Politicians would cut farm production one-third

Glenn W. Thompson, Mor- change would become effective with the 1966 crop.

In skip-row planting, strips of cotton are alternated with strips of idle land. Under present rules, the idle land beyond half of a normal row is not counted in computing acreage for cotton allotment purposes. Thus, a farmer with alternating rows of cotton and a fifty acre allotment, could plant over a 100 acre area, skipping each second row, and still be considered as being within his 50 acre allowance for support purposes. Under the change, a part of the idle land would be considered as being in cotton for allotment purposes. Government officials contend that plants adjacent to idle land produce more cotton than those planted close together in solid-row patterns, with no land left idle.

Government support on cotton has been reduced a total of $17.50 a bale this year. The 1965 cotton allotment is set at 16 million acres, which is the bare minimum permitted by present law yet it is expected that this reduction of a million acres will result in production that will exceed use plus export and that there will be a large carry-over for the fourth straight year in U.S. cotton supplies.

Congressman George Mahon sent copies of a number of letters which he has written to government officials in protest to the change in rules on skip-row planting. In one of these addressed to Deputy Secretary of Agriculture, Charles Murphy, Mahon said, "Some estimate that as a result of skip-row, we are producing a third more cotton than we otherwise would produce. I pointed out to officials here that if they are correct in assuming that skip-row is responsible for one-third of our cotton production, then to eliminate skip-row would certainly represent a disastrous blow to cotton farmers, especially dry land cotton farmers." Mahon said he thought the proposed change would eliminate a number of cotton farmers as producers.

THE MORTON Sheriff's Posse is a growing, growing deal as anyone can plainly see from this photo. It was not explained exactly when this new member will have to pay his initiation fee and first year's dues, but costs are nominal, according to Robert Richards, and anyone can easily afford to be a member. Space is available for anyone at the rodeo grounds who wants to build his own shed and corral and start his own ramada. The land belongs to the county and is available free for those who want to use it for a horse — or, in this case, horses. See story, MORTON SHERIFF, column 8.

WILL HOLD MOTEL FOR MORTON MEET

A public meeting of persons interested in seeing a motel or tourist court built in Morton will be held Friday night, June 4, at the Chamber of Commerce offices, at 8:00 p.m., it was announced today.

Interest in this project of the chamber has been high, and numerous inquiries have been made about the proposition since it was first aired several weeks ago.

Figures on the cost of construction of a motel will be presented to the group Friday night, and a proposal for the forming of a local corporation for the purpose of building such a structure will be aired. Anyone interested in seeing Morton obtain a modern, up-to-date motel is invited to attend the meeting.

The chamber of commerce board of directors, in its last meeting, voted to undertake the search for a motel as one of their immediate projects. They went on record as stating that they would help any corporation, motel chain, or individual in any way possible in the building of a motel. Since this announcement, considerable interest has been shown by numerous individuals in the project, thus the reason for the called meeting Friday night.

It was pointed out that those present at the Friday night meeting need not be a member of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce.

Clean-up drive rolls through Cochran County

City clean-up crews are rolling through city streets and alleys, block by block, one section of the city after another. Crews started in the southeast section of the city moving from Main Street east to the city limits and even beyond. The clean-up armada of city equipment is now reported past Grant Street and going north. By week's end they are expected to invade the "flats" in the north-east section of the city.

By the first of next week, trucks and crews with equipment are expected to begin their campaign in the south-west section of Morton and proceed north going as far east as Main. By the end of next week, the teams will be in Morton's north-west extremities and the city-county clean-up campaign of 1965 will be nearing a hoped for saturation job of "Clean-up, Fix-up, Paint-up" here.

Every citizen is asked to help, to do his part, to help in some way. By an intensified campaign once each year, if each and every person will do what he or she can, all at one time, Morton can be made a better, more attractive place to live, through the efforts of everyone of us.

The Neil Brownd family were honored at open house in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wood. Mrs. Don Hoffman and Mrs. Wood were the hostesses. The Brownnds will make their home in Levelland.

Morton Negro remains in jail, faces 2 charges

C. L. Robinson, Morton negro, is in county jail unable to make $500 bond charged with drinking in public and transporting alcoholic beverages illegally. Robinson was arrested Sunday morning by Morton police chief Burtis Cloud who confiscated a case of quarts of beer and told Robinson to come to the court house Monday morning. Later in the day, Bobby Word arrested the same man and brought him to the jail for drinking in the street in front of the Tampico Cafe located on northeast 5th Street in the 400 block. Word confiscated about a third of a bottle of gin which Robinson had left on him. Robinson is the father of eight children and has lived in Morton for the past four or five years. He is already on probation for selling liquor here and recently completed a six-months jail sentence in Bailey county for possession of liquor. He served a year in the state penitentiary before coming to Morton for shooting a man.

Maximum sentence could run $1,000 fine and two years in jail but Robinson will "probably get off with about a $100 fine", according to a reliable informant. The state would have to support his family if he were in jail.

Mrs. Nath Crockett attended a family reunion in Littlefield last weekend. The get-together was held in the community building where the family stayed for two days and nights. There were approximately 75 people that attended the reunion.

seven bus drivers, six custodial workers, five lunch room people, one bus mechanic, the tax collector, several clerks and secretaries and members of the School Board, several special guests present.

James Cunningham, Superintendent, presided and gave out calendars for the next school term telling when the various events will take place leading up to the start of the school next year. Cunningham gave a talk thanking all those present for their cooperation during the past year and telling them what to expect that might be different or better done next year.

This year, 1965, Cochran County placed in third place in the district 4-H Elimination Contest May 8, at Texas Tech College.

The three entomology winners were: Herman McCamish, Knox and Terrill Hansen.

Pruitt believes these boys will win the District 4-H contest next year with hard work and effort the county agent says.

The entomology field may have new horizons to club members who are seeking career opportunities for advance study. Entomologists are in much demand the agent said.

Five boys from county to Salvation Army camp

Approximately 800 boys chosen from 289 Salvation Army Service Unit Committees in Texas will attend a full week of outdoor activities at the Salvation Army's Camp Hovitzell near Dallas this summer", according to Bob Travis, Morton chairman of the organization.

Local boys who will attend the camp include Leslie Carter and Keith Embry, both of Morton. Glenn Cox and Bobby Mosly of Whiteface and Clifford St. Clair of Bledsoe. The boys will be driven to camp by Otis Parr, SA committee member from Bledsoe.

Located on a rolling, heavily wooded tract of 340 acres, Camp Hovitzell is seven miles south of Midlohan, eight miles west of Waxahachie, and within an hour's drive of Dallas. Wadonna Strother is shower honoree

Miss Wadonna Strother, bride-elect of Terry Davis, was honored with a miscellaneous shower May 29 in the home of Mrs. Weldon Newsom. The honoree was presented with a corsage of yellow roses.

The colors of yellow and white were used to adorn the serving table. White net, trimmed in lace, lay over a yellow cloth. The table was centered with a miniature bride and groom surrounded by a cluster of yellow roses. The table appointments were of silver and china. Refreshments of assorted chilled fruits and miniature muffins were served to 65 guests.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Maggie Galley, great grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Johnny Miller, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Buddy Miller, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Frank Angeline, Littlefield; Mrs. Joe Walden, Littlefield; Mrs. Bufford Hayes, Witharral; Mrs. Ken Polk, Witharral; Mrs. Cliff Nickleson, Clovis; Mrs. Clifford Ray Nickleson and Greg, Clovis; and Mrs. John Lackey, Haskell, grandmother of the bridegroom.

Equalization meet is scheduled for Tuesday, June 22

Cochran county commissioners met as a Board of Equalization last week. Some taxes were increased, a few were lowered and those who object to their assessments will have an opportunity to appear before the Board meeting at the Court House on June 22. The meeting will start at 10 a.m. and last until 5 p.m.

A notice is scheduled for publication in the Morton Tribune next week listing the names of property owners who have had their taxes changed. Tax payers are required, by law, to render an assessment of their property at the county Assessor's office each year and many fail to do so. A large percentage of those who have had their taxes changed have been those who failed to comply with the law which requires the owner render real estate assessment.

None of the tax changes are official until after the scheduled time for appeal.

LITTLE FRIEND

Any mother can tell about a child's love for her doll, and the world of PRETEND that they live in. They confide in the doll, reprimand them, and care for them.

The church is a real and true friend. The church may be counted on in times of need, in times of trouble, and in times of sorrow. The church also wants to share in your times of joy.

"A friend loveth at all times."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

News from Across the Border

By GAYLE LATIMER

Has the sand flown any of you away? We nearly went yesterday. I talked to my neighbors this week for the first time in weeks. I'm happy to report all of them are well.

Ava Lee said she and Havey Lee didn't do much but attended Little League games in Morton. Mark is too old this year to play. Harvey Lee is still managing, but one of the teams.

Saturday night the Steven Bryans of Morton were out visiting with the Harvey Balkos.

Phyllis had company Friday night. Judy Blakey spent the night with her.

Ava Lee visited with Jo Ann Blakey Saturday.

Mike McCasland of Morton spent Monday night with Mark Balko.

I talked to Barbara Ashbrook. She said they haven't ben anywhere or had company. She was busy sewing when I called her.

Helen Pool spent part of last week in Lubbock. Mrs. Jamie Clifton had minor surgery at the Methodist Hospital.

Helen attended Miss Barbara Beckham's wedding shower in Porgies Friday night.

Gene Pool went to Midland to get Mrs. McGee Friday and brought her out to stay with Mrs. Pool. He took her back Monday.

Some real good news is that Marvin Jones is out of the hospital two weeks earlier than he expected. I talked to him and he said he was doing fine, although his back is still a little stiff and sore.

We are expecting a visit next week from my sister whom I have never seen nor met. She has been looking for us for some time, and she was finally able to reach, by letter, my grandmother who in turn notified my mother. Carolyn plans to go to Tulsa to see Mother and then return by here. She lives in Waco, Texas. I'm very happy, excited and pleased. She hasn't seen mother or any of us in twenty-two years. She was three when her parents divorced.

Charley and I are bowling in our summer league. We started Monday night. We were pleased to hear that the Vernie Wiers might bowl on our league.

Charley and I are bowling in a Best Ball Tournament running at Frontier Lanes at Morton. We were in 3rd place until I let it go to my head and talked Charley into challenging 1st place Don and Fern Lamar. They trounced on us. We are now in 9th.

Ed Latimer, Charley's daddy, was in the Muleshoe hospital Thursday through Monday. We went Saturday and Sunday to see him.

Nan Authur, Mary K. and Rose Mary Johnson visited us Thursday.

Grandmama and Daddy Mac were over Friday night. Grandmama flew to Tulsa Saturday to attend her twin granddaughter's graduation.

Laurie and I stopped by Monday to see Nan, Mary D. and Rose Mary.

That is all for this week.

MONEY BAG IS MISSING AT THRIFTWAY

Doss Thriftway Super Market 400 South Main Street in Morton had a money sack stolen last Wednesday morning from the store office. The sack contained about $700. An estimated half of the $700 were credit or charge slips, which would have no cash value to the thief, about 25% was in checks and the balance was in cash.

Two money bags were laying side by side where they had been placed that morning after being taken from the safe. Each contained the receipts of the preceding day from one cash register each. One sack was taken, the other was left.

At least 11 people, probably more, had been in the office including employees, delivery men, salesmen and others.

Mrs. Roy Brown had operated the cash register the day before and collected the money in the bag. She was able to recall most or all of the people who had written checks and stop payment orders were placed at the bank on all these checks.

Nearly all of the persons who had been in the office were bonded against theft. The store carried insurance which may cover all or almost all of the cash taken. Most of the bonding companies as well as the insurance company have investigators checking the case as well as the Cochran county sheriff's office.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Akin were their daughter and family of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. Van Newsome. Other visitors Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Danny Petree of Enochs, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Akin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Akin and family of Whiteface and Mr. and Mrs. Don Akin of Wilson.

WHITEFACE LITTLE LEAGUE STARTS SEASON

The annual Little League Barbecue was held in Whiteface last Friday to kick off the summer season. Almost $500 was realized which will finance the Little League season in Whiteface for this year. No other funds are used for this purpose in Whiteface. Players were admitted to the barbecue free but others had to pay up.

Whiteface is operating four minor teams and two major leagues this year. The first two games were played following the barbecue.

Darwood Marshall is president of the Whiteface Little League. Claude Drennan was in charge of the barbecue assisted by "everybody available" especially including mothers of the players, who furnished most of the food served, each mother being assigned what she was expected to provide. Mrs. Jack Cox was responsible for assignments in beans, potato salad and all but the preparation of the meat.

Approximately 60 boys are enrolled in Little League this summer at Whiteface.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowen and family attended a family reunion in Dublin, Texas. They also went fishing on the Colorado River near Stacy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Merritt and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Kennedy, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kennedy and family will be attending a family reunion in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma this weekend.

Spray new Caparol after cotton is 6 inches high to control weeds.

Control most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in cotton with new Caparol* herbicide. Simply apply as a directed spray to the base of your cotton when it is six inches or higher.

You'll get good knockdown of weeds and grasses that are less than two inches high . . . plus some killing action through the roots of later-germinating weeds.

The cost of this treatment, when Caparol is applied in a 10 inch band, can be as little as 85 cents per acre. Compare this with the $2-3 per acre it would cost you for hoe hands.

Later on in the season, you can go in and make a layby application of new Caparol to control weeds until the cotton is high enough to shade them out.

With new Caparol, you'll have no reason to worry about soil residue carryover to harm next year's spring-seeded crops.

Ask your supplier for new Caparol.

Sox maintain lead in Little League action

The Sox maintained their lead in Morton Little League this week, and the Colts and Giants are knotted for the second position, two games behind the league leaders.

The Cubs dropped from third place to fourth this week, and the Pirates from fourth to fifth. The Cards are in the cellar.

Giants 15, Pirates 14

The Giants scored twice in the bottom of the sixth to take a 15-4 decision over the Pirates Monday night. Wendell Kelly tallied the tying run and Layne Mayon came home with the winning tally. Haskell Lamar was winning pitcher, relieving Willie Harrison, while Ted Thomas was the losing hurler. The Giants got four hits, but were awarded 17 bases on balls. The Pirates hit safely 11 times.

Colts 12, Cubs 5

The Colts scored five runs in the fifth inning to go ahead of the Cubs, and then increased their lead for a 12-5 victory Monday night. Jerry Hampton doubled twice for the winners, while Randy Jones and Ralph Soliz hit two-baggers for the Cubs. Randy Bedwell was the winning pitcher, while Cornell Thompson absorbed the loss.

Colts 9, Giants 8

In another come from behind effort Tuesday night, the Colts handed the Giants their third loss of the season, 9-8. The Colts scored twice in the sixth inning to wrap up the victory. Willie Holland, the losing pitcher, went the distance for the Giants, while Bryant Lewis and E. Lewis combined for the Colts victory.

Sox 18, Cards 5

The Sox scored eight runs in the first inning and coasted to an 18-5 victory over the Cards Tuesday night.

man of the House Committee on Agriculture, to hold public hearings for the purpose of giving cotton growers an opportunity to be heard on the proposed action and said he would join growers before the committee to protest.

Mahon wrote the Secretary of Agriculture "I have received a tremendous response from farmers and farm organizations in my district, many of whom insist that the proposed change would be disastrous.

"The proposed change would be a step backward. It would tend to reduce the quality of cotton produced at a time when there is an urgent need to improve the quality. It would be discriminatory against the dry land cotton farmer in the Southwest who occupies the most difficult and hazardous position in cotton production. A chief weakness of the plan is that there is no way to make the blow fall equally on all cotton farmers. The irrigation farmer could partially offset it with more water and fertilizer, but the dry land farmer has no way to soften the blow. Skip-row farming has been a way of life with many dry land cotton farmers for 20 years. The change would tend to put many cotton farmers out of business.

"We are trying to produce better cotton at a lower cost. The proposed change would tend to do the opposite.

"The proposed change would encourage expanded production of unneeded feed grains.

"Another bad thing about the proposed skip-row change is this: Cotton farmers have taken a big loss in support price and are now in an economic squeeze. The Department of Labor has blocked their efforts to get certain much needed farm labor. The proposed change represents in a sense the last straw. The USDA should dispense with all avoidable harassments at this difficult time."

World's best beef in Morton - CLICK

Two graduates are honored at party

Click Packing Company at the northeast corner of Morton on the Country Club road is "living proof" of what industry can do in Cochran County to add to the value of local products, produce things local people buy from things local people produce and add a payroll and tax revenues to the local economy in doing all these things.

Richard Click and his wife Ellen, have operated the Click Packing Company here for the past three years and have processed as many as fifty head of local grain-fed, choice quality beef in a single week along with hogs and a wide variety of custom work such as deer and other types of game, sheep, and individual's own cattle for their own use. When the plant is going full-blast, five skilled workers are on the payroll besides Mr. and Mrs. Click.

Click was a farmer west of Morton before he decided Morton needed a local packing house. "It doesn't make sense to raise a young beef here, where it was born, ship it to the auction someplace else, then to Fort Worth, Oklahoma City or Wichita where it is cut, cooled, aged and shipped back to Morton to sell in the stores here." "Those payroll dollars might as well stay right here in Morton and the people here be able to buy good, fresh, local meat that hasn't been shipped all over the country before they get it". Click said he could run 60 beeves a week through the plant besides another 30 head through the quick-freeze custom end of the plant for a total of 90 head or more. "We get most of our cattle from McDermott's right here in Morton, or from the lots in Sudan and they are all grain-fed, prime, top-quality animals that we have a chance to personally see and choose", Click pointed out.

Click said he hopes to add more coolers and curing facilities as well as double his quick-freeze department in the near future. Storage facilities for properly chilling and aging the meat are the only limitations on his production capacity at present.

Doss Thriftway is the largest buyer of Morton beef and uses as much as 15 head from the Click Packing Company a week. Besides sales in Morton, Click has delivery routes running in all directions that brings money into Morton to support the local packing-house payroll and pay his taxes and living expenses here. His purchase of locally fed-out animals results in still another round-robin in the local economy. "We join with other Morton business men in saying 'trade at home,'" says Click, "all our meat is always unconditionally guaranteed to please".

Click is an ex-cotton farmer who "went to town" and is helping industrialize West Texas' future.

MORTON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1965

Let's clean up the county

The most concentrated clean-up drive in several years in Morton is now underway. In fact, the clean-up drive is not limited to the city of Morton, but the entire county is included in the effort. Units are working or will be shortly in Whiteface and Bledsoe, and the mayors of Morton and Whiteface and the county judge have proclaimed June as "Clean-up Month in Cochran County."

One of the first impressions people traveling through Morton have gotten in the past few years is that it is a dirty town. With the highway repair hanging on for almost a year, and last summer's street paving program going on, it was hard to keep things looking the way they should.

But now there is no excuse! Morton CAN be cleaned up and it NEEDS to be cleaned up. The co-operation of each and every individual in Morton (and Whiteface and Bledsoe, too) is needed if this clean-up campaign is to be a success.

Let's change the image of this area from that of a "dirty little community" to "one of the cleanest places in West Texas." We can do it, but these clean-up crews need your help. Won't you please give it to them? —GS

Write 'em or weep!

At the bitter end of the President's long-delayed Labor Message came the tail that wagged the dog — the reluctant and apologetic recommendation that Congress remove from the Taft-Hartley Act the 44 words of Section 14(b) that empower the states to protect their workers against compulsory unionism.

This recommendation was offered, the President said, "with the hope of reducing conflicts in our national labor policy that for several years have divided Americans in various states." The division arises from the fact that the citizens of 19 states have availed themselves of the labor freedom made possible by 14(b), while those of 31 states have not as yet done so. Simply stated, the President would remove the "conflict" by scuttling the right to work without paying union dues where it is now state law, while terminating the chance of ever having such liberty in all the others.

The President did not say he is asking repeal of 14(b) to pay off his election debt to the AFL-CIO chieftans who ordered out their troops and opened the union treasuries to campaign for him in a big and effective way. If this is not so, Mr. Johnson might have achieved his stated desire to "ensure uniform application of our national labor relations policy" by proposing a Federal open-shop law ensuring to all workers in all states the right and privilege of voluntary unionism!

And this reform might have been accomplished far more easily and have added considerably more luster to the LBJ "image." Every Congressman knows — and certainly the President should — that the American people do not want compulsory unionism. The latest of several public opinion polls attesting to this pegs the opposition at two-to-one. No less an authority that Speaker McCormack has expressed doubt of enough House votes to pass a repealer of 14(b).

But it would be foolhardy to think that a President with LBJ's reputation on Capitol Hill would now ask "early and favorable consideration" of this proposal if he did not feel sure of getting it.

If the President has his way, the freedom to join or not to join a union will, overnight, become a bitter memory. Unhorsed for a time in 19 states, the membership drives of the labor bosses restored to the saddle will make Genghis Khan look like a Boy Scout. But it cannot happen if every American who wants right-to-work laws will tell his Congressman and his Senators so — and put it in writing. A majority in both houses will support 14(b) — if their constituents support them. Without support, we should expect Administration pressure to insure a majority.

Better to write today than blame yourself tomorrow.

Farming is hazardous occupation

"Farming ranks third (behind mining and construction work) as the most "hazardous occupation" in the nation," and, points out Homer E. Thompson, "farming lags behind other industries in safety training work."

Today's farmer wears many hats to operate his complex business. Within a single week, he may be a machinery operator, a carpenter, ditch digger, stone mason, electrician, cowboy, plumber, veterinarian, truck driver, chemist, fuel-handler, personnel director and any other kind of worker you might name.

In most industries, explains the county agent, workers are studied as they perform their assigned tasks. Their mistakes are corrected. But in farming, an unsafe fact may be unseen and unrecognized. It can become a habit.

To make farm work safer, the county agent suggests that farmers look for accident hazards and remove them. Also, learn to work safely with the hazards which cannot be eliminated. And finally, that a close examination or study of work habits be made so better and safer ways can be found for doing the farm jobs often named

VIEWS . . . of other editors

Overtones of Treason

Responsible Negro leaders are increasingly disturbed over the fact that a motley combination of beatniks, fellow travelers and outright communists is handicapping efforts to advance legitimate aspirations of the American negro. James M. Nabrit, Jr., president of the preponderantly Negro Howard University in Washington, has warned campus civil rights organizations against Communist infiltrators seeking "to cloak themselves in the mantle of civil rights and plot and plan to disrupt our fight for justice and full citizenship."

"I think that in the incidents at Berkeley these people established a beachhead . . . They must be unmasked for the frauds they are. They must be fought in every arena and they must not be permitted to prevail."

How about that Dr. Bunche, Rev. Abernathy, James Farmer — and, for that matter, Dr. King? Only the leaders of the "civil rights movement" can expose the false prophets in their camps. And only the leaders (if they are big enough) can expel them — if it is not too late.

U.S. Press Association

This bill is dangerous

Texas newspaper editors are vigorously protesting a provision in a bill before the Texas Legislature that would restrict access to news about crime.

We don't blame them, and we join them in the protest.

There is too great a tendency on some levels of government to restrict the people's right to know what goes on. This right is guaranteed by the Constitution and should not be abridged at the whims of politicians, some of whom can't afford to let the people know what they're doing.

There has been a marked tendency in recent years to close meetings of elected bodies, such as school boards and city councils, to the public and the press.

Baytown Sun

Weakening Religion?

The time was that in answer to the question of what had contributed most to the making of the strong, humanitarian American democracy, a vast majority of Americans would say the religious faith that has undergirded the people and their institutions since colonial days.

The preponderance of evidence pointing to the same conclusions makes the taking of polls seem almost superfluous. Rising crime, growing immorality, decreasing stability of the home and corruption in both public and private institutions all suggest an increasing disregard for religious tenets of behavior.

Even to those who profess no religious faith, if they are practical, intellectually honest and truly concerned for the preservation of our democratic society, this must be an alarming trend. For religion has undeniably been a conspicuous element in American society since its beginning. And it just may be that it has something to do with the free, generous and mighty nation it has become.

Van Horn Advocate

East-West trade

Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman told a congressional committee not long ago that he favored selling Soviet-bloc nations "anything they eat, smoke or drink." To step up trade with communist nations, Freeman suggested a change in federal laws and policies which would facilitate new exports of wheat to the Soviet bloc by permitting more shipments on foreign vessels which have lower freight rates.

as the cause of farm and home accidents.

Freeman's argument received a sharp rebuttal from at least one quarter. "The communist governments are seeking to expand trade with and long-term credits from the Western democracies in order to overcome their economic plight . . . There is no reason for American businessmen to join in a mad scramble for trade with communist countries (which) only puts the communist rulers in a position to divide and weaken the democracies."

That statement was not made by the Farm Bureau or the Birch Society. It was made by the AFL-CIO's executive council on East-West trade. Though increased trade with the Soviet bloc might be expected to boost jobs, the labor organization rejects the bait because increased trade with the bloc would only help "to finance and facilitate further Soviet aggression against the democracies." The AFL-CIO deserves applause for its stand on this one.

Dallas News

Closing a loophole

Parents particularly should be interested in a bill passed by the House of Representatives a few days ago aimed at the smut peddlers who use the United States mails to reach a teen-age market all over the country.

As reported by Rep. Walter Rogers, the new bill passed by the House is designed to protect American families from the forced intrusion into their homes of objectionable material through the mail. It at least offers parents an effective method of stopping such mailings to their individual post office addresses.

Under terms of the proposed new law, any person receiving objectionable material through the mail could, by simply returning such mail to the Postmaster General, require the PMG to issue an order to the sender not to send any more such mail.

The Postmaster General may also order the sender to halt his mailings to you or to your children of any mail matter which you consider to be obscene, indecent, or vile . . . and the sender who fails to comply with such an order can be hailed into Federal court and punished for contempt.

This apparently solves a major judicial problem of defining obscenity by making each person who receives mail his own censor . . . or in effect, allowing parents to exercise an effective censorship over what type of matter may be mailed to their children. The recipient of the printed matter is the sole judge . . . no court decision need be involved.

Enactment of this bill could go a long way toward helping curb the traffic in pornography which disturbs many American parents. It would, at any rate, close one big loophole through which such material can invade the home . . . the family mail box.

The Canadian Record

What is taken

When we are told of a child dying of malnutrition, an old woman suffering from medical neglect, or any other terrifying account of abject poverty, is there anyone who is not moved? When we hear tales of wealthy landowners who are receiving government subsidies to terrace their property, of independently wealthy people drawing social security payments, or communists grabbing government handouts regardless of need, are we not equally repulsed?

Highlights and Sidelights —

Legislature makes history

AUSTIN, Tex. — Political and Legislative history has been written in the 59th lawmaking session just ended.

Highlights: A $3,600,000,000 budget providing for expanded services in every area of state government and affecting every citizen.

Record improvements in higher education, including creation of the powerful coordinating board for Texas colleges and universities.

A $101,000,000 salary raise for school teachers, $70,000,000 of which will be paid by the state.

A sweeping overhaul in the entire system of state mental hospital and tuberculosis control administration.

Major public welfare expansions, including a proposed constitutional amendment to permit full state participation in the new federal medical care program for the aged, blind and disabled. A provision of the amendment would qualify non-citizens who have lived in the state for 25 years or more.

Overhaul and extension of the state's program for water control and development.

Congressional and legislative redistricting which will change the makeup and complexion of future legislatures, shifting the balance of power from rural to urban areas.

If voters approve proposed constitutional amendments, the Senate will be enlarged from 31 to 39 members and terms of the governor and other state-wide-elected officials now limited to two years, as well as those of state representatives, will be extended to four years.

Gov. John Connally emerged as the most powerful governor in modern Texas history.

WHAT IT WILL COST — Despite its record achievements, the 59th session handed a relatively modest tax bill to Texas citizens.

Cigarette smokers will bear virtually the entire share of the cost. Tax was increased from eight to 11 cents a pack — the nation's highest state rate. This will raise $70,000,000 to $73,400,000 in new money during the coming biennium.

A one-time gain of $6,000,000 will be achieved by setting of a 15 months-from-date-of-death limitation on payment of the inheritance tax.

Teacher pay raise also will require financing at the local level. Present estimate is that the owner of a $15,000 home will pay $2.52 more in annual property taxes to school districts.

BILLS PASSED — Among the new laws passed during the final days of the regular session of the 59th Legislature were:

Continuation of the Bay Study Committee, which is concentrating on the problems of water pollution; Regulation of the taking and processing of oysters and other shellfish for sale;

Creation of Permian State College, if higher education coordinating board approves, at Odessa;

Asking members of Congress from Texas to vote for keeping the section of Taft-Hartley Law which permits Texas to outlaw closed union shops;

Prohibition of the use of .22 caliber rimfire ammunition to hunt deer, elk, antelope and wild sheep in counties not regulated by the Parks and Wildlife Commission;

Prevention of city councils from making residence within the city limits a condition of employment;

Legalization of free games on pinball machines;

Requirement for testing of all babies born in Texas for phenylketonuria (PKU), an inborn error in system, which, if uncorrected, causes brain damage;

Parents' liability up to $5,000 for malicious and wanton damage by their children.

MIGRANT PROGRAM — Governor Connally's Office of Economic Opportunity made application for $5,400,000 in federal funds under Economic Opportunity Act for massive program of assistance to state's 128,000 migrants.

Program seeks $3,200,000 to extend special six-months' intensive schools for migrant children from 10 districts to 40.

A $1,100,000 component would start to build and staff, for $735,050, five rest stops for migrants.

A tuberculosis screening and testing project would cost $302,665. It calls for six regional offices in South Texas.

Texas Employment Commission and Texas Education Agency plan to retain and relocate migrants into permanent jobs in West Texas. An application for $205,626 will place Texas OEO in a coordinating position with respect to housing requirements and allow it to work with local community officials in a program relations while migrants are in school.

Day care in migrant labor camps is planned at cost of $100,858. A $60,110 allocation would enable Texas State Library to engage in a pilot project for services to migrants in labor camps.

Governor also announced State Department of Parks and Wildlife expects to employ 427 youths during summer in a park maintenance program under a $193,891 federal grant from Neighborhood Youth Corps.

CENTER PROPOSED — McKinney Veterans Hospital would be used as a women's job corps center, if application of Texas Education Agency is granted.

Request was made contingent on closing of the hospital facility. However, Congressman Ray Roberts of McKinney is appealing decision to close the hospital.

Application calls for center with initial 600 enrollees and a staff of 275. A grant of $3,600,000 is sought for program beginning August 1, with average participation of 500 enrollees per month.

Hospital has 100 acres of land and 100 buildings.

PRESS RIGHT UPHELD — A conference committee report on the new Code of Criminal Procedure, which contained the nation's toughest restrictions on pre-trial news coverage, was rejected.

Revised information restriction states:

"It is the duty of the trial court, the attorney representing the state, the attorney representing the accused, and all peace officers to so conduct themselves as to assure to the defendant a fair trial upon the presumption of innocence and at the same time afford the public the benefits of a free press."

A legislative resolution directs a study in the area of information on pre-trial activities.

NEW COLLEGES ASKED — Petitions have been submitted to the State Board of Education for creation of new junior colleges in Scurry, Bee, Maverick, Tarrant and McLennan counties. Board has set hearings on the petitions for June 5.

Increase in applications is believed due to more state and federal aid to junior colleges and requests by the Legislature that junior colleges undertake expanded programs in academic and technical-vocational fields.

Members of the San Antonio delegation, meanwhile, obtained adoption of a resolution which the new Coordinating Board as State College and University System — to be organized in September — to study the feasibility for a four-year institution in Bexar County and report the next Legislature in January of 1967.

SHORT SNORTS — Pro Johnson was a legislative for the unveiling of his plan on the east wall of the Senate Chamber.

A filibuster by Sen. Bill of Bryan during the critical days of the session kept from a bill by Sen. Andy Childress, which would have directed the Texas A&M University to turn down applications for admission by women, than members of families, faculty and students and women want to take courses not elsewhere.

Killed in the Senate was which would have required county tax assessor-collectors and collect a property tax automobile and prohibiting plates from being issued as tax was paid.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Hatchery at Tyler is shipping white quail to be used by wardens in supplying own wing requests.

NEW COLLEGES ASKED — Petitions have been submitted to the State Board of Education for creation of new junior colleges in Scurry, Bee, Maverick, Tarrant and McLennan counties. Board has set hearings on the petitions for June 5.

Increase in applications is believed due to more state and federal aid to junior colleges and requests by the Legislature that junior colleges undertake expanded programs in academic and technical-vocational fields.

Announce winners of scholarships awarded by Co-ops

Three scholarships amounting to $1,200.00 were made available through Bailey County Electric Cooperative and Five Area Telephone Cooperative by the Muleshoe State Bank.
 Winners of these scholarships were announced this week by D. D. Lancaster, manager. The telephone scholarship was awarded to Ronnie Smith, Farwell High School. Winners of the electric scholarships were Linda Dement, Muleshoe High School and Bobbie Smith, Springlake High School.

A total of thirty-two students applied for the scholarships. The board of directors for each cooperative named the winners. The decision was a tough one, and, as always, it would be nice for everyone to win, but obviously this would be impossible.
 In order for a student to be eligible for a scholarship his or her parents, parent, or guardian must live in the area and receive electric service from the Bailey County Electric Cooperative, or telephone service from the Five Area Telephone Cooperative.
 Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Akin for Sunday dinner were Mrs. James Dewbre of Morton, Mrs. Glen Gibson of Plainview, Mrs. Troy Brazzel of Levelland, Mrs. Lonnie Gaston of Morton, and Miss Nelda Ford and Clara Gail Daniel, both of San Bernardino, California.

Nonfat dry milk and skim milk
 Nonfat dry milk is among the many dairy foods in abundance now as the nation observes June Dairy Month.
 You will find that nonfat dry milk is especially ideal for summer meals.
 It appeals to weight watchers, hurried homemakers who appreciate convenience, budget stretchers, culinary artists and those who like to keep a reserve of milk in the pantry.
 Because nonfat dry milk is so easy to use in home-made mixes, it is ideal for cooling drinks or other delicious summer dishes.
 Try instant nonfat dry milk in your own Pancake Mix.
 This is a dry mix that you can prepare ahead of time and keep in a tightly covered container until used. For mix that will make 10 to 12 pancakes, you will need 1/2 cup flour, 3 tablespoons sugar, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, and 1/2 cup instant nonfat dry milk. Sift together the dry mix and put in tight container until you want to use it.
 To make the pancakes, add 1/2 cups water, 2 eggs and 3 tablespoons melted butter. Combine the water, eggs and butter, and mix and blend well. Pour about 1/3 cup batter for each pancake onto hot buttered griddle. When bubbles appear, turn and bake other side. Serve with butter, syrup, applesauce, cottage cheese or other toppings.
 The pancakes also can be served as Cheese-Bacon Pancakes. While pancakes are still warm, sprinkle about 3 tablespoons cheese on each, top with 2 slices of bacon and fold over. If not eaten immediately, place in plan, cover and keep warm.
 For added variety, try Apple Pancakes. For this treat, you'll need 3 green apples, pared and sliced thinly; melted butter, 2 tablespoons cinnamon, 1/2 cup sugar and the basic pancake batter.
 To make the Apple Pancakes, pour about 1/3 cup batter or each pancake onto a hot buttered griddle. Top with single layer of apple slices. When bubbles appear, turn and bake on other side. Removed from griddle and drizzle with melted butter. Combine cinnamon and sugar, sprinkle over pancakes. Roll up, place on pan, cover and keep warm until ready to serve.
 Nonfat dry milk also is ideal for a Basic Pudding Mix that can be transformed quickly into dessert puddings in a variety of flavors—vanilla, chocolate, caramel or other.
 Ingredients for Pudding Mix that will make 24 servings:
 2 1/2 cups nonfat dry milk, 1 1/2 cups white sugar, 1/4 cups flour, and 1 teaspoon salt.
 For Vanilla Pudding, combine the sugar, dry milk, and flour and salt until well mixed. For Chocolate Pudding, add 3/4 cup cocoa. For Caramel Pudding, substitute 1 1/2 cups brown sugar for the white sugar.
 To make 6 servings of the pudding, you will need 1/4 cups pudding, 2 1/2 cups warm water, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 beaten egg and 3/4 teaspoon vanilla.
 Combine the mix and water in the top of a double boiler. Cook over boiling water until thickened, stirring constantly. Cover and cook 10 minutes longer. Add butter. Remove from heat. Beat half of the hot mixture onto the egg, then blend egg mixture slowly into the remaining hot mixture. Cook over hot water 1 minute more. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Pour into serving dishes and cool.
 Nonfat dry milk also works wonders in White Sauce Mix, that can be transformed into a white sauce for cream tuna, salmon, chicken, turkey, or vegetable dishes, as well as casseroles, and gravies.
 For 2 quarts medium white sauce, take 3 cups instant nonfat dry milk, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1 cup (2 sticks) butter, and 3 teaspoons salt.
 To prepare the White Sauce mix, combine dry milk, flour, butter and salt. Blend thoroughly with fork or pastry blender until it looks like corn meal. Store in tightly covered container in refrigerator.

* "Yes...

I Picked It Up in the City"

* a useful phrase for impressing neighbors with the way we get around but it comes high

FOR some strange reason, a lot of us are inclined to take more pride in some article that we have bought in a Big City Store than we do in an identical item bought at home.

PERHAPS a shirt or a hat, for example, bought in the City, becomes a sort of souvenir of our travels — a reminder of a pleasant break in the routine of life — instead of just another garment.

QUESTION IS . . . how high can we pay to indulge this little human quirk?

A DOLLAR SPENT away from home is a dollar less business in our community. Hundreds of thousands of these dollars ARE being spent that way every year by folks who live here. THAT MUCH MORE MONEY circulated in our community would supercharge its vitality.

CAN WE AFFORD to pass up the extra values that home-spent dollars give us in better schools, more jobs for more people, more prosperous businesses able to do a better job of serving our urgent daily needs?

ISN'T THE PRICE TOO HIGH . . . this whittling away at our own community's economic life . . . isn't this too much to pay for a few relics of our travels to the City?
