Surveys, population talked in Chamber meet

Industrial surveys — their purposes and costs — occupied much of the 90-minute Morton Area Chamber of Commerce directors' meeting Tuesday morning.

Rusty Reeder and manager Leon Kessler reported on their recent trips they made last week to Littlefield and Muleshoe.

F. L. Spencer, an industrial consultant from Houston, is completing a survey for Littlefield now. The industrial survey team from Texas A&M University is doing a similar survey in Muleshoe. Both are enthusiastic about the projects uncovered by the surveys.

Directors finally agreed to ask Spencer and a representative from A&M to speak to the Chamber board. However, they closed the board such a survey of Cochran County because of the cost involved. The A&M team is paid $3,000 for its work. Spencer is paid $200 per day, plus expenses. He has worked 22 days in Littlefield.

The Texas Industrial Commission says that an industrial survey is highly desirable for industries seeking new locations.

Directors also reviewed figures which had been compiled on water, gas and electricity customers in Morton for the past few years.

Records of Cochran Power and Light show that the total number of electrical customers in Morton and Whiteface has declined during the past year to a point comparable to 1959. Reeder, who is manager of CP&L, said that losses since January, 1967, have averaged six customers per week.

Records of the City of Morton shows the number of gas bills sent out has dropped from 1032 in January, 1965, to 1007 in February, 1967. The number of water bills has declined from 1032 to 942 in the same period.

Directors set Thursday, Oct. 26, as the date for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet and discussed a speaker for the occasion.

Approval was given for manager Leon Kessler to attend the first year course of a six-year Chamber managers' study course. The course lasts one week per year. The $100 tuition will be paid by the Chamber. Kessler was also given a two-week vacation, one week of which will be spent at the manager's school.

Noel Crow named Conservationist of 1966 by SCD

Noel Crow, who farms 700 acres east of Morton, has been chosen Outstanding Conservation Farmer of Cochran County for 1966 by the Soil Conservation District.

He was presented with a plaque by the Morton Lions Club during their noon meeting Wednesday.

Crow has been in the Great Plains Program and has installed irrigation pipelines on his farm. He has five wells on his farm and irrigates about 250 acres.

As part of his conservation practices, Crow applies cotton burrs to all his cotton land and uses his grain sorghum residue as a cover.

Soil Conservation manager Budd Fountain said that Crow uses his irrigation system as it was designed to be used and that he manages his water carefully.

Crow is married to the former Bonnie Brownlow. They have three children: Ariene, 12; Dwayne, 10; and Teresa, 9.

He is a former member of the board of directors of the Morton Community Committee. He is a graduate of Morton High School and has spent four years in the Air Force.

Speaking about conservation, Crow said, "It's something we all need to keep in mind. We need to work on it all the time."

School board members take oath of office

Two new school board members were sworn in Monday night during a meeting of the Morton School Board. Taking the oath of office were Van Greene and Kenneth Thompson.

Following the swearing-in, the minutes of the previous regular and special meetings were read and approved. The special meeting was held for the purpose of canvassing the ballots of the recent school board election.

The election of new officers concluded with the following winners: president, Francis Shillett (re-elected); vice president, L. T. Lemons; and secretary, Weldon Newsom.

After the payment of the monthly bills was approved, the board began dealing with free lunches. At the beginning of the meeting 15 students were on the free lunch program while only 9 were on at the end of the meeting. The drop was due mainly to the failure of parents to meet with the board in their request for the lunch program.

The first applicant, who had two children on the program, was represented by his wife who said the man was in a Veteran's hospital for surgery. She said they were living on county commodities and a VA pension check. The board approved the request for the two students.

The board decided that those approved during the meeting would be fed until school is dismissed in May rather than meeting with the applicants again in May.

A woman appeared before the board but was told to return with her husband as the board will only talk with the husband except in the case of widows. She did bring her husband to the board about 15 minutes later. The man said they had five children, three of whom are in school. He listed the children's ages as 11, 10, 8, 6, and 1½. He said that he had been out of work for two weeks. The applicant said that they receive no welfare, Social Security and no county commodities. He said he had one more payment to make on his 1955 Pontiac and did not owe anything on his TV set. The application was not approved.

The third applicant, who has had children on the program for most of the year, appeared before the board again to ask for free lunches for his children. However, the board closely questioned him about his alleged stay in the hospital last month. At that time the applicant was represented by some of his children at the board meeting. The application was not approved.

Australian farming talked at banquet

An enthusiastic picture of farming in Australia was painted Tuesday night by Horace McQueen of Lubbock. The tv farm newsmen was guest speaker at the annual banquet of the Morton chapter of Future Farmers of America.

Chapter president Mike O'Brien announced that an Honorary Chapter Farmer degree had been voted by the Chapter to Leonard Grove, in absentia. Groves served the past year as general superintendent of the Cochran County Junior Livestock Show.

About 100 persons were present as nine FFA members were recognized for their work during the past school year. Owen Young, chapter advisor, named Danny Barker, Gary Sullivan, Ronnie Allsup and J. Mark Thomas as winners of the Greenhand Farmer award as first year students.

Second and third year students receiving the Chapter Farmer award were Gary Stowe, Jerry Cloud, Lynn Fred, Tommy Hudson and Ronny Reeder.

O'Brien presented a gift to the 1966-67 Chapter Sweetheart, Miss Patsy Collins.

McQueen, farm director for KLBK-TV, showed slides and told of his trip in February to New Zealand and Australia to survey farm practices "down under".

"Agriculture in New Zealand is nothing to shout about," McQueen said. "They have the most socialized government you've ever seen. A farmer even has to have permission from the government to buy a cow or a silo for his farm."

New Zealand farming is highly concentrated with the average farm only 60 acres in size, but fertilized beyond any operations in the United States. Farmers there are able to run two or three mother cows or 12 to 15 ewes per acre.

McQueen was particularly enthusiated about cotton production in Australia, where the average yield is 2½ bales per acre. Long-staple cotton, 1 1/16 to 1 3/32 length is average and the market price is 42 cents per pound. Cotton provides incomes of $500 to $550 per acre.

The speaker showed slides of the BULLETIN—The Morton High School Band received a Division I (superior) in concert and a Division II (excellent) in sightreading in District Band competition Wednesday.

The Morton High School band, under the direction of John Stockdale, travelled to Frenship Wednesday to compete in the district Interscholastic League band contest. Competing there Saturday will be the Whiteface High School Band, under the direction of Carl Ward.

The Morton band played Sol Y Sombra, Choral Prelude in E Minor, and Procession and Interlude. The Whiteface Band will perform March Lamar, Danse Pavane, and Air and March.

Judges for the contest were G. T. Gilligan, Kermit; Melvin Montgomery, Snyder; and Tom Rhodes, Fredricksburg. Sightreading judge was Joe Rogers, New Braunfels.

The Morton Junior High School band, directed by Bob Lethermon, will go to contest Saturday in Lubbock. The band will play Gallant Eagle, Song of Victory, and Contrast in C Minor.

The Morton band was aiming for Sweepstakes, which would necessitate earning a Division I in concert and sightreading. The band has already earned a Division I in marching. The band has never earned the coveted prize before.

County farmer is only one in state to plant for export

Francis Cunningham has the somewhat dubious honor of being the only farmer in Texas to receive an allotment for export cotton. Cunningham, a farmer located 20 miles south of Morton, does have his reasons for planting export cotton.

The first reason is that there is no government price support programs for his land, and second, his cotton allotment is only 13½ acres.

Also last year he made more money from his export cotton than he did from his nearly 1,000 acres of maize.

Cunningham said that his export cotton acreage allotment is 313½ acres. This is 300 acres allotted for export plus his regular allotment of 13½ acres. He said that he could have planted up to 518 acres had he asked for it.

The procedure is complicated to obtain export acreage. First, acreage can be obtained by application and only on farms that have regular acreage allotments. Then a property bond has to be obtained, figured on the projected lint yield per acre.

Last year, Cunningham's property bond of $44,000 cost him $56.

Then the farmer has to be certain that the cotton is actually exported. Should the cotton be sold in the United States, the farmer has to pay a penalty.

Cunningham has been in Cochran County for 34 years, eight of which have been spent on his present farm.

His farm is irrigated with three wells, 2-4" and 1-3", however he is able to water only about 100

The fourth applicant has five children in school ages 13, 10, 11, 8, and 6. He has had children on the program before. He is employed and is making about $80-$85 weekly. He has a total of 10 children. The application was denied.

The board then turned to appointments to the Equalization Board. Several names were discussed but none were released pending further talks.

Superintendent Ray Lanier said that Jennie Allen, Cochran County Home Demonstration Agent, had requested the use of the school's home economics sewing machines. The machines will be used at the school to teach 4-H girls who do not have machines at home. Lanier said that he had talked with high school principal Bobby Travis and home ec teachers Mrs. Murray Crone and Mrs. A. E. Sanders and that they all endorsed the program. The Board agreed to the request.

Lanier then reported to the Board on the school calendar set up for the 1967-68 school year. He said that Easter holidays would contain one more day than did this year's. Class will start on Sept. 5 and will be dismissed May 27. The calendar was accepted by the Board on a motion by Henry Williams and seconded by Van Greene.

Lanier read the resignations of two teachers, Mrs. Baddy McGeehee and Mrs. J. L. Cox. Mrs. McGeehee said that her husband was being transferred and that she was therefore moving. Mrs. Cox wrote that her husband is retiring this year and that they too are moving. The resignations were accepted on a motion and seconded by L. T. Lemons and Williams.

Superintendent Ray Lanier said that he was invited to attend a conference in Austin next week. The conference, made up of superintendents throughout the state, will concentrate on reading programs at the elementary level. He said that 42 superintendents would attend and that he was honored to have been chosen to attend.

Lane Tannehill wrote the Board saying that the Morton Boosters will pay his way to the State Track Meet in Austin in early May. He said that attending the meet would help him to institute a better track program in Morton next year. He also said that the other local coaches would take over his classes while he was out of town. The Board approved the request to be out of town. This came on a motion by Weldon New-Board president Shifflett read a letter from Mirando City Independent School District stating their opposition to the Federal Wage and Hour Law. The letter stated that the government would probably next try to incorporate the teachers into the wage program. The South Texas school board also urged the Morton Board to write their congressmen in opposition to the Federal Wage and Hour Law for schools. The local board took no action.

The problem of grassburns on the local playgrounds was discussed at length and the Board decided to plow up the playground in an attempt to kill the weeds. The use of poisons and butane burners was also discussed but they were discarded because of the cost and ineffectiveness.

Shifflett also brought up the possibility of instituting a merit system of grading teachers. The plan would provide pay raises to the teachers who receive so many merits. However, after much discussion the plan was abandoned.

If a number of Cochran County residents start seriously talking about going to Australia, Horace McQueen of Lubbock is the culprit. McQueen talked at the Morton FFA banquet Tuesday night, showing slides of his recent visit to New Zealand and Australia. When he talked of $15-an-acre land three-hale-cotton and 42 cents a pound and a $1-per-acre-foot cost for unlimited irrigation water, eyes lighted up all over the room. Then, when he added that there were no crop restriction, except for sugar and rice, the room really sparkled.

McQueen brought up his heavy artillery for blasts at the U. S. Ambassador to Australia, whom he considers to be a politician who garnered the post after heavy financial backing for the Johnson campaign. However, the speaker also chided the Australians for the "bonding" project in building an opera house for Sydney. The government allocated $3 million for the building. That amount, McQueen said, paid for the foundation. Since then, three grants of $25 million each have been made for the 2200-seat structure. To illustrate the sparse population away from the coast, McQueen said to imagine that 180,000,000 Americans lived along the Atlantic coast and that only 20,000,000 lived in the rest of the nation.

Morton volunteer firemen left Wednesday for a fishing trip to Lake Proctor. This expedition is an annual affair that results in a few fish and a lot of fish stories.

Fire Chief Tom Rowden reported this week that a few "fire dolls" are apparently being located in Morton. These are the dolls which began to show up around Christmas. They are made in both Europe and Japan. These particular dolls are made of a type of cellulose that is almost explosive when exposed to an open flame. Anyone who has a doll that might come from one of these sources can bring it to the Morton Fire Station and have it checked. The dolls cost about $1 to $1.25 locally.

A lot of folks have told me since the Indian Capers show last week, "I didn't know your brother was a drummer." To which I proudly reply, "He isn't. He just fakes it." Actually George was drafted to play trap drums with the Morton High stage band. The school didn't have a trap set until about a month ago and none of the drummers was proficient enough to handle the show tunes that were used in the Capers production. George started playing traps at Dumas High School and has since played with the Cowboy Band at Hardin-Simmons University, the Abilene Symphony and several small dance bands. Several high school drummers are working on the traps and will be ready for stage band work by next year.

We want to congratulate the entire cast, crew and band of the 1967 Indian Capers. They did a fine job and richly deserve the many compliments we have heard. John Stockdale and Bob Leatherman deserve special thanks for their efforts in staging the show and providing musical arrangements.

As we write this, we are typing with fingers crossed for the Morton High School Band, which was in the concert and sightreading contests for District 4-AA at Friendship High School Wednesday afternoon. The band received a Division I rating last fall for its marching. First division ratings in concert and sightreading would earn a Sweepstakes rating for the band and a possible trip to the Band Festival at Enid, Okla., next month. It also would qualify the group for the contest next year at Six Flags in Dallas.

Fog covered Cochran County Wednesday, with some light drizzle. That is a start, but the area still needs a good, slow two-inch soaker to brighten faces and get land ready for cotton and milo planting.

The second annual Morton High School class basketball tournament is slated for Thursday and Friday, April 20 and 21. The seniors were hoping to capture the trophy this year, but two of their top players are injured. Rory Kuehler has a broken collarbone and Freddy Thomas broke his finger Tuesday. Choosing between the sophomores and the juniors is difficult. The sophomores won the title last year as freshmen and really are eager to keep it. There isn't much to choose between the two classes and we aren't about to pick the winner.

Another interesting sporting event coming up is the open volleyball tournament set for next week. The Morton women's team was undefeated at last report and will be

Lindsey, formerly photographer for H-SU Student Publications, received an Excellent (2nd place) rating for a series of photographs on "College Registration."

Lindsey's photos featured Susie Blackley, H-SU freshman from Morton. She is a 1966 graduate of Morton High School and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Blackley of Morton.

The feature ran in the Morton Tribune, of which George Tuck, H-SU graduate, is news editor.

The Office of Public Information is gunning for the championship next week.

Morton's lone representative in the Region I track and field meet this weekend in Lubbock will be Donnie Harvey, a junior who placed second in the District meet. Donnie will compete in the high jump contest.

Boys who want to play Little League ball this summer, and aren't on major league teams, already, are reminded of tryouts. Boys 9 to 10 will tryout Friday from 5-7 p.m. and boys 11 and 12 will tryout at the same time on Saturday. Tryouts will be held at the Little League park. Boys who have not registered to play are asked to do so during the tryout period. Donations of $5 are being asked for boys who want to play ball. The player auction will be held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Wig Wam. Tryouts for boys 8 years of age and those who are not assigned to major league teams will be held at 5 p.m. Monday, April 24.

Sydney Opera House, which was planned to cost $3 million and likely to cost $78 million before it is finished. It will seat 2200. He also showed slides of the Sydney Royal Livestock Show, held on Easter Sunday, and featuring cows, sheep, pigs and horses.

McQueen said that it would be difficult to make money in Australia feeding cattle, because they brought only about 13 cents a pound for the market.

Grain sorghum is a new crop in Australia, but the price is good and yields are already ranging from 6000-8000 pounds an acre. "When the farmers over there learn how to grow grain sorghum like we do, I don't think yields of 8000-10,000 pounds will be at all uncommon," he said.

Again and again, McQueen pointed out the potential of farming in Australia. He said that Australia was three per cent larger than the United States, exclusive of Alaska, but that more than 90 per cent of the population was concentrated along the coast in ten major cities.

Several slides were shown of land that is ideally suited for farming that sells for not more than $15 per acre, in blocks of 8,000 to 12,000 acres. He also showed slides of good grassland, including one block of more than 600 sections in two pastures that can be leased for 99 years at 40 cents an acre per year.

Much of the Australian farmland is irrigated from large dams and reservoirs, at a cost of $1 an acre-foot.

One interesting experiment described by McQueen is the planting of 12 rows of cotton and four rows of tomatoes that seems to eliminate Verticillium rot.

McQueen told of one farmer who netted more than $160,000 from 450 acres of tomatoes. Australia also produces bananas, vegetables and fruit. Only sugar and rice are controlled crops.

O'Brien presented a gift to McQueen at the conclusion of his talk.

However, for the time being, Cunningham feels that the only way he can plant cotton or make money is through the export cotton program.

CHEMICAL WEED CONTROL RESULT DEMONSTRATION

Curtis Sealy, Morton, demonstrated the economic effectiveness of herbicide applied in 1966 at time of planting for weed control in cotton.

Curtis applied Treflan at the rate of one gallon on 17 acres in 10' band. The area treated by spraying was immediately in front of the opening furrow. The cost of the herbicide was $1.16 per acre. The cost of cultivation, hoe labor, and herbicide was $1.36 per acre on the treated area. This was a saving of $1.30 over another treatment which required two hand hoeings of $7.00 per acre each.

Explanation of these differences in these two treatments is this. Both areas were treated with the herbicide — Treflan I treatment was cultivated when cotton was 4 inches high with fresh dirt applied over the treat row. Weeds came up in the row with the cotton where the fresh dirt eliminated the effectiveness of the herbicide. The total hand hoe bill was $14 per acre. Treflan II Treatment was rotary hoed and the the treated was barred-off with disc when cotton was 4 inches high. This excessive dirt was applied to the treated row. This effectively controlled the weeds in the row when the cotton reached a height of 14 inches, then dirt was cultivated into the furrow — no problems on Treflan I, as the hoeing cost was 20 cents per acre.

TOPS Club is challenged

"I can do all things through Christ, which strengtheneth me," (Philippians 4:13) were the opening words of Mildred Oden as the Lighter Later TOPS Club met April 12 in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church. She also challenged all members to get back in the losing mood again. The prayer was given by Brenda Gardner.

Several are planning on going to Springlake next week and meet with the TOPS Club there to hear a report from the State Convention in Austin which was held April 13-14-15.

Brenda Gardner won the fruit basket again in losing 2 1/2 lbs. and Obessia went to spend the week in the Yearly home.

Members attending were: Ruby Davis, Maudie Gardner, Rita Thomas, Wilma Dolle, Jean Bridge, Bill Hill, Mildred Odom, Maxine Yearly, Nellie Fincher and Evon Egger.

Evon Egger had the program and gave a report of an article in the TOPS News magazine by Edgar Haback, M.D. He said, "When we have practiced reducing actions a while, they become easy; when they are easy we take pleasure in them; when they please us, we do them frequently; and then by daily acts, this grows into a habit. Obesity is a body condition noted by excessive generalized deposit of area storage of fat."

Club members and guests assembled at the home of president, Mrs. James Walker, at 7 p.m. and went together from there in caravan style to the assigned meeting place. Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames Dewight Gober and Rodney Fralin. "Know American Art" was the program topic.

During the business session Mrs. Gary Willingham reported on the District Convention which was attended by nine club members. She reported that our club won a first on its Operation Healthy Babies Project with Mrs. Clyde Brownlow serving as project chairman, a second on its Home Life Department with Mrs. Don Lynsey serving as department chairman, a second on its yearbook with Mesdames Bob Polvado and Danny Tankersley serving as committee chairmen, and a citation for one hundred per cent subscription to The Texas Club Woman magazine. At the District Convention Mrs. Earl Polvado was endorsed by the Juniors to run for Junior Director in the next administration.

Heart Fund project chairman, Mrs. J. W. Tyson, reported to club members that all money had been turned over to the Morton Heart Fund Chairman. Club members who could were asked to volunteer for two days work with Project Heart Start during the months of June and July. We were advised that we as a club would be called on to furnish refreshments for on week during that same period.

Mrs. Gary Willingham, Cancer Crusade Chairman for Morton, asked for volunteers for a house to house canvas on Tuesday April 18 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Those club members volunteering were Mesdames Davey Mitchell, Sherrill Griffith, Dale Debord, Earl Polvado, Tommy Hawkins, Eddie Milligan, Rodney Fralin, and Bill Foust. Social Committee Chairman Mrs. Tommy Hawkins, called for club members to sign up for a salad, dessert, or vegetable. The dishes are to be brought to the Grand Finale-Installation Dinner to be held Thursday, April 27 in the home of Mrs. Earl Polvado.

Club members were advised that the State Convention will be held May 1-3 with May 2 being Junior Day. It is to be held in Dallas at the Baker Hotel. At the State Convention Mrs. Bob Polvado will act as a State Page and Mrs. Mrs. Earl Polvado will give the invocation at one of the State Dinners. We were reminded that registration had to be completed by April 25.

The program for the evening, entitled "Know American Art", was presented by Mrs. Loy Kera. She traced the four eras of American History through famous paintings painted during those particular eras.

Some of the paintings indicative of the first period of American History, the Pioneer, Revolutionary, and Federal Period, were the paintings: Penn's Treaty with the Indians, Washington Crossing the Delaware, and Signing the Declaration of Independence.

Artists during this period of American History did not sign their names to their works and as a result many of the artists of this era do not receive credit for their now famous works. The subjects depicted during this era, unlike the European subjects of church and court, were usually those of people, places and events.

The Westward Expansion and Civil War Period was a time in which the artists turned to a more naturalist trend. The emphasis was placed on pictures of the outdoors such as the many famous bird paintings done by John James Audubon and the seascapes by Winslow Homer.

The next period of American History, the Industrial Period, was depicted in art with romantic, realistic, and impressionistic overtones. Paintings indicative of this era were The White Girl by James McNeil Whistler, and The Bath by Mary Cassatt.

The present era of American History, The 1930's to Today, is characterized by paintings done in a precise sharp-edged style. These paintings of today many times deal with the subject of social protest, with distortions used to emphasize the particular social protest.

Abstract art is running rampant throughout this era and most of the paintings of this era are characterized by the use of bold raw colors. Two of the paintings indicative of this period are American Gothic by Grant Wood and Toronado by John Stewart Curry.

As can be seen throughout all the eras of American History, the trends, emotions, and feelings of a people are depicted consciously and emanatingly in its art of the particular era.

The next regular meeting will be in the installation Dinner to be held in the home of Mrs. Earl Polvado on Thursday April 27. The toastmistress will be Mrs. Gary Willingham and the installing of-

Sixth place would have gone to state, because one of the schools had dropped out. They were a disappointed bunch, but we are all real proud of them for winning the place they did. The

He said, "I hope you enjoy these slides and get a conservation message from them". In his introduction he told members that nowhere is the true beauty of America better reflected than on its agricultural land. After showing the beautiful slides Mr. Fountain gave information as to how all 52 full color lithographs can be obtained at a nominal cost from the Government Printing Office.

FOR or AGAINST

Your Own Future Prosperity

Spend a dollar here at home and it's a vote FOR the improvement of your own individual well-being.

Because it's a dollar that keeps on working for you . . . circulating and creating more trade volume in your own community.

Trade volume that makes YOUR business better, YOUR job more secure, YOUR schools and churches better, YOUR local investments more valuable and profitable.

Spend a dollar away from home and it's a vote AGAINST the life and growth of this community . . . the prosperity of which has much to do with the kind of living that YOUR work will provide for you.

Many small town folks have helped to vote themselves out of business, out of jobs, and out of investments which were the savings of a lifetime, by casting their $-ballots AGAINST the community in which they live.

Son and husband occupy time for homemaker of the week

The Tribune's homemaker for this week is Mrs. J. W. Tyson. Mrs. Tyson has lived in Morton, all of her life and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Mullinax. Her husband is a farmer in this community.

Among her activities, she likes to sew, knit, embroidery, and is incoming secretary for the Emlea Smith Jr. Study Club. But, most of all her life is centered around her "little one", John David, who is ten months old. He occupies most of her time.

Mrs. Tyson does the baking for her family. These are two of her recipes.

Raisin cupcakes

2 cups seedless raisins
1 cup water
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup butter
1 cup butter
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cups sifted flour
1/4 teaspoon salt

In a saucepan combine raisins, water and baking soda; bring to boil. Cool to lukewarm. In a large mixing bowl, cream together butter, and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Blend in raisin mixture. Sift together flour and salt, gradually add to creamed mixture.

Fill muffin cups 3/4 full. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Makes 18 cup cakes.

One bowl Pumpkin Dessert

1-2/3 cups sifted flour
1-1/3 cups sugar
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon ginger
1/3 cup soft shortening
1 cup cooked, mashed pumpkin
1/3 cup water
1 egg
2/3 cups raisins
1/3 chopped nuts

Sift dry ingredients together in mixing bowl. Add shortening, pumpkin and water. Beat two minutes on medium speed or until ingredients are well mixed. Add egg, beat two more minutes. Stir in raisins and nuts. Pour into ring mold that has been well greased and been dusted with dry bread crumbs. Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees for 45 minutes or until cake tests done.

auditorium. The cast then repeated the performance for the public at 7:30 Friday night. All the music used in the program was arranged by Mr. Bob Lethermon, the assistant band director at MHS. The program was highlighted by the crowning of Miss Indian Capers for 1967, Dena Smith, Dean, a senior, was elected by the high school choral department. She has been in the choir all four years of high school. Congratulations to the music department on a job well done!

Mr. Fred Stockdale, John Stockdale's brother, met with the high school band Monday night to clinic the group on their numbers for contest. Mr. Stockdale had a lot to say, good and bad, and the band managed to iron some of the wrinkles out of the contest numbers. The organization really appreciates the help that Mr. Stockdale gave them.

MHS is getting all shook up over the class basketball tournament which has been staged for Thursday and Friday night in the high school gym. Each day, boys from different classes are giving small pep talks over the speaker in hopes that their class will win the trophy. At the present, last year's freshmen own the trophy and we all hope we get to keep it! Go get 'em SOPHS!! GREEN THUMB

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Coleman Adv. Ser.

GREEN THUMB... is the way of describing those that have a way with plant life. The ones, who are so gifted, will tell you that to be successful with plants, you must see that they have plenty of water. God knows too, that a soul must be watered in order for it to mature and grow.

"...and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not." Isaiah 58:11
