SOME OF YOU aren't going to believe it, but the newspaper office really does get this much mail. And such strange stuff some of it is. At this writing, I have not gone through it a piece at a time, and you can enjoy it with me as I take it off the stack from the top:

First is an offer from the Philadelphia College of Art headed "For Your Readers, a Professionally Prepared Column on Art at No Cost To Your Publication". A sample is sent along, and it looks sort of interesting, so we'll keep that one, maybe just to doodle on.

Second is a bulletin from the Texas Employment Commission regarding a training program for auto service mechanic, 22 weeks in Lubbock, apply at TEC and get paid 50 bucks a week while you're training, if you have a family. As many vehicles as we have clattering around, it might pay me to take the course.

Third is a thick package of stuff from Texas A & M Agricultural Extension Service. They say that all Texans benefit from quality agricultural research, and that Coastal bermuda grass need grazing. If groceries get any higher, we may put the kids on it. Then it says there will be an annual Game Bird Conference at A & M May 26, so all you birds who are game go down to Aggieland and talk it over.

There's a sheet about what to give Mother for Mother's Day, suggesting appliances "from toaster/ovens to fondue sets." I don't even know what a fondue set is. Must be something John turns out down at the leather shop. Somewhere down in the story it says "look for electric knives with off-on switches." That ought to be good in case Mom gets into a rumble out at Jones Station.

Next story is a plug for 4-H clubs, and we'll sure go along with that one.

The next one tells women how to set a table, noting that "Fat brass or clay pots each holding a bunch of flowers, such as tiny chrysanthemums, would enhance a large table." The same pots holding red beans and scalloped potatoes would sure look a lot better to most men.

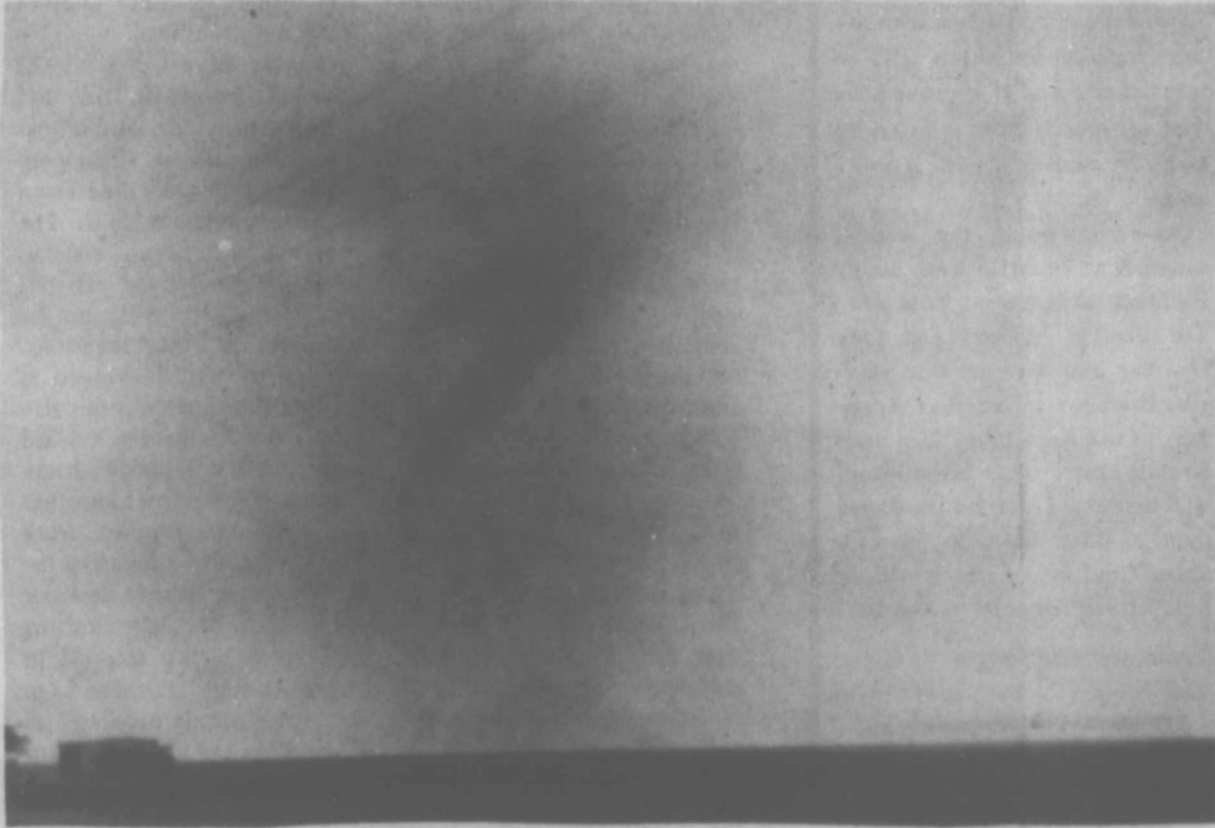

Then there's a story about the price of meat, saying that chicken and turkey still are the best buys, and that finally is the end of the Aggie stuff.

Next is the Kiplinger News letter from Washington, which we can't quote in the paper.

Texas Press Assn. comes next with a bulletin noting that some bills which would hurt newspapers' revenue are being proposed at Austin, including one by a Houston legislator which would drastically limit campaign advertising, and which, therefore, would be of great benefit to incumbents in office.

Next in this seemingly unending stack of mail is a story from the Texas Dept. of Agriculture telling us that Texas produced a lot of peaches and pecans in 1972, and another noting that cash receipts for 1972 crops and livestock totaled $3.8 billion in the state.

Then comes the weekly "Cot-

SHOWN ABOVE Is proof of the turbulent weather that struck around the Sudan area Monday afternoon. Although it was raining at the time this picture was taken, the funnel can be clearly seen before it dissipated after alarming area residents. Several funnels were reported having been seen but none was reported to have touched the ground.

CITY RECEIVES REVENUE CHECK

Mayor Arnold Reed has announced that the City of Sudan has received a revenue sharing check in the amount of $3,769 for the period beginning January 1, 1973 and ending June 30, 1973, from the Department of Treasury Office of Revenue Sharing, Washington, D. C.

This check will be used to pave streets in the city, stated Reed.

ton Talks" column, which usually runs in this paper.

After that is a brochure trying to sell us something, followed by a dull story about hospital certificates or something, a story about credit bureaus, some statistics or manpower trends in the Lubbock area (most workers grow weaker, but smell stronger as the day progresses), and a story saying—they're gonna put some more lights on Loop 289.

Other mail deals with the state arts and crafts fair at Kerrville, about how a wallet card could save your life, and ones about the dangers of power mowers, poison and contaminated water.

Then another report about a one-year cosmetology course to be taught at the Amarillo campus of Texas State Technical Institute starting in September. Then an advertisement for lino-type parts, then a magazine from the Chevrolet company, a message from the acting director of the FBI ("Please come in and give yourself up; we can't spare an agent to go after you"), and last of all, a periodical called "Expanding Texas Markets."

All the bills and personal mail had been removed by the bookkeeper before the stack of stuff was deposited on my desk. This is a tremendous amount of mail to be getting, but it is about normal. Something about the whole thing reminds me of a story Red Skelton told once:

"I signed up for this body-building course you do at home, and it was expensive, but you get a lot for your money. Once a week for six months, the mailman delivers right to your door 30 to 50 pounds of body-building equipment. At the end of six months, I had the best-developed mailman in the country."

Double Ring Vows Pledged By Couple

Nuptial vows were solemnized by Miss Joan Elaine Harper and Timothy William Nix at 8 p. m. Friday in First United Methodist Church.

Officiating the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Dr. William K. Norton, professor at Texas Tech University, Lubbock. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Edwin Harper. Nix is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nix.

The ceremony was performed before the church altar cross and candles and a bouquet of white gladiolas. The altar table also held three smaller candles which included the unity candle lit by the couple. Flanking the table were candelabra holding white tapers and decorated with ivy and white bows. In the background were votive candles nestled in an ivy-colored railing. Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white summer velvet, fashioned with an empire waistline, long sleeves and lace trim, and a chapel length veil trimmed in the same lace attached to a velvet band with the lace trim. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and a detachable white orchid corsage atop a white prayer book.

She carried a handkerchief belonging to her Grandmother Sager which she carried at her wedding and wore her Grandmother Harper's wedding ring for "something borrowed and something old". Her gown served as "something new", and she wore the traditional blue garter.

Miss Sandy Dedmon of Miami attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mesdames Karen Gore of Midland, Debra Bingham of San Antonio, and Nancy Dawson, sister of the groom, of Spur. They were attired in formal

MAY 13-20 DESIGNATED SMALL BUSINESS WEEK

President Nixon has designated the week of May 13, 1973 as Small Business Week. He asked all Americans to share with him during this week a deep pride in the many accomplishments of the nation's small businessmen and women, and in the invaluable contribution they have made to our free way of life.

During the past year alone more than 70,000 new companies were started. Some 19 out of every 20 firms are considered small business, they provide approximately 35,000,000 jobs and contribute more than $420 billion to the gross national product.

They also provide a ladder of opportunity to hard working, and ambitious Americans of all races and creeds—the chance to harness individual initiative and ability to the mighty potentials of the free enterprise system. As long as America remains true to her heritage, the small businessman will continue as a mainstay of our economy and our society.

Thomas S. Kleppe, Administration, has announced that more than 20% of the total dollars loaned to small businesses by SBA in its entire 20-year history occurred during calendar year 1972.

The 12-month record was over

$1.9 billion, compared to a cumulative total of $9.4 billion since 1953. The past year eclipsed 1971 by 49 percent.

4-H's Find Sewing Own Clothes Easy, Fun

It doesn't take years of sewing experience to create a modern wardrobe for yourself. New products and new fabrics have made home sewing easier and more enjoyable.

The 786,000 4-H girls and boys enrolled in the national 4-H clothing program are using needles and thread and sewing machines, fabric, patterns and notions to create clothing that's appealing, attractive and comfortable for themselves, their friends, and others.

Supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service and sponsored by Coats & Clark, Inc., the 4-H clothing program helps 4-H'ers become knowledgeable consumers. They learn to buy fabrics, sewing equipment, notions, accessories. Awareness of new fabrics and new products related to home sewing and the care of clothing are stressed in the program.

Along with developing sewing skills and having the satisfaction of wearing garments they've made, 4-H'ers also share what they've learned with others.

Carol Myers, a 1972 national winner in the 4-H clothing program, taught sewing techniques to 92 low income girls in her home town of Winston-Salem, N.C. The program she began was so successful that local officials used it as a pattern for similar programs in other locations.

The creativity involved in making their own clothes also leads 4-H members toward careers in the field of fashion.

Patricia Vandeventer, another 1972 national winner, from Tulsa, Okla., is preparing for a career as a fashion designer because of her 4-H clothing experiences. "My interest in fashion design sharpened (in the 4-H clothing program) as I saw how my artistic ability and creative nature could be used in a clothing career," Miss Vandeventer commented.

Coats & Clark, Inc., which has supported the 4-H clothing program for 33 years, provides incentives and recognition for involved people. Up to four county winners receive medals of honor, while the top 4-H clothing winner in each state receives an expense-paid trip to the 52nd National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 25-29.

At the national event, six are chosen by the Cooperative Extension Service to receive $700 educational scholarships, courtesy of Coats & Clark, Inc. The awards donor also provides 4-H members and leaders with instruction booklets on numerous sewing techniques that will help them improve their skills.

For more information about the 4-H clothing program, contact the county extension office.

The Word for Today

By Charles H. Robinson, Asst. P.R. Director
Bryan College, Dayton, Tennessee

There is a great deal of concern in the country right now over the condition of the dollar. The lack of gold backing for our currency and the shortage of silver for our coins poses the danger of inflation through worthless money. The devaluation of the dollar abroad reduces its purchasing power still more. The material security men labor for could vanish as a vapor, leaving most without that very thing to which they have devoted their lives. How timely and practical, in the face of this new threat of economic instability, become the words of Jesus: "A man's life consists not in the abundance of the things which he possesses." Jesus said: "Lay not up for yourselves treasure upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven: where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through and steal. When you die, will you leave your treasure, or will you go to your treasure?"

World on Wheels

by Parnelli Jones

Q. What's the importance of the Indianapolis 500 to the average driver?
A. Indy has been called "the most grueling test of cars and engines in the world." The race is 200 laps, 500 torturous miles of the fastest and most demanding competition driving in existence. This year's race on May 28th, promises to be the fastest in history, with speeds expected to hit 200mph. That's a big difference from my 143 mph when I won Indy in 1963. Here's where these demands mean a lot to the average motorist. The U.S. Auto Club, which sanctions the Indy 500, issues product certification for automotive products actually used in the Indianapolis 500.

USAC regulations are stiff. For instance, cars are required to travel the entire 500 mile distance without change or addition of a drop of motor oil or lubricant! That's why my "Super-feram" of Mario Andretti, Joe Leonard and Al Unser will again be driving on Castrol GTX motor oil. Every year since 1968, Castrol lubricated cars have finished in one or more of the top three positions at Indy.

Don't forget to watch our team's exciting ABC-TV special, "The Racers," the night before Indy. The Indy 500, masterfully organized by Tony Hulman, will be televised on May 28th.

You are invited... to good times, good food

... in your own backyard with an outdoor gas grill and gas light. You can cook up a party at a moment's notice, because a gas grill is ready to cook in minutes. And it's so easy to cook on because you can control the heat. With a gas grill there's no charcoal mess, and you still get that delicious, outdoor char-broiled flavor that comes from the smoke of meat juices dripping on permanent ceramic briquets.

Besides the good times you'll have cooking out, you enjoy the convenience of having a gas grill. You'll probably find yourself cooking on it just because you wanted to get out of the kitchen or didn't want to mess up the broiler of your kitchen range.

Commencement at Wayland Baptist College has been scheduled for 10 a. m. on Saturday, May 19 in Harral Memorial Auditorium with some 119 seniors participating in the program, according to Mr. Audrey H. Boles, registrar.

Speaker for the commencement will be Dr. Jess Moody, pastor of First Baptist Church, West Palm Beach, Fla. Dr. Moody is one of the most sought after speakers for college groups in the South. Preceding graduation on Saturday morning at 7:30 p. m., Dr. Roy C. McClung, president of the college, and Mrs. McClung, will host a breakfast for all seniors, their spouses and parents in Slaughter Memorial Center.

Among the graduates will be Donna Ruth Crume Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crume, Rt. 1, Sudan, who will receive a B.A. degree in English with a minor in history. She is a 1970 graduate of Bula High School.

John Wayne Hall, son of F. W. Hall, Star Route, Sudan, will also be among the graduates. He will receive a B.S. degree in Psychology and minor in English. He is a 1968 graduate of Muleshoe High School.

crop had been classed. This compares to only 1,122,000 bales produced from the 1971 crop.

One-third of the South Plains cotton this season was classed in the White grades, one-third in the Light Spotted grades and one-third in the Spotted and Tinged grades. During the 1971 season, only 14 per cent was classed in the White grades, 60 per cent in the Light Spotted grades and only 26 per cent in the Spotted and Tinged grades.

Average staple length of the 1972 crop showed great improvement over the 1971 average. Staple averaged 31.3/32nds of an inch, or between 31/32nds of an inch and one inch. This compares to an average of 30.4/32nds of an inch for the 1971 crop.

Micronaire also showed considerable improvement over the 1971 crop. Twenty-three per cent was in the premium range of 3.5 - 4.9, compared to only 7 per cent of the 1971 crop. Quality of the 1972 crop was much better than the poor quality of the 1971 crop would have to be considered as excellent when the extremely unfavorable conditions are taken into account.

Motor-cycling
Q. We're planning a vacation visit to my brother who's studying in Germany. Can we rent motorcycles there?

A. Yes, and guaranteed that you'll be in for a real treat. Germany is especially hospitable to cycle enthusiasts, perhaps because the motorcycle became such a popular vehicle for its economy-minded citizens after the war. Facts on the reasonable Rent-A-BMW plan can be had by contacting the German Tourist office at 630 Fifth Ave., New York. With your rented cycle, head for the beautiful countryside near Stuttgart—riding north along the Neckar River through the local wine area. You'll pass picturesque vineyards and centuries-old villages with names like Mundelsheim and Pleidelsheim.

Don't be surprised to see an occasional seventy-year-old motorcyclist zoom by. Age is no barrier there. Once on the road, service, oil and fuel are readily attainable. Just look for a Castrol sign and you can't go wrong. In fact, if you decide to buy a motorcycle to bring back, you can get the same Castrol quality here at home. The U. S. firm's products are top-notch. For the finest 4-cycle care, you can get Castrol Grand Prix motorcycle oil, great for road, trail or track. Recommended for all crankcase-equipped engines, it offers powerhouse lubrication. Happy motorcycling!

Would You Be Better Off Poor?

To live in poverty is not likely your life's ambition. Few of us today are eager to join in prayer with Saint Francis of Assisi who advised "I will that we pray God that He make us to love with our whole heart the so noble treasure of holy Poverty."

There is an attitude rising among us epitomized by the notorious Reverend Ike which declares in effect "God goes first class," and so should His children. Some Biblical passages unquestionably promise prosperity. Jesus said, for example, "Give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, they will pour into your lap. For whatever measure you deal out to others, it will be dealt to you in return."

Doubtless, if you give your best for God He will confer His best on you. But the pseudo-Christian slogan "You have to give to get" sounds perilously like the capitalistic maxim, "Nothing ventured nothing gained." Jesus said of the Pharisees who donated to charities publicly and were therefore honored, "Verily, they have their reward." The gain in true giving is spiritual.

A Christian life cannot be lived by applying selected principles. We must also imitate people. Jesus owned nothing at all. Should we therefore, with Saint Francis, praise "holy Poverty" as "that celestial virtue whereby... every barrier is removed which might hinder the soul from freely uniting itself to the eternal God"? Not according to the New Testament.

The early believers continued to own property and land, but they considered them expendable for use by the Lord. Some believers, like Philomen, were apparently wealthy. The problem is not ownership. The issue is whether you possess things or things possess you.

Would you rather be rich or happy? The American materialistic way of life makes it difficult even to consider such a question. Being rich makes people happy, doesn't it? The illusion of advertising says yes, but the reality of the newspapers reveals no. Nevertheless, the notion is hard to relinquish.

We think, "If I had that, I would be happy." Jesus demonstrated that "A man's life does not consist in the abundance of things he possesses." The first step toward happiness is giving up possessions — not getting rid of them necessarily, but giving up dependence on them and becoming instead dependent on God.

The apostle Paul imitated Jesus and encourages us to imitate him. And about his life he wrote, "I have learned to be content, no matter the circumstances. I know how to be rich and how to be poor, and it doesn't make any difference to me which I am. I have learned the secret of being content whether full or hungry."

The secret? Not stoicism or asceticism or resignation to defeat. The secret is, "I can do all things through Jesus, Who gives me strength." Knowing Jesus is its own reward. Copyright Dave Llewellyn 1973

Farmcast

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Compiled From Sources
Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Farm Prices Decline... Read Meat Production Increases... Cook-Off Contest is May 19.

What goes up must come down; at least that is true for farm prices. The all-farm products index of prices received by Texas farmers as of April 15 is down 10 points from the previous month. The livestock and livestock price index was down five per cent from a month ago.

Hog prices averaged $34.50 per hundred pounds, down almost $7 from a month ago. Beef cattle at $43.60 per hundred pounds are down $2.50 from a month ago. Calves at $56.80 per hundred pounds are $6.60 under a month ago.

Sheep at $16.90 per hundred pounds are $2.10 under last month. Lambs at $36.10 per hundred pounds are $4.50 below a month ago.

Turkeys and eggs showed price increases during the recent month. Turkey prices averaged 33 cents per pound compared to 28 cents a pound a month ago. Egg prices reached an average of 58 cents per dozen compared to 53 cents a month earlier.

Wool and Mohair prices remained unchanged from a month ago.

In crops, wheat was up four cents at $2.20 per bushel. Grain sorghum was down a penny at $2.76. Corn at $1.73 per bushel was down two cents per bushel.

Despite price increases during 1972, livestock producers did not achieve full parity. No category of livestock achieved full parity throughout the year.

The average price of cattle, calves, hogs, sheep and lambs in Texas during 1972 was $35.85 per hundred pounds.

The average parity price for those categories of livestock during 1972 was $42.06 per hundred pounds, thus the average price the farmer received was more than $6 under the average parity price during 1972.

RED MEAT production in Texas during March showed a nine per cent increase above a month earlier.

Cattle slaughtered during March in Texas totaled 300,000, which is up 31,000 over the month ago. During the first three months of 1973, a total of 865,000 head of cattle were slaughtered in Texas.

Average live weight of cattle slaughtered was 934 pounds compared with 928 a month ago.

Hog slaughter in Texas during March was down 6,000 compared to a month ago.

TWENTY-FOUR state finalists will compete in Austin May 19 in the annual grain-fed beef cook-off, coordinated by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

The contestants will be competing for the grand prize and category prizes of $200 each. The three categories of the contest are: tender cuts, such as steaks; less tender cuts, such as stew meat; and variety cuts, such as liver and kidney.

Winning recipes will be published. Sponsors of the cook-off are the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, the Texas Cattle Feeders Association, the Texas Meat Packers Association, and the Texas Cow Belles.

TDS REPORT

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 12 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of April, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and seven persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1973 shows a total of 30 accidents resulting in no persons killed and 16 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety, Region #5, for April 1973 shows a total of 544 accidents resulting in 24 persons killed and 283 persons injured as compared to April 1972 with 445 accidents resulting in 44 persons killed and 232 persons injured. This was 99 more accidents, 20 less fatalities and 51 more injuries in 1973 at the same period of time.

The veteran officer reminds you that the accident rate has increased about 20% in the 60 counties of Region #5. We have more than seven million licensed drivers on Texas Highways. Summer vacation time is approaching and more people will be using the roads.

New Words Reflect Changes in Society

Hundreds of new words have come into the English language in recent years, words that reflect the great changes taking place in our society, particularly among young people, minorities and in the variety of subcultures that have sprung up all over the country.

This serves to complicate the existence of the renowned word arbiters, the editors at Merriam-Webster in Springfield, Mass. who annually analyze and select new words for dictionary entry. And acceptance of these new words in our language is indicated by the fact that they are listed in Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary which has just been published by G. & C. Merriam Co.

Among words included in the new dictionary are: "bummer" which comes from the world of drugs and means an unpleasant experience; "chopper," a customized motorcycle; and "juvenocracy," a state ruled or influenced by youth.
