GRATITUDE FOR YOU DEPT.:

Three and a half years ago, a guy named Donald Correll in Los Angeles was told by a doctor that he would die within a year. But Correll didn't die.

Last week a jury awarded the 49-year-old bus driver $40,000 in damages from the doctor who made the fatal diagnosis.

Correll had testified that the doctor's report prompted him to quit his job, causing him to lose 18 years of seniority and pension rights.

Some people just can't see the bright side of anything.

SPIRO AGNEW, who by now at least is a household word, surely must have been correct when he said last week that "a vast, faceless majority of Americans is quietly furious" about the campus rebellions and the takeovers by violent minorities. And President Nixon and Atty. Gen. John Mitchell have come out with some strong statements on the issue, Mitchell saying "the time has come for an end to patience" on the disorders. Nixon said college administrators must take the necessary action to stop campus violence.

These are all statements that most of us would applaud, especially if followed with action. But not everyone is of like mind. A bunch of college professors (at a convention of the American Assn. of University Professors) sharply disagreed, and many of them supported the lawless students.

It is this support of armed and violent student uprisings that has encouraged it, along with the deplorable failure of the college administrations to squash violent protests quickly and finally.

I've always felt that the private schools could handle the situation better than the state-supported ones, but the sorry spectacle at SMU last week shattered that idea. SMU administrators appear as cowardly as those at Columbia and such places as that.

The Sudan Band Parents Organization will meet Thursday (tonight), 8:00 p. m. Officers for the coming year will be elected. Everyone is urged to come.

Twisters-- Shown above are two different photos of a tornado as it approached south Sudan. On the right is part of the Glen Chester home.

FFA Banquet Held Monday

Some 145 persons attended the Future Farmers of America Banquet Monday night in the high school cafeteria.

Rev. J. R. Manning, First Baptist Church Minister, was speaker for the occasion. Billy Gore was Master of Ceremonies, introducing other officers, FFA Sweetheart Mickey Logan, and Plowgirl Kathy Rice.

Achievement Awards were presented by Advisor Don Ham to the outstanding FFA members for accomplishment in the Sudan Chapter work and projects this year.

Special awards were presented by the FFA Chapter officers who are as follows: Billy Gore, president; Randy Pierce, vice-president; Shawn Potter, secretary; Don Harper, treasurer; Chester McNabb, reporter; Steve Smith, sentinel. Noel Lumpkin and Louis Fields and Guy Walden received FFA honorary membership plaques; Walden was not present.

Entertainment was by the Enstrings, who are Linda Lane, Joan Harper, Pam Nix, and Jenine Pierce.

Gerald Chisholm was injured in an accident near Sunnyside Saturday night and is a patient in a hospital in Dimmitt.

Tornado damage at Sudan Livestock & Feeding Co. included these two buildings, one with wall flattened and articles scattered helter-skelter, and a gaping hole in another building wall.

TORNADOES STRIKE IN AREA

Rain, hail, wailing sirens and as many as five tornadoes were the dis-order of the day for Sudan residents late Tuesday afternoon.

One tornado struck at Sudan

Livestock and Feeding Co., damaging several buildings but no one was hurt.

The Bobby Jack Markham home was in the path of one tornado on the ground, when it veered off to barely miss the house. Robert DeLoach stated that an old building was demolished southwest of town.

The all-clear came between 7 and 8 p. m. and Sudanites watched the storm as it traveled northeast toward Plant-X, and finally to form funnel clouds toward Earth. One tornado descended on Earth, to damage several buildings, but no injuries were reported.

RICHARD BLACK WINS STATE

Richard (Dick) Black, Sudan High School senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Black of Sudan, won first place in the State Meet Friday, May 2, in Informative Speaking.

Dick's subject was "What Was The Abe Fortas Controversy?" He chose this subject from five other subjects which he received in a drawing. The four regional A winners were allowed to draw five subjects and make a choice from the five. Along with other rules, source materials could be books or magazines, and the speaker had only 30 minutes after drawing to prepare before speaking.

Black was accompanied to Austin by high school principal Kenneth Noles, Rex Boyles, and speech teacher Miss Kathleen Graw.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a floor-length gown of bridal satin. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations atop a white Bible.

Serving as maid-of-honor was Miss Betty Baldwin of Littlefield. She wore a semi-fitted A-line dress of pink peu-de-soi and carried a long-stem pink carnation.

Causey, N. M. and Larry Ray of Littlefield.

Then hope assures us there will be

NURSING HOMES IN TEXAS WILL PARTICIPATE ACTIVELY IN NATIONAL NURSING HOME WEEK BEING SPONSORED BY THE TEXAS AND AMERICAN NURSING HOME ASSOCIATIONS.

In joining the program, Ernest Borovka, Administrator of the Amherst Manor, announced they will be having an open house on Mother's Day because most of the nursing home patients are women. But the men will be visited too, of course. This year's theme is "A Better Life Through Community Concern". "All of us in the nursing home profession are going to get the community to come in for a visit. We can provide for all the needs of our patients but one -- we can't show them that the community cares -- we cannot relieve their feeling of remoteness from community life unless the community does care and does come in", said Dorothy Weaver, R.N., B.S.

"The health care revolution that is occurring in America is probably affecting the nursing home more than any other type facility," Miss Weaver commented. "We want to show people what our nursing home is like!"
