WOODWORK BY DALTON

THERE'S a story going around about the police chief who was in a rage about the escape of a cornered criminal who supposedly had been trapped in a theater.

"Why didn't you do as I told you," he raved, "and watch all exits?"

"But, sir," protested the rookie. "I did. He must have got away through one of the entrances."

AND MEDICARE must have brought this one on.

A patient of a well-known physician, after reading one of the daily medical columns in the newspaper, telephoned his doctor in wild alarm that he was now sure he had a fatal liver disease.

"nonsense," protested the doctor. "you wouldn't know whether you had that or not. With that disease, there is no pain or discomfort of any kind."

"I knew it!" the patient gasped. "My symptoms exactly!"

I'M GETTING sick and tired of reading about Lady Bird, Lynda Bird and Luci Bird. If Mrs. Johnson plants one more tree, I have a feeling that future generations will have the over-population problem compounded by a gigantic forest, which will leave room only for the marching Negroes, students, and flaming Buddhists of the world, while all the simple folk who want only to be left alone will be crowded out of existence.

I'll bet I've read 200 stories about Lady Bird planting trees. If she really has put any muscle into those shovels, she oughta have callouses up to her elbows. If one can believe all those stories, she must have turned more dirt than the R. G. LeTourneau company.

For anyone who doesn't know, this company makes gigantic earth-moving equipment. They currently are working on a machine to dig a hole 200 miles deep for the taxpayers to stand in after the government gets all its proposed giveaway programs enacted.

Of course, the news service figures it is big news every time the first lady plants a tree, and they figure they have to report it.

But I'd just as leaf they didn't.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY - Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Corley of Belen, New Mexico, celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary Sunday. Grandchildren of the couple presented a skit "This Is Your Life". Approximately 70 members of the family attended the skit which followed the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Corley are the parents of Mrs. G.C. Ritchie of Sudan.

Thomas Lee Harper and Mrs. Ray Baccus. Meeting them there to return them to Sudan were Mrs. Pete Phillips, Mrs. W. B. Jones, Jr.

Nelson also reported that although 9 volleyball teams have entered the tournament to be held in the near future, he feels that there are more residents

Several numbers will be changed in connection with this program. Numbers that have been changed will be intercepted by operators when called and will be referred to information where the new numbers may be obtained.

All new numbers will be listed in the upcoming directory to be issued in September.

Sudan is the third city of the 12 town district to obtain the 4-party circuits. Other towns receiving this program are Friona and Bovina. Waldrop said that all twelve exchanges will be converted by 1971 and work is being done on a regular schedule basis per exchange.

Waldrop stated "In keeping with the company's policy this program is to provide a higher rate of service to our rural customers without an increase in cost to the customer."

He also stated that new underground long distance circuits or systems are in full operation from Sudan and Amherst. He

WHILE SHE READS THE NEWS... YOU CAN BET...

She reads the Ads

According to the U. S. Bureau of Advertising, ADVERTISING ranks first with women, over all other newspaper content, for interest and readership! Women actually read ads in preference to anything else in the newspaper. (For that matter, ads rank third with men for readership!) And reading the newspaper is a favorite habit with American women.

So, if you have a product to sell—display it in an ad in your local newspaper. If it's for the home, write it to the housewife's point of view. For, more than anyone else, she'll read it. And, more than anyone else, she's the one who does the buying for the family!

Weiser - Powell Ceremony Read

The sanctuary of the First Christian Church of Crane was the setting for the wedding of Miss Mary Carol Weiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Demzell L. Weiser of Crane, and Ronald James Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Powell of Sudan, Saturday May 28, at 7:30 p. m. Tom Hepner, minister of the church, officiated the double ring ceremony.

The couple stood beneath an arch entwined with greenery and white pom pom mums. Two sets of candelabra holding white tapers lighted the altar.

Miss Billene Cannon of Hale Center, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer", accompanied by Lawrence Williams, pianist, who provided the nuptial marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress and coat of white cotton and satin brocade, fashioned with long empire lines.

The A-line, sleeveless dress featured a satin band which outlined the bodice, and neckline, scooped in the back. Her slightly flared coat designed with a Chesterfield collar had elbow length sleeves. The bride's shoulder length circular veil was caught to a headpiece of pointed satin petals trimmed with lilies-of-the-valley. She wore white accessories and carried a bouquet of satin ribbon showers surrounding a large white glabella, atop a white Bible.

Linda Moore of Crane was the maid of honor, and Halle Weiser, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. Their dresses were of pastel yellow and they carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

Phillip Gordon of Sudan served as best man, Eddie Powell of Sudan, cousin of the bridegroom, was junior groomsmen. Ronald L. Weiser of Odessa, brother of the bride, and Earl Davis of El Paso, were ushers.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. Powell was wearing a turquoise summer knit suit with black patent accessories, white gloves and the glabella corsage from her wedding bouquet when the couple left on their wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M.

After their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Powell are at home at 2223-A, 20th Street in Lubbock. They plan to work this summer and will begin their senior year at Texas Tech in September.

ALVIE KNOWS A LOT OF ANSWERS

How long does it take to hatch an ostrich egg? . . . How many begholes in Bolivia?? . . . How much blubber in a male whale?? Alvie knows these answers and a jillion others. Folks smile and agree that Alvie is a regular encyclopedia of "useless information" but they never question the accuracy of his peculiar knowledge. That's because everybody knows Alvie gets his "answers" by mousing the little space-film we all see in our newspapers. Area Farmers Practice Skip-Row Planting

Farmers in this area are finding the practice of "skip-row residue planting" very useful in their farming systems.

When properly used, this practice can provide both soil protection and improvement. Crops grown for this purpose need to provide cover and protection to the land against wind erosion during the fall, winter, and spring months. During this period wind velocities are highest and soil moisture are most unfavorable.

Summer skip-row crops are of vital importance. In areas of study soil and where wind velocity may be excessive, a cover crop is essential unless the soil organic matter is unusually high.

After your cash crop has become well established, it would be a good time to plant skip-row crops. Sorghums that are planted prior to July 1 should be planted in at least two rows. Small grain drilled by October 15 may vary from 5 feet to 12 feet according to the number of skip-rows.

Two rows (skip-rows) should be drilled at least 5 feet and 4-rows (skip-rows) should be drilled at least 12 feet. Late planted sorghum or millet should be planted in 4-20 inch rows or drilled. These distances offer the best protection for your cash crop.

Sudex or millet when planted in late August or early September use little moisture and are killed by frost. When growth stops, the use of soil moisture ceases with minimum effect on the succeeding crop.

Minimum heights of stubble from harvested crops should not be less than 10 inches on sorghums and small grains. Emergency tillage should be practiced when residues on the soil surface is not sufficient to control wind erosion.

Technical assistance on adapted crops and planting recommendations is available from your Soil Conservation Service office.

Cold Facts on College Costs

Spring is the season of the crocus and the rosebud, a time when thoughts of campus life dance under the caps of high school students the land over, and when parents get their first wincing peak at college costs.

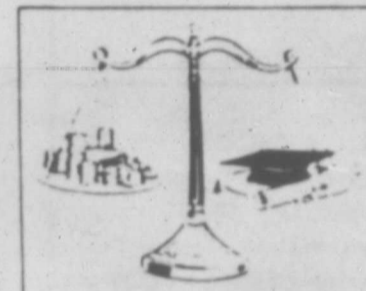

A Ford Foundation survey recently asked the parents of 6,300 children if they expected to send their child to college. Two out of three said "Yes." Those who said "Yes" were then asked if they had set up a saving or investment plan to provide for a college education. Sixty per cent said "No."

Considering what it actually costs these days for a year at college, one can easily understand the sinking sensation many parents experience when they face the reality in dollars and cents terms. One government agency noted recently it cost $1,050 for a year at a private university in 1940, while the cost today is closer to $2,600 per year. In 1970, the agency noted, it might be as high as $4,000 (including room and board). What it will cost in 1975 or 1980 is anybody's guess.

These are the cold facts and they may explain why so many families have turned to a mutual fund investment for relief of at least some of the financial burden.

For example, a mutual fund accumulation plan begun early enough could grow to the point where it would pay a major share of a son or daughter's educational needs. Under such a plan, the investment may be as little as $25 a month.

Mutual funds are ideal investment vehicles for the individual who knows little about investing but wants to put something aside to be used later in life for such things as education.

According to the Investment Company Institute, 3.5 million individuals have had small investment accounts.

Medicine Making — 1876 Style

This is how and where medicines were made ninety years ago — a far cry from the automated, sterile, high-speed methods and facilities in use by major drug manufacturers today.

The girl workers are busy filling and capping bottles of sugar-coated pills, keeping a running count on quantity as they work.

Such small-scale, hand-production methods were the type used by Colonel Eli Lilly when he began the manufacture of drugs in 1876 in Indianapolis. He wished to produce quality medicines for use by doctors rather than follow the "get rich quick" philosophies of those who made highly touted but often useless or dangerous patent medicines of that era.

The scene shown is from a new movie, "How Much Is a Miracle?", which depicts the founding and growth of Eli Lilly and Company. Now one of the world's largest producers of medicines, as well as making veterinary drugs, chemicals, and products for home, garden, and industry, the Lilly firm has production facilities and offices in twenty-three countries, employing over 15,000 people. Lilly products are distributed in over 140 countries.

"How Much Is a Miracle?" is available free for showing by groups through Modern Talking Pictures, Inc.

The joy of the Lord is your strength. —(Neh 8:10)

As we approach our senior years, we should continue to enjoy the breath in us that God has given, and to live happily and joyously. We too are children of God, and when our minds are filled with the thought of happy life is for living then we refuse to give way to negative opinions or appearances. Through prayer we keep in tune with the healing power of God.

Decorate to Please the Man in Your Life

Is he a Middle East potentate? The gentleman luxuriating in this elegant tub with the custom look is enjoying the advantages of the versatile new "tub without sides." Tiled in on three sides with decorative blue and green or beige on white Tanager design ceramic tile. Versa Tub gives the bath new decorative freedom and excitement.

Your exotic bath could take its decorative cue from the new antique gold and yellow Delphi design from the Rheem Mediterranean Collection (also in ice blue on azure blue). Matching lavatory, water closet, towels and ceramic tiles give a coordinated, custom look to the bath. Or, if you prefer, sink the Rheem Versa Tub flush with the floor, have it installed in a niche or placed away from the walls, where you can cover the sides with ceramic tile, wall paneling or any other decorative material to suit your fancy.

For an amazing time saver in cleaning tarnished silver, line the bottom of a large plastic or enamel pan with aluminum foil, pour in about two quarts of warm water, add two tablespoons each of salt and baking soda, and make sure each piece of silver touches the foil.

So you will know at first glance which side the streak is on when you're cleaning windows, use horizontal strokes on the outside, vertical strokes on the inside.

To defrost the refrigerator in record time, use the vacuum cleaner. Simply aim the blower nozzle at the cooling unit and turn the refrigerator off. The vacuum's warm air makes quick work of the job.

Save untold gardening time during spring planting. Buy only ready-to-bloom plants—easier and quicker than sowing seed and coddling young seedlings indoors.

Would you give your wife a tin can for a present? Of course not. And yet if you followed the old tradition that says tin is the symbol of the Tenth Wedding Anniversary, you wouldn't be far out of line. Fortunately, times change, and customs change with them. Today, modern couples can celebrate their lasting, growing love with more elegant and appropriate expressions of affection.

Up-dating tradition with a number of romantic renovations on anniversary symbols, the Jewelry Industry Council has compiled the Modern Wedding Anniversary List. Because no wife ever got dewy-eyed over a Paper Wedding anniversary, the Council suggests that the First Anniversary be the year for clocks, a timely gift. And diamonds, formerly reserved for the 60th Anniversary, or Diamond Jubilee, are now beautifully appropriate for the 10th and 30th as well, when a woman can most strikingly wear this sparkling King of Gems and when a man, in the midst of his struggle for success, can most appreciate this shining symbol
