Son of Former Morton Teacher Killed Instantly

Funeral services were held last Friday, September 4, in Dallas, at the Dudley Hughes Funeral Home Chapel, for Fletcher Edward Latham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Latham of Dallas, and relatives of a number of Mortontites.

Fifteen-year-old Fletcher and a friend were both killed instantly last Tuesday when a motor bike they were riding crashed into a stalled truck on a freeway.

Services were held at 11:30 a. m. and burial was in Laurel Lane Cemetery.

The boy's father is a member of King, Latam, and Stults, Oil Tax Evaluation firm under contract to Cochran County for the past several years. His mother, the former Bernice Horne, taught school in Morton in the early '30's soon after graduation from college. The former Miss Horne is the niece of Mrs. J. A. Holloman of Morton, and the aunt of several Mortontites.

Survivors include the boy's parents, two brothers, Boyd H. Jr. and Benny, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Horne.

He was the husband of the late Peaty Dee (Hanna) Kiker, who died about two years ago. The couple are survived by three children, Kenneth, Larry Ray and Denah. He is also survived by his parents and two brothers.

Ewell Hanna of Morton is the grandfather of the three children.

HOSPITAL OFFERS PROGRAM FOR TRAINING VOCATIONAL NURSES

It was announced this week that the Cochran County Hospital will join other area hospitals in the vocational nurse training program with South Plains College in Levelland.

Students who wish to become vocational nurses may enter the 52-week program on Sept. 14.

Future vocational nurses receive their class-work at South Plains College, and receive their clinical experience at a hospital in their own community.

Dewitt Allsup, manager of the Cochran County Hospital, indicated that they would be able to train three students this year. Persons wishing to train as vocational nurses should contact Allsup at the Cochran County Hospital in Morton or Bob Burks at South Plains College.

Indians To Test Rugged Whiteface In Non District, Home Game, Friday

The Morton Indians and the Whiteface Antelopes got into the first chapter of their annual neighborhood athletic feud, Friday night when they match grid teams on the Indian Field.

Each year the schools, though in different classes, meet in grid and basketball competition, and usually the dope book can be thrown away . . . such is the desire of both schools to win.

This year should be no exception to the rule. Morton's advantage of being a bigger school will have little to do with the outcome.

The Indians have a slight weight advantage, but Whiteface appears to have a better offense, on the basis of early season outcomes. Not only did the Lopes walk off with a lopsided victory over Tatum, Friday, but it has been reported that they scrimmaged with Sudan earlier in the season and managed to run three touchdowns against the Sudan defense. Morton, as most readers already know, edged Sudan, 7 - 6, last Friday.

The Friday game could be a real offensive running battle between Morton's "Butch" Nairn and Whiteface's Jimmy Collins. But those who follow closely don't expect this, mainly because neither team plays the type of game that relies upon an individual player. Ball carrying assignments are divided among several men, and both teams will try to toss the ball a little. Both also have three men in the backfield who may, on any given play, do the passing.

The Lopes will be out to avenge a defeat hung on them last year in what was perhaps the best Indian game of the season, as far as thrills were concerned. It was much the same type of battle as the one Morton had last Friday night.

Both teams remained in good shape following Friday's games. Injuries sustained were all light. This should make for a real battle when the kickoff comes at 8:00 p. m.

GO OVER DELINQUENT TAX ROLL

SCHOOL BOARD APPROVES BUDGET OF $374,500

The trustees of the Morton Independent School District okayed a proposed budget of $374,552 for the coming school year, about $5,000 less than the amended budget of the 1958 - 59 school year, but some $12,000 more than the original proposed budget of last year.

Included in the budget are $27,472 for administration; some $222,000 for instruction; $3,500 for health services; $23,820 for transportation; $32,460 for the operation of the plant; $5,200 for maintenance; $5,200 for capital outlay and $43,500 for debt service.

It was estimated local tax sources will bring in $143,000; the County-wide Equalization, $38,000; & State Sources, $193,400.

The state money comes in three major grants (a) Estimated $89,000 in per capita funds (about $76 per student based upon 1140 school aged youngsters on our census; (b) about $86,000 in teacher salary money; and (c) about $20,000 in transportation money, plus an additional $10,000 for other things.

The county taxes will bring in about the same revenue as this past year, except that when the equalization program is completed a lot of valuations will be up. Some taxes will be more, others less.

The nine major funds, listed earlier in this story with a total only, would break down in this manner:

Administration: About $17,000 in salaries and $10,000 for maintenance.

Instruction: About $209,000 in teacher salaries and $12,500 in teaching supplies.

Health Service: Salary $3,000 & supplies $500.

Who Is to Blame for Sky-high Prices; Is the Farmer Any Less Deserving of Federal Support than Others?

WHAT NON-FARMERS SHOULD KNOW ABOUT FARMERS

By Duane Knott
Teacher of Vocational Agriculture - Morton High
"Why do we pay for not growing stuff?"
"Those farmers must really be getting rich considering the price we have to pay for groceries."

grocery prices are high in spite of the fact we have been spending many tax dollars to control crop surpluses.

So are farmers getting "double rich" from the government and the consumer? Are they so loaded with money that we should stop using tax dollars for their benefit?

What are the facts — the real story about the farmers situation?

The role of the farmers in our economy is just as important today as it was when Buffalo Bill was shooting buffalo. We still depend upon farmers for food and clothing. But tremendous changes have taken place in agriculture.

In 1820 one man could produce enough food for himself and 3 other people. One man with 30 day's modern means of farming can produce food for himself and 25 others.

So where is the real agriculture problem?

During any normal year the farmer can produce more than can be consumed. This progress in producing farm products has been made possible through research, education, and the application of mechanization to agriculture. Such progress has developed into an agriculture revolution that is still going on.

The revolution in agriculture production has not been accomplished by farmers alone. They have had help from 6 million city workers who have provided services relating to supplying farmers with feed, seed and fertilizer and from 10 million who have provided services of processing and distributing farm products.

More workers by far are employed in agriculture than any other of the nations industries. Is the farmer, who makes up only a small part of the total field of agriculture to blame for the high price of food?

ery dollar we Americans spent for food last year went to people who bought, handled, sold, processed, transported, and packaged farm products.

Only about 40 per cent went to farmers.

Before we render a verdict of "guilty" about farmers, let's look at still more facts.

From 1952 - 57, there was, in most industries, a period of inflation. Yet farm prices actually decreased 20 per cent during this period.

Farm income in 1952 was $15.1 billion. By 1956 it had dropped to $12.1 billion and last year it had dropped to $10.8 billion.

Had farm prices gone up at the same rate as other cost-of-living items, we would have paid 25 per cent more for food and clothing.

To put it another way: farmers actually subsidized consumers during 1952 - 57. Because they didn't get the 25 per cent increase in farm prices, they lost about $70 billion according to economist.

Due to the fact that farmers have not gotten their share of the national income, many have been caught in a "cost squeeze."

For example in 1957 farmers got only 4 per cent of the national income even though they made up 12 per cent of the population and produced 65 per cent of the raw materials for industry.

Such a "squeeze" has put many farmers out of business. And many of those who have remained are required to work off the farm to make ends meet.

So before we start pointing a finger at farmers and blaming them, let's make sure we have all the facts about our agriculture situation. When we get these facts, we will then discover that farmers are not getting their share of the national income.

When you buy a 26 cent package of corn flakes you're only getting 3 cents worth of corn. In a 20 cent loaf of bread, you only get 2 1/2 cents worth of wheat.

500 Attend Annual PCG Meeting, Fortenberry Is Re-elected President

LUBBOCK — More than 500 delegates and visitors attending the third annual meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Aug. 28 in Lubbock, heard directors re-elect W. O. Fortenberry as President, and adopt a 1959-60 budget of some $174,000, and heard three top leaders of the textile industry.

Also returned to office were Wilmer Smith, New Home, Vice President, and Roy Forkner, Lubbock, as Secretary-Treasurer. Fortenberry and Smith have headed the organization for the three years it has been in existence and Forkner was re-elected to his second term.

The key to the future of the nation's cotton industry is "the hands that fashion government policy on imports," J. M. Cheatham, President of Dundee Mills, Inc., Griffin, Georgia, and first vice president of the American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, told the PCG membership. He said the long-range outlook for both raw cotton and textiles is favorable if textile imports can be brought under "fair and reasonable control."

Bill Foreman, Public Relations Manager, National Cotton Council, Memphis, told the group that the public generally has a distorted image of the farmer. He said the farmer is suffering a loss in prestige and influences as a result. He urged a "grassroots campaign" to achieve better understanding of agriculture. He said that in the eyes of many of the 88 per cent of the population that doesn't live on the farm, farmers are "hayseeds, bandits and the biggest hogs at the public trough."

Actually, he declared, farmers are good businessmen, efficient suppliers of essential commodities at a reasonable cost and good citizens.

F. Marion Rhodes, Director, Cotton Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U. S. D. A., Washington, D. C., told PCG members that "The cotton legislative program is moving in the right direction."

"This year we have more flexibility in both production and pricing. Domestic mill consumption should continue to improve and our exports should be back to a fare share of the world market by the end of 1959-60," he said.

Fortenberry, in announcing the PCG's largest budget in its three-year history, pointed out that the budget includes $10,000 for national promotion and advertising of area cotton and $2,500 for an all-cotton style show. Cotton research is earmarked for $46,000, including $20,000 for fiber and spinning research on the area crop at the pilot plant at Texas Tech College. Other grants include $10,000 for cotton breeding, $5,000 for fertilization studies and $1,500 for a harvesting economics study.

Also included in the budget are $76,700 in operating expenses, $2,000 for a crop quality survey, $2,500 for tests with an electronic cotton classifier, and $20,000 for emergency and other purposes.

New directors installed at the business session include Eddie Dempsey, Borden County; J. E. Minyard, and Bill Boling, Briscoe County; Ray Joe Riley, Castro County; J. M. Rankin, Crosby County; Ross Lumsden and V. O. Bushy, Lamb County; and Virgil Travis, Terry County. All other 36 directors were re-elected.

Fortenberry also announced the appointment of committee chairman for the coming year. These included Don Jones, Lubbock, Research Committee; M. A. Elms, Jr., Littlefield, Finance; Earl Eeds, Plainview, By-Laws; Weldon Gregg, Plainview, Pilot Spinning; Orville Bailey, Anton, Public Relations; Guy Nickles, Sudan, Marketing; J. D. Smith, Littlefield, Labor; Roy Mack, Lubbock, Scholarships; and Roy Forkner, Lubbock, Legislative and representative to the American Cotton Producers Associates.

In the Treasurer's report, Forkner presented a balanced financial statement showing total assets of $208,658.30.

In commenting on the annual meeting Fortenberry told directors attendance was the largest ever attained at any of the two previous annual meetings. A total of 541 persons were registered and officials estimated many did not get registered.

Attention Grain Farmers!
Cottonseed in Grain Can Be Very Costly
Clean Your Trucks and Trailers Before Loading With Grain . . .
Grain with cottonseed in it cannot be sold in a Pink Bollworm Quarantined area. This is penalizing grain from the cotton growing Plains — a 14-county area. There's a strong chance of being embargoed from shipping to a Pink Bollworm area, which is the southern one-third of the United States. This would cause Cochran County grown grain to have to be sold in Texas.
Don't let this happen — make sure your grain is hauled in trucks and trailers which do not contain cottonseed!

Members of the Morton Athletic Boosters were shown films of the Morton - Sudan game at their regular meeting Monday night, at 8 p. m. at the High School Library.

Other projects of the club were discussed, including the sale of season seat options, and football program advertising. Membership cards are to be handed out this week.

All local football boosters are urged to attend the meetings, Monday, at 8 p. m., at the High School Library. Films of each Friday's games will be shown, plus a resume of scouting reports on the team to be played the coming Friday night.

HAWK STAR... Big Bob Pettit, above, will lead the St. Louis Hawks against the Philadelphia Warriors in their Oct. 3 pro basketball game at Lubbock Coliseum. The six-foot-nine Pettit is the perennial season scoring champion of the National Basketball Association. At Lubbock, he will be opposing Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, Philadelphia's sensational seven-ft.-two rookie. Tickets to the game, priced at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00, may be ordered by mailing a check to Pro Basketball, Box 5002, Lubbock, Texas.

before he was stopped on the Coyote 5 yard line. Summers then ran around right end for the score but failed to add the extra points on a center plunge.

With the score 6-0 in the Antelope's favor, the Coyotes started a drive from the 20 which carried to a touchdown, assisted by a 23-yard run by Coyote quarterback, Ray Hilburn. Bobby Hall carried for the touchdown. The Coyotes ran the extra points by boosting Jim McKensie through the line. Score: Tatum 8, Whiteface 6.

In the latter part of the first period, Jimmy Collins took another handoff from Summers and in a repeat performance around right end, ran 60 yards for a touchdown. Summers again failed to add the extra points. At the end of the first quarter the score stood Antelopes 12, Coyotes 8.

Tatum fumbled allowed Whiteface to control the ball in the second period. James Ashmore recovered a Coyote fumble to give the ball to the Antelopes.

Jimmy Collins took another handoff from Summers around right end - this time galloping 57 yards from his own 40 to the 3. Summers went through the line for a TD to make it 18 to 8 in the Antelope's favor. Once again, Summers was halted trying for the extra points.

Soon thereafter, James Ashmore recovered another Coyote fumble to let the Antelopes have the ball, but the Coyotes tightened up and the 'Lopes were forced to kick.

Tatum fumbled and Whiteface recovered at the end of the first half.

The Whiteface Antelope Band, under the direction of Ray Showalter and Drum Major Mary Nell Stegall, provided a highly entertaining half-time of music and marching - as Tatum's Band could not make the trip.

The third period was one of frustration by both teams. The 'Lopes pounced on a Tatum fumble and then fumbled twice themselves, recovering, but failing to score. The Antelope's did highlight the scoreless period by completing their first pass of the game.

The Antelopes demonstrated their skill in "hiding" the ball in the 4th quarter. They proved good 'fakers' - fooling Tatum and the spectators alike as they tried to guess who had the ball.

round right end from the 19 and the score jumped to 32-8. Odell Scribner ran the extra points for a 34 to 8 Whiteface lead.

The Coyotes began a series of jump passes just over the line of scrimmage, which proved very effective. Coyote Hilburn scooted around right end on a keeper 28 yards for a Tatum TD. Eddie Pfeiffer of Tatum took a short pass to add the extra points making the reading 34 to 16.

For the last Antelope touchdown, James Ashmore passed to Nathan Moore, who ran 46 yards. Scribner - it being believed the leg might be broken.

Final Score: Whiteface 40, Tatum 16.

TEXAS HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB WOMEN TO MEET IN GALVESTON

Home Demonstration Club members from all parts of Texas will meet in Galveston September 16-18 for their annual association meeting.

Mrs. Wilmer Smith, of Wilson, president of the association, says workshops, where delegates will be on exchange ideas and take part in discussions that can be shared actual demonstrations, forums and with families and friends back home. Over 1,000 members and guests are expected.

Texas today has some 30,000 home demonstration club members in more than 1,600 clubs. The work, designed to bring recent research and developments in home economics to homemakers and families, is guided by county home demonstration agents, assisted by home economics specialists from the Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A & M College.

Delegates will have an opportunity to study exhibits of many new home furnishings, equipment, foods and clothing items between meeting sessions.

Chartered buses will take delegates from this area to Galveston. The buses will leave from Lubbock at 7:30 Tuesday morning, September 15 and will return September 18. Expenses for the delegate's trip to Galveston were made by having the Bill Mack Talent Show in July.

Mrs. Lewis Walker, Mrs. H. T. Gardner and Mrs. Leo Brooks are delegates from Cochran County.

PICKLED PEPPERS
These two recipes for pickled peppers are from a bulletin on "Historic Cookery" published by the Agricultural Extension of New Mexico.

CHILES ENCURTIDOS (Pickled Chiles) Select small chile pods. The wax chile is preferred by many. Wash chile pods carefully. Put into sterilized jars, packing tightly. To every pint jar add 1/2 teaspoon whole mixed spices and enough vinegar to cover. Remove air bubbles by passing knife around inside the jar. Seal jars. Process in hot water bath for 10 minutes.

A brine made by adding 1 t. of salt to 1 c. of water may be used to dilute the vinegar. Use 1 c. of vinegar and 1 c. of brine and you may like the resulting product better than with strong vinegar.

Wash jalapeno peppers. Pack tightly in jar. For every cup of vinegar use 1/4 cup of water, 1/4 cup olive oil, salt and 1 t. pickling spices. Heat mixture to boiling. Pour over peppers so that they are well covered. Seal jars. Process 10 minutes in hot water bath.

KNOW WHAT TO DO AND DO IT

Accidents are no respecters of time or place. They just happen. Be on guard against them all the time, says W. L. Ulich, our Extension Agricultural Engineer. Emergencies can be nipped in the bud if you know what to do and have the necessary equipment.

Mr. Ulich says its good insurance to have these 3 "do's" done before accidents occur:
1. Have a first aid kit handy.
2. Know how to use it.
3. Visualize mishaps in advance and work out a plan of action.
Put your plan into action the instant disaster strikes, and keep your head.
Delay might mean death. It's a good idea to learn first aid, because you can never tell when you may need it.

Senator RALPH YARBOROUGH Writes from DC -

By U. S. Senator RALPH YARBOROUGH

While some states are now slowing to a stop on their parts of the 41,000 mile Interstate highway system, the Texas Highway Department - operating on a pay as you go plan - is continuing work in our state.

Texas is eligible for help on primary, secondary and urban highways systems . . . of farm to market roads . . . as well. The Interstate Highway Program, which was started in 1956, is scheduled to continue at least through 1971. The federal government will provide 90 per cent of the funds for building the highways and the state only puts up 10 per cent. The overall investment in the Interstate Highway Program in Texas from 1956 through 1971 is estimated at $1,753,845,000. Some $190,057,000 had been put into the program through the end of 1958. The estimate for his year through mid July is about $101,500,000.

The primary, secondary and urban highway systems are continuing programs in which the state and the federal government pay equal shares. Between 1956 and 1958, $367,179,000 had been spent by this partnership to provide better roads in Texas on which to travel and move goods to market. Through mid-July of this year another $142,500,000 was added by the State and federal governments combined. Texas has a fine highway program with the federal government putting in a good share of the money.

By joining these programs for improvement of roads in Texas our state is taking advantage of the federal money which is being made available. Due to Texas size it has gotten far more money out of the Federal Road Fund than we have paid in taxes.

We have heard a great deal of talk recently that this program must be slowed down - and it has been in some states - unless a cent more tax is added to each gallon of gasoline we buy.

There are three ways of raising money that is needed to continue this program. Bonds can be issued, the gasoline tax could be raised, or the excise taxes on automobiles could be diverted to the road fund. So far, Texas has planned its road work in line with the money at hand and has never resorted to highway bond issues.

VISITING THIS WEEK

Will Jennings of Tulsa, and his brother, John N. Jennings of Sayre, Oklahoma, visited this week with their brother, Bert Jennings and family and the George Newman family.

REPORTED RESTING WELL

W. M. Bryant of Route 2, Morton, was reported resting well at the Medical Arts Hospital, Littlefield, on Tuesday, after undergoing surgery, Monday morning.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Mrs. McGinnis, mother of Mrs. Carl Hall, of Enochs, was reported to be "doing as well as can be expected," following surgery several days ago. She is in a Lubbock Hospital and had been reported in serious condition.

ATTENDED SON'S WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Marshall were in Austin Saturday for the wedding of their son, Worth Marshall.

MAJOR SURGERY

Mrs. Evelyn Deaver underwent major surgery Monday morning at Taylor Clinic in Lubbock and was reported "doing fine" on Wednesday.

Hello, my fellow Texans. I got home last week to Texas. The time was too short. It always is. But I certainly enjoyed the brief time I was there.

FROM EL PASO TO THE VALLEY

Friends from the Lower Valley told me that the area was enjoying one of the best cotton crops in years. Cotton prospects, I am told, are real good.

At El Paso, a good gully washing rain fell the afternoon I was there.

The people of El Paso invited me out to help dedicate a new border crossing linking that city with Juarez.

It was a fine international ceremony conducted at the border. THE HEMISPHERIC LEADERSHIP

The dedication brought home again another of our many blessings.

There, that afternoon at El Paso, Americans and Mexicans met together in friendship to promote the common good. The dedicated a gateway offering easier access for peaceful commerce.

Elsewhere around the world, men met in hope they could ward off common disaster - the disaster of war and strife.

There at El Paso, men of goodwill reached hands of friendship across the border.

I was out in Nebraska - at Offutt Air Force Base - the day before I was in El Paso. I'd been invited there by the secretary of the Air Force to attend a briefing at the headquarters of the Strategic Air Command.

OUR MILITARY EFFECTIVENESS

It was an impressive demonstration. I can't go into details. Security prevents that. But I came away with one overriding belief - and that is that we can't afford to be complacent today because of our great military strength.

The main and plain fact is that the Soviet military power is growing. And unless our military effectiveness continues to grow, our nation will be in peril.

A CONTINUOUS AIR ALERT

There at Offutt, General Power, the Commanding General of SAC, told me of his serious concern about the lack of a continuous air alert. This is a man who should know, and he says our national survival may depend on the existence of such an alert.

I asked how much this vital project would cost. And the Air Force told me the job can be done at a cost of about $600 million. This is a lot of money. But it is still only about 1-1/2 percent of the current defense budget. . . . and about 14 percent of the amount the President has asked Congress to appropriate for foreign aid this year.

What is meant by an air alert is that we will put "X" number of our B - 52 bombers in the air and keep them there all the time.

Back in Texas, a lot of folks were asking if I thought Congress will go home before Soviet Premier Khrushchev arrives. I told them that in my opinion, whether Congress goes or stays has nothing to do with when Mr. Khrushchev arrives or departs.

If Mr. Khrushchev's visit is safe for the United States, it certainly shouldn't harm Congress. And I don't think we have to run out of town just because the President has invited a guest from another country . . . Russia or anywhere else. My own view is that the American people pay what Congress to work . . . and I believe in continuing working until the job gets finished.

LOTTERIES AND ADVERTISING WILL BE TOPIC OF TPA MEETING DISCUSSION

Lottery - a problem which frequently confronts newspaper admen - will be a topic for top consideration at the ninth annual Ad Meet held by the Texas Press Association in Austin on Sept. 12.

Speaker will be Austin Postmaster, Oliver N. Bruck.

A lottery is defined by the Post Office Department as a game or contest in which three elements - consideration, chance and prize - are present. No such games or contests may be advertised in newspapers which are distributed through the U. S. Mails. Nor may they be mentioned in any way in news stories.

Constantly questioned by newspaper admen and editors are various promotion ideas which may or may not be considered lotteries, depending upon interpretation of the presence of the three necessary elements.

Postmaster Bruck, in his discussion of lottery at the TPA Ad Meet, will outline some of the tests which contest ideas must pass before they are considered available.

Bruck, who has distinguished himself with the Post Office Department on a national scale, is one of Austin's outstanding civic leaders. He joined the Austin Post Office staff as a substitute clerk in 1920, and has come up

I think most Texans would favor moving ahead with this SAC alert program as quickly as possible. Yet, under the system of freezing the Defense budget to fit within prescribed ceilings, there is a serious question whether this urgent project will be approved. Basically, this involves balancing a budget ceiling against the military security of our country.

through the ranks to the top post he holds today. Last year he received a rarely given Certificate of Award for Superior Achievement, in which he was cited for outstanding contributions to the Department in the fields of employee-management and public relations.

In 1950 he also was presented a plaque for extraordinary service performed in explaining the Department's problems and plans to people of his community and state.

A graduate of the University of Texas, Bruck has devoted much of his time to service with the Capitol Area United Cerebral Palsy Association, Travis County Crippled Children's Society, Austin Cerebral Center, and other such organizations.

Bruck will be one of the featured speakers at the TPA Ad Meet which some 150 admen from Texas daily and weekly newspapers are expected to attend. Program chairman for the meeting is Rigby Owen, publisher of the Conroe Daily Courier.

Vega, Texas, Man Reports - 42-bushel Average on 165 Acres of Wheat

Kenneth Robinson, successful young West Texas farmer, says: "I have been using Phillips 66 Ammonia for three years on wheat, and for that period my average is 42 bushels per acre. I've watched these yields carefully, checking each year's yield against the amount of ammonia applied. I'm raising my rate of application from 65 pounds to 100 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia on my wheat, in order to further increase my yields.

Other successful Southwestern farmers have discovered that they make more profit per acre, using Phillips 66 Ammonia. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin . . . yields of sorghum grain or ensilage are increased . . . profits on wheat and small grains are increased through higher grain yields and improved forage . . . more marketable vegetables are harvested.

Phillips 66 Ammonia can be easily applied either by you or your distributor. See us today about Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia . . . it gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

Comments Pour In On Recent Run of Pony Express Mail

Comments from Maine to California continued to find their way into Morton this week regarding the recent "Pony Express" run by the Cochran County Sheriff Posse.

Among them were comments by Ann C. Whitman, personal secretary to the President, Governor, Price Daniel, Senator Preston Smith, Speaker of the House of Representatives Waggoner Carr, Congressman George Mahon, former President Harry S. Truman, and Wm. A. Blakley, who is recuperating from a heart attack suffered on July 10.

Governor Daniel writes that his son, Houston, is an avid stamp collector and will add the Staked Plains Pony Express to his collection.

George Christian, executive assistant to the governor, says one of the U. S. Mail cancellations will be added to his nephew's collection.

Cal Farley, founder and president of Boy's Ranch, writes "I thought we had received mail every way in the world . . . but this adds one to it."

Rev. T. Edgar Neal, Methodist pastor in this area for a number of years and now located near Henderson, writes, "seems you are bringing back the romance of the old west."

A YMCA director writes from Portland, Maine, "My boys got a big kick out of the Pony Express . . . it's making the club rounds . . ."

A magazine editor in Burlingame, Calif., says, "you can bet the Post Office lost money on that run . . ."

A U. S. Mail clerk aboard the Chicago, Ft. Madison, and Kansas City streamliner writes, "The Staked Plains mail run would sure put us for time . . . post-marked in Morton at 1 p. m. the 20th the Pony Express galloped in here by 9:30 a. m. on the 22nd."

The Sheriff Posse can feel with satisfaction that Morton has received some good publicity, one civic minded citizen observed this week.

Members present made a corsage with Mrs. Kelly's supervision. Flowers and supplies were furnished by Mrs. Kelly and by the City Flower Shop.

Mrs. Crone, president, presided at the meeting. She appointed Mrs. Roy Hill and Mrs. T. M. Tanner to select a city beautification project. Miss Lonora Jackson was named assistant reporter.

With Your ... COUNTY AGENT

By James E. Thompson

FERTILIZER TESTS SHOW VALUE OF SOIL TESTING

In eight fertilizer demonstrations conducted on cotton in Hockley County in 1958, soil closely predicted the most profitable rate to use in all but one case, said W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist.

Prior to establishing the demonstrations, Bill Taylor, Hockley County Agricultural Agent, sampled the demonstration sites. The samples were then tested by the A and M College Soil Testing Laboratory and fertilizer recommendations were made. These recommendations were then compared to the actual results of the demonstration, said Bennett.

On one farm the soil test showed that a 50-60-0 fertilizer was needed. The highest profit rate on this farm proved to be 45-60-0. On another farm the recommendations called for a 50-60-0 fertilizer. The highest profit rate here proved to be a 50-60-0 Fertilizer.

Results on two farms showed that a rate higher than recommended by the soil test was the most profitable response to any fertilizer application.

Bennett points out that there are many factors that effect crop yields which a laboratory cannot analyze. But a farmer can put a soil test recommendation together with these factors and come up with a better decision on proper fertilizer rates, said Bennett.

COUNCIL

with a total of 105,286.00 cu. ft. of gas consumed. A total of 869 cards were billed out by the Gas Dept.

The report also showed a total of $50 in fines collected during the month and showed the following bank balances:

- General Fund, $2,400.36
- WW and SS, $25,481.55
- Gas Fund, $24,070.24
- Total $51,952.15

Seagler also told the group he had deposited $5,300 in each of two separate funds for the gas and water departments, and that $300 would be added to each fund each month, thus building up a fund to pay for needed repairs and replacements of the two departments.

Maurice Lewallen, Supt. of the Gas Department, appeared to explain the recent meter mixup, and to assure the aldermen, that the mistake that was made, of putting the wrong type of meter part in the meter, could be made only on the one type of meter, and not on residential meters.

After his explanation, the City fathers voted to pay back to the former owner of the automatic laundry, $950.01 which he was overcharged over a period of about nine months due to the faulty meter.

All bills were approved and minutes of the previous meeting were also read and approved.

The Clerk read a letter that had been written to D. B. Lancaster, Manager of the Five Area Telephone Cooperative, concerning the proposed extended area phone service. No contract had been agreed upon yet by the Cooperative and General Telephone.

A discussion was had on the proposed paving in which it was pointed out, no further progress had been made as of this time.

The group discussed the need for using the maintainer on alleys; the need for replacement of water and gas pipe in some places where poor installation was originally made; and the need for a larger gas distribution outlet, allowing more gas to flow through and not overloading the outlet.

The Clerk advised that the proposed sale of the fire truck for $150 did not go through and asked their pleasure on another offer to purchase the truck.

Seagler later advised the Tribune that after the council meeting adjourned, he called the aldermen back to take action on an ordinance drawn up by the hospital board for more safe parking around the hospital, and the aldermen adopted the ordinance.

The Ford Falcon, first of America's new-size cars, represents a "breakthrough" in automotive design that may materially alter the future of the automobile industry. The Falcon Fordor shown here is more than two feet shorter and three-quarters of a ton lighter than a standard 1959 Ford. Yet, the Falcon is a six-passenger car, with interior roominess approximating that of standard models.
