McCamey Petitioners Ask For Another Pool And Park

At their regular meeting last Monday, April 27, the Upton County Commissioners Court received some five pages of signatures on petitions requesting that the county build and maintain another swimming pool and park area in McCamey.

At the present time, the County operates 2 such recreational areas in McCamey with the last one having been built some three years ago for use by the Negro population of that city. Monday's request for similar facilities was made on behalf of the Latin Americans in that area and was signed by a large number of persons with Spanish names and a number of names that were apparently non-Spanish.

In discussions with the Court, the representatives, who included five Mexicans and John A. Menefee, Bud Mason and Ed Thorp, the latter two representing the McCamey Chamber of Commerce which has endorsed the request, pointed out that there was a need for such a park due to the large number of Spanish children in McCamey. It was the opinion of the delegation that the construction of the pool and park would tend to keep these youngsters off the streets and out of trouble during the summer.

Estimates as to the cost ran about $40,000 for initial construction and about $3,000 per year for operations and maintenance. It supposedly would be operated on a free basis as are the other two pools in McCamey and the one in Rankin.

In discussions of the request by the Court, it was pointed out that the law would require that such construction be carried out under park funds and that at the present time, it was believed that Upton County is operating at near capacity as permitted by law in these funds. Should it be found that the County did have the authority to issue more park bonds, an election on the matter would have to be held and approved by the voters.

Commissioners promised the delegation that they would take the matter under consideration and give them an answer in the near future as to their decision on the matter.

SCRIVNER TAKES GOLIAD POSITION

... submits resignation

In a special meeting of the Rankin School Board last Monday night, Superintendent Joe Scrivner submitted his resignation and informed the members that he had accepted the superintendent's position at Goliad Independent School District.

His work here will terminate on July 1. He entered the Rankin District in 1950 as football coach and has served as junior high principal in addition to his duties as superintendent. He was moved up from junior high principal to replace J. L. Alderdice when the latter resigned some three years ago.

He moved up from coaching to the principal post five years ago.

Goliad has an enrollment of some 1250 students and is a class AA school. Valuation of the District is $22 million as compared with $31 for Rankin. They have a new elementary and senior high school building.

Rankin School Board members immediately opened the local position to application with a deadline of May 11 set for filing. They are expecting a large number to seek the job. Scrivner was chosen at Goliad out of over 100 applicants.

"My family and myself are most thankful to the people of Rankin for the many favors and considerations they have extended to us. We do not want to leave but an opportunity such as this does not come along often and we feel that it is an advancement that we cannot pass up," Scrivner said this week.

His new job is for a two-year contract which is renewed each year. The salary is said to be higher than the present paid by Rankin.

MISSED A BET—

Down in Austin, our Legislators are going tooth and tong trying to figure out a way to raise tax money and keep everybody happy. However, they must all be half asleep for only last week they missed one of the most sure-fire methods of raising money that has ever been offered.

One of the law-makers proposed that a tax be put on sin. Now there is one tax that would be broad based and one in which everyone could pay just about whatever he felt like paying. It would be a sure-fire thing since cheating on how much you owed would be a sin and that, in turn, would add to the amount to be collected.

Most of the taxes in Texas are based on such things as how much oil is produced or how much money comes in from car tags, etc. These items are always up and down. One year there will be large amounts of revenue and the next—things will not be so good and the money for state schemes will be depleted. Not so with sin. Any preacher will tell you that the business of sin is always good and instead of having lean years, apparently gets better each year.

Legislators would do well to take a second look at this proposition.

YES, WE SENT IT

To those of you who have asked whether or not last week's editorial was sent to Senator Lyndon Johnson, the answer is "Yes". Lyndon B. gets The Rankin News every week but just to make sure that he caught last week's issue, I mailed it to him in a letter. More than likely, we can all read his reply in the near future.

Oddly enough, I got a letter from Representative J. T. Rutherford Sunday asking that he be placed on the mailing list. It may be that "Slick" is going to see what the home folks have to say about him. As far as this newspaper is concerned, Rutherford is idea of what a Representative ought to be as any man in Washington. He will not likely ever get very far up the political ladder among his cohorts in the Capitol because he seems to have the strange idea that he was elected to do what the majority of his people wants but as long as he seeks a public office and keeps his present attitude, I, for one, will support him.

THE HEIGHT OF IGNORANCE—

Sometimes you wonder just how stupid people can get and then along comes a deal like that pulled in Mississippi last week-end and you begin to get an idea. Nothing in the world could have struck a more devastating blow to the South and its racial problems than the lynch mob that dragged the Negro from the jail and evidently strung him up some place. If the radicals of the civil rights group needed a banner handed to them, the Mississippi mob gave them one dripping with blood. And just at a time when it appeared that a little progress was being made toward calming the waters.

At least it looks like they could have waited until the trial was held for the joker was as good as dead anyway. Not only is such a thing good material for those who would impose Federal force in the matter of civil rights, but it must have been an occasion for killing a fifth of vodka in the Kremlin.

Just how stupid can people get—there's no end.

THE WINNERS

Along about the third coffee break Monday, I was discussing the baseball results with a group and it was mentioned that New York or somebody had clobbered Chicago or one of the other clubs. I asked the question of "who eliminated Wink from the contest" and they all looked surprised. Of course, I figured that Wink does not participate in the Major league baseball games but if they did, it would be a fair bet that they would win something.

When it comes to athletics, you may join 'em but you can't beat the Wildcats. However, for my two-bits, I'll take Rankin School's program. We don't win 'em all but we do win a few things on the athletic field. When they start getting into the brains end of the contests, however, matter. We get a fair share of the it ought to be without question as those in Rankin the matter that seated. Wink is an academy with a line and that's that's what they but I think you realize that fact plain that Rankin to Wink in all.

Let's have a winning team soon.

KENNEDY WEDDING VOWS LOVINGTON CEREMONY

Quarles officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Peggy Rice played traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Carolyn Hohn as she sang "Always". Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length dress of ruffled chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of white tulle, attached to a white feathered hat, complimented her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and camallias, atop a white pearl bible.

Mrs. Lloyd Hubbard, friend of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Hubbard wore a pink taffeta dress, fashioned with tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations, and Mr. W. D. Kennedy, father of the bridegroom, was best man.

Bridesmaids were sisters of the bride: Misses Dorothy and Kay Abernathy. They wore identical ballerina length dresses of blue ruffled ciffon and carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations. Ushers were J. R. Neeld and Homer Walkup of Lovington. Miss Nelda Greer of Lovington registered the guests.

The bride's mother was attired in a grey crepe floral dress with white accessories while the mother of the bridegroom wore a blue floral crepe dress with white accessories.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church immediately following the ceremony. Miss Iqris McKee served punch and Miss Phyllis Plummer served the cake.

For traveling the bride wore black and white dress trimmed in white with black and white accessories. The couple will be at home in Sanford, Florida where he is serving in the Navy.

Mrs. Kennedy is a graduate of Rankin High Schools where she was active in all phases of the school's program.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kennedy visited over the week end Abilene with their children and in Brownwood with his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave McKelvey are visiting this week in Albuquerque, New Mexico with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rose and family.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Prepared By USDA Office
Middle Concho
Soil Conservation District

The coming week of May 3-10 is National Soil Stewardship Week. It is a time when everyone can give thanksgiving for the many blessings that are derived from the land. People who live in towns, though they may never see a roundup or a harvest, have a direct interest in the soil from which they receive the many products they use. The shelf or bin in the grocery is only a step from the soil in which food is produced. It is an inherent responsibility of all landowners and those who use the land to do so wisely.

Soil, Water and Plant conservation has grown immensely during the past decade. We are just learning that adjustment to nature is the best method which can work. Man is directed by God to use the soil in such a way that he can provide adequately for his family, but he must at the same time use intelligent methods so that the needs of future generations will be met.

When the human family is in harmony with God, it seeks to live in harmony with the world of nature. Then the whole creation of God works together, guided by His will which is the determining force in the wise use of soil, water and plant resources.

During the past years local agricultural people have formed a Soil Conservation District with the treatment and use of land according to its needs and capabilities one of the main items of the program and plan of work. Toward

Rebekah Officers Seated In McCamey Meeting April 25

Seventeen members and one visitor were on hand last Thursday at the meeting of the Rankin Rebekahs at which time nine sick visits were reported.

Ona Belle Arledge presided as noble grand in the absence of Mrs. Erma Connally. Plans were made to attend the Associational Meeting which was held in McCamey on April 25. Rankin Lodge members who were introduced and seated as officers at the McCamey meeting were Pauline Diez, district president; of District 14; Fern Kosel, past noble grand; Alma Fell, past noble grand; Elizabeth Rains, secretary; Alice Bell, right support to the noble grand; Barcey McCain, financial secretary; Nancy Cummings, vice noble grand; Ruth Windham, right support to vice-grand; and Elsie Turner, inside guardian.

these ends the past year approximately 100,000 acres of land was properly used, 150,000 acres received some type of deferment, 1,500 acres treated with some type of brush control, 600 acres of range seeded, and one-half mile of net wire spreaders built. The new season is upon the land and now is a good time to make plans for a complete coordinated conservation treatment.

Behold the Ant...

• Science tells us that the strongest thing in the world for its size is the common red ant. This marvel of nature can lift 10 times its own weight.

As strong as the red ant may be, it has been proven that the most powerful thing for its size is the little want ad in your local newspaper.

The want ad, which costs only a few cents a day, does a hundred-fold job. This mighty mite of the printed page finds jobs for folks, sells used lawnmowers, rents houses, sells farms, loans money, finds missing persons, locates lost dogs, rents appliances, thanks folks, locates homes for surplus puppies, and performs a hundred and one useful services for the community.

NATIONAL FAMILY WEEK

May 3-10 is National Family Week. What plans are you making for the week to emphasize those four phases of a well rounded life—love, play, work and worship? You will want to work out your own plans to include worship; release of family tensions through discussion, prayer, and planning; and participation in recreational activities. One suggested plan follows:

Sunday: "The Family Goes To Church Together." There might be a planning session in the afternoon for the rest of the week.

Monday: The family eats together—that is becoming a problem in many families.

Tuesday: The family works together—some specific family project and democratic agreement on home duties.

Wednesday: The family reads together—each member shares some favorite story, verse, or other item with the rest of the family.

Thursday: The family listens together—to some specially chosen T. V. or radio feature of interest to all—or favorite recordings.

Friday: The family plays together. Use games the entire family can enjoy. Plan for future home recreation.

Saturday: The family plans together—get rid of tensions.

Sunday: The family worships together—sit together as a family in worship services.

Remembers that the family that prays (plays) together, stays together.

NATIONAL HOME DEMONSTRATION WEEK—

There are so many special weeks designated that they overlap, many groups observing the same dates. We think it appropriate that home demonstration and family week coincide since whatever the homemaker does influences the entire family.

Home demonstration work is an educational program and the current emphasis is on the "quality of family living". The work is carried on cooperatively by the Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the State land-grant colleges, and the county governments. The services of the home demonstration agent are available to all families in the county regardless of whether or not they are members of an organized club. The organized groups will welcome you as a member or visitor but the services of the agent are not dependent upon your membership in the group. Call us when we can help.

THE WEEK AHEAD

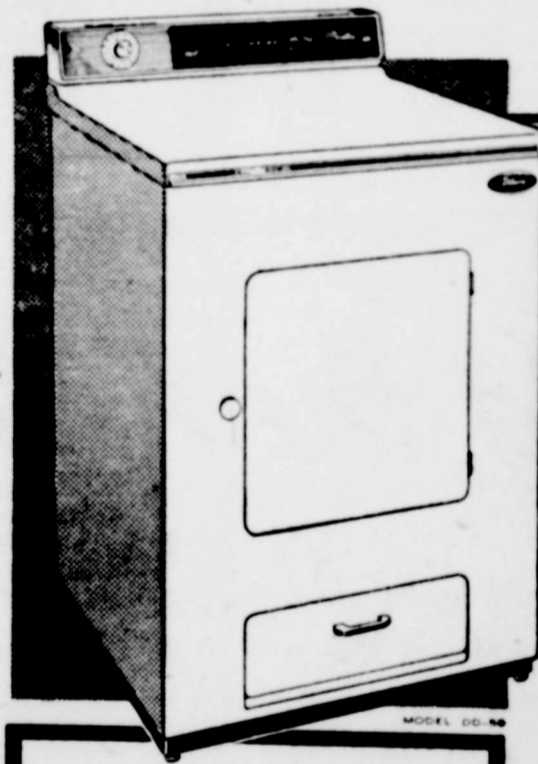

Following the Big Lake Home Demonstration Club meeting on Friday and the district 4-H elimination contests in Odessa on Saturday, our schedule for the week consists only of 4-H meetings in the afternoons. That will be a relief from the day and night activities of the past several weeks, and will leave us free each day until about 3:00 to take care of your calls for help and maybe get some of the office work caught up.
