It Depends

How You Look At It!

The response to our notices in the paper about subscriptions due in June has been great. But there are yet some who have not sent in their renewals fees for the paper.

The whole thing was designed as a stamp-saving project. Our postage for mailing the papers has gone up considerably during the past few years and this is one method of offsetting that increase -- if the subscribers will cooperate.

We figure that the subscription rate is high enough, so please send in your renewals to help avoid any increase in costs to us or you.

One final request: if you have not sent us a check in the past couple of months, you owe for your subscription. If you live out of Terrell County, you owe $3.50. If you live in Terrell County, you owe $3.

Dreams don't cost anything! We have had the thoughts of something real good coming after a doctor and nurse-practitioner begin their practice in Sanderson.

Those thoughts have been the possibility of Sanderson becoming a retirement center.

Sure, we know that the facilities do not exist now, nor the needs, nor the requests. But the thought of this as a reality does exist, and that is some kind of a beginning.

We can just see the perennial "cold water throwers" throwing cold water on the idea from the beginning and saying: "It can't be done!"

And enough people saying it can makes that statement so.

But when a sufficient number of people begin working on a common goal, then the chances of its success are diminished.

We have found through the years that good ideas come only from "certain people".

We have conducted our own little tests along this line and found it to be so far too great a frequency to count it out as a reality.

People is what makes things happen, but "people" doesn't have to be "certain people". It just needs to be "all the people".

We are not advocating the construction starting next week on a nursing home. We are only expressing a thought that there is a good possibility that something good is going to happen to our community and county if and when we will have professional medical people here.

And just the fact that we do have professional medical people here sometime in the future is a realization that something good has happened to our community.

Dreams don't cost anything!

Mark W. Duncan Interred Monday

Funeral services for Mark W. Duncan were Monday afternoon in the First United Methodist Church with the pastor, Dr. Edward Lang Jr. and Rev. David C. Marx, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Following graveside Masonic rites, burial was in Cedar Grove Cemetery with the Janes Funeral Home of Ozona in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Irvin Robbins, organist, played two solos: "Amazing Grace" and "How Great Thou Art".

Mr. Duncan was born August 5, 1905, in Floydada. He served in the USAF for three years during World War II. He had worked as a pharmacist since 1930. On Sept. 8, 1932, he was married to Lula Mae Briggs in Lubbock. They came to Sanderson in 1948 for him to be employed as pharmacist at the Spears Drug Store owned by R.V. Spears, and five months later they entered into a partnership in the business to be known as Spears-Duncan Drug until 1970 when Mr. Duncan retired after selling the business and property to the owners of the Stockton Pharmacy in Fort Stockton.

While on a fishing trip to Lake Amistad in company with W.H. Taliaferro and Dr. James Word Jr., Wednesday afternoon of last week, he suffered a massive stroke while they were launching the boat and he was taken to a Del Rio hospital. He was moved by ambulance to the Audy Murphy V.A. Hospital in San Antonio Thursday afternoon and died there Friday night. The body was brought to Sanderson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Duncan was chairman of the administrative board of the First United Methodist Church; president of the Sanderson Rotary Club and president-elect; a director of the Terrell County Water Control

Rain Falls

About 1-1/2 inches of rain fell early Thursday morning of last week. The local shower was accompanied by heavy lightning and thunder.

The first part of the shower was a deluge, which lasted only a few minutes, then the rainfall eased off to a soft shower before tapering down to the end.

The rainfall was reported generally from much of the county in about the same figures as were reported locally.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thompson and children of La Vernia were weekend visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Calzada, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutberto Gonzales and children spent the weekend in Odessa with her sister, Mrs. Ruben Hernandez, and family and Mrs. Gonzales also had her eyes examined.

Two outstanding science students and a teacher from Sanderson High School were among the approximately 500 persons from all parts of Texas attending the 14th annual Nuclear Science Symposium for High Schools held this month at the University of Texas in Austin. Conferees heard lectures by scientists in the nuclear and related fields and toured research laboratories at the University. Pictured at the Symposium in Austin, left to right, are Ja Chriesman and Sandra Villarreal, students, and Mrs. R.C. Holcombe, teacher. The three were guests of Community Public Service Company, which is a member of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

Amy Harrison fell from the burro which she was riding Monday evening and fractured her upper arm. The arm was put in a cast in Alpine where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Harrison, took her for medical attention.

Mail From East Comes From West Starting Saturday

The mail truck from the east will turn around at Dryden after Friday, June 21, according to information received by Sanderson Postmaster J.R. Hodgkins last week.

The possibility of this occurring was printed in The Times last week.

The cessation of the truck's run from San Antonio to Sanderson means that all of the mail in and out of Sanderson will be on the truck that arrives from El Paso at about 8:30 a.m. and leaves here for El Paso at about 1:00 p.m.

The origination of the ZIP Code and an arbitrary designation of the west boundary of the 788 Sectional Center Facility as between Dryden and Sanderson, rather than west of Sanderson, is probably responsible, principally, for the halting of the mail truck at Dryden, according to some calculated opinions. Dryden, being served out of the Uvalde SCF, and Sanderson, being served out of the El Paso SCF, are also in two different regions, according to available information, and thus decisions affecting the mail truck service out of San Antonio are not made by the same department or office as decisions concerning the truck out of El Paso.

Customers and visitors in the Texas-Louisiana Power Co. office (Community Public Service Co. now) in 1929 had the view below of the interior. The little girl under the floor lamp on the right is a part of a display and is a cardboard cut-out. The fish bowl in the lounge area at the left, the pot plants on the right, etc., are all interesting. The radio, lamps, small appliances, etc., were "for sale" items carried by the business. Mrs. John L. Newton, office employee, is shown at left, and C.A. Moreland, manager, is at the right. Mrs. Newton loaned us the picture.

The Sanderson-Dryden Methodists welcomed their new pastor and his family last Sunday - Dr. and Mrs. Edward M. Lang Jr. and their two children, Ann Katherine and Monty.

Frank Green, minister of the Church of Christ, and his family are leaving next week for their new home in Hale Center.

Terrell County residents get a new minister, and other Terrell County residents lose a minister.

We are all exceptionally blessed by having the churches we have in the county. We sometimes take them and the ministers too much for granted. The worth of their leadership is an immeasurable quantity, but when we think of a town without such leadership, it's not a good thought.

The willingness of the people to do the work of the church is the only restriction that the church has, and the motivation of the membership by the minister is his most difficult project, probably.

We hope Dr. Lang and his family have tremendous success in their efforts and that the town and county and they are better off because of his stay here.

We hope that Frank Green and his family are happy in their work in their new home in Hale Center. We personally feel that their ministry here was profitable.

We also hope that the local Church of Christ congregation has a replacement soon.

Dr. E. M. Lang Jr. Begins Pastorate For Methodists

Rev. Dr. Edward M. Lang Jr., pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Sanderson and Dryden arrived here with his family Friday of last week and preached his first sermons Sunday morning to the charge congregations. Dr. Lang's family consists of his wife, Amy, and two children, Ann Katherine and Monty, and an Alaskan Malamute dog, Jana.

Serving both the Northern Illinois and Northwest Indiana Conferences of the United Methodist Church, Dr. Lang has specialized in small town ministry. He has served churches in Kniman, Ind., the Fox Valley Parish and Franklin Grove, Ill. The essence of his ministry has been preaching and teaching from the Bible, supplemented with personal counselling.

While most of his early education was received in his native El Paso, Dr. Lang graduated from Harvard School in North Hollywood, Cal., with high honors. During his undergraduate studies at the University of Texas at El Paso, Dr. Lang earned high honors and was elected to the Top Ten Seniors, Men of Mines, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Upon completion of his Bachelor of Science in Education at U.T. E.P. in 1965, Dr. Lang entered the University of Wisconsin under a NDEA Title IV Fellowship. He received a Master of Arts degree from Wisconsin in 1968.

While at Garrett Theological Seminary, Dr. Lang received highest honors, the Trustees Scholarship, the Highest Honors Scholarship, and the Bibliographic Fellowship, which provided the highest award of the school. Garrett granted his Master of Divinity degree in 1972. That same year Dr. Lang earned a Doctor of Philosophy degree in Religion from Northwestern University, he received training in counselling and psychotherapy.

In 1972, he delivered the Bibliographic Lecture at Garrett entitled "Theology of Francis Asbury". In addition to teaching at Garrett Theological Seminary, Dr. Lang has conducted independent religious seminars. Outside the church, Dr. Lang has lectured on "Death and Dying".

Dr. Lang has had occasion to publish his work in many forms, from motion pictures to religious articles for church publications and a definitive study of the theology of Francis Asbury, first bishop of American Methodism.

Among his responsibilities to the United Methodist church Dr. Lang has served on the outdoor camping commission of the Northern Illinois Conference. He is an avid sportsman who enjoys hunting and fishing. He is eager to meet fellow hunters who will introduce him to the game of the Big Bend.

Bobby Joe Hill was taken by ambulance to a Fort Stockton hospital Monday morning. He is the son of Mrs. Joe Hill.

R. V. Raney, 71, Dies In Uvalde

R. V. Raney, 71, died in a Uvalde hospital and funeral services were held in that city on Monday, June 3.

Born in a log cabin north of Barksdale in 1902, he moved to Sanderson with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Raney, when he was eight years old. For several years he helped his father on the S.P. Railroad, going to school in Sanderson and Alpine.

After serving in the U.S. Navy after WW I, he lived in Uvalde, Barksdale, and Camp Wood, finally going to work for the Alamo Lumber Co. where he was manager at Charlotte for seven years before being transferred to the yard at Sanderson in 1941. It has been said that during the war when no merchandise was available, Mr. Raney obtained windmills, pipe, and lumber for the ranchers of West Texas with no one knowing for sure where some of these vital materials came from. He returned to Uvalde after the war and established a windmill repair business.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Dorcas Raney of Uvalde, a son, a daughter and six grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Lowther and children of Fort Stockton visited her Monday with her mother, Mrs. Walter Thorn.

Plea Made About Watering, Locks At Cemetery

Mrs. Rosa Ochoa asked The Times to make a plea through our columns concerning the watering of plants, etc., in Santa Rosa Cemetery.

Mrs. Ochoa stated that anyone wanting to water anything there, to please see her for the key rather than breaking the lock.

She said that numerous locks had been broken or cut in the past, and others had been opened without her consent and at times the water left running wastefully. She said that the cost of replacing locks and the wasted water were both unnecessary as arrangements could be made to use her water meter at the cemetery to care for flowers and shrubs there.

Mrs. Ochoa stated that she was very interested in any effort by anyone to improve the appearance of the cemetery and would cooperate in any way she could, if people would ask her for the key, rather than breaking the lock and wasting the water.

Mrs. Louise Causey returned home Sunday from El Paso where she had visited her mother and brother and also had medical attention. She went to El Paso with Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Hill, former residents, who had stopped here enroute home.

Texas history from a century ago and scenery shaped through the ages dominate the vacation opportunities of Far West Texas, that region rolling west of the Hill Country to El Paso.

And today's 55mph speed limit stretches the fuel far enough to see it all: the Sonora Caverns, Langtry, Big Bend, restored old Fort Davis, and Guadalupe National Park.

These and more than five dozen travel stops are mentioned in the new "Wonderful West Texas Fun and Adventure Map", says J. Fike Godfrey, executive vice-president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Sonora Caverns, best-known of the Edwards Plateau caves, was discovered only in 1961.

Langtry is the home of Judge Roy Bean's frontier court and an attractive Texas Highway Department tourist information center. It shares the Rio Grande region with Amistad (Friendship) Reservoir and the Texas-Mexico towns of Del Rio and Ciudad Acuna.

Up-river is Big Bend, one of Texas' two national parks, a blend of desert and mountains, horseback trails, and the canyon waters of Santa Elena, Mariscal and Boquillas.

Plenteous air currents make Marfa the site in early summer of the national sail plane meet. Twenty-one miles to the north, 19th Century Fort Davis isn't far from the 20th Century's McDonald Observatory, both open to the public.

The Texas Highway Department also recommends a 74-mile drive of scenic beauty through the Davis Mountains.

More mountains lie across interstate 10 between Van Horn and Ysleta, location of the Tigua Indian Reservation, the only one in West Texas.

Just beyond, there's populous El Paso and Juarez. A tank of gasoline goes a long way there, with the handy concentration of border shopping, bullfights, dog and horse racing, and the Mt.

Franklin scenic tramway.

Between El Paso and Carlsbad Caverns - in New Mexico - rise El Capitan and Guadalupe Peak, both above 8,000 feet, and the Guadalupe Mountains National Park.

To the east, the wind has

Beasom compared results of predator removal on the experimental area to a check program on the control area where no predators were removed.

His experiment showed that an intensive short-term predator control program to improve reproductive performances of white-tailed deer and wild turkeys could be successful if started just prior to the breeding season. But environmental conditions are also an important consideration, the research indicated.

"During drought years it seemed that predator removal could mean the difference between virtual failure or relatively high reproductive success for the deer and turkeys. In years of abundant rainfall, however, reproductive success was relatively high without intense predator removal, indicating that removal may not be justified in these years unless a more intensive game harvesting program created a need," Beasom said.

Another finding showed that the intensive, short-term removal program did not harm the biological balance in this particular study area.

Predator populations were apparently affected very little, since they repopulated the experimental area each year when removal operations ceased. Rodent populations did not increase. In fact, Beasom's data indicated that mammalian predators had no effect on rodent numbers either in a year of rodent scarcity or abundance.

"However," Beasom said, "such a program might be biologically un sound in areas inhabited by rare predators or rare non-target animals because of possible detrimental effects of the predator control devices."

SANDERS-WILSON WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ray Sanders are living in Alpine following their marriage Friday, June 14, in the First Baptist Church in that city.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wilson and Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Sanders, formerly of Sanderson.

Mrs. Sanders, a graduate of the Alpine High School, is a secretary for the Big Bend Baptist Association. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Alpine High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Robertson of Las Vegas, Nev., were here last week to look after their property and visit with friends before going on to San Antonio and Houston and then to Fort Worth to visit with his father, M.L. Robertson, who is in a nursing home there. The Robertsons are former Sanderson residents.

species that had been trapped or killed by the predator control methods used, Beasom said the losses of nontarget species might be justifiable if, due to predator removal, the species produced many more animals than had been accidentally killed.

"The limited data available on this relationship indicate that, indeed, nontarget species may have a net gain in numbers after predator control operations," Beasom added.

Though Beasom's research answers many questions, often need answering. TAES is planning more research in the near future to further investigate the impact on predation on wildlife and livestock and on methods of reducing predator losses.

Beasom's philosophy is that predator removal is justifiable only if it is economically productive in reducing predator losses with little harm to the environment.

Selective Service Office Moved

Col. Melvin N. Glantz, the State Director of Selective Service for Texas, has announced the relocation of the office site for Local Board No. 14 from Alpine to Pecos effective June 7, 1974.

All young men are still required by federal law to register with Selective Service within 30 days before or after their 18th birthday, and should report to the local board of office, or to an officially appointed registrar for Selective Service. In instances where this is extremely difficult, the young man may write to: State Headquarters; Selective Service System; 300 East 8th Street; Austin, Texas 78701, giving his name and correct mailing address, and forms will be sent for registration by mail. Registrars in Terrell County are: Mrs. E.E. Farley and Ruel Adams.

Address of the Local Board now is: Local Board No. 14 Selective Service System Western Ins. Bldg., Rm 2 324 S. Cypress Pecos, Texas 79772

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams

AUSTIN, Tex. — Constitutional Convention delegates are entering the break-or-break last lapse of their work.

Delegates last week completed first-draft approval of the proposed new state charter after final agreement on the delayed judicial article.

President Price Daniel said he hopes all articles will be pushed through the third-reading stage by the end of June.

After that, the document will go to the convention's "Submission and Transition Committee," which will wrap up all proposals in package form and return them to delegates.

At this stage, the document and related separate-submission items (like right-to-work) must be approved by a two-thirds majority (121 votes) to be submitted to voters.

The Submission and Transition Committee will serve as a kind of conference committee, seeking compromises which can rally approval of the necessary majority of delegates.

After months of stormy debate and close votes, the convention began to receive praise from many quarters for its efforts to improve the 1876 constitution.

Kind words were still being withheld by the governor, however. Aides to Gov. Dolph Briscoe said he would "find it very difficult" to support the revision in its present form, because recommended changes infringe on gubernatorial powers in areas of veto and calling special legislative sessions.

TRADING STAMP LIMIT? — The State Finance Commission may ban use of trading stamps and other inducements by savings and loan associations to help attract deposits.

The panel's savings and loan section is scheduled to rule on the long-standing issue June 22.

Opponents argue the regulation would curtail advertising by savings and loan associations, would not benefit consumers and would be meaningless to federally-chartered institutions.

An earlier version of the proposed regulation included an exemption for associations competing with other financial institutions which offer stamps and other premiums.

Savings and loan associations are divided on the issue. Several consumer groups have indicated they will offer testimony in opposition to the proposal.

WASTE HEARINGS SET — Texas Water Quality Board has scheduled 12 public hearings over the state to explore problems concerning disposal of industrial solid wastes, a controversial issue.

The first hearing will be held July 11 in Fort Worth with the final one in Austin October 24.

Other hearings are slated for Dallas July 12, Port Arthur July 25, Beaumont July 26, Houston August 6-7, Corpus Christi August 22-23, Brownsville August 30, El Paso September 20, Midland September 26, Amarillo September 27 and Longview October 2.

Legislative committee probes of TWQB, with special attention to its procedures in processing applications for waste disposal sites are scheduled to begin after the Constitutional Convention adjourns.

COURTS SPEAK — A man who entered a Fort Worth hospital with a cut thumb, fainted, felloff the operating table and suffered a brain concussion and loss of two teeth is entitled to $7,211 damages, the State Supreme Court ruled.

The high court held a Houston ironworker should get workmen's compensation benefits due to inhalation of lead and zinc fumes.

The Court of Criminal Appeals held that a policeman who sees a driver making a movement before stopping is not justified in searching the traffic offender's car.

The Court of Criminal Appeals ruled a common law husband is entitled to have a jury pass on whether he was justified in killing his wife's lover though he did not catch them in embrace.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. John Hill found the State Democratic Convention date is fixed at September 17 by state law, but said it could be recessed until a later date to avoid a conflict with the Jewish holy day, Rosh Hashana.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

- * The state's tuition equalization grant program is available to graduate and professional students who meet requirements.

- * A real estate broker being investigated by Texas Real Estate Commission has a right to see the file on his case.

- * Designation as the juvenile court under the Family Code is limited to courts possessing jurisdiction over juvenile matters from a source other than the Family Code.

- * A district court lacks jurisdiction to appoint a county attorney or attorney pro tem to work with a grand jury if the district attorney is present and not otherwise disqualified.

- * A taxpayer is entitled to a refund of gas production taxes if the Federal Power Commission establishes a rate lower than the contract price and requires him to make a refund of the amount overcharged, even though he is permitted to satisfy his obligation through a gas exploration agreement with or without discount provision.

MEAT IMPORT CUT URGED — Agriculture Commissioner John C.

White called for restrictions on beef imports into the U.S. immediately.

If the restriction is delayed until after the November election, White claimed beef prices will rise next spring and summer, and the domestic livestock industry will be damaged.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas wheat production is expected to drop 35.6 million bushels from 1973 totals due to failure of dryland wheat on the Texas High Plains.

Greater South Texas Cultural Basin Commission will meet in Elsa June 20.

State Board of Education paid tribute to outgoing Texas Education Commissioner Dr. J.W. Edgar at a special meeting this week. Dr. Marlin L. Brockette takes over the job July 1.

Proposed new textbook materials will be placed on display at 20 regional centers July 1.

Austin, Corpus Christi, Denton, Lubbock and Mexia state schools.

A Walt Disney movie "The Pond" is being filmed at Caddo Lake and other East Texas locations.

Power Failure? Potential Trouble? Phone us.

When your lights go out, check appliances and lights in other rooms of your home to see if they are also off. Look to see if your neighbors have power. If their lights are on . . . chances are you have only blown a fuse or tripped a circuit breaker. If the neighbors are also without power . . . there could be an equipment problem. Call Community Public Service Company and steps will be taken immediately to determine the source of trouble and restore service. In the meantime, turn off major electric appliances so that when the electricity does come back on, the sudden surge caused by the load demands won't blow fuses in your home or delay power restoration attempts. Here are some tips for customers that will help make things easier and safer if the lights do go out. Always keep a flashlight, portable transistor radio and extra batteries on hand. Stay tuned to a local station for information during a general power interruption. If linemen are working in your area, stay inside with family and pets until the trouble is corrected. Limit visits to the refrigerator and freezer. Frozen foods will keep up to 48 hours when they are not exposed to air. Phone calls from a' customers are often a big factor to quick restoration of service. Therefore, if you should see a spark of light on a wire or pole, hear a loud noise, see a wire down or notice an excessively noisy transformer . . . with one telephone call you may be able to help Community Public Service Company pinpoint the trouble faster.

Also, if you are driving or walking and you notice a fallen line, burned transformer, damaged pole or anything that might cause a power failure . . . report it in as much detail as possible. The sooner Community Public Service Company knows about it, the faster the problem can be corrected, perhaps avoiding completely a power interruption. Community Public Service Company . . . working hard to provide you with efficient electrical service around the clock.
