FORTY-FIFTH YEAR

WOODWORK

BY DALTON

A RECENT Associated Press news report began as follows: "DALLAS (AP)—The U. S. Department of Agriculture was ordered in federal court Tuesday to begin at once a foot-to-the-poor program in every Texas county not under the federal stamp program."

That's what I always say—when you get a man down, kick him good. (Obviously, the phrase was supposed to be "food-to-the-poor").

KNOTHOLES in the Woodwork: Long titles for records were the rage back in the old days. Remember a tune called "I've Got Tears in My Ears from Lying on My Back in My Bed When I Cry Over You"? Fortunately, neither do I. NEA reports that Ozie Nelson once turned out one called "I'm Looking for a Guy Who Plays Alto and Baritone Doubles on Clarinet and Wears a Size 37 Suit." ... I can see why that one was never another "Stardust". Also on the musical scene, we understand the kazoo is making a comeback, with a rock beat. Very little ability is needed. I heard one recently, at the tail end of Channel 28's Goofy Ghoul show, or whatever they call that Saturday night thing. They were kazooing the Aggie War Hymn. ... If you can't afford a kazoo, a comb and piece of paper will work, if you don't mind dandruff in your mouth.

STOLEN FROM HAL BOYLE: Every year some 20,000 Americans become victims of amnesia. I forget why.

Other Stolen Gems: A Dallas News sportswriter, describing the terrible condition of one end of the football field where a halftime show was canceled after rain, snow and rugged play, said "it looked like a place where you would expect to find Johnny Cash fighting his daddy."

Elston Brooks in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, said 1969 was a year in which the tower crew at Havana airport would look up and say, "Well, here comes the 5:15 hi jack."

Mrs. Willey Announces For County Clerk

I would like to take this opportunity to place my name before you, the citizens of Lamb County, as a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Lamb

MRS. MARY BETH WILLEY

SENIOR CITIZENS TO MEET FRIDAY

The Sudan Senior Citizens will meet Friday, Jan. 9, at 2:30 p. m. at the Community Center.

The Future Homemakers will present the program and everyone is invited to attend.

County. I would like to express my sincere appreciation to many friends for their encouragement and support since my appointment to this office on June 1, 1969, to fill the unexpired term of County Clerk, and request their continuing efforts thru the weeks ahead.

The following qualifications are offered to each of you for your careful consideration: Employed as Deputy County Clerk for five years prior to being appointed County Clerk, valuable experience in serving the public, varied responsibilities as Deputy County Clerk and County Clerk covering all facets of the County Clerk's Office, served as Ex-Officio Clerk in Commissioners Court meetings, and an extensive knowledge of the duties of your County Clerk.

I plan to contact each and every citizen of this county to request your vote and support, but with the duties of County Clerk, it will be difficult for me to campaign as I would like.

If it is the desire of the citizens of Lamb County, I would respectfully request your support in allowing me to continue serving the people of Lamb County as your County Clerk.

LARRY JOE HANNA

Dykes Seeks Re-Election

To the Citizens of Lamb County Precinct # 4:

It is again election year for the various offices in Lamb County. Therefore, I am announcing my candidacy for re-election for County Commissioner of Precinct # 4, Lamb County. I have served the people of Pre-

Congressman Bob Price announced this week the list of nominees to compete for appointments to Air Force, Military and Naval academies from the 18th Congressional district.

Larry Joe Hanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hanna, was named as nominee for the one vacancy at West Point.

Hanna, a Sudan High School senior, has attended Sudan schools for 12 years. He is the president of his class, has been a member of the National Honor Society for three years. He has received many athletic awards and has starred on the varsity football, basketball and track teams.

Price noted that Academic Boards of the various Academies will study the records of the nominees and select for admission the ones whose all-around performance indicates the greatest likelihood of success in the academy.

hest Friday night as they edged the Amherst feds 44-43 as the final second ticked away. Amherst led until the third quarter with the lead see-sawing back and forth until the final horn. Vieing for top scoring honors were Connie Lance with 20 points and Elaine Weaver of Amherst with 19.

The Varsity boys won against Amherst 47-35 with David Weaver scoring 18 points. Seagraves defeated Sudan 89-61 Tuesday night in a high scoring game. Seagraves led 42-23 at the half although Sudan held their own

As problems have arisen in the precinct and County, I have tried to resolve them in a manner that would be both satisfactory and pleasing to all people of Lamb County.

I wish to thank you for the generous support and the cooperation you have given me in electing me in the past.

I ask, and will appreciate your continued support in the upcoming election.

Markham-Tyson Vows Pledged

MRS. JACK G. TYSON

Miss Jackie Jo Markham and Jack G. Tyson were married in a double ring ceremony at 7:00 p. m. Tuesday, December 30, in the First United Methodist Church in Sudan. The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Aubrey White, minister of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Markham, of Sudan. She is a 1966 graduate of Sudan High School and attended South Plains Junior College two years and also attended Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Lubbock.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tyson of 1833 W. Goguch, Battle Creek, Michigan. He is a 1965 graduate of Lakeview High School in Battle Creek. He attended South Plains Junior College in Levelland and served a four year term with the United States Air Force with a tour in Vietnam. He is presently employed with the Grand Trunk Railroad in Battle Creek.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Victorian gown of white silk peau d'ose and Venise daisy insertion lace. The fitted bodice was accented in vertical rows of lace with high cuffed neckline and long leg of mutton sleeves. The high waistline was defined with a tiny satin bow sash and a wide border of the ice motif encircled the hemline; a detachable chapel train fell from the shoulders and was striped in vertical rows of the lace. Her bouffant veil of illusion was attached to a garland headpiece of lace daisies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donald Champion of Lubbock; and

Nix-Dawson Vows Read

MRS. KENNETH EDWIN DAWSON

Miss Nancy Evelyn Nix and Kenneth Edwin Dawson were married in a double ring ceremony at 7 p. m. Jan. 3 in the United Methodist Church. The Rev. Johnny Williams, minister of the Earth United Methodist Church officiated before an altar flanked with pink candelabrum and baskets of pink gladioli and burgandy carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nix, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dawson of Dimmitt are parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of silk faced peau d'ose and Venise lace, fashioned with a scoop neckline and long petal point sleeves. The empire bodice was scattered with Venise lace motifs beaded with seed pearls. The beaded motifs were scattered throughout the A-line skirt and on the sleeves. A watteau cathedral length train flowed from the shoulder. Venice lace and lace motifs trimmed the train. Her 3-tiered shoulder length veil was held in place by a cluster of organza petals edged with seed pearls. For something old the bride carried a Bible that was published in 1813 and has been in her mother's family for several generations. It was attached to her bouquet of a single orchid and white feathered carnations.

Miss Julia Bains of Lubbock was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Beth Riddle and Donna Hill of Lubbock, and Gini Gatki of Wilson. They wore formal length gowns designed with bodices of burgandy velvet. The skirts of pink organza over satin were attached to the empire waists. The long puffed organza sleeves were cuffed with velvet. Their headpieces were of burgandy velvet and pink tulle. They carried nosegays of pink and burgandy feathered carnations.

Bob Coker of Springlake was best man. Groomsmen were Dick Dyer of Dallas, Joe Bob Mayo and David Scarborough, both of Petersburg.

Guests were seated by Tim Nix and Charles Axtell of Springlake.

Candlelighters were Clint Dawson of Springlake and Jimmy Cleavinger of Dimmitt. Wedding selections were furnished by Miss Joan Dawson of Springlake, organist, and Bill Lucas of Lubbock, soloist.

For traveling the bride wore a light blue coat dress and gray accessories and an orchid corsage from her bouquet.

The couple traveled to New Mexico on a wedding trip and will live in Lubbock where both attend Texas Tech.

The bride is a junior clothing and textiles and education major and a member of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall.

The table was covered with a pink net and satin cloth. Silver and crystal appointments were used. The bridal bouquet and attendants nosegays were arranged around a pink candelabrum.

Mrs. Mike Nix and Miss Sheila Baker served the cake and Mrs. Robbie Rudd and Miss Susan Jones poured punch and coffee.

Members of the houseparty were Mesdames Bob Drake, Frank Lane, Adrian Martin, Wayne Whiteaker and Bruce Newman.

Miss Bertha Vereen and Tina Pat Jones of Dimmitt were Sunday visitors over the weekend.

Harper-Traweek Vows Read

Miss Carole Ann Harper and Albert William Traweek were married at 8 p. m. Saturday in Hodges Chapel of the First Christian Church, Lubbock. Dr. Dudley Strain, minister of the church officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harper of Sudan. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Traweek of Slaton.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of ivory velvet. The bodice featured a crystal beaded collar and long fitted sleeves with matching crystal cuffs, a detachable train accented with a bow. A bouffant veil of illusion fell from a cluster of satin petals. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with a white cymbidium orchid, centered atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Pat Brown of Canyon was matron of honor for her sister. Miss Barbara Durham of Lubbock was bridesmaid. They wore floor-length gowns of Spanish gold velvet with long sleeves and of the same silhouette as the brides; bright gold satin sashes defined the waistline, and gold velvet bows held their butterfly veils. They carried nose-gay bouquets of red sweetheart roses and white pom-pom mums accented with fresh holly.

Miss Shirley Roberts of Whiteface, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a dress identical to the attendants, and carried a basket of red sweetheart roses and white pom-pom mums.

Ring bearer was Billy Joe Roberts of Whiteface, nephew of the groom.

Larry Bellar of Sudan, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. Bud Crow of Longview was best man, and Robert W. Sokoll of Levelland was groomsman. Guests were seated by Pat Brown of Canyon, and Royce Heinrich of Slaton.

Mrs. Royce Heinrich of Slaton sang wedding selections, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Barry Martin of Lubbock.

A reception in the Green Room of the church honored the couple. Assisting with the hospitalities were Mrs. Jerry Bridwell of Houston, Mrs. Jerry Brantley of Dallas, and Mrs. Durwood White of Amarillo, registered the guests.

The couple traveled to Veil, Colo. on a wedding trip. They dry up, lady!

Think about it. Your biggest complaint about washday is probably the clothesline routine. With a family, it gets to be a hang up. You can spend a big part of your life hanging out T-shirts, mini-skirts and Hubby's socks. And sheets, and jackets, sweaters, bedspreads... even curtains. Not to mention the unmentionables.

You don't like lifting, lugging and wrestling loads of heavy, wet wash to the backyard. Then there's always the weather. Now's the time to do something about this bundle-of-problems with a GAS clothes dryer. A gas dryer does five loads of clothes for the price of one load in an electric dryer. So, dry up with gas.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Kind words and flowers are much the same. They bring us joy in life's great game. You know what works, kind words will do. When they've been spoken just for you, such words we think bring happy hours. As well as do the lovely flowers, so when the flowers are scarce, are gone, just use kind words and carry on.

Woody-May Vows Exchanged

Under an arch of greenery and candles entwined with ruby red bows and baskets of gladiolus, Miss Anita Elizabeth Woody became the bride of Kenzel Ray May, Saturday, Dec. 27, at 4 p. m. in the sanctuary of the Grandfalls First Baptist Church.

Lloyd Shirley, minister, Grandfalls Church of Christ, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Joyce Woody of Fort Stockton, Houston Woody of Stanton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray May of Sudan.

Given in marriage by her brother, Wayne Woody of Dallas, the bride wore a formal gown of peau de soie featuring a high neckline, an empire waist and bodice trimmed with rows of Valenciennes lace. Wide lace cuffs fastened with tiny satin buttons complimented the long full sleeves. The bride's chapel-length train with lace motifs swept from beneath a large bow which accented the high bodice. She wore an elbow-length tulle veil centered with seed pearls, and carried a cascade of white glamias and stephanotis. The entire ensemble was fashioned by the bride's mother.

For something old and borrowed, the bride wore her mother's gold bracelet which had been a gift from the bride's paternal grandmother many years ago. The new gown and blue garter completed the old wedding tradition.

Mrs. Larry Don Mosley, Grandfalls, former classmate of the bride, served as matron of honor. Miss Karen Ratliff of Denver City, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Jane Hodges of Stanton was bridesmaid. Attendants wore street-length gowns of ruby red silk, fashioned with high necklines, empire bodices and bows in back. Their short veils of tulle fell from floral clusters. Matching shoes enhanced each ensemble. Each attendant carried a long-stemmed pink carnation tied with ruby red ribbon.

Serving as best man was Mike Nix, Lubbock, longtime friend of the groom. Larry May of Sudan and Barry Wilson of Muleshoe were groomsmen. Raegan May, brother of the groom, was ring bearer. David Tullis, San Angelo, and Jerry Neuenwander, Littlefield, served as ushers and lighted candles. Thomas Lawrence, Lubbock, sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Wedding Prayer", accompanied by Joe Ben Brandenburg, Grandfalls, organist. Vernel H. Smith, Grandfalls, read the 23rd Psalm.

MRS. KENZEL RAY MAY

As the bride and groom left the church following the ceremony, they stopped in the center aisle where the bride presented a red rose to her mother and to the groom's mother.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Jess Wristen, Mrs. J. D. Witcher, Miss Linda Wheeler and Miss Teresa Estep of Grandfalls, and Misses Marihelen Giles, Lubbock, Cathy Hoffman, McGregor, and Nealu Ferguson, Comanche. Miss Francis Graves of Grandfalls registered guests.

As guests moved by the receiving line, they were served white wedding cake and ruby red spiced punch at the bride's table or German chocolate cake and coffee at the groom's table.

The bride's bouquet centered her table. The six-tiered cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, was flanked by the crystal punch service. The large table had a white cloth overlaid with white net, and pearl pins marked the serving area. The groom's table was centered with two large ruby red candles, a Christmas arrangement, and the silver coffee service.

For travel the bride chose a three-piece rose woolknit suit, with black patent accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After a honeymoon trip to New Mexico, the couple will make their home at 3102 4th Street in Lubbock.

Mrs. May is a Texas Tech University sophomore, majoring in home economics education and child development. May is a graduating senior with a major in electrical engineering. Upon graduation he will accept a position with a major electronics firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray May, parents of the groom, were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at Hunts Restaurant in Grandfalls on Friday evening immediately following the wedding rehearsal.

The couple has been honored with a series of wedding parties the past six weeks at Stanton, Grandfalls, Lubbock, Fort Stockton, and Sudan.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Debnam, Lamesa; Mariamie Melton, Dallas; Mrs. C. O. Archer, Austin; Mrs. Charles E. Goin and Chary, Midkiff; Mrs. Ethel May, McGregor; Miss Judy Crutcher, Lubbock; Dr. and Mrs. Cass Archer, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Archer, Dr. and Mrs. David Tullis of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamilton of Great Falls, Montana; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McCarty, Fort Stockton; Houston Woody, Stanton; Mr. and Mrs. James Shults, Odessa; Kathy Etheridge and Steve Brown, Larry Shea, Lubbock; Mrs. Llydy Shirley, Monahan.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jinks Dent were Mr. and Mrs. Louis May of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Wilborn May and son, Winston, and Miss Deborah Denson of Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie May and Jessica and Chad of Dallas.

bridesmaid was Miss Sherry Tyson, sister of the bridegroom, of Battle Creek. The attendants wore floor length dresses of hot pink velveteen and light pink peau d'oise, featuring empire bodice and fitted sleeves.

Best man was George Brown of Battle Creek, and groomsman was Bonner Markham, brother of the bride, of Sudan.

The ushers were Ruben Hoh of Green Bay, Wisconsin and Rusty McIntuff of Lubbock. Mrs. Margie Harmon of Amherst was the organist who accompanied Miss Sherry White of Hereford, soloist, singing "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Twelfth of Never". Mrs. Bob Bowers of Albuquerque, registered the guests. After a wedding trip to Ruidoso, the couple will be at home in Battle Creek, Mich.

South Plains College Registrar Charles Sylvester has announced that for the benefit of those who are attending college where the semester does not end until Jan. 23, SPC will hold registration open until Jan. 30. Students will receive full credit for the semester's work.

Regular registration will begin at SPC Wednesday, Jan. 7 and continue through Jan. 13. The hours are from 9 to 11:30 a. m. and from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. in the Technical Arts Center. Classes will begin Wednesday, Jan. 14.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express my thanks and deep appreciation to everyone for all the prayers, visits, gifts, flowers, food, and for all concern shown during my illness and stay in the hospital.

Virginia Rone

CARD OF THANKS

May we express our thanks to all those who have been concerned for us during our time of crisis and slow recovery. Thank you for the many visits, cards, flowers, prayers, many kind deeds and acts of thoughtfulness. During times like these, we are again made aware of the wonderful people in our community and we thank you and appreciate you deeply.

Sincerely,
Dail and Lula Burnett

(Dail is home from the Littlefield Hospital from his heart attack but will be a bed patient for a while yet. He loves to have short visits from his friends).

Mrs. Lena Rollins is a patient in the Methodist Hospital.
