WOODWORK

BY DALTON

SOMETIMES this seems like a world of selfish people whose main goal in life is to get everything they can from everybody they can, and the devil with everybody else.

Strikes, demonstrations and lawsuits seem to be the only answer, but personally I sure do get weary of reading about such activities. All of these things have their place and can perform a valuable function. Lawsuits are often necessary to correct some injustice; I am in sympathy with a few strikers, but I can recall only a very few demonstrations I thought were needed.

The trouble is, if I were living in New York, chances are my garbage man would be making more than I am. If I were living in Florida, I think I might. There's bound to be some points in favor of these strikers, but from the outsider's point of view, it often seems they just want too much.

Actually I think it might be a good idea to freeze all prices and then freeze wages just where they are now.

Everybody's wages except my own, of course.

A CITY BANKER was visiting the country. He nodded toward the fellow in the farmyard and said: "I suppose that's the hired man."

The farmer, who must have been to a few banks, replied: "Well, that's the first vice-president in charge of cows."

This reminds me of a job held by the young son of the boss at a place where I once worked. This young man, just out of high school, had the title of "superintendent of dispatch."

That meant, according to one old hand at the office, that his job was to go get the mail.

ONCE AGAIN I discover that I'm old-fashioned. A writer in the Hope, Ark. Star says modern newspapermen don't end their stories with the numeral "30."

It's a curious legend that newspapers use '30' for 'End' -- only they don't. They once did -- years before this writer was born -- but today it's an affection, like that of the illiterate producers of early movies who ended a 5-cent film with the $75 word 'Finis'. For two generations the newspapers have had their own word associations, '30'

BAPTIST MEN TO HELP BUILD CHURCH

Members of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church plan to go to Van Horn and from there into Old Mexico to help build a church for the Mexican Baptists, it was announced this week.

The men's group will leave here Monday, Feb. 26, with Henry Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood, to supervise the trip.

All Baptist men who can be urged by the Brotherhood to go and help with this very important project.

The group will return to Sudan about March 1.

taboo, and you mark the end of an item by simply writing the double-barred character known as 'the typewriter's pound symbol.'

This guy is all wet. The editorial writer on that paper must be so young he's never managed to escape Arkansas. I'm no boy wonder, but neither am I two generations old, and I've always used "30" at the end of my stories, as do most of the topnotch writers of my acquaintance on dailies. Some, however, do use the pound sign, or tic-tac-toe mark, and I have no complaint with this. Either way is fine, as it takes about the same length of time to type either. However, "30" is neither taboo nor old-fashioned among good newspapermen. It sure beats writing something like "The End," or "You May Stop Reading Here."

This editorial writer probably is the kind of a guy who spells drought "drought" (as the Associated Press does), not even knowing that it reminds most folks of a laxative.

SUDAN TO PLAY LORENZO IN BI-DISTRICT GAME

HIGH JUMP--Sudan and Amherst players as Sudan shoots in the non-conference game played here Monday night. Amherst came out on top with a score of 80-75.

The Hornets will play their Bi-District basketball game with Lorenzo in Levelland Tuesday night, Feb. 27, at the South Plains College Coliseum.

In the coliseum on this same night, there will be a Bi-District game between Dimmitt and Carver High, Midland, which will start at 7 p. m. Sudan will play Lorenzo immediately following, starting at approximately 8:15 p. m.

Admission will be 50¢ for students and $1.25 for adults. School Superintendent W. E. Hancock said this week.

Each school is assigned to a certain portion of the coliseum, and Sudan will sit in sections R, Q, P, and O. These seats are to the left as you enter the coliseum, on the North side of the building. All seats are opera-type seats with backs.

Lets go to the game--and early if you want a choice seat--and back the Hornets in this playoff game.

The ticket windows will be open at 6 p. m.

Among those from the local Eastern Star Chapter attending a Friendship Night in Levelland Thursday evening were Noble and Winona Dudgeon, and Oleta Reece.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Dykes were in Fort Sumner Wednesday afternoon to attend the funeral services of her step-brother, Dan Waller. Waller had at one time lived near Muleshoe.

(Charles B. and Maude Harper Alexander, Sudan pioneers. History compiled by their daughter, Mrs. Cliff Williams.)

Charles B. Alexander and Maude Harper were united in marriage December 6, 1908 after an elopement of considerable undertaking.

States Mrs. Alexander, "I was not yet of age and we were afraid Pa would not consent to or Ma would not consent to our marriage. We decided to elope. I did my clothes out in the yard in a lilac bush and went to bed. When I awoke, I thought I had slept all night, but slipped out of the house, got my clothes out of the lilac bush, and walked to Charley's sister's house."

"Charley and his brother-in-law were just harnessing the horse to the buggy so I was not too late for my own wedding!"

The couple traveled to Vernon and caught a train to Altus, Okla. spending the whole day reaching Altus, with some few delays, such as waiting for trains.

The couple were just in time for their wedding and a return trip home as Maude's uncle had just sold all the family belongings and was moving his family to New Mexico. So, back on a train with her uncle and family to her home to face the music, as the uncle had intended to visit in the Harper home before going on to New Mexico.

Charley was the son of Wiley Petty Alexander, Sr. (born in Georgia) and Mary Vaughn Alexander, born in Alabama.

After moving to Texas the Alexanders lived in Van Zandt and Wood Counties.

Wiley Petty had previously been married and by his first wife had five children, one of the daughters by this first marriage, married Bob Martin of Wood County, Texas, and they were early purchasers of land in Phoenix, Arizona. A dog race track was later built on some of the land they had owned.

Of the other Alexander children were Uncle "Coon", one of the first "boom towners" in Berger, Texas. This brother's son, Warren, helped with the welding and construction of the modern Plant X near Sudan.

Children of Wiley and Mary Alexander besides Charley were Pearl Alexander Dodson; Wiley

THE LATE CHARLES B. ALEXANDER AND WIFE, MRS. MAUDE HARPER ALEXANDER; AND FIVE DAUGHTERS, EVA ALEXANDER SPRUILL, DECEASED, EDITH ALEXANDER WILLIAMS, ETHEL ALEXANDER BEALE, LOIS ALEXANDER CHAMBERS, AND LILLIAN ALEXANDER COOK.

Jr. a vegetable grower of Tyler, Texas; and Otto who was depot agent in Kethville, La. for about twenty-five years.

Charley Alexander was the oldest of this couple's three sons, and worked with the railroad in Van Zandt and Wood Counties until the death of his parents in the early 1900's.

He hi-wayed it to Newlin, Texas in Hall County where he lived and worked with his sister and her husband, W. W. Dodson.

It was here Charley renewed his acquaintance with the "Jeff" Harper family, whom he had known in Wood County. He then discovered their oldest daughter, Maude, had grown into womanhood.

Maude Harper was born August 16, 1892 at Pierces Mill near Glen Allen, Alabama. She is the oldest daughter of the late Jefferson "Jeff" Harper and Nancy Glover Harper. Jeff Harper was born Oct. 17, 1871 in Marion County, Alabama. His father, Josier Harper, was a soldier in the Civil War and his mother, Nancy Harper, suffered many hardships during the Civil War period. His mother, after the death of her husband, Josier, did her own farming and many stories were handed down concerning this Civil War period. In one story she related, the Home Guard came through the country and took her best quilts and cut them up for saddle blankets while she stood by and looked on.

After a days work in the field she and the children would shell corn and she would take it to the village mill to be ground after dark.

One time after returning home from the mill, the family having been without food all day, she baked a corn pone and awoke her children so they could eat the corn pone with molasses.

Her daughter-in-law was also named Nancy, and this second Nancy Harper was born Nancy Glover in April, 1872 in Jasper County, Alabama. William Jefferson and Nancy Glover were united in marriage, Oct. 29, 1891.

Upon first moving to Texas the Harpers first resided in Wood County where they cleared land for farming.

According to Mrs. Alexander it was there that a sickness of virus hit the country and many people died.

"That is where my oldest little brother, Clovas, died and was buried. When I went back to school I would look back at his seat and sit and cry."

"I was twelve years old at the time (1904) but washing had to be done so Pa would take me and go down to an earth tank, build a fire around the washpot and break the ice in the tank to get the water we washed with. The washing was done on a rub board and the clothes were hung on trees and bushes to freeze dry."

In 1905 the Harpers moved farther west. Along with ten other families was formed a wagon train and the wheels started rolling.

Destination - Newlin in Hall County. The days of the wagon train Maude Alexander describes, "They were spent riding, walking, laughing and talking, camping and losing children."

"The train would start moving out after each stop and the people would think their children were with another wagon when sometimes they weren't."

"Then the search would get underway along the back trail Sister Dorsey and little brother, Lewis, (now of Sudan) stayed at the watering hole one time when the train moved out."

"They tried to catch up with the wagons by running and were almost exhausted when they were found."

The Harper home in Newlin Hall, County was on Jopah Creek; later they moved nearer the school and then Harper bought a half section of land from Gilpin and Wash, some English land dealers.

This land was east of Newlin, just across the county line in Childress County, and it was here in the Gilpin Community the Harpers finished raising their family.

MOVE TO SUDAN

Charley Alexander and Maude Harper Alexander moved to Sudan in January of 1926. By this time they had five daughters. Eva Alexander Spruill (deceased) born, Sept. 13, 1909; Edith Alexander Williams, born in 1912 in Colgate, Okla. during what Mrs. Alexander calls as a wild goose chase when Charley worked for a while in a coal mine.

The move to Colgate was short-lived and they were back in Newlin when their third baby girl Ethel was born in 1915. In April 1920, the fourth girl Lois was born, and in 1923 still the arrival of another daughter, Lillian.

The Alexanders never felt the lack of a boy as the girls did their best to qualify, with making play houses in the bottom of the cistern, and riding yearlings and other tom-boyish diversion.

Prior to moving his family to Sudan, Charley Alexander bought land in 1919 that is now known as the Giant farm south of Circle Back, and built a small shack on it. But, due to Mrs. Alexander's illness, he let this land go back, but came again in 1925, and bought land from the Furneaux and Wilson Land Company. This land is located south-west of the Sudan cemetery and joined the northeast corner of the old Rails ranch. It is now owned by Marvin May.

Charley built a two room box-car shack and dug a windmill. But, until the windmill was completed their good neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stuart, allowed them to haul water from their place.

The A. Stuarts place is now the Hershell White dairy.

A chartered box car was loaded with the family possessions and Mr. Alexander landed in Sudan, Jan. 17, 1926.

On the morning of the 19th Mrs. Alexander and girls began their stately procession to their new home here on the South Plains. Mrs. Alexander loaded the five girls, and three pigs in a cage on the fender. Small cotton-wood trees were tied on top of their new T-Model ford and they headed for the setting of the sun. The embarrassed family well remembers those silly pigs squealing as they drove through Plianview.

They arrived in Sudan about three o'clock and were in time to help Mr. Alexander unload some of the family stock and take them to the farm.

Every one was homesick, tired, hungry and cold. To make matters seem even worse daughter, Ethel, took the little ones to the house and in trying to nest up in some quilts broke one of the dresser mirrors.

"Just as I expected" groaned Mr. Alexander, "seven years of bad luck."

However, with the dawn of a new day things looked a little more cheerful and everything was going very well until the mules got out. Mr. Alexander declared they wouldn't stop until they reached Newlin, and Edith remembers the new high school being erected and three things were placed in the corner stone, a United States Flag, a Bible, and a Sudan newspaper.

The town of Sudan was laid out and was pretty well settled at this time and there were a large number of windmills in the town, now, only one exists.

In 1928 the family finances having continued to improve, the Alexanders bought another labor of land from P. E. Bosen.

Among some of the entertainment enjoyed during these years were games of 42, party games of Knocking for Love, Three Deep, and Snapp. And of course there was the famed Tent-Stage plays and the Tate Lack Medicine Shows. Edith won second at one of the shows in a natl driving contest.

Edith also remembers the burning of the high school building in 1930, her senior year and high school moved in with grade school during the rebuilding.

After her graduation Edith became a handy girl around the farm, until she married Clifford Williams in September of 1932, Cliff being the Alexanders' son-in-law, as daughter, Eva, had married Arthur Lee Spruill in 1926 at Newlin when the family was there spending the Christmas

To the Spruills was born one daughter, Verna (Spruill) Munger. Edith and Cliff Williams have three children, Laquita Williams, now Mrs. Dale Weaver, Amherst; Gedonne who resides at House, New Mexico with his family, and Nancy who married Rex Fault of Littlefield.

Ethel married Allen Beale in November of 1934 and the couple has two sons, Duane and Bobby.

Lois made a beautician and in 1943 married Othel Chambers who served in the U. S. Army during World War II, their children are Anita Chambers King and Adelia Chambers Downs.

After graduating from High School in 1941 Lillian enrolled at Draughn's Business College in Lubbock and later was employed at the Lubbock National band. She married Bill Cook of Spade in 1945, who was a member of the U. S. Navy during World War II. The couple live at Spade and have two children, Dianne and Billie Cook.

After purchasing more land, LaDar I of League 215 in the Crockett County School land, the Alexanders decided to turn the farming over to the children and in 1947 built their home in Sudan at the corner of Second and Bosen Street where they lived at the time of Mr. Alexander's death, Feb. 21, 1953.

The Alexander daughter, Eva (Mrs. Arthur Spruill) was the second member of the family to die when she was stricken with the recurrence of a brain tumor and died December 25, 1961.

Mrs. Alexander continues to live in the Alexander home on Bosen Street and is known for her lovely flower garden.

When the new Sudan Church of Christ was built in 1950, both Charley and Maude, had a hand in it, with Charley helping with the construction of the building. A honey suckle vine was set out by both Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and to their daughter, Edith, each time she sees this vine still growing it depicts a living work of these two, performed together, showing their love to the church they both attended.

Yield booster... Tuloma style

What is it?

It's a TULOMA special phosphate molecule. All new CROP-MATE liquid fertilizers in this area are made with this special phosphate... the longest lasting available phosphate form known in the fertilizer industry.

The chemistry involved may not be too important to you... but it is to your crops! Most of the nutrients enter the plant roots in a liquid form. New CROP-MATE liquid fertilizers are ready for immediate uptake--no need to wait for a rain. Also, special phosphate helps the plant get minor elements by a dissolving action in the soil. In addition, the special phosphates in TULOMA CROP-MATE resist the fixation process and stay available to the plants for a longer period of time. CROP-MATE liquid fertilizers are scientifically formulated to work faster, harder, and longer... real yield-boosters for you.

Come in and see our new plant. Let us give you more details about special phosphates, CROP-MATE liquid fertilizers, anhydrous ammonia, and TULOMA'S new CRCP/GUIDE Plan. Or give us a call. It could result in greater yields... and a bigger bank account. Call today.
