THIRTY-NINTH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1963

NUMBER 5

WOODWORK BY DALTON

SOME FOLKS down in Austin and elsewhere over the state have been plugging for abolition of the poll tax and a permanent voter registration which would allow you to vote for the rest of your life without having to either register every year or pay a fee by a specified date.

The Texas Senate the other day voted to ban the poll tax, but balked at the permanent registration and tentatively approved an annual registration with a fee of 25 cents attached. The newspaper accounts didn't say whether this annual registration had to be made by a certain time of the year (as Jan. 31 deadline for poll tax), but one senator disgustedly called it a "two-bit poll tax" which was no different from what we have except for the amount to be paid.

It's too bad they didn't adopt the permanent registration proposal. Such a measure would increase the vote in all elections like the school trustee vote coming up here Saturday.

The Jan. 31 deadline for poll taxes is the biggest obstacle to voting part-time. It will be effected by a law in months ahead.

The average voter, not being election-conscious at that time of year, is inclined to put off registering until the last minute and too often gets that "last minute" slip by. I confess that I did that this year.

Anyway, it's just another example of the legislature not doing what I believe most of the people would prefer. They also refused to freeze the sales tax at 2 percent, with the obvious conclusion being that pretty soon they will raise it to 3, then 4, 5 or 6 per cent. Won't that be dandy?

FARMERS around here (and merchants, too) are proud of the rain, which means more favorable conditions for planting right away. Incidentally, the Sudan Jaycees have come up with a better formula than washing the car for drouth-breaking. For the last three years, it has rained on the day the Jaycees scheduled the finals of their tennis tournament. However, the Jaycees don't mind, since we need the rain.

RAIN BRIGHTENS AREA CROP OUTLOOK

A total of about 1.5 inches of rain fell generally throughout the area Sunday and Monday, bringing smiles to farmers' faces and causing a number of irrigation motors to be shut down.

Sundown Due To Get First Bank In History Of Town

Sudan banking officials have joined with citizens of the Sundown area to open a new National Bank in Sundown, with operations expected to begin in about two weeks from temporary quarters there.

Guy H. Walden, president, and U. H. Milow and R. D. Nix, directors of The First National Bank of Sudan, have received approval from the Treasury Department, Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D. C., to open the First National Bank of Sundown. Plans are already under way to construct a new building to house the bank.

Walden is active chairman of the board of directors of the new bank. President and active manager will be L. L. Anthony, who for 14 years was associated with the First National Bank of Sudan. Milow and Nix will be directors.

Saturday Vote To Elect Trustees

Voters in the Sudan school district will go to the polls Saturday to elect two trustees for the school board, which in the next year is expected to face some serious problems in finances and other aspects of administration.

Candidates for the two posts are Willey Mudgett, Jerry Ray, Wayne Whiteaker and Nolan Parrish. Whiteaker and Parrish are present board members whose terms are scheduled to expire.

Other members of the board are W. B. Jones Jr., Guy Walden, W. C. Masten, Lee Roy Fisher and Billy Gore.

Foster Painting First in Exhibit

Cecile Foster of Sudan submitted the winning painting in the Motorola Regional Nonprofessional Art Exhibit new on display at Carpet City on 34th in Lubbock, it was reported this week.

Mrs. Foster's winning entry is entitled "Grindelwald." Second and third place winners were Donald McAlamy of Clovis and David Farrington of Lubbock.

The three winning paintings will automatically be entered in Motorola's national exhibition in Chicago this June, from which art experts will select the six top paintings.

The regional exhibit at Lubbock will be on display through Saturday.

Mrs. Leo Mann of Littlefield visited Sunday in the home of her mother, Mrs. H. W. Qualls.

Blackman Rites Held

C. W. Blackman, 74, resident of Sudan for the last five years, and father of Mrs. Dail Burnett, died last Friday at noon. Services were conducted at 2 p. m. Sunday in Sudan First Baptist Church, with Rev. Willie Hazel officiating.

Other survivors include three sons, Bill of Littlefield, Otto of Globe, Aris, and A. J. of Casey, N. M.; nine grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and one brother, C. C. of Goldthwaite.

Pallbearers were Bill Turner, Johnny Bellar, Hubert Henry, Bob Boone, Robert Newell and Alvin Whitfield.

Racket Swingers Stay Busy Here

Lots of tennis was played, but rain and high wind delayed the finish of the Sudan Jaycees annual tennis tournament here last weekend.

Play has been completed in only four of 11 divisions, but matches are being played as soon as weather permits.

Tuesday night, Dalton Wood and Bill Nix downed Harold May and El Ray Rasco in the finals of men's doubles, 6-3, 6-4.

D. W. Muller won the high school boys singles with a 6-1, 8-6 victory over Danny Allen in the finals. Muller earlier had ousted last year's champion, Robert Williamson in a hard-fought match, 6-3, 0-6, 10-8, while Allen had advanced with a win over Corley Baker in another three-set match.

In grade school boys singles, Mike Bellar won out with a 6-1, 6-2 triumph over Harry Williamson in the finals; and in high school boys doubles, Curly Allen and Joe Bellar won the title by beating Danny Allen-Pat Brown 6-0, 6-0.

Longest match of the tournament so far was a two and a half hour marathon in men's singles semi-finals, when Dalton Wood survived Jimmy Alsup, 9-11, 7-5, 7-5. An upset in women's doubles saw Margaret Smith and Zenell Martin defeat Hazel May-Gina Nichols, 6-2, 5-7, 7-6, with the last game forfeited. One of the best matches in men's doubles was between Harold May-El Ray Rasco and Ken Minyard-Radney Nichols, with the former team winning 4-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Results so far include:

Novice Singles

Kermit Somers def. Philip Gordon 6-2, 6-4. Somers to play winner between Jimmy Newman-Mike Masten for title.

Grade School Girls Singles

Cancer Hits One of Four

With the Sudan campaign for funds to combat cancer scheduled to begin April 11, campaign leaders here this week reminded citizens that one of every four persons is struck by cancer, and that there will be about 22,000 new cases in Texas this year.

Hope is held out, however, that one third of the new patients will be saved, and that more could be saved through the education of the Cancer Crusade.

The Cancer Society helps to support research of some 1,300 scientists, including about $450,000 for Texas researchers and institutions.

Williamson 6-1, 6-2.

Men's Doubles

May-Rasco def. Nichols-Minyard 4-6, 6-4, 6-2; Wood-Nix def. Brown-Alsup 6-3, 6-3; Van Ness-Newman def. Salter-Parrish 9-7, 7-5; Wiseman-Withrow def. Gatewood-Carpenter 6-3, 7-5. Second round — Wood-Nix def. Van Ness-Newman 6-4, 6-3; May-Rasco def. Stewart-Nelson 6-0, 6-2. Third round — Wood-Nix def. Wiseman-Withrow 6-4, 6-0. Finals — Wood-Nix def. May-Rasco 6-3, 6-4.

Seniors Corraled For WSCS Supper

Members of the Senior class of Sudan High School were entertained with a Western supper

Thursday evening by the Womens Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church when the event was held in the Fellowship hall.

Band Banquet Set Saturday

A performance by the Texas Tech stage band and presentation of the "Outstanding Bandman Award" will be highlights of the annual band banquet at Sudan school cafeteria Saturday night.

Raymon Maxwell will be master of ceremonies, and response will be by Carole Harper, Hornet Band president.

Burning kerosene lamps, place cards of covered wagons, and cowboy jacket programs highlighted table decorations.

The supper was served from a chuck wagon. Other decorations included a Western scene featuring bales of hay, saddles and a campfire.

The invocation was by Rev. Frank Weir with Mrs. E. C. Minyard extending the welcome. Durwood White gave the response.

Providing music was an ensemble composed of Mrs. Orval Wallace, Dalton Wood and Bill Nix. Two of the songs were written by Wood, one in dedication to members of the class.

Giving the Senior Round up was Dempsey Watkins. The benediction was by Supt. W. E. Hancock.

Present were Ralph Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Moore, E. C. Minyard, Rev. and Mrs. Weir, Dempsey Watkins.

SUDAN CLUB WOMEN ATTEND CONVENTION

Among local club women attending the convention of the Caprock District of Texas Federation of Womens clubs during the weekend in Lubbock were Mrs. Gerald Chisholm, Mrs. Arthur Nelson and Mrs. John Humphreys of the 1950 Junior Study Club; Mrs. R. S. Gatewood, Mrs. S. D. Hay, Mrs. Beulah Wiseman, Mrs. R. D. Nix, Mrs. W. V. Terry of the 1935 Study club.

Mrs. Terry appeared on the program Friday morning when she spoke on "Rules of Parliamentary Procedure."

HOSPITAL REPORT

Patients this week in South Plains Hospital at Amherst included:

From Amherst — Alfreda Herrera, H. C. Davis, Mrs. W. P. Holland, Miss Ann Perez.

From Sudan — Mrs. Effie Crain, A. D. Linton, W. E. Stephens, Joe Wilkinson, Mrs. Alton Hood, Mrs. George Lambert and Mrs. J. C. Drake.

From Fieldton — Don Joyner.

From Earth — Mrs. Eula B. Whitford.

From Friona — Miss Kay Hassell.

From Littlefield — Don Hickey, Mrs. Martha Barker, Mrs. Anna Brandon.

From Lubbock — Walter Chatwell.

From San Angelo — Mrs. Elizabeth Jarvis.

From Springlake — Ellis Simmons.

GUILD MEETS IN WALLACE HOME

Mrs. Anita Wallace was hostess for the Wesleyan Service Guild Tuesday night when the group met for study of the book "Today's Children for Tomorrow's World" led by Mrs. Willie Rosson. Mrs. Eloise Curry presided at the business session. Mrs. Frances Potter gave the devotional.

Others present included Dorothy Drake, Mary Tollett, Bertha Vereen, Margaret Smith, Johnnie Green and Linda Wood.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON HELD IN CLOVIS

A bridge luncheon was held Tuesday at the Holiday Inn in Clovis when hostesses were Mrs. Tom King Jr., Mrs. W. V. Terry and Mrs. Johnny Thomason.

Arrangements of Heather highlighted with burning tapers centered the luncheon tables.

Approximately 50 were present with guests attending from Sudan, Littlefield, Amherst, Amarillo, Muleshoe and Clovis.

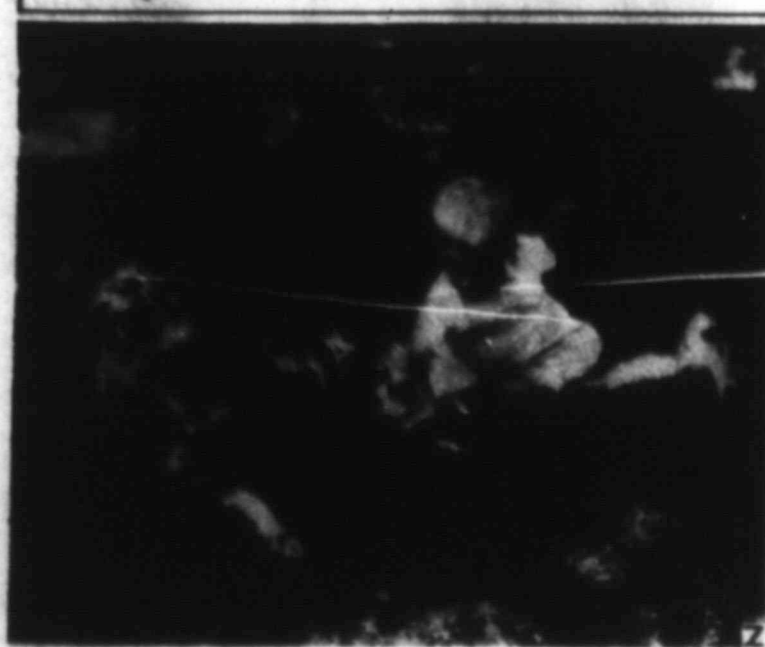

Mrs. U. H. Milow of Amarillo was high in bridge and Mrs. John Dean in canasta. Winning bingo prizes were Mrs. Cleo Whitmire and Mrs. Jud Briscoe of Amarillo.

Mrs. Mack Campbell of Littlefield visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Meeks.

Mrs. C. E. Dean of Lubbock visited during the weekend with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Lyke.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milam left Tuesday for Oklahoma City where they were to visit relatives.

Hey, Rover—That's No Bone!

There's really no need to worry about this tyke. His pet's as gentle as can be. As a matter of fact, baby was the one who had to be trained to be kind to his pet. According to Purina Pet Care Center Authorities, well-trained dogs usually have remarkable patience with children, but frolicsome toddlers should be taught that "dogs are people, too."

DELTA KAPPA GAMMA HAS SUDAN MEETING

The Epsilon Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma met at the Sudan cafeteria Saturday with the Sudan members as hostesses, and with the Future Teachers of America organizations of the area present. High school girls from Muleshoe, Sudan, Littlefield, Springlake and Tulsa were present.

At 10:30 a brunch was served. A poem "The Teacher" was presented by Mrs. Flora Burks of Littlefield.

The speaker, Miss Mildred Hulsey of Tulsa was introduced by Mrs. Linnie Campbell of Olton. Miss Hulsey, with the help of an FTA member, brought an interesting report on a book, "I Wanted to See".

Mrs. Mary Tollett presided over the business meeting. The serving table was laid with a green cloth, gold chrysanthemums, silver and crystal.

Attending from Amherst was Mrs. Ray Blessing.

Skiing — Japan's Growing Winter Sport

More than three million skiing enthusiasts flock to Japan's many snow-covered mountains each winter. Every weekend, railway stations and bus terminals are crowded with skiers who have waited in line for hours to purchase their tickets. For tyros and those wishing to avoid travel, facilities such as the Sayama Indoor Ski Slope are available in a suburb of Tokyo. This man-made slope features two ski-lifts and is covered with natural snow brought in from nearby mountains.

Squirrel-Hunting Hint

Carry along one of these "silent" dog whistles.

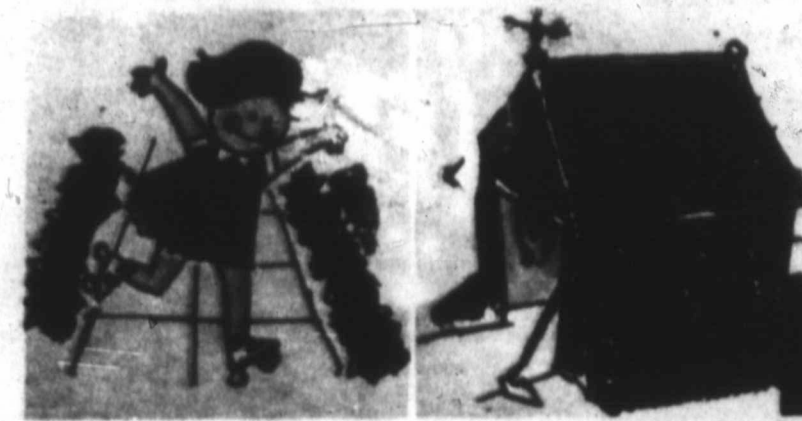

time you head for the woods squirrel hunting. Keep it in your mouth. When a squirrel runs along a limb, blow the silent whistle. He will stop to listen. That's your chance at a killing shot.

Growing Vegetables — But Not in Rows

Mother can lean out of the kitchen door to water the radishes or pick ripe, luscious cucumbers from the back fence.

Roller skating is fun, but picking peppers as they ripen has its points too. Tomato vines beautify the garage and, when the fruits are ripe, satisfy the family's appetite.

Just because most vegetables are grown in rows in a garden patch is no reason why vegetables MUST be grown that way. Actually all sorts of small spaces, providing only that they are sunny, may be used to grow food for the family.

Salad makings lend themselves to these small spaces, partly because some of the vegetables commonly used in salads are vines and therefore may be trained to grow upward, and partly because other salad ingredients are pretty to look at and therefore may be grown among the flowers.

For instance, tomatoes and cucumbers are vines; in fact there's a special type of cucumber designated as "winning". These two vegetables may be grown on a fence, a trellis or even on wires stretched across a wall.

Pepper plants are compact growing, look like tiny shrubs and are quite as ornamental as other shrub-like annuals. Radishes ought to be planted a little at a time, to insure continuous crops with prime edibility, so why not use the little spaces either side of the kitchen door for them? Chives or green onions may be grown in the flower beds, as a border or in groups. And all, many gardeners grow ornamental Alliums without ever realizing that these, too, are onions.

Endive, with its fringed and frilled leaves, and lettuce are both very pretty border plants, especially when the lettuce chosen have colored foliage or leaves of interesting shapes.

Swiss chard makes a good plant to give all-summer foliage to a border of annual or perennial flowers. Rhubarb chard has rose-red stems and veins, while those of the regular varieties are creamy-white.

Find those unused little spaces in your yard and put them to work — to beautify your property and your table at the same time.

A-BAYED—Top in little girl's Easter fashion is the A-Bay dress, interpreted here in spring-crip cotton. Red and blue stripes on top and solid blue band at bottom are emphasized by sparkling white braid. Low-slung patch pockets add further fashion detail to the Claire Brooks Original.

Each day we turn another page. While years are adding to our age. We're making history every day. Through deeds and acts that we display. Each day we write a little more, Just adding to the day before, I wonder if it all will be. An interesting history.

DEVOTIONAL

By HAZEL
HOUSE

Scripture: St. John 12: 1-16;
St. Matthew 21:12-15; St. John 17: 20-23.

Jesus during the week before His crucifixion did so many things that one could "write a book" in discussion, but let's look at the beginning.

"Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany...."

So, Jesus began by coming to have supper at the home of His friends, Martha, Lazarus, and Mary. And we are reminded here that Lazarus was the one whom Christ had raised from the dead.

Someone has said these three stand for this: Martha stands for service; Lazarus for communion;
and, Mary shows us the worship of a grateful heart. Others before Mary had come to the feet
of Jesus for their needs to be met;
she came to give Jesus His due.

And the people, the Jews came not only to see Jesus but to see the one whom Jesus had raised from the dead. Is this not a natural reaction? Christ evidently knew they would come and see, and go away believing in Him.

Then, on what we call Palm Sunday, Jesus fulfilled the Scripture (Zechariah 9:9) and came into Jerusalem "sitting on an ass's colt." The multitudes shouted "Hosanna," but the children were the ones who went into the temple and cried "Hosanna
to the son of David."

Then follows Jesus' answer; Jesus washes His disciples' feet; Jesus foretells His betrayal, and foretells Peter's three denial; Jesus foretells His coming back again for His own; Jesus gives a new promise and privilege in prayer; Jesus promises the Spirit;

Jesus bequeaths peace to His followers; Jesus goes to the Garden of Gethsemane! On the way, He talks to His disciples telling them
of the Vine and the branches, of the new and intimate relationship, the believer and the world, and the believer and the Holy Spirit.

Jesus so loved us, He was very careful to record for us through His disciples, the way for us to come in following Him. He warned, He told of the Spirit's work and revelation, and He told again of His death, resurrection, and of His second coming. And then Jesus prayed for His disciples
and for us today.

Jesus prayed in the Garden.... and arose to endure the trial, the pain, the weariness, the ridicule, the loneliness, and finally the cross where He was able to pray
"Father, forgive them...."

Jesus was dead! The Son of God and Son of Man! God came down in His Son, to pay off our death penalty for sin, and shed
His blood to make atonement to the Holy Father for the sins of the whole world. Then, How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?

The price for your life and mine
was high; God made you, then sent His Son to die to redeem you from Satan. Can you let Jesus pay this terrible price all in vain, all this shame and pain and death for nothing in your case, just because you will not believe Him and follow Him?
Think on these things.

Return to the Almighty...
(Job 22:23)

We have never been forced to God's good but we have been inspired by it. We have never been compelled to turn to God but we have been impelled. The invitations to turn to God for His strengthening are always there.

TRUCK OVERTURNS — This truck loaded with 25 head of cattle overturned in Sudan on U. S. 84 between Uhlmann Grain Co. and Sudan Texaco about 3:20 p. m. Wednesday. The driver of the truck, from out of town, said he swerved to avoid hitting a pickup. The cattle had scattered when this picture was made. No one was seriously injured. (Beacon-News Photo)

Remember The Real Thing?

Somewhere in the development of fishing techniques and tackle to today's standards,
the ancient art of dunking a worm got sidetracked.

The bait fisherman has become an outcast in his own camp, comment the folks at Mercury Outboards. Disdain for the use of live insects, rodents, amphibians and other forms of water creatures is universally reflected by tackle boxes bulging with lures of every shape,
size and color.

In relying heavily on artificial, most anglers have neglected a method of fishing that is every bit as fascinating and demanding. Understanding baits and their use is one sure approach to mastering the funda-mentals of the sport, yet quite a few fishermen have blithely ignored this step of training.

With the exception of worms and minnows, resorted to when everything else fails, little evidence is seen of the other natural foods that constitute the bulk of fish diets. Yet there are dozens of other creatures which will take fish of every species
with amazing results.

When was the last time you saw anyone digging lampreys
from the bottom of a stream?
Or pulling leeches from the un-dercarriage of a muckin' log? Or harnessing up live salamanders?
Maybe you did these things as a youngster and caught fish.
Maybe not.

Today it's unusual to hear of these methods, rarer still, to actually use them.

The fishermen who know natural foods, where to obtain them, and how they must be fished is a man of considerable angling knowledge. When he does snap on an artificial, note

the Mercury people, he can usually fish circles around companions.

A good bait fisherman should be admired, not scorned; after all, he's simply giving the fish
what they prefer.

Rev. Elmer Crabtree of Plainview was guest speaker at the Sunday morning services of the First Methodist church.

Prefab Palace

Manufactured Homes Gain in Building Race

BATON ROUGE, LA. — Compared to the first prefabricated home introduced in this country in 1924, modern day manufactured houses are palaces.

Manufactured in England and shipped to the U.S. where it was erected in what is now the state of Massachusetts, the first prefab house in this country
was a two-story frame building.
It was constructed of pre-cut oak timbers which, when fitted together, formed the frame of the house.

It is believed that the exterior of the "Great House," as it was called, was made of hand-hewn shakes or shingles.

American manufactured homes first appeared in 1927
when two houses, complete with component parts to be erected on site, were shipped to the West Indies from New Orleans. Ironically, Louisiana is the headquarters state of one of today's leading home manufacturing companies, Crawford Corporation of Baton Rouge.

Crawford, a pioneer in modern home manufacturing techniques, predicts that within the next 10 years manufactured homes will represent 50 to 75%
of total private housing.

To save ammunition when sighting in your rifle, keep in mind that a rifle bullet crosses
the line-of-sight twice, once near the muzzle at about 20-30 yards, and again way out where the rifle is normally sighted-in.

orable District Court of Lamb County at the Courthouse thereof, in Littlefield, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 6th day of May A. D. 1963, to Plain-tiff's Petition filed in said court on the 22nd day of March A. D.
1963, in this cause, numbered 5313 on the docket of said court
and styled

Jimmie W. Duke, Plaintiff, vs.
Nancy F. Duke, Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows,
to-wit:

This is a suit for divorce alleging cruel treatment, alleging that there is no community property, real or personal, owned by plaintiff and defendant, alleging that there was one child born of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant, said child being Starla A. Duke, a girl, approximately one (1) year of age, alleging that it would be to the best interest of said child for the defendant to have the care, custody and control of said child, with plaintiff having the right of reasonable visitation.
Praying for divorce and for general relief, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ
shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates herof,
and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Littlefield, Texas, this the 22nd day of March A. D. 1963.

Stop The Lone Hunting Dog

Many hunting dogs like the sport so well they take off on their own, to pursue game, if they have the chance.

This is bad for the dog since he has no one with him to teach him good manners. Lacking supervision, he soon forgets the rules his master taught him.

So keep your hunting dog at home so he can't prove the woods without you.

Help Your Dog Keep Cool

While you relax under air-conditioning, during the heat of summer, do you leave your dog sweating in his pen outdoors?

A thoughtful sportsman who cares about his pooch will see that the dog pen is covered with tow sacks that are hoed down frequently.

SUNDAY IS PALM SUNDAY

Inca's Flower

Bright scarlet-orange blooms on straight, stiff stems make Inca's flower or Tithonia excellent for cutting.

The annual known to botanists as Tithonia has the common names of Inca's flower or Golden Flower of the Incas or Mexican sunflower — take your choice. If you like scarlet-orange flowers, daisy-like in shape, and can use fairly tall plants in your garden, why not try this unusual annual this year?

Buy seeds of a variety the height you'd like. The older Speciosa tithonia grows 12 feet high but doesn't begin to flower until late in summer. To give it a longer growing season, it is best to start seeds indoors.

Avalon variety is the earliest to bloom, starting in June and continuing until frost. This grows 8 feet high. The 4-foot variety Torch is small enough for any garden and has the advantage of coming into flower much earlier than Speciosa, a month later than Avalon.

The brilliant blooms of tithonia are borne on straight, stiff stems, making them ideal for cutting for use indoors. The leaves are good size and, since the plants have many branches, it is possible to use tithonia as a screen planting if you need one. Tithonia also is excellent for planting at the back or a border.

If you're looking for a plant to combine with it, plant tall white snapdragons in front of Torch and observe the combination with a smile of satisfaction.

FASHION NOTE: There will be little change in men's pockets this year.

Pie Means Party for Teen-Agers

When the teen set convenes for an informal get-together, the cool hostess can turn a casual gathering into a festive party simply by serving pie.

Preparing pies in the home once involved devotion and special culinary skill, but today's teeners know how to serve pies with maximum flavor in minimum time.

The modern miss offers a tasty pastry merely by popping a frozen fruit pie into the oven for the proper period, then allowing it to "set" at room temperature. All that remains is for her to slice it and accept compliments on her cooking.

For example, when the weather outside is brisk, a girl can "warm up" the atmosphere inside with an ever-popular, delicious cherry pie—or one of the various other Simple Simon frozen fruit pies such as apple or peach. The pies are appetizing, nutritious and as handy as the nearest supermarket.

Mary Blake, Simple Simon home-service director, offers a special tip for both teen-agers and homemakers when friends drop in for a surprise visit: Your market also carries frozen cream pies which can be sliced and served immediately and are especially appealing in spring and summer weather. All age groups enjoy such flavors as chocolate, strawberry, coconut and lemon—only a few of the frozen cream pies available.

And for any event from now to summertime backyard dining to the year-end holidays, fruit or cream pies add pep and zest.

Fashion briefs from

Laura

The new look for Spring and probably many more seasons to come is a natural one. Colors will be toned down considerably both in the fashion and cosmetic field. Even the eyes, which were played up heavily last year, take on a new, misty expression achieved by subtly applied eye make-up.

Lips and fingertips, outer reports, will be muted, too, complementing as always the new "pale" fabrics.

Stark white, egg shell, lemon, whisper pink and pale peach, among others, will be seen in everything that is fashionable — from day and evening dresses to suits and casual play clothes. And, to give them spirit, only touches of contrasting colors have been added.

Women will be able to walk more naturally, too. Shoe heels have been lowered and broadened, stark heels, particularly, are very chic and will be available in a variety of shades and styles.

All in all, it appears to be a year of casual, easy living. And what could be prettier than the "natural look" to compliment your own special endowments!

Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell Celebrate 75th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blackwell of Littlefield will observe a rare milestone, their 75th wedding anniversary, with open house at the Littlefield Community Center from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday.

The couple, married April 8, 1888, in Arkansas, are grandparents of Sheila and Cheryl Ann Blackwell of Sudan, and of Mrs. Gary Parr of Lubbock.

Blackwell is 97, his wife is 90. They have lived in this area since 1926. He reads the Bible daily and watches television, and Mrs. Blackwell cuts out quilt scraps.

Blackwell's advice to those contemplating marriage, with hopes for a lasting marriage, was "love is the important thing. . . they should love one another wherever they are, one day the same as the next."

The couple have 13 children, 42 grandchildren, 86 great-grandchildren and 48 great-great-grandchildren.

TODAY AND TOMORROW

BY RALF HARDESTER
Feature Editor of TV GUIDE MAGAZINE

GARRY MOORE WILL TAKE A NIGHT OFF MAY 7, WITH ALAN KING filling in as host of his Tuesday night show. Mel Torme and Dorothy Loudon will be guests. . . Whether or not ABC renews Fred Astaire's Premiere next season, Astaire won't be in it, either as host or actor. Astaire has announced that he is going back to feature pictures, from which he first "retired" back in 1947. . . Lucie Arnaz, age 11, makes her TV debut in her mother's show in an episode titled "Lucy Is A Soda Jerk." Young Desi, a veteran at 10, makes his third appearance in the same segment. . . And if Gale Storm's new A-OK O'Shea series sells, young Phillip Bonnell will be a featured regular. He's her oldest son. . . CBS has shelved plans to star Cara Williams in her own series next season, chiefly because it couldn't find the right format.

Dorothy Loudon

TALK OF THE INDUSTRY IS ABC'S MAJOR RESHUFFLING FOR NEXT SEASON in an effort to boost ratings. The network plans to put most, if not all, of these new shows—a total of 13—into prime time starting next fall: The Travels of Jaimie McPheeters, with Dan O'Herlihy; Butterball Brown, with Mickey Shaughnessy; Ready for the People, Everett Sloane; Arrest and Trial, Ben Gazzara; Chuck Connors, 90 minutes; Please Stand By, a science-fictioner; The Fugitive, David Janssen; Breaking Point, with Paul Richards; The Patty Duke Show; The Greatest Show on Earth, with Jack Palance; Mr. Kingston, with Peter Graves and Walter Pidgeon; The Young and the Bold; Archie; and Thunderhead, with George Montgomery. . . The Lively Ones, the best of last year's summer-replacement shows, will probably be back on NBC this summer, again replacing Hazel and again starring Vic Damone.

Shari Lewis

on great water

"ARTHUR GODFREY LOVES ANIMALS" WILL BE HIS THIRD CBS special this season. Guests will be Shari Lewis, Burr Tillstrom and Mel Blanc, the man who does voices for Woody Woodpecker and other cartoon fauna. Part of the show will originate from Marineland of the Pacific, part from Godfrey's Virginia farm, where he has his own zoo. Picture This, new CBS panel game show with Jerry Van Dyke as host, will probably be Jack Benny's summer replacement, may then get a regular-season spot in the fall. . . Ronald Reagan, for eight years host and occasional star of the late G.E. Theater, has signed a term contract with Revue for both TV films and features. . . It's now definite that "Julie and Carol at Carnegie Hall" will be rebroadcast on CBS June 12 from 9 to 10 P.M. . . NBC has bought MGM's new hour-long The Lieutenant series, created by Norman Felton and starring Gary Lockwood.

Co-hostess for the event was Mrs. Noel Lumpkin. Present were Messrs. and Mesdames Bob Masten, Gene Duvall, Emery Blume, Buddy Pickett, Bob Taylor, Jay Miller, Dexter Baker, Mrs. Bobby Jack Markham.

Substitutes For Water Cress

The requirements for growing water cress include a brook or pond with cold, clear water and thus are not available to every gardener. However, anyone with even enough space to plant a single row of seeds can grow a near relative called upland cress.

There are two kinds of upland cress, one with curly leaves and one with plain leaves. Either will be usable in salads or for a garnish in 50 days from the time seeds are sown. Plant seeds in early spring, spacing them so there are half a dozen seeds to the inch and covering them with not more than a quarter inch of soil. They need no special care, only a sunny situation in fairly good soil. You'll be pleased with their pungent flavor, so much like that of genuine water cress.

When To Sow Vegetable Seeds

Some vegetables are called "hardy" because seedlings and small plants will live even if a light frost should occur when they are growing. These are the vegetables you can plant as soon as frost is out of the ground. In alphabetical order, they are: asparagus, beet, cabbage, carrot, chard, kale, lettuce, onion, parsley, parsnip, pea, radish, spinach, turnip and New Zealand spinach.

"Half-hardy" vegetables, to be planted when danger of a heavy frost is over, include broccoli, cauliflower, celery, endive, and kohlrabi.

Come On In, The Weather's Fine

While the North shivers in below-freezing temperatures and snow drifts pile to record heights, all is summery in Southern Texas, where there are more days of sunshine the year-round than in Miami. Typical of the scenery is this pretty Miss, shown at the Sands Motor Hotel in Laredo, Texas, a popular spot for tourists and travelers enroute to Mexico. The southern portion of Texas is attracting increasing numbers of settlers and vacationers every year — and with this lovely land a typical attraction, it's no wonder.

ECONOMICS

Q. What is meant by a profit squeeze?

A. A profit squeeze is brought about when the operating costs of a company are so high as to force it to pay out more than it takes in and it cannot raise the price of its product without pricing itself out of the market.

Q. What is the largest of the operating costs?

A. Wages paid to employees represent, by far, the heaviest of the operating expenses—accounting for about 60 per cent of the cost of industrial establishment operation.

Q. Are profits important to economic well-being?

A. Profits and the hope of profits are among the vital forces of our free enterprise system. When profits are high, as the record shows, we have "good times" and there are plenty of jobs. When profits are low we have recessions and unemployment.

Q. Should an employee be concerned about the profitability of the company for which he works?

A. Obviously, since his very job is at stake. The people who have risked their savings to finance the company cannot be expected to continue to pour money into it unless there is a reasonable expectation of profit.

Q. Are profits kept by a few?

A. On the contrary they are widely distributed. More than 17,000,000 people are shareholders in America's corporations and the dividends they receive are paid out of the profits these corporations earn.

Q. How much do industrial companies make?

A. Manufacturing corporations had an average profit of but 3.2 per cent on the sales dollar in 1961 (the last year for which statistics are available).

Best Campfire Wood

Lucky indeed is the hunter who pitches camp near a hickory grove. There a full supply of excellent firewood is at hand.

Wood from the hickory tree produces long-lasting hot coals that burn whether dry or green, without eye-smarting smoke.

Whenever possible search out such a campsite.

Those hot, hot peppers you tasted in Mexico or in the food in a Mexican restaurant may be grown in your own garden. Seeds are best started indoors; seedlings transplanted to the garden as soon as the last frosts are over.

Clothespin Substitute

Seldom does a camper remember to bring along clothespins, especially if there are no women along.

Yet the camper often finds need for them.

If he will twist together two ropes and stretch them in the sunshine between two trees, he can insert clothes between the twists of rope. Clothes will be held tight until dry, even in a stiff wind.

What They Wore... by PHYLLIS JOYCE

DURING WOODROW WILSON'S ADMINISTRATION, WOMEN WERE DRESSING LIKE LIZZY CASTLE AND DANCING THE CASTLE WALK.

WITH THE START OF WORLD WAR I, MANY AMERICAN WOMEN PICKED UP THEIR FRIVOLOUS CLOTHES AND DONNED UNIFORMS, SUCH AS THIS RED CROSS FIELD WORKER, AND JOINED IN THE WAR EFFORT.

WHEN BUYING WOMAN'S OR GIRL'S APPAREL, LOOK FOR THIS LABEL THE SYMBOL OF DECENCY FAIR LABOR STANDARDS AND THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE

Commemorative Stamps For 1964 Tokyo Olympics

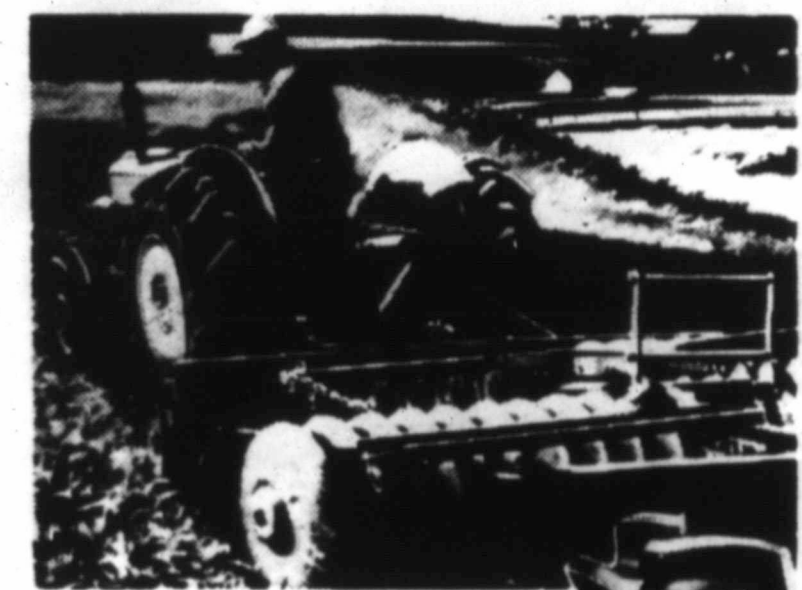

Japan has to date issued nine Olympic Games Commemorative Stamps to help publicize the 1964 Tokyo Olympics. One-half of the proceeds from the sale of these stamps were earmarked for the Tokyo Olympic Organizing Committee. Olympic stamps were issued for the first time by the Greek Government in 1896 to commemorate the re-establishment of the Olympic Games, and this practice has been followed for each Games. The Japanese Olympic Stamps were sold out on the first day of each sale.

PROBLEM SOLVED—An off-center set of windows is tastefully treated by David Barrett by using striped cotton as window shades. A walnut valance features wood tassels that are repeated at the rounded bottoms of the shades. Another walnut piece below the window is used as a ledge from which cotton print cafe curtains in blue, green and white are hung.

Good Use For Old Socks

Most hunters have old, discarded, brightly-colored socks lying around the house. Put these to good use by stuffing them in your hunting coat when bird hunting. Then when you down a bird in tall grass or brush, put a rock inside one of the bright socks and throw it near where the bird fell. This trick will cut lost kills drastically.
