Texas Industrial Week observed

Industrial Week — April 7 — was observed in Morton with a series of tours to acquaint Morton people with industries already established in the Morton area and to create interest in new industries. The tours, organized by the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce, included the sulphur industry, a printing establishment and a seed plant. The first day of Texas Industrial Week began Thursday, April 7. In order to learn more about the most important industrial plant near Morton, a group composed of Chamber of Commerce

Manager Johnny Johnson, Mayor Dean Weatherly, City Secretary Eira Oden, Cochran Power and Light manager Rusty Reeder, and a Tribune reporter visited the company's president in his offices at Midland.

Roy Cambell, president of National Sulphur Company, explained the method used by the Lehman plant to secure sulphur in a usable form. In the course of an explanation of the chemical and technical aspects of the Lehman plant, Campbell said 18 different techniques were tried before one was discovered that could make the Lehman plant practical.

He said thousands of products can be made from sulphur and his company is constantly looking for new products. He added that two new products are being developed now. When asked about the possibility of manufacturing plants near Lehman to use the sulphur obtained at the Lehman plant, Campbell said there was "a good chance" for such factories in the future.

The Lehman plant can produce two tons of sulphur daily, and also produce sulphur products for the fertilizer industry. Flaked elemental sulphur, ammonium thio-sulfate, and a new form—prilled sulphur—are among these products. Campbell said the Lehman plant is the only thio sulfate producing operation in this area. Only one other plant is in the nation — in California.

The prilling process developed by National Sulphur is being patented, making National Sulphur the only producers of this product in the world. National Sulphur Company is only one of several companies developed from a partnership beginning Jan. 1, 1955. Campbell became a partner in 1965.

Campbell said workers at the Lehman plant seem to like the town and people of Morton and pointed out that no one has turned down an opportunity to work at the Lehman plant after having seen the plant and the towns near it.

The Morton group was treated to dinner at the Petroleum Club in Midland by Campbell, terminating their investigation of the sulphur industry.

Returning to Morton, the group stopped at The Denver City Press in Denver City to examine the plant where the Morton Tribune is printed. They were shown the presses, the composing room and a variety of machines used to produce pictures and type for the paper. They left with souvenir samples of type bearing their names.

The third tour was made Tuesday afternoon, April 17. West Texas Feed plant was the destination of a larger group of Morton people who examined another of Morton's industries.

Valedictorian and salutatorian for 1965 class named

Valedictorian and Salutatorian of the Morton High School Senior Class of 1965 were named this week. High School Principal Bill Matthews announced that Mike Egger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Egger, Route Two, Morton, will be valedictorian and Ronald Smart son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smart, 709 Southwest First Street will be Salutatorian.

These honors are determined by the honor-point average of senior students, Matthews said. Egger, with an average of 11.18, missed highest possible score of 12.0 by only two-one-hundredths of a point.

Smart compiled an honor point score of 11.0, missing the highest possible score by only one point.

General telephone company revises rate, time listing

New terminology and new benefits related to long distance calling became effective April 1, according to information released today by General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

The new terms describe in a more uniform manner when rates are effective and are as follows: (1) Day rates refer to long distance rates in effect from 4:30 a. m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

(2) Evening rates refer to rates in effect from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and all day Saturday.

(3) Night rates are rates in effect from 8:00 p.m. to 4:30 a.m. Monday through Friday and all day Sunday.

Least expensive

Night rates are the least expensive, while evening rates are lower than day rates, according to a company spokesman.

The reduction in interstate rates effective April 1 was announced earlier this year by the Federal Communications Commission.

Taylor, Seaney and Williamson win council posts

Droves of Morton voters marked their ballots Tuesday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. as three candidates were selected to fill positions on the Morton City Council. Winners of the alderman election were T. K. Williamson, Elma Seaney and W. L. Taylor.

Taylor received the most votes—270 — giving him a substantial lead over the other nine candidates. Seaney polled the second-highest number of votes — 230 — and Williamson won the third alderman post with 198 votes.

Of the losing candidates Everett (Slick) Nichols polled the most votes, accumulating 126. Behind him was Simon Marina with 92 votes. Marina was followed by E. L. (Snowball) Willis who received 86 votes. Paul Baker polled 44 votes. C. G. Richards, 36; G. G. (Dude) Holloman, 33; and W. L. (Teener) Hancock trailed with 24 votes.

Three write-in candidates received votes. Ballots with the following names — and spellings — each received one vote. They were Jack Cartright, Donnie Simpson and Toney Doty.

A total of 392 votes were cast — in person and two as absentee ballots. City officials said a lack of accurate records makes judgement difficult, but estimates that this is "at least a near record turn-out." It is higher than the number of ballots cast in those

Elect 3 to school board

Voters on the Morton Independent School District turned out, though only in small numbers, Saturday to re-elect two incumbents and one new member to the school board of trustees.

Re-elected were Francis Shiflett and L. T. Lemons, both farmers — and the only incumbents. Weldon Newsom, the third board member whose term expires, chose not to run for re-election.

Newly elected to the board is another farmer, Max Bowers. Bowers led the race for the three positions on the board of education with 122 votes, 22 more votes than his nearest competitor, Shiflett who received 100 votes. Short was only one vote behind Shiflett with 99 votes.

Unsuccessful candidates were Owen Egger who polled 82 votes, M. L. Abbe who received 55 votes, and Fred Payne who gathered 45 votes — just four short of the winning bracket. Egger and Abbe are farmers and Payne is an accountant and real estate agent.

Besides the six formal candidates, there were two write-in candidates. They were Hugh Hanson and Truman Smith who each polled only one vote.

The total number of ballots cast in this election was 187. School officials described the turn-out as the polls as "a little on the light side." Some school officials remembered elections in which one candidate polled more than the total number of votes cast in this election.

Votes were canvassed at a special meeting of the board of trustees Monday afternoon, April 5, at the board's usual meeting room in the office of the superintendent. Other business transacted at the special meeting was to accept the resignation of a high school teacher, to discuss a school board workshop and to set the schedule for school dismissal for Easter vacation.

The board voted to accept the resignation of auto mechanics teacher Wilber R. Morgan who stated in his letter of resignation that he wished to study his subject more before continuing as an instructor. He said he hoped to teach in the Morton system again after he had improved his mastery of his subject. Superintendent Ray Lanier told the board Morgan may study at Texas A&M University. The resignation will become effective at the end of the present school term.

Board members were reminded by Lanier that a workshop for school board members will be conducted the afternoon of Monday, April 12, at Lubbock. Several board members expressed interest in attending the meeting, but no definite commitments were made, though Lanier was instructed to make reservations at the workshop as soon as board members are

'65 Indian Capers group turns to new record sales

Indian Capers, Morton High School Choir's annual musical variety show was climaxed Thursday, April 1, with the coronation of "Miss Indian Capers" — Carol Williams, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Williams, 506 East Hayes.

Miss Williams, who has been a choir member since her junior year, was one of three candidates nominated by the choir members by secret ballot. A second balloting the day of Indian Capers selected her as "Miss Indian Capers."

Besides singing in the choir and serving as accompanist for the Triple Trio, the pretty senior is a member of the National Honor Society, vice-president of the senior class and a member of Future Teachers of America.

She plans to attend Baylor University in Waco and said she may major in pre medical work, though she is not yet certain.

Choir director Guy McLain said the money earned by the performance has not yet been counted, nor is there an accurate record of the number of "Indian Capers" albums made up of numbers performed at the public showing of the Capers — sold at this time. Money from the album sales and the variety show is the sole source financing a trip to a music festival at Corpus Christi for the choir.

McLain said now that the actual performance is over, the choir members are concentrating their efforts on selling the record album. He said they are selling individually now, though the albums may be placed in stores for distribution later. He said there is no accurate record of the number of albums sold so far, but if forced to guess he estimates the number at 150 or more.

The bulletin board of the choir room is decorated with letters of appreciation from persons who attended Indian Capers — 1965, and choir members seem as enthusiastic about selling their record as they were about the actual performance at the County Activity Building last week.

A list of choir members participating in the show was made by McLain. They are Mayland Abbe, Terry Angling, Billy Baker, Eddie Bedwell, Alice Black, Susan

Request names of local veterans for time capsule

A time capsule locked in the cornerstone or court of honor of an American Legion Department Headquarters Building to be constructed soon in Austin will contain the names of several Morton people. American Legion representative Vaughn Killian said he recently received a letter from Austin asking for a list of names of current members of the Morton chapter of the American Legion to place in the time capsule.

While no date was specified in the letter, it was stated that the capsule will eventually be opened at some future date.

The letter said construction of the new American Legion building is scheduled to begin in 90 days.

Other side of Selma story is told

(Editor's note: The following article appeared recently in the Lynn County News, Tahoka, Tex. It presents another side of the Selma, Ala., story. We do not guarantee that the story is 100% correct, but it is interesting. Mr. Rowe is known in Morton.)

Would you like to hear some of the true facts from the other side about the Selma, Alabama, racial disorders?

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. (Cap) Rowe returned home Friday night from a visit with his two sisters in that city, and while there saw some of the sights pictured in the newspapers and on television, visited personally over the area in question.

"Cap" declares the news services, most represented by biased northern reporters, magazine writers, and television cameramen, as well as the President of the United States, have grossly misrepresented the situation or told half-truths.

His two sisters are Mrs. W. M. Elbert, wife of a physician, and Miss Emma Faye Rowe, a dental technician, and both have lived in Selma many years.

The facts which follow were gleaned from personal visits by "Cap", information furnished by his kin, and from the local news papers, three copies of which, the Selma Times-Journal, he brought The News.

Selma is an old Southern town 100 years old, having a population of 15,000 Negroes, 14,000 whites. The Negro schools are the best in town, and there are two fine Negro Colleges here.

Until recently there has been little racial hatred, although segregated most white and Colored people are friends and have lived in harmony. Most Colored people are of the better class, but there is quite a group of uneducated, near-do-wells who won't work, and many of them are lawless.

Even during this strife, the better class Negroes have "no truck" with the racial disorders, are going about their business, and he saw and met many of them in stores.

Like most Southern states, Negroes did not vote until a few years ago, 1962, but all qualified have been allowed to register according to state laws, the same as whites, and those qualified have not been denied a vote.

Trouble started some time back when Rev. Martin Luther King came to town from Montgomery in a U.S. Government car, escorted by U.S. Government men. Sheriff James G. Clark, Public Safety Director George C. Wallace, questioned the use of a Government car by a Civil Rights agitator. This got into the national press and King and Government officials were embarrassed. As a result, Rev. King told them he would make Montgomery, Selma, and Alabama sorry they gave him trouble over the Government car use.

He kept his promise. For nine weeks Selma has been under siege by mobs, mostly white people from other parts of the nation, about 600 most of the time, and many of these ministers, rabbis, priests, and nuns. Over fifty percent of the marchers are white.

These outsiders — Cap Rowe saw with his own eyes — are staying in the Negro "red light" district in a Negro slum, and "cap" personally saw some of them arm-in-arm with some of the women.

In the same "red light" district is a Negro cafe, where one Rev. James Reebe, a white Unitarian preacher from Boston, was clubbed to death by a white citizen of Selma, accompanied by four other white men. The man wielding the lethal club has a crime history of 23 arrests, and both he and his associates were dubbed as "thugs."

Outsiders, even some of the white ministers, are quoted as saying they were sent to Selma on orders not to associate with white people at all, not even to eat in white restaurants or stay in white hotels. Even the Nuns are housed in the slum district.

Cap saw the church headquarters where the protesters meet to get their orders. In this church, a Negro minister made a statement requesting outsiders to "be careful with our Negro girls and women because, if you don't, there will be too many of them pregnant when you leave."

Negro marchers joining in the protests, principally the near-do-wells from the slums, try to get arrested because they are paid $7.50 for each arrest by the NAACP.

These Negroes spit on, curse, throw stones at, and taunt State troopers and police — and Rowe saw some of this — to try to make the officers attack.

Probably, some officers lost their tempers and were rough on the marchers at times. Spectators have roughed up some, especially outside agitators.

An officer was pictured in the nation's press with a billy club raised over a Negro woman, and caption lines said he was beating her. Other pictures available locally in Selma showed the woman beating the officer with the club, which he had just wrested from her hands when the publicized picture was taken.

If it were not for the State troopers, however, "Cap" says, the lives of the outside agitators would be in danger from local hot heads, for principal heat locally is generated by the coming of the outside white agitators. Local people are not bothering local Negroes, with whom they are friends, except for the lawbreakers.

Alabama's law requires all people to be literate, to be able to read and write and to have reached the fourth grade level in school. New York state requires an eighth grade level to vote. Both white and black must register, according to law, on certain days. No Negro who can qualify has been denied the right to register or to vote — according to both Cap's information and statements in Selma papers — except when mobs stormed the registration places to make such registering impossible.

During January registration days, registrars were not even busy most of the time. This extended into February. Then, Negro marchers began flooding the registration places at given times. Naturally, all could not register at once. At other times, none appeared.

When time was extended 10 days for new Negro registrants, only 16 showed up. As quick as the time was over, the mobs stormed the registration places again.

Many Negroes have registered. Many do not want to register, just make trouble.

No person, white or black, has been asked to quote the Constitution. No such tests are given or required in Alabama.

"Cap" was pretty well convinced Selma is not mistreating anyone that is not asking for trouble or attempting to force trouble. He says Alabama can handle the situation easily if the agitators get out, because all upright Negroes want peace and know they can register when qualified.

Furthermore, no Negro is denied entrance to a hospital, as charged but on the contrary, his brother-in-law, says Negroes are treated by him and others just the same as the white people in Selma hospitals.

He told us about many observations and instances for which we do not have room here.

But he came home greatly disturbed, and very disillusioned about the trend of times, the inciting of riots under Government supervision and protection, the stirring up of racial prejudice, and the unjust and untrue publicity.

Estate planning topic of meeting called for tonight

Farmers in Cochran County have been invited to an educational meeting at the auditorium of the Cochran County Activity Building in Morton Thursday, April 8, at 7:45 p.m. where two experts will offer advice on estate planning.

County Agricultural Agent Homer E. Thompson said the estate planning session was planned in response to the requests of many farmers in this area. Designing wills that reduce tax liability through federal estate tax, state inheritance tax, and federal gift tax will be the subject discussed by John Seibert, area farm management specialist from Lubbock and Lockwood Grigg of the Internal Revenue Service, also of Lubbock. Both men will explain wills and estate planning and answer questions.

"There is no doubt that many estates in Cochran County have been reduced considerably and much money has been lost by the heirs to the estates," Thompson said.

Beaumont is French for "beautiful hill."

Local teams to compete in state TABY tourney

The Honorable John Connally, Governor of Texas, has officially declared the week of the TABY State Team Championships as Youth Bowling Week in Texas.

The entire week of April 19 through April 25, 1965 will be observed throughout the state as Youth Bowling Week, with the highlight being the TABY State Tournament in Houston on the 24th and 25th.

Both the junior and senior boys TABY teams from Morton will be participating in the state tournament, by virtue of their regional championship gained recently in San Angelo.

Members of the senior team are Donnie Dewbre, David Newsom, Jimmy Studdard, Warren Williamson, Erwin Cooper, and Randy DeBusk. The junior team is composed of Dick Vanlandingham, Deryl Srygley, Tommy DeBusk, Byron Willis, Ray King, and Herschel Lamar.

In making his proclamation, Governor Connally recognized that "among the most enthusiastic participants in bowling are the thousands of youth who find in this sport a healthy atmosphere wherein the spirit of competition can be enjoyed."

The 4th Annual Tournament will bring together the 80 top TABY teams who qualified for the Houston event via victories in City, District and then Regional Tournament conducted throughout Texas.

In addition to crowning champions in 10 separate divisions, the tournament will also feature the Morton's Banquet of Champions for all contestants and their coaches, as well as hundreds of parents and other youth bowling enthusiasts. The banquet, sponsored by the Morton Food Company of Dallas, will be held in Houston's fabulous new Domes Stadium, where the young bowlers will also be treated to a National League baseball game between the Houston Astros and the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The two-day event, the largest youth bowling tournament ever staged in Texas, begins with a three-game elimination round on Saturday morning, continues with a three-game semi-final round that afternoon and adds a climatic three-game final round on Sunday afternoon.

Competing for the state title against the Morton teams will be bowlers from El Paso, Ft. Worth, Dallas, Houston, Corpus Christi, Beaumont and Irving.

The Morton boys will be accompanied on their Houston trip by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. DeBusk, Mrs. T. K. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Dewbre, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Newsom, Mrs. J. T. Studdard, Mrs. Don Lamar, and Mrs. Fred Morrison, coach of the teams.

The local teams have paid their own way to the district and regional tournaments, which they won, and will be paying their own expenses on the Houston trip.

Peace Corps test for Morton area

Morton area residents wishing to test their aptitudes for Peace Corps service will have an opportunity to write aptitude tests at 9 a.m. Saturday, April 10, at room 103 A of the Post Office Building in Lubbock.

Peace Corps spokesmen said the Peace Corps Placement Tests are neither passed nor failed, but indicate the area of greatest potential.

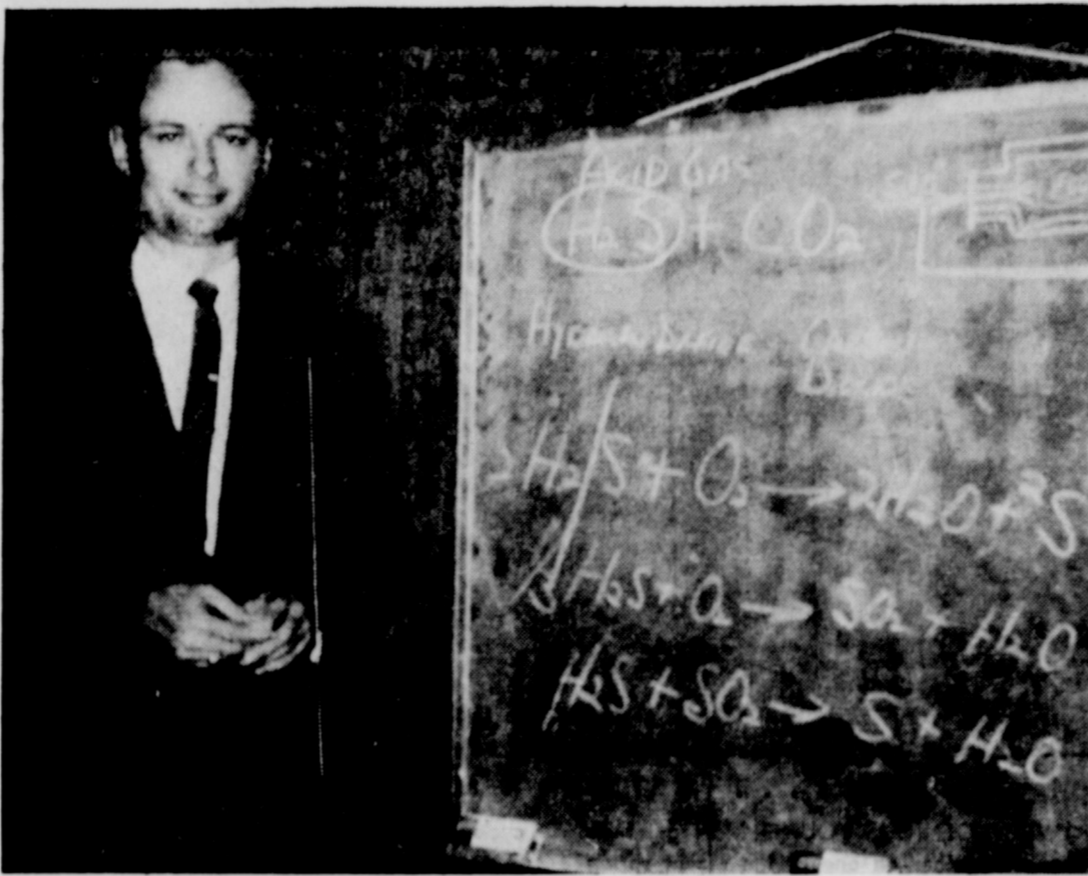

A Peace Corps Questionnaire must be filled out and brought to the examination unless previously submitted. Questionnaires can be obtained at post offices.

There are two parts to the Peace Corps Placement Test: a general aptitude test and a modern language test (for which knowledge of a foreign language is not necessary). Applicants should plan on about one and a half hours at the testing center, unless they wish to take the Spanish or French language achievement test, which requires an additional hour.

Test results are used, with the character references and Questionnaires, to provide the most suitable assignment for Volunteers overseas.

Posthumous award given to woman from Sundown

PLAINVIEW — To honor the late Mrs. Jim Reed, Sundown, South Plains Baptist Association has presented a rear projection cabinet to Home Life Building at Wayland Baptist College.

Mrs. Reed, who died in April, 1965, was a member of Sundown Baptist Church and served as Association Director of Young Woman's Auxiliary. Long active in Woman's Missionary Union in District IX, she was among those women who helped provide funds to build at Wayland the new Home Life Building to which the memorial gift has been made. While living in California for a brief time, she was instrumental in starting WMU work in her area.

The memorial plaque that accompanies this gift to Wayland states: "Faithful and energetic worker in her home church, her association and District IX . . . Beloved by many throughout the High Plains area."

This cabinet, which houses a twenty-eight-inch screen and has universal lenses and adapters, cost $280 and will be of value to the home and family education classes, as well as to classes using visual aids in teaching.

Among the major advantages of this gift is that the cabinet allows pictures and materials to be used in any light situation and also allows the teacher to lecture from the front of the classroom and not behind a projector.

Communications Commission and involves lower station-to-station day rates for calls over distances in excess of 600 miles, with the maximum rate being $2.00 for a coast-to-coast station-to-station day rate call.

In Texas, New Mexico and Louisiana the hours during which the day, evening and night rates for long distance calls within a state (intrastate) are in effect changed on April 1 to conform with the new terms described above, the announcement stated, but rates on intrastate calls are not affected.

E. H. Danner, president of General Telephone Company of the Southwest pointed out that the $1 maximum rate for 3-minute station-to-station interstate night calls was extended on February 1 to cover more hours during the week.

"In fact," Danner pointed out, "the telephone industry, along with many other industries, has been able to consistently lower long distance rates because of technical advancements and improved operating efficiency. For example, in 1915, a coast-to-coast long distance call costs $20.70."

The second stabbing took place at the home of Earnest Hawkins, the victim, at the Eddie Silhan farm, lawmen said, and arose from a family argument. Hancock said Hawkins was stabbed in the right arm by Mrs. Earnest Hawkins, his wife, as the result of a squabble over money.

The weapon used for this assault was a paring knife, the sheriff said.

No charges were filed against Mrs. Hawkins, but Earnest Hawkins was placed under protective custody and released Sunday, April 4.

District competition in tractor operating and entomology study, will be attended by 4-H'ers from Cochran County May 8 at Lubbock, according to Homer Thompson, County Agricultural Agent.

Wearing new jackets . . . A GROUP OF Morton High School band members lounge in band jackets available to those who earn a band letter. The jackets are gray with dark leather sleeves. Latest shipment of the jackets arrived about two weeks ago, band director Stockdale said. TRIBpx.

High School band gets jackets for letterman patches

Eighteen more members of the Morton High School Band are sporting two-tone gray jackets now. These jackets are special, though. They are worn only by about 30 band members who have proved their proficiency with a musical instrument.

The practice of getting jackets on which to display band letters began last year, Stockdale said. Each student who qualifies can buy one of the band jackets for his letter. Not a few of the jackets are also hosts to all-region patches worn by students who fared well in regional competition.

This is the second year that this kind of jacket has been ordered, Stockdale said. They arrived about two weeks ago.

Blue ribbon won by local 4-H'er for food display

Fried chicken earned Marilyn Cade, a member of the Cochran County senior 4-H Club, a blue ribbon at a district contest in Lubbock Saturday, April 3.

Miss Cade, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cade, was awarded the ribbon for her display of fried chicken in the junior division of a 4-H food show where she was the only Cochran County contestant.

Work continues on rodeo arena

Work on a large arena at the Rodeo Grounds south of Whiteface continues, according to Cochran County Agricultural Agent Homer Thompson. Last Saturday fence posts were set up, corner posts stayed, and some wire put on by 4-H'ers and about nine adult leaders.

"I rather think they can finish it this coming Saturday," Thompson said, referring to Saturday, April 10, when the 4-H'ers and adults will again work on the arena. Thompson said the ground within the fence will be disked in order to make the show-grounds softer for the hooves of horses.

Earnings date back to pre-historic times.

L'Allegro sponsors safari film

Morton area residents are in for a big treat Thursday, April 22, when they will be able to enjoy 75 minutes of real African adventure as W. G. McMillan, Jr., of Lubbock presents a film and commentary of a 1964 safari.

The program will be held at 8:00 in the County Activities Building Auditorium, and is sponsored by the L'Allegro Study Club. All proceeds from the program above expenses will be donated to the Cancer Fund, now underway in Morton.

Mr. McMillan, who has presented the program numerous times in Lubbock and the surrounding area, returned from the safari with 22 mounts, including 14 different species. He was accompanied on the trip by his wife.

Housewarming honors Mr. and Mrs. Jack Russell

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Russell were honored Friday night with a housewarming. Hostesses were Mrs. Van Green, Mrs. John Haggard, Mrs. H. B. Barker and Mrs. George Boring.

Punch, coffee and cookies were served from a table covered with a pink linen cloth. Centerpiece was an Easter tree trimmed with candy eggs. Approximately 40 guests attended the occasion.

The McMillans accompanied a party of about 20 on the safari, led by Mr. Clyde Sussens, big game hunter and guide from the Union of South Africa. Their first 14 day hunting epoch unfolded on a 60,000 acre ranch in the southern part of Rhodesia. Using high-powered rifles, McMillan shot the greater kudu, water buck, zebra, wildebeest, wart hog and steinbok.

Among other scenes in the hour and 14 minute movie those present will see Africa's mighty Zambeze River, primitive Bushmen caves and paintings, a hippo charging a hunter; wild native dances, stalking of giant greater kudu, and herds of giant elephants. Also shown will be Africa's greatest splendor, the Victoria Falls.

Tickets for the movie, which is filmed in gorgeous tropical color, are available from any member of the L'Allegro Study Club, or may be purchased at the door.

Young riflemen will have chance for improvement

Gunshots will resound this afternoon at a caliche pit one mile west of Bledsoe as 4-H riflemen practice marksmanship and safety with rifles. Dale Thoms, 4-H leader from Bledsoe, will direct the young riflemen.

County Agriculture Agent Homer Thompson said 4-H boys and girls of all ages are welcome to participate at the training sessions Tuesday and Thursday afternoons after school. He said that those from Morton and Whiteface will also be using the caliche pit at Bledsoe because a shooting range near Morton or Whiteface could not be secured.

A team to represent this county in district competition at Lubbock May 8 will be chosen from those shooting at the pit near Bledsoe, Thompson said.

The 4-H'ers will practice with bolt action rifles and ammunition will be furnished at the target grounds.

The marksmen will pair-off with one shooting while the other watches his shooting-form. Then they will exchange duties as the first rifleman catches and the first coach shoots.

Oklahoma trees stop Texas winds

Cochran County Extension Agent Homer Thompson was informed this week that windbreak planting stock will be shipped to this area about April 1, a somewhat later date than is usual.

A letter from Forestry Specialist W. A. Smith explains that inclement weather at the Oklahoma nursery where the windbreaks are obtained resulted in the later shipping date. "However," he adds, "this will not affect the quality of the stock or its ability to survive."

Smith also pointed out that the Texas Forest Service reports orders for windbreak trees and shrubs reached an all time high this spring with about 270,000 plants including Southern pines ordered as windbreaks.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Hancock were their son, Mr. and Mrs. Herschell Hancock and family of Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Stafford and family visited in Lubbock Sunday with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Duncan.

WONDERFUL FEELING!

"Oh! I'm not really steering, but my friend has permitted me to sit here, and I have really had a good time just pretending."

Does this remind you of times when you have "Pretended"? Remember when some friend allowed you to sit behind the wheel of a boat or a new car and... well, you know the rest.

Today we are still pretending, because nothing really belongs to us. The Bible Says... "The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein." Psalm 24-1.

According to this, God is truly our friend and permits us to use the things of this world. For these things, and God's greatest gift, his Son, we should attend worship services each week and give thanks.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

News from Across the Border

By GAYLE LATIMER

Howdy, one and all. Since our "big" rain, I feel wonderful but a little awed. I mean showers three days in a row is liable to unhinge anyone, especially one on the brink already like me.

I made a grave mistake this week. I waited until Saturday morning to call and most of my neighbors were gone. Most of my news was given to me by Helen Pool.

She told me that the F.F.A. boys of Causey were in Los Cruces for livestock judging. From our community going were Sidney Pool and Tommy Wyatt, Harvey Lee Balko took a car. The boys left Thursday and came home Saturday.

Wednesday, Helen went to Portales. Then she, Layce Lynn, Hartzell, and Mrs. Walter Clifton went on to Clovis shopping. I asked Helen if they accomplished much and she said that with four children, they didn't do much shopping, but they had fun.

Gene Pool went to Guymon, Oklahoma on business Wednesday. Helen said he left after she did and was home before she returned from Clovis. That's flying for you.

Barbara Ashbrook and Helen Pool helped the 5th and 6th grades with their skating party last Thursday evening. The party was held in Portales.

The Pools visited Tuesday evening with Preacher Sammy Sowder and his family.

Ava Lee Balko is playing post office this weekend. She is running the Lingo Post Office while Mrs. C. H. Balk is in Lubbock.

Mrs. G. H. Baldo left for Lubbock Friday for the weekend. She is visiting the Sam Davises and the Leon Balkos.

The James Newberrys were guests Thursday morning of Harvey and Ave Lee Balko.

Ava Lee said they haven't done anything except play volleyball at Causey. Causey had a tournament this week.

Barbara Ashbrook visited the Causey Home Democastion Club last week. Holding club was Jimmy Nunnally.

Preacher Sammy Sowder came by our house Friday. He has a new light green Volkswagen. Farmers, you can relax, that's not a new breed of cotton weevils, that's only Sammy making his weekly call.

Charley's mama, Lois Latimer came over last Tuesday. She took Laurie home with her while Charley and I bowled.

Speaking of bowling, Charley and I placed second in the 369 no tap that was running at the Morton Bowling Alley. We bow to the chaps Ethel Harris and Jo Lamb with their 1672 series. Charley and I had a 1649 series.

Mother, Laura Capps, spent Thursday and Friday night with us. She is preparing to leave for Tulsa, Oklahoma to see her sister, Hazel Williams.
