Barton Unanimous Choice of Coaches 77-B All-District

Coaches of the eight basketball teams in District 77-B, voting for selection of an all-district team, were unanimous in choosing Dorbandt Barton, lanky Ft. Stockton center, for the mythical squad. Barton was the only man who got all the votes of opposing coaches.

Coaches did not ballot for men on their own teams, but only on opposing squads, and other first string selections were: Varnadore of Reagan County, Mathis and Higdon, Crane, and Pauley, McCamey.

Richard Reeves, Fort Stockton, was named for the second string, along with Bonner, Crane, Fife and McFaden of Iraan and Smelser of Reagan County.

Softball Fever Hits Permian Cities

Softball fever seems to be holding the spotlight among fevers this week in McCamey, Iraan and Rankin. Three meetings have been held in Rankin this past week and it is believed that actual work of organizing teams will get underway next week.

Pop Williamson, now with Helmerich and Payne in Iraan, reported to the News Thursday that the Gulf, Helmerich and Payne, Stanolind and Ohio camps are organizing softball teams. The Iraan Lions Club is working hard to organize a town handball team, with good results reported. In fact, the Iraan Lions contingent has petitioned Blondy Cross to broadcast the news.

In McCamey, the West Texas Utilities Company, through Mat Dillingham, has announced its full support of the News sports program and will extend every effort to see it bear fruit.

Don Cook, W. E. Pulley, Dave Gregory and West Texas Warfield have contributed considerable in the way of organization suggestions and are chomping their collective bits in eagerness to see the program get underway.

No word has been received this week from any of the other cities but we expect that a report will be forthcoming from meach some time during the coming week.

City Council Acts To Relieve Acute Housing Shortage

175 Apartments Are Requested Under Terms of Lanham Act

The McCamey City Council, moving to relieve the acute housing shortage existing here, this week applied to the Federal Projects Housing Authority for 175 apartments to house returned veterans.

The Council voted unanimously to apply for the housing units at an emergency meeting Wednesday evening, called at the request of Jimmie Eaton, James Carl and Gordon Fussell, who had carried out preliminary negotiations with the F. P. H. A. office in Fort Worth. Councilman Erle Bone made the motion, Jake McLean seconded. Mayor Ernest McKinney and all councilmen voted aye. City Secretary Gene Eckols was authorized to execute the application.

Water Board members T. A. Pauley and Eddie Halamicek attended the meeting and expressed full approval of the vote.

A tentative site for the proposed housing would be two blocks near the airport. The two blocks, now part of the Burleson-Johns estate, are intact except for two lots. There is a possibility that these lots may be purchased from the present owners at reasonable cost.

Under the Lanham Act, the City is required to build sidewalks, grade streets, build utilities to the site of construction and manage the property. The Federal Government contracts to build the apartment buildings and retains title to them during the life of the agreement between the City and the Government.

The City collects rents, pays all operating expenses out of such rental revenue. The Federal Government receives all excess above actual operating costs.

Under the terms of the Act, only veterans may occupy the apartments. It is believed, however, that non-veterans will enjoy relief from the housing shortage as a result of dwellings presently occupied by veterans being made available at the time of any move to new quarters.

In order that a full knowledge of present housing requirements may be had by the City Council, all veterans and non-veterans now in need of housing are requested to fill out the questionnaires appearing in this issue of The News. These questionnaires See 175 APARTMENTS—pg. 4

School Trustees To Be Elected April 6

An election will be held at the High School on April 6 for the purpose of electing three school board trustees, according to G. C. Pauley, secretary of the McCamey Independent School District. Trustees whose terms expire are J. A. Taylor, Jack Ott and W. D. Noel. Taylor, according to Pauley, will not seek reelection. Ott and Noel, who is filling out the unexpired term of J. W. C. Hayes, have placed their names on the ballot for reelection, while J. T. Wade has filed and will run for the trusteeship which will be vacated by Taylor.

"42" PARTY

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Moorman entertained two tables of "42" honoring Mrs. J. Pitts of Odessa. Miss Ethie Eggleton won high score and Mrs. Pitts low. Both were presented colorful Mexican towels. Mrs. Pitts also received a china vase as a guest prize.

Lemon pie and coffee were served to the following ladies: Mmes. C. A. Baird, R. S. Cope, John-Estes, T. J. Pitts, John Sheehan, and Misses Ethie Eggleton, Allie Scott and the hostess.

S. S. Benefits Depend On Wages Reported By Employers

"The amount of social security benefits that are payable depend upon the wages reported for the workers by their employers," said Elliott W. Adams, manager of the Social Security Board office in San Angelo. This is true of the payments made to widows and children and other survivors, as well as to the older workers who retire from employment.

Wages, according to the board official, must be reported quarterly by employers, with sufficient identification that each item can be posted to the appropriate social security account.

"When employees fail to make certain their employers have correct records of their social security account numbers and names," Adams said, "they are failing to protect a very valuable insurance policy. When an employee gives the wrong social security account number and incorrect name to his employer he is jeopardizing his insurance protection. He may be depriving his widow and children or himself and wife of monthly insurance benefits already paid for. Employees should always show their social security account numbers to employers for whom they work, and they should assure themselves that each employer has made an accurate record of the number and name.

"When employers report the account numbers and names along with the wages of their employees, the posting of each employee's wages to his individual social security account is assured. If the employer fails to list the account number as it appears on the card, the worker's wages cannot be posted to his account. Employees, therefore, must show their account number cards to each employer for whom they work."

2,000 Entries Expected In El Paso Show

EL PASO, Tex.—The Pacific Coast will call "more and more on West Texas and New Mexico for livestock supplies both for slaughter and replacements," J. W. "Tex" Condon told the Southwestern Livestock Show today.

Condon, of Washington and Condon, Los Angeles livestock market agency, has been named auctioneer for the 17th annual Southwestern Livestock Show, which opens March 26 in El Paso. He has been active in the livestock industry in this part of the country since 1922, and is well known in Texas and New Mexico.

About 2000 entries are expected in the Southwestern Livestock Show. Members of the Future Farmers of America and the 4-H Club will show an array of fat calves, breeding sheep, fat lambs and swine that will make up an outstanding junior show.

"My interest in the Future Farmers and 4-H Clubs is throughout the nation," Condon said, "but of course my primary interest is in your part of the country. I shall be only too glad to help our young people as much as I can."

A new feature of the El Paso show is the immediate payment of premiums right after the judging. Certificates of award will be mailed to the winners after the show.

National cattle breeding organizations are participating, and the show will also include exhibits of Palomino and Quarter Horses, poultry and rabbits. Total premiums have been increased to $12,000.

Large Attendance At V. F. W. Barbecue

One of the largest crowds in the history of McCamey attended the barbecue and dance, given by Young-McCormick Post No. 5071. There were between 350 and 400 people attending.

The members of the VFW want to thank all of the people for their interest in our organization and want to apologize to those who did not get any of the food. We had no idea there would be such a crowd. We will know better next time. All of you who were there were very understanding about this and we do appreciate it.

Everybody had a big time and there will be more of these affairs in the future.

Odessa Wins at Fort Stockton Saturday

The Odessa Bronchos won the Fort Stockton Comanche Relays going away last Saturday when they amassed a total of 53 points. Fort Stockton, in second place, collected only 29 points.

In the Junior division, Ward Gregory glommed a second place in the 100-yard dash, while McCamey placed second in the 440-yard relay, placed in the high jump and Poyner won a first in the chinning event.

Saipan Veteran Here On Leave

Lt. Jack Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hampton, McCamey, and a veteran of Central Pacific fighting, is at home on a 45-day furlough. He recently returned from Saipan.

A graduate of McCamey High School, Hampton received his Bachelor's Degree with a major in mechanical engineering from Texas A. & M.

Inducted on Jan. 26, 1943, Hampton trained at Camp Wolters, Ft. Belvoir, Va., and Omaha, Neb.

Sailing from San Francisco on Feb. 14, 1944, Hampton served on Oahu and Saipan.

He will report to Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., for reassignment, and expects to be separated from the service in December, 1946.

Hampton holds the Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with one Battle Engagement Star, the Victory Ribbon.

NEW POUNDMAN

The City Council announced last week that Beetus Parker had replaced Jim Meeks as City poundman. Parker's pound is located at Nick's Place, on the Crane Highway. Dogs kept over three days, a member of the Council stated, will be destroyed.

Mrs. Bergen Places Edgar and Charlie On Budget—and Three Live as Cheaply as One

HAPPY THREESOME—The Edgar Bergen family, even including the sharp-tongued mite of NBC's "Charlie McCarthy Show," finds happy repose in the California sun. Mrs. Bergen formerly was a Power's model, and as everyone knows, Charlie was once "model oak tree" of upper Michigan woodlands.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Charlie McCarthy is getting along much better than he expected with Mrs. Edgar Bergen.

"I didn't believe this talk about two, or in this case, three, living as cheaply as one," Charlie says. "For once, Bergen was right about something. Not only are we getting along as cheaply as best, we actually have more money to spend. That mother of mine knows something about budgeting. Bergen and I can't quite figure it out, but we are both getting larger allowances than we did before. Fact is, we can't figure out where the money used to go."

"Oh, yes, Charlie and Frances get along perfectly together," Edgar Bergen commented. "She is actually making a little gentleman out of him. He has even learned to eat his peas with a fork instead of a knife."

"Now wait a minute, Mr. Bergen," Charlie interrupted. "You are talking about Mortimer. I only use a knife for butter beans."

"He has stopped whistling at girls on the boulevards, too," Bergen continued unabashed. "Frances told him that if he continued to whistle at people, he'd grow up to look like a Hollywood traffic cop."

"Of course I get along with the children," Frances Bergen chimed in. "I think that they are all little angels. Charlie gets off a little on the deep end occasionally, but a word or glance usually brings him back. As for Mortimer Snerd, he's still so bashful that he can only gulp when I come into the room. Effie Klinger still isn't used to having another woman in the house, but that will smooth itself out in time, I'm sure."

Cookery School Here March 20

A vegetable cookery school, sponsored by the McCamey Garden Home Demonstration clubs, will be held at the Shell Recreation Hall at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, March 20. Miss Dorothy Snelling, Upton County Home Demonstration Agent, will assist. The public is invited. Those wishing to attend the luncheon are expected to bring a covered dish.

Methods of preparing old vegetables in new ways will be shown.

Home Demonstration Council Meeting

The Upton County Home Demonstration Council met in McCamey on Thursday, March 7. The meeting was presided over by Council Chairman Mrs. Walton Poage.

The following delegates were selected to attend the District Conference to be held in Big Spring on April 16: Mrs. T. L. Fuller, Mrs. Harry Dibrell and Mrs. N. C. House.

Officers' training school will be held in Rankin in April.

Ben Toland Gave His All

On Feb. 21, 1945, First Lieutenant Ben Toland of Concord, N. H., died on the bloody slopes of Iwo Jima. No one had ordered this 24-year-old Marine Lieutenant to take over the wounded officer's platoon which was to storm the ridge; he simply stepped into the breach, took command, charged the ridge "where every ten yards cost a life."

He and his men were laying out airmarkers to show the new position when the mortar-burst hit. Lt. Toland had laid down his life on the altar of freedom.

But this New Hampshire lad left something behind that transcends even his supreme sacrifice. He had scribbled a will. The text of that will already has been read into the Congressional Record by New Hampshire's Congressman Sherman Andrews. National magazines and metropolitan daily newspapers have paid glowing tribute to a real American, who on the eve of death, left a legacy to his country that never will be forgotten.

Lt. Toland had a keen understanding of the American Way—his last will and testament was a solemn covenant to the American people back home to cherish and nurture that for which he and his buddies were fighting in the Pacific—for which 5,000 Marines died on Iwo Jima.

Ben Toland saw labor strife as one of the gravest menaces to the welfare of postwar America. He willed nearly half of his estate—40 per cent (about $1,500)—for the settlement of problems between labor and management. Ten per cent goes to each of the CIO and AFL; 20 per cent to the National Association of Manufacturers.

Ben Toland was concerned about our national government. He feared it might become the master instead of the servant of the people. To the Congress he left 20 per cent for research toward "far-sighted foreign policy," and better government for "all the people in the country instead of merely the organized pressure groups."

Ben Toland was interested in education. To St. Paul's School of Concord, New Hampshire, where he had captained the hockey team and distinguished himself as a scholar, he bequeathed 20 per cent. To Yale University, where he was graduated summa cum laude, just in time for the war, this Phi Beta Kappa left ten per cent.

Ben Toland's bequeathal of the remaining ten per cent revealed his deep interest in charitable and spiritual affairs. Five per cent was willed to the New York Times Christmas charity fund known as the "One Hundred Neediest Cases," and 5 per cent to the Protestant Episcopal Church to "bring the Kingdom of God nearer to earth and the earth nearer to the Kingdom of God."

And having thus arranged the disposal of his earthly goods for a better America, Lt. Toland proceeded to give his one remaining and most cherished possession—his life.

BASIN ROUND-UP

Burglary of two Ft. Stockton business concerns Monday night resulted in a loss of about $40 to the two concerns.

Entrance was gained to the J. D. Hooks Boot Shop without any damage to the door, a pass key apparently having been used. The loss of about $30 from the cash register was reported.

On the same night a lock was broken on a door at the Hiller Ranch Supply and $10 removed from the cash register.

Sheriff Ben R. Hillger and his deputies are conducting an investigation.

Bryan Mills of Fort Stockton won first place in the Rambouillet ram lamb 4-H Club breeding class at the San Angelo stock show last week-end, and numerous other Pecos County entries, both by club boys and commercial breeders, placed on the various events.

Two carlot groups of 25 Pecos County lambs sold Monday in the club sale at prices of 30 and 32 1-2 cents a pound respectively. Other Pecos animals were taken on to Ft. Worth for showing there.

The Reagan FFA and 4-H boys were biggest winners in the lamb classes at the San Angelo Stock Show last week-end.

G. B. Emert took the biggest honors with his Pembroke Suffolk-Rambouillet crossbred lamb and got the grand champion of the show. The lamb sold to the San Angelo Auction Sales Co. for $650.00.

Oscar B. Orr, an annual winner of the local shows, captured first place with a Mrs. Frank McMullan light fine-wool lamb, which sold for $410. The lamb was reserve grand champion.

Jackie Glasscock, with a P. H. Coates heavy fine wool lamb, was first, and sold the lamb for $130.

Monahans experienced a brief two hour telephone strike Thursday morning, March 7, from 6 to 8 o'clock when local operators "walked out" along with some 11,000 other SW Telephone Workers Union employees in Texas, but complete service was restored at 8 o'clock after the management and the union agreed on a wage increase settlement. The strike had been ordered on a nation-wide basis when a strike ballot showed an 8 to 1 count in favor of strike action.

During the brief period the strike was in force here, local service was maintained by supervisory personnel who do not come under the striking union and service, not too heavy at those early hours, anyhow, was just about normal. However, long distance calls were out until mid-morning.

Only the morning shift of the 25 operator force was affected here and the entire group was back on duty by 8 o'clock, Hazel Brewer said. During the 2 hour period local operators picketed the office on South Hoxie Street but everything was in a spirit of good humor and all the girls expressed themselves as happy that the dispute had been settled.

Chris Kountz of Fort Davis won first and second places in the dry lot, all-weight division with his two calves shown at the San Angelo livestock show last week. The first-place winner was bred by the Jeff Ranch and the second-place calf by H. L. Kokernot & Son. There were 55 calves shown in this division.

"That absent-minded Professor Schmaltz has left his umbrella again. He'd leave his head if it were loose," observed the waiter. "That's true," said the manager, "I just heard him say he was going to Switzerland for his lungs."

Methodist Revival To Start At Rankin On Friday, March 15th

Rev. D. G. Hardt, pastor of the Rankin Methodist Church, announced today that his congregation would begin a revival meeting next Friday evening, March 15, and continue same through Sunday, March 24. Services will be held each evening at 7:30 and morning at 10:00.

Rev. Hardt has secured the services of Dr. Frank L. Turner, a general evangelist of the Methodist Church and whose home is in Fort Worth. He will bring the messages, direct the singing and conduct a series of services for young people.

Dr. Turner was for 15 years a pastor in the Central Texas Conference where he held pastorates at Hamilton, Cisco, Ballinger and Fort Worth. During his pastorates, he held a number of revival meetings with outstanding success. In November, 1938, he was elected President of McMurray College, Senior Methodist Institution at Abilene, which position he filled for almost four years. During his presidency, he entirely freed the school from indebtedness and made improvements to plant and property of more than $50,000, all of which were paid for. He also raised the academic and spiritual level of the college. Under his leadership, the school enjoyed unusual growth.

Sept. 1, 1942, Rev. Mr. Turner resigned the presidency of McMurray to enter the field of evangelism and was appointed a General Evangelist of the Methodist Church at the next Annual Conference. Since entering this work, he has held 65 meetings in five states and nine Annual Conferences. These meetings, which have been held in both large and small churches, have resulted in more than 1100 conversions and additions to the church. Everywhere he has labored, there has been a great spiritual uplift. He comes to Rankin from Mt. Calm, Texas, where last Sunday night he concluded another good revival. The public is cordially invited to attend any and all of these services.

The average American motorist, in peacetime, travels some 8,100 miles a year in his car. The traveling salesman average 18,800 miles per year.

Oscar Bushwar arrived in McCamey Tuesday. Bushwar, presently attending Southern Methodist University, will visit his parents.

A total of 586 radio stations throughout the United States is now using weekly American Legion fifteen-minute transcribed programs which are professionally produced.

THE G. I. BILL

All of you veterans who have questions, or any dependents of veterans who wish information on any subject, may write me their problems and I will answer them through this column. Address all questions to Veterans County Service Officer, Box 682, McCamey, Texas.

This week I will start answering the questions that have been coming in. Read this column every week, you will find information here that will keep you up to date on veterans and dependents problems.

1. Q. Is a veteran ever rated for a pension without an examination by the Veterans Administration?

A. If a veteran files his claim within six months of his discharge from service, it may be initially rated from his service records without examination. A claim filed after that time will be rated only after physical examination.

2. Q. May all disabled veterans receive Vocational Rehabilitation?

A. No. It must be determined by a rating board that a veteran has a Vocational handicap, and need for training must be shown before he is entitled to receive Vocational Rehabilitation benefits.

3. Q. May a veteran receive treatment for a service connected disability without reporting to a hospital?

A. Yes, if he is entitled, by applying to the Chief of Out-Patient, Veterans Administration, Waco, Texas. There is no form to be filled out.

4. Q. Do veterans who have been officers have preference in securing admission to a Veterans Administration hospital?

A. Rank is not considered in admitting a veteran to these hospitals.

5. Q. How soon after discharge must a veteran make application in order to secure schooling or training under the G. I. Bill?

A. Application must be made within two years from date of discharge or within two years after the termination of the war.

6. Q. Are indigent patients furnished clothing while being treated in a Veterans Administration Hospital?

A. Clothing and cleaning and repairs to clothing and other items necessary for comfort are furnished all patients when it is determined they are unable to pay for such items themselves.

A. The veteran may attend the school of his choice as long as it is an approved institution.

8. Q. May a veteran receive out-patient treatment for a non-service connected disability?

A. No. Out-patient treatment is restricted to service-connected disabilities.

Send your questions in at once and they will be answered, in the order they are received, by your Veterans County Service Officer. I am here to help you file your claims and advise on all veterans affairs.

THESE ARE YOUR CHILDREN
BY ERLENE BONE

Taking advantage of a beautiful (sun, wind, sand!) spring day, some of the younger set enjoyed hot dogs, chili, pickles, and cookies on a picnic in Bakersfield. After running out of gas and having a flat, everyone made it home safely.

Friday night, Mrs. Ruth R. Williams presented her music pupils in a recital at the First Baptist Church. Everyone who attended the program enjoyed it immensely.

After the recital a few of the kids stopped in at the Blue Bonnet for something to eat, and some went to the show.

The track meet in Ft. Stockton attracted quite a few of the kids Saturday. Even though we did not do so well in the Senior division, it was lots of fun watching, riding around, talking to old friends and eating.

That night a few dates were seen in the show enjoying "Tom Sawyer." Also, a few girls and boys got hold of a certain "little jalopy" and took a spin or two.

Many of the kids were seen in church Sunday morning and their bright faces showed that the week end had not been too hard on them.

"A Walk In The Sun" was really enjoyed by most of the kids who weren't practicing the senior play, "That Uncertain Age." This play is to be presented Friday night at the High School Auditorium.

Anna Lou Wade was hostess to a few boys and girls at her home Sunday night for an informal get-together.

Peggy Jo McShan of Odessa was a week-end guest in the home of Betty Jo Guyton.

"Wahoo" drew a large crowd Tuesday night.

Mrs. Williams' advanced pupils presented the assembly program Wednesday afternoon. The program was:

Betty Jo Matejowsky—Malaguena.
Claudine Brown—Polonaise.
Betty Jo Guyton—Ritual Fire Dance.
Beatrice Wolf—Warsaw Concerto.
Clara Jo Green—First Movement of Grieg Concerto.

Crane Chapter OES Meets Monday Night

The Crane Chapter Order of the Eastern Star met Monday night with about 60 members present and the initiatory work was conferred on one candidate. It was voted to invite McCamey, Rankin and Big Lake Chapters to be co-hostesses with Crane on the occasion of the official visit of the Worthy Grand Matron on May 17 in Crane.

Mrs. W. O. Mays and Mrs. Vernon Stacy served chicken salad sandwiches, cookies and iced punch to the members.

Hanks Family Moves From Crane to Pampa

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hanks and family are moving this week to Pampa where Mr. Hanks has been transferred by the Magnolia Oil Co. He will be relieved here by Mr. Louis Jones who is now serving as foreman at Pampa.

Mrs. Hanks has been active in the church and school in Crane, and a teacher of the Willing Workers class of the First Baptist Church. Mr. Hanks is serving at present as deacon but had been superintendent of the Sunday School and director of the Training Union. He is also a member of the school board in Crane.

Their daughter, Miss June, is a senior in the high school and will remain here to finish her school work. She has recently been elected Class Favorite and is also the High School Queen. Mary Lou, a sophomore, will go with her parents to Pampa and enter school there. She plays the tenor saxophone in the Crane High Band. H. A., Jr., is in the first grade at school, while little Jackie is just five and will not be in school for another year.

The family will leave many friends here and a large number of courtesies were extended to them during the past week.

HARRIS-LUCKETT COMPANY OFFERS

Tired of the color scheme . . . things need freshening . . . but no place in the budget for redecorating? That's what paint cans are for—they'll help you do the job yourself, inexpensively and easily—if you take these cues:

GET ON YOUR MARK: Your paint dealer—with the help of color cards and directions from manufacturers—will advise you about the kind of paint best for your purpose, the amount of paint (that's why paint comes in large, medium and small cans) and the kind of brush. Cans are the most convenient containers for paint because the opening is wide, you can mix colors in the can and paint right from it. Cans are the safest containers because they're unbreakable and light-tight—pigments won't fade.

Remember that deep or bright colors as trimmings will make a room seem smaller. Remember that color over a large area looks darker than it does in a small sample.

GET SET: Arrange the scene—if you're painting walls, see that furniture, draperies, etc. are removed and that all surfaces not to be painted are covered with newspapers. If it's a piece of furniture, find a place where the painted article can remain undisturbed until dry.

Be sure surface of object to be Painted is clean and smooth—remove old paint or varnish in poor condition with paint or varnish remover. Smooth rough surfaces with sandpaper.

Be sure brush is clean and free of loose hairs. Slap the bristles across your hand, dip tip into paint and brush it back and forth on heavy paper to work out loose hairs.

GO: Dip about one-third of brush into paint, press against rim of can to remove excess paint, then stroke back and forth with broad side, first with grain of wood then across it, and finally with grain. Use down stroke to finish vertical surfaces. Enamel and lacquer are flowed on—not brushed out as thoroughly as paint.

Use piece of cardboard or tin to protect surfaces not to be painted, when painting a trim or border. Wipe off edge of cardboard before moving it along.

All through? That leftover paint will stay fresh in the can ready for retouching later; wipe paint from rim of can and lid grooves and replace lid firmly by the hammer and board technique shown in the drawings.

Clean brush in solvent, then in soap and wrap in cloth and store—flat—don't make it stand up on its bristles!

Hughes of the Texas Rangers; Sun In Their Eyes, by Monte Barrett, an historical novel of Texas based on fact; and She Came To The Valley, by Cleo Dawson, biography and fiction which is based on actual persons and events.

Coffee was served to the guests in the cafeteria at the end of the program, with Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Baron in charge.

Yes, she's back at her old job of home-making—that 24-hour-a-day job with no overtime pay.

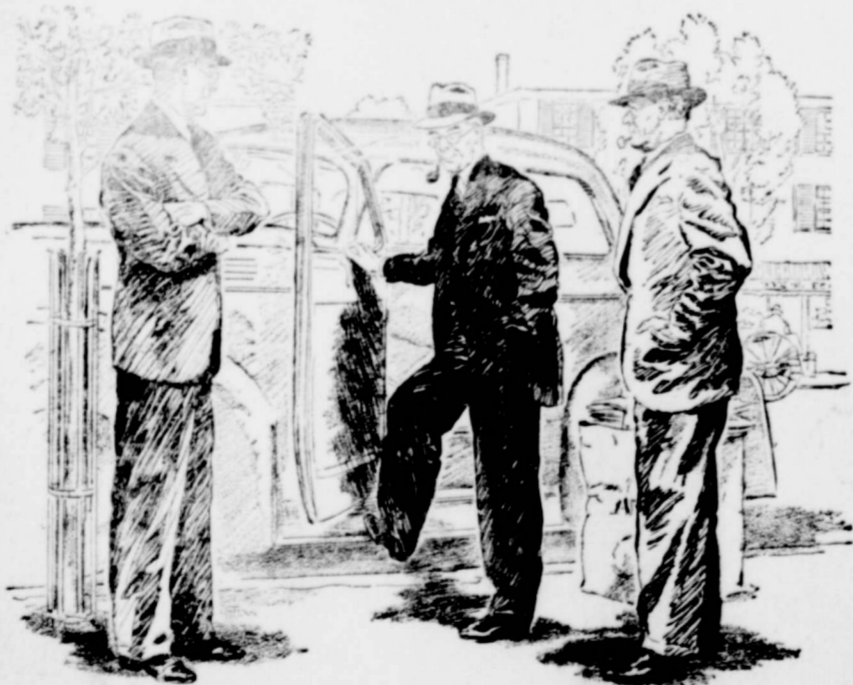

Mom learned a lot about electric service during the war. She found that stitching up a cruiser and stitching up a curtain are both done more easily and quickly when electricity lends a hand.

And when home-making had to be sandwiched in after war-plant hours, Mom learned that the touch of a finger-tip brought her a dozen willing servants for the cost of a candy bar.

Mom's back in the kitchen. And electric service—always ready, dependable and cheap—is there with her, making her tasks easier, her life more comfortable. Service like that just doesn't happen. It takes hard work and good business management. The men and women in Mom's electric company—and yours, too—make it possible.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

TED: "Clem and I were wonderin' what you thought of that new movie about the chronic alcoholic, Judge. Understand you saw it before we did."

OLD JUDGE: "Well... it's true most of us never see a case as extreme as that in real life because they are so few and far between. But it does point out one thing... chronic alcoholics are abnormal people and we've got to change our ideas about how to help them."

CLEM: "In what way, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "We've got to realize that excessive drinkers are suffering from more than a craving for alcohol. According to psychiatrists and medical men at one of our great universities, the alcoholic is a sick person. The study of hundreds of cases shows he is suffering from some physical, social or emotional condition... just as in the case of that poor chap in the picture. Fortunately, they represent only a very small percentage of those who drink."

TED: "Is anything being done to really help these folks, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Yes... a great deal in clinics throughout the country. And with the cooperation of the beverage distillers who sincerely want their product used only in moderation."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Our town has a Housing Shortage

Yes, sir, there's a real housing shortage in our town, as I guess there is in yours, too.

Keefer Cole, for instance, is sharing his home with a brother-in-law from Connecticut. Six children and a dog in one family; four children and three cats in the other.

I asked Keefer how they got along together—especially the grown-ups. Didn't they get a little edgy from the noise and crowding?

Keefer looks at me with a twinkle. "Sure," he says. "And when that happens, Sara and I just pass around four sparkling glasses of good beer... and that reminds everybody that there are still a lot of friendly, gracious pleasures that can help us make the best of things."

From where I sit, it's great to be able to relax during this strain of postwar living with a beverage that's truly moderate and wholesome, truly friendly.

Pick any one!—but get an OIL-PLATED engine

They're all good. And you can prove that you're a good chooser... by getting an OIL-PLATED engine.

Any car you buy... (or the one you still want to keep!)... will have OIL-PLATING on guard in the engine if you make it a point to use Conoco Nth motor oil. It's patented oil. It includes the added OIL-PLATING ingredient. And this acts magnet-like—to make your engine's fine inner finish attract lubricant that's durably surfaced right on... joined up or OIL-PLATED.

OIL-PLATING gives surfaces a barrier against wear. And wear is the big cause of carbon and sludge. So you can see why OIL-PLATING is just about a must if your car is a veteran—crying for its Spring change of oil. And with a new car you'll start right and keep right by using only Conoco Nth... oil that OIL-PLATES. Start for Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

Postpone Old Age for Five to Ten Years

Old age could be postponed for five to ten years for a large part of the population by the application of present medical knowledge, says Dr. W. J. Kerr, professor of medicine in the University of California Medical School.

Dr. Kerr says that the useful life span of persons incapacitated by some types of heart disease, such as hardening of the arteries, obesity, postural defects, and pulmonary emphysema, a destructive lung condition caused by labored breathing, could be lengthened, if medical science could secure cooperation in the following:

1. Correction of postural defects.
2. A physical fitness program.
3. Application of present dietary knowledge.

Dr. Kerr says these steps would maintain the circulatory system in good condition for a longer period and cut down the weight which causes an overload on the heart; nearly all the destruction of postural distortion and obesity would be eliminated.

As an example of what can be done under such a program, Dr.

Kerr cited a group of obese patients treated at the University of California Medical School.

These patients were generally in their fifties or sixties, who for years had been gaining in weight and losing stature. Their skin was discolored from poor circulation, the veins in their necks were distended and lungs showed irritation from heavy breathing, and poor posture had irritated the base of the spinal column.

A dietary regime was prescribed which reduced their weight to a level approaching their early adult life, and they were fitted with abdominal supporting belts, which Dr. Kerr helped to develop. Postural training was instituted.

The results were remarkable, says Dr. Kerr. More or less incapacitated at the beginning, the most of the patients were able to resume a gainful occupation, and their general health improved greatly.

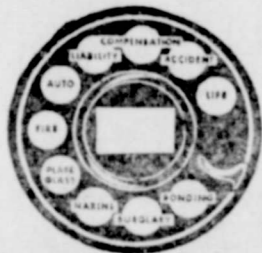

We need not await the discovery by science of the causes of heart diseases, high blood pressure, arthritis and other clinical states which are closely associated with the degenerative diseases," says Dr. Kerr.

While it is encouraging to look forward to the days when scientific research may provide the definite answers on some if not all of these diseases, much can and should be done now, he added.—Science News Letter, March 2, 1946.

"Easy does it"

Yes, "easy does it" when loading, unloading or handling livestock.

Bruises, crippling and death losses cost American stockmen 12 million dollars each year—equivalent to the value of a single file of market hogs stretching all the way from St. Louis to Chicago.

And the producers do pay those losses; directly through deaths and excessive shrink caused by bad loading and shipping practices... indirectly through bruises (we find them in over 20% of all livestock slaughtered!) which reduce the value of otherwise good carcasses. Yet a great part of those losses can be prevented with a little extra care when loading, unloading and handling.

- So, that's why we suggest "easy does it"—and that you keep these six "loss-stoppers" in mind:
- (1) Never beat animals with whips or clubs. Use canvas slappers or electric prods...
 - (2) Inspect chutes, trucks and cars for nails, splinters, etc...
 - (3) Furnish good footing; bed properly. For hogs, cover dry sand with straw for winter shipping; use wet sand in summer...
 - (4) Cover floors of loading or unloading chutes with straw...
 - (5) Do not overload. Partition mixed loads...
 - (6) Easy does it when trucking. Avoid sudden starts and stops. Check your load frequently for crowding.

We'll be glad to mail you instructive Agricultural Research Bulletin No. 20, "Preventing Losses in Handling Livestock." Address request to Department BB, Swift & Company, Chicago 9, Ill.

REMEMBER PRIZE LETTER CONTEST

closes May 1. $400 in cash prizes for best letters on "Methods Employed by Meat Packers in Marketing Meats, Poultry, Eggs, Butter, and Cheese." Soda Bill sez: ... that too many folks never let thinking interfere with their talking. ... that it seems like many hands want light work.

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

From time to time, it will be our policy to have various members of the Swift & Company organization write this column. So, let me introduce to you this month's "guest editor," T. G. (Tom) Chase, one of my associates in the Agricultural Research Department.

F.M. Simpson, Editor

There's an old story about a downstate cattle feeder who brought a load of steers to Chicago to be sold. He turned them over to his commission man, then wandered around the yards, for it was his first trip to Chicago. Soon he was back, all excited—"Sell those steers right away for whatever you can get. There's not enough people in the world to eat all the cattle I've seen here!"

The salesman managed to calm him down and sent him downtown to see the city. He landed in the heart of Chicago, took one look at the crowd of people, and dashed into a drugstore to phone his salesman. "Hold those steers of mine for the highest price. There's not enough meat in the world to feed all these people!"

This old story makes a good point. All of you know the price we can pay for your livestock is governed by what we can get for the meat and by-products. Also you know that what we can get for the meat and the by-products is greatly affected by the supply of livestock and the demand for meats. The ever-present problem among producers and meat packers is the matching of the supply with the demand, wherever the supply and demand may be. The job of nation-wide meat packers is to balance the supply of meat with the demand by efficient distribution of the meat to the places where people want to buy it.

Native Range Grasses may be supplemented by seeding abandoned land to adapted range grasses. Intermediate wheatgrass, crested wheatgrass, Russian wild rye, smooth brome grass, and western wheatgrass have done well in Colorado dry-land pastures. They may be seeded in early spring or late fall.

KEEP EWES WITH GOOD FLEECES

by Dean J. A. Hill, University of Wyoming

Before shearing time, range flock ewes should be carefully examined and the ones with poor fleeces marked for culling later. Experience in western states during 25 years has shown that 20 to 30% more wool per sheep can be obtained by the systematic selection of range ewes.

One livestock man reported that the average weight of fleeces from his flocks, of about 40,000 head, had increased nearly 3 pounds during a period of ten years of systematic culling in cooperation with the University of Wyoming. He got better lambs, too. Others report similar results obtained by searching out and discarding the ewes which are below standard in wool production.

With today's high costs, any range ewe which does not shear a big fleece of first-class wool is a money-loser. By a systematic examination, any flock master can find the ewes with fleeces which are one or more pounds less than the average of his flock. The agricultural colleges of practically all the western states are glad to help flock masters get started in a program of wool improvement.

Martha Logan's Recipe for CREOLE PORK CASSEROLE

(Yield: 9 Servings)

- 1 1/2 pounds ground pork shoulder
- 1 1/2 cups cooked tomatoes
- 1 1/2 cups grated cheese
- 3 onions
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/2 cups cooked macaroni
- 3/4 cup bread crumbs

Chop onions fine, and brown with pork in fry pan. Drain off fat. Add macaroni, tomatoes, cheese and salt. Turn into baking dish, cover with crumbs. Bake 45 minutes in a moderate oven (350° F.).

YOU RAISE 'EM— HE SELLS 'EM

It is a far cry—an average of over 1,000 miles—from livestock on the Western range to meat on the kitchen range. Ollie E. Jones is the man who, perhaps more than any other, helps bridge that gap.

Ollie Jones, born on a farm in central Illinois, has never lost his interest in agriculture. He now produces and feeds livestock on his 500-acre farm in Illinois.

Taking a beginner's job with Swift & Company, he learned the business literally "from the ground up." He advanced steadily through many divisions of the Company, to become vice president in charge of sales, advertising and merchandising.

The nationwide sales departments which he heads market more of the products of American farms and ranches than any other organization in the country. That's why we say at the start of this story, "You raise 'em—he sells 'em."

Alpine Guest Honored In Rankin Home

Mrs. Charles Brown of Alpine was honored at a bridal shower on Saturday afternoon, March 9. The party was held between the hours of 3 and 5 with Mrs. Evelyn Jo Moore, Mrs. H. Wheeler and Kathleen Wheeler hostesses.

Arrangements of pink and white carnations decorated the party rooms and refreshments of punch and cake were served the guests.

The honoree, the former Mary Jo Warren, received many lovely gifts as well as a file containing forty favorite recipes of those attending the party.
