IT'S NOT too long until Halloween, and the October issue of Texas Magazine magazine gets into the spirit of things early by choosing some of the ghosts that are supposed to haunt around the state.

These ghosts live along U.S. 90 between Alpine and Marfa, where they spend eight-riding evenings 100 years ago and continue to show their dimming light to mortal mortals on dark nights. There are also some spirits in the Big Thicket glowing at midnight on Big Bend in southern Borden County, says the magazine editor: "Other Texas ghosts haunt college campuses, city dwellings, a theater, and a water ship. Some can be only heard and others only seen. And then there's 'Cinder' Agnes who is seen only through a mirror in Calverton's Study House, and there's the whistling ghost of East Texas State University in Commerce, invisible to all but the building's cat."

The magazine doesn't mention it, but I understand you can see ghostly lights just off the road somewhere south of Big Spring, out toward Sterling City for nights it was Gordon Craig. When our son was a student at Howard College in Big Spring, he went out to see them with some other students. He recalls there were lights to be seen, but investigation showed no source of the lights.

I wish I had a set of those lights that come from nowhere. I'd tell Southwestern Public Service to just go ahead and cut off my electricity, and use if I can.

WENDY WICH (phonetic) likes Hall of Gifford White with an artificial right leg because of a burning accident while in junior high. Last spring, Wend and J.T. King jokingly told Wend and Wend White that if they didn't quit talking so far and looking at each other's white teeth, he was going to change them for the weekend. Wend replied, "You can't do that, Wend. I've already ordered my '28 model leg and wouldn't be able to make the payments."

When asked by a reporter what his major, agriculture communications, involved, Wend replied, "I talk to animals."

GOOD GIBBY BEP!: Lubbock county's best talk of cotton, which was published in a publication last week, was really Gene County's best talk. Someone told me it was the county's best, and I should have checked better, since the producer, Stewart Johnson, farms on the other side of the county line. Anyway, it was the Sudan county's best talk. I'm not even sure what county the talk was to be told (by Wend White) to be. For all I know, Lubbock County still doesn't have a best talk.

I wish I could had brought up the subject.

HORNETS BOW TO PLAINS 7-16

The Sudan Hornets went down in defeat here Friday night to Class A Plains Cowboys. However, the statistics showed a fairly even game in downs and total yards. All of the scoring came in the second and third periods of play with Plains on top, 16-7.

GAME AT A GLANCE

Plains scored first at 9:38 in the second on a pass play from Cowboy QB Danny Bell to Chris Blumell for three yards. The kick for the extra point failed. With 4:05 playing time remaining in the quarter and following a 60-yard drive in three plays, Sudan's Kyle Martin scored on a one-yard plunge. The big play of the drive was a screen pass from QB Craig Fichett to Joel Williams for 60 yards. Martin also kicked the extra point and Sudan went ahead 7-6 and held on to the lead when the half ended.

Plains scored a field goal at 7:30 in the third quarter after Sudan muffed the ball. The extra point failed and Sudan led 12-6 going into the fourth quarter. Neither team could move the ball in to score until Plains took the ball in on a one-yard plunge after a drive of 58 yards. The try for the extra point was so good and the score was 12-

Winn was good and Plains led 16-7.

The remainder of the game was like the first quarter, a stand-off between the two defenses.

Sudan will meet another Class A school this week, Springlake - Earth there at 8 p.m. This is expected to be another close one when the two former rivals meet. The Hornets have had their best workouts this week of the year and are planning to be ready for the Wolverines who will be trying to avenge their 16-14 loss to the Hornets last year.

JV FOOTBALL

The Sudan JV traveled to Plains Thursday, Sept. 18, and encountered a tough battle with the Cowboys. The game started with the Cowboys kicking to the Hornets. In two plays Sudan had the ball on the Plains 17 yard line but failed to score. The rest of the quarter was spent on the Plains end of the field. The Hornets had three chances to score but failed on each of them.

Finally in the second quarter, with Sudan on the 40-yard line of Plains, the Hornets got on the scoreboard with a short-flat pass to John Miles who ran 40 yards for the TD. The extra point try failed but Sudan had the half time lead of 6-0.

In the second half, it was another tough battle between the two teams-but Sudan managed to score with about three minutes left in the third quarter. The score came on a power play with John Miles carrying it in from about 25 yards out. The extra point try failed and Sudan led 12-0 going into the fourth quarter. Neither team could move the ball in to score until Plains took the ball in on a one-yard plunge after a drive of 58 yards. The try for the extra point was so good and the score was 12-

The Hornet Band traveled to Lubbock September 22, to compete in the annual Panhandle South Plains Fair "Parade of Bands". This parade included 45 bands from schools throughout the area in Classes B, A, AA, and AAA.

Bands competing in Class B were: Texico, N. M.; Witharal, Smyer, Happy, Wilson, Borden, Ropesville, Anton, Whiteface, Sudan, Jayton, and Sundown.

The bands began marching on Avenue A and turned right on Broadway marching past judges (located on the second floor deck of Pioneer Hotel) and turned right at Avenue M. They then turned down Main Street marching to Avenue E, for approximately 22 blocks.

The Hornet Band played "Evil Ways" as they marched beneath the judging stand. Director Bob Bryant said, "I heard many good compliments on the band as I walked on the sidewalk when the band passed by. I was very pleased with the band's performance at the contest."

Bands were judged accordingly in the following categories: Playing 50%; Marching 30%; and Appearance 20%. Judges were G. T. Gilligan of Kermit; Bill Deag of Odessa; and J. W. King of Canyon.

"I was very pleased that the Hornet Band won third in the competition," Bryant stated. "We were shooting for first place, but winning third place was a great honor. We beat out nine other bands and they were all top-notch organizations. To my understanding, this is the first time ever that Sudan has placed in the competition."

The judges chose Sundown as first; Ropesville second; Sudan third; and Borden fourth in Class B. The Hornet Band received a trophy and a check for $100 for its third place position.

"I would like to personally thank the Fire Department and the People of Sudan for the great and exciting 'welcome' we received when we got home. There were some 20 vehicles and people who met us outside the Sudan city limits along with the fire truck to escort us to the band hall. The Band did a wonderful job and deserved to be treated as the winners they are. We have a good and enthusiastic group and with this type of support from the People of Sudan, the School (Administration and Students), and the Band Parents, we will work hard to make the Sudan Hornet Band one of which everyone will be proud. One last word, 'GO HORNETS-BEAT SPRINGLAKE-EARTH!'"

Blood is life... Pass it on! 6 in favor of the Hornets.

With one minute and 47 seconds left to play, Sudan had the football after stopping a Plains drive on the 17 yard line. Sudan ran the clock down to 38 seconds and fumbled the ball on the Sudan 21-yard line. Sudan held, and the score ended a very tough game with Sudan 12, Plains 6. I feel that when you beat Plains there you have done a tremendous job! -Scott Plains scored on the first play from scrimmage Thursday in the Junior High game with Sudan, as their tailback ran 50 yards off Sudan's right tackle for a TD. The point after failed. Sudan came back in the first quarter and Billy Williams ran 50 yards around Plains' left end for a TD. Their try for the point after also failed.

Late in the second quarter, Sudan's Victor King scored on a three-yard plunge to make the score 12-6 at half time.

In the third quarter, Billy Williams again scored on a 10-yard run to make the score 18-6. With one minute to play in the game, Plains scored and ran the extra point to make the final score 18 for Sudan, and 14 for Plains.

These two teams, JV and Junior High will also play Springlake-Beach this week. The first game will begin at 5 p.m. in Hornet Stadium Thursday.

PAYNE FUNERAL HOME
Happiness means accepting each day
And using it well in God's own way,
Not getting frustrated if you find
It is not the day you had in mind.
In doing His will happiness lies
With joy that all life's troubles defies,
Give of this joy which you are blessed
And each day will bring you happiness.
