THIRTY-NINTH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1963

NUMBER 35

NOT TOO long ago, I read an article somewhere about how it is that nobody takes pride in his work anymore, about how sloppy service is in practically all lines of endeavor, and decrying the fact that it's pretty hard to get a dollar's worth of work or service anymore, even for a buck and a half.

I don't know where the article is, or I'd just reprint it and claim I wrote it myself (I take pride in my job, too). But I've got a few complaints, too.

First, let me say that I realize that everybody makes mistakes, and we're guilty, too, of sometimes turning out poor work. But the amount of sloppiness a person gets these days from the individual workmen on up to the biggest companies is a whole lot more than could be considered normal.

Anyone living here who has ever ordered anything sent in by bus, shipped in by truck or rail, or even mailed in, knows what I mean. I'll bet 25 per cent of all bus parcels consigned to Sudan from Lubbock go on to Clovis. Packages you get in the mail marked "Fragile" or "Do Not Bend" or some such usually are practically torn to bits. Freight coming in either by rail or truck is likely to be damaged, no matter how well it is packaged, especially if it comes from a long way off, and is handled by several different loaders. Some of the stuff you get looks like they took the package and laid it on the truck and ran the train across it a couple of times.

Recently we ordered a shipment of materials from Midland, to be trucked from there to Lubbock, transferred to another company and brought here. Some idiot at Lubbock sent it on to Amarillo, where it was located a few days later. Unusual? No, it was the second time it had happened in the last four shipments.

The trouble is that everybody has an attitude of getting the job out of the way, the easiest way possible, and get on to the next job. The main leader: your shipment to Dallas or wherever doesn't give a hang whether you ever get it or not, or whether he breaks something or not - all he's interested in is getting it out of his way.

The solution? There ain't any, but if you happen to write a newspaper column, you can let off a little steam about it.

IN LAST week's football follies, I missed only 3 of 12. This gives me a season record of 53 right, 35 wrong, batting .602. This week: Amherst 14, Whiteface 8; Whitharrel 20, Anton 6; Sudan 24, Kress 6; Springlake 30, Hale Center 8; Crosbyton 23, Silverton 14; Petersburg 28, Malou 7; Plains 19, Seagraves 14; Priona 28, Morton 14; Dumas 40, Littlefield 0; Arkansas 27, Texas A & M 12; Baylor 9, TCU 7; Texas 28, SMU 7; Rice 23, Texas Tech 10.

Linda Williams visited during the weekend in Abilene with Laurie Shaffer.

The Harold Mays and Marvin Mays spent the weekend in Tros Rios.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Crim of Brownfield visited during the weekend in the home of his mother, Mrs. Anna Crim Young. They were here to attend homecoming activities.

New Yule Lights To Be Installed

New Christmas lights will be installed in Sudan this season, it was reported following a vote by members of the Sudan Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. The CCA members last Thursday agreed to push plans to raise funds for the lighting project expected to cost about $2,000.

The permanent installations will be put up around Thanksgiving, and total cost of the project is to be borne through contributions. Anyone wishing to donate to the Christmas lighting project is asked to give their money to Lester Shanks, head of the CCA trade development committee, or to committee members Bill Turner or O'Dean Heard.

The lights to be purchased include nine skyline and 14 lighted scrolls on poles.

After a discussion of Halloween vandalism, Mayor Joe Fone told the 19 CCA members present the city would pay for the lighting of six special deputies to patrol the town Halloween night.

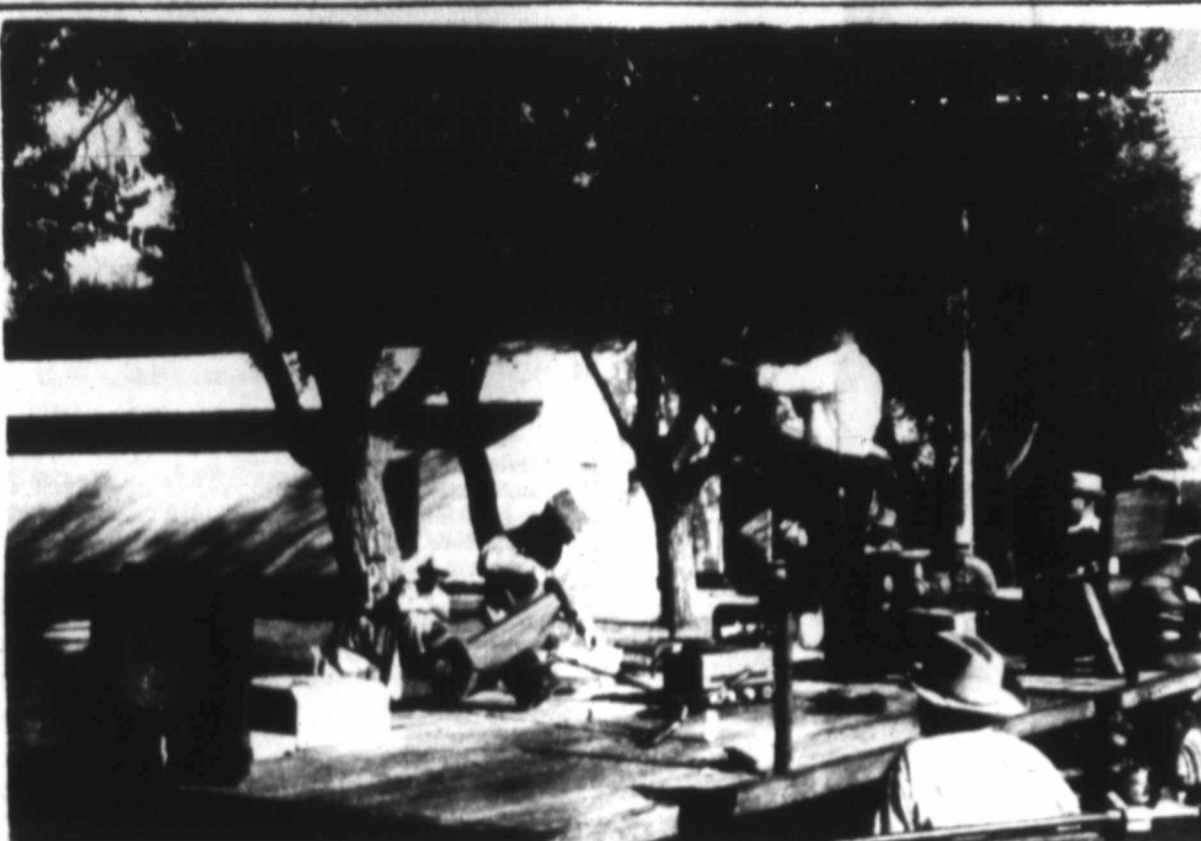

It was reported that signs boosting Sudan have been made and the CCA now needs permission from landowners along U.S. 34 to install them.

Also, Marvin Tollett, president of the membership committee, asked that members send in their dues, set at $15 for business dues, and $10 for individuals.

P-TA COUNCIL SETS SUDAN MEETING

The Bi-County Council P. T. A. will meet in Sudan on Tuesday, Nov. 5 at 2 p. m. in the cafeteria.

Johnny Clark Jr., Oilton superintendent and chairman of Council Legislative Committee, will discuss the 1963-64 P. T. A. legislative program.

TRADES DAY AUCTION - Auctioneer Harvey Grigby points to a bidder in the first Sudan Trades Days Auction Saturday. Some of the items still to be sold may be seen on the platform. (Staff Photo)

First Trades Days, Auction Held Here

Sudan had its first "Trades Days" last weekend, and participants reported a "fair response" to this effort to keep Sudan business in Sudan.

A good crowd turned out for the auction, which was postponed from morning to Saturday afternoon so more items could be put up for sale. The crowd was not large, but was considered good in view of the fact that the auction was not given more than a couple of days' advance publicity.

An electric lawn mower in running condition sold at the auction for $7; a variety of items were sold, ranging from a meat slicer through cedar posts and rocking chairs to a commode. A Model A wheel sold for 10 cents, and auctioneer Harvey Grigby did a fine job of pushing the items, reported Calvin Jordan, president of the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, sponsoring the trades days and auction.

Many of those downtown said they had items they would bring to the next auction, indicating a good turnout when the event is held around the last of November.

A special Trades Days section of local bargains was run in the newspaper and 3,000 extra copies of the section mailed out or otherwise distributed in the area.

Templeton Dies Thursday At Amherst

Funeral services were conducted last Saturday for William T. Templeton, longtime Amherst resident, who died last Thursday following a heart attack.

Rev. John Rankin and Leroy Cowan officiated at services at the First Baptist Church, Amherst. Burial followed in Amherst Cemetery under direction of Payne Funeral Home.

Templeton, 59, farmed four miles northeast of Amherst. He had not been ill prior to the heart attack. Survivors include his wife, Ester; a son, Pete of Amherst; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Templeton, Princeton, Tex.; a brother, Jim of Amherst; two sisters, Mrs. Dellar Isbell of Tyler and Mrs. Vera Stout of McKinney; two grandchildren.

Youth Collect For CROP For Needy

Members of youth groups from the First Baptist and First Methodist churches of Sudan Monday evening collected house-to-house donations for CROP, the Christian Rural Overseas Program.

Contributions collected in the campaign here provide "treats" for refugee children and other needy persons throughout the world.

has been asked to supply the rice. A gift of $4 will provide a meal a day of rice for one child for an entire year.

"We missed some of the Sudan homes," a spokesman for the youth groups said, "and any donations from those we missed will be appreciated." Contributions will be accepted by Mrs. J. W. House, Methodist youth counselor, at the Sudan Beacon-News office.

Mrs. J. M. Hicks and daughter, Miss Adelaide Hicks, of Rochester visited last week in the home of Mrs. Hick's sister, Mrs. H. W. Qualls. Also visiting Sunday with Mrs. Qualls were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Qualls and Mrs. Henrietta Jefferies and children of Fieldton.

IN PEACE CORPS - Mickey Rudd, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ruck of Sudan, and a graduate of Bala High School, recently returned from a Peace Corps stay in Venezuela. He now is a student at South Plains College.

Spooks To March At Carnival

Witches and goblins will be gathered at the school for Halloween in Sudan this year as the entire community joins in making tonight an evening of fun for every age.

E. S. A., sponsors of the carnival this year, invites parents to come and bring their children. The E. S. A.'s primary object is to make this "a happy, safe Halloween". All proceeds from this carnival will be used by classes and organizations for needs within our own community.

Following is a schedule of events and a list of booths under way at present time:

7:30 - 8:30 - Oct. 31 - High School Auditorium.

Musical entertainment. Spook Parade - All youngsters are urged to wear their costumes and join in the parade for fun and prizes and the adults are invited to watch.

Awarding of Door Prize - G. E. Radio.

Presentation of Queen Candidates.

Crowning of Queen - The Girl Scouts are offering a free baby sitting service during the coronation as a service project. Space in the high school building will be reserved for this group.

8:30 till 11 - Carnival in gymnasium.

Cake Walk - (Home baked cakes) - 1935 Study Club.

Operation X - (Calling Dr. Casey) - Junior Class.

Basketball Tom - Rotary Club.

Bingo - Jaycees.

Spook House (So scary, p. - Senior Class.

Beatnik Coffee Shop (man!) - Freshman.

Concession Stand - Class.

Silhouettes - (A Real - Junior Class.

Coin Toss - 8th Grade Class.

Auto Smash (Frustrations and pent-up energy go with this booth) - Jaycees.

Fishin' Pond - 1935 Study Club.

Fortune Telling - FHA.

Sheriff and Jail (All you need is someone to go your bail!) - Junior Class.

Concession - Young Home-makers.

Exes Elect Bill Boyles

Bill Boyles was named president of the Ex-student organization at the annual homecoming of the group held Saturday evening at Sudan schools. Named to serve with him were Dick West, vice president; and Mrs. Mayble Haragan, secretary.

Receiving recognition as coming the farthest to attend was Mrs. Genevieve Chamberlain of Olney, Ill. From the honor classes of 1938 and 1939 the one coming the greatest distance was Evelyn Milam of Sherman.

Appearing on the program were a number of honor class members including Betty Masten, Jim Shuttleworth of Phillips, and Charlene Wood of Morton.

Those present from the class of '39 were Charlene Wood, Margaret Gentry, Joseph Foust, Morton; Edna Sinclair, Lubbock; Freda Shuttleworth, Phillips; W. C. and Betty Masten, Sudan; and Hazel Miller, of Smyer.

Attending from the class of '39 were Cleo Hill, Fort Worth; Arthur Kent, Bovinn; Kenneth Wiseman, Sara Woods, W. B. Jones Jr., Mayble Haragan, Doyle Watkins, Hoyt Robertson, and Raymon Maxwell, all of Sudan.

Sudan, Kress To Tangle

The Sudan Hornets, with a disappointing record of only two wins in seven games, play host to Kress Kangaroos Friday night, with the Hornets a slight favorite to improve their record.

Kress has won two out of eight, and has tied one, but the Kangaroos appear weaker than Sudan. Last week, Springlake clobbered Kress 49-7, and earlier Farwell rocked Kress 42-0. Sudan was beaten 26-0 by Springlake two weeks ago in the Hornets' last outing.

In the tail end of this season, Sudan already is looking to next year, as the 1964 football schedule was released this week. The Hornets no longer play Morton, which reportedly plans to play only Class AA teams, and will add Silverton, the new district member.

The schedule:
Sept. 4 - at Plains
Sept. 11 - Preship
Sept. 18 - at Amherst
Sept. 25 - Sundown
Oct. 2 - Priona
Oct. 9 - open
Oct. 16 - Springlake
Oct. 23 - at Silverton
Oct. 30 - at Kress
Nov. 6 - Farwell
Nov. 13 - at Hale Center

Springlake and Farwell continued to roll along unworried in district play last week as the Wolverines coasted over Kress 49-7 and Farwell laced Hale Center 43-0. This week Hale Center goes to Springlake and Farwell rests, while Kress and Sudan tangle.

EDITORIAL:

A Note To Teenagers

If you are one of Sudan's teenagers, this message is meant for you. There has been a lot of talk in recent weeks about you and what you will be doing Halloween night.

There are those who say many of you are young hoodlums (girls included) who are intent on destroying and defacing as much property as you can tonight. We can't agree with that, because we feel like most of you are pretty good folks, and many of you are our friends. Unfortunately, there are a few among you who have little regard for the rights and property of others, and they give the entire teenage crowd a bad name, since bad conduct always gets a lot more publicity than good conduct.

There are others who say, "Let the kids alone; they're not hurting anything," and they are saying that even mentioning the possibility of a rampage of destruction on Halloween night is asking for more trouble. We can't agree with this either. Ignoring a problem never did solve it, and anyone who says that nothing really destructive or dangerous is committed in Sudan on most Halloween nights surely never has been downtown on Halloween night.

So, our young friends, what happens tonight really is up to you. We like fun as well as anybody, and nobody blames you for wanting to have fun and create a little mischief, so long as it is not at the expense of someone else. There's nothing wrong with soaping windows, moving signs or anything else that doesn't destroy or deface property. But painting obscene words, spraying paint on buildings, setting fires, turning on fire hydrants, overturning trailers, and piling trash in streets are not especially funny.

And if you think it takes courage to do all those things just to prove you're not afraid to do it, remember that it takes even more guts sometimes to refuse to do anything which will cost someone else some money, especially if there is someone standing there ready to call you chicken if you don't.

We sincerely believe that most of you are good citizens in the community, and in many cases, a lot better citizens than some of the older persons living here. Have your fun tonight, and if you can come up with some good practical jokes, we'll be the first to applaud. But try to remember to have no part in anything out of line, and prove to the doubters that you are a lot bigger than they thought you were.

OES HAS INSTALLATION

OES met Oct. 21, with Anna Lee Steer, Worthy Matron, in charge. O. D. Martin, Worthy Patron, assisted. The Worthy Matron gave a Grand Chapter report, and by Oleta Reece, who attended a convention in Dallas. Present were Lora Blanchard, Nita Shuttlesworth, Birdie Shuttlesworth, Julia Kamp, Betty Martin, Annie Chester, Cora Carter, Willie Terrell, Hazel Gaston, Ruth Baker, Ruth Newman, Celia Dryden, Bell Olds, Virginia Rone. Refreshments were served by Julia Kamp and Willie Terrell. Initiation services for Noble Dudgeon were held at the called meeting of the local Order of the Eastern Star Chapter held Monday evening in the Masonic Hall. Conducting the initiation was Johnny Robison of Hale Center. Presiding was Worthy Matron Anna Lee Steer. Others present were O. D. Martin, Oleta Reece, Mike Carter, Bell Olds, Betty Martin, Rosie Pinkerton, Lora Blanchard, Joe Rone, Julia Kamp, Sara Woods, Birdie Shuttlesworth, Winona Dudgeon, Celia Dryden, Willie Terrell and Mrs. Johnny Robison of Hale Center. Those in charge of refreshment were Mrs. Steer, Dorothea Reese, and Hazel Gaston.

ESA HALLOWEEN PARTY HELD

The ESA Halloween party was held Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Cowart. The group, in keeping with the party theme, wore funny-face masks, and for entertainment joined in a scavenger hunt. Mrs. Tommy McKenzie was hostess. Those present with the hostess and the Cowarts were Messrs. and Mesdames Gayle Brown, O'Dean Martin, Dexter Baker, Emory Blume, Gene Duval, Joe Burt Markham, Bobby Jack Markham, Buddy Pickett, Nick Nichols, Bud Provence and Bob Taylor.

Claude Cook and Lilburn Bales of Amherst, and Bruce Newman and Warren McCurry of Sudan are in McCook, Neb. this week pheasant hunting.

Linda Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Drake, was confined during the weekend to the hospital in Amherst.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Scott and Randy and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heffington of Spade were at Umbarger Lake Sunday.

WCS NEWS
The Week of Prayer and Self Denial program was observed Monday by the WCS of First Methodist Church when the group met for an all-day meeting and a sacrificial meal during the noon hour.

In charge of planning the meal were Mrs. Joe Salem, Mrs. Rodney Nichols and Mrs. J. E. Dryden.

Mrs. Kenneth Burgess was program director and those giving parts were Mrs. Matt Nix Jr., Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. E. C. Minyard and Mrs. A. Pinkerton.

Others present were Mesdames L. R. Burck, Shelby Morris, Bruce Newman, A. W. Ormand, Frank Weir and Weldon Shaffer.

Rugby, Anyone?

Vividly striped rugby shirts have brightened the playing fields of England for many years. Now they're invading the U.S. scene. Macshore Classics have taken these shirts off the backs of English footballers and placed them in the wardrobe of every smart American co-ed and office girl. Macshore's 'authentic fakes' are in 100 per cent woven fabric. They can be had in true-to-form navy and red stripes or such renegade color combinations as yellow and black, and orange and black. In pullover shirt or shift dress styles, they come complete with white attached collars. The Rugby Shirt sells for about $5. The Rugby Dress costs around $11. Both are from Macshore.

Study Club Convenes

"Time to Look at Federation" was the subject topic for the meeting Monday evening of the 1935 Study Club held in the home of Mrs. Beulah Wiseman.

"To strengthen the arm of liberty" was the motto given by the program director Mrs. Wesley Hargesheimer. Roll call was answered with "Name of Department of Gen. Fed."

Mrs. C. E. Nichols had a part in the program when her subject was "Lights to Brighter Pathways". She read the club collect and explained what it could mean to people.

Initiation services were conducted for Mrs. Mike Carter. Those performing the service were Mrs. R. S. Gatewood, Mrs. S. D. Hay, Mrs. Byron Ford.

Mrs. Gatewood presided at the business session when plans were made to have booths at the Halloween carnival. Also it was announced the school cafeteria has been reserved for a chili supper the club will serve Nov. 15.

Attending were Mesdames Ford, Gatewood, Hay, Nichols, Hargesheimer, Carter, Weaver Barnett, J. S. Smith, Mary Bowman, C. M. Sparkman and R. D. Nix.

My greatest inspiration is a challenge to attempt the impossible.

No problem will go away just because its feelings are hurt at being ignored.

NOW THEY'RE WEARING

Fashions From Sheets

Women will wear anything, provided it's stylish, colorful, comfortable, and different. Take sheets, for example. They've turned so fashionable that women are stitching them up into elegant-looking lounge-wear and hostess outfits.

A New York dress designer took one look at a new collection of cotton percale sheets in brilliant south-of-the-border colors and patterns, picked up her sketch pad, and promptly created a delightful series of at-home separates.

Sewing instructions for hostess pajamas, Spanish flapper tunic dress, and mother-daughter sheet gown coordinates are available from Lady Pepperell, 111 West 40 Street, New York 18, N. Y.

Although they are pretty and smart enough to wear, the new sheets are primarily designed for use as beautiful bed ensembles with colors and patterns in keeping with the latest trends in home furnishings.

HOSTESS PJS—Cotton percale sheets and pillowcases have turned so fashionable that women are wearing them. These hostess pajamas were made from a fitted sheet and pillowcase in Lady Pepperell's Daisy Dream design.

Visiting Saturday in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Masten and Mr. and Mrs. Matt Nix Jr. were Mr. and Mrs. Don Ed Robinson, Mr. A. B. Glenn and Mrs. Matt Nix Sr. of Amherst.

Mrs. Gilbert Masten accompanied Mrs. James Masten of Morton to Pecos Saturday. Also in Pecos Friday and Saturday were Bob and W. C. Masten.

Evelyn Milam of Sherman visited during the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Milam, and while here attended the homecoming activities.

Jimmy Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fields, was on the sick list the first of the week.

Among those attending homecoming activities at West Texas State University in Canyon during the weekend were Mrs. Charles Wiseman and Mrs. Lavene Kamp. Ola Frances Wiseman, daughter of Mrs. Wiseman, is a student at WTSU.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS
By VERN SANFORD

Keeping warm out on the deer stand, or in a duck blind, or fishing a lake or bay in the dead of winter, can be something of a real problem to the outdoorsman.

One reason some outdoorsmen feel the cold so intensely is that they begin the day wearing too much clothing. I know it sounds ridiculous—getting cold because of too much clothing—so let me explain.

You start the morning off wearing enough apparel to keep you warm at the time. But actually you've got on too many clothes.

To begin with you feel the cold more because you've just come out of a warm house. In getting breakfast and dressing you've done relatively little physical exercise to generate body heat.

Now let's take a duck hunt as an example. In addition to woolen underwear, you're bundled up in a sweatshirt, a zip-up jacket and a heavy parka. You feel real comfortable at the time.

Excuse Warm Body
Exercise Warm Body
Then the work begins. You trudge out to the blind lugging a gun, shells and sacks of decoys. Next you put out the decoys. You're doing a lot of physical exercise so pretty soon you've worked up a good sweat.

Then you step back into the blind for the hunt. There you're doing very little to generate body heat. So pretty soon you start feeling the cold because you're wet with perspiration.

You can avoid this cold by not wearing so many heavy clothes.

Don't wear the heavy coats when you're putting out the decoys. In omitting this heavy outer apparel you'll avoid working up a sweat. Put on the extra coats only when you actually need them.

Many outdoorsmen complain of cold feet. There's a way to avoid that, too. You can wear insulated socks inside your boots or waders. Or put on a pair of lightweight dress socks and then some heavy woolen socks.

Wear Loose Boots
Be sure your feet don't fit too snug inside the boot. A tight fit results in cutting down blood circulation in your feet. And with poor circulation you'll feel the chill.

Wrist-high waders of course offer more protection against water than do hip boots. But waders can be mighty cold if you're not careful.

Personally I prefer boot-foot waders over the stocking-foot type.

With the stocking-foot type, you have to wear tennis shoes or wading shoes. To keep the waders from slipping inside the shoes, you must tie the laces rather tight. If you do a lot of walking in thick mud, the laces generally are tied around the ankle. This is to keep the mud from pulling the shoes off. Such a tight bind across the instep or around the ankles cuts blood circulation. Result—cold feet.

When your feet has room within the boot, you can warm your feet by wiggling your toes to stimulate circulation. But just try to wiggle your toes in a boot that fits snug tight. It's the same way with your dress shoes. Your feet get colder in tight shoes than they do in loose-fitting ones.

Wear Caps With Flaps
What about cold ears? A cap with ear flaps is a must.

But don't tie those flaps down snug when you're working or exercising vigorously. Moist generated by your body will make your head and ears wet with sweat. Let the flaps hang loose during periods of activity—then tie them down.

It's a good idea to carry along a towel. It's great for wiping the sweat from your head and face. Also if you have room in your hunting coat, take along a spare hunting cap. It will be welcome after a heavy downpour.

Coffee, hot tea and hot chocolate are wonderful for restoring body heat in those hours of inactivity when you're waiting for the ducks or deer to show. But don't take alcoholic beverages. The "warming" effect may warm you when you drink it, but it slows down blood circulation and shortly you'll get colder than ever.

But more important than that—alcohol and gun powder just don't mix.

Food Warms The Body
You also can build up body heat by munching a chocolate bar, or by eating an apple or an orange.

Gloves are a must in cold weather. But get the right kind to suit the purpose.

Leather gloves are okay for the deer hunter who has little occasion to stick his hands in water. Gloves should be loose fitting so the one on your trigger hand can be slipped off in a hurry.

Leather gloves are not good for duck hunting or fishing. They get wet easily and soak up a lot of water. Then when you dry them out, they'll shrink and get stiff.

For working around water get cotton gloves that have been rubberized. Again they should be large enough so you can slip them on and off easily.

If possible, skip shaving the day before you make the cold weather hunting or fishing trip. That stubble on your face offers some protection against cold and it will help prevent face chapping.

As an extra precaution, take along a change of clothes and leave them in the car. You never know when you'll get caught in a rain squall or perhaps take an unexpected dunking.

Don't let cold weather spoil your outdoors enjoyment. Dress right, and you'll hardly notice the cold.

Sr.-Fresh Win Powder Puff Game

The Senior-Freshman team of Sudan High School girls defeated the Junior-Sophomore team 14-8 Tuesday night in a game which saw lots of penalties, a good deal of confusion, and some swift running by several members of the so-called weather sex.

The senior-fresh team scored first in the first quarter when Cypsy Flemmings ran across from about 10 yards away. A two-point run was made by somebody or other, and it was 8-0. It took the gold-shirted junior-soph team only a couple of plays after the kickoff to score, as quarterback Ten-Ton Logan broke loose around left end and ran 58 yards to score. The Gold team also converted two points and it was 8-8 at halftime.

The Black scored what eventually proved to be the winning margin when Aggie Bug Miller streaked at least 50 yards for a touchdown (there were no yard markers, so who can tell?).

This was not the end of action, though, as several long runs and a couple of apparent touchdowns were called back on penalties. It looked once like the Gold would tie it up near the end of the game when Gabby Hayes intercepted a pass and ran deep into Black territory. However, Blind Mad Madgett recovered a fumble near the senior-fresh goal line to stop that threat.

At one point in the game, about a hundred players and spectators were on the field, apparently looking for someone's contact lenses, although one observer suggested they were looking for the football.

Picture of Progress

The first three-engined transport built in the U. S. since the thirties, American Airlines' 727 Astrojet, lines up alongside the most famous of the earlier airplanes, a Ford Tri-Motor. Occasion was the rollout at Renton, Wash. of the first of 25 Boeing jetliners to be delivered to American for service beginning early in 1964. The 600 mile an hour airliner, the nation's newest, will seat more than 90 passengers. The Ford shown here was built in 1929 and flew for American's immediate predecessor, American Airways from 1931 to 1935. A year ago, the company repurchased and restored the airplane and it has been visiting airports throughout the country. Eventually it will be presented to the Smithsonian Institution's National Air Museum to be built in Washington, D. C.

Those present were Pam Seefeld, Sue Templeton, Gwen Hughes, Deon Grigby, Jana West, Deanna Phillips, Jo Gaye Doty, Sharon Lambert, Darla Royal, Vicki Garrett, Jeanetta Fortenberry, Dorles Graves, Donna Provence, Terri McKenzie, Debbie Ritchie, Cecilia Knox, and leaders Pam West and Marilyn Royal, and assistant Mrs. Waynell Templeton.

CUB SCOUT DEN 4 MEETS AT MAY HOME

Cub Scout Den 4 met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Harold May. Mrs. May acted as Den Mother.

The program consisted of making jack-o-lanterns and playing games.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. May to Kirk Ross, Rocky Williams, Johnny Tijerina, David Heard, Howell Cardwell and Kevin May.

HOME in inner or outer space

Along with the annual leaf raking, pumpkin cutting, and window cleaning fall phobias, millions of Americans will spend their free time these coming weekends at the football stadium.

Last year, in fact, more than 26,000,000 people took time out to do just that.

Closely associated with this world of first downs, "Yan teams" and field goals is the pre-game picnic. The pigskin picnic can range from a parking lot feast—with tableclothed card table, silverware and portable bar—to a sandwich and container of coffee at the game.

In many cases the picnic is almost as important as the game itself. Oftentimes elaborate plans are made to arrive at the game-site early, for a leisurely meal from the back of the car and a tour of the old alma mater. A picnic jug of anything from ice tea to hot toddies is a necessary carry over to the stadium seat.

Today, you can eat or drink foods at the right temperature hours after they're packed, thanks to the modern insulated picnic jug.

A unique line of these jugs featuring special insulation—in effect a sandwich of plastic—keeps food and drink at the right temperature at least 20 per cent longer than conventional containers, according to the manufacturer, Columbus Plastic Products, Inc., Columbus, Ohio. Lustro-Ware triple-insulated jugs, as they are called, may be cleaned in boiling water, are unaffected by food acids and are designed to meet the rigors of stadium picnics.

The two-tone jugs are square shaped, lightweight and possess a wide-mouth opening to facilitate filling and cleaning. The jug comes in half-gallon and gallon sizes.

Boating Leaders Predict New Gains

CHICAGO Boating industry leaders from New York to California saw bright prospects for 1964 sales at a recent trading meeting here. Predicting a 20 per cent increase in sales for his Mercury outboard motors and MerCruiser stern drives was Carl Kiekhaefer, president, Kiekhaefer Corporation, Fond du Lac, Wisconsin (holding wheel). Presidents of three leading boat companies, (left to right) Robert Stuart, Penn Yan Boats, Penn Yan, N.Y.; Jerry Neiger, Glaspar Boats, Santa Ana, Calif.; and Ted Esselt, Lone Star Boats, Plano, Texas, are among some 185 boat manufacturers who offer Kiekhaefer's new MerCruiser stern drive engines in their 1964 models.

A long cry from the days of luke warm milk and cold coffee, the jugs avoid the necessity of long lines at refreshment stands and the chance of losing your seat.

Sherry Jackson, that little girl who used to be on The Danny Thomas Show, plays an alcoholic in a segment of Mr. Novak. Tony Dow (Leave It To Beaver) is starting to play with the big boys. He'll be a murder suspect in an episode of Arrest and Trial. And 18-year-old Tim McIntire, son of John, works with his father in a Wagon Train. Composer Henry Carmichael has promised the premiere of his new "Johnny Appleseed Suite," a symphonic work, to Bell Telephone Hour. Producer Barry Wood hopes to present it next March. People Will Talk, daytime, hosted by Dennis James, got a renewal from NBC.

BURGESS MEREKETH WILL CO-STAR with Patty McCormack in Rawhide's "Incident in Paradise"; and with Gena Rowlands on Breaking Point in "Heart of Marble, Body of Stone." NBC's answer to CBS's Leonard Bernstein: Igor Stravinsky, conductor of the Fort Wayne Philharmonic, will host a Children's Theater special Dec. 15. Featuring a 55-piece orchestra, Stravinsky will explain the instruments, show their interplay, etc. Ironie note: He conducted the New York Philharmonic's young people's concerts before CBS transported them to TV under Bernstein. Actor Martin Gabel has been signed by producer David Welton to narrate "The Making of the President — 1960" documentary. Comedian Woody Allen, The Tattlers, The Brothers Four and Will Holt will be the guests when Hootenanny originates from Tuesday Weld on the University of Pittsburgh.

TUESDAY WELD will guest-star on an upcoming Danny Kaye Show. Jack Weston (The Hathaways), Ma Lapins (Mr. Adams and Eve), Gena Rowlands (97th Precinct) and Louie Nickles (The New Breed), all veterans of television series, get together in a Kraft Suspense Theatre episode called "One Step Down." Another collection of people-who-used-to-be-in-another-series: Dick York (Going My Way), Warren Oates (Stoney Burke) and Jean Freeman (Bus Stop), all working in a Virginian episode. CBS will promote its own golf tournament for TV, a 15-week series called CBS Match Play Classic, scheduled for Saturday afternoons from 4 to 5 (ET) beginning Dec. 28. Every major pro except Arnold Palmer and Gary Player, whose challenge Golf is on ABC, will compete for $150,000 in prize money. Old pro Tommy Armour will help call the shots.

ROADSIGNS FOR LAUNDERING

Can You Read These Signs?

The symbols above translated say "wash in hot water using any good soap or detergent and bleach." Dry clean if you must. Iron with a hot iron. These particular three symbols could appear on a vat dyed or printed article. The symbols would help tell you that vat dyed materials can be laundered along with white clothes if you wish since they are colorfast and that they do not require special handling or laundering time.

You, too, can help to encourage the use of the symbols by pointing out the laundry. Next time you buy clothing or home-hold articles look for the Sure Care symbols. If you don't find them ask for them. The word will go back to manufacturers who are in a position as you are to make the sure care symbols more free of laundering time.

Here are the Sure Care Symbols with their Latin words to help you understand the above your own laundry machine.

GENERAL TELEPHONE TOWNS ON THE MOVE

Moorman Manufacturing comes to Comanche

When a Texas town of about 4000 population gains a branch plant of one of the Nation's top manufacturers of livestock mineral and protein concentrates, it is a shining example of civic progress.

Because this is the heart of a vast market area, the Comanche Chamber of Commerce was able to secure a division of Moorman Manufacturing Company. In its new plant, Moorman makes a large number of products with other products warehoused and distributed from the Comanche facility. This is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in. If your town seeks additional information about expansion, perhaps we can help. Just write our Community Development Department, Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas.

Scripture: St. John 8:47-51.

"He that is of God heareth God's words; ye therefore hear them not because ye are not of God."

Do you hear God's Words? I could stop this here, and as each of us began to ask ourselves this question and the questions that would probably follow up the asking of this one, those of us who know God would be "tuning in" our minds to hear more of what God is saying; those who do not know God would be wondering how we could hear God's words, or perhaps skeptical that anyone had heard God's words.

God's words — how are they heard? I perhaps do not know all the ways that God can speak to men, but I do know some of the ways, because I have heard Him speak to me. I can tell you then some of the ways in which I hear God's words: In prayer — in prayer I begin to talk to God and then I find myself listening, sometimes without being conscious that I have stopped talking to listen. As God puts thoughts into my mind, and tells me things I am to do — remember, the more we pray, the more we learn how to pray, and the more "receptive" is our spiritual ear to listen to God — then I begin in humble thankfulness to know that I have heard from God; in His written Word — God's words written on a page are as truly spoken to us today as when they were first spoken ("Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." St. Matthew 24:35; "For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in Heaven." Psalms 119:89), and as we read His words, because He is alive and present with us, He through the mystery of the Holy Spirit explains, teaches, guides and comforts us, His born again children.

I hear from God in worship services through the reading and preaching of His words by His ministers, the music of His songs and the comforting fellowship of His other children present in this world; in the works of His hands, all His creation, I hear His written words coming into my mind as though He were speaking them anew; then in a most precious way He speaks to me through the Holy Spirit at a moment when man would not plan it, and I am brought into "heavenly places" with such a close fellowship with Him that I can hardly bear it for the joy, much less explain it.

Who is on the Lord's side? Who for Him will go? Are you safe from death, from sin, from hell, in Jesus, who alone can save you into Eternal Life? If you are, thank our Father for His love, and revelation of Himself to you, obey His words as you seek Him; if you do not know Jesus, I am asking you now to "Come and see" as Phillip asked Nathaniel in God's Word. (St. John 1:45-

SAM HOUSTON STAMP

Senator Ralph Yarborough of Texas, right, attends the unveiling of the new Sam Houston 5¢ Commemorative Stamp with Postmaster General John Gronouski at the stamp section of the United States Bureau of Engraving. The drawing of Texas hero Sam Houston is by Tom Lea, famed Southwestern artist of El Paso, Texas. Senator Yarborough, a member of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee recommended Lea as the one to make the design for the Post Office Department. The stamp shows a full length drawing of Sam Houston who was 6 foot 6 inches tall and portrays him as he would have looked at the time he defeated the Mexican Army at the battle of San Jacinto.

51. Read it for yourself.) Then, like Nathaniel, you will find that Jesus sought you and "saw" you before you ever thought of coming to Him. Jesus made us, He died for us, He knows us, and He continually seeks to save us. Won't you stop and find out how to live forever? You have no real excuse for not knowing, because it is recorded for you in God's Word, and His Word is Truth. I plead with you, therefore, come and see Jesus! He can save you now! He can give you a joy and peace that you have never had before, and you will know through Him how to live eternally. To whom can you go except Jesus for Eternal Life?

The Holy Spirit... shall teach you all things. —(John 14:26).

If we but recognize the presence and reality of the indwelling Spirit we will be able to consult it for guidance and illumination.

SHORT AND SWEET

The Oldest Store Museum, formerly the C. F. Hamblen Store—which dates back to 1875—is the oldest store still in operation in St. Augustine, Fla., the oldest city in the United States... Originally a grocery store other lines of merchandise were later added and it gradually became a general store... At one time the store sold and serviced early model automobiles.

The Oldest Store Museum recalls the days when the store was doing a thriving business around 1800 in the once-popular sidelines of harnesses, saddlery, feed and grain, coal and other types of fuel...

There are more than 100,000 items to fascinate and astound the customer... Of particular interest are the Gun Maker's shop, Tobacco Department, and the interesting early automobile service station items...

From the moment you step inside the Museum, you're transported back to the 1800's—to the days of the high-wheeled bicycles and the Gibson Girl... The Museum's personnel, both men and women, wear the styles popular at the turn of the century... You can buy old-fashioned underwear, a spinning wheel and old-fashioned dolls and toys for the youngsters... You may even help yourself to a pickle from the pickle jar...

Scores of the nation's older manufacturing firms have assisted in setting up the Oldest Store Museum by donating old packages, posters, wrappers, advertisements, labels and point of purchase material, all from the era of around the turn of the century... This type of advertising Americana is rapidly passing from the scene and can only be found in private collections or in the archives of the companies that preserved a few specimens for historical background.

The oldest piece of music extant with English words is "Sumer Is Icumen In," composed at Reading Abbey in the 13th century.

New York cab driver Edward Adler, who dreams up TV scripts while on the job, sold one to East Side, West Side, titled "Not Bad for Openers".... Lucille Ball will turn up as the harried conductor of a symphony orchestra on a Lucy this fall. Wally Cox will be her frightened tympantist... Vincent Edwards has also turned director. He has just finished a Ben Casey with Mary Astor as guest-star and plans to direct more... Gay Williams (Zorro) will be a new regular in Bonanza, in the role of Will Cartwright, younger brother of Ben (Lorne Greene). Fernell Roberts has not left the series yet, but it is expected that he will ride into the sunset in near future... Gig Young appears as himself in "Birth of a Star," episode of Hollywood and the Stars, Nov. 11.

JONATHAN WINTERS will do a total of 10 Jack Paar guest shots this season... Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs, who play the Beverly Hillbillies theme, will appear on ABC's Hootenanny in Oct. The show for that episode will originate from the Naval Academy at Annapolis... Ricky Nelson's wife Kris, she's sportscaster Tommy Harmon's daughter, will appear this season on Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet... Mel Ferrer's first Hollywood directing job will be a Farmer's Daughter segment Danny Thomas, whose show is currently going into its 11th year, has already been asked by his sponsors to renew for a 12th... Tim Conway, who has been notably unromantic in McHale's Navy so far, gets a love interest in one episode this year. She is Sheila James, Zella of Dobie Gillis... Robert Wagner's first TV guest-starring job will be an Eleventh Hour episode, "Face of a Man."
