Sheriff Gene Eckols

Appoints Deputies For Upton County Sheriff Gene Eckols recently appointed three deputies to assist him in his duties as Sheriff of Upton County as allowed by the Upton County Commissioners' Court. Those appointed were: Jerry Osborn, McCamey; Earl McWilliams, field deputy; and George Maley, office deputy.

Jerry Osborn, new McCamey deputy, one time McCamey Chief of Police, also served as deputy sheriff under Simco. He is a Marine Corps veteran, with considerable experience in Jap POW Camps

Earl McWilliams has previously served as field deputy for about one year.

George Maley was connected with the Pecos law force before coming here, where he has filled the unexpired term of Simco upon his resignation as sheriff. Maley replaces Hudson as office deputy.
