WOODWORK IS A TALENT SHOW WINNERS NAMED

BY DALTON

IF REP. NEIL CALDWELL of Alvin had not withdrawn his motion in the Legislature last week, Texas hens would have had their work cut out for them.

Texas House members gave tentative approval last week to a bill to guarantee that housewives get Texas eggs if they want to buy Texas eggs. The egg grading measure would require all Texas eggs to be marked as laid in Texas, while out-of-state eggs would be labeled as to their origin.

Caldwell suggested, then withdrew, an amendment that would require all Texas hens to lay eggs embossed with the Great Seal of Texas in color.

I guess any hen unable to do this would be branded a dumb cluck.

SEN. JOHN TOWER has asked the government to give "freedom of choice" school attendance plans a chance to end school segregation. It's unlikely that he will have much impact on the Health, Education and Welfare agency to which he wrote, but we can always hope. Scores of Texas school districts feel the HEW is interpreting too broadly a Supreme Court ruling on freedom of choice plans.

Plainview is being forced to close the doors on two schools, one nearly new, because one serves the Latin-American community primarily and the other serves Negroes. These elementary grade students will be bused to primarily white schools, despite the fact that they have good schools already, and most would prefer to attend the schools nearer their homes.

Oh well. You can't fight city hall, and not even city hall can fight HEW.

KNOTHOLE'S in the Woodwork: In the early 1800's, an ordinance introduced in Philadelphia seeking to ban bathing from Nov. 1 to March 15 was defeated by only two votes. Kids under 15 must have been eligible to vote in those days, or maybe it was the first hippie government. ... Good tip to golf duffers: Make your reservations to the moon quickly. On the surface of the moon, a 150-yard drive would travel half a mile, says Hal Boyle of the Associated Press. ... Fellow in Plainview made a $20 bet he could pedal a bicycle to Lubbock (45 miles) in an hour and a half. He's supposed to try it Saturday. Funeral services are tentatively set for Tuesday afternoon.

PTO Meet

The PTO will have its regular monthly meeting Monday, March 10, 4 p. m.

The program will be given by Miss Vaughdeen Allen's Music Class.

Everyone is invited.

Mrs. Truma Willingham has returned home from the hospital.

The Epsilon Sigma Alpha Talent Show held Saturday evening was well attended.

Bobby Jack Markham was Master of Ceremony, and Miss Judy West played piano music between acts.

Sudan had several among the 27 entries for the show; only 25 acts were presented, as two entries were not present. Top entry for Sudan, in the estimation of many persons, was Bobby Hall in "Here Come The Judge."

Winners were: Bennie McCain of Bovina, 1st place ($25); Linda Langford of Dimmitt, 2nd place ($10); and "The Breakaway IV" of Farwell, 3rd place ($5).

Judges were Mrs. J. R. Manning, Mrs. Ruth Halladay of Olton, and Mrs. Jim Cain.

The ESA wishes to express their thanks to the community for their response to this program.

FIRST PRIZE--Bennie McCain of Bovina won First Place in the ESA Talent Show Saturday night.

WATER BILL GETS OKAY

Texas $10 billion water plan, sponsored by Representative Bill Clayton, has been approved by the House before proposed changes could be made.

The nod from the House at this early date surprised Clayton. He said he had told the chairman of the sub-committee reviewing the bill that he wanted to give the panel some proposed changes before the measure was voted on.

"The chairman must have forgotten," Rep. Clayton said.

Rep. Clayton was in an adjoining room attending another committee meeting when he learned of the passage of the bill. He will seek House action on the proposed changes in the near future.

SENIOR CITIZENS SET MEETING

The Sudan Senior Citizens will meet at the Community Center March 14.

Members of the F. T. A. will sponsor the program.

GIRL SCOUTS TO HAVE COOKIE SALE

The Sudan Girl Scouts will be among the some 60,000 girls of the Caprock Girl Scout Council who will join the three and three-quarter million Girl Scouts throughout the country in celebrating Girl Scout Week from Sunday, March 9, through Saturday, March 15, 1969.

The local Girl Scouts will attend church services Sunday in dress uniform, and have lunch together at the Community Center. They will raise the flag at the Sudan School. There will be a Mother-Daughter Tea at the Community Center Saturday, March 15. Their service project for the week is to clean up the Sudan Roadside Park. April 10-11, has been set for their two-night scout camp at Springer Ranch.

The sale of Girl Scout Cookies begins next week and will be in full swing through March 20, as (cont'd. on page 2)

SECOND PRIZE--Linda Langford of Dimmitt won Second Place in the Talent Show here Saturday night.

TEACHERS MEETING IN LUBBOCK

Approximately 4,605 area and local teachers are expected to attend the spring meeting of District 17, Texas State Teachers Association in Lubbock Friday.

Delegates will attend a banquet at 6:30 in the Coronado High School cafeteria, and the business of the association will be conducted when the House of Delegates convenes in the auditorium following the banquet. Committee reports will be heard and officers will be elected at the meeting. The theme of this year's program is "All Eyes Are on Education."

The general session will be held Friday morning at 9:30, in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum, with Mrs. Kathleen Weiss, president, presiding.

NOTICE

Regular meeting of Lamb Chapter of the American Red Cross will be held Friday, March 7, in the Red Cross Office. Progress reports on the March Campaign for funds will be heard.

175 ATTEND OPEN HOUSE TWO FILE FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Some 175 persons, in spite of the inclement weather, registered for Open House Tuesday at the Sudan Schools in celebration of Public School Week. Superintendent of Schools W. E. Hancock stated that 45 guests had lunch at the school cafeteria Monday, 90 to 100 on Tuesday, and 100 Wednesday. Kenneth Noles, Sudan High School Principal, and two carloads of seniors who are interested in going to South Plains College and to the Vocational School attended Senior Day at the College in Levelland Wednesday.

Area schools, including Sudan, will be closed Friday as the teachers will be attending a teachers' meeting in Lubbock.

*****

In other school news, Superintendent Hancock reported that only two, Robert DeLoach and Dexter Baker, had filed as candidates for the Sudan School Board of Trustees. Two vacancies on the board are to be filled as the terms expired for Wiley Mudgett who had not filed by Wednesday noon for another term and Dexter Baker, who filed this week. Wednesday, March 5, was the deadline for filing.

ABC Rodeo Scheduled

Fess Parker, Television's Daniel Boone, will headline the 27th Annual ABC Rodeo in Lubbock, March 19-22, it was revealed at a noon luncheon at Lubbock's Pioneer Hotel today.

Parker, who heads his own empire of business activities, will be featured at all four performances, slated at 8 p. m. daily in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

More than 150 of the nation's top cowboys are expected to sign up for the competition. Cash prizes totaling nearly $12,000 in purses and added money will be up for grabs.

Tickets may be obtained at Rodeo Headquarters in the Pioneer Hotel, or at Brook's, Fum's, Figgly Wiggly, United and Safeway supermarkets, all western stores and at Tech Drug.

Reserved seat tickets are priced at $3 and $4. General admission tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1.75 for students. Children 12 years and younger will be admitted for $1.25.

A parade, slated at 4 p. m. on opening day, officially will launch the 27th annual event. Don Workman is parade chairman.

In addition to Parker, who is a native of Fort Worth, and other stars, added entertainment features will be announced at a later date, Charles Perry, ABC Rodeo Chairman, said.

Parker, the star of this year's rodeo, wears many hats in the show business world. He is an actor, writer, producer, director, singer and composer and heads Fesspar Enterprises.

He has just signed a new contract for RCA records, and recently announced one of his most ambitious projects, Frontier Worlds, a $13.5 million theme amusement park to be built in Boone County.

Last year, Parker received a Distinguished Alumnus Award from the University of Texas at its annual homecoming celebration.

Proceeds from ABC Rodeos are used to support youth activities in Lubbock.

Junior Play Set Tonight

"Shy Guy", the Sudan High School Junior Class Play, will be presented March 6, in the High School Auditorium. Tickets are $1.00 for adults, $.75 for High School and Junior High School; $.50 for grade school and pre-school ages.

Sponsors for the play are Mrs. Mary Patterson and Gary Chism. Student director is Sue Noles. "Shy Guy" is a three-act comedy about a boy who models for a glamour girl cosmetic, and then tries to hide this from his friends.

Some eleven juniors have roles in the play, and the entire class urges everyone to "scape to the play tonight!"

BAND PARENTS SCHEDULE MEET

The Sudan Band Parents will not meet Thursday night, March 6, due to the Junior class play. The next scheduled meeting will be March 13, at 7:30 p. m.

SERVICEMEN

Machinist Mate Second Class Johnny C. Serratt, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Y. Serratt of Route 2, Sudan, is serving aboard the amphibious cargo ship USS Seminole in the Western Pacific.

The Seminole, a unit of the U. S. Seventh Fleet, is on its twelfth deployment to the Western Pacific, operating in support of U. S. and Allied efforts in Vietnam.

In addition to spending several months off the coast of South Vietnam, the Seminole has visited Japan, Taiwan, The Republic of South Korea, Hong Kong and Singapore.

Serratt, who recently was home on leave, stated that on his ship's return in approximately two to three months he would be stationed near Kingsville, Texas.

Duane Beale was confined overnight last week to the Medical Arts Hospital in Littlefield for a head injury he suffered when working with farm equipment.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ray of Littlefield announce the engagement of their daughter, Norma Luline to Mr. Charles Dee Burnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Burnett of Sudan.

The bride-elect is a 1968 graduate of Littlefield High School and is currently attending Jessie Lee's Hair Design Institute in Lubbock.

The groom-to-be is a 1965 graduate of Sudan High School, has attended South Plains College at Levelland for two years, and is currently engaged in farming south of Sudan.

The couple plans on April 26 wedding at 7:30 p. m. in the First Methodist church in Littlefield.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend. No invitations will be sent.

Howdy Neighbor

By BOYD PIERCE
Of Burlison

A sign in a barber shop window carried these words: Home haircuts repaired $2.00.

Sign in a beauty shop: We can give you a new look, providing you still have the old parts.

Husbands no longer fear the Wolf at the door. Now it's the mink in the window.

More people have died from stepping on the gas than from inhaling it.

If praising ourselves to the skies would get us to heaven, a lot of us would already be there.

Two good ways to protect your teeth is to see your dentist twice a year and mind your own business.

Customer: "Could I try on that suit in the window?"

Clerk: "We'd rather you would use the dressing room."

A note left on the windshield of a parked car with a fender and door carried these words: "I have just run into your car. People have seen me and are watching me write this."

They think I am giving you my name and address but they are wrong.

TESTIMONY TIME:

A few years ago in a small country church, members were giving their testimonies one Sunday night. After several had witnessed to their personal experiences and rejoiced in their blessings, one woman stood to her feet and said, "These are wicked times and our country has come to see evil days. Sin tempts us on every hand. In fact, I have been battling with the old devil all week." All at once, her husband sitting beside her thought she was referring to him, jumped up and said, "Well, it's not ALL my fault. She's pretty hard to get along with, herself."

ARMY QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How long do I have to stay in the Army to collect a pension? A person can retire after 20 years of service at half of his monthly base pay or 30 years at two-thirds of his base pay. For example, a typical enlisted man would retire, at today's pay scales, after 20 years with a pension of $248.55 a month and after 30 years with a pension of $397.80 per month. An officer who retires after 20 years would receive, at today's rates, a pension of $541.05 a month and after 30 years of service, a pension of $915.40. Since it is possible to retire at a relatively early age, you can begin a civilian career and add that salary to your military pension. And, of course, you would also be eligible for social security pension.

GIRL SCOUTS --- the girls go from door-to-door that all may have opportunity to participate. Proceeds from the sale of the cookies go to aid in the work and camping facilities for the Girl Scouts.

"Values to Hold-Worlds to Explore" is the theme of Girl Scout Week and of the Girl Scouts' 57th birthday March 12. This date marks the anniversary of the first meeting of the first troop organized in Savannah, Georgia, by Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the movement in the U. S. A.

Sudan ESA Has Social

Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeLoach were host and hostess for the ESA social held Thursday night, Feb. 27. Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Browned were co-host and co-hostess. A western theme was used with a hitching post at the entrance for coats. Antique lanterns were used on each table with a bandana print cloth. The serving table was decorated with an antique oil lamp and western articles of spurs. Mexican food was served and table games were played.

Those present were the Emery Blumes, Donnie Cowarts, Edward Fishers, Bobby Markhams, O. D. Martins, Darwin Reids, Kenneth Wisemans, Dan Woods, C. E. Nichols, Gayle Browns and Robert DeLoachs.

MRS. CHARLSIE BAKER HONORED BY ESA

Mrs. Charlsie Baker was recently honored with a going away coffee by ESA members in the home of Mrs. Martha Markham. ESA members present were Sharon Brown, Mary Cowart, Waynette Fisher, Arlene Provenca, and special guest Martha Edwards of Lubbock, and hostess, Martha Markham.

When people learn to pull together you don't have to push them.—Bob Percy, The Danville (Ind.) Gazette.

Panwich Cookies—Snacktime Favorites

Take 2 crunchy peanut butter sandwiches together with a yummy filling of marshmallow cream, peanut butter and chopped maraschino cherries... and be prepared for some good cookie eating! What else would you expect when combining the things snackers crave?

Peanut butter is a universal favorite and it's nice to know the special bonus you get when using Peter Pan Peanut Butter in cookies, cakes, breads or right out of the jar on sandwiches. Aside from the hearty peanut butter flavor, it's an economical source of protein.

PETER PANWICH COOKIES (Makes about 2 dozen cookies)

- |   |                                     |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| 1/2 cup Peter Pan Crunchy Peanut Butter | 2 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour |
| 1/2 cup butter                          | 2 teaspoons baking powder           |
| 1/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar | 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon               |
| 1 egg                                   | 1/4 teaspoon salt                   |
| 1 teaspoon vanilla                      | Peter Pan Marshmallow Filling*      |

Cream together peanut butter and butter, gradually add sugar. Beat in egg until mixture is light and fluffy. Stir in vanilla. Sift together flour, baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Stir into creamed mixture. Shape into 1/2-inch balls; place on ungreased cookie sheet. Lightly butter bottom of glass; dip into granulated sugar. Press balls into patties 1/2-inch thick. Bake in 375° (moderate) oven 10 to 12 minutes or until lightly browned. Sandwich together each of 2 cookies with Peter Pan Marshmallow Filling.

*To prepare Peter Pan Marshmallow Filling (Makes about 1/2 cup): Blend together 1/2 cup marshmallow cream, 1/2 cup Peter Pan Crunchy Peanut Butter and 1 1/2 tablespoons chopped and drained maraschino cherries.

Russian Atheists Are Upset, Too

Atheists are still smarting from the effects of the reading of the creation story from the Bible by the Apollo 8 astronauts.

Not only did a quick reaction come from Mrs. Madalyn Murray O'Hair.

Soviet atheists felt the necessity, too, of responding to the recognition of the Creator by astronauts Borman, Lovell, and Anders.

Russian radio suggested that the Bible reading was meant as a joke or, perhaps, an attempt to strengthen the authority of religion which had been shaken by the flight itself.

Why they should think that the flight might have had an inverse reaction on faith in God is impossible to explain unless you first accept their unsound theory that science and God are at enmity.

Christians know that God established the laws that scientists are discovering and learning how to use. There can be no conflict between God and true science.

Fallacious Reasoning

However, a Russian atheist magazine states that many children in that country say that they do not believe in God because cosmonauts, during space flights, reported that they did not see Him.

When Russian scientists succeeded, years ago, in photographing the dark side of the moon from an unmanned orbiting spaceship, a priest in that country told his congregation, the next Sunday, that he had become an atheist because science—not

God—had enabled men to photograph the hitherto unseen side of the moon.

If you have difficulty in trying to follow his reasoning, you are not alone.

It would be as logical to say that, because I can see a light bulb—even take a picture of it from any angle—I no longer believe that there ever was such a person as Thomas A. Edison, who invented and designed the incandescent light bulb.

No wonder the Bible says, "The fool has said in his heart, 'There is no God.'"

Is This Consistent?

The man who can walk on God's green earth, bask in God's golden sunshine, breathe God's fresh air, and then say, "There is no God," is like a man who pours Heinz ketchup on his hamburger and says, "There never was a Howard Heinz."

He is like a man who puts a Stetson hat on his head and says, "There never was a John B. Stetson."

He is like one who gets into his Ford car, and, as he starts the motor, says, "There never was a Henry Ford."

Such a person is not to be hated. He is to be pitied.

But equally pitiable is the man who says, "Yes, I believe in God," but whose life proves that his statement of faith is only theoretical—he has never let God show what He could do for him.

God, who made man, as well as the universe, is waiting for us to call on Him for help in solving the problems of our daily lives.

SURVEY COMMITTEE PLANS MEETING

Oldtime Dessert—with a Modern Flavor

A time and taste honored New England dessert is Apple Pandowdy, created over 200 years ago. This was a time when a dessert had to be hearty—and the cook had to utilize available ingredients. Apples were plentiful, but other fruits and flavorings were scarce.

Today, however, Pandowdy needn't be confined to the traditional apple. Try other fruits—fresh, dried or frozen. But however you make it, keep that jar of Peter Pan Peanut Butter handy to add hearty flavor—and a great deal of nutrition—the easiest way we know. And use it with other desserts, too.

- APPLE PETER PANDOWDY
(Makes 6 to 8 servings)
- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1/4 cup sugar  | 1/2 cup molasses   |
| 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon                                  | 1 tablespoon butter  |
| 1/4 teaspoon allspice                                  | 2 teaspoons lemon juice  |
| 1/4 teaspoon salt                                      | 1/2 package (10 ounces) pie crust mix (prepared according to package directions) |
| 6 green apples, peeled and sliced (about 2 1/2 pounds) | Light cream  |
| 1/2 cup smooth peanut butter                           |  |
- Combine sugar, spices and salt; toss with apples. In saucepan, mix peanut butter, molasses, butter and lemon juice; cook over low heat, stirring until peanut butter is melted and mixture is well blended. Toss with apples to coat. Turn into 1 1/2 quart baking dish; top with pastry. Slash pastry. Bake in 425° (hot) oven 15 minutes; reduce heat to 350° (moderate) for 15 minutes longer. Serve warm with cream.

TEL CLASS HAS SALAD SUPPER TUESDAY

The T. E. L. Class was entertained Tuesday night, March 4, with a salad supper at the First Baptist church.

Hostesses were Mrs. Oscar Vincent and Mrs. Luna Snow.

The theme and decoration carried out the St. Patrick's Day theme. Mrs. Waymon Gordon gave the devotional, "Following Christ." Others present were Mesdames J. P. Arnold, Nolan Parrish and Curtis Savage.

Behold, now is the acceptable time.—(II Cor. 6:2).

Let us not dwell in the past by comparing the occurrences of today with the events of yesterday. To live successfully in the present is our preparation for tomorrow. God has accompanied us to this state of our unfoldment, and He will be with us forever. Let us give thanks that we are led into paths of peace, righteousness and success. Let us rejoice in the blessings of today.

Unless we show them by our acts.
There's something we have often heard
An act will tell more than a word,
So kindly act that we bestow,
Will surely let our neighbors know.
