

BENEDUM GASOLINE PLANTS PLANS COMPLETE

Benedum Gasoline Plants Now Being Designed, Fabricated

Two plants that will extract gasoline and other products from gas produced with oil in the Benedum triple-play field in eastern Upton County are being designed and materials fabricated. Construction of both is scheduled to begin in March and to be completed in November, 1949.

By the time the plants begin operating, the El Paso Natural Gas Co. is due to have ready a 20-inch pipeline, approximately 150 miles in length, from Jal, N. M., to the Benedum field to take the residue gas. The system probably will cost around $20,000 to the mile. El Paso Natural's main line extends to California.

PRODUCERS' PROJECTS

These developments were learned here Wednesday from W. M. (Mike) Griffin of Sinton, the vice president and director of the Plymouth Oil Co. Plymouth will build one of the gasoline plants, Slick-Urschel Oil Co. of San Antonio the other. These companies jointly opened the field late in 1947. Six producers have been completed and a half dozen more are due to be finished soon.

The Santa Fe railroad will lay six-mile spur from its line at or near Flat Rock, about midway between Rankin and Texon, to the field for the moving in of materials and the shipping out of gasoline, propane, butane and motor fuel base. It is expected the plants will supply about 40 carloads of these products daily.

COST $6 MILLION EACH

Each gasoline plant will have a daily capacity of 60 to 80 million cubic feet of gas, which in wells already completed yields around two gallons to the 1,000 cubic feet. The cost of the plants will be around $6 million each.

The Hudson Engineering Co. of Hudson has the contract to build the Plymouth plant. Slick-Urschel's plant will be erected by the Texas Natural Gasoline Corp. of San Antonio.

Absentee Voting Is Open For Bond Issue Elections

County Clerk Ralph H. Daugherty announced early this week that ballots for the two bond elections to be voted on by the taxpayers of Upton County had been received and that absentee voting began upon the receipt of the ballots.

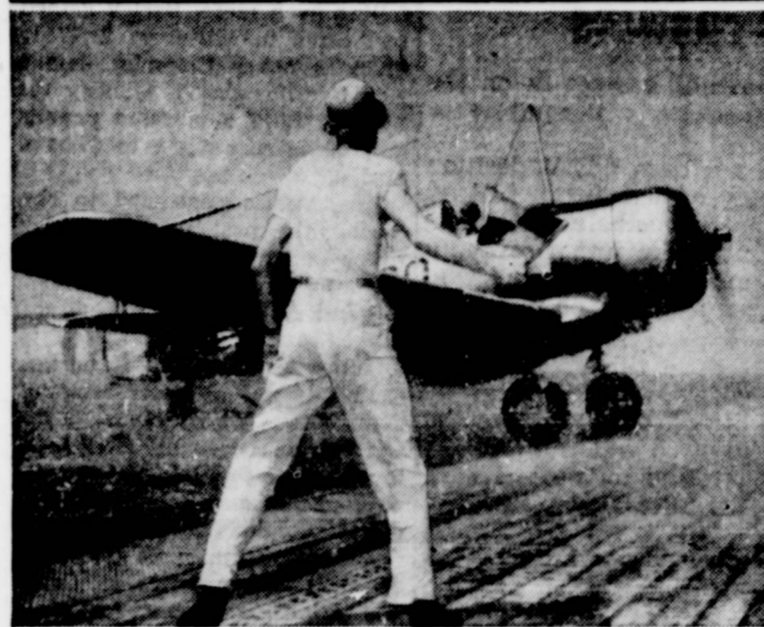

"In order to vote in the election," Daugherty reminded, "the voter must have rendered property on the County tax rolls, in addition to meeting regular voting requirements of the state."

The elections are to decide the fate of the proposed bond expenditure of $90,000 on Road Improvements in the Benedum Field north of Rankin, and the $65,000 Improvements Program on the Upton County Airport in McCamey.

Absentee voting will close on midnight, Saturday, December 18.

Absentee ballots may be voted at the County Clerks Office in Rankin, or disabled persons may use the regular application for the ballots if they feel that they may not be able to attend the polls on December 22.

Rankin Gets National Publicity In AP Story

Rankin went into the limelight all over the nation this week when the Associated Press released a news story on its nation wide wire concerning Rankin as a "boom town" with the development of the Benedum oil field.

The story was more or less a comparison between Rankin as a boom town and those of the early days. No means of comparing the two types were in evidence.

The story stated that very few signs evidenced the opening of a new field development as the town continued along with its normal activity with the absence of the fury and furor of the boom towns of the early 1900's.

However, the story was incomplete in many respects as it failed to tell of the tremendous needs for housing in Rankin, and that this problem alone was keeping hundreds of people out of Rankin.

It failed to enumerate the growth of Rankin adequately by telling of the several new cafes, the longer open hours being maintained, and the appearance of two lumber companies to help supply the needs caused by the new field.

No mention was made of the growth of the school system nor the importance of the new field into relation of the revenue added to the Rankin Independent School District.

No, the story was far from complete, but the nation-wide news story will no doubt bring an influx of mail to Mayor Pearl Rankin as to the business opportunities in the "small West Texas oil center."

A picture of the main street of Rankin from the intersection of the main street and highway No. 67 was included with the story.

Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation Month Proclaimed By Jester

Texans from the Rio Grande to the Panhandle this week girded for a statewide drive to strike back against poliomyelitis which thus far in 1948 has stricken more than 1,600 persons in more than 150 counties.

Gov. Beauford H. Jester proclaimed the period from Thanksgiving Day to Christmas as Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation Month as a statewide organization, headed by Dana X. Bible, University of Texas director of athletics, swung into action to secure financial support for the institution which cares for young children stricken by polio and other crippling diseases.

Chairmen in key counties throughout Texas are assisting Mr. Bible in bringing the story of the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation to the people of the state, says Ross Boothe, president of the foundation.

Equipped to care for 110 crippled children, the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation uses the water from warm natural springs and modern medical facilities and trained technicians to assist those who have been crippled to regain their health. It is supported largely by the contributions of Texas citizens, says Mr. Boothe, and any child suffering from a crippling disease may obtain admission and treatment, he declared.

A number of statewide organizations are cooperating in the statewide campaign for financial support, Boothe reported.

More than 500 persons have received treatment at Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation since the institution started receiving patients in 1941.

OUR FUTURE IS GROWING

During the past week, a sudden lull has set in on the propositions to be voted on by the property tax-payers of Upton County on December 22nd.

To the present time, there has not been any opposition voiced in either Rankin or McCamey on the Airport Bond Issue or the Benedum Road Issue, but nevertheless, it is important that the people of this County take just a few moments some time during the week and talk to someone who might not be fully familiar with the program, or else may be indifferent.

Even if it were known for certain at the present time that both issues would pass if no more work is done by the interested persons of this County, silence would not be justified. There are some seven hundred qualified voters in this county who will be vitally affected by these issues. EVERYONE OF THEM SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED TO VOTE ON THESE ISSUES.

If only two hundred voters in this county turn out on December 22 and pass these bonds in the amount of $155,000 it would be grossly unfair in one sense of the word, and at the same time, would possibly be because many of the interested people had not done their share in putting the propositions properly before the people.

THE NEWS wholeheartedly endorses both of these projects that will bring benefits to all the people of the County.

Surely the Benedum road will facilitate traffic and the delivery of oilfield equipment into the area where millions of dollars are being invested in the search of oil. These oil finds will bring much new revenue to the County, and with these new road facilities, companies will be encouraged to build their improvements in this County and even more revenue to help pay their way.

The Upton County Airport project located near McCamey would bring to this county a means of fast moving transportation and encourage industrial travel into this sector. It will insure fast delivery with airmail service and encourage the coming of new industries with the fast movement of supplies and merchandise.

REMEMBER, INDUSTRY IS SPREADING AND GROWING... LET'S GROW WITH IT!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Yes Sir, Insomnia's Contagious!

When Bud Swanson had trouble sleeping nights, and tried to get over it by turning up the radio full blast, he started an epidemic of insomnia all down the block!

Folks finally dropped a hint to Bud that he close the windows or turn the radio a little lower. Bud did—and that was the quickest cure for other folks' insomnia I've ever heard of!

Not that any of us object to the radio, or swing bands, or anything else that helps another person relax of an evening. (Myself, I like a glass of beer with a bit of cheese before I go to bed. I can't sleep for you.)

From where I sit, good neighborliness means nothing more than simply respecting the other person's tastes and rights—without forcing your own tastes or opinions down his throat. And that goes for Bud's radio, my glass of beer, or whatever temperate pleasure you happen to enjoy.

Weekly Swing Of The Southwest Markets

Livestock and grains showed some easiness during the past week, in otherwise unchanged to stronger southwest farm markets, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

After day to day fluctuations during the week, most grains showed net losses of 1 to 2 cents, with white corn and sorghums falling even more. Barley gained two cents to sell from $1.47 to $1.52 at Texas Common points. No. 2 milo closed Monday at $2.72 to $2.77 a hundred pounds and white corn $1.89 to $1.94 a bushel.

Rice values continued to rise during the past week on both rough and milled. Top grades of the long grains enjoyed the best demand. Animal protein feeds and oilseed meals took the lead in a generally rising feed market. Cold winds and snow renewed demand for hay in many areas but slowed movement from farm to market. A few late-picked peanuts sold at government support prices. Shelled stock was slow.

Texas sheep markets paid steady to $1 higher prices for sheep and lambs, as other terminals dropped as much as 25 or 50 cents a hundred on some classes. Goat prices rose mainly 50 cents at San Antonio. Best ewes cleared around $9.50 at San Antonio and Denver, $8.50 at Oklahoma City and Wichita, and $10 at Fort Worth.

Hunters Are Warned To Watch Out For 'Rabbit Fever'

AUSTIN.—Tularemia, or "rabbit fever," is transmitted to man being through the careless handling of wild rabbits, and according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, every wild rabbit should be handled with extreme care from the time he is bagged until he is placed on the table.

"If a rabbit is diseased, careless handling can cause tularemia. This serious disease is transmitted from rabbits to human beings, usually through direct contact with the infected animal or with objects contaminated by the meat or fur." Dr. Cox said, "Each year many persons contract tularemia because they fail to use proper precautions in the handling of the rabbits which are killed for food."

thened following the advance in foreign Merino wools. Mohair sold around 40 cents for adult and 60c to 75c for kid, ff. o. b. Texas.

Dr. Cox said that one of the first precautions recommended is to shoot only the healthy rabbits with enough energy to run away from the hunter as he approaches. A listless rabbit that fails to run is probably sick, and should not be taken by the hunter.

A second important safeguard is for the hunter or the housewife to use rubber gloves in cleaning and preparing the rabbit for cooking. The gloves should be sterilized after using, and the refuse and paper that has touched the rabbit should be burned. Hands should be washed thoroughly after the meat has been set to cook.

Adequate cooking is a final safeguard that should be observed at all times. To destroy any germs that may be present, the meat should be cooked at boiling temperature for at least 20 minutes, regardless of whether it is to be fried or baked later.

By observing these safety rules, Texans may enjoy their rabbit hunts and rabbit dinners without fear of tularemia.

Their Future is in the Balance

Meat animals are what they eat! It takes a balanced ration to keep them healthy, growing and gaining. Successful livestock men know this. Hundreds of controlled feeding experiments prove it. Morrison, the great feeding authority, states—"Lambs on unbalanced rations require 46% more corn and 15% more hay for each 100 pounds of gain!"

Balanced rations for hogs show spectacular results. Anyone can make a lot of fat and a little lean with corn and water. But that's the slow, expensive way. It takes a pile of corn to do it. But with corn balanced with proteins and minerals and vitamins hogs can be fed to market weights in six months or less. Think of the corn you can save—11 bushels of corn alone will make 100 pounds of pork, but only 6½ bushels of corn plus 35 pounds of protein supplement will do the same job faster.

Scores of feeding trials prove that a balanced ration pays with steers and lambs, whether on the range or in the feedlot. In fact, the same basic principle applies to all livestock and poultry. Forage and other homegrown feeds, properly balanced with proteins and minerals, make more and better meat pounds at less cost.

Continuous research affords new and exciting means of using available materials in improved rations for livestock. At first, tankage alone was used to add protein to hog rations. It did a good job. Then research proved that a combination of proteins is better than one kind alone. A mixture of tankage, soybean meal, linseed meal and, in some areas, cottonseed meal, produces better quality pork even faster. This improvement in rations makes for more efficient and economical use of proteins. But what about vitamins and minerals? Here, too, many advancements in techniques of supplying these nutrients have been made. Dehydrated alfalfa, milk solids, vitamin oils, and some synthetic sources provide essential vitamins and other factors. Mineral balance is necessary, too. Salt, the universal need, supplies sodium and chlorine. Steamed bone meal, supplies calcium and phosphorus, and other major minerals. With these, alert research men now are combining other known essential elements, such as cobalt, manganese, iron, iodine, copper, and magnesium, to turn slow gainers into fast gainers.

"It takes a big tractor to pull a heavy-duty plow"

This large tractor is especially designed to handle the big and heavy jobs—easily, efficiently, economically.

This little tractor is good when used for its proper purposes. But it is not built to pull such a heavy plow.

It's the same way with business, including the meat-packing business. There's need for all kinds and sizes of packing plants—large ones as well as small ones. Two-thirds of the livestock is produced west of the Mississippi River. Two-thirds of the meat is eaten east of it. Bringing meat and meat-eaters together is a big job!

That's where the "big tractor" proves its worth. The country needs nation-wide meat packers like Swift & Company. For with processing plants located where most of the livestock is raised, we can help bridge the gap between western range and feedlots and the kitchen range. It is an important job, filling the vital needs of producers and consumers. As we have served them over the years, we have grown. And as we have grown, so also our ability to serve has grown.

First Calves Forecast Production

by Marvin Koger, Animal Husbandman, New Mexico A. & M. Experiment Station

Want to estimate efficiency of calf production in your cow herd? The cow's first calf tells more than her good looks. In a New Mexico study, we took the weaning weights of first calves weaned by three-year-old cows. These weights were compared with the weaning weights of calves raised by these same cows in the next four years. Cows and calves were placed in five groups (according to the weaning weight of first calves). Here's the 5-year record:

Groups	Average First Calf Weight From 3-Year-Old Cows	Average Calf Weights From Same Cows for Next 4 Years
Group 1	321 pounds	404 pounds
Group 2	349 pounds	417 pounds
Group 3	383 pounds	430 pounds
Group 4	409 pounds	443 pounds
Group 5	441 pounds	456 pounds

Considering only the two extremes, Group One and Group Five, it was shown that breeding stock picked from Group One could be expected to produce, for the next four years, calves that had a yearly average weaning weight of only 404 pounds. But those picked from Group Five should produce calves with a yearly average weaning weight of 456 pounds, 52 pounds more than Group One. These figures show that later calves are apt to be a repeat performance of the cow's first calf. Cows doing poorly their first calving year continued to produce the lightest group of calves. They were poor risks. Culling cows with light, scrubby first calves would be well repaid in greater profit through more efficient production.

If you would like a full report on this experiment, write to New Mexico A. & M. Experiment Station, State College, N. M.

EASTING THINKS
 By Hastings Baker

Which spends the most on clothes, the men or the women? According to the U. S. Department of Labor, the men slightly spend more for clothes.

The failure of so many people to vote in the last election is causing some discussion of how to get more people to vote. In some countries it is required by law that everybody vote, with penalties for those who don't. There isn't much chance for such a law here, but it has been suggested by one congressman that everybody who votes receive a $30 income tax deduction.

The practice of giving out parking tickets is very unfair in that $5.00 may mean practically nothing to a rich person and to a poor person it can be a serious matter. Some cities buy special privilege. The punishment should fit the crime. We have gone so far as to sell books of parking tickets in advance at a cut rate. Thus, for a few dollars, somebody becomes a privileged character, free to violate parking rules and inconvenience other people.

A wealthy man in Houston, Texas, has deliberately made it a practice to park in bus zones. The $5.00 fine means nothing to him, and so he has his special privilege at the expense of the public that must get on the bus in the middle of the street. He considers the more than $1,000 spent on parking tickets a real bargain. --No one should be able

The question of aid to China against the Communist armies is receiving increasing attention. Some of the experts point out that some of the Chinese armies seem to give up too easily. They feel that there must be something wrong which should be cleared up before we give aid. In this connection there is a peculiar Chinese military custom which throws some light on this. We expect soldiers to fight to the bitter end, but the Chinese don't do it that way. If the enemy is stronger, the Chinese think that it is only logical not to fight. They don't see any point to a lot of men dying on both sides when it is obvious who will win the battle. They believe in the old saying: "He who fights and runs away, lives to fight another day". - - Or perhaps to run another day. - - If the Nationalists get enough help so they have the upper hand, the tide might turn and flow the other way, if the Chinese Communists also give way before a superior force.

Rankin Plays Watervalley In Barnhart Tonite

The Rankin A and B basketball teams are meeting Watervalley half way tonite in Barnhart for two bitter conflicts.

This game between the teams will be Rankin's first conference game. The boys are preparing to win and practicing hard the plays that have been worked out. These if properly executed tonite should really make Rankin go over big. Appreciation and thanks will be extended to any Rankinites going to the game and giving their moral support.

Probable starting lineup:
G—Theo Blue
G—Donald McEwen
C—Don Still
F—Fields Branch
F—James Gamblin.

Fields Branch Is Back In Action

After three weeks of limping around he is able to start his basketball career again. He says that the doctor will release him about Wednesday. He has been attending the hospital at McCamey for his medical attention.

Night Meeting On Paper To Assure More News Copy

Due to increasing hardships in obtaining news for the cherished "Red Devil" the editor has planned new strategy to improve paper.

With the help of Mr. Still the staff is now going to hold meetings on Monday nights to work on, and put out the "Red Devil". Mr. Still says as long as the staff settles down, cooperates and uses the meeting time to work hard the "Red Devil" should come out in perfection. In the two hours from seven until nine the "Red Devil" will be given birth each week from now on.

As a resting period or session of relief while the typewriters cool off, cokes will be served. Of course this calls for plenty of hard, fast work. The first meeting held Monday night, Dec. 6, 1948, was composed of Virginia Still, James Gamblin, Wanda Hunsinger, Ted Yocham, Martha Schlagal, Theo Blue, Ella Ruth Elliott, Fields Branch, oveta Yocham, Jean Spraw, Marlene Holmes, Jimmy Workman, and Norma Jo Stephenson. The meeting was sponsored by Mr. Still.

Pictures Taken For Annual Wednesday

Mr. Howell ohnson was over from McCamey Wednesday to take pictures for the Rankin High School Annual to be out in April. He took the football and basketball, girls and boys, and the annual and paper staff photos also.

The coronation, Rhythm Band and Pep Squad pictures were taken. Mr. Johnson will be back next Wednesday to take the favorites' pictures.

Bill Davee Injured

Saturday nite he received a broken toe and a few cuts. He received his injuries when a drill stem was dropped on his foot. His toe was almost cut off but he escaped with it being broken and cut. He will probably be in school about Wednesday.

Deadline On Annual Deposits January 10

Have your deposits in by the 10th of January if you want an annual. Any teacher or student that want another picture other than the one that the annual staff already have please have the one that you want in it into the staff by January 3, 1948.

The Devil's Pitch Fork

We wonder if Virginia has some secret love that she hasn't told us about?

My but aren't those people on the paper staff industerious? Something new is that we have finally found out that Suzanne and Wayne Mac are a steady.

It was sure nice and cold in the typing room on Monday morning because the windows were up.

The seniors are not sorry that they didn't have to practice the play Monday night. They sure were glad that it went off fairly well.

Say Winnie, are you by any way glad when that old clock finally strikes eleven each night? Looks like Jodie will have to rush down stairs about eight o'clock and postpone her date until about nine tonight, Monday.

Student Interview

"Yocham is the name," is the only thing the student interview of this week has to say. Joveta Yocham is a junior in high school, she is 5' 5", weighs about 112 (tons?), has blonde hair and brown eyes. Her hobby is 'boys.' Her favorite color is—yes, you guessed it—R E D. Her main breakfast food is Wheaties, her song is "Stardust," actor is Alan Ladd, her actress is Lana Turner. Joveta's nickname is Josephine. Jo plays guard on the basketball team of RHS. I think it is needless to say her favorite car is a Ford. She is the favorite girl of the junior class this year. She was also selected as the MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL in school. She smokes only Roi-Tan cigars and Lucky Strike cigarettes, she drinks only Four Roses, and Sherry Lime.

Seniors See Odessa Wallop Coyotes 20-0 Last Saturday

The Senior Class saw the Odessa Bronchos wallop the Wichita Falls Coyotes 20 to 0 in the Broncho stadium last Saturday afternoon. The following people went to the game:

Martha Schlagal
Norma Stephenson
Theo Blue
James Gamblin
Donald McEwen
Fields Branch

Virginia Still and Bill Davey did not go. All the seniors enjoyed the game very much. The room mothers of the Seniors took them on the trip. The room mothers are Mrs. Bob Schlagal, and Mrs. George Stephenson.

The Senior Class wish to thank them again for the nice time enjoyed by all. And hope to do something real good for them in the near future.

Tuesday Assembly By Fifth And Sixth

In the assembly program presented Tuesday by the fifth and sixth grades, at 1:30 p. m., they presented a play called "The Christmas Fairy and Mr. Scrooge." This play was the one presented to the PTA Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everyone enjoyed this program very much and the many announcements after the play.

The Rankin Annual Basketball Tournament will be played in the Rankin High School gymnasium next Friday and Saturday. According to Coach Fitzgerald, it is expected that at least twelve teams will be entered in the first major cage tournament in West Texas for the 1948-49 season.

This tournament has been held for the past several years and large crowds of hardwood enthusiasts have always turned out for the early season cage showings of the various teams of this area.

Also, the cooperation of townspeople has been appreciated for sleeping space for the visiting players and if you will help out in this respect for this year's tournament, it will be again a great contribution to its success. Any Rankin resident wishing to keep some of the visiting players should contact some of the school officials.

In Vital Battle With Owls, Rankin Loses 32-41 Tuesday Nite

In the clash with the Reagan County Owls last Tuesday night at Big Lake, the Red Devils lost in a battle to the finish by a margin of 32 - 41.

The half time score was 10-14 in favor of Reagan. Still was high for Rankin with 14 of Rankin's score with Blue coming in second with 6 points to his credit. McEwen scored 4 points with Harry Yocham scoring an equal number. It was a very interesting game of tug of war, one ahead then the other.

That night the "B" team played the Owls but lost 13-60. The Owls romped their pretty bad as this was their first game of the season. Ross Wheeler scored 4 of Rankin's points to maintain top honors, along side of Lewis Ward, who is incidentally dropping basketball so that he can go to work. The McEwen Bros. Pete and Toad scored one basket each.

Ted Yocham Slowed By Blowing Sand

In route to Lockney Ted and Billy Ross were held up about 15 miles out of Lubbock. Ted says that the wind was blowing so hard that the one on the sign board read 25 instead of 15. Billy Ross was shut off from his truck by the strong wind.

Juniors Take Game From Reagan County

The Rankin Junior team defeated the Juniors of Reagan County last Tuesday night by a margin of 26-20. This was a hard fought game and the Owls came in after the Rankinites in the last quarter with revenge on their minds as the half time score was 18-7. Norman Yocham was high for Rankin with 12 of the tally. Joe Loftin was right in there with an even amount of the score as he had 12 also. These boys were hot and ready to play ball. McCain scored one free pitch along with Lindsey. For the Owls, Martin led the score with 6 points.
