WOODWORK BY DALTON

REPRESENTATIVES of anti-busing forces in nine states convened in Dallas last week, calling for a nationwide boycott of schools where busing is used, a constitutional amendment and a massive grassroots political uprising.

Some of the groups have had an impact on the operation of various schools, but whether the boycott angle will have any effect on the federal government's position that for every white there must be a black or brown sitting across the aisle, regardless of how far they have to go to school to make it work out.

Busing, of course, is wrong, when the only reason for doing it is to maintain a certain ratio of races in school. No matter how many courts say otherwise, it makes no sense to force a kid to go to school 10 miles away from home when there is a school down the street, and parents of all colors are agreeing with this.

The problems of race relationships and forced busing, and such things generally considered by country folks as happenings in remote, eventually may reach the smaller communities, too.

There was a time when most of the riots were in California, or Michigan, or some place we don't care a whole lot about in Lamb County. Then we started having troubles of one kind or another in such places as Houston, Austin, Dallas. And now, Lubbock. The proximity of these occurrences should be of concern to everyone around here now.

In Indianapolis, Indiana last weekend the ticket taker at a theater was shot and killed by a teenager he had criticized for spitting on the floor. The youth shot the man four times in the lobby while a talent show was going on.

The show was intended to keep young persons off the street and out of trouble, the theater's owners said.

The Bible prophesies that troubles such as we are experiencing in this nation now will increase near the end of time. It's something worth thinking about.

HORNETS STORM SUNDOWN 28-7

The Sudan Hornets came home victorious Friday night after downing the Sundown Roughnecks 28-7 in a season opener.

The game started off as a stand-off with neither team giving up much territory during the first quarter.

A determined Hornet team started things happening early in the second quarter when Kevin May went in for pay dirt from 11 yards out. The try for point after failed but Sudan had taken the lead 6-0.

However, once the action began it came fast and furious as Sundown came roaring down the field to score. Marlin Waldrop carried over from 4 yards. Johnny Soules gave Sundown the lead 7-6 by kicking the extra point.

Sundown's lead was also brief as Sudan came back to score before the half ended. Roger Boyles plunged over from the two yard line and Kim Engram kicked the ball through the uprights for the extra point, thereby giving Sudan a 13-7 halftime lead.

Two determined teams returned from the dressing rooms and battled for a scoreless third quarter.

The fourth quarter belonged to Sudan and clinched their victory. Roger Boyles again carried over from the two with Engram booting the point after.

The Hornet defense dug-in and held the weakening Roughnecks. With time running out, Sudan again drove to the two yard line with Engram getting the nod and tunneled his way in for the 6-pointer. Quarterback Bo Lance pitched one out to Boyles for the two-pointer and Sudan came off the field with a 28-7 victory.

Sudan led Sundown in yardage gained, 369, and in first downs, 21-9. However, the Hornets also led in penalty yardage 100-51. Each team fumbled four times and covered two of them. They also had one pass intercepted by each team.

Leading the Hornets in rushing yardage was Boyles who gained 149 yards in 22 carries. Lance passed seven times and completed three, the longest being to Ronnie Gilbert for 31 yards.

Outstanding on defense were Mike Hedges, Boyles and Eugene Lopez.

The Hornets will take on neighboring Amherst tomorrow, Friday, at 8 p. m. in the Hornet Stadium. Amherst was defeated last week by Springlake-Earth.

Wiseman Speaks To PTO

The P. T. O. of the Sudan Schools met Tuesday, Sept. 14, in the Grade School Cafeteria with Kay Wiseman, president, presiding.

Minutes were read and approved and the treasury report given. Maxine Nichols and Hazel May were selected to report the meetings of the P. T. O. Future business was brought up for consideration to be decided at a later date.

Kay Wiseman introduced Brent Wiseman, the speaker of the afternoon. Brent is a senior of Sudan High and attended the National Leaders Institute where he was elected Junior Counselor of the organization. His duty in this capacity is to speak to organizations in the hope of getting sponsors to back area youth whom he selects for their qualities of leadership.

In his speech on "Leadership", Brent brought out some very fine points worthy of repetition. He brought out the fact that many of our youth who do not gain recognition, push aside their obligations in their present situations and develop a world of their own, hence leaving only a precious few who are actually aware of what is "Within Their Grasp".

A segment of the educational process is "challenge", but apathy from the youth comes not from dull members but dull leadership. To combat this apathy, the youth should be helped to create by insuring that each is involved in a meaningful way and that there is respect for his rights and opinions as a group member.

In the words of Thomas Wolfe: "So then—to every man his chance—regardless of his birth, his shining golden opportunity, the right to become whatever thing his manhood and his visions combine to make his."

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served to the group.

BANKS SOURCE OF FARM LOANS

Texas commercial banks were the chief source of credit for the state's farmers and ranchers in 1970, as they have been for many years, according to Oscar C. Lindemann of Dallas, President of the Texas Bankers Association.

Leon Thompson, Chairman of the TBA Agriculture Committee and agriculturist for Citizens National Bank of Waco, said the annual farm lending summary of the Agricultural and Rural Affairs Committees, American Bankers Association, shows that at the beginning of 1971, 1020 of the 1183 insured commercial banks in Texas held loans totaling $1,008,841,000.

Of that total, $815,543,000 was in production loans and $193,298,000 in farm-ranch mortgages.

At the same time, $590,948,000 in farm loans was held by life insurance companies, $337,655,000 by production credit associations and $69,364,000 by the Farmers Home Administration.

"Texas bankers have not permitted urbanization to diminish their interest in agriculture as a major factor or to neglect farmers' and ranchers' credit needs," Lindemann said. "As the number of individual farmers decreased, production units have become larger and more specialized, resulting in fewer but larger loans."

"Successful farmers and ranchers nowadays must be businessmen as well as technologists, and Texas bankers have of necessity developed expertise to keep abreast of the trend. Personal acquaintance with their farm-ranch customers and knowledge of local conditions have, I think, been largely responsible for maintaining bank leadership in agricultural credit services."

U. S. HIGHWAY ACCIDENTS

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY - STATISTICAL SERVICES

TRAGEDY is a dreaded word!

WE HATE to hear of tragedies and we are greatly saddened by them.

TRAGEDY is a disease which we usually feel happens to the other fellow. We don't feel that it will happen to us. Then, at an unexpected moment TRAGEDY STRIKES! Then the reality hits us, "It can happen to us!"

IN 1970 TRAGEDY struck Texans as 3,560 persons were killed in traffic accidents. That was an increase of nine over the previous high in 1969.

IN 1970 Lamb County had 381 accidents with 8 deaths and 105 injuries.

THE ABOVE STATISTICS are frightening enough, but the American College of Surgeons has estimated that 20 percent of our traffic casualties could have been saved, if they had received prompt and efficient emergency medical care. Apply this to Texas in 1970 and an estimated 700 Texans should have been saved.

INJURY is bad enough!

BUT DYING on the way to the hospital is really an insult, isn't it? If you survive the accident, you would like to survive the aid of your rescuers.

BUT LAST YEAR 20,000 Americans only survived the first hurdle. Another 25,000 were permanently disabled because they did not receive the proper care before reaching the hospital.

NOW WE have only been talking about traffic accidents, but think how many other fatalities and permanent injuries were incurred at home, school, work and recreation.

CAN THESE tragedies hit us in Sudan? Of course they can, and only the totally uninformed would not admit it.

THEREFORE, the purpose of this article and subsequent articles to follow will be to inform us further and to encourage us to be concerned enough to act.

WE NEED ambulance service here in Sudan and some volunteers to help in the maintaining of this service.

IF YOU are willing to help in this, please contact Philip Gordon at the Sudan.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED!

Mrs. Nunnery described the cat as being calico mostly black with orange tiger striping on her front leg and under her left eye. She is a small cat and answers to the name of Calli.

If anyone has seen this cat, they are asked to write or call Mrs. Nunnery and she will come and get "Calli". Her phone number is 512-465-6016.

HOG CHOLERA QUARANTINE REACHES COUNTY

Quarantines for hog cholera have been placed on portions of Lubbock, Hockley and Lamb Counties by federal and state animal health agencies, according to Dr. Gilbert R. Hollis area swine specialist.

The quarantines were enacted because of two confirmed outbreaks of hog cholera, one each in Lubbock and Hockley counties. The action is part of a stepped-up campaign to wipe out this costly swine disease. The quarantine will be removed when the threat of disease spread has been eliminated.

The quarantine area for Hockley and Lamb counties is bounded by a line from Smyer, north along Farm Road 168 to the intersection of Farm Road 54, then west along Farm Road 54 to the intersection of Farm Road 303. From there, south along Farm Road 303 to the intersection of State Highway 116, then east along State Highway 116 to Smyer.

The specialist explains that no swine in the quarantined areas can be moved without health certification from an accredited state or federal veterinarian. Any producer within the area who wants to take hogs to mony.

Following a trip to New Mexico, the couple will make their home in Lubbock.

Gage is a graduate of Sudan High School and is attending Draughon's Business College, as is the bride who previously attended Lubbock High School.

FACTS

Since August 1970 the two Concorde prototypes (British/French supersonic transport aircraft) have gone into their fourth testing phase which has taken the two aircraft from the Mach 1.5 range up into speeds of Mach 2 (twice the speed of sound). The only precedents for large aircraft flying above the speed of sound were the U. S. B-58 and B-70 bombers.

American industry is developing another instrument to increase the safety of air travel. Cartons For Castles Let's face it. Castles made of sand just aren't as stable as castles made from Pure-Pak milk cartons.

Here's just one of many imaginative ways kids can have fun with the cartons after the milk is gone. With a little help from mom and dad, it's a great family project.

The castle's center is a gallon carton. On top of that is a half-gallon size, with the battlement cut from a gallon-size base and topped with a half-pint carton. The courtyard is surrounded by wall cutaways from various size cartons. Push-pins help hold the castle together while gluing. When the glue is dry, spray paint the entire construction. Of course, you can build a Pure-Pak castle any size you wish.

With paper board cartons there's no broken glass to worry about and they can be crushed to take up little space in the trash barrel. A Pure-Pak carton also makes a sanitary container for picnic garbage. And they are biodegradable—they burn "cleanly" or ultimately decompose to substances natural to the environment.

MR. AND MRS. GARY MORRIS

Watts-Morris Vows Exchanged

A double ring wedding ceremony was read before an archery of flowers and greenery and flanked by candelabras in the First Baptist Church of Sudan on Friday, Sept. 3 uniting Sheryl Watts and Gary Morris. Officiating was Rev. Wayne Perry of Lubbock.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davison of Sudan and Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Morris of Muleshoe.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal length gown of white silk organza featuring Juliette sleeves and a scooped neckline. The a-line skirt extended from an empire waistline to which was also attached a headpiece of lace flower petals and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white baby breath and greenery with an orchid nestled in the center. The bouquet was atop the traditional white Bible. Other traditions carried-out by the bride was the birthdate pennies in the shoes, something borrowed, and the blue garter.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Frances Gray with Kathy Rice and Dolores Abbott of Amherst as bridesmaids. The attendants wore either hot pink or light pink floor-length gowns which featured empire waist and short puffed sleeves. The headpieces consisted of hot pink satin feathers and matching net.

Best man was Mike Morris, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Dwain Gable and Melvin Morris, also brother of the groom. All were from Muleshoe. Flower girl was Debbie Hill with Mike Hill as ring bearer. Lighting the candles were Mart and Pam Davison, brother and sister of the bride. Mike Hanna served as usher.

Providing traditional wedding music was soloist Mrs. Donna Greene of Muleshoe and Miss Kathy Fisher, organist.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church with the bride's table laid with white lace over hot pink. It featured the traditional tiered wedding cake and a light pink floral arrangement surrounded by greenery, baby breath and tapers. The groom's table was centered with a hot pink floral arrangement and featured chocolate cake and coffee which was served from silver appointments. Officiating for the serving duties were Mrs. Rachel Hanna, Mrs. Jeannie Provence, Miss Kathy Fisher and Miss Connie Bodkin. Members of the houseparty were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Legg, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Young.

The bride chose a plum wool knit pantsuit with black patent accessories for the trip to New Mexico, after which the couple will be at home some three miles east of Muleshoe.

The bride, a 1969 graduate of Sudan High School is employed by Young and Ivey attorneys of Muleshoe. Morris is a 1968 graduate of Muleshoe High School, attended South Plains College, and is currently employed by Farmers Spraying Service of Muleshoe.

A revolving scholarship loan fund has been established to give financial help to those students interested in attending a two-year printing program at Texas State Technical Institute in Amarillo.

According to Ross Hester of Lubbock, the fund was set up by members of the printing industry to offer financial help to young people interested in entering the printing industry. He added that it isn't a giveaway program as all loans are expected to be repaid when the student begins work.

Enrollment in this semester's printing class at TSTI closes Friday, Sept. 17. Persons interested in obtaining financial help for this course should contact Hester or J. W. Sollis, Manager of Student Services at TSTI.
