LISTEN TO LUKE

By Albert ---
This is webworm season again all over this part of the country and local people are anxiously looking at their trees and wondering what to do, if anything, to fight the bugs. The problem is a good one and a real one.

We have also been hearing some stories about rattlesnakes and copperheads being found around town. We have seen neither variety this year, the same as we have seen no webworms. But we have reasonable assurance that they -- all three pests -- are here. Watch out!

There are some observations that we have not seen, read, or heard others making about the Watergate situation that cause some concern in our thoughts. We wonder if the observations of ours are real or imaginary.

In future elections, should the voters not know more about who is on "the team" and not concentrate on the captain? In our persuasions, we at first thought about the leader as the quarterback, but we see that this is not the right title, since the quarterback calls the plays, and up to now there is a complete denial that Nixon was calling all the plays. If we knew more about "the team" and the captain, a person might be more able to pick the right one.

There are many disadvantages to electing only a known "captain". He conceivably could be only a "front man" with all of the polish and aplomb necessary to win an election, but not be really seriously involved in the decision-making, all of which could be done by unscrupulous characters who probably would act in an unscrupulous manner.

"The team" might even consist of having some other lesser or minor "front men" who would be in position to take the plaudits of the public for "the team's" accomplishments through their decisions, and also out front to take the blows of the public on "the team's" bad decisions.

There are men who love power for power's sake, omitting all the good and bad results of decision-making. These men are found in all levels of politics and they would not take for their ability to be in on the decisions. They, too, have an ego to be satisfied.

Then the second observation is: How many decisions that have affected our lives in one way or another are decisions that the president was even involved in and were the decisions - if they were the president's - based on the actual facts as they existed or were they distorted according to the wishes of his advisors?

Maybe these are considerations that should be given more thought, and maybe not! It just seems to depend on how you look at it!

L.T. Lee is recuperating at home from a recent illness when he was in the Alpine hospital.

W. E. Stavley, Former Resident, Interred in Del Rio

William Ernest (Bill) Stavley, 60, of Del Rio, a former Sanderson resident, died in a San Antonio hospital at noon last Wednesday following a long illness. He was a victim of cancer.

Funeral services were in the First Baptist Church in Del Rio Friday afternoon. Following Masonic graveside rites, interment was in the Masonic Cemetery in that city.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Maybelle Stavley; a son, Jon Stavley of Del Rio; his mother, Mrs. Lena Stavley of Sanderson; three brothers, Ross and Howard Stavley of Sanderson and Frank Stavley of Katy; two sisters, Mrs. Roy Mason of Crane and Mrs. Joe Chandler of Dryden.

Pallbearers were L.S. Barksdale, Lloyd Madden and J.R. Carver of Del Rio, T.J. Stewart and Jack Laughlin of Sanderson and Ben Causey of El Paso. A.J. Hahn was in charge of the Masonic graveside rites.

He was born on a farm near Lavernia on August 14, 1912. He graduated from the Sanderson High School in 1933 and was married to Miss Maybelle Schupbach in the First Baptist Church here on October 4, 1936.

He was employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad in 1937 and had served as local chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers for 20 years. He was a delegate to the Texas State Legislative Board for approximately 20 years. He was a charter member of the Sanderson Lions Club.

He was also a member of the Sanderson Masonic Lodge, Alzafar Shrine in San Antonio, Malaki Shrine in Del Rio, Chapter and Council of Royal Arch Masons at Del Rio, Commandry #7 Knights Templar in San Antonio; Del Rio Elks Lodge.

Among those attending the funeral services were R.S. Wilkinson, Weldon Cox, Graham Childress, Dalton Hogg, W.G. Shoemaker, Willis Harrell, O.T. Schupbach, Ruel Adams, Joe Neal Brown, Howard Stavley, and Charles Stavley; Messrs. and Mmes. John Burchett, Ervin Grigsby, W.O. O'Rourke, H.E. Ezelle, T.J. Stewart, Harry Brown of El Paso, S.C. Harrell, A.J. Hahn, continued to second page

SHS Principal Hired Last Week

James I. Payne has been given a contract as principal of Sanderson High School, according to Supt. C. B. Card.

Mr. Payne is married and the couple has three children, one 20, one 18, and Larry, age 9, who is still at home. He served as head football coach at Ector High School in Odessa from 1959 to 1968 at which time he resigned to become athletic director and head football coach for the Corsicana Independent School District, which position he held until he came to Sanderson. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree from Southern Methodist University, and a Masters Degree in Educational Administration from East Texas State University in 1972.

Mr. Payne stated that his 20 years as a teacher, coach, and athletic director has provided him with ample experiences that require leadership and the motivation of people. "My record of having won 70% of all the football games played over that 20-year period attests to how successful I have been in the area of motivation and leadership," he stated.

The teacherage formerly occupied by the Wayne Mitchell family was repainted by students working in the summer youth program.

New Library is Officially Opened Sunday Afternoon: Donors Revealed

The formal opening of the Terrell County Library was Sunday afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock. A large crowd visited the facility during the hours of the opening and were served refreshments of punch and cookies by the "Friends of the Library".

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Harkins, Terrell County ranchers, and their children Mr. and Mrs. Monty Harkins, who also ranch north of Sanderson, and Mrs. Henry Dickson of Dallas and her three children, Cotton, Lincoln, and Destiny, were revealed as the donors of the completed building. County Judge R.S. Wilkinson accepted the gift of the building to the county on behalf of the Commissioner's Court and the residents.

Members of the "Friends of the Library", the Harkins family, and close friends met at the library a few minutes before 2:00 o'clock for a brief dedicatory prayer service led by Rev. David Marx, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

The white brick building is built on the northeast corner of the courthouse block, facing south. It has central air conditioning-heating, carpeting throughout, and new library shelving, reading and research tables and chairs for both adult and young readers, work area for the librarian and assistants, kitchen, rest room, and store room. The contribution also included vacuum cleaner, filing cabinets, desk, chair, etc., for the convenience and needs of those who are in charge of the facility.

Mr. and Mrs. Harkins made a tape recording that was played in which they stated their reasons for the contribution of the building to the people of Terrell County and their hope that the facility would be widely used to increase knowledge and be a source of pleasure and benefit for its users.

A plaque on the front of the building denotes the facility is: "By the grace of God this library is given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Monty Corder, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Arvin, Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell, Harry Hale Harkins and in appreciation of Jack Hayre".

Mr. and Mrs. Monty Harkins and Mrs. Dickson gave a wall clock to the library which has an engraved plate with the following:

"In appreciation for your love, guidance, and friendship. The Kids. July 1973."

Mr. and Mrs. C.J. McAugahan of Houston, who have business and personal interests in Sanderson and Terrell County, gave the library a set of books on Indian tribes of America and silver medallions of the tribal crest of many tribes. The medallions and books are on display in a glass case.

There was also an anonymous gift of a painting by Mrs. J.A. Gilbreath to hang in the library.

The library was organized and was made operational in early 1967 by a group of interested citizens, and was initially housed on the county courthouse second floor.

After the Library Services and Construction Act was passed and federal funds to libraries were made available, the Terrell County facility became a reality. A part of the Texas library system, the facility has access to services of a major resource center, the El Paso Public Library.

Truck Burns After Hitting US90 Bridge

A truck struck a bridge, went into the creek below, and burned Saturday afternoon late east of Longfellow. The two men in the truck were taken to an Alpine hospital by the Terrell County Ambulance, but were not thought to be seriously injured.

Local volunteer firemen took the fire truck to the accident scene and pumped the 200 gallons of water onto the truck without effect, but the larger truck empty of water, with a dead battery, and no gasoline, could not be readied in time to do any good. Firemen got aid from the Texas Highway Department for a water supply to control the blaze.

JUST A FEW subscribers have not sent us the money for renewing your subscription to The Sanderson Times. If you have not sent us a check within the past few weeks, please do so or let us know if you do not want the paper. We don't want anyone to miss any of the papers if you want them, but we need to know! If you live out of the county, the price is $3.00; county residents owe $2.50. Subscriptions were due June 1.

Rev. and Mrs. M.A. Walker of Carlsbad, N.M., visited here with friends for several days.

Rain Over Most of Area

Scattered rains have been falling over most sections of the county recently, leaving up to two inches of moisture in some gauges. The area just to the south of Sanderson is probably the lightest section in rainfall benefits, with some dry gauges yet during the most recent cloud visit.

Heaviest sections of rainfall seem to have been in the northern portion of the county, according to the information available and may be termed "general" across the north-central and north part of the county.

There have been no threats of severe weather of any kind in the county during the past two weeks, according to all our information.

YOUTHS STILL MUST REGISTER FOR DRAFT

The state director of Selective Service for Texas reminded young men that they still must register with Selective Service even though there is no draft.

The law requires all male persons, except certain non-immigrant aliens, to register within 30 days before or after their 18th birthday. They must also notify their local draft board when they change address, and they must carry their draft cards with them until their liability for service expires.

Mrs. Margaret K. Farley is the local registrar.

Mrs. Graham Childress visited in Ozona Monday and Mr. Childress made a business trip to Glen Cove Tuesday. They attended the meeting of Amistad Shrine Association of Del Rio in that city Wednesday evening.

Masonic Officers
Of Area Installed

New officers of 12 area Masonic lodges were installed on Saturday night during services at Paisano Baptist Encampment between Alpine and Marfa.

Attending the event were all elected and most appointed officers of the Grand Lodge of Texas AFGAM.

Supper was served to the members and families of the Masons attending the installation service.

Attending from Sanderson were Messrs. and Mmes. Graham Childress and children, J. W. Sanders, Ruel Adams, Mark Duncan, Mrs. C. P. Peavy, Rev. and Mrs. Richard White, Joe Pagitt, R.S. Wilkinson, Dalton Hogg, Ben Lockhart, and Ray Robison.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible

If you believe that Jesus is the Christ—that he is God's Son and your Savior—then you are a child of God. And all who love the Father love his children too. So you can find out how much you love God's children—your brothers and sisters in the Lord—by how much you love and obey God. Loving God means doing what he tells us to do, and really, that isn't hard at all; for every child of God can obey him, defeating sin by trusting Christ to help him. But who could possibly fight and win this battle except by believing that Jesus is truly the Son of God?

1 John 5:1-5
Religious Heritage of America

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Gray of Bay City were weekend visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O.D. Gray, and his brother, Tommy Gray, and wife.

Mrs. Thomas Robles of San Antonio visited here last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.M. Galvan, and family and with her sister, Mrs. Arturo Mendoza, and husband. She went to Houston Monday for her state board examination after graduating from the nursing school of Our Lady of the Lake College, San Antonio.

CARD OF THANKS

Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent sorrow. For the beautiful service, floral offerings, and other kindnesses we are deeply grateful.

The Family of Rita Cobos

CARD OF THANKS

Quoting Thomas Edison when he said: "Everything comes to him who hustles while he waits", we waited, we hustled, and have reaped the bountiful reward. There are so many people to thank for so much. First and foremost: The Sid Harkins family for the beautifully furnished library building and their loving support. The Harkins "Kids", Mr. and Mrs. Monty Harkins and Mrs. Henry Dickson, donated a lovely 8-day clock in appreciation of their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McAughan of Houston delivered and presented a beautifully-bound set of books on Indian tribes along with the silver medallions depicting each tribe. There was also an anonymous gift of a painting. The following clubs and individuals donated floral arrangements and pot plants to brighten our opening ceremony: The Lions Club, C.G. Morrison Co., The YPCC, Mr. and Mrs. John Burchett, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson, and a special thanks to the Rigginses for the corsages. I would personally like to thank the following committee: table, invitations, and serving for their efforts. Then lastly a heartfull of gratitude for the best group of movers in the state of Texas. Their labors in getting the books on the shelves in the new building, were above and beyond expectations. Much love to everyone.
Ruth Robbins, pres. Friends

CARD OF THANKS

I am most grateful for cards, letters, and flowers which were sent by thoughtful friends and for contributions made to the orphans' home in memory of my mother. Your kindness will never be forgotten.
Mrs. Gene McSparran.

RESPONSIBILITY IN GOVERNMENT

It has been said that the difference between a politician and a statesman is one hundred years. This becomes more evident as we begin to hear the rhetoric of a national election year. It takes real statesmanship to speak out for or against issues which might adversely affect a candidate's reception at the polls.

Two of our great Presidents, whose birthdays we celebrate this month, had the courage to speak their true convictions.

George Washington aptly expressed his feelings when he said, "Truth will ultimately prevail where there is pain to bring it to light."

And Abraham Lincoln showed confidence in the fair judgment of the electorate when he said, "I have faith in the people...the danger is in their being misled. Let them know the truth and the country is safe."

Pecan Tree Owners
Are Advised About
Webworm Control

Webworms have returned for an annual picnic in homeowners' pecan trees, confronting owners with the threat of its unsightly silk webbing and foliage destruction.

"If pecan tree owners want to have a productive yield, now is the time to act," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White advises.

The web could stay indefinitely if not burned off or the branch cut off. While the webworm is not feeding on the leaves of the tree, the webbing it spins acts as its home.

"It can completely defoliate a tree if not kept under control," White said.

Some successful insecticides can be used to combat this pest. They are lindane, toxaphene, chlordane, and sevin.

Directions for use of these insecticides are printed on the product label.

"It is vital that home owners use the insecticides in the quantity specified because misuse could be dangerous to other wildlife," White warned.

"The Federal Environmental Pesticides Act of 1972 set out firm rules on how they are to be applied in pest control. It's a matter of federal law this year," he added.

During its life cycle, the webworm goes through four definite stages of development with each cycle lasting approximately 45 days.

The adult fall webworm deposits its egg on the underside of the leaf in clusters of 500-900 which hatch in seven days.

The larval stage is the destructive stage of the webworm's existence. The larva feeds for three to four weeks on the leaves, which supply nutrients to the pecan.

Other deciduous trees also fall under the webworms' attack, such as the cottonwood, mulberry, sweet gum and the Arizona ash.

Deer Lease Fraud
Violator Loose

Parks and Wildlife Department enforcement personnel have learned that Larry W. Tamplin escaped from the Sugarland Unit of the Texas Department of Corrections July 2 while serving a three-year sentence on a mail fraud conviction. He had been found guilty this year for using the mails to sell leases to some 110 unsuspecting hunters for an estimated $10,000.00.

Operating out of Livingston, Tamplin advertised bogus mule deer leases in Texas newspapers from July 1971 to December 1971. The leases were in the Sanderson and Alpine areas of far West Texas. Tamplin failed to produce any lease for the hunters.

Although it is doubtful that Tamplin would try to revive his lucrative lease operation, lease hunters are advised to be a little more cautious in finding a place to hunt this fall.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission Officer Burt Williams, stationed in Sanderson, stated that he had spent some time in efforts to apprehend the person guilty of fraud after hearing some complaints from disgruntled hunters who had come to this area in anticipation of hunting.

MRS. NICHOLS' SISTER DIES

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Guadarrama made a business trip to San Antonio Tuesday.

Mrs. J.D. Nichols received word Monday night of the death of her sister, Mrs. John Beals, 93, in Kensington, Md. She had visited here several times. Mrs. Beals had been in a nursing home for the past six months. She will be buried in Knoxville, Tenn., beside her late husband. Mrs. Nichols was unable to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Roy Mason of Crane is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Lena Stavley, for a few days.

Pony Express To Race Postoffice

The pony express rides again to prove that the old delivery system was not only faster -- but a lot more fun!

Several weeks ago, Fort Stockton Chamber of Commerce President L.V. Arnett became upset with the U.S. Postal Service over slow mail delivery.

On August 4 the mail will be carried via pony express from Alpine to Fort Stockton. This 66-mile run should be completed in considerably less time than it takes regular mail, the chamber officials say.

When the rider arrives, major celebrations will be held in the newly-completed Fort Stockton Indoor Arena.

Activities will include a fast draw contest, fiddler contest ($600 prize money), silver dollar toss, tobacco spittin' contest, mule races, barbecue, conclusion of a two-month beard growing contest and much more celebrating the expected victory.

Activities will begin at 11 a. m.

A three-day junior rodeo will be concluded that evening beginning at 8 p.m. with a dance to follow at 10 p.m.

A special "pony express stamp" has been issued for the occasion.

Thoughts

From The Living Bible
Stay always within the boundaries where God's love can reach and bless you. Wait patiently for the eternal life that our Lord Jesus Christ in his mercy is going to give you. Try to help those who argue against you. Be merciful to those who doubt. Save some by snatching them from the very flames of hell itself. And as for others, help them to find the Lord by being kind to them, but be careful that you yourselves are not pulled along into their sins. Hate every trace of their sin while being merciful to them.
Jude 1:21-23
