THIRTY-NINTH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1963

WOODWORK BY DALTON

I SOMETIMES wonder just how many of the daily paper readers actually read the stock market report (or how many radio listeners frantically start hunting something else when they hear the daily report starting).

Every day in the Avalanche-Journal an entire page is taken up with the daily market report. Now I know that those people who do read them consider this a very important part, and probably is the only reason they buy the paper. But percentage-wise, I'll bet not more than two persons out of a hundred even look at the page, and one of those two doesn't know what he's looking at.

I'd even venture to say that fewer persons read that part of the paper than read any other part. Certainly if most people don't understand the market report any better than I do, it's wasted space.

So far as I am concerned, stock has something to do with pigs and cows, and bonds are something crooks use to tie up bank employees.

This is likely part of the reason why those guys who read the daily market report are better off financially than I. I'm not advocating that the dailies eliminate the stock market page, but it does seem sort of out of proportion.

Typical of the stock page gobbledegook is this story from Tuesday's paper:

"NEW YORK — Cotton futures closed 20 cents a bale higher to 55 cents lower. The 1963 crop trading months advanced modestly on commission house buying.

"There was some switching by traders from October to March in nearby months. Distant deliveries declined mainly because buyers lowered their bids at the close."

I am offering a free subscription to any housewife in Sudan who can translate that to my satisfaction.

I even used to think that Dow Jones made paint.

YOUNG HOMEMAKERS MEET

The Young Homemakers met Aug. 12 for their regular monthly meeting at the Home Economic Cottage.

Mrs. Joe Ross gave the program on flower arrangement. Seven members and one guest were present.

All who will be students in Sudan High School this fall are invited to attend a swimming party at 7:30 p. m. Saturday at Crescent Park swimming pool in Littlefield.

Hostesses for this second annual event will be Linda Williams, Candace Mudgett, Kandy Miller, Sharon Wallace, Dyanne Coney, Patricia McCurry and Nancy Williams, all seniors.

Anyone needing transportation to Littlefield may contact Linda Williams.

Mrs. E. Pope has returned home from the Lubbock home of her son, the Clend Pope, whose she had been staying to recuperate from a fall suffered recently.

$1,000 TAKEN AT GROCERY

County officers this week were seeking clues in the disappearance of more than $1,000 in cash taken from Wagner Grocery in Amherst sometime last Wednesday.

The daring daylight theft was discovered by owner Marvin Wagner about 5:30 p. m. when he went to get the money from a hiding place over his desk at the rear of the store. Wagner said he put the money in a small drawer above the desk at 7 a. m. Wednesday, for use during the day if needed to replenish the cash register. The money was in a bank book, which later was found about halfway between Amherst and Earth, beside the road.

District Sports Trophy Planned

The district 3-A school which earns the most points in conference standings in five major sports this coming year will receive a large trophy paying tribute to its well-rounded sports program. Weekly newspapers in the five towns in the district will buy the trophy and it will be passed each year to the school earning it. Points will be earned by final district standings in football, boys and girls basketball, boys track and girls volleyball.

Plans for setting up the annual award were discussed Saturday in a meeting at Springlake between coaches from all the schools and representatives of the newspapers. The press representatives and coaches also agreed that better district-wide public relations would be of benefit to all concerned, and papers agreed to exchange information and pictures, particularly in advance of athletic events, to help promote interest and attendance.

Also discussed was a tentative plan for an all-district banquet, to be held at the town which wins the traveling trophy, and at the all-district players in all sports would be invited.

Present were the following coaches: Hank Brown, Sudan; Jody Mahan, Springlake; Dempsey Alexander and Billy White, Farwell; C. H. Keeton, Hale Center; Leo Fields, Kress. Gridders Getting In Shape

Ten lettermen were among the 35 boys who have reported for football practice to Coach Hank Brown this week, and the 1963 crop of Sudan Hornets is starting to shape up in two-a-day workouts.

Four starters on last year's team were seniors, but with 10 lettermen returning, and several newcomers and squadmen who look promising, Coach Brown can't help but feel that this year's team may do better than their fourth place spot they have been voted in district pre-season ratings.

Last year, the Hornets were ranked near the bottom and they wound up tied for the title, losing in the final quarter of the last game to Hale Center. And a number of boys who were pretty light last season have grown up a
