What Price Education?

(INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE)

When some discouraged superintendent opens the door to his classroom this fall, stares wistfully at the empty desk before some 30 youngsters, and yawns for the "little woman who isn't there," perhaps he can gather some comfort from the fact that there are four of his fellow schoolmen who have no teachers at all.

Just how bad is the teacher shortage? The best answer is found in the results of a survey conducted in July by the Texas State Teachers' Association. The over-all shortage is—12.6 per cent vacancies with a sadder outlook. Figures for rural schools show 17 per cent vacancies in their faculties.

Before September 1, there were 4,266 vacancies out of 33,681 positions available in the state. Mr. Charles Tennyson, director of public relations for the Association, reported. Out of 1250 questionnaires mailed, he received 804 replies on which he based his report.

The survey covered these questions: How many positions are available? How many vacancies do you expect by the time school opens? What are your salary increases?

The big cities seem to be suffering the least. Houston, for example, out of 2500 positions had only 50 vacancies. Dallas, out of 1735 positions, reported on 20 jobs to be filled, and also showed salary increases from 10 to 15 per cent.

In the smaller towns from the oil fields of East Texas to the most northern border towns, the story seems about the same. Brownsville with 81 positions, needed 15 teachers, even with a 20 per cent increase in pay. Kingsville raised their teachers' salaries 8 per cent and lacked 21 teachers to round out their staff of 110. Wink needed 5 more teachers and had granted a 15 per cent pay-hike. Gatesville agreed on a five per cent increase and lacked four teachers out of a faculty of 48.

Results of the poll showed 50 per cent of the schools, excluding Equalization schools, of course, had given their faculty some sort of living adjustment. Increases ranged from five to 40 per cent.

There is no mystery... no secret... why superintendents of State Aid schools have been traveling this summer throughout the State for teachers for their 1, 2, 3, 8 teacher schools, or for the consolidated schools. Their salaries are fixed by law. Maximum salary for a school man or woman with ten years of experience and a Ph.D. degree is $1485; ten years and a M. A. degree brings only $1458. And the salary for the newcomer, who has one year college training is $1215.

There are 2900 schools operating under the Equalization (Rural Aid or State Aid) plan, who have 16,062 teaching positions. Last year there were 478,000 scholastics in these schools. Next year's census will doubtless show even more.

Any relief in sight? No, not for ten years, says Miss Miriam Dozier, secretary to the teachers' appointment committee at the University of Texas. Our teacher "crop" is short also. Usually 1,000 register for jobs. This year only 300 were on Miss Dozier's files.

Superintendents have had a long, hard summer. One traveled over 700 miles to fill four positions, and admitted he was whipped. "I used to interview the teacher-prospects. Now they put me through a third degree, and then decline."

Today's Johnny doesn't have to dream of burning down the schoolhouse, especially if he lives in a farm community. He knows the teacher will have her hands so full trying to teach five grades instead of one that she won't notice him. And there's always the chance that maybe SHE won't come back next year.

Nil. Newspaper Week-Time for Re-dedication

BY FRED HILL, PRESIDENT
NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION

In the early Colonial days, John Peter Zenger, the second editor in the colonies, was forced to fight for his right to comment in his "Weekly Journal" upon the acts of the governor. With Alexander Hamilton as his attorney, the case was won, and the freedom of the press established. English editors for more than a hundred years had attempted to gain that ground, but without success. Thus we see a new freedom established many years before the Constitution of the United States was written. This had its bearing in the wording of the First Amendment, which provided for freedom of speech, the press, religion and assembly.

No time in history have the editors of the 11,000 weekly, semi-weekly and small daily newspapers been faced with so great a responsibility. Social upheavals, the result of the war, have brought to the surface many isms, few of which reflect the American way of life. To combat these will require the united efforts of editors in the smaller communities of these United States. Here we find the true foundations of our democracy, where straight thinking and the application of horse-sense are in every-day use. False doctrines and panaceas do not square with sound government nor the preservation of free enterprise.

The task of continuing the fight for the American way of life falls upon the so-called "country" editor, and with his community behind him, he can, and will, lead this nation to new and greater heights. Our forefathers left the plow standing in the field to fight for the freedoms we enjoy. No such price is asked of us—only that we stand foursquare in defense of those rights. A noted law-enforcement officer has stated that "any town, city or community may have just the right kind of law enforcement it demands." We of the "grass roots" can make demands which will be heard in Washington, and the editors can, and must, lead the way.

Of equal and grave importance to our nation's welfare is parental delinquency. We have smoke-screened the issue by calling it "juvenile." Some judges have been bold enough to arrest the parents rather than the children. The salvation of this or any other nation, and our civilization as well, rests within the home. Here the future leaders and rulers are being trained for the tasks ahead. In the social upheavals the home is going on the rocks, parents are shirking their responsibilities. Steadily the major crimes are being committed

REGIONAL ROUNDUP
BY JAMES CARLL

The Wink Wildcats, playing their second home game of the season, defeated the Jal, N. M., Panthers by a score of 31-6, scoring every quarter and playing in the Panthers' territory throughout the game except on the lone touchdown play made by the visitors late in the 3rd quarter, when a pass from Reid, of Jal, to Joiner, Jal fullback, for 15 yds. and with Joiner traveling 65 yds. to paydirt.

Displaying a marked improvement, both on offense and defense, the Wildcats started the scoring in the mid part of the first quarter after a pass from Gann to Eberling, Wink end, for 20 yds., put the ball in scoring position aided by Wayne Pearson and Gilbert Downey with Dewayne Phillips skirting right end for the marker from about the 12 yd. stripe. Gann kicked for point, no good. The Panthers then opened up a passing attack that netted them one of the first downs of the game and which was finally broken up by Wildcats Robbie Allen and Bobby Gann, after the Panthers had completed a 25 yd. run to the Wink 35 line. The quarter ended with the score: Wink 6, Jal 0.

At the beginning of the second stanza, Gilbert Downey, Bobby Gann, and Dewayne Phillips successfully carried the ball from their own 17 yd. line to tally in the early part of the quarter on a pass from Gann to Eberling with Gann circling left for the extra point. On the kickoff by Wink, Jal received on their own 35 line and failing to make first down, kicked to W. Pearson on the Wildcats' 35 stripe, where he returned the punt for 3 yds. Again Phillips, Downey, Gann and W. Pearson started another touchdown trek that was nipped by the Panthers when Reid intercepted a Wildcat pass on the Jal 43 yd. stripe. On the next play, Phillips of Wink intercepted a Jal pass and was smothered in his tracks by the Jal players. Gene Dow, starting back for the Wildcats who has not seen much service due to a twisted knee in practice session, replaced Phillips and tossing a pass to Downey which was incomplete and then heaved the next one to Gann for 12 yds. and a first down, ending the half: Wink 12, Jal 0.

Jal kicked off to Wink after the half and with Gann, Downey and Phillips carrying from the Jal 34, Downey again scored, going through the entire team of the Panthers from the 18 yd. line. Gann kicked out but was no good. Jal not making a first, kicked to Gann who returned the ball for 40 yds., and with Gann passing to Bobby Marsh for a substantial gain, and Downey going through the line for another score for the Wildcats. Lee Peters' kick was blocked by the Panthers. On the kickoff, Jal failed for first and kicked to Gann who returned for 25 yds. to the Panthers' 25 where a lateral pass, Downey to Peters for score was called back due to a Wink penalty, but with Phillips, Gann and Downey carrying to the one-yd. stripe where Gann plunged for the tally. Gann's attempt to pass was no good for the extra tally. It was late in this quarter when Reid of Jal tossed a pass to Joiner for 15 yds. and with Joiner outrunning Gann and Downey scampered 65 yds for the lone tally made by the Panthers, ending the quarter: Wink 31, Jal 6.

Coming back strong in the fourth and determined to avenge the Jal tally, the Wildcats received deep in their own territory, and with Lawson, Gann and Phillips on the way to the one-yd. stripe, with Gann carrying over for score from that spot. Gann's kick was good. With both teams fumbling after the kickoff, Wink recovered on the Jal 25, where Bobby Marsh galloped for 24 yds. before being hauled down from behind, but with Lawson scoring on the next play through the line. Gann's kick was again no good. Wink kicked off to Jal who lost the ball on an interception by Wildcat Robbie Allen on the Panthers' 33 stripe. Lawson to Eddie Hanks, guard on a lateral by the "teen-agers." Again this flood must be stemmed in the smaller communities, where all are neighbors. Public sentiment can be aroused, and to the colors the editor can rally the church, the school, social and civic clubs. Some "country" editor will get a plan under way which will be a "shot that will be heard around the world."

These two challenges face the editors of the United States today. They have never failed their country in time of danger, and during National Newspaper Week they will dedicate anew their lives to the best interests of a great nation; will give in unselfish service to the communities in which they reside.

eral pass after almost being tackled by Reid of Jal, netted 15 yds., and with Gann tossing a pass to Phillips putting the ball on the Jal 10 yd. line where Downey scored through the line standing up. On the following ktk-off, the Panthers started another passing attack but the game ended with the ball in Wink territory.

Final score: Wink 51, Jal 6.
First Downs: Wink 27, Jal 2.
The Panther band and pep squad accompanied the team here, along with several hundred Jal supporters. Approximately 2,500 people attended the game.

Pecos County, famous for the size and quality of its feeder lambs, set high marks for the year here in sales of the last week, both for Rambouillet and cross-bred lambs.

Jack Allison sold 4,468 head of Rambouillet mutton lambs at $14.25 to Lowell Brakey. They weighed an average of 67 lbs. and netted the grower $9.61 per head.

M. C. Puckett's cross-bred lambs weighed 78.6 pounds and were bought by the same buyer at $14.75 a hundred, netting the grower $11.53 per head on the 1105 mutton lambs sold. Brakey in turn sold the mutton lambs to James Brooks of Brady for $15.00.

Both of the Pecos County ranchmen retained their ewe lambs for breeding stock, and are marketing old ewes.

Movement of spreader ewes has been unusually heavy as the ranchmen of the area reduce their herds in preparation for a difficult winter season of scarce grass and almost non-obtainable feeds. Many old dry ewes have moved by rail in recent days at an average price of around $4.50, reports County Agent, W. T. Posey.

Four-H Club members of Pecos County will enter 18 lambs and five choice beef calves in the stock shows at the Texas State Fair in Dallas opening Oct. 5, and a truck load of stock will leave for Dallas tomorrow with County Agent W. T. Posey and club members Billy Gene Hill and Sonny Warnock in charge. A week's time has been allotted to let the stock recover from the trip and be fitted for the show.

A West-Pyle Cattle Co. truck has been loaned for the trip and this afternoon the three calves of Billy Gene and Thomas Hill will be loaded at Longfellow and four lambs of Lowell Jessup and four of David and Nancy Mitchell also will be picked up. Tomorrow morning local animals will be added to the group and the long trip to Dallas will begin.

From Fort Stockton will go 2 calves and 3 lambs fed by Sonny Warnock, 4 lambs by Jack and Floyd Henley and 2 crossbred and 2 fine-wool lambs by Sim Reeves, Jr.

For the stock judging on opening day of the Fair, Oct. 5, Mrs. Posey will take a number of other Club members to Dallas to join the party taking the truck and stock.

The Pecos County boys again will camp at Fair Park, and this year their cooking problems will be lightened by the contribution of an electric stove and grill by Dr. J. F. Gipson.

Meat-on-the-hoof will go on sale by auction at the State Fair as 400 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America boys auction off all the livestock they bring to the State Fair at the Junior Livestock Sale, scheduled for 10 a. m. Tuesday, Oct. 8, in the Livestock Arena.

About 250 steers, 250 hogs and 100 lambs will go to the highest bidders as the young exhibitors sell their prize stock.

OPA has granted the auction committee authority to sell above ceiling price to individuals who may store the meat in frozen food lockers or to restaurants stocking up.

John Cole, Upton County "motion picture actor" and rancher, has offered to brew us up a batch of ice cream. Seems that he and Oliver Jacobsen, ramrod of the Double-O spread, have formed an ice cream combine. For further information, consult John or Oliver. Meanwhile, we pass, since we've had a demonstration!

In reference to John's acting fame, we wish to point out that some of our better-constructed lovelies have their gams insured for ten bucks to a hundred thousand smackers. Now John's gams wouldn't bring much at auction, but we believe that he should—by all means—have his teeth insured... and there-above lies a tale. Once again, we suggest that you consult John or Oliver for further information.

Mac the Barber... as he shall henceforth be known in this your home-town news sheet... went to the movie the other evening. Mac says the show was good—what he could hear of it. It seems that Mac had some little trouble keeping the boot of a local character from rearing out his ear. The way Mac tells it, this character sat directly behind him and insisted upon keeping his foot in the small of Mac's back, over a shoulder or in his ear.

We beg of this local character, "do not attempt to ream out Mac's ear. Also, do not plant your brogans between his shoulder blades. Double also, do not use Mac's shoulders for a boot-rack."

"You see, Character, when Mac shaved us this A. M., he began raising and lowering his shoulders to get the kinks out. At the same time, he asked Sam, the bootblack, to rub him between his shoulder blades. And he also began scratching his left ear with his razor.

"Now, Character, it is obvious that you—by your actions while seated behind Mac in the cinema—endangered his life and ours. Because—every time Mac raised and lowered his shoulders, his razor went up—and down. With our tender face under it. Secondly, as everyone knows, Sam the bootblack, has fists like lumps of lead, so that every time he rubbed Mac's back he raised the poor guy a foot off the floor, then let him down hard. Now Mac's razor went up and down with his body. Again, we state, our face was located directly under Mac's razor. Thirdly, Character, every time that Mac scratched his left ear with his razor, he took out a nick, then took a nick out of our pus.

"Heck, Character, my blood type can't be the same as Mac the Barber's... or can it?"

FRIDAY ROUNDUP

Southwest markets reported higher prices for cotton, grain, poultry and eggs last week, stronger trends for livestock, and a weak undertone for most vegetables, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Prices of most grain moved up higher last week as supplies began to tighten. Wheat gained one to two cents a bu., oats and corn three, and barley two cents. Sorghums lost gains made early in the week but closed higher. Feed was unsettled.

Domestic wools were active in Boston and producing areas due to a rumor of a price increase. Rush of buying took 10 million pounds of Texas wool. Adult mohair sold at 61c.

Spring lambs and aged sheep were generally up 25 to 50c a cwt. last week over the previous week's close. Southwest markets reported active trading for light supplies. Good and choice springers realized $17.75 to $18.25, Wichita; $17.75 to $18, Denver; $17.50 to $18, Oklahoma City, and $17 Fort Worth. Mostly ewes showed up at San Antonio where common and medium kinds sold at $6.50 to $7.

A meagre supply of hogs brought ceiling prices at all markets. Most southwest cattle markets reported light receipts last week with heavy runs of stockers. Active trading cleared most offerings at steady to stronger prices. Houston quoted stocker steers at $13.50 and canner and cutter cows 50c higher at $6.50 to $8.50 a cwt. Medium and good cows brought $10.50 and stocker calves $14 to $15.65 at San Antonio. Medium and good slaughter steers and yearlings realized $15 to $18, Fort Worth, and $15.25 to $17.25, Oklahoma City. Denver sold common and good stocker and feeder steers at $10 to $16. Wichita moved medium and good light stocker steers and yearlings at $14 to $16.

Poultry and eggs found only fair demand last week despite meat shortage. Most dealers attributed this to rising prices. Current receipt eggs ranged from 40 to 45c depending on locality. Heavy hens brought 40 to 41c a pound, New Orleans; 28 to 30c, Fort Worth, 26 to 30c, Denver, and 26 to 28c, Dallas.

An official and comprehensive summary of the daily livestock market is now being broadcast direct from the Union Stockyards in San Antonio at 13:30 p. m. over KWBU, the 50,000 watt station in Corpus Christi.

This public service program, an invaluable aid to cattle raisers throughout South Texas, has just been launched following conclusion of negotiations between G. C. Hagelstein, president of the San Antonio Stock Yards, Glen L. Ellison, local representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Homer Hogan, manager of KWBU.

The broadcasts, originating from a special radio booth in the Livestock Exchange Building, are prepared and presented over the microphone by Mr. Ellison, well known marketing specialist with years of experience in that particular field.

These latest livestock reports are on the air Monday through Friday with farm news immediately following at 12:35 p. m. KWBU is in the middle of the dial at 1030 kilocycles. The pens and facilities of the Union Stock Yards at San Antonio, a service unit, now enlarged, has been a terminal center for marketing of all species of meat animals from some 100 counties in Texas, and points in adjoining states, since Sept. 25, 1889. Prior to the building of the original stockyards by a group of Texans, there were several smaller sets of pens in the southwestern side of the city, but at the ending of the long cattle drives to northern marketing points and the coming of railroads to San Antonio, these far-sighted Texas ranchmen, and those of other professions here, saw the need for the building of larger and better equipped stock yards on the several railroads, resulting in economy and better centralized competitive trading. Over past 57 years, the market has grown to be nationally recognized as one of the top bracket, major marketing terminals and packing centers of the U. S. In 1945 approximately $40,000,000 went to ranchmen and farmers of the territory for their 1,543,142 head of livestock sold here on the yards.

Many modern improvements and acreage has been added to the yards, with most recent addition of 6.59 acres adjoining. This essential industry and institution was recently granted a permit for construction of a part, or first unit, new unloading truck docks, costing $56,700, on this new land. Further improvements on new and other undeveloped land are on the stockyards expansion program as soon as materials become available to meet urgent need due to growth and keeping pace with increased demands of consumer population and larger area shipping here.

The San Antonio Central Livestock Market, on the Union Stockyards, not only has furnished a consistent daily open competitive market for thousands of shippers from all over the Southwest, but, including company personnel and the 12 US Bonded Commission Firms, Packing Plants, Butcher Plants, and allied industries, has furnished employment for several thousand men and women, not only of city but from many counties in the area.

Holley Reports On Paralysis Foundation

Mr. A. B. Holley, Chairman of the Upton County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, disclosed today that $2,492,281 in supplementary aid has been sent so far this year by the National Foundation to its chapters in 36 states.

This financial assistance was necessary to replenish chapter treasuries depleted in providing treatment and care of infantile paralysis patients stricken this summer and in aiding victims of prior outbreaks.

Holley made this disclosure following receipt of a statement from Basil O'Connor, President of the National Foundation, which re-emphasized the fundamental policy followed by the Foundation and its chapters in providing for care and treatment of infantile paralysis victims.

O'Connor's statement said: "The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has accepted a public trust through the annual March of Dimes. The voluntary contributions of the American people to this annual appeal in January is their insurance that no infantile paralysis patient need go without the best medical care and treatment, regardless of age, race, creed or color.

"It has always been the policy of the National Foundation to aid any person stricken by this disease, where the financial burden would otherwise lower his or her family's standard of living.

"Such aid covers transportation of the patient to and from hospitals and clinics; payment of hospitalization, medical care and treatment until maximum recovery is achieved; the defraying of nursing and physical therapy charges, and costs of orthopedic surgery, as well as provision of such special appliances as may be indicated.

"Resources necessary for this tremendous task are available. They were donated by some 50,000,000 Americans who realized that costs involved in the care and treatment of this disease, one of the most expensive known to medicine, are far beyond average family means.

"Through pooling dimes the nation has established a voluntary, non-profit organization to take care of any one stricken by polio. I want to assure every family in this country that if polio should strike, local chapters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis serving every county in the nation are ready and able to provide every possible facility until maximum recovery is assured."

Now That Fall Is Here BY ROSIE

THE PANTHER - BADGER football game highlighted the week end for most of the gadabouts. With the weather just right for football, quite a crowd gathered to see the Badgers down the Panthers by 12-0. As usual, the band furnished inspiration for the players, and at the half gave a very clever demonstration, aided by a smaller "German" band who played "Ten Pretty Girls" with many snorts, blows, and gestures, while the Baadger Band danced the step. The pep squad with leaders Martha Lou Neal, Clara Mae Tennyson, Connie Rae Allison, Molly Fox, and Erlene Bone urged the Gadgers on down the line.

FURNISHING competition for the Badger Band was the Panther Band, under the direction of Sim Reeves, with its humorous formations on the field at the half, in which the high stepping Drum Major Steve Willard couldn't quite keep up with his band and had to be replaced by the little Drum Major, Wilfred Carico. This intentional stunt brought a lot of laughs as well as a round of applause from the spectators. Majorettes Nancy Mayes and Dotsie Stevenson looked all right, too. The Panther Pep Squad sounded well under the leadership of Bobbie Rae Payne, Billie Bell Winters, Shirley Smith, Jo Mohler and Mary Ann Butz.

WORKING in the Concession Stand the night of the Stockton-McCamey game were the Juniors, and from all accounts they were doing fairly well. Some of the things they were making money on were hot dogs, doughnuts, coffee, soda pop, candy and a few caramel apples for the starry-eyed children. Miss McClain and Miss Ann Ellis, Junior Sponsors, and the following room mothers: Mmes. V. V. Randall, Jess Wade, F. W. Culwell, Tom Rowell, Ed Cletcher, and Wm. Wolf, along with different students, started planning and buying a couple of weeks in advance. By doing this they had a few of the scarce articles such as chewing gum, cracker jacks, and Nestle's chocolates. The Juniors, sponsors, and room mothers would like to express their appreciation to Mr. Jimmie Eaton, of the Frozen Food Lockers, for collecting 15 cases of their drinks without charge, Mr. F. W. Culwell and Mr. Ed Cletcher for delivering the drinks to the concession stand, and everyone else who helped in any way.

THERE WAS an after-the-game dance Friday night at the American Legion Hall, with Mrs. Kedziora and Mrs. Sumrall chaperoning. Music was furnished by juke box, featuring all the latest hits. Spectators from Crane and the Fort Stockton Band stayed for awhile, also a few of the Sul Ross students who were over for the Panther-Badger game. Some of the dates were: Charlie Young and Patsy George, Curtis and Erlene, Martha Lou and Billie Bob, Malcolm and Jeannine.

THE SENIOR 4-H Club girls met on Tuesday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock in the high school music room for their second meeting this year. It was decided to make wide leather belts with gold nail-heads for projects. The Club would like to extend an invitation to all girls in Junior and Senior High School to join it.

A BIG SUCCESS was the Mexican Supper sponsored by the Methodist Young People's Department, under the leadership of Mrs. Randolph Moore, given on Tuesday night, Oct. 1, from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock. The supper was given for the purpose of raising funds to purchase recreational equipment for the Young People's Department. Those serving this delicious meal were Mr. and Mrs. Moore, James Hale, Janice Fuller, Earl Husted, Erlene Husted, Claudyne Brown, Virginia

DANCING at the Ace of Clubs in Odessa last Wednesday night were Nellie Ruth Davis and George McCamey, Bob, Margie Ramsey and Norman Hale.

AMONG those going over to the Sul Ross-ACC game Saturday night were those two wolves, Peidom Todd and Rodney Martin.

ENTERTAINING Barbara on her seventh birthday, was her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Hollifield, on Thursday, Sept. 26, at 4 o'clock. Cake and hot chocolate and favors of candy mints were served the following youngsters:

Sonja and Sonny Jacobsen, Sherry Noel, Rodney and Albert Cates, Connie Belcher, Jenny Lou Gillette, Dickie and Dean Manigle, Delight and Nelson Huffman, Susan Heasley, Johnny Wade, Betty and Melba Davis, Fran and Jimmy Slaughter, Nancy and William Franklin, Nelda Burress, Janice and Shirley Strong, Bobbie Jones, Edward Hass, and Paula Boyd.

Helping Mrs. Hollifield were Mrs. J. D. Carter, Dorothy Carter, and Mrs. E. O. Davis.

HITTING the night spots in Odessa Saturday night were Marie Elms, Guinn Pounds, Margie Ramsey and Bill Haywood . . . at the Ace of Clubs.

STEADY AS EVER are Janice Fuller and James Hale. One never sees the one without the other.

VISITING in the home of Beatrice Wolf after the Stockton-McCamey game were Bobby Payne, Shirley Smith, Billie Bell Winters and Mary Ann Butts of Fort Stockton.

RETURNING back to work after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ramsey, was Margie Ramsey, who is employed by the Southwestern Life Insurance Co. in Dallas.

VISITING last week end in Lubbock were Erlene Bone and Doris Jean Freeman. They attended the Texas Tech-West Texas State Teachers College game Saturday, and the dance after the game. They stayed with Sarah Dillingham and Margie Sanders in their dorm.

ENJOYING a picnic Saturday night under the Galvin Bridge (it was raining) were Sue Berry, Ward Gregory, Jeannine Holmes, Malcolm Ham, Virginia Henderson, Bill Wilson, Nelda Stacy and Bob Ruble.

HOME again for the week end activities was Curtis Thomas. He and Erlene, Guy Allison and Shirley Smith of Fort Stockton were riding around towards Odessa Saturday.

MORE GOING to the Sul Ross-ACC game Saturday were Molly and Dumps, Patsy George and Charlie Young.

DELICIOUS drinks and cookies were served by Mrs. Weddle when the Baptist Young People met Tuesday night in their regular choir practice and recreational meeting. They showed a very good improvement and worked up a special number to be sung in the Sunday morning service. The voices of the following were appreciated: Dorothy and Dewey Baldwin, Mattie Adams, Mrs. Key, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Jack Strickland, Era Vaughn Teel, Don, Mary Lou and Patsy Coplen, Tommy Simmons, Mr. Carrol, Emma Lou, Betty and Bernice Weddle, Loretta Russell and Daisy House.

Badgers Defeat Ft. Stockton, 12-0

The McCamey Badgers, surging back from a 6-0 defeat at the hands of Seminole, decisively bottled the Fort Stockton Panther victory scream last Friday night when they fished their way to a 12-0 win in a game played in McCamey's Badger stadium before a sell-out crowd of 2,300 shrieking football addicts.

The pay-off thrusts came as a result of bullet passes from the potent mit of quadruple-threat fullback Malcolm Ham, who tossed to Pauley in the third stanza for 21 yards and a touchdown.

In the fourth quarter, the Badgers loosed their second and final touchdown drive. Ham rammed for six yards to the Panther 44, then passed to David Pauley for a 23-yard gain to the 21. Gregory ran into a solid wall on the next play for no gain. Ham ball-hawked a fumble, racing 15 feet to submarine a Fort Stockton Panther whose claws were almost in possession.

Ham passed down the middle to Bill Wilson, rangy Badger end, for 9, then tossed another pass down the same slot to Wilson, who evaded three Panthers and scuttled across the goal line for the final marker of the game.

The Panthers threatened once. In the third quarter, Barton, Reeves and McKenzie worked the ball down to the Badger 21, only to have the drive bog down.

The Badgers racked up nine first downs, Fort Stockton six. In yardage gained, the Badgers made 153 on the ground and 77 via the air lanes for a total of 230, while the Panthers rushed for 104 and failed to make a single yard through the air.

DOPE SHEET

BY CHUCK

On the basis of Friday night's score sheet, the Badgers loom as a distinct threat to the peace of mind of every team remaining on their schedule. They completely dominated the play against the Fort Stockton Panthers excepting in the early minutes of the third quarter, when the Barton-sparked Fort Stockton team engineered a drive which carried to the Badger 21 before fizzling out.

A comparison of the Pecos and Badger showings against the Panthers gives the Badgers an edge on defensive play, since Pecos had trouble stopping several Panther drives, one of which carried to the Pecos 5.

On offense, the Badgers revealed versatility in huge gobs when they unveiled a number of ground-gaining and opposition-befuddling t-formation plays to nullify the work of Ft. Stockton scouts who had charted the Badger play against both Seminole and Lakeview.

One big question mark remains, that being reserves, of which the Badgers have virtually nil. If they can come through the season without serious injuries, they stand an excellent chance of playing their opponents even-steven.

This improvement speaks well of the work of Coaches Wagnon and Bryant.

Iraan, whom we play in Iraan on Oct. 11, defeated Stanton (strength unknown) last Friday night at Iraan by a score of 32-13.

Pecos defeated Ysleta 18-7 last Friday, with Medanich again doing most of the scoring. Tonto Coleman, who coaches Abilene Christian College, saw the game and said that Medanich is one of the best high school backs in Texas.

Wink won its third straight, shearing Hobbs 20-6 in a game played at Wink. Gene Dow, Bobby Gann and Dewayne Phillips did most of the shearing for the Winks.

Pecos, whom we play here on Oct. 18, won from Ysleta by a score of 12-7. Ysleta came close to taking this one, Pecos stopping the victory-surge on its own 3.

Monahans, our next opponent, whacked Winters of District 9-A, 14 to 6.

Iraan Braves Defeat Stanton Buffaloes

Playing under the watchful eyes of scouts from four rival schools, the Iraan Braves won the first Conference game of the season Friday night from Stanton's Buffaloes, 33-12. Because of the presence of visiting gum-shoes, the Braves stuck to straight football with an occasion pass. The entire football squad from Crane was present and note-takers from McCamey, Fort Stockton and Marfa were present to see the game.

The Braves again ran afoul of the rule book in large quantities. Three touchdowns were called back on Iraan because of violations of the rules, everything from backfield-in-motion to holding was called by the eagle-eyed officials who let nothing get past their observation. However, despite these setbacks, Iraan won easily and could have amassed a larger total had Coaches Covin and Lowrance elected to keep the pressure on the Buffaloes. During the last quarter, the local mentors played reserves largely and the Buffaloes responded to this treatment by pushing over a couple of touchdowns to avoid getting completely blanked in the scoring.

The visiting eleven was a fine looking squad when members trotted out on the field. Plenty of speed and weight was noticeable, and, with more experience, Stanton will prove a tough customer. Also, the visiting pep squad made a fine impression on local fans. There was never a letup in the support accorded the Buffaloes on the part of these feminine rooters.

Captain McFaddin scored the first Iraan touchdown, going over on a smash inside end from the 24 yd. line. Try for point was missed. The second marker came in the second quarter, McFaddin again scoring from the 5 yd. line, following which Owens took a pass for the extra point. There was no more scoring during the first half.

In the third quarter, the Braves racked up three more touchdowns with Cade, Whitefield and McFaddin doing the ball carrying. Only one point after touchdown was made during this flurry and the coaches substituted an entire new team following the last marker.

Stanton greeted this new team by proceeding with the business of breaking into the scoring column. The Buffaloes completed a series of short passes to put the ball in scoring position and Fullback White, a 160 pound lad with plenty of drive, smashed over for the marker. Points after were missed on both tries. Against the Iraan reserves, Stanton made most of the first downs registered during the evening. In this department, the count was even, both Stanton and Iraan making ten first downs each. However, Iraan made seven 20-yd. penetrations to Stanton's two. Iraan was penalized a total of 75 yds. for rule infractions, three of these rule-violations costing touchdowns as has been previously noted.

The Braves left Friday morning for Marfa. They will engage the Marfa Shorthorns in a non-district joust that should prove a hard-fought game. Marfa has showed steady improvement and last week smothered the Grandfalls eleven under an avalanche of touchdowns.

The starting lineup against Stanton follows:
Ends—Owens and Ford
Tackles—D. Martin and Powell
Guards—Meynig and Herndon
Center—Phillips
Backs—Rowe, Cade, Whitefield and McFaddin (c)
Iraan substitutes: Fife, Hesson, McMillian, R. Martin, Clinton, Burns, Watson, Dempsey, Yates, McCarver, Kimbrough, Stanton, Cox, Miller, Huddleston.

Monahans Lobos Take Winters Blizzards 14-6

The Winters Blizzards blew fast and furiously here last Friday night and it took all the heat the Monahans Lobos could turn on—plus some good luck—to give the local boys a 14 to 6 victory the District 9-A aggregation.

Paced by three hard running backs, Farnes, Barnes and Anderson and with two mighty ends in the Krutz brothers, Winters rocked the Lobos back on their heels with a hard charging line and a beautifully executed running and passing attack.

Monahans had the edge in the running plays, picking up 161 yds. from scrimmage to 136 for Winters, but the Blizzards more than made up this deficit thru the air with a total of 113 yds. gained by passing to 53 for Monahans. Winters completed 8 passes out of 15 attempts and the Lobos connected 3 times out of 7 tries. Monahans fumbled once and recovered twice and Winters fumbled twice and recovered once. Two Blizzard passes were intercepted by Monahans and penalties were even at 10 yds. each. Donaldson punted twice, once for 46 yds. and once for 50, while Winters' only attempt to punt was blocked by Frisbie.

Don Bingham put Monahans out in front midway in the first quarter after Ted Scown had recovered a Winters fumble on the Lobo 42 yd. line. Scown picked up 11 yds. and an off side penalty set Monahans back 5 yds. With fourth down and 4 to go, Scown passed to James Cleveland who lateraled to Bingham for 41 yds. and the first score. Donaldson added the extra point.

Monahans kicked off and Winters started another drive that carried to the Lobo 25 where Scown intercepted a pass and returned it midfield. Two plays carried to the Winters 37 where the Monahans attack bogged down and Winters took over as the quarter ended. Mixing line plays with short passes, the Blizzards carried to the 2 from where Barnes went over for the score. The try for extra point was wide and Monahans led 7 to 6.

Monahans took the next kick-off and had moved to the Winters 24 yard line when the half ended. The Lobos drove to midfield after receiving the third quarter kick-off before they fumbled and Winters recovered. The Blizzards could get no farther than the 20, however, and Monahans took over, rolled up a couple of first downs and Donaldson kicked to the Winters 10, raced down the field and brought down the receiver on the 20. An attempted quick kick was blocked a few minutes later by Frisbie who recovered for Monahans on the Lobo 46 stripe.

Griffin scooted 24 yds. around left end to the Blizzards' 30. Scown went 12 to the Blizzard 18, two more line plays put the ball on the 6. Winters was off side, moving the ball to the one from where Don Bingham went over standing up for the final score shortly after the fourth quarter opened. Donaldson again made the extra point. Score Monahans 14, Winters 6.

Winters carried the next kickoff back to their own 40 and with the aid of a 37 yd. pass completion, Barnes to Farnes, carried to the Monahans 1 where Randolph recovered a fumble. Donaldson kicked out to midfield and Scown intercepted a Blizzard pass as the game was over.

Trailing 7 to 6 early in the fourth quarter, Winters missed a sure touchdown when B. Kurtz, hefty Blizzard end, was wide open in left field, but the pass was too long for him to reach. Again in the final period, this time trailing 14 to 6, the Blizzards fumbled away a score on the Lobo 1 yd. market.

Monahans, too, might have scored again in the second period had they operated a little faster in the huddle. The Lobos took the kickoff and drove to the Winters 24 without losing the ball but the half time intermission caught them here when they seemed to have up plenty of steam and were rolling.

There is no question that Monahans beat a good team on Friday—whether they could do it again is a question but no one will have to worry about that.

Cleveland, Frisbie, Scown, Bingham, Donaldson and Randolph stood out for Monahans, both offensively and defensively.

Buying Wisely
Through Study
Of Labels

Careful study of labels is one of the first steps to wise buying, according to Dorothy L. Snelling, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Basis for study is the three kinds of information that labels convey:

First, each label must contain the name of the brand, name of the product, contents, name of the packer and where it was packed. This information is required by the Pure Food and Drugs Act.

Various uses and recipes may appear on the label if the producer desires. And last, many labels inform the buyer whether the product is U. S. Grade A, B, or C. U. S. Grade A products are "excellent" in appearance and flavor and as nearly free from defects as is possible for any food to be. U. S. Grade B means "good" in flavor and nutritious quality, but not quite as perfect as A. U. S. Grade C, or "fair," should be used for thrift.

For special occasions when wholesomeness and shape, color and flavor are most important, Miss Snelling advises using U. S. Grade A products. For average use, such as in scalloped tomatoes or peach upside down cake, she says U. S. Grade B is just as good. U. S. Grade C foods may be used where pieces or pulp are used in combination with other foods, such as cream of tomato soup or peach pie.

All U. S. graded foods must bear the shield on the wrapper with the words, "Packed under the continuous inspection of the U. S. Department of Agriculture," which assures the buyer of sanitary conditions during packing.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Bert Childers and the Melon Patch

Bert Childers put an ad in the Clarion the other day. Here's what it said:
"Planted more melons than I can eat this year. Stop by and pick as many as you want. All free."

As you can guess, plenty of folks sent their kids over and plenty of the parents came too. Stripped Bert's melon patch in no time. And as they went away, Bert treated the kids to lemonade, and offered the grownups a glass of ice-cold sparkling beer.

Naturally it puzzled some folks... but Bert explains: "It gives me a kick to share things when I can afford to—whether it's the melons, or the lemonade, or beer. I guess I just like to indulge my whims."

From where I sit, if we had more "self-indulgent" people like Bert—who believe in share and share alike, live and let live, this tired world would be a whole lot better off.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME: WHEREAS, the forests of Texas are of vital importance in supplying wood products essential to home building and other uses in the State; and,

WHEREAS, an average of 6,500 forest fires annually burn over almost 700,000 acres of woodland at a damage to grass, young timber growth and seedlings of approximately $1,000,000, and the control of these fires and this damage presents a first line conservation job; and,

WHEREAS, the Texas Forest Service, A&M College, in cooperation with the US Forest Service, is sponsoring a forest fire prevention campaign starting Oct. 1, 1946, in this State;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Coke Stevenson, Governor of Texas, do hereby designate Tuesday, Oct. 1, 1946, as the official opening day of the forest fire prevention campaign in Texas, and ask that the occasion be appropriately publicized in the press, on the radio, through the schools and by other organizations throughout the State. I hereby designate Oct. 1, 1946, to May 1, 1947, as the official period for the continuing of this campaign and urge the people of Texas to recognize their personal responsibility in preventing and eliminating forest fires which damage forest products vital to the welfare of this State and destroy young forests upon which our children will depend as a source of wood supply, income and employment.

The glamorous Gypsy Rose Lee, actress and authoress, is bringing her own company of girls to the State Fair of Texas Auditorium, October 5-20, and will be a feature of the Tommy Dorsey Show during the State Fair, announced Julius Schepps, chairman of the Entertainment Committee of the State Fair Association.

Miss Lee, prima donna nuda of the American stage who finds time in her strips about the country to write first rate detective novels with a burlesque background and to study the writings of Marcel Proust, has been starred both on the Broadway stage and in Hollywood movies.

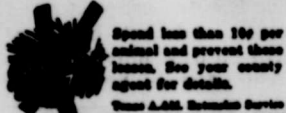

The engagement of Gypsy Rose Lee and Company for the star-studded Auditorium Show marks her first State Fair of Texas appearance.

 HEEFLIES OR CATTLE GRUBS COST YOU

1. $3.50 per Grubby Beef Animal Sold.
2. 15% to 25% Reduction in Milk Flow.
3. 10% to 15% More Feed to Produce the Same Weight as Non-Grubby Animals.

On ranges where cattle grubs and larvae of the heel flies are controlled with treatments of rotenone materials such as derris or cube, stockmen say that the cattle are less annoyed by heel flies than they are ranges where animals go untreated. Stockmen find, moreover, that treated animals graze more normally than others and that they do not stampee, run, or suffer so much from the mechanical injuries that usually occur during the heel fly season. They also state that the destruction of the grub stage of the heel fly not only reduces annoyance by heel flies during the spring but prevents the cattle from having many grubs the following winter. Feeder animals previously treated for cattle grubs show a gain over the untreated animals of about one-half pound per day.

A hide containing no more than five cattle grub injuries is classed as a No. 1 hide, and this grade brings the highest price. To produce such a hide, it is necessary to kill the grubs 2 or 3 months before the animals are to be slaughtered. This allows time for most of the injuries to heal, but small scars are left by the healed cysts. Even these scars can be prevented, however, if effective methods are used to control the grubs.

Such factors as the probable weather, availability of labor and the number of animals to be treated have led to preferences for certain kinds of treatment over others. Stockmen agree, however, that whatever method is used, enough material should be used to insure effective results, that is, to reduce the numbers of grubs to a point that will insure No. 1 hides, the greatest gain in weight, and freedom from annoyance during the heel fly season.

DUSTS

Treatments of cattle for control of grubs during the last season showed that rotenone-bearing powders, such as derris or cube, are more effective when mixed with finely ground tripoli, volcanic ash, or pyrophyllite than when mixed with sulfur or talc, because the former materials penetrate the hair better, and more animals can be treated with the same amount of rotenone than when sulfur or talc is used as the diluent. They are also less irritating to the respiratory system than dusts containing sulfur.

When the material is applied with a shaker can, at least 3 oz. of the dust mixture is required to cover the back of an animal thoroughly. The can or glass jar should be provided with a closely fitting top, in which about 15 holes, each about 1-4 inch in diameter, are punched outward through the lid. The success of the treatment depends upon the thoroughness with which the powder is worked through the hair and into the grub holes. This is best done by a rotary motion with the finger tips, and not with a straight movement of the flat hand or a brush, which tends to brush the powder away instead of down through the hair.

The first application should be made before the grubs begin to drop, and treatments should be repeated at intervals of 30 days. Usually three treatments are necessary. The cube of derris is mixed one part to two parts of tripoli earth. Be sure to mix thoroughly.

The formula is based on ground derris or ground cube that contains 5 pct. of rotenone. The commercial products are allocated on this basis during the war emergency, but the shipments will vary from about 3 pct. to more than 6 pct. of rotenone.

Van Johnson; Esther Williams, Lucille Ball Frolic in 'Easy to Wed'

Star-filled, song-filled, dance-filled and unraveling one of the most amusing yarns of marital crosses and double-crosses to have reached the screen in years, M-G-M's new Technicolor musical, "Easy to Wed," opens Wednesday at the Grand Theatre as an outstanding entertainment smash.

Van Johnson, Esther Williams, Lucille Ball and Keenan Wynn are the stellar quartet around whom have been evolved an uproarious tangle of wedded errors, with each of the principals forced to marry the wrong party in order to eventually capture the right one.

New Chandler Murder Mystery Co-Stars Ladd, Lake, Bendix

Don't for one minute misconstrue the title of the picture coming next Sunday and Monday to the Grand Theatre. "The Blue Dahlia" is not, by any stretch of the imagination, anything so dignified as a flower show, or the unveiling of a horticulturist's latest hybrid. Actually, from all reports, this Paramount production of Raymond Chandler's first mystery-shocker to be written expressly for the screen, is an action-packed, smoothly suspenseful murder thriller that provides an excellent vehicle for its three stars, Alan Ladd, Veronica Lake and William Bendix.

Ladd is said to be at his slugger-lover best in the role of the returning war veteran who finds his wife addicted to alcohol, and running around with the sinister owner of the "Blue Dahlia" night club. Disgusted and disillusioned, he walks out on her, and into the life of Veronica Lake, who later turns out to be the estranged wife of the night-spot owner. Ladd's wife is found shot to death, and the plot races bruisingly through his efforts to clear his name and that of his war-buddy, William Bendix.

Vows for the double-ring ceremony were directed by the Rev. Hubert H. Hopper, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in the presence of members of the immediate families and close friends.

Attired in an attractive two-piece blue dress designed with nail head, the bride wore a halo hat with matching nail head trim. Her accessories were brown and completing her costume was an orchid corsage. The bride carried out the traditional bridal custom by wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward left for a wedding trip to New Mexico.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mrs. U. S. Strickland, Mrs. W. L. Stewart and daughter, Sandra Kay, of Odessa.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Woodward was in the bookkeeping department of the Midland Hardware Co. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fannie Woodward, prominent ranchers of Sheffield.

The bridal couple will make their home near McCamey where he will be engaged in ranching.

They will be joined upon their return by Mrs. Woodward's daughter, Ima Gene Key.

The above article is a reprint from the Midland Reporter-Telegram, and will be of interest to News readers, since both the bride and groom were former residents of McCamey, having graduated from the school here.

"Whosoever goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God." (2 Jno. 9)

UNITY

One cannot help but be anxious, when seeing the deplorable condition of the religious world. Each religious group with its distinct name, its different faith, and its partisan spirit. Each body lusting after its particular preachers and teachers. Paul said to Timothy, "The time will come when they will not endure the sound doctrine; but having itching ears, will heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts; and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside unto fables." (2 Tim. 4:3-4). Previous to that he wrote to the Corinthians, "Now, I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the SAME THING? and that there be no DIVISIONS among you; but that ye be perfected together in the SAME MIND and in the SAME JUDGEMENT." (1 Cor. 1:10). Then our Lord in the very shadow of the Cross prayed fervently, "Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on Me through their word; that they may all be ONE; even as thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be in us: that the world may believe that Thou didst send Me." (Jno. 17:20-21).

What can be expected but confusion and infidelity with so many different churches existing today professing that they are the church which the Lord established! (?) Is God the author of all this confusion? Certainly NOT! "God is not a God of confusion—" (1 Cor. 14:33). Friends, I beseech you in all humility, if you value your soul, believe not every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of God; because MANY FALSE PROPHETS are gone out into the world. (1 Jno. 4-1). The Church of Christ welcomes investigation, and if at any time you find it teaching anything that is not in the New Testament, your criticisms and comments will be welcomed.

This has always been a MYSTERY to me: One will spend hours in a hot, stuffy store scrutinizing with the greatest of care an article of merchandise and will reject it if the smallest flaw is found, yet the same individual will gullibly accept anything in religion with little or no investigation.

"Every plant which My Heavenly Father planted not, shall be rooted up." (Matt. 15:13).
