SO-CALLED Comedian Jonathan Winters will be in Lubbock at the Coliseum Saturday, I notice. The ad in the paper said "Jonathan Winters...Box Office open Mon. thru Sat., $3, $4 and $5. "

They should raise the ante a little bit. I don't believe I would go for that. Now, if they'd give me $10, I might consider it. . .

WITHOUT really intending to, the television networks have been putting together a picture of the stupid American. And it looks like most of us.

It all started a couple of seasons ago with television's first National Drivers Test which was flunked by a national sample of quiz takers and also by most of the living room audiences over the nation who were appalled by disclosure of a lack of judgment and knowledge of traffic rules, according to television writer Cynthia Lowry of the Associated Press

YOUNG HOMEMAKERS HAVE HAIR CARE PROGRAM

The Sudan Young Homemakers met Monday night in the Home Economics cottage for a program on "Hair Care" with Wanda Testerman of Sudan and Charlotte Holt of Muleshoe conducting the program and also demonstrating the various uses of hair pieces.

Kay Wiseman and Sherilyn Drum reported on the "Special Activity Day" April 28 at Hereford.

During the business session over which Mrs. Lynn Drum presided, two FHA members were named for special awards. One will be awarded the annual club scholarship and one was chosen as "Little Sister" for the 1967-68 school year. Both girls will be recognized at the FHA meeting Monday, May 15 at 7:30 p. m. in the Home Economics cottage.

Refreshments were served by Carol Chisam and Suzanne Taylor to two guests and nine members present.

The next meeting is set for June 5 at 8 p.m.

Miss Lowry noted that the main result of the various tests has been to produce a feeling of inferiority in a lot of folks who may previously have thought they were pretty smart.

Another drivers test is scheduled for May 23, so if you want to see how smart-or how dumb you are, take the thing.

It seems to me that the really smart guy will just ignore the tests, so he can live in blishful ignorance of how ignorant he is. Personally I never took but one, and I think it was that very first one Miss Lowry mentioned about the driving. I scored high on it, compared to the national report, and felt pretty good about the whole thing. Then I went out and backed the car into a telephone pole.

Scripture: 1 John 1: 5-10; 2: 17, 25.

God's Word to guid us: "This then is the message which we have heard of Him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. If we say we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth; but if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin:

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness". * * *

Can you claim this promise? You can, if you will receive Jesus into your heart. Confess your sin, remembering God's "faithfulness" to forgive and to cleanse us from all sin. Then "walk in the light" with Jesus helping you, loving you, guiding you - follow Him. Believe God's Word, recèive BERTHE HAY LETTER (continued from last week) The weather was disagreeable, but Sim and Mr. Lucky made a large shed for his stock. They finished it Friday afternoon. Lots of people stopped in during the week. (it seemed to get warm) to horrow this or that. Mr. Andrews and Miss Abney came two evenings. On Friday evening we went to Mr. Barbers for early Saturday they were to brand calves, and Sim had to help. He says they are trying to make a cowboy out of him. Not enough help, so Sim went and vaccinated about a hundred calves. Those few did not take them long to brand, mark and vaccinate for they were through at nonn. I brought Mr. Barber's little girl here in the afternoon while Sim went on to town. We made a in the evening went cake and back to -N- headquarters to another dance. This dance I surely did enjoy, a fine old fiddler was there who just made his fiddle sing, and he called out the square dances in perfect time with all the funny little sayings, exactly as Dr. Lewis once recited it for us in his class. Everyone was there from grandfather to babies asleep on the bed. When the Victrola ground out "Wabash Blues" all the young foxtrotted, and the floor was filled with the modern dancing crowd; then the old fiddler came in, and the old boys and their wives showed the young ones a thing or two with their dances. There were some fine chaps there, college men, a few who are principals of the schools in some of the towns scattered here and there.

There was a lively group from New Mexico, brothers and sisters. Sim saw the whole show, for he had a wretched cold and did not dance. I think he had more fun than those of us who danced. Sunday we rested our weary bones, for Sim was as sick as the duece, out he is much better again. made him some custard, baked apples, and the canned soup Aunt Lea sends, he usually keeps for just such an emergency. He feels fine the last few weeks, better than at any time since he was sick in June and July, and is getting to look and yell as Sim only can; even to some of his nonsense once in awhile. And now, Aunt

Em, I know I am very late for

"nesters" have no cash at all, and they get things by exchanging with their neighbors. As for myself, just little Christmas things to send down here, a candy shepards Crook, a bit of holly or evergreen, a Christmas bell, etc. Outside of that here's a list, just suggestions of course, any underwear as knickers, camisoles, silk stockings, silk shirt, a flashlight (pocketsize of a little larger), a Thermos bottle, sterno outfit," the little pan with the black detachable handle, a woolen blanket (dark plaid, preferable to use as bedcover wherever I go, like an army blanket).

Christmas suggestions, and never dreamed Christmas was so near,

there being no signs or suggestions of it around here. I am going to stay with Sim, as you surmise, for he cannot go north this year, and since we are all scattered this

Christmas, I shall not come back until later. Sim says he does not want anything, but, at different times he has let fall these: A new necktie or two (needs them badly)

Just yesterday he said if Lucie

wanted to send him a Christmas present to please send him her photograph, "Twas all he wanted.

I think Aunt Em anything for his shack would please him. A pair of pillows for his bed, for his own personal use.' A woolen khaki shirt or two. A good book or two, I rather think he would like

Well's "Outline of History". Aunt

Lea or Aunt Alice will know what book I mean. Perhaps he would like canned soups, dried fruits,

or a box of candy. I do not know.

However, Aunt Em, we know

postage is exorbitant down this far, and money so tight. I plainly see what it is, not to have any money at all, for many of these

That's enough I think--if you should pick out anything out of the list don't send it way down here, but, keep it on the North

Bluff for me. Just when I shall go home I do not know, no job as yet, though I haven't worked here.

Guild News

The Wesleyan Service Guild met in the home of Mrs. Bill Curry on Tuesday evening. This was the last meeting for the year. Mrs. J. H. Wallace gave the invocation and those present answered roll call by giving their plans for the summer.

Officers for the coming year were installed by the Spiritual Life Committee, Mrs. Bill Olds and Mrs. Curry. Those installed during the candlelight service were: president, Mrs. M. H. Tolletty vice president, Mrs. Bob Drake; recording secretary, Mrs. H. H. Potter; treasurer, Mrs. Bill Curry; Chairman of Membership Cultivation, Mrs. Bill Olds.

A special membership and cook book and all. One thing more, can you tell me how to make watermelon rind pickle? And I'll make Sim some before I leave. The wealthy Mr. Newcome, a fine young man, and Mr. Barber, loaded me down with two big citrous melons, butter, milk and a can of pickled beets one day when we were at his ranch. I have made preserves with one melon. I put canned pineapple and lemon with it, its a beautiful yellow color like marmalade, the juice is jelly like. A citrous melon is round and green like a watermelon. The fleshy part green, white and is not good to eat raw. I thought when I make the next one up into preserves I'd do the rind in sweet pickle, if you can send me your recipe.

Tell Aunt Alice I received my socks and hairnets Saturday and thank her and Lucie much for sending them. I was down to my hair-net. I must say au revoir - I will have not time to write the other Aunts, so please thank them for our boxes too -and give them my love.
