

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Signals of distress were in the blonde girl's eyes; smokeless fires of fear burning on the boundaries of her soul. Fingers of her delicate hands moved quickly as if fearful of touching the future and being burned. Smiling without conviction, she tried to assure her heart that the world could not see the broken shield of love over which her small feet were stumbling. She sang but there was no music in her voice. The big, clumsy man was gone like a jagged mountain suddenly removed from the brink of a singing river. A pair of his old hunting shoes lay side by side in the darkened closet and haunted the girl like eyes looking out of the past. A broken golf club lay on the floor of the attic store room and she feared to touch the worn neck. Often she could close her eyes and see fires burning beneath crucifixes of sacrifice where the gleaming metal of his love had been refined. The night she awoke from slumber to hear his brown dog scratching at the door and whining and rushed to admit the animal with a wild joy in her heart. The threshold was empty; frantic clouds hurried across the face of the moon and winter winds swept a strand of hair across her eyes in a gesture of mockery.

Watching a modern housewife waltzing over an electric toaster and plugging in an electric coffee-maker, I feel that a great statue should be erected to the subtle understanding of the Incan male. He was able to keep his squaw happy with so much ceremony and retain for himself an existence of infinitely less competition. He might not be at peace with his neighbor but his domestic problems were reduced to an absolute minimum.

A man may bear a cross so long that he stumbles and falls and it is removed. Sacrifice has roots deep in human nature and selfishness is a disease which yields to no panacea.

We all watch the wheel of lottery in life's great gaming room. Some with greater stakes, stand close and breathe the fibrous fumes of anxiety until their souls come caloused to sentiment and their eyes blinded to beauty. Some with little to wager and some to lose, win more frequently, having found that peace of heart won in the game with fewer risks.

Iron bars are but a symbol of prison, despite their effectiveness. Many have never heard the rattle of locks in confining doors, but remain prisoners of circumstances too strong to hope for escape.

Walking close to the brink of life, the man is content with the luxury of his dreams and never feels the threadbare clothing that covers his stooped back. The sands of a long life are at the bottom of the glass and the empty drums of failure are scattered along the course he has followed. At hills of gold await his finding tomorrow. Perhaps he is a rich man, enjoying much of the measure of wealth without becoming a slave to its possession.

Labor, like loafing, is more enjoyable when accepted by choice than necessity. It is pleasant to smoke the opium of procrastination when a thousand duties await attention, but it is ill in old sores to do nothing when nothing remains to be done. My friends who enjoy life at its last detectable crumb are those who work at chosen professions because of their love of work rather than the need of continuously painting their doors to deceive the wolf.

Watching a plane propeller dip air above broad plains, deep canyons and little green alleys where are secreted the long lost trails of pioneer cowboys, I secretly wished these old men might share the majestic new, the farther horizons. Below were the prairies where their shoes shone like scattered jewels forgotten dawns, the water holes where they drank slick, lawing water from the brims of great-stained hats and the rocky hills where they unrolled stiff rumpkins, to look at the stars for an instant before falling into amocks of oblivion. They ought perished at the portal of possibility. I remembered that from the mesas of eternity there were no farther horizons.

New Directors for Morton Chamber Of Commerce Announced at Meeting

The Morton Chamber of Commerce held a meeting in the County Commissioners' Court Wednesday night.

The results of the recent election of directors was announced at this meeting. The new directors named were: R. C. Strickland, David Todd, M. T. Beard, J. B. Knox, L. B. Childs and Roy Hickman. Carry-overs from the last election are: Roy Allsup, Earl Crum, Lloyd Evans, Willie McCulloch and W. B. Evans.

A meeting of all directors was called for Wednesday night at 8. All of the above named are urgently requested to attend.

Post cards to be sold by the merchants for the purpose of advertising the city were discussed. The present plan is to have a picture of the court house on the front of the cards, but it was decided to let the matter go until a later meeting in order that more urgent business could be taken up.

A resolution was passed by those present for the Chamber of Commerce not to send a boy to Boy's State this year. Several other organizations have already made plans to send both boys and girls to the camp this year and there will be only a certain number from each town who will be allowed to attend. Mention was made that it would not be fair for Morton to send too many boys and girls to the camp when there were a number of towns last year who were unable to send delegates because of the over crowded conditions. Mention was made of the large number of donations being taken around town and it was brought out that whoever is taking up the collection should first get an approval from the Chamber of Commerce.

An amusement tax to raise funds for a park was discussed at length. A resolution was passed that the petition for this tax, which has been circulated and signed, be presented to the commissioners' court. Earl Crum was appointed to perform this task.

Improvement of Morton's airport facilities was also discussed at length. It was pointed out by Earl Crum that 1949 is the last year that small towns will be able to get federal aid for improving their air ports.

By Homer E. Thompson, County Agent

Cochran county is desperately in need of an Agriculture Building and an auditorium that would seat 500 or 600 people. ## H. D. Club Women Plan Food Supply for Their Families

By Miss Mable Manley
Perhaps every house wife has asked herself at sometime, "Just what shall I give my family to eat today?"

The Home Demonstration Club women of Cochran county have been trying to solve this problem by studying how to plan the family food supply.

The women are using two little leaflets put out by the A. and M. Extension Service to help them make their plans. One of the leaflets is entitled "Food and Feed Guide" and gives information on how much food the family needs, how much garden space, laying hens, milk cows, beef animals and hogs it will take to supply the correct amount of food. The little leaflet does not stop here. It also tells how much feed will be needed for each animal necessary to supply the correct amount of food.

The other leaflet entitled "Our Family's Food and How We Plan to Get It" has space to write in plans for obtaining the family's food supply. The very first page of the bulletin gives the Texas Food Standard which is a safe guide to good nutrition.

Two startling facts that the women have learned are that according to nutritional surveys 40 percent of the total population of the United States is living on an inadequate diet, and that 80 percent of all the men turned down for military service due to physical handicaps was caused from nutritional deficiencies. According to the survey, as many people in the upper and middle income brackets have inadequate diets as in the lower brackets.

65 Awards to 4-H Clubbers Offered By Santa Fe in 1949

Sixty-five educational awards to outstanding 4-H Club members in Colorado, New Mexico, Texas and other states served by its lines, will be offered in 1949 by the Santa Fe Railway, in continuance of its policy of annually encouraging American boys and girls to train themselves in agricultural pursuits, President Fred G. Gurley has announced.

The awards are cash sums sufficient to defray all traveling and other expenses for the winners to attend the National 4-H Club Congress held in Chicago. Certificates of merit from the Santa Fe President are presented to the individuals as a keep-sake record of their achievement and participation in the awards.

Winners are certified by the state 4-H Club leaders to the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work headquarters in Chicago, and the railroad takes no part in the selection of winners except in establishing the original basis for the awards.

In announcing the 1949 awards, President Gurley stated that their purpose is to help 4-H Club members to help themselves and that the Santa Fe takes pride in the fine records its past winners have made in their home communities.

There'll Always Be a "Gawker"

"Harry the Hermit," as he's called, came into town last week and, as usual, caused quite a stir. He looks like a cross between Santa Claus and Daniel Boone.

We had a friendly glass of beer together and I asked him, "Don't you ever get annoyed at the way some people laugh and stare as you go by?" "Shucks no," Harry says. "Only while they're laughin' at me, I'm feelin' a mite sorry for them. Imagine—folks so ungrateful they can't see I'm really just the same as they are underneath."

From where I sit, Harry's a lot more "civilized" than the people who make fun of him. He's contented, lives the way he believes is right without harming anyone—and what's more, he's tolerant of others whose tastes in living are different from his.

Maybe we all don't look the same, or act the same, or eat or drink the same, but in a free country, why should we?

Treating Cotton Seed for Better Production

By Homer E. Thompson,
County Agent

Nobody can guarantee that farmers can have a good cotton crop. But chemical treated cotton seed is good insurance. Chemical treated cotton seed increases the chances of a good stand and a good yield because chemicals kill seed-borne germs. Unprotected seed can easily rot in the ground before it has time to germinate, especially if the ground is too cold for it to germinate quickly.

Our country is increasing with angular leaf spot, soreshin and bacterial boll rot. One of our worse cotton diseases that is showing up in Cochran County is angular leaf spot. It often doesn't show up until you see it on young leaves. It often destroys young buds, and it prevents growth of early fruiting. Brown spots or cankers on the lower or slightly below on a stem is a good sign of soreshin.

Experiments show that seed treatment greatly reduces these troubles and helps to promote vigorous seedlings. Chemicals which have proved successful are ceresan M, common ceresan (2 percent), new improved ceresan (5 percent), Dow 9B and sperton.

This applies to delinted as well as the fuzzy seeds. Directions on containers should be closely followed.

Riding Circle Around Whitefaces

by Art. N. Wall

April 9th at 8 P. M. the Whiteface Lions Club will have their minstrel at the school auditorium. It is sincerely hoped there will be capacity crowd that night. The Lions have done some mighty fine work in our community. Those of us who have worked with this club, will readily admit it takes money to do some of the good deeds that they have accomplished. Now is the public's chance to repay some of those deeds by attending the Lions minstrel and fill ever seat in the auditorium. You may never realize it but the admission fee you pay tonight will in some way be re-spent in some worthy work in Whiteface and this community.

The district athletic tournament was held at the Whiteface school, Saturday the 9th.

Whiteface has a perfect right to do some bragging about the new picture show that is near completion. It is equipped with comfortable seats allowing 450 people. Patrons can enjoy the privilege of a nursery and smoking room. From each room a good view of the screen can be had. The public too, can look forward to first run pictures. The neat front appearance of the building would do credit to any town.

The Womens' Missionary Society of the Methodist Church has issued a warning. Here it is: They expect some invitations to fellow church womens' homes—invitations for them to hold their meetings there. If they don't get them they are going to walk in on you.

April 10th, Palm Sunday; April 15th, Good Friday; April 17th, Easter. The churches of Whiteface would like you to visit them and work with them. At this time of year it would be good for everyone to pick up the Bible and read of Jesus; The Last Supper, His prayers in the Garden of Gethsemane. His bearing of the cross, then make up your mind to attend some church regularly. Place Easter where it belongs, in church.

Here is a subject for discussion and one everyone seems to agree upon. Why shouldn't our school have a swimming pool? I have had this asked me and of course could give no answer as I am cost of swimming pools. I do certainly no authority on the know a lot of money can be wrapped up in a project of this kind and also one can be built at a normal cost depending on the size pool that would be built and the material that went into the construction of it. It is the opinion of a great many people in this community that the cost of the pool be looked into and if it can be built at all at a reasonable figure that it should be done and swimming be inserted as part of our athletic program. Too, the wholesome recreation that this pool would give to our younger people throughout the summer months in the manner of good health and clean living would more than pay for the swimming pool. Let's don't drop this subject as an idle dream. Give the kids a break at some kind of recreation and can you think of a healthier one? If our school has any financial means at all can they think of anything in the way of improvement that would advance our athletic program than a swimming pool?

Mrs. J. A. Taylor, who approximately two months ago, slipped on a lose rug in her home and fell breaking her left hip, is now moving around on crutches.

The seniors of the Whiteface school are making plans for their prom dance to be held at the recreation hall of the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company located at the Mallet "G" camp. The date of the prom dance is not set as yet. There will be prom dances held all over the United States in thousands of our American schools this year in school gymnasiums. Our seniors will undoubtedly have their prom dance—but not in their gymnasium.

Roping strays—Butane trucks, lots of them, are keeping the pavement busy from Whiteface to the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company's gasoline plant. Here is a note of warning; at night along this pavement, be sure and dim your lights and drive slow when approaching cars, for one of those cars you meet may be a butane truck. Give the fellows driving these trucks all the breaks you can.

Tuesday was sunbonnet weather—nice hot sunshine and NO wind. Every one we saw and especially AE wanted to be fishing, gardening or nearly anything rather than staying indoors.

Which certainly goes against the grain of all the good resolutions made while attending the Panhandle Press Association convention in Amarillo last week's end.

We always come away from the conventions with new ideas and an intense desire to put them all to work. After about two hours the same routine seems to creep up on us.

Mr. Frank R. Jamison of Denver, Colorado, spoke to the press at the opening session. He is connected with a utilities company but was first president of the Association when it was organized 40 years ago.

Mr. J. was an unusually interesting speaker with a keen and subtle sense of humor. Another speaker and also past president was Mr. Hilton E. Greer, who only recently resigned as editorial writer from Dallas News after about 25 years in that capacity.

We had the pleasure of sitting across the table from Mr. and Mrs. Greer at Saturday's luncheon in Old Tascosa and were perfectly enchanted, especially with Mrs. G. and Mrs. Dixon, writer for the Globe-News. They were two of the cutest little old ladies we nearly ever saw.

Gene Howe, the publisher of the Globe-News was also a neighbor.

We still don't why he calls himself "Old Tack," on the other hand only a chap as good looking and clever as he is could get away with it.

Just before leaving for the convention we were very agreeably surprised to receive a check from Mr. Howe in payment for a year's subscription to the Tribune. Never fancied for one minute that Mr. H would have any interest in the Tribune.

A notation said that Art Wall had contacted Mr. H regarding the paper so maybe he was only accommodating Art. A W is our Whiteface correspondent.

If this weather holds we expect to see a really wonderful Easter parade around here. Some of the churches do and some don't hold special services for the occasion.

The party Tuesday afternoon for Geneva Essary was very nice. Alva had so many pretty flowers around and all the gals looked so dressed up. Mrs. Gene Benham came in wearing a pastel pink suit with blue blouse.

Geneva, the honoree, was just sparkling with excitement. Her friends had completed a farewell gift for her a beautiful set of gold banded crystal and china.

Mary Lois Ledbetter was wearing a spring print dress, picture hat and green slippers. Her mother, Mrs. Gowdy said, "I saw her a few minutes ago in calico assisting a bunny in hiding eggs for the Brownies."

Mrs. G. also told us of an en-

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: O. A. ALSTON—GREETING:
You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 23rd day of May, A. D., 1949, at or before 10 o'clock A. M., before the Honorable District Court of Cochran County, at the Court House in Morton, Texas.

Said plaintiff's Amended Original petition was filed on the 7th day of April, 1949.

The file number of said suit being No. 782.

The names of the parties in said suit are: J. B. Nicewarner as Plaintiff, and O. A. Alston et al as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to-wit: This is a suit by plaintiff against defendant O. A. Alston for foreclosure upon two automobiles, one 1948 Chevrolet Special, Engine No. FAA-819649, Serial No. 5FKL-55518, and one 1949 Ford, Motor No. 99VA-312924, both now in custodia legis, and alternatively for title and possession thereof. The debt sought to be foreclosed is in the principal amount of more than $1,000.00 each on the two automobiles.

Issued this 11th day of April, 1949. Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Morton, Texas, this the 11th day of April, A. D., 1949.

entertainment feature a group of her students are putting on later this month for benefit of the library and we are flattered all to pieces. It seems the program will be a sort of "Parade of Celebrities," including Eleanor Roosevelt, Madame?, oh, that Chinese generalissimo's wife, and many of hers including ANN ENGLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Beard arc mighty proud of their new Plymouth. We had a little ride with Turner in it Tuesday (around the block, that is).

Enjoyed meeting with the Garden Club Tuesday evening. Mrs. Tom Arn's home is very attractive and she had fixed up the prettiest refreshment table. Easter eggs and everything.

Mrs. Lester Baccus gave an interesting discussion. She is such an attractive person. For the meeting she was wearing a pink suit and beautiful corsage of deep purple Iris.

Mrs. Morrow gave a few garden suggestions and it seems that April is the month to start planting Gladiola (these are not all planted at once in order to have Gladiola blossoms over a longer period of time). Dahlias are also put in the ground at this time and in about two weeks Chrysanthemums can be set out.

We came home with some loot, including a package of seed, and Chrysanthemums plant from Mrs. Baccus and a Dahlia tuber from Mrs. C. W. Davis.

The Garden Club was organized here just before we came to Morton and in a space of three years we can think of no other organization that has contributed more to the beauty of the town. Only recently the club has had more shrubs put around the schools.

If you wish to be happy for an hour, says a Chinese proverb, get drunk. If you wish to be happy for three days, get married. If you wish to be happy for eight days, kill your pig and eat it. But if you wish to be happy forever, become a gardener.

A variety of gifts were presented Mrs. Essary including a complete set of gold banded china and crystal. Arrangements of Lilacs and Plum blossoms decorated the living room. The lace covered refreshment table was centered with a reflector surrounded by pastel Sweetpeas and fern, flanked by lighted pink tapers. The hostesses alternated in receiving guests and serving a delightful refreshment plate to approximately 75 guests.

This Church Wants to Serve You

It isn't an exclusive or wealthy Church. Everything about it is very simple. It is not its aim to amuse or entertain those who attend its services. It exists here as a simple, New Testament body pointing those of its neighborhood to the Christ and God of the Bible. Its doors are open to those who from quiet depth of their heart would reach out to God in simple worship and by obedient living.

There isn't much that's ready-made for you in this little Church. There is no ready-made creed; you take the word of God and make your own creed by believing with all your heart everything that it teaches. There are no ready-made prayers, every person voices his earnest longing for the presence of God and for his sustenance of every need. There is no ready-made music; everyone makes his own music. It is sweet to the ears of God in proportion to the sincerity and humility with which you sing.

This church represents no denomination. It simply presents that of which all denominations claim to be a part, the Church of Christ, the Church that He built on the truth of His Divine Sonship the Church he purchased with his blood, the Church which is unto Him as a bride. It exists to unite believers in Christ and protect against the divisions unbrotherliness which denominationalism reflects.

This Church which is the outward manifestation of the deep connections of many hearts of men today will proclaim the simple message which was declared by the apostolic Church; if they will worship God in the simple, sincere way in which that Church worshiped, and will adapt the organization by which they functioned, and if they will serve with the holy consecration that characterized its members, the same result will be multiplied; souls will be saved. God will be glorified, and the name of Christ will be exalted in the hearts of all men.

If you like to worship God "in spirit and in truth", if you enjoy thinking and meditating on God's word, if you appreciate warm intimate association, you will enjoy attending the Church of Christ in this neighborhood.—YOU ARE WELCOME

Woman's Work Is Easily Done . . . ELECTRICALLY

Remember when grandmother sighed over the wisdom in the old saying "Man works from sun to sun—woman's work is never done?" It's not like that today—thanks to electricity.

In a home where electricity is used, woman's work can be done much more easily, and rapidly than in the old days. Too, it's done economically, because the cost of dependable electrical service is so low.

Look around your home and notice in how many ways electric service is making it easier for you to be a real homemaker. You'll be surprised and pleased, and odds are you'll soon be shopping for more electrical appliances to take even more work off your hands.

Stray Dogs Nuisance in Morton

The dog situation—both pro and con—has been called to the attention of this office and while there is nothing physically the city can do it does seem expedient that some measures be taken for the elimination of the stray animals around town.

It has been reliably reported that poison has been put out for the purpose of eliminating some of the dog hazards—the poison virtue of its nature also endangers the lives of children.

While on the other hand it seems imperative that dogs be kept to no one in particular and roaming the streets at large, causing a great deal of damage to young gardens and flower beds and anguish to those who have worn blisters on their hands preparing same, should be disposed of in some manner.

Mayor McAlister has informed us that there is a city ordinance against stray animals—but there is no one to enforce the same.

A happy compromise could be reached it seems by having dog owners keep them on home premises; and the city providing means for disposal of the strays—using some effective method that did not endanger human life.

There are those of us who are fond of pets but deprive ourselves of them because of inadequate facilities for caring for them—we have all the nuisances connected with pet owning without the pleasures, when the stray animals roam the streets and yards in packs.

It is hoped that all individuals act in a reasonable manner regarding the dog situation as now present in Morton.

Support of Texans Needed

Radioactive materials are proving to be a powerful new weapon in cancer research and treatment. Because of the recognized progress in this field, a bill was introduced in the Texas Legislature which provided $1,350,000 for the construction and equipping of a Radiologic Institute and Atomic Energy Research Laboratory at the University of Texas, M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research.

This Hospital was founded by a Legislative act in 1941, for the advent of radioactive isotopes; hence no provision was made for their use. The act did provide for a statewide facility for cancer research and education, and a hospital unit for developing the latest advances in cancer treatment. To date, while still in temporary quarters, the Hospital has cared for patients from 166 counties in the State of Texas.

The present proposed legislation is vital. The lives of many actually depend upon the passage of this bill. If it passes, we will have a complete, well-equipped facility for the use of radioactive materials. In this center men can be trained to use these substances in other hospitals throughout the State. As it is now, men are largely deprived of the benefits of this new means of cancer research, diagnosis and treatment. Over 7,000 Texans will die of cancer during 1949; another 40,000 are suffering from this disease. The magnitude of the need, therefore, is apparent.

There is great danger, however, that funds will not be provided for the establishment of this Radiologic Institute and Atomic Energy Research Laboratory. In a recent committee meeting in the State, all provisions for the building and equipping of this institution were deleted from the bill. Hence, in order to assure establishment of this institution, the appropriations for it must be reinstated in the Education Appropriation Bill for Institutions of Higher Learning (Senate Bill 134), and then passed by both the Senate and the House. If the appropriation is not provided, the citizens of Texas will continue to be deprived of this new method of combating cancer.

You are urged, therefore, in the interest of your afflicted loved ones, to wire or write your State Senator and Representative expressing your desire that the Radiologic Institute and Atomic Energy Research Laboratory be established. Your communication should contain a statement to this effect: "Urgently request that the appropriation provided for The University of Texas Cancer Hospital include funds for the establishment of a Radiologic Institute and Atomic Energy Research Laboratory."

This bill may be acted upon by May 1. Your communication should be sent immediately, and certainly within the next 2 weeks.

Crippling Amendment

From Texas Farm Bureau Federation

Farmers of Texas are up in arms as a result of the crippling amendment tacked on to the McLellan rural road bill by House members on Monday when they voted to cut the tax rate from one cent per 1,000 cubic feet of gas to three-fourths of a cent. J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, declared that the McLellan bill and against the farmers of this state, Hammond charged, because their action delutes the bill and cuts down on the number of miles of road that can be built from the revenue derived from the natural gas tax levy.

Some of our legislators are favoring the out-of-state multi-million dollar industries instead of remaining loyal to the folks at home who sent them to the legislature, the Federation president further charged.

Hammond said opponents of the McLellan Bill, which is sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, are saying they are not voting against the farmers when they vote against the McLellan bill, but contend that the rural roads have been taken care of in the Colson bill, which has already passed the House and Senate. Hammond declares that Colson bill is totally inadequate to take care of the rural road needs for the farmers of this state. The Colson bill is dependent upon appropriations from the general fund and will build only two miles more road per county each year than has been built in the past.

More than a thousand Farm Bureau members were in Austin on March 7 to see the committee on revenue and taxation vote out that McLellan bill favorably. If it is necessary for the members to make another trip to Austin to let the legislators know their views, they can show up again in increased numbers, Hammond concluded.

Water Level Declines on High Plains

WASHINGTON—Pumping of ground water for irrigation in the southern High Plains of Texas is still increasing rapidly and water levels are declining in the areas of heaviest withdrawal.

This information is given in a report prepared by the Texas Board of Water Engineers and the U. S. Geological Survey, W. E. Weather, director of the survey, said.

It is estimated that 10,000 wells were used during 1948 to irrigate more than 1,000,000 acres of cropland. The rate of pumping exceeds the rate of recharge that the withdrawal may be considered as coming essentially from storage, the report said.

If present trends in pumpage and decline in water level continue, the report warned, some localities may be seriously affected in from five to 10 years. In other larger areas where wells are widely spaced the declines of water levels to date are small, the report added, stating that the life expectancy of large-scale withdrawals in these areas will be much greater, so long as the present rate of pumping are not increased.

The report is the seventh of a series of progress reports on ground-water resources of the southern High Plains. It presents information on the rate of ground-water development and the effect on the ground storage of water. Copies of the report are available for distribution in Washington and in Austin. The Texas Board of Water Engineers plans to publish copies.

THREE-MINUTE SERMON

By T. L. (Jack) Bullard, Pastor
Missionary Baptist Church

UNITY

Unity is the one great asset to any nation or people. As one great statesman has said, "United we stand, divided we fall." Even an individual will attain to greater things if he is united with the Lord. I think David was able to really look into the deep thinking of unity. He knew what it was to stand united as a people and as an individual with the Lord. He would have suffered defeat numbers of times if it had not been for unity between him and the Lord he would never have mounted the throne. David once made this statement, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard; that went down to skirts of his garments; as the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon mountain of Zion: For there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life forever more."

There comes a time that, one by one we will drop out of the picture and unless there is recruits found for the army of unity soon defeat is ours. As we go down the road of life we join hands with God and man that we might serve in unity to do God's will and man service. That we work to attain that which

Paul spoke of in the Ephesian letter. Paul knew that the time would come that we all would be in the unity of faith. Through the unity of the Faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, we come unto a perfect man. May we strive to do our very best, endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.

May we extend to each of you men, an invitation to meet with us each first Friday night in our Brotherhood meeting. Here you will find a group of men dwelling together in unity and it will be pleasant and good to be there. We are going to meet each first Friday night and you always have an invitation to be with us. You also have an invitation to be with us in all of our services. Our attendance is growing every service and the interest is greater. To God we give all the praise and glory.
