WOODWORK BY DALTON

IT'S THAT time of year again, the wonderful holiday of Christmas, which means different things to many people, but to all is welcome.

Christmas is a time to greet a friend, wrap a gift, help the needy, sing a carol, light a candle, trim a tree, read your Bible, make candy, draw out your savings, send a card, surprise a neighbor, delight a child, get the family together, and most of all, to say a prayer and be thankful for what you have.

One noticeable thing about Christmas is that even the grumpiest of folks are usually a bit less cantankerous. Steps are a bit lighter and smiles a bit more frequent.

Offhand, we can't think of anybody we dislike enough to exclude them from our wish for a pleasant Christmas. We believe most folks feel that way right now, and certainly one can see evidence of such goodwill in the Christmas greetings presented in this issue of the paper from business firms and individuals who traditionally use this method of saying Merry Christmas to all their friends.

The Christmas greetings of the merchants were chosen by them individually for their message. Since they have gone to the time and expense of choosing these messages, their friends would be ungrateful not to read them over carefully.

Try this, and if you've missed getting the feeling of Christmas so far, maybe you'll feel more like it by the time you have read this edition.

SOMEONE MADE the remark the other day that they couldn't think of anything more ridiculous than a hunger strike. Which is true. The average person's reaction to a hunger strike would be to let the gink starve, rather than bow to whatever he or she is striking for.

One guy went on a hunger strike to keep from having to serve in Viet Nam. A girl went on a hunger strike to protest the rules governing Catholic priest. And so on. No wonder my companion thinks hunger strikes are ridiculous.

I think that if ever I want to get some idea across strongly enough to strike about it, I'll go on an eating strike. I will start eating, and eat continuously until they do things the way I want them.

Sometimes I do this even when I don't have any particular point to get across.

CHRISTMAS DINNER HONORS LOCAL FIRM EMPLOYEES

Employees and families of the Lamb County Business Company were entertained Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Downs with a Christmas dinner and party. Co-host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Bridwell.

line. A fitted bodice with an oval neckline, long sleeves trimmed with white fur and velvet-covered buttons topped the A-line skirt. The fingertip silk illusion veil was attached to a circle of white fur. She wore pearl jewelry and her bouquet consisted of variegated holly and red berries surrounding a red poinsettia.

Miss Karen Miller of Baton Rouge, attended her sister as maid of honor. Mrs. Doyle Allen Jr. of Baton Rouge was bridesmatron and Miss Beulah Landrum of Amherst was bridesmaid. They wore identical floor-length dresses of red velvet.

Best man was Doyle Allen Jr. of Baton Rouge. Groomsmen were Dilwood White of Waco and Pat Brown and ushers were Mike Meates and Bob Newman.

Mrs. Joe Myrtle Hanson and Lairy Beasom of Amherst were organist and soloist.

A reception in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mix, followed the ceremony.

For travel, the bride chose a three-piece blue and beige wool ensemble. Her accessories were brown and her carriage was holly and red berries.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage will reside in Home View Apartments at College Station.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Sudan High School and attended Texas Tech and the University of Texas. Savage is a 1963 graduate of Sudan High School and is enrolled in Texas A&M as a junior majoring in aerospace engineering.

Mrs. Billie East of Okemune City, Okla., paternal grandmother of the bride attended the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Maxwell plan to spend the holidays with her father, F. C. Weaver, at Fort Sumner.

Sudan Basketball Teams Enter Sundown Tourney

Both the boys and girls basketball teams were defeated in the second go-round of the Sundown tournament by teams from Cotton Center.

The Hornets won out over the Meadow boys in the first game of the tournament by a score of time 57-56 leading at halftime 31-25.

Mike Bellar was high pointer with 23 points followed by Corley Baker with 17.

In the game with Cotton Center, Baker scored 28 points and Bellar 11, with Sudan leading at halftime 24-23. Both teams scored 18 points during the third quarter, but Cotton Center took the lead during the final quarter and ended the game in their favor 63-54. Cotton Center went on to win first place trophy defeating Three Way in the finals.

The Hornets won their game with Meadow 48-38 with Joyce Williams scoring 18, and Sherman, 13; Terry Fox, 11. In the semi-finals Cotton Center defeated Sudan by a slim two points with Terry Fox scoring 28 points. Sudan's girls won the tournament by defeating Cotton Center 59-48 in the finals.

Sudan hosted the Okemune boys Tuesday night and will meet with Meadow at Homestead on (Thursday).

STUDENT COUNCIL VOTES ON AMENDMENTS

By LANCY LANCE

The Student Council of Sudan High School met Dec. 6, discussed and voted on some amendments to their constitution. These will be presented to the student body to be voted on at a later date.

The council program included a film "All Mine to Give".

The past week, Dec. 18-22, was "study" week. Rules included that each girl must have obtained a license before talking to a boy.

A Kappa Kappa Court was set up for the week following the Christmas holidays, when girls caught who were caught will be cited and sentenced during this month.

Mrs. Joe D. Furst and son, Zachary of Littlefield, visited Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Miller.

Piano Recital Held Saturday

Miss Sharon Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, presented a pleasant piano recital in the Sudan High School auditorium on Saturday, Dec. 18 at 7 p.m. Her teacher, Mrs. Judy Hunter, with whom she has studied the past two and one-half years made the presentation.

Miss Cynthia Wiseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Wiseman of Sudan was guest on the program and played several numbers.

Sharon, an eighth grader in the Sudan school played the following selections: Two-Part Invention in A minor by J. S. Bach; Cuban Habanera by Donald Phillips; Sonatina #5 by Muzio Clementi; German Dance by Ludwig Van Beethoven; Baby Elephant Walk by Henry Mancini; Hungary by Carl Koenig; Blue Moon by Hoot & Rogers (arr. Robert Williams); Rome Adventure by Max Steiner; Love is a Many Splendored Thing by Pat & Webster (arr. Roger Williams); Warrior's Song by Stephen Heller; 12th Street Rag by Euday Bowman (arr. Libence).

Vocal selections by Miss Wilson were Tonight by Sandheim & Bernstein; Tommy by Livingston & Brown; Wouldn't It Be Lovely by Lester & Lerner; Got Me To The Church On Time by Lester & Lerner; Am My Love on Straight by Mel Lewis; Silver Bells by Livingston and Brown. She was accompanied by Mrs. Hunter.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Kathy Hill and Connie Lantz served as usher and Cynthia Wiseman registered the guests.

A reception held in the Home-making Cottage followed the recital.

The Christmas motif was used with the serving table laid with a red cloth and centered with a white Christmas arrangement.

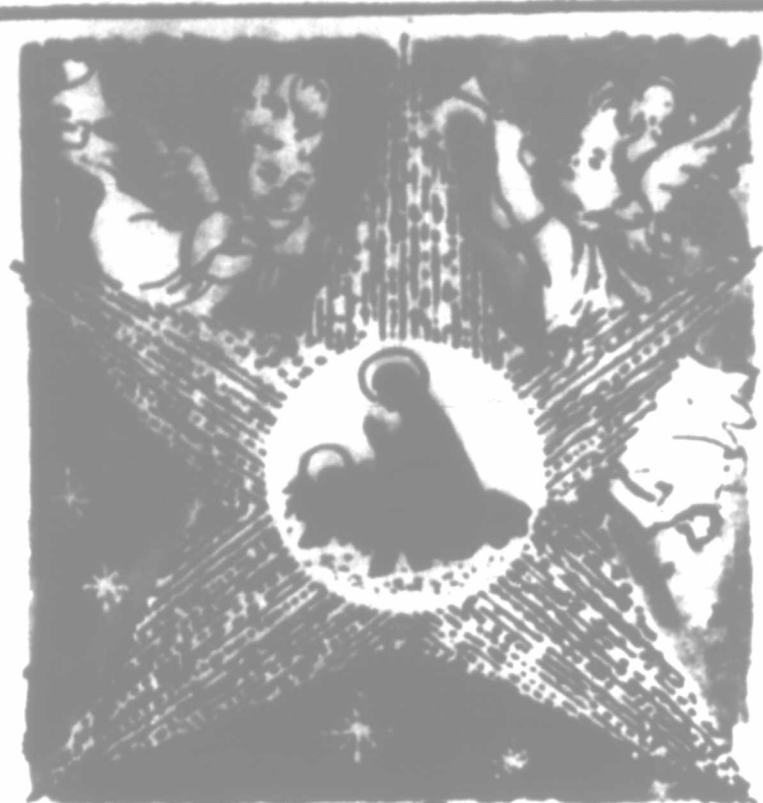

Kathy Bennett presided at the serving table with Mrs. C. E. Nichols and Mrs. E. B. Hutchinson assisting with the hospitality.

Approximately 90 guests attended the recital and reception.

A JOYOUS CHRISTMAS

"While you it born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord"

While humble shepherds watched their flocks, a heavenly glory shone upon them, as herald angels sang of a Holy Child. Far to the East a Star shone, guiding the wise men in their search for Him. Across the years the sacred message shines for us today, ever renewing in our hearts all the joy and wonder, the hope and promise of that Holy Night, so long ago.

As we worship in spirit at the blessed manger, we wish for all a truly joyous Christmas.

The First Christmas

children's books put out by Arch-Books is called "Little Benjamin and the First Christmas." In language a child can understand and with colorful illustrations, the book tells about the coming of the Christ child the way a small Jewish boy of Jesus' time would have seen it.

the birthplace of the Christ child. The story tells how Benjamin showed Mary and Joseph the way to the stable and piled fresh hay for them to sleep on, how he was awakened in the night by a very bright star and how the shepherds told him that the Messiah had come to earth to bring peace.

A CHILD WAS BORN

The glad tidings of His birth live forever in the hearts of man. May the joys of this Christmas be many for you.
