbreath in the nursing home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davis of Comanche are visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Ernest Couch, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Babb were week-end visitors in Marathon with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Yarbrow.

Mrs. Mark Duncan and Mrs. H.E. Ezelle attended the meeting of the Pecos County Council of home demonstration clubs in Fort Stockton Tuesday. Mr. Duncan took them to Fort Stockton.
