Indians Lose; Maids Are Victorious In Conference Basketball Opener

Morton's girls were on top and the boys were on the bottom of the District 2-AA conference basketball chase after opening games at Olton Tuesday night.

Coach Bob Travis' boys dropped a 43-36 decision to the Mustangs after falling too far behind in the opening stages of the game. The loss left them tied with Muleshoe for the league basement, as Muleshoe was defeated by Abernathy.

But the Morton Maids, paced by Patsy Amys' 22-point performance, got off to a fine start by hammering out a 59 to 36 triumph to tie for top spot in their race with the Abernathy girls who outlasted the Muleshoes.

Lockney, the other 2-AA member, dropped non-conference games to Floydada, who will be a 2-AA member next year.

ALL AREA COUNTIES GET COTTON ACREAGE CUT

Cochran County's 1960 Acreage Allotment for cotton is 71,906.1 according to information released by the State ASC office this past week.

The figure compares with the 1959 (Choice A) cotton allotment figure of 74,902, and was in keeping with a slight reduction received by every county on the South Plains. Under Choice B cotton elective, the acreage could be 77,534. A chart on 1959 Texas Upland Cotton acreage data and 1960 acreage allotments was mailed the Tribune by the ASC, and among the items noted on the sheet was that in Cochran County, at the time of original measurement last spring, 1,089 acres of the total planted to cotton were not yet standing and later, 3,610 acres of cotton in this county were destroyed in order to comply with the acreage law. Cochran and Dickens were the only two counties out of a 32 county area that listed no estimated available acres not utilized.

Here's how other county's 1959 and 1960 cotton acreage allotment (under plan A) compared.

Spanish Speaking Children May Get Summer School Course in English

Elementary School Principal Eli Douglas, this week, issued a call for the names of all Latin American pupils that will enter school in the fall, in the first grade.

Douglas announced, under a new ruling, the school may offer a six week summer school course designed to acquaint the Spanish American children with the English language. Customarily the language barrier is the hardest problem the Spanish speaking students face. Often times it keeps them from securing a passing grade in their first year of schooling.

The principle said this week, anyone knowing of a Spanish speaking first grader to be, is requested to stop by his office or to phone his office. If they can gather together a class of 25 to 30 students, such a class will be established this summer.

Douglas said he felt sure the class would be of the utmost importance to the Spanish speaking children, important enough that it is almost a necessity to "get them off on the right foot," and provide them with as nearly as possible, equal opportunities with other first graders, by next fall.

PLAN FOR BETTER FAMILY HEALTH THIS YEAR

What's the status of health in your family? Could it improve in 1960? Mrs. Eloise Johnson, Extension Family Life Specialist of important points now for possible Texas A&M, suggest you check changes.

Here are some important factors: good nutrition, sanitation, regular health examinations, immunization, exercise, rest and recreation, an adequate home health center, and a means of achieving the state of radiant health which is the result of complete physical, social and mental well being.

An accepted guide for good nutrition is the Texas Food Standard. Mrs. Johnson points out that family attitudes toward food and the enjoyment of meal time are just as important as the kind and amount of food eaten.

Sanitation includes a healthful water supply, clean milk free from bacteria, safe sewage and garbage disposal, and cleanliness around all buildings.

Regular health examinations for mother and father as well as the children are one of the most important steps in improving family health. Your family physician can advise about immunization against contagious and infectious diseases.

Exercise rest and recreation is a fifth step. The important thing, Mrs. Johnson says, is to build toward a family attitude which considers rest and recreation as essential to good health and not a waste of time or evidence of laziness.

The sixth step is the maintenance of an adequate home health center. Every family should have supplies, equipment and medicine for the minor illnesses and emergencies that must be cared for at home.

Many physical and mental ailments are rooted in worry, fear and concern. The seventh step toward achieving a state of radiant health involves "talking out" problems as a family to give assurance and sense of security to each family member.

By Eddie Irwin

AFTER SO many, many months of trying to obtain extended area phone service between Morton and rural residents to the west and to the southwest, a great many folks still can't seem to make themselves understand why the failure...

FAILURE TO UNDERSTAND is not surprising. After all, nearly every case of extended area phone service in this area, has come since work began on the Morton - Lehman - Maple project. Why then, folks ask, is it so hard to get the service between these points...

involved that have agreed on contracts several times previously, to get extended area service in Bailey County.

In disgust...

A LOT OF FOLKS HAVE taken to channels of thought, and just don't want to hear any more about it. Some have decided that the General Telephone company just doesn't want to do anything about it. Others have placed the blame squarely on the Five Area Cooperative. Truth is, that many others are carrying the blame even further and saying Morton folks just don't want to pay the increased rates.

IDEA COULDN'T be true. Local phone subscribers have already ratified, by something like 80 percent, a telephone rate increase, as soon as the extended area service is put into effect.

no sir...

THE MORE YOU hear about the situation that has stalemated the two companies, the more you understand the unusual circumstances. Morton has simply become one of the pawns in the chess game of telephone company politics.

GENERAL TELEPHONE and the Five Area Coop, have agreed on contracts previously which broke what the General Telephone company refers to as its standard policy, in each instance, it was because General Telephone was put into an almost impossible situation that they agreed to the contract. At least that's what they told the Lions Club last week.

THE CONTRACT that Five Area is trying to negotiate, is exactly like those signed in Bailey County. This is not the case, General Telephone argues long and loud that it's a matter of principle with them, a matter of having to adhere to a company policy, rather than worry in dollars and cents, because they are afraid if they give in now, the "monster" of change in policy which will be created, will meet them again down the road... only harder.

SEEM TO HAVE a lot of basis to their arguments, but the deadlock seems tied as hard as the recent steel strike was. Only hope that we can see for any settlement, will be a mediator to help both sides understand completely the other sides thinking, and both sides giving ground.

WORRIED MOST Mortonites, is that while he bicker back and forth on this subject, Morton stands a chance to be really hurt badly, economically. It's more than a simple argument of "who will benefit the most by free phone service connection, the rural or the city." It has now become almost impossible for the city folk to absorb the "extra bill" even if they want to. General Telephone says, they can't afford to let us push them into accepting a bad bargain. If they did, any unhappy subscriber from Morton, a year, or five, or ten years from now, could suddenly set up a howl about the inequality of the phone contact between General Telephone and Five Area Coop, and things could really get into a mess.

MATTERS WORSE, both companies feel that it certainly is not their duty, or even their right, to invite themselves into further meetings with the other, for the purpose of discussing the matter and trying to work out an agreement.

46,000 Freshmen Can Enroll at Nations Colleges

Vacancies for more than 46,000 freshmen on 274 college campuses will be available at the beginning of the January semester, according to an exclusive survey conducted among four year accredited colleges by Changing Times and published in the current issue of the magazine.

The 407 questionnaires returned to the magazine showed that 260 schools could have accepted more than 36,500 additional freshmen this past autumn. About 24 per cent of the openings were for resident students, the remainder for day students.

Colleges that responded to the questionnaire are taking around 12,000 sophomore and some 11,000 junior transfers this year. The same colleges expect to take around 12,700 sophomore and 14,600 junior transfers next year. Generally, the magazine noted, colleges especially technological and engineering schools, are becoming more and more interested in accepting transfers in the upper classes.

The survey revealed the typical annual expenses in colleges queried run between $1,300 and $1,600 for a student living at school, and between $500 and $700 for a day student.

Officials reported that there are two main reasons why students fail to get into college: Their academic records are poor or they spend too little effort choosing a place to attend.

The magazine noted that many colleges with openings this year will be good bets for next year, but warned that a college with room cannot be expected to take an applicant who is not qualified. Among the nearly 300 colleges reporting were Purdue, University of Wyoming, Drexel, Wayne, Western Reserve (room for day students), Lake Forest, Clark, Yankton, Lawrence (room for day students), St. Olaf and Hiram.

A list of all the colleges and the amount of space they have is available for 25 cents from Changing Times Reprint Service, 1729 H Street, N. W., Washington 6, D. C.

Importance of Water in Yields Pointed Out

College Station (spl.) - Water is one of the most important factors controlling crop yields in Texas according to Morris E. Bloodworth, associate professor, Department of Agronomy, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Even though the present irrigated acreage is estimated to be near seven million, the water supplies have been taxed to the limit in some of the irrigated areas and nearly exhausted in other parts of the state. Although more available acreage is well adapted to this type of intensive agriculture, the expansion of irrigation will depend largely on water resources as yet undeveloped, Bloodworth pointed out.

"Some Principles and Practices in the Irrigation of Texas Soils," is a new Texas Agricultural Experiment Station bulletin written by Bloodworth designed to present some basic principles and practices of irrigation that will be helpful to farmers. It should serve as a guide and will require revision as dictated by experience and as additional field data becomes available.

Among the many topics discussed in the bulletin are: importance of the soil structure; salinity; furrow, border and sprinkler irrigation; and frequency of irrigation. Subjects from planning your irrigation system to applying the water are adequately covered.

Another interesting topic is a discussion on the different methods of conveying water to the crop. Unlined ditches, concrete lined ditches and use of concrete pipe and aluminum pipe are discussed with the relative merits and faults of each given.

Copies can be obtained by writing the Agricultural Information Office, College Station. Ask for B-937.

what then... WILL EVENTUALLY happen. We certainly cannot say. We only hope that our City Commission, or some other interested group, will take the lead and arrange further meetings. Because until some sort of settlement is made, the City of Morton is not only losing a valuable factor that would boost it economically, but it is losing an excellent opportunity to boost the city in other ways, in the minds of its trade area residents.

we need... A SETTLEMENT of the unhappy, as soon as is possible. After about two years of dispute.

Publishers Offer Scholastic Aid In Colleges

LUBBOCK, (sp.) — West Texas publishers are encouraging the study of journalism at Texas Tech with a unique scholarship plan based on circulation, Prof. W. E. Garretts, Tech journalism department head, has announced.

Five publishers are currently participating in the West Texas Scholarship plan to recruit more and better students for newspapers in this area.

Garretts said four publishers make their contributions to the scholarship fund on the basis of one cent per subscriber per year. Tracking the plan in this way are Neil Combs, publisher of the State-Slatonites, Jim Cornish, publisher of the Post Dispatch, W. T. Graham Jr., publisher of the White Line Tribune at Farwell, and Neil Vanzant, Gaines County News, publisher at Seagraves.

Charles Sterling, publisher of the Brownfield News, is encouraging financial aid to deserving journalism students by contributing 10 cents per subscriber annual-

The grants to journalism students from the West Texas Scholarship Fund are made on the basis of need and qualifications of the student. Garretts pointed out. The newspapers make their contributions through the Texas Tech Foundation.

First winner of a grant from the fund is Bob Horton, junior journalism student from Meadow, who also works as a Lubbock Avalanche - Journal reporter. He is married and has one child.

Other scholarship awards made to Tech journalism students include two from the Avalanche - Journal, two from the West Texas Press Assn. and one from Theta Sigma Phi, national women's journalism society.

City officials will study, at their meeting next month, a chart of meter tapping fees of area cities, with a view toward hiking the local tapping fees, which, City Secretary Joe Seagler has advised the Commission, are the lowest of all area cities.

It's Time to Plan for Summer Baseball Program ...

Although the winter has just started and baseball weather may seem like a long way off, it's already time to give serious consideration to next season's Babe Ruth League and Little League operation for Morton.

In both leagues, national charters are secured a few months before the season's play gets underway, and the best operated league is the one in which plans for the league's operation are made ahead of time.

Morton's Little League, which has operated efficiently and effectively under the leadership of M. C. Ledbetter as League executive Secretary and the competent guidance of a state of officers, must undergo changes.

Judge Ledbetter, who has coordinated league activities for the past several years, has said he will not have the time to devote to league activities and must step down. League President Roy Hill has also said he will not continue in that capacity. The status of team managers is not known at this time.

In the Babe Ruth League, director L. F. Russell has moved out of town and executive director Denton Thompson has moved to California. Here also, sweeping changes will be made if the league is to continue to function properly.

Now is the time for those interested in these programs, to start thinking about men who can replace these leaders and keep the leagues in operation.

It's not something that will be easily accomplished. Though no man is irreplaceable, it may be extremely difficult to find the men who will step into these positions. Early, long and careful consideration should be taken, lest when it's time for the leagues to "push off" next season, we awake and find ourselves without the necessary leaders.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Most important date for the Texas voter this month is Jan. 31.

After that it will be too late to get a poll tax receipt that will enable him to participate in this year's merry-go-round of political events.

Since 1960 is a presidential election year, lines will probably be long on the night of the 31st. Safest course is to do it now.

This year's poll tax receipts, for the first time, have a place for the owner's party affiliation to be stamped. But the voter doesn't have to decide this when he pays the tax.

Decision is made when the holder casts his primary vote. A person who votes in the Democratic primary will have his receipt stamped "Democrat." That means he can't go to a Republican convention that evening.

Also, if he fails to go to the Democratic primary to vote and doesn't have his receipt stamped at all, he can't get into a Democratic precinct convention.

As far as the general election in November is concerned, the new party registration law apparently makes little difference. There would be no way for anyone to know whether the holder of a receipt stamped for one party voted that party's straight ticket in the general election.

BLANKETS STATE — First goal of the Johnson - for - president organization in Texas has been reached.

Clubs have been organized in all 254 counties in the state, according to Director Larry Blackmon.

Goal was reached just about a month after the state headquarters was set up in Austin. In addition, there are about six other clubs in Texas and several out of state.

Supporters of Sen Lyndon Johnson are expected to keep the state lively during the coming months.

RELOCATION PAYMENTS UPHOLD — City officials and private utilities are joyful over a State Supreme Court's decision that will save the cities and companies some $28,000,000.

High court ruled constitutional the law that provides for the state to reimburse cities and companies for the expense of moving utilities for interstate highway building projects.

Law was passed by the Legislature in 1957. It was challenged by the Attorney General's Department on grounds it violated the constitutional prohibition of "donating" public funds to private firms.

Austin, Dallas and four utility companies were combined in the test case. Their attorneys contended the reimbursement was simply payment for work done for the state.

Austin city officials called the decision "a lifesaver." It will save the city $500,000 on one project. Dallas County will save an estimated $9,000,000.

Ninety percent of the money the state spends on the interstate highway system comes from the federal government.

TRAFFIC TOLL CUT — Texans were more careful than expected in their year end travel.

Department of Public Safety predicted that 111 would be killed on the roads during the Christmas and New Year period. Tentative total is only 91. There may be more if some of those seriously injured do not recover.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS director, thanked all the news organizations, official agencies and law enforcement officers who worked to make Texans safety conscious.

AUTO RATES BECOME ISSUE — Pros and cons of the new merit rating system for auto insurance are expected to be at issue in the 1960 campaign.

Some legislators have been highly critical of the plan to make drivers with accident and violation records pay more for insurance. Other lawmakers have defended it.

Gov. Price Daniel says he favors correction of any inequities that may exist in the program.

Industry is divided. A spokesman for the National Association of Independent Insurers has announced that his group will try to get the Insurance Board's plan replaced with a flexible rating law. Legislature has twice turned down flexible rating, which allows companies to set their own rates.

Other industry groups have endorsed the merit plan, some with statements that it may need adjustments, but should be given a fair trial.

THERMOMETERS ARE LEGALIZED — All the people who have been unknowingly breaking the law in regard to possession of mercury are off the hook.

Court of Criminal Appeals has declared void an old, forgotten section of a law making it a felony offense to have mercury without a bill of sale or proof of legal ownership.

Law was aimed at preventing the stealing of mercury from pipeline meters.

Uncounted thousands of housewives and doctors have flaunted it by buying thermometers and medicines containing mercury and throwing away the bill of sale.

TRINITY HEARING — Desirability of a new Trinity River Dam near Houston is still a point of controversy before the State Water Board.

Hearing began in November, recessed for the holidays, then began again with all participants swinging hard.

Houston and the Trinity River Authority are asking a permit to build a dam and a salt water barrier. Project would supply an estimated 1,200,000,000 gallons of water daily, the better part used by Houston.

San Jacinto River Authority is opposing the dam. Its spokesman contended Houston should develop the San Jacinto Basin. Trinity water to the Trinity Basin.

SHORT SNOOTS — State cigarette taxes for December totaled $6,738,896, almost a 50 percent increase from a year ago. License collections also were up, said state treasurer's office, from $318 in December, 1958, to $404 this year. . . . A statewide survey of the Texas oldsters is planned by the governor's committee on aging. Sen. Charles Martin of Hillsboro is chairman of the committee which is to hold a state conference next fall.

ENROLLMENT AT 680 — Enrollment in the Morton elementary school, which began during the fall harvest season, has leveled off at 680. It was announced this week by Principal Eli Douglas.

Continue to Teach, while Needs Are Unchanged ...

Morton's school teachers did not "walk out" of their classes after Christmas vacation.

Neither did the teachers of any other school in Cochran County — though a great many people had thought they might.

Actually, the teachers had not intended to conduct a walk out, and the administrators had not expected them to do so. As is always the case, in an announcement such as was made by the county teachers at a meeting last fall, a great deal of misunderstanding results.

In essence, what the teachers had voted to do, by a substantial majority, was to support the state teachers group in action to conduct a walk out of classrooms. If teachers statewide, decided that was the thing to do.

The action was in objection to the fact that the state legislature has taken no action concerning adoption of needed teaching reforms proposed by the Gilmer-Aiken Committee of 24.

The teachers took the same stand a number of other persons throughout the state of Texas had taken. They felt the proposed teaching legislation changes, including some salary increases, job security boosts, and additional teaching facilities, were asked for by the people of Texas.

These needed changes were arrived at by a group of non-educators, studying carefully the field of education. Cochran County has a committee that spent considerable hours on this project. At the grass roots level, Cochran County's recommendations were made to the state committee, along with the recommendations of committees from the state's other 253 counties.

Yet, because of the complex problems facing the State Legislature last term, no teaching legislation was passed. Teachers the state over, hoped a special session of Legislature would be held to pass some of these needed changes. The Legislature, on the other hand, was torn between certain knowledge that the public in Texas is still disgusted about the tremendous amount of money spent to conduct the last Legislative sessions, and the also certain knowledge that the people of Texas asked for school legislation.

They probably, placed more weight with the former knowledge, because there are more non-teachers in the state than there are teachers. But, DO NOT accuse the legislators of not calling a special session. It is not their job. That prerogative rests with the Governor.

All of this, is merely by way of explaining what Cochran County teachers did in a meeting last fall. They did not vote TO STRIKE, but to support the other teachers in the state, by joining such a strike, if it were conducted in a statewide basis.

All teachers did not vote for this action, but a substantial majority did. There are again many considerations to take under advisement, before voting "aye" or "nay" on this type of proposal.

Certainly one of the most important is to distinguish between "professional ethics" and "protection of their profession." Every teacher, like every other professional person, has the obligation to consider both of these things.

A professional person owes it to the public to maintain the highest possible standard of ethics in his profession. At the same time he owes it to his profession to protect the profession itself, in every possible way.

So for the clarification of those who were "half expecting" a walk out, let us merely state here again, no walk out was expected. No walk out was planned. No walk out occurred.

JUDGE JAMES G. DENTON SEEKS ELECTION TO CHIEF JUSTICE POST

LUBBOCK — Judge James G. Denton announced this week his candidacy for his first elective term as Chief Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh Supreme Judicial District. Judge Denton was appointed to the office last October following the death of Chief Justice E. L. Pitts.

He will run in the May 7th primaries as a candidate for the Democratic Party's nomination for the office.

Denton was judge for the 99th Judicial District (Lubbock County) at the time of his appointment to the Court of Civil Appeals. He served as District Judge for six and one half years. The Revenue representative revealed that many tax problems can be solved by studying the comprehensive instructions that accompany Federal income tax forms for 1959 or by telephoning the IRS number, P05-5706.

"Special taxpayer assistance day is every Monday, from 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. On that day," Mr. Nichols said, "we have a full crew aboard to give whatever individual or group help is needed."

The IRS office is located at 1600 Nineteenth Street, Lubbock, Texas.

Water Sanitation Discussion Conducted at Cochran Home Demonstration Council Meeting

The Cochran County Home Demonstration Council had its first meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was held in the Banquet Room of the County Activities Building with Mrs. Edward Brownlow, chairman, presiding.

Before the business session, Mr. V. T. Hancock from the Sanitation Department of the State Department of Health, Lubbock, discussed water sanitation as it applies to drinking water. Mr. Hancock said the most common cause of contamination in water wells is the cess pool, Septic tanks located at least 150 feet from water wells should be used to carry sewage and waste water from the house. A question and answer session showed the members' interest in water sanitation.

Presidents gave reports of their clubs' activities since the last Council meeting.

Announcement was made of the All Cotton Fashion Show in Lubbock. There will be showings at 1:30, 4:15 and 8:00 on January 26 in the Municipal Auditorium. The show is open to the public.

Committees made their recommendations for the year. These will be presented to clubs for their consideration before the February Council.

An exhibit of craft work was shown by Mrs. H. T. Gardner, Friendly Circle Home Demonstration Club.

All Clubs announced they would support the District Two 4-H Scholarship fund.

Attending the council meeting were Mrs. Brownlow of Lehman, chairman, Mrs. Bob Hamilton, Halfway, vice chairman; Mrs. Stanley Henderson, F. O. R. Club, Secretary; and Mrs. Jake Reid, Friendly Circle, Treasurer.

Other members present were Mimes, A. C. Jones, and C. D. Arnold, F. O. R. Club; L. Z. Scoggins and H. T. Gardner, Friendly Circle; Walter Dye, Ross Reaves and Leo Brooks, Halfway; Charles Sanders, T. H. Brooks, F. L. Fred, Lewis Walker, Lehman; F. Z. Payne and G. C. Keith, Whiteface; and Miss Leila Petty, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Visiting the Council for Mr. Hancock's talk were Homer Thompson, County Agricultural Agent, and Ed Thomas, Work Unit Supervisor for the Conservation Service.

Council Committees met at 10 a. m. Tuesday to prepare their recommendations. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by the group at the noon hour.

EFFICIENT FEEDING AND LIVESTOCK MANAGEMENT

By Dr. Gustav Bohstedt, Emeritus Professor of Animal Husbandry, University of Wisconsin

All Silage, No Hay For Cows

Silage as the only roughage for cows is not too preposterous an idea. After all, silage does not differ greatly from pasture. Both are green and succulent.

We would not object to cows on pasture having just grass to eat, and no other roughage, except that grain, of course, would be fed in keeping with milk production.

Milking cows have done all right during the winter on nothing but silage and grain. The management of the Charmany Farm near Madison, Wis., fed their 80-odd Guernsey silage for some five or six winters. If there had been anything seriously wrong with the practice it would have been stopped.

One thing needs to be said, however, that two kinds of silage were fed. The practice of providing corn silage at one feeding time and grass silage at the other made for a variety that the cows seemed to appreciate. The grass silage, or mixed legume and grass silage was the equivalent of mixed alfalfa and grass hay. It had a fair amount of protein, also calcium and other minerals along with its quota of carotene and other vitamins.

If only corn silage had been fed the grain mixture would have had to be fortified with perhaps both ground limestone and other phosphate. This would call for one per cent each, and the further addition of 20 pounds of trace mineral salt per ton would be desirable or even necessary unless the trace mineral salt were being fed free choice.

Question: Why is it that ground hay for cattle or ruminants is less digestible than chopped hay or long hay? At least experiment station reports are to that effect.

Answer: Digestion in a chemical and not a physical process. Particles of even the most finely ground hay would still look like huge boulders under a microscope, as compared with digested nutrients that are "ultramicroscopic," or soluble.

The trouble with ground hay is that it stays in the stomach too short a time for proper fermentation or digestion. Cattle fed ground hay hardly chew their cud at all. This is one indication that it has passed on through the rest of the stomachs and into the intestines in a largely undigested state.

Lions See Film On Algerian Schools

Members of the Morton Lions Club were urged to bring their wives and attend the Area Mid-Winter Conference set for Leveland Sunday, at their regular luncheon meeting this week.

Lion President J. C. Reynolds urged the club, which in 1938 was the sponsoring group for the Leveland Lions, host club to the conference to turn out strong in support of the program.

Lion Neal Rose of Morton is Zone Chairman this year.

It was explained that registration for the event Sunday will be from 10:30 to 12:30 a. m., followed by a luncheon featuring as guest speaker, Lion Sherman E. Lowe, of Salt Lake City, Utah. Following in the afternoon will be a program. Entertainment will be planned for Lion's ladies during the afternoon program.

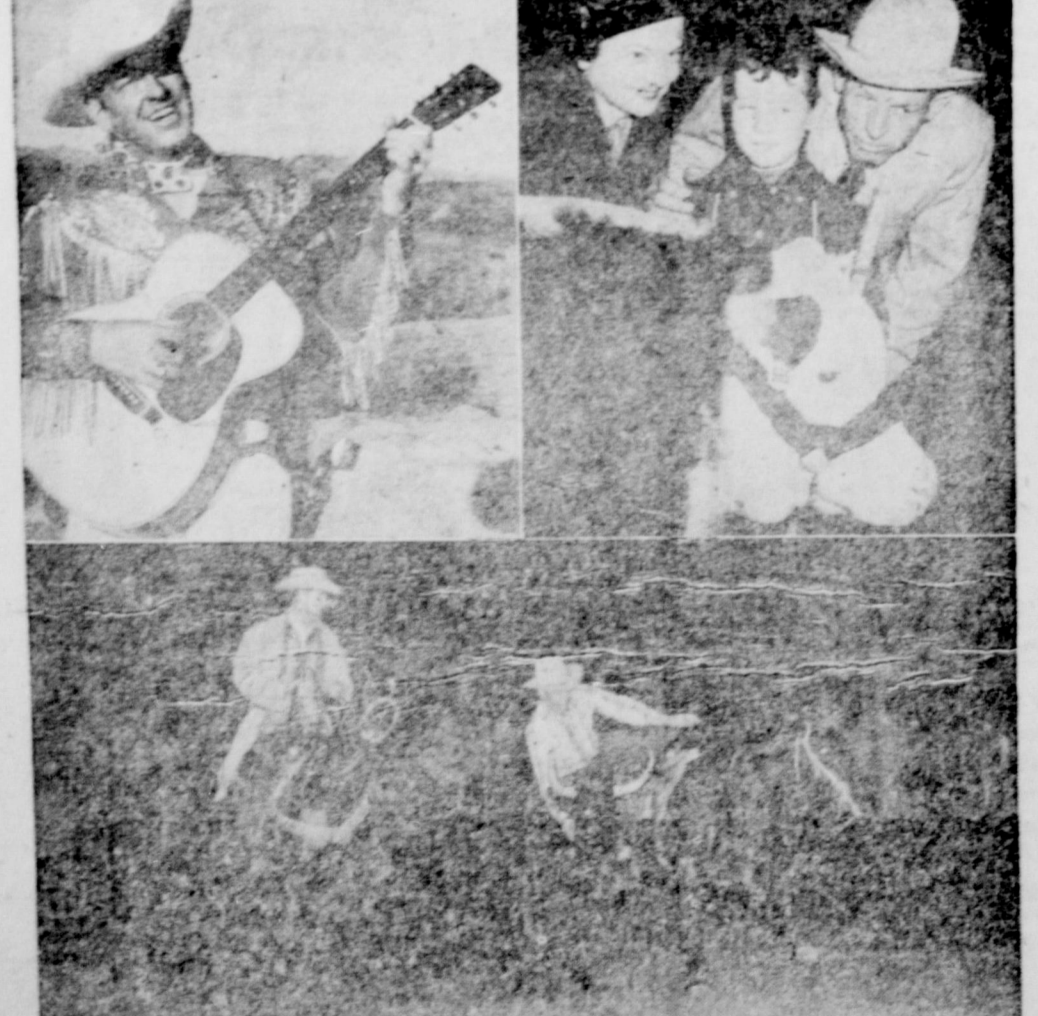

Guests present for the Wednesday program were Dr. B. H. Lee, guest of George Boring; John Stephens, Lubbock, guest of James McClure, and Millard Townsend, guest of Tip Wickman. Townsend then became a member of the club.

The program for the day was a film on Education in Algeria. At the conclusion of the film Lion Eddie Irwin asked for the Lions support in the Jaycees' present plans to investigate the formation of a Chamber of Commerce.

GUESTS OF BRIDGES

Visitors in the Ray Bridges home Tuesday of this week were Vick and Harlan Warrneke of Lodi, California.

LUBBOCK, (sp.) — Latest fashions made entirely of cotton will be featured at Texas Tech's second fashion show slated in Lubbock Municipal Auditorium, Jan. 25.

Each of the free showings — at 1:30 p. m., 4:15 p. m. and 8 p. m. — will consist of six scenes presenting cotton fabrics and fashions for "A Day at Home," "A Day in the City," "Travel in the C.," "Travel," "Holiday-USA," "American Invention - The Coordinated Wardrobe," and "Wedding."

The fashion show premiere of Vogue pattern styles for 1960 is aimed at demonstrating the effectiveness of all cotton fabrics in high fashion costumes. Dr. Ella Vaughn Tinsley, Tech home economics dean, said:

Fifty two garments prepared by students of all levels in the department of clothing and textiles will be shown. Representing the cotton producers in the area and acting as master of ceremonies will be Wilmer Smith of New Home, vice president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Narrating the fashion premiere will be Mrs. Bess Rothman, a Chicago fashion coordinator, and Dr. Gene Shelden, head of the department of clothing and textiles at Tech.

Phases of making, accessorizing and modeling garments will be done by Tech coeds majoring in home economics.

The show is made possible through the cooperation of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., the National Cotton Council of America and Vogue Pattern Service.

SAFETY IN OUTDOOR RECREATION

The purpose of recreation is to have fun and relaxation. Outdoor activities such as hunting, boating and camping are excellent forms of recreation. Safety is just as important in outdoor recreation as it is around the farm or home. Learning and heeding safety precautions will prevent accidents from marring your recreation.

HUNTING SAFETY

Following are the 10 commandments of safety.

- 1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun. This is the cardinal rule of gun safety.
2. Guns carried into camp or home must always be unloaded, and taken down or have actions open; guns always be encased until reaching the shooting area.

10. When packing for the trip, take extra clothes in case there are sudden weather changes.

SAFETY IN AGRICULTURE

Agriculture rates as this nation's most hazardous occupation from the standpoint of total number of farm workers. However, Agriculture ranks third in the death rate figures based on work deaths per 100,000 workers. Mining and Construction are ranked first and second in farm population has been increasing for the last 11 years. This accounts for the number of deaths. Such is not the case with the rate per 100,000 farm workers also declined to a low level of 54 deaths per 100,000. Substantial improvement in farm safety has been made in the last 11 years. Cross roads of farm accident prevention work for the death rate is becoming more difficult to sustain as the farm population continues to decline.
