WOODWORK SCHOOL REGISTRATION SET WEDNESDAY

BY DALTON

ONE of the most worthwhile results of taking a vacation is that it makes you really appreciate your home. Almost everyone who goes off for a week or so is glad to get back home and recuperate.

On our own trip, we visited in Indiana, Arkansas and points between here and there, but further details I'll skip, since there's nothing quite so boring as reading about someone else's vacation.

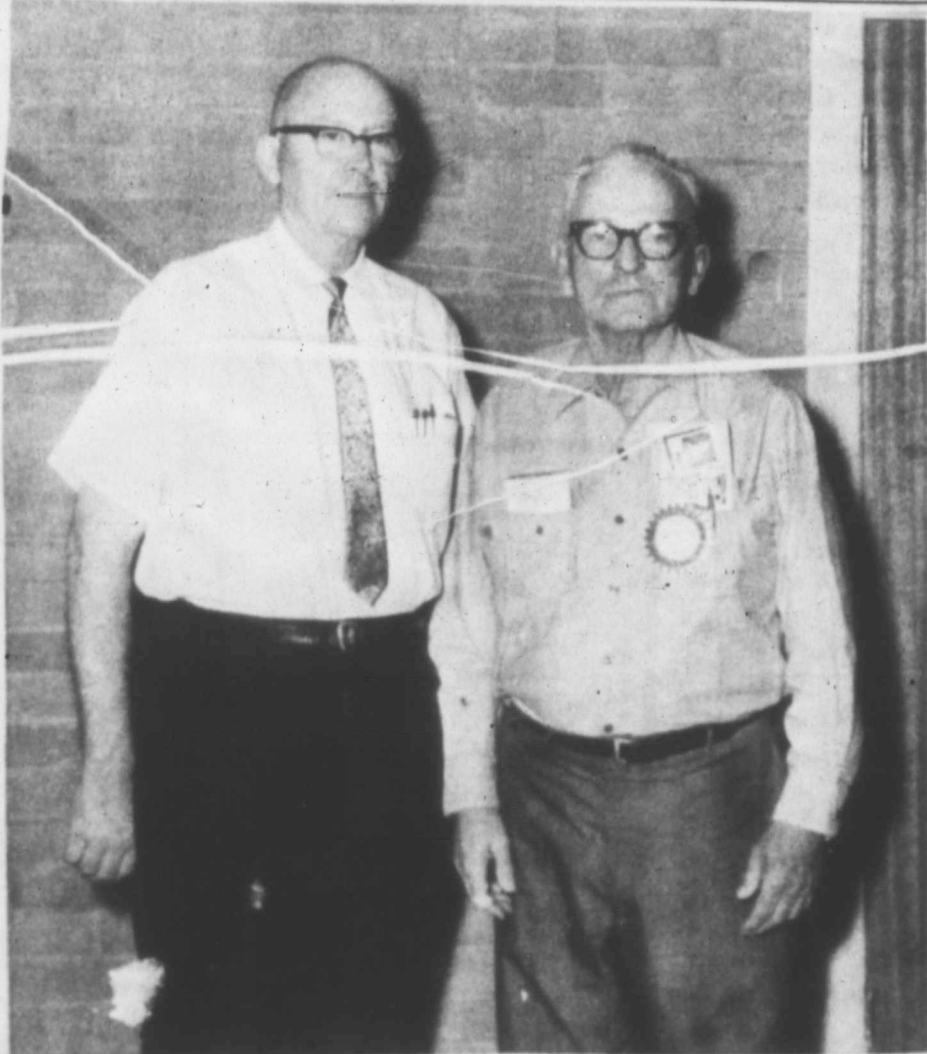

I will say that it was hot in Indiana, a place which folks in these parts consider a cool climate because it's way up north. Just breathing was an effort in that country. It's so hot and humid along the Ohio River that people there don't need hot water heaters. When they need hot water, they just squeeze a double handful of air over a bucket. It's the only place in the world where you take a bath and by the time you get your clothes on, you need another one. Just walking from the house to the mail box can get you to smelling like the locker room at halftime.

WELL, the Republicans have nominated their candidate, Nixon, and the Democrats likely will choose Humphrey. So far as most of us are concerned, neither of these offers us much to vote for. Wallace's chances should be boosted considerably by the choices of the two older parties.

AS A newspaperman, I should have been interested in the GOP convention, but when I'm on vacation, I'm not much interested in any kind of news. I only read a couple of newspapers during my time off, and avoided television like the plague. I only regret that they couldn't have had the Democratic fiasco while I was off. I watch TV news and commentaries very little anyway. I'm proud to say that I really couldn't tell you which is Huntley and which is Brinkley.

Rainfall the past week measured 1.6. Some slight hail damage reported north of Sudan.

Registration for all high school students in the Sudan Independent School District will be held Wednesday, Aug. 28 for the 1968-69 school term.

High school students are asked to register at the grade school building during these hours: Ninth and Tenth grades will register Wednesday between the hours of 9 a. m. and 12 noon; Eleven and Twelfth grades will register Wednesday starting at 1:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m., according to the announcement made by Superintendent of Sudan Schools W. E.

Hancock. Students will be informed when they are to go and register when they arrive at the grade school building.

The superintendent stated that the opening date for school remains indefinite, dependent on when the builders can release the school building for occupancy. Work continues at a stepped-up pace and hopes are still held for school to begin at the scheduled date of Sept. 3.

Grade school registration will be held on one of two dates, according to when school classes will begin.

If school convenes on Sept. 3, grade school students will register Friday, Aug. 30, 9 a. m. to 12 noon; if school starts Sept. 9, the grade school students will register Friday, Sept. 6, 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

All Sudan students and parents are asked by the superintendent to watch for announcement in next week's Beacon News for the opening date of the 1968-69 school term. Also, to listen to radio announcement, as all news media will be used to get this information to you as soon as possible.

"If you want a job to help move the school equipment back into the school building, contact me", superintendent Hancock said Wednesday. He added that moving operations will begin as soon as word is received from the builders, and the plans are to hire all possible help to get the equipment moved back into the school building.

Superintendent Hancock announced Wednesday that the school faculty was now complete, with the hiring of a new reading and art teacher, Mrs. Esther Faye Chatman of Muleshoe.

Mrs. Chatman, an experienced teacher having taught eight years in Muleshoe, will be teaching reading and art in the 4th through 6th grades.

She has a master's degree from San Houston College, and also attended West Texas State University at Canyon.

Devotional

By HAZEL HOUSE

Scriptures: Genesis 3:21; 1 Samuel 18: 1-4.

"The kind of friend to have is like the King's son who took off his robe and gave it to David." A statement like this was made by a member of the Christian family in a sermon and I began to think of how much it really meant to all of us. The most precious friend that I want, and therefore I have, is Jesus Christ, the King's Son, who made His robe of righteousness available to me when I knew that I needed a Savior, a Redeemer from sin and death. He was mine when I believed that He is the Son of God, with the power to redeem any man or woman's soul who comes to Him in repentance, trusting only in His power, His righteousness, forgiveness and eternal love. He was mine when I gave myself to Him and took Him as my sin offering to God. He has accepted me, and I am His.

We search the Scriptures, reading the record of God's Son, and learn of the doings and sayings of Jesus while on earth. But we need to be saved (by the continued feeling of a need we come to realize we cannot earn or educate ourselves into God's family) by a person, Jesus, who loved us, and died that we could have eternal life.

Jesus said our righteousness must exceed that of the Pharisees, or it was not good enough for us to enter into God's presence.

Adam and Eve, after eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, and realizing they were naked, made themselves clothes of fig leaves. But when God came looking for them, they hid themselves in the garden, for the figleaf aprons were not good enough to hide their nakedness which Adam and Eve knew God could see. But God made them coats of skins and clothed them. It took death and shed blood to get proper clothing to cover Adam and Eve.

Even so, we today cannot clothe ourselves in our own good works, or by anything that will make us pure and holy enough to come into God's presence where no sin can come. We cannot be saved from sin and death even by our knowledge of the written word, we can have eternal life only in Jesus Christ.

For Jesus is the clothing God has made for you and for me. The only clothing that can cover our sins, for Jesus' death and shed blood paid the cost of our sins and death, into an abundant life of joy, peace, light, beauty and eternal love.

Jesus' robe of righteousness is available to all who will believe in Him, and He will raise up His own in the last day to be with Him forevermore. And He said, in St. John 12:8:

"And I say unto you, whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God."

How about you — Do you in your words and deeds confess Jesus now? Do you want a friend like Jesus? Remember, He is seeking and loving you.

from the Bible

What is that to you? Follow me! — (John 21:22).

Now is the time to take our stand for the truth. Stand with the truth principles we are learning. Let's not submit to gossip, nor negative, ugly critical things said about us. Do not identify ourselves with weak, sympathetic thoughts about anyone's problems. Stand by the truth — and this shall make us free.

The Texas legislature passed the Connally-Carrillo Act in 1967 which provides that a graduate of a Texas accredited high school can attend a Texas state supported college with tuition and fees paid by the state, if the student was in the top fourth of his class and the student's total family income does not exceed $4800.
