THERE IS A sport for every person if he can find it. Sports editors of daily newspapers are constantly being harassed by the local fan of the Stratford-on-the-Avon Cricket Club, or someone wanting to know the results of a handball match in New Zealand, or a dog race in Witches Walk, Mass.

There's an exciting sports event coming up on Feb. 22-23 at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It's the North American Tiddlywinks Association's 1969 championship. Entered, according to the Associated Press are MIT, the defending champion; Cornell, Toronto and Case Western Reserve.

That's about all it said, leaving me almost totally in the dark. I pondered this awhile the other day, and I couldn't remember if this was a card game, or if it had something to do with spoons, or maybe a combination of both. So I asked Marie Harris of Tulsa:

"When you play tiddlywinks, do you flip a nickel into a glass with a spoon?" Marie thought a minute, then said, "It seems to me that it wasn't a nickel, but a little wooden thing... my kids used to play this."

She remembered there were no cards involved, at least not the way her kids played it, or the way she played it either. "I had tiddlywinks when I was a kid, my kids had it, and so do my grandchildren."

The only thing I can remember going through that many generations of my own family is the mumps. Just about all of us had that, but it wasn't too sporting.

SOME MEN'S clothing fashion "expert" the other day criticized President Nixon for wearing last year's suits. He said the suits that Nixon wears, loose, instead of snug (and like some of the weird things Madison Avenue dreams up for males nowadays), are hurting Nixon's image. Not with me they aren't.

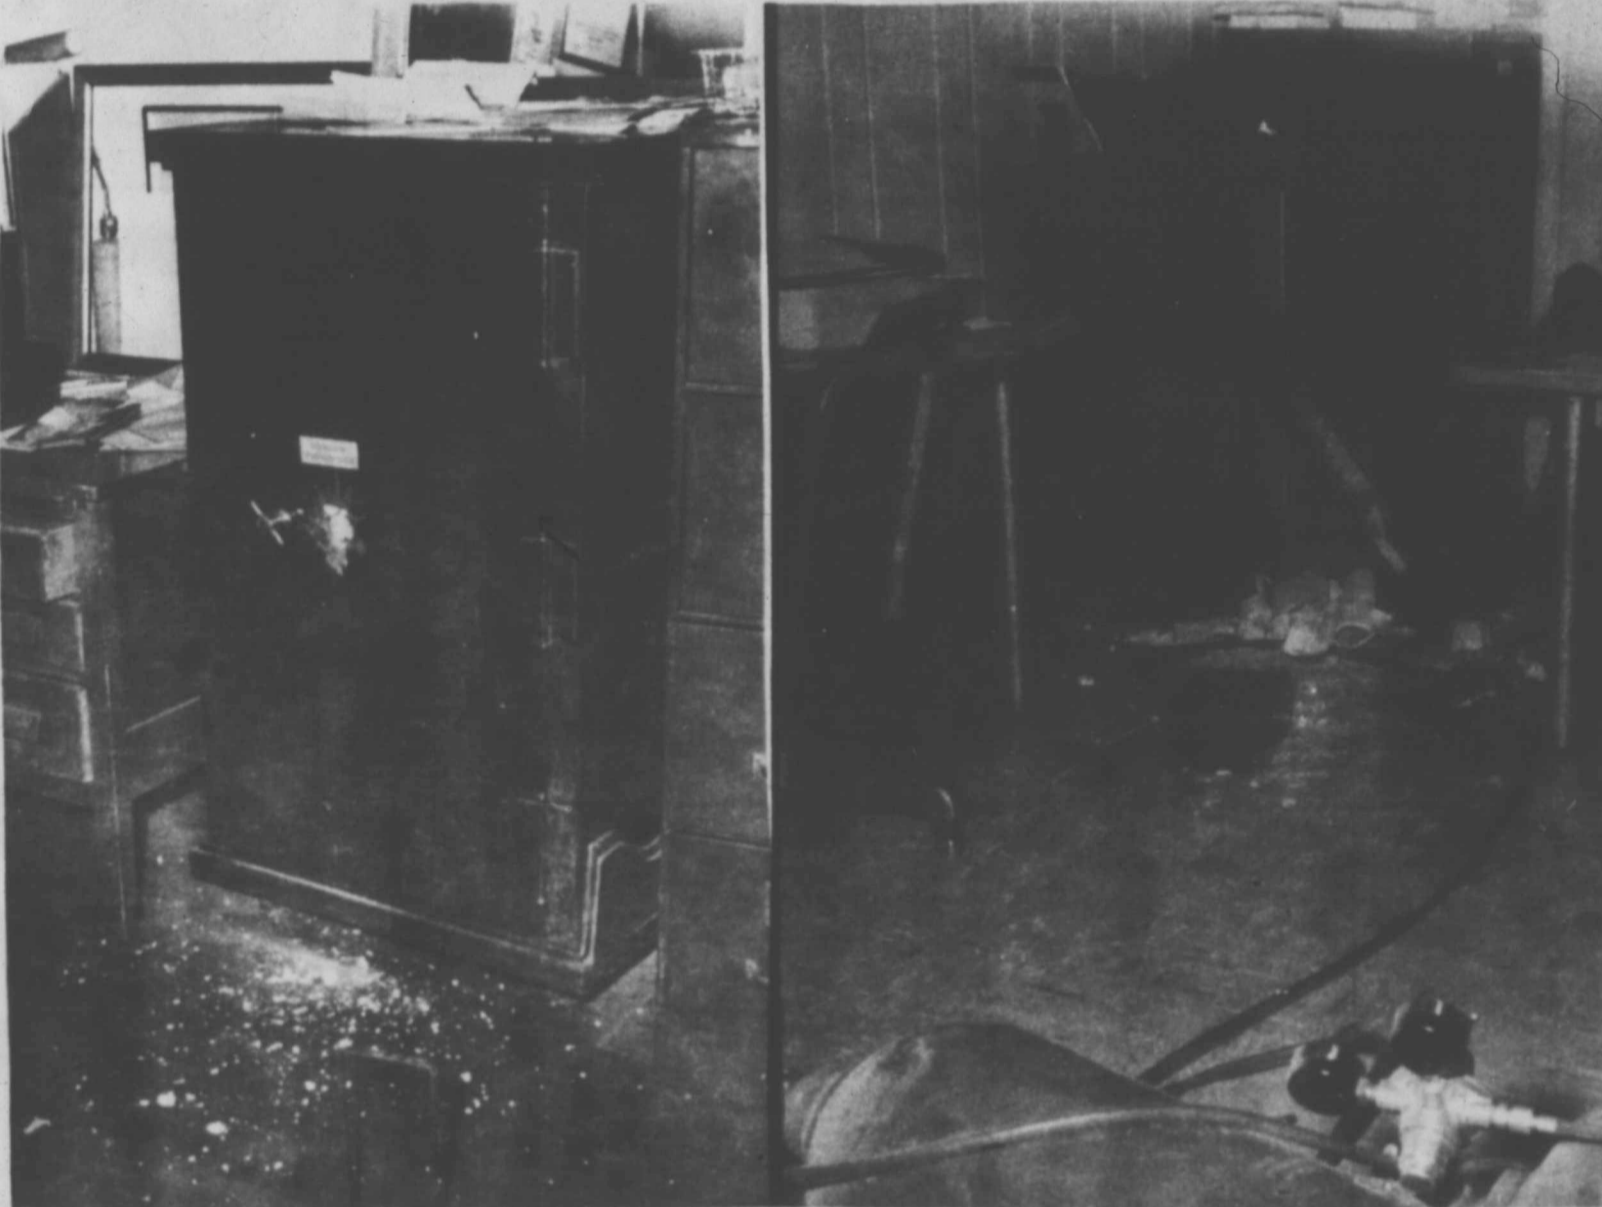

A FORT WORTH legislator, Rep. Joe Shannon, has offered a proposal to make it a fine up to $200 and up to six months in jail to "wilfully engage in disruptive activity on the campus or property of any public school of tax-supported institution of higher education." He figures his bill would give schools control over campus idiots who try to take over.

This sounds like a good bill, so it probably won't pass.

SPEAKING of good bills, the Maryland Senate recently adopted a resolution congratulating a state senator, who speaks often about high taxes and need for economy, on the senator's 40th birthday.

The resolution added, "In view of his devoted interest in keeping down costs to the taxpayers of this state, be it further resolved that no copies of this resolution be sent to anyone."

BURGLARS MAKE HAUL IN SUDAN

Person or persons unknown broke into at least five local business firms here sometime between Tuesday midnight and when personnel reported for work Wednesday morning. The City Marshal, Kenneth Tyler, went off duty at midnight.

Roark Jewelry, Baccus Chevrolet, Keith Glover Ford, Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company and Southwestern Public Service Company were entered by the thieves.

According to Texas Ranger Razz Renfro, Deputy Sheriff Homer

McLaury, and Lamb County Sheriff E. D. McNeese, who are investigating the break-ins, the damage was estimated as follows: Roark Jewelry gave a rough estimate of $2,000.00 as the value of china, silverware, jewelry, clothing and other merchandise taken.

Baccus Chevrolet reported that only some $7.00 in small change was taken, including a sack of pennies. However, both offices were ransacked and papers scattered. The thieves gained entrance by removing a door from the hinges.

At Keith Glover Ford, a 1966 Ford pickup was stolen. An undetermined amount of change was taken from the demolished coke machine and a small amount of money was taken from the office. The thieves did not break into the safe although the office was completely ransacked. They did take a portable acetylene welder and bottles, only to leave these at Southwestern Public Service after finishing with them. They also left numerous handtools, taken from Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company at the Southwestern Public Service office. $67 cash was also taken from the lumberyard.

At the service office the thieves cut the door from the safe and took $189.29 in cash, according to Manager, Herb Potter. There they did not bother to look for further cash and did not disturb records and files.

Deputy Sheriff McLaury reported that no clues have been established as to identity of the culprits but that the investigation is being continued.

A late development in the case was reported at press time that the stolen Ford pickup had been located 2 miles east of Sudan on a side road near the Springer property. Empty boxes from Roark's Jewelry were found in the vehicle.

Some of the printed materials that Reddy's Area Development Department has created are displayed by one of Reddy's co-workers.

Advances in electric appliances, equipment and electric service - all to make living and working better for all of us - are acknowledged during National Electrical Week.

But other services for the betterment of our city which Reddy happily performs may not come to mind.

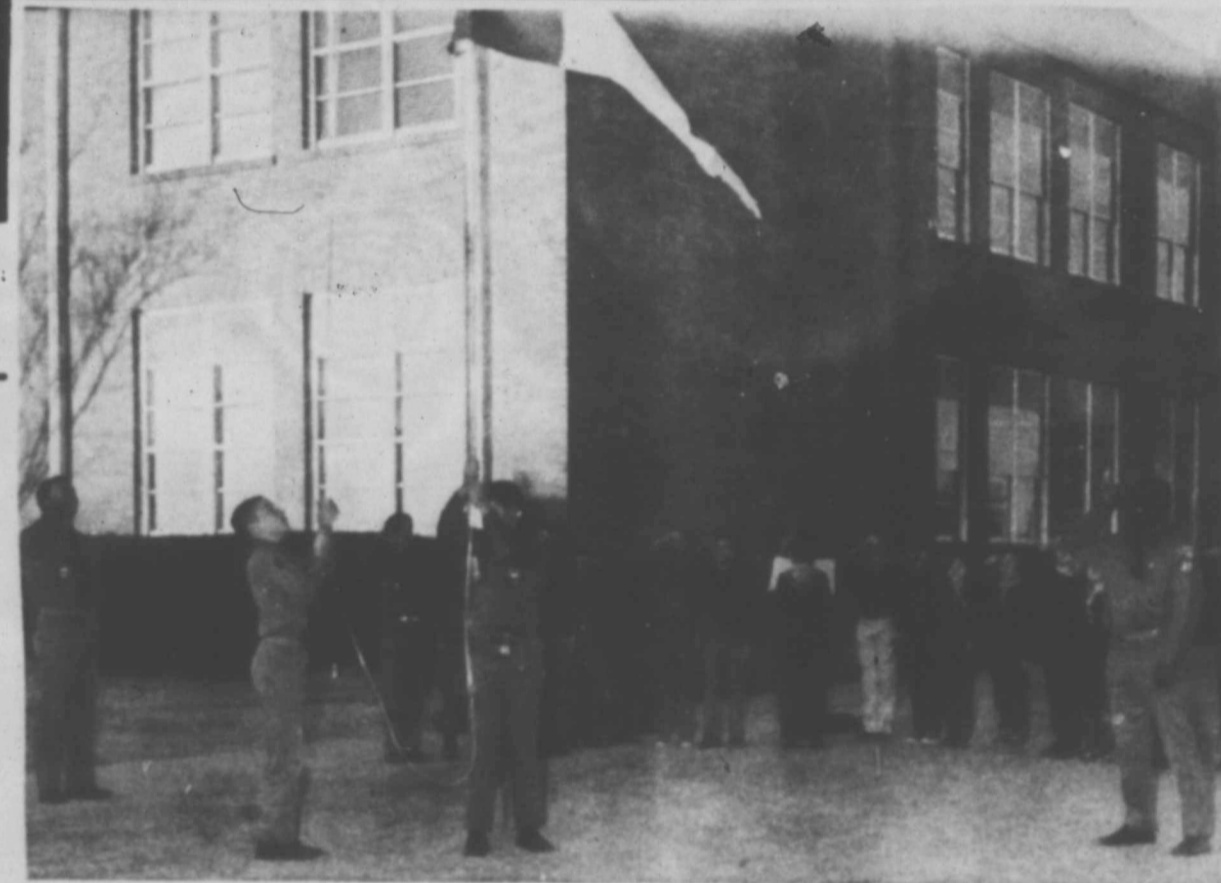

For example, Reddy has co-workers trained in helping you to attract new business and industry, to aid you with ideas in ways to keep your city looking smart as well as beautiful, to help you with printed materials necessary to tell new industrial prospects why your city is a good one.

And, right now, Reddy has a new firm ready for showing to your clubs and organizations. It's called "Money Grows Here" and shows in beautiful color the advantages that new industry can have by locating in our area.

Your Public Service manager will gladly arrange a showing for your group.

245 Persons Hear Bill Clayton

Rep. Bill Clayton was speaker at an open meeting, sponsored by the Sudan PTO Saturday night when some 245 persons were present.

Clayton gave a short summary of bills which are to be presented to the House of Representatives, some scheduled this week. Among the bills were: Liquor by the Drink, Daylight Savings Time What he called the "annual" Racing bill, Tart Claims Act, Higher Education, Water Resource Development, the Taxes Problem, and the controversial School Consolidation bill.

Speaking of the school consolidation bill, Clayton said that the bill had no chance of passing in its present form. However, he also suggested that we start thinking about this problem now of the need for change in our educational system. He said to us as rural people realizing the benefits and joys of community living, that "we've got to wake up and tell our story".

Names and addresses of members of the committee that will hear the School Consolidation bill will be printed in this newspaper when they are received from Rep. Clayton.

The Honorable Art of Snacking

There's a new way to entertain when a friendly snack is in order—when folks are ready for relaxation, laughter, conversation and a bit of comforting nourishment. Pour a cup of soup and pass a platter of snacks. You'll see how welcome this warm offering will be.

The occasions for this particular hospitality never cease through the four seasons. Den mothers, committee chairmen, teenage hostesses, grandmothers and the sportsman of the house know that soup and snacks have a special appetite appeal for their guests—and require a minimum of culinary skill, effort or time.

the little red school house committee

A statewide committee to represent rural landowners and those who enjoy living in the country during the expected struggle over school district consolidation in the current session of the Texas Legislature was announced here Wednesday.

The group, known as "The Little Red School House Committee" is composed of a cross-section of farmers, ranchers and rural landowners from throughout the state. Charles Schreiner III, a prominent rancher from Mountain Home, is chairman of the committee.

"We believe the forced consolidation of small school districts, as proposed in the report of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education, will go a long way toward destroying rural life as it is now enjoyed in Texas," Schreiner declared in a news conference at noon Wednesday.

Schreiner pointed out that the Governor's Committee recommends the forced consolidation of Texas' 1,218 school districts into a total of 353.

"This would virtually wipe out 865 community centers, since most rural schools are the primary symbols of community identification," Schreiner said.

He refuted the claim that bigger school districts would automatically provide better education for students. "Mere bigness is not an absolute guarantee of excellence," he said.

"The Little Red School House Committee has been formed to awaken rural landowners and residents of small communities to the unseen dangers of forced consolidation and to acquaint legislators in Austin with the feelings of the rural people of Texas," Schreiner said.

In addition to the erosion of rural communities following the closing of their schools, Schreiner said that other adverse effects would include the bussing of students often many miles away, elimination or serious curtailment of many outstanding programs designed primarily for rural schools, such as vocational agricultural and vocational homemaking programs; the elimination of athletic teams from Class AA and below, with the resultant loss of identity for those communities and a decrease or entire elimination of a voice for the rural residents on school boards which will be centered in urban areas.

"The Little Red School House Committee and all its members certainly want to provide the best education possible for the young people of our state," Schreiner said. "But we don't believe that this proposed forced consolidation program, requiring the elimination of nearly 900 school districts in Texas, is the answer."

Members of the Little Red School House Steering Committee include J. M. Auld of Mountain Home, E. W. Brown Jr. of Orange, Howard Derrick of Eldorado, Jack Frost of San Antonio, J. B. Love of Llano, Kerry McCann of Victoria, M. G. Michaelis III of Kyle.

Also John A. Matthews of Abilene, W. L. Moody III of San Antonio, Michaux Nash Jr. of Dallas, W. H. Rivers III of Elgin, Lance Sears of Sweetwater and E. M. Stevens of San Antonio.

News From Austin

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake has been appointed Chairman of the Committee on Livestock by House Speaker Gus F. Mutscher of Brenham.

In announcing the appointment, Mutscher said that Clayton's service in the Legislature for the past three sessions and his experience as a Chairman of other committees during the 59th and 60th Legislatures will prove to be invaluable to the Committee and to the House of Representatives.

Clayton is the Representative for District 72 which encompasses Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Lamb and Parmer counties and claims that his district is the best in the State.

The 17-man Committee on Livestock will have jurisdiction over matters concerning the livestock industry in Texas. This Committee takes the place of the Committee on Livestock and Stock Raising, as it was called during the 60th Legislature.

The 40-year-old Legislator is a Springlake farmer and businessman. He is a Mason, a member of the Baptist Church and a member of the Lion's Club. Representative and Mrs. Clayton are the parents of two children, a daughter, Brenda, and a son, Tommy.

"The tremendous amount of cattle and feed grown in Texas make this Committee's activities important to Texas," said Mutscher. "And no man has more interest in its promotion than Bill Clayton."

Representative Bill Clayton stated that he has received several inquiries pertaining to the length of quail-hunting season in Lamb County. Two years ago, acting on a resolution by the Commissioner's court, a bill was introduced and passed to limit the hunting season to 20 days on quail. Since that time, another resolution was adopted by the Court on June 17, 1968, which asks that the Legislature return the authority governing quail-hunting season in Lamb County to the Parks and Wildlife Commission. According to the direction of this resolution, Clayton stated that he had introduced House Bill 21, which would place the regulation of the hunting season in the hands of the Commission. This bill has not been heard before a committee, because the Parks and Wildlife Commission has just been organized and will not hear any bills until the week of February 10.

During the week of Feb. 3, however, the Commissioner's Court of Lamb County passed another resolution which, in effect, invalidates the resolution of June 17. This resolution requests that the authority for setting the hunting season for quail be vested in the Commissioner's Court of said county. Representative Clayton stated that he must be directed by the Commissioner's Court before passing any game legislation. But due to conflicting resolutions, hearing on any game bill will be delayed for a few weeks, until such time as the full extent of the new resolution may be determined.

Clayton further stated that it is his desire to do what the majority of the people of Lamb County want in regard to the quail-hunting season. This is the reason that heavy emphasis must be placed on action by the Commissioner's Court. Legislative Committees will respond to such a resolution as being the majority desire of the people in a given county.

WATER MEET HELD AT TECH

The schedule for the implementation of the Texas Water Plan calls for delivery of surplus water to the High Plains in 1985, according to Howard B. Boswell, executive director of the Texas Water Development Board.

Boswell was the first major speaker Friday (Feb. 7) at the West Texas Water Conference held at the Texas Tech Union, with attendance estimated at 175. Other speakers included Texas Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake, Dr. Herbert Grubb, Dr. George Whetstone and Dr. Willie L. Ulrich of the Texas Tech faculty.

Boswell said the Texas Water Plan is a flexible guide for the coordinated long-range management, development and redistribution of Texas water resources for the benefit of all Texas.

He said it would be continuously reviewed and modified as time and events dictate.

"This is a gigantic undertaking, but not an impossible one," he said. "In 31 years," he said, "Texas will pass from a water surplus to water shortage."

Devotional

By HAZEL HOUSE

Scripture: Isaiah 7:14; St. Matthew 1:23; Ephesians 2:8.

"The Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

How dare one say "I do not believe in the virgin birth of Jesus?" God himself gave us this sign that Jesus is the Messiah, the Christ, Immanuel which means "God With Us." If Jesus had not been born of a virgin, then He would not be Christ the Lord. And this is according to God's Holy Word, which testifies of itself that it is the truth and will be throughout eternity.

So, if you have been one who has said "I do not believe in the virgin birth", be careful lest you are saying "I do not believe God". Of course, the virgin birth is not understood by natural means, by natural man. Our finite mind cannot grasp the spiritual. What about the birth of John, the Baptist, the Crucifixion and the happenings that day? And what about the Resurrection? Do you understand all of that?

What about going the second mile, after you have been forced to carry a heavy load for the first mile? What about loving your enemy, those who treat you with scorn, ridicule, shaming and hurting you?

As man here on earth there are many things concerning God which we cannot explain by logic or the natural laws of this world. But we can know God and who He is through Jesus Christ. That is the only way.

Do you understand why so great a God, who created and upholds and sustains all the universe, should care enough about man, even about you and me, that He would come down from heaven, take on humanity, and give Himself to die, a necessary sacrifice for your sin and mine that we might attain eternal life through Him?

The conclusion of all this is that we do not understand yet all about God's creation, much less about God's thoughts and His way of doing things in every circumstance. We do know He is neither bound by circumstance nor by His creation. But He is faithful to His nature and to Keep His Word.

So, no man can logically explain the virgin birth, except as our Father explained it--by the "Holy Spirit".

But man does not find God, or even come to God by his own knowledge or understanding. How does man find God? How does man come to God and obtain life? God's word says we can come only as a little child, meaning to come in loving gratitude, trusting in Him for who and what He is, our Father.

Does a little child have to know all about his parents before he can love them? No, he blissfully and joyfully returns the parents' love. He trusts his parents implicitly to care for and love him. As he grows into maturity, he understands more and more about the parents, and his love and tender care and devotion also grows!

Is God your Father? Then trust Him, believe all His Word's of promise, and let Him take care of what you cannot logically define. This is faith. Faith is not blind, as the world sometimes judges it, but faith is trusting God first of all to be able and willing to save us into eternal life with Him. Then, to trust Him more as we walk with Him, and in obedience come to know His viewpoint.

I cannot explain why God loves me so much, nor the wonder of how I can know that I am His child, that He has saved me, but I do know--by the witness of the Holy Spirit within me and the confirmation of His Word. So you can know, for He is no respecter of persons. "By grace are you saved, through faith".....

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Are Communists God's Children?

Are Communists children of God? They deny that there is a God--yet some people consider that they are His children, just the same.

A recent newspaper headline said, "Quakers Tell Reasons for Aiding Viet Cong."

Explaining why the American Friends Service Committee had provided medical supplies to people in Viet Cong-controlled territory in South Vietnam, the AFSC board issued a statement which said, in part, "Sometimes our service has been among those whom other men call enemies, sometimes with those others call friends. They are all children of God."

If Communists are to be considered children of God, even against their will, it might be worthwhile to consider what some of these "children of God" have done to certain of their fellowmen who have fallen into their hands.

Booker's Testimony

Commander Lloyd Booker skipper of the ill-fated "Pueblo," described one illuminating incident, during his testimony before the naval board of inquiry.

Booker said that he was shown a tortured man, who had been strapped to a wall. "They told me he was a South Korean spy," he testified. "He was alive... but had a compound fracture of his upper right arm, with the bone sticking out... He had completely bitten through his lower lip. His right eye had been put out..."

There was a lot of black matter running down his right cheek."

He said his Communist captors told him that this man had been a spy and added, "That's what happens to spies, and you are spies, and you will get exactly the same."

Fine-Sounding, but False

Regardless of how fine and pleasant it sounds to say that all men are children of God, the Bible does not support this doctrine. Quite the contrary, in fact.

Jesus said to a group of His enemies one day, "Ye do the deeds of your father."

"We have one Father," they retorted, "even God."

Jesus replied, "If God were your Father, ye would love Me. Ye are of your father, the devil... He was a murderer from the beginning... He that is of God heareth God's words. Ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God."

Could anything be more explicit?

In another place, the Bible declares, "In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: who ever doeth not righteousness is not of God."

In still another place, the Scripture states, "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

If some misguided men choose to give aid and comfort to the enemy, let them at least refrain from identifying these heartless monsters as "children of God."

Howdy Neighbor

By BOYD PIERCE
Of Burlleson

Sometimes my finances get in such a mess, you would think I was getting advice from the government.

About the only thing that has risen as high as the cost of living is women's dresses.

Happiness is a pair of new shoes that feel like a pair of old shoes.

A good husband is one who never does anything behind his wife's back except zip her up.

When a habit begins to cost money, it is then called a HOBBY.

Modern medicine has advanced to the point where an ounce of prevention is now worth 15 or 20 dollars.

One woman to another: "There's something I must tell you before I find out it isn't true."

We are kept alive by a third of the food we eat. The other two-thirds keeps the doctors alive.

There seems to be two things that are almost impossible to do: Putting toothpaste back in the tube and getting off of a mailing list.

Someone has defined a post office romance by using the following cities: Friendship, N. Y.; Love, Va.; Kissimmee, Fla.; Ring, Ark.; Parson, Ky. and finally they end up in Reno, Nevada.

Some old time files were dusted off recently in the vital statistics department and they included these reported death causes of long ago:

"Went to bed feeling well, but woke up dead."
"Died suddenly, nothing serious."
"Don't know why. Died without the aid of a doctor."
"Had never been fatally ill before."
