

I suppose it would be amiss if I didn't at least mention the national political subject, in particular that surrounding President Johnson's surprise announcement on Sunday night that he would not seek re-election.

Somehow, we had written it off as a sure thing that the President not only would run, but that he would be re-elected, in spite of opposition to his policies and programs.

Now, unless Johnson accepts a draft or other mandate, it appears certain that we'll have a new president of these United States come next January.

Now, the millions of Johnson supporters find themselves casting about in an attempt to find someone else to back -- someone who in all probability they had been very much opposed to until this week.

The Johnson followers have by and large been unfavorable to Robert Kennedy, who now appears to have gained the most ground by the president's announcement. Both Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy held opposite views to President Johnson, especially in light of the Vietnam conflict.

It also would appear to us that the Republican party will gain immeasurably from Johnson's decision to step down. The incumbent president always has an edge over the challenger, but now with no incumbent in the race, the Democrats lose that advantage.

And should the Republican nominee turn out to be Richard Nixon, it would even mean an advantage for him in that he had made a presidential race, against a Democratic opponent who had not.

There are numerous ramifications to the situation, and perhaps by now you will have been exposed to most of them. We'd like to be a political genius and explain the whole situation for you, but since we're not, then we won't even attempt it.

Saturday is a very important day in the history of Friona -- almost as important as the day Missouri Beef Packers announced its decision to locate here. Like that other day, this also affects the future of the city.

With Friona experiencing growing pains, and hopefully just beginning this experience, it is evident that the city will need more and more money in order to keep pace and provide the services necessary to city residents.

City leaders are emphatic in pointing out that if the sales tax question is not approved, then a property tax increase will probably be necessary to raise the additional money needed.

There was a lot of opposition to the state sales tax when it was proposed back in 1961, but it has proven to be a lot more equitable than, for instance, a state income tax would be. It allows tax to be collected from tourists and visitors, just as the one per cent city tax would.

Seems to us that the voters are being given a choice of the "lesser of two evils" -- a new tax which would be spread out over more people, versus the prospects of an increase in property taxes.

The property owners surely won't have any trouble figuring out how to vote -- and before renters decide they'll pass the buck on to the landlord by voting against the tax, they should consider the prospects of a rent hike if and when the property tax should be raised.

Some businesses, particularly those with competition outside the city limits, are opposed to the city sales tax, for the obvious reason that it would offer this much of an advantage for those business establishments outside the city limits.

This is one of the main inequities we see in the tax from Friona's standpoint, and this would not exist if the city's business development pattern had not been what it was in the past.

The only consolation we can offer to the businesses within the city is the fact that when Friona's population reaches the 5,000 mark (and this shouldn't be too far in the future), the city will be able to vote these adjacent areas into the city limits, and thus erase the inequities now imposed.

DUSTER HITS. . . Scenes above and at the left show evidence of the fierce dust storm that blew in Tuesday on the heels of a Pacific cold front and unleashed winds up to 50 miles per hour. Visibility was greatly reduced, as seen in the photo made on Highway 60 west of Friona. In the picture at the left, a sign and various trash containers are shown toppled along Main Street. The gusty wind blew out several windows in Friona stores, including Turner's Laundry on Sixth Street, and unroofed a barn at the Dan Mann farm west of Hub. It also toppled canopies at the old Don's Drive in location on east Highway 60.

FHS Sets Pace In UIL Events

Friona High School entrants did themselves proud at the district literary meet held in Dimmitt last Saturday, qualifying 11 students for the regional meet April 20.

Following completion of Saturday's activities, Friona leads Floydada High School by two and one-half points in the race for the district literary trophy. The final event, the contest play, will not be held until April 9, and whichever of the two schools picks up the most points there will win the literary trophy.

Regional qualifiers are David Reeve and Bobby Thomas in boys debate; Terri Cummings and Becky Coffey in girls debate; Larry Truitt in ready writing; Belinda Mabry in shorthand; Crista Evans in poetry interpretation; Gary Crump in poetry interpretation; Norman Mohr and Kara Sides, informative speaking and Ann Ayers, persuasive speaking.

All of the above placed first in their respective events, with the exception of Belinda Mabry, who was second. Second place qualifies for the regional event in shorthand.

Others winning points were Tommy Mars, second in persuasive speaking; Mike Reznik, second in prose reading.

Services Conducted For Jack Anderson

Funeral services for Jack Anderson, 82, who died Saturday morning at Fort Lyon, Colorado, were conducted from Sixth Street Church of Christ at 10 a.m. Monday, C.J. Horton, local preacher, was assisted by Ebb Randol, Farwell, in conducting the services.

He was born August 4, 1885 at Mullin, Texas, and came to the West Texas-Eastern New Mexico area when he was 13. His first home was at Portales and later he became a cowboy for the famed XIT Ranch.

Anderson and Hattie Bell Berry, who survives, were married at Farwell July 14, 1922 and moved from Hereford to Friona five years later. Since that time he has operated a barber shop here.

For a number of years his shop has been located on the east side of Main Street just

The 1968 political season will be unveiled in Friona on Saturday, with the one per cent city sales tax question expected to outshine a four-man race for two seats on the City Council.

Friona Independent School District's election will be held in conjunction, although two incumbents are running unopposed in that election.

Both elections will be held at the Friona City Hall, from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The question of the one per cent city sales tax for the City of Friona is expected to pull out many more voters than usual -- perhaps a record number of voters for a city election.

If approved, there would be an additional one cent tax placed on items now subject to the two per cent state sales tax, with the additional penny returned to the city for municipal use.

Officials in Friona's city government urge passage of the sales tax, so that the city may keep abreast of the expansion programs currently underway within the city.

In the race for alderman, four men are running for two positions on the council. Running are Rene Snead, Robert Neelley, Ed Clark and Chuck Everett. Mayor W.L. (Preach) Edelman is unopposed.

Snead is an incumbent in the city council election. The other

Junior College Meeting Slated

The counties included in the proposed region five on the junior college proposal of the Texas coordinating board for higher education will meet in Hereford at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, April 4th. Each of the four counties -- Deaf Smith, Castro, Farmer and Oldham -- will have representatives of local and county government, chambers of commerce, school boards and other community leaders present for the meeting. Dr. Robert L. Clinton, Asst. Commissioner and the one in charge of developing the proposal for the junior college system will be on hand to address the representative group.

The Education Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce called the meeting so that the initial steps towards the eventual realization of a goal of the area may be taken. At this point no location for the junior college has been determined. Representatives present will elect a steering committee from each of the four counties.

er incumbent, Dr. Lee Cranfill, has moved from the city. In the second race, incumbents Dr. Paul Spring and Louis

Welch are unopposed. Wendol Christian is unopposed for the position of county school trustee at-large.

Clergymen Now Included Under Social Security

The provision extending mandatory coverage to the earnings of clergyman for taxable years ending after 1967 is a feature of the recently-passed Social Security Amendments. John Troop, social security representative for this area stated today.

This provision does not apply to members of religious orders who have taken a vow of poverty.

Any clergyman who wants to be excluded from social security because of religious principle or conscience should file an application for waiver from coverage with his nearest Internal Revenue office.

Troop said the deadline for filing such application for waiver, in the case of most clergymen already in the ministry, will be April 15, 1970.

Any clergyman wanting more information should contact a representative of the Social Security Administration office, Room 211, Federal Building, in Clovis. The office is open 8:30 to 5 Monday through Friday.

Pause And Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

"I should like to rise and go
Where the golden apples grow"
(Travel - Robert Louis Stevenson)

We did not go in search of golden apples, but rather to spend the night in an outlaw hangout and to shake hands with a bit of Texas history, nor were we disappointed.

On this particular occasion we chose to visit the falls on one of the streams that make up the south fork of the Red River.

On your map it will be shown simply as the Tongue River, but how much more romantic it is to use the Spanish name -- El Rio de las Lenguas -- the river of tongues, so called because of the many languages that have been spoken there.

Long before there was a written history of the southwest the Indians discovered this canyon and for generations used it as a hangout and winter camp ground.

In more recent times it became the meeting place of bandits, cut throats, slave dealers, renegade whites, marauding Indians, and Mexican outlaws. Nor is it hard to believe that a few French raiders made their way to the encampment.

In short it became the trading post for the lowest element of humanity then existing in the Southwest.

Being practically inaccessible, a very few men could defend it against an army -- a Thermopylae of the High Plains.

It was said that no honest white man ever went into the fastness and lived to tell the tale.

The caprock just over the falls is a few miles west of Silvertown, Texas, in Briscoe County. The view from the rim is one not soon forgotten. The vast land seems to flow from the mouth of the canyon and to reach into eternity. Three towns, Quitaque, Turkey and Flomot, are visible and the oft-heard expression "population explosion" becomes a myth.

The descent to the river on the canyon's floor is not a trip for the half and the lame nor the timid. Thousands of people have enjoyed making it, but it should be remembered that recently three young men lost their lives in attempting to climb out during bad weather.

We, Tom Baird and I, made camp beside the pool formed by the falling water. Almost perfectly round, the pool is about seventy-five feet in diameter and is known to be over fifty feet deep and is ice cold.

Streams of sweet fresh water trickle from the overhanging rock ledges and makes delicious coffee; and food never tasted better.

Of all the stories told about Las Lenguas perhaps Cynthia Ann Parker's is the most famous.

Cynthia Ann was the daughter of Silas Parker, a farmer near Groesbeck, a town on the Navasota River in Limestone County, Texas, 28 miles east of Waco.

On May 19, when she was nine years old she and her six year old brother, John, were taken captive by Indians.

John was later ransomed but Cynthia Ann's captors refused all offers for her release and she spent twenty five years with the Comanches.

During this time she was given as a wife to Peta Naconah and one of her sons, Quannah (the Eagle) became the terror of the Plains.

It was to Las Lenguas that the Parker children were brought soon after their capture.

I know that the midnight wind can play tricks on a fellow when it is blowing through the canyon walls and buffeting the brush and causing the falling water to swish across the face of the pool; but hush a minute, was that really the wind that made so strange a sobbing moaning sound?

For a little bit there, it sounded just like a little girl crying.

Red Barn Is Crime Scene

Sheriff Charlie Lovelace reports that Red Barn Chemical at Lazbuddie was broken into some time Thursday night, March 28, and a large quantity of Treflon taken. Value of the fertilizer taken has been set at $715. On Monday morning, word was received at the sheriff's office that several fertilizer companies in Bailey, Cochran and Lamb counties had been hit over the weekend; with Treflon taken in each case. In a hearing on a new trial for Arcadio Ysasaga, burglary charge, on Thursday, District Judge Pat Boone denied the appeal. However the case is now being appealed to the Supreme Court. Appeal bond has been set at $10,000 and Ysasaga is presently in Farmer County Jail. Rickey Rando who had a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus Wednesday has been returned to the state penitentiary to continue serving a life sentence as a habitual criminal.

The Library Corner
BY MRS. JOHN FRED WHITE

The library board met March 27. Several items of business were discussed. Reports were given from committee chairmen concerning the library story hour, National Library Week and the Summer Reading Program. Three new bookshelves were placed in the library last week.

National Library Week is April 21-27. There will be several special observances in Friona immediately before and during this period. We are having an art poster contest in the third grade and an essay contest in the fourth grade.

In addition all children in the first four grades will tour the library in the near future. We wish to thank the people who have volunteered to help us and those who are doing special jobs for us. A special "Library Week" series of pictures and feature stories will appear in the Star in the near future.

The story hour was well attended last week. Forty-seven children came for an hour of fun and stories. Story hour will be held this morning (Thursday) at 10:00 a.m. It is for pre-school aged children 3-6 years old.

Many new books are now in the library. They are only part of 250 new books purchased recently. Come by and pick out a few to enjoy. A workday will be held next Monday to finish shipping borrowed books back to the state library to exchange for new ones.

Crim Predicts Good Crop Year For 1968

J.W. (Indian) Crim predicted a good crop year weatherwise for 1968. As the sun came up Wednesday, March 22, this pioneer of the Lazbuddie-Clay's Corner area, watched smoke pouring from a pile of posts, which had been stacked for a bonfire.

"When the wind is from the northeast, as it is this morning," Crim said, "we are sure to have an ample supply of moisture. Most of us will be able to let our irrigation motors rest for the first time in several years. This is the best moisture indication we have had since 1947."

He went on to say, "There will be a lot of clouds and some hail, but mostly we will have good moisture without serious crop damage."

Crim, who has been making annual weather predictions from his farm home since 1922, invites members of his family, neighbors, friends and newspaper people to attend and coffee, hot rolls, sausage rolls were served by his wife, daughters and daughters-in-law. About 50 persons were present.

NURSERY DECOR

Hang bright, colorful framed pictures in the baby's room both for a professional decorating look and to stimulate baby's early interest in color. The Picture and Frame Institute suggests pictures with large areas of color and uncomplicated shapes for a young child's room. Educators have shown that babies respond to bright colors at a very early age, so fill a wall that baby can see with an arrangement of various sizes of pictures, and include a framed mirror in which the baby can see himself. He'll love it!

PROPOSED MUNICIPAL SALES TAX FOR FRIONA, TEXAS

Dear Fellow Frionans:

As of the 31st of January, 1968, 200 Texas Cities have held elections on the Proposed Municipal 1¢ Sales Tax; 173 cities adopted the option with only 27 defeating the issue. Because we are faced with the same financial and growing problems that confront every city, we must consider an additional source of income.

Frionans will have an opportunity to vote on this new source of revenue Saturday, 6th of April, 1968. Passage of the sales tax can make our city stronger and more self-sufficient. If we fail to pass the sales tax we may well forever lose our chance.

All Texas cities have had to rely on the property tax more than cities in other states which have had sales, gross receipts, payroll and other non-property taxes for many years. Unlike the property tax which is paid by residents of the city, the penny municipal sales tax makes it possible for tourists, visitors, residents of adjacent areas and many others to contribute toward the support of the services and facilities provided by Friona. These groups are significant in number in Friona, and they contribute least but enjoy equally the services and facilities provided by the municipal government.

Please take time to read the following questions and answers on the penny sales tax. I hope you will agree with me that Friona must take this opportunity to increase its revenue by voting for a local sales tax on April 6th.

Give this your careful consideration. . . DO VOTE!
This is your city.

Sincerely,

W.L. Edelman

W.L. Edelman,

VOTE "FOR"

THE 1¢ TAX SATURDAY

Questions And Answers On Friona's Penny Sales Tax:

1. How much is the proposed municipal tax?

A penny on a dollar's worth of certain purchases. It is a 1% limited sales and use tax on certain tangible property which is subject to the present State Sales and Use Tax. The same exemptions allowed by the State Sales Tax would also apply to the City Sales Tax. Excluded from the tax are certain essential items such as groceries, drugs, automobiles and gasoline. All State and City sales taxes may be deducted on your Federal Income Tax return.

2. When will the election on the penny City sales tax be held?

Saturday, April 6th, at the City Hall.

3. Why do we need the additional revenue?

As a growing city, Friona needs substantially increased revenues for improving and strengthening services, and to finance much needed capital improvements. Present methods of financing and complete dependence on the ad valorem property tax for revenue are insufficient to provide for present needs and future growth.

Additional revenue is needed to hire more personnel; street maintenance must be increased; vital City departments must be better manned and equipped; capital improvements must be made on a planned basis. The question Friona faces is not whether to increase taxes to raise the necessary revenue, but HOW the taxes should be increased. The City has only two alternatives -- the penny City sales tax, or an increase in the property tax.

4. How will the tax be collected?

It will be collected by the State of Texas right along with the present State sales tax, and the City's share will be paid to the City by the State Comptroller's office.

5. How much Revenue would the penny tax produce each year?

A most conservative estimate, based on data from the State Comptroller's office, is that this penny tax would produce in Friona about $20,000 a year.

6. Can the City of Friona increase the sales tax percentage?

No, the 1% tax is set by the Texas law and cannot be increased.

7. Do other cities have a municipal sales tax?

Yes. Over 2,700 municipalities and some 700 counties in the nation have turned to the municipal sales tax as the best and fairest answer to their money problems. Cities in all of Texas' neighboring states and practically every other state have municipal sales taxes. Experience with the local sales tax in all of these states, according to their own reports, is that it has become an important source of local revenue, has eased the strain on the property tax, has not been unduly burdensome on persons of lower income, and has definitely not had any adverse effect upon local businesses.

8. Would the passage of a local sales tax in Friona mean a lowering of the property tax?

No. The great need for continued improvement in our City calls for additional revenue, not a substitute for property tax revenues. Without additional revenue, City services will deteriorate and the City will be unable to provide the services which its residents must have.

9. What is the advantage of the penny sales tax over increased property tax?

The penny City sales tax is the fairest of all. Everyone who benefits from City services helps pay for them. The tax will be paid by visitors to Friona as well as by Frionans. Property taxes are paid entirely by people who live within the City, or who own property within the City. This includes renters, of course, because the level of rents necessarily reflect property taxes. The sales tax would make it possible for the Out-of-town visitor to share in the costs of operating the City.

10. Are property taxes reflected in rents? Does that mean increased property taxes would cause rents to go up?

Absolutely. A landlord must recover his expenses in order to realize a return on his property. A significant increase in property taxes would mean a significant increase in rents.

11. Is the municipal sales tax fair?

From the viewpoint of the individual taxpayer, a sales tax has many elements of equity as part of an over-all federal, state, and local tax structure. In the case of most individuals and families, it is as fair for persons of lower income as the property tax (since property taxes are paid by everyone, including both renters and homeowners). A local penny tax, with the specified exemptions, provides that citizens pay in proportion to what they spend, and as they spend. Since groceries and medicine, as well as certain other staple items are excluded from the tax, the impact of the penny tax is greatly lessened on families of moderate income.

12. Why not an income tax?

Any discussion of a municipal income tax would seem to be entirely academic. Under the laws of Texas, Friona cannot levy an income tax and the possibility of the City's being authorized to do so are so remote as not to be worthy of consideration. Cities of Texas are not authorized to approve a municipal penny sales tax and the revenues are needed now -- not sometime in the future.

13. Who can vote on the penny sales tax?

Any registered voter in the City of Friona. It requires a simple majority to pass.

14. When will the tax be effective?

If approved on April 6th, the tax should become effective October 1, 1968.

15. How will the Penny Sales Tax Revenue be used?

Based on current experience, the additional revenue will be used as follows:

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS. . . 70%

Each year it has been necessary to reduce or eliminate certain capital improvements to balance the budget. The revenue from a City sales tax would provide money for these needed improvements and would allow planning for more than one year at a time. Some items that are being considered are:

Adequate future water supply . . . at present we have only one future water well site. Depending on future growth, we need several water rights locations.

Addition to City Hall Building. . . operating with a minimum number of personnel in the past. . . the future will demand additional space, machines and personnel.

Incinerator and modern trash disposal system. . . our present sanitary dump-fill will soon be exhausted for expansion space. The value of land makes relocation impractical. A modern gas fired incinerator will become a necessity.

A community center building. . . we have long imposed upon the Friona schools for cafeteria - auditorium space for every occasion. A modern public gathering facility is highly desirable.

Library site and permanent building. . . our embryo library just this past year moved to newly rented quarters and already book space and reading facilities are lacking. To be a modern city we must have a modern library.

STREETS MAINTENANCE AND IMPROVEMENTS. . . . 15%

Although the appropriation each year for street maintenance has been as large as possible, it has not kept up with the increase in street mileage and use. Therefore, it is not possible to prepare and follow a satisfactory maintenance program. Additional revenue which would be available from a penny City sales tax would allow a realistic maintenance program. Funds would be available to enable the City to extend neighborhood street lighting as well as to participate in additional paving programs.

CREATING COMPETITIVE SALARY SCHEDULE AND MEETING OTHER PERSONNEL NEEDS. . . 15%

The City is currently making a personnel and evaluation survey. Preliminary findings reveal the need for upgrading salaries in most every instance to make them more competitive. There is a need for adjustments in the City's fringe benefit programs. There is likewise a need for additional personnel to give increased and better service to the public. Revenue from the penny City sales tax would help the City attract and retain the best possible personnel to provide the best possible service.

To The Voters Of The City Of Friona

To Keep Our City "ON THE MOVE" We Ask You To Cast Your Ballot Saturday

AGAINST

The Proposed City Sales Tax!

1. Friona would be about the only town or city on the North Plains with a City Sales Tax at this time. This would inevitably send many people to other area towns to make their retail purchases. In addition, it would discourage people from other communities from coming to Friona to trade. Many of our customers have already told us that in case the sales tax passes, they will buy their supplies in Hereford, Dimmitt, Bovina and other towns. This is especially emphasized among those who live in rural areas between the towns.
2. 1%, though it may sound small, can amount to a lot on large quantity purchases, including furniture, lumber, and farm equipment repairs and parts, motor oil, tires and batteries.
3. The proposed taxation would mean that the farmer, most of whom will not have the right to vote on the matter at all since this is a city election, would have to pay 90% or more of the city sales tax.
4. Some people feel that the tax is applicable because it hits everyone, including some people who now pay no taxes. However, when you look at the list of exempt items which includes groceries and work clothes, it appears that the same people who are paying the taxes now would pay 90 per cent or more of the sales tax.
5. Furthermore, the additional revenue from a sales tax has not lowered state taxes. The state, in fact, faces a boost in taxes in the near future -- along with the sales tax. The same thing is logical to expect on the city level.
6. There are other problems, including firms outside the city limits which would have a built-in advantage . . . and the number of such firms bound to increase. We are a part of the community, and take pride in the fact that we have helped this area grow. A City Sales Tax at this time, in our opinion, would be the very worst thing Friona could do . . . because it would DRIVE AWAY CUSTOMERS instead of bringing them in. This is not progress, and it is bound to stifle future growth and expansion. Let's help to make Friona the area shopping city that it should be.

At Home In Parmer County

By CRICKET TAYLOR
County HD Agent

The County 4-H Food show was one of the largest to be held in Parmer County. A total of 36 4-H members, completing food projects, participated. All of the food entries showed a marked improvement over that of previous year. There were a total of 39 who completed food projects, but three did not enter the county contest. This is a good record and much credit is to be given to the local adult leaders and junior 4-H leaders in the county.

One of the main objectives of the 4-H Food project is to develop desirable food habits in young people. The 4-H members in food project work can benefit from the activity by gaining a better understanding of the preparation and combination of wholesome foods and the selection of an adequate diet. Another objective in 4-H food work is that members acquire an understanding of the signs of good health and food needs of different age group.

This may seem unimportant to an "affluent society" — as ours, but do not underestimate its significance. The life-expectancy for the American male ranks him 37th among the civilized nation of the world — also that 18 years ago he was in 11th place. The U.S. health picture is not good, in view of this, therefore early training in food habits is going to be an important approach in improving the situation through education. Our "affluent" society is far from being the most healthful. Somethings is certainly needed and 4-H training in food will help.

One of the improvements noted in food show educational activity was that the members knowledge of "why" various food groups are needed daily, and what they do for us. These 4-H'ers could "put shame" to many adults and their lack of knowledge about nutrition. The adults helping in this project are to be commended for their contribution.

Other Important Events for 4-H'ers are coming up.

The County Contest for Parmer County on April 19th. It was unfortunate that this date conflicted with the district Food Show, but "Saturday" time, this season of the year is really at a premium.

These contests are just another way to train youth in improving knowledge of a subject and gain confidence in speaking before an audience.

FHA's Loan Total Given For County Family Farms

A total of $3,859,910 in loan funds has been used in Parmer County to support family farms since the Farmers Home Administration was expanded 3 1/2 years ago, Billy R. Boling, local supervisor for the rural credit agency said today.

Approximately $1,816,300 was advanced in 1967.

Currently 126 farmers and rural residents in Parmer County are using the supervised credit services of the Farmers Home Administration.

The supply of Farmers Home Administration credit which supplements credit supplied by banks and other private credit sources is one of the measures recommended by President Johnson to provide family farmers an opportunity to earn parity income.

"These loans have enabled farmers to stay in business who would otherwise have had to give up and go to the city. They have helped young farmers get established. They have enabled farmers to keep going after hail and drought brought about a need for emergency loans in the county," Boling noted.

Farmers Home Administration loans can be used to buy land, refinance debts, acquire livestock and equipment, pay fertilizer and fuel bills and other expenses connected with acquiring, improving, and operating farms.

The incomes of farmers using Farmers Home Administration credit in Parmer County in 1967 totals approximately $3,780,000.

Loans are made only to families who are unable to obtain adequate credit from other sources. The program is tailored to individual family needs and loans are accompanied by technical assistance in farm and money management. The Parmer County office is located in Farwell.

VOLLEYBALL MEET SET AT SUDAN

An invitational volleyball tournament at Sudan High School April 11 and 12 is being sponsored by the senior class of Friona High School. Due to interscholastic league rules, no high school team will be permitted to participate.

First, second and consolation trophies will be awarded to each division, men and women.

Entry fee will be $5 and admission will be twenty-five cents per person.

Any volleyball team in the area is invited to participate by members of the senior class.

Mrs. Frances Howard, Abernathy, was a weekend guest in the home of her mother, Mrs. A.O. Drake.

Recreation Meet Set In Bovina

A recreation workshop has been planned for all 4-H members, 4-H parents and adult leaders and other interested youth. This workshop will be held on April 15 and 16 at the Hub Community Center. Both night meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Lucille Moore, Extension Service Recreation Specialist from College Station, will be in charge of the workshop. Miss Moore has served as recreation specialist for several years and has conducted numerous recreation workshops over the state.

Family recreation, small group recreation, and community recreation will be the major areas emphasized. You will be better qualified to lead different types of recreation after attending this workshop. Ideas will be presented that can be useful in various activities.

County agents Cricket Taylor and Ronny McNutt encourage and invite all 4-H'ers to attend this recreation workshop and learn as well as enjoy themselves.

Crunchy Salad Biscuits

Crunchy salad biscuits are a welcome addition to any meal, especially when they feature the fresh corn goodness of enriched white hominy grits, as does this biscuit recipe from the Home Economics Department of The Quaker Oats Company.

The ingredients needed to produce two dozen biscuits are:

- 1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 4 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup Quaker or Aunt Jemima Enriched White Hominy Grits (quick or regular)
- 1/4 cup shortening
- 1/4 cup chopped green onion
- 1 cup grated sharp cheese
- 1/2 cup milk

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt into a bowl. Stir in grits. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs.

Stir in onion and cheese. Gradually add milk, stirring lightly until just dampened. (If necessary add another tablespoon milk to make dough hold together.)

Form into ball. Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas. Knead gently a few times.

Sprinkle board or canvas with 1 tablespoon grits. Roll dough to form a 9x8-inch rectangle. With sharp knife, cut into 8 strips, 1" wide. Cut each strip into three 3-inch pieces. Place about 1 inch apart on ungreased cookie sheets.

Bake in preheated hot oven (425° F.) 10 to 12 minutes, or until lightly browned. Serve hot.

A GOOD PRODUCING COTTON WITH A HIGH TURNOUT

If there is any one thing that has been on farmer's minds for the past 50 years it is a cotton with a good turnout, and this is certainly emphasized when a farmer has to take 3,000 lbs. of stripped cotton to the gin to make a bale in the fall of the year. Likewise, he also wants a high production cotton along with that good turnout. But where will you find such a cotton? Our new Gregg 45 will meet all the requirements of high production and high turnout.

In 1965 the first year that there was a seed block of Gregg 45, Mr. Troy Pritchard of Plainview produced 90 running bales (avg. 505 lbs. compress weight) produced from 38 acres of Gregg 45, and it took 695 lbs. seed to make a 500 lb. bale. The turnout was 26.5%. 1965 was a fair year for growing cotton, however, it did turn rather cool after the 15th of September.

Mr. Robert Tipton who lives in Plainview, farms in the Halfway community, and is a director of the Halfway Co-Op Gin, has had excellent results growing Gregg 45 the past two years (1966-67), two very adverse years for cotton farming. In 1966 he had practically all of his farm in the 45, and it did so well that he planted it again in 1967, but was hailed out on all but one farm. In '66 some of his cotton made 2 bales to the acre, and in '67 the field of 58.8 acres that was left made 1,004 pounds lint to the acre, net weight after deducting bagging and ties.

In looking through some experimental tests in which the new Gregg 45 has been included we find one of the Plains in 1965 with 1189 lb. production; one in Oklahoma in '65 with 1,066 pounds, with a 31.1% turnout hand pulled; and one at Chickasha 1966 (dryland) with 777 lbs. This last mentioned is very impressive for dryland production.

10,000,000 Children just like yours. Almost.

In our rich land, 10,000,000 children are part of the one-fifth of our people who are distressed, underprivileged, forgotten, 10,000,000 children! And each seems destined never to know the bright promise that should be his simple birthright as an American.

Economics, you may say, is the province of business and our government. But remember, morality is the province of us all. Where does moral conscience begin? Most of us derive our sense of it from the place where we worship. And if you care, the center of your faith can also be a center for thought, reflection and action about moral and ethical challenges of your community and your country - problems like injustice, need, inequality, violence, delinquency. President Kennedy said it: "God's work must truly be our own." Worship this week - put your faith to work every day of the week!

WEDDING DATE ANNOUNCED. . . Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Patterson of the Rhea Community have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sandra Kay, to Charles A. Shamblin III, son of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Shamblin, Plainview. The couple will exchange wedding vows at 7 p.m., Saturday, May 18, in First Baptist Church, Bovina, Miss Patterson and her fiancé are both 1967 graduates of Bovina High School. He attended North Texas State University, Denton, before enlisting in the United States Air Force and is stationed at McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey. She is a senior elementary education major at West Texas State University, Canyon, and expects to receive her bachelor of arts degree in August. Invitations are not being mailed locally, but friends of the couple are invited to attend.

Do you know how April Fool's Day began? If so, you may skip the next two or three paragraphs. Playing practical jokes on the first day of April is thought to date back to Roman times. According to a legend, Proserpina had filled her lap with the first daffodils of spring in the Elysian meadows when Pluto, god of the underworld found her and carried her screaming to the lower world. Ceres, her mother, heard the echo of the screams and went in search of the voice, but her search was like a fool's errand because it was futile for her to think she could even find the echo.

Mrs. Gladys Wilson, president of the local American Legion Auxiliary, wants pictures and information about every local service man. Auxiliary members plan a display of pictures of service men and want the following information: name, branch of service, name of parents, wives, children, and area in which they are serving. If pictures are not available, please provide information. If it isn't convenient for you to take these pictures and information to Mrs. Wilson's residence, you may leave it at the Star office. All pictures will be well taken care of and will be returned in good condition.

Looks like we may be going to have another new service station. For several weeks huge black tanks resembling those which were located on the lot now occupied by the Fina Station have been on location across the highway from Campbell-Smith Butane Company near the intersection of FM 1731 and U.S. Highway 60.

Then some stakes have been located a little bit farther out for construction of some kind. Right now it seems our town is growing southwest. Several new houses are under construction in the Drake Addition, Staley Addition and Western Addition.

Main Street will soon have a very attractive addition. The Rushing Building, which will be occupied by the Ben Franklin Store, is undergoing a complete remodeling job. Already new glass panels have been installed in the front, a new floor has been run and partitions have been built.

It is going to be good to have Kenneth and Mickey Williams and their children back with us after a brief sojourn in Stratford.

Friends of Ronnie and Sue Castleberry will probably be interested in knowing this fine young couple and their two daughters, Jill and Beth, now live at Lubbock. Both of them had attended Texas Tech before their marriage and are students there again.

Ronnie will receive his bachelor of science degree with an agrusiness major at the end of this semester. We've been out of touch with them since Sue's parents, Bill and Beth Baxter, moved to Stratford. Visiting with Sue by telephone in Lubbock Saturday afternoon was a real pleasure.

A thoughtful reader brought a poem in for me to read. I enjoyed it very much and hope you like it, too. The author is Kahlil Gibran, but the title had been removed. It goes like this:

Speak to us of Children, And he said:
Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.
They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.

You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you,
For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday,
You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.

Money Granted For New Books

The High Plains Library Bookmobile has received notice from the Texas State Library that the Bookmobile will receive a Grant of $2,000 for books and book re-binding.

The county judges from Bailey, Farmer, Cochran and Lamb counties are required to sign an agreement which will be returned to the Texas State Library.

Then the grant money will be sent to the Muleshoe City Manager, Mr. Albert Field, to be used accordingly.

So far this year the Bookmobile Library checked out 3862 books in January and 4735 books in February.

"Since there is such a large demand for new books, we are indeed fortunate to receive this grant," says Mrs. Joe Sooter, Bookmobile librarian.
