

Cuban refugee new M.D. here

A refugee from the tyranny of Fidel Castro and communist Cuba will begin private medical practice in Morton Monday, Aug. 21.

Dr. Elvaldo Fernandez Dubuy, 46, has moved to Morton with his wife, Lydia; and their young son, ten-year-old Raul. An older son, 22-year-old Evaldo, is enrolled in medical school in Spain.

The Fernandez family will live at 307 East Lincoln.

A tall, distinguished-looking man, Dr. Fernandez talked freely about his life, an interrupted career and the search for a new life in another country. "We were interested when Dr. (W. B.) McSpadden contacted me last month about coming to Morton. I wanted to return to private practice in a small town where my family could be together and live in peace. We were interested in your schools and your town when we came here."

Dr. Fernandez will become the second doctor in Cochran County. Dr. McSpadden has been the only doctor here since June 1, when Dr. Garnett C. Bryan returned to medical school for specialized training.

The new physician was reared in Cienfuegos, Cuba, and attended the University of Havana medical school. He received his M.D. degree in 1945 and was in general practice in a ten-doctor private clinic in Cienfuegos from 1946 until 1962.

"In 1961, my older son was in high school and he was working with the underground (clandestine operations in opposition to Castro). He got to be in danger, so we sent him to Havana to get him into a safer place. In October of 1961, he went to Miami, Fla.

"In April, 1962, the rest of us tried to get permission to leave the country. We were unsuccessful. On August 22, 1962, we escaped from Cuba in a small boat . . . a sail boat."

There were eight other people aboard the tiny vessel, besides the Fernandez family. They included another doctor, an engineer, a farmer, a mechanic, a restaurant employee and others.

They sailed to a tiny speck of land in the Bahama Island chain, Salt Cay. There they waited for the U. S. Coast Guard patrol boats which were darting throughout the area looking for refugees. But it was a Cuban boat, returning from a hit-and-run raid on Cuba, which found the group and carried them to Miami.

"We were placed in, what do you call it, detention . . . you know, like a jail, for about 24 to 26 hours," the doctor smiled in recollection. "We didn't have any visa, no papers; we were illegal entrants."

Like many Cubans before them, and since, they had arrived in Florida with almost no possessions, little money and perhaps only a few words of English. After a few days, Dr. Fernandez found his skills were in demand by the Kansas Public Health Service.

The family was sent to the state hospital at Winfield, Kan., for a few days while Dr. Fernandez underwent intensive training in English and general medical procedures in this country.

Forty-five days later, Dr. Fernandez was assigned to work at the Kansas Tuberculosis Hospital in Norton. He remained there for three and one-half years. In March, 1966, he went to work at McKnight State Hospital in Big Spring.

Their older son has been in medical school at Salamanca, Spain, for the past two years. He has four more years of study before receiving his degree. He is trying to get into an American medical school to cut down the distance and because he would like to practice in the U.S. In fact, after visiting in Morton

Oil company stock acquired by Sound Tonics president

An announcement was made Wednesday morning by Edward Walters, president of Nortex Oil and Gas Corp. that the controlling interest of United Australian Oil Inc. has been acquired by H. B. Todd, Amarillo, and Dr. C. H. Farr, Norman, Okla.

The newly elected board chairman Todd stated that an annual stockholders meeting will be held when an audit of the company is completed. Todd further stated that an annual report to the stockholders, including plans for immediate diversification and expansion of the company, will be distributed as soon as possible.

Todd is owner of Sound Tonics Inc., an electronics firm with headquarters in Amarillo. A branch of the firm, located in Morton, is engaged in repairing and rebuilding tape players, and in the manufacturing of two-way radios, amplifiers, and electronic exercisers.

Morton plant superintendent Tom Merrill said that the local company will hire at least four more employees in two weeks. Merrill said that interviews will begin on Monday.

"We've needed some more people for some time," he said, "but we've just been too busy to hire anyone."

Merrill also announced a new product will be added to the firm's list. The latest device is a lightning arrester for telephone companies. It prevents lightning from damaging delicate computers on the oil well-to-computer telephone lines.

City Council discusses fire department, zone problems

Within the fire department and buildings within the fire zone came verbal attack Monday night during a regular meeting of the Morton City Council.

The internal problems of the fire department were brought to light during the meeting, Mayor Jack Russell asked that Chief Tom Rowden and ex-fire marshal Rusty Reeder be requested to attend the meeting.

Reeder asked Rowden when he arrived at the meeting how it was possible to make the fire department operate more efficiently. Rowden replied that the department had had off but that a new fire pump was needed. He said that the state possibly force the city to purchase a 500 gal. pumper unit instead of the 300 gal. unit.

Reeder asked about the internal problems of the fire department — removal of members, training of new members, friction between new and old members, etc., Rowden said the department had some problems but nothing too serious.

He said that a regular place to hold fire, smoke, ladder and rescue drills would help. He also said that members who do not help in fighting a fire but sign the pay book should not be paid. (Firemen are paid $2 for each fire and each drill they attend.)

Councilman George Hargrove asked who had the authority to remove members and prevent internal discord. Rowden and Reeder both said the fire department itself had rules on the books to remove members for failure to attend the required number of drills and meetings.

Rowden pointed out that he didn't think the frictional problems were of such a nature as to prevent the department from operating efficiently.

It was also announced during the meeting that fire marshal Mickey Hoyle had resigned from the fire department. After much questioning as to why Hoyle had resigned, the council accepted the resignation and named Rusty Reeder as fire marshal.

It was then brought out that many of

★ United Fund

A meeting of all officers and directors of the Cochran County United Fund has been called for 10 a.m. Friday, Aug. 18. The meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce office. Plans will be made for the 1967 campaign, according to UF president H. A. Tuck.

Tax rate of 25-cents proposed for hospital

A tax rate of 25 cents per $100 of assessed valuation was proposed Wednesday morning during a budget hearing for the newly-created Cochran Memorial Hospital District. The rate was outlined by District president Glenn Thompson, who said the board had spent many hours during the past week trying to determine a possible tax rate.

"We realize this is higher than anticipated," Thompson said. "But we wanted to be realistic in our planning. Part of the higher rate is necessary to pay for the operating deficit for July, August and September of this year. Our fiscal year begins in October."

The budget shows proposed receipts of $199,325.00 with $67,825 coming from the 25-cent tax rate on $28,200,000 county valuation, at 95 per cent collection. Hospital income would be $109,500 and laboratory fees would add $22,000.

Proposed expenditures total $199,325 with an anticipated surplus of $125. Major items of the budget include: salaries, $88,000; debt retirement, $20,645; indigent patient care, $12,000; and operating deficit for the last three months of the 1967 fiscal year, $7,500.

The budget was presented in two ways. One shows the budget if the board operates the hospital and the other way if the hospital is operated under a lease system. The figures remain the same in each case.

Winners announced in rodeo

A Thursday morning rain failed to dampen the spirits of rodeo enthusiasts as the 17th annual Texas' Last Frontier rodeo got off to a booming start.

Activities were kicked-off Thursday afternoon with a 5 p.m. parade that included rodeo queen contestants, the reigning queen, agricultural implements, riding clubs and the usual complement of brightly decorated bicycles.

The rodeo, which started each of the three nights at 9 p.m., was well attended according to veteran rodeo observers.

Crowned queen of the rodeo was Janice Hall, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Hall. Second was Rayla Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffith. Third was Micheline Marina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Marina.

Winner of the saddle drawing Saturday night was John Latham of Bula.

After three nights of competition Windy Stoneman of Big Spring was the big winner in the bullriding competition. He scored 59 points riding Rinky Dink Saturday night. Second was Bunt Kitchens of Dimmitt, 55 points and third, Elson Rose, Hereford, 51 points. A two-way tie for fourth place resulted between Buddy Adair of Hagerman, N.M., and Eugene Cook, Lubbock. Both had 49 points.

Frank Hunter, Amarillo, won a buckle for his first place in the bareback bronc riding competition. He earned 60 points.

Saddle bronc winner was Elson Rose of Hereford with 65 points. Second was Marvin Schulte, Nazareth, 58 points.

A Big Spring cowboy, Horace Rankin, took top honors in the calf roping with a time of 24.1 for two calves. Second was Burl Mardis of Muleshoe with 24.3 seconds and Warren Brakehill of Causey, N. M., was third with 25.7 seconds.

Girls barrel race winner was Carolyn Tate of Clovis, N.M. She rode the cloverleaf pattern with a time of 36.0 on two rides. Bob Black of Muleshoe was the winner of the bull dogging contest with a time of 27.0 on two steers.

Head and heeling winner was the team of Bouie Wesley of Wildorado and Tommy Record of Pampa with a time of 24.5 for two steers.

THE PHOTOGRAPHER, THAT IS. After photographer George Tuck took a picture of Bunt Kitchens, Dimmitt, atop bull number 4, the bull proceeded to mash the photographer into the fence at the Texas' Last Frontier Rodeo Thursday. Kitchens came out with 55 points for the ride and Tuck came out with cuts, abrasions and severe bruises for his trouble. The bull apparently doesn't like photographers. (Staff Photo)

Hazards of photography or That's a lot of bull

By GEORGE TUCK
News Editor

Covering a rodeo for a newspaper is a lot of fun unless, of course, you are allergic to horses, dust and weeds as I am. But, as is said in newspaper circles, "Neither rain, nor sleet, nor dark of night . . ." Or is that just a post office saying?

But the 17th annual Texas' Last Frontier Rodeo deserved coverage. So I pumped myself full of antihistamines, black coffee (for courage), Kleenex (for obvious reasons; and drove out to the rodeo Thursday night.

Since it seems as though I have spent the better part of my life either playing in a band at a rodeo or taking pictures of rodeos, I knew what to expect in the way of pictures.

I knew what to wear (old jeans and boots), where to stand (out of the way) and what to say (Howdy, you all). I also had learned that there were certain times it was best to leave the arena in the capable hands of the pick-up men, clowns, riders, and the animals and make for the fence.

Since I had made it through the rodeo to the bull riding event, I was feeling pretty confident. I had used only a dozen or so Kleenexes, had taken some good pictures, had plenty of film left and only about 20 minutes to go before I could settle down in the comfort of my ultra-modern chair and finish reading the novel I had started a month or so ago.

The first bull is ready to come out so I station myself a discreet 20 feet from the gate, feet firmly planted, ready to run at the slightest provocation toward the nearest fence.

Out he comes. Bounce, bounce. Flash. Trot toward the fence. Climb on top and watch the last of the ride. More confidence.

Now I'm ready for the second bull of the evening. The announcer says something about bull number 4 being ridden by Bunt Kitchens of Dimmitt. Then he says, "Anybody out in the arena is on his own. We're not responsible for accidents."

"Psychological warfare," I say to myself, walking out into the arena.

Feet no so firmly planted I wait with no little anxiety the opening of the gate!

Kitchens nods his head, the gate opens and old number 4 charges out into the arena. I line him up in my viewfinder and snap the picture.

As the flash goes off the bull seems to take an immediate dislike to me and aim toward me.

Remembering the first adage of the rodeo clowns and bull riders, "Circle the See MORE BULL, Page 2 last month with his parents, he thinks he would like to practice medicine here after graduation.

Mrs. Fernandez, an attractive and outgoing woman, also had to give up a career when the family left Cuba. She was a practicing attorney in Cienfuegos. Asked if she would try to get permission to practice in the United States, she said she wouldn't and explained "Cuban law is based on common law, like Europe, and also on the Napoleonic Code. . . I would have to start all over to practice in the United States."

The Fernandez family is looking forward to a more normal family life in Morton, particularly for young Raul, who's almost 11. He will be a fifth grader this year and eager for friends. His mother explained, "We have lived in hospital housing since we have been in the United States and Raul hasn't had many boys his own age to play with." However, it is apparent he has adapted quickly, as he has gone to school all the time in this country and his English is letterperfect. His eyes particularly sparkled when baseball and the Little League program were brought up.

Dr. Fernandez sees little likelihood that he and his family will ever be able to return to Cuba. Nor does he see much chance that Cuba will ever be freed of communist control. "Russia is spending one million dollars a day to support Castro," he said, and the only question is how long Russia will be able to afford this burden.

Letters from his two brothers and two sisters who remain in Cuba indicate that conditions are deplorable. Another sister is in Miami. One of the sisters in Cuba is trying to get permission to come to the United States. "The others are too old for such an adventure," he said.

"We have sent them such things as shoes. . . there are no shoes to be found in Havana," he declared. Such items as medicine also are in short supply. "We send them medicine, but it has to be by way of Spain."

In common with many other Cuban refugees, Dr. Fernandez states that the last-minute decision to cancel air support for the Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba probably cost the island its freedom. "At that time, there was more opposition to Castro in Cuba and the invasion would have been successful if there had been air support.

release and nothing happens. I mutter something about that darned bull and hobble back to the fence. In reality my strobe hadn't warmed up enough to flash.

Deciding that pain was the better part of valor I strived to walk back to my car, about a half mile away, without turning into a mass of jelly. This I did, thinking all the way that I now had a genuine wound suffered in the heat of battle.

I could see the obituary notice: "A greater love hath no photographer that he lay down his life for a picture. . ." I would be famous. No. Just sore.

Walking into my house I called for immediate medical attention. Alcohol (for the wounds, not the stomach) and methiolate added more flame to my searing wounds. At least that's what they felt like.

The next day x-rays showed no broken ribs (drat it!), only severe bruises. No medal-winning-for-valor wounds.

Some how with all the aches and pains I had forgotten all about my allergies. "Maybe rodeos are good for something after all," I thought to myself.

But then, that was a lot of bull.

the buildings in the fire zone (extending one block south and two blocks north, and east of the courthouse) as legal buildings from the standpoint of regulations.

Regulations state that all buildings in that area must be of masonry construction with walls not less than inches thick. Buildings of wood construction are not acceptable.

Because buildings of this nature within the fire zone, all city home business owners must pay a higher insurance premium.

Mayor Jack Russell said that if approved buildings existed in the zone savings to insurance purchasers would "be substantial."

A check around the courthouse revealed that about 12 businesses housed in unapproved buildings.

In other council business, purchase of a mowing machine for use at Strick Park was approved on a motion second by Earl Stowe and Wiley H. Purchase price is estimated at $400.

Payment of bills in the amount of $92.47 was approved by the council motion and second by Herman B. and George Hargrove.

Hargrove read to the council several ordinances he considered needed. Many of those he read were dated 1958 have since been revised or eliminated. Action was taken by the council per the study of several other ordinances.

Indian football practice begins with 15 lettermen, good prospects

Head-knocking started Monday for the Morton Indians as coach Fred Weaver lost little time preparing for the season. Thirty-six players reported for opening sessions of the two-a-days that will continue until classes begin.

Fifteen lettermen, including six defensive and six offensive regulars, make the squad stronger in depth than in the past two years. Another letterman, senior guard

Karl Griffith, received a back injury this summer and won't be able to play. Also missing is sophomore fullback George Washington, who moved out of state.

Plenty of contact is being mixed with timing drills for the players during the workouts at 8 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

A possible pleasant surprise could come with the reporting of Willie Moore, a 6-2 175-pound senior. His good hands and jumping ability from the varsity basketball squad might prove good targets on pass plays this fall.

"We really are pleased with the spirit and work the boys have shown," Weaver said. "They reported in good shape and were ready to hit from the first workout. Some of the boys really grew this summer and should be a lot of help to us."

Weaver is delighted with the prospect of some depth behind his starters. At times last season, it was a toss-up whether the injury list or the playing list would be longer.

Following is a list of boys who have reported for training: LaMell Abbe, senior end, 187, two letters; Johnny Arnold, sophomore; Billy Baker, senior back, 180, one letter; Gerald Baker, sophomore back, 145; Wendell Bickett, sophomore guard, 140; Mike Bryan, sophomore quarterback, 145; Dennis Clayton, sophomore back, 140; Tommy DeBusk, junior center, 145, one letter;

Randy Kelly, senior end, 160, one letter; Ray King, senior center, 170, two letters; Hershel Lamar, junior tackle, 187, squadman; Ricky Lemons, sophomore center, 140; Dee Merritt, junior back, 140, one letter; Willie Moore, senior end, 175; Larry McClintock, sophomore back, 130;

fer, sophomore end, 180; Doug Scott, junior back, 130, squadman; Bill Smart, senior guard, 185, two letters; Alex Soliz, junior back, 145, one letter; Ralph Soliz, sophomore back, 135; Jerry Steed, sophomore guard, 140;

Gary Sullivan, sophomore tackle, 145; Kenneth Taylor, sophomore tackle, 240; Wayne Thompson, junior quarterback, 135, one letter; Dick Vanlandingham, senior tackle, 185, two letters; Tommy Waters junior back, 165, one letter; Jerry Wisely, sophomore tackle, 230; and Randy Wood, senior guard, 175.

Weaver also announced schedules for the B Team, Freshman Squad and Junior High teams.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49-e, as follows:

"Section 49-e. The Parks and Wildlife Department, or its successor vested with the powers, duties, and authority which deals with the operation, maintenance, and improvement of State Parks, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called 'Texas Park Development Bonds,' shall be executed in such form, denominations, and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by the Parks and Wildlife Department or its successor, but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds, shall not exceed four and one-half percent (4½%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its successor, finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purpose set forth herein.

"All moneys received from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created with the State Treasurer to be known as the Texas Park Development Fund to be administered (without further appropriation) by the said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its successor, in such manner as prescribed by law.

"Such fund shall be used by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature.

"From the moneys received by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from the sale of the bonds issued hereunder, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this section such sufficient moneys to pay the interest to become due during the State fiscal year in which the bonds were issued. After partition, or its said successor, such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by general law, for the purposes of acquiring lands from the United States, or any governmental agency thereof, from any person, firm, or corporation, for State Park Sites and for developing said sites as State Parks.

"While any of the bonds authorized by this provision, or any interest on any such bonds, is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount which is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds that mature or become due during such fiscal year, less the amount in the interest and sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year, which includes any receipts derived during the prior fiscal year by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from admission charges to State Parks, as the Legislature may prescribe by general law.

"The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Park Development Fund and the interest and sinking fund established for the payment of bonds issued by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature.

"From the moneys received by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from the sale of the bonds issued hereunder, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this section such sufficient moneys to pay the interest to become due during the State fiscal year in which the bonds were issued. After all bonds have been fully paid with interest, or after there are on deposit in the interest and sinking fund sufficient moneys to pay all future maturities of principal and interest, additional moneys received from such additional charges to State Parks shall be deposited to the State Park Fund, or any successor fund which may be established by the Legislature as a depository for Park revenue earned by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor.

"All bonds issued hereunder shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on November 11, 1967, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon, the following words:

"FOR the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-e of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Park Development Fund to acquire lands for State Park sites and to develop State Parks."

"AGAINST the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-e of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Park Development Fund to acquire lands for State Park sites and to develop State Parks."

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 17 proposing an amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, so as to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board to Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds or obligations and the conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; and providing for a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which has been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term. If the office of a deceased or resigning member had been appointed, the compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature.

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present.

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as are now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds may not exceed four and one-half percent (4½%). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Veterans' Land Fund. Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price therefor, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with such proceeds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bonds to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds; or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased therewith) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division, the moneys thereof, except such portion as may be needed to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violative of any contract to which said Board is a party.

"The Veterans' Land Fund shall be used by said Board for the purpose of purchasing lands situated in the State of Texas owned by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, owned by the Texas Prison System or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas, or owned by any person, firm, or corporation. All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, to be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of said Fund. Such lands heretofore or hereafter purchased and comprising a part of said Fund are hereby declared to be held for a governmental purpose, although the individual purchasers thereof shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as are purchasers of lands dedicated to the Permanent Free Public School Fund.

"The lands of the Veterans' Land Fund shall be sold by said Board in such quantities, on such terms, at such prices, at such rates of interest and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law to veterans who served not less than ninety (90) continuous days, unless sooner discharged by reason of a service-connected disability, on active duty in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, and who, upon the date of filing his or her application to purchase any such land is a citizen of the United States, is a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, and has not been dishonorably discharged from any branch of the Armed Forces above-named and who at the time of his or her enlistment, induction, commissioning, or draft was a bona fide resident of the State of Texas, or who has resided in Texas at least five (5) years prior to the date of filing his or her application. The foregoing notwithstanding, any lands in the Veterans' Land Fund which have been first offered for sale to veterans and which have not been sold may be sold or resold to such purchasers, in such quantities and on such terms, and at such prices and rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund, to the extent of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law, for the purpose of paying the expenses of surveying, monumenting, road construction, legal fees, recordation fees, advertising and other like costs necessary or incidental to the purchase and sale, or resale, of any lands purchased with any such moneys attributable to such additional bonds, such expenses to be added to the price of such lands when sold, or resold, by said Board; for the purpose of paying the expenses of issuing, selling, and delivering any such additional bonds; and for the purpose of meeting the expenses of paying the interest or principal due or to become due on any such additional bonds.

"All of the moneys attributable to any series of bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board (a 'series of bonds' being all of the bonds issued and sold in a single installment of bonds) may be used for the purchase of lands as herein provided, to be sold as herein provided, for a period ending eight (8) years after the date of sale of such series of bonds; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on such bonds heretofore issued and sold shall be set aside for that purpose in accordance with the resolution adopted by said Board authorizing the issuance and sale of such series of bonds. After such eight (8) year period, all of such moneys shall be set aside for the re-irement of any bonds heretofore issued and sold and to pay interest thereon, together with any expenses as provided herein, in accordance with the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance and sale of such additional bonds, until there are sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds heretofore issued and sold, at which time all such moneys then remaining a part of said Veterans' Land Fund and thereafter becoming a part of said Fund shall be governed as elsewhere provided herein.

"This Amendment being intended only to establish a basic framework and not to be a comprehensive treatment of the Veterans' Land Program, there is hereby reserved in the Legislature full power to implement and effectuate the design and objects of this Amendment, including the power to modify, amend, supplement, alter, change, or repeal the same, and to transfer to the Veterans' Land Board as it believes necessary.

"Should the Legislature enact any enabling laws in anticipation of this Amendment, no such law shall be void by reason of its anticipatory nature."

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on November 11, 1967, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following words:

"FOR the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

"AGAINST the amendment to extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing the sale of bonds to increase the Veterans' Land Fund for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the present armed conflict in Viet Nam, which amendment would amend Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, and provide for an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

Through the telescope by Tuck

The Tribune staff has had a lot of fun kidding news editor George Tuck about his rather rough encounter with a Brahma bull at Thursday night's rodeo performance. The bull apparently didn't like having his picture made and mashed George and a few cowboys against the fence. George survived although he claimed the issue was in doubt for a few days. He's still sore and his bruises are turning a most interesting color of green. But he survived and the rodeo got complete coverage from the Tribune.

Friday night was my time to take pictures in the arena and I'll admit I found myself unusually light-footed and ready to run. And my pictures showed my apprehension . . . most of them were taken 10 or 20 feet further away than they should have been.

A vicious storm around Enochs Monday night left a couple of inches of rain in some places and also hailed out some cotton. Reports we got were that the hail was only marble sized, but extremely hard and dense. Weather for almost a week has been fall-like, with farmers wishing for hot sunshine to help the cotton and grain crops along.

Football practice started Monday in Morton and later this week in Whiteface, Bula, and Three Way. The twice-daily practice sessions will continue until classes begin. Years ago, coaches used to withhold water from the players, telling them it would make them sick. But doctors have traced collapse of many players to dehydration and now the coaches usually allow water and other drinks to be consumed during practice. The Morton players are a little dubious of the concoction brewed for them this year. Dubbed "Indian Fire Water", it is a high-potency fruit drink, laced heavily with salt to replace the liquid and salt lost through perspiration. The first three days of practice have been under overcast skies, with cool temperatures, that has made the players more comfortable. The practice sessions are sharp and the boys are high-spirited and ready to hit.

Last-minute vacations are being taken now as school draws near. One of the most ardent campers we know around here is George Hargrove, who loads wife and youngsters into his Volkswagen station wagon and heads for the hills at frequent intervals. He was mulling over maps and literature about Canada the other day . . . and was about ready to leave for British Columbia. But he figured that in the time he had available, he would have to average over 400 miles per day . . . which is a bunch at 50 miles an hour. "We'll probably just make another trip to New Mexico," he sighed, but the gleam of Canada was still in his eyes as he said it.

We had a lot more to write about, but a funny thing happened on the way to the press. We had a wreck just south of Morton while heading to Denver City. No one was hurt, for which we are grateful. But it did make a mess of the Tribune's Blue Goose and really climaxed a weird week. We stood in the drizzle until the situation was straightened out and I accepted a ticket with as much grace as could be mustered under the circumstances. Next week just has to be better.

I meant to write a poem,
But after the wreck
I muttered, shrugged and then thought, "Oh, heck".

Commissioners award improvement contracts

The Cochran County Commissioners Court Monday awarded the general, mechanical, electrical, and kitchen equipment for the additions and alterations to the Cochran Memorial Hospital. Total price of the contracts was $184,191.

Motion to accept the bid was made by Leonard Coleman, seconded by U. F. Wells.

The commissioners then decided that a need existed for the county tax assessor to assess and collect taxes for the Cochran Memorial Hospital District without charge. The motion for this was made by Wells, seconded by Coleman.

A motion and second by Coleman and Wells award general, mechanical, electrical and jail contracts for the additions and improvements to the Cochran County Court house.

Meeting with the court during the time the hospital improvement contracts were the members of the board of directors of the hospital as well as the lawyer for the hospital.

Pictorial review of 17th annual Texas' Last Frontier Rodeo

How goes on . . .
LITTLE RAIN THURSDAY failed to dampen the spirits or the performance of either parade or rodeo during the opening activities of the 17th annual Texas Last Frontier Rodeo held in Morton last weekend.

A blur of events . . .

THE GRAND ENTRY SERVED TO set the pace for the following events at Morton's Texas' Last Frontier Rodeo held last weekend. The entry's blur of people, horses, and flags was a foretaste of the rodeo itself. Events whizzed by as horses, steers and bulls pitted their animal strength against the strength and determination of man.

Parade entry . . .

WHAT'S A PARADE WITHOUT flags? There was no lack of them in Morton Thursday. The parade kicking off the rodeo held in Morton last weekend featured area riding clubs, such as this entry from Bovina, agricultural implements and a convoy of bicycles.

family affair . . .

MULTITUDES OF FAMILIES crowded Morton streets Thursday afternoon to watch the parade which kicked off activities during the rodeo.

These hand-holding youngsters comprised a part of those who watched the parade.

As one hat to another . . .

THIS LOOKING DOWN view of two cowboy-spectators found at the 17th annual Texas' Last Frontier Rodeo in Morton Thursday night was typical of the view from the judges booth above the rodeo arena. From the booth most cowboys looked the same.

Rodeo queen . . .

JANICE HALL was crowned Rodeo Queen on the basis of her advance ticket sales. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Hall of Morton.

Young bull fighter . . .

JACKIE STEVENS, 16, a junior in Ralls High School, has spent his summer working as a rodeo clown and bull fighter. He is shown before a performance of the Texas Last Frontier Rodeo giving the shoelaces of his football shoes an extra tug. Jackie, who has worked 15 rodeos this summer, has been clowning for a year.

A fearful sight . . .

HIGHLIGHT OF A rodeo is always the bull riding events. It was no different in Morton Thursday, Friday and Saturday during the rodeo.

Here bull rider Elson Rose from Hereford is shown matching facial expressions with bull number 2. He received 51 points for his ride.

MORTON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1967

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS, SIDELIGHTS

State-federal Medicaid program starts September

AUSTIN, Tex. — State and hospital officials are confident the far-reaching new medical program will begin functioning as scheduled on September 1.

Program will bring medical and hospital benefits to 350,000 needy Texans. It is authorized by the same federal law which provides medicare to old folks.

Texas Department of Public Welfare, which will administer medicaid, estimates benefits during the first year of operation will total $125,000,000. Federal funds will match a $26,700,000 state outlay on a four-to-one basis.

Eligible for benefits are Texans on public welfare assistance rolls — old age assistance, aid to blind, families with dependent children and the totally and permanently disabled, or those eligible for such assistance who are patients at state mental and tuberculosis hospitals. (Coverage is automatic for the latter, with no application as such required.)

SERVICES INCLUDE in-patient and outpatient hospital care, diagnostic such as laboratory fees and x-ray doctor bills and nursing home care.

Bill will be paid through a "intermediary". Welfare Department contract with Blue Cross-Blue Shield handle doctors' bills (on strict basis of prevailing charges). Hospital will be paid full costs as shown by audit. Cross-Blue Shield will be reimbursed the state and will receive an administrative fee.

Eligible welfare enrollees will be identified by cards from the Department of Public Welfare. Cards can be used to insure care as limited by provisions of the federal act (Title 19).

FISH GET STUDY — Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission will hold a hearing Thursday (August 17) to map regulations for importation, sale and lease of undesirable tropical fish.

Staff members will present a list of desirable tropical fish, including 10 species and several members of the headed fish genera. Included among desirables: the Aruana, three species Piranha, the electric eel and electric fish, Gar-pike, Pavon or Peacock, two species of South American catfish, the fresh water stingray. Quota compares with 1,411 for August 1974 for July, 975 for June, 885 for May and 675 for April.

Draft boards will forward approximately 4,000 men in September, all first Army.

ATTORNEY GENERAL — Ft. Worth Municipal Utility District can sue in navigation and reclamation projects along the Texas coast if approved by Texas Water Rights Commission, Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In another opinion, Martin concluded "dedication" of a two-acre Dallas tract, its sale to a bank as security for a perpetual care endowment fund subsequent lease to a licensed funeral establishment is legal.

PAID TOO MUCH? — Sabine River authority employees working on Toledo Bend Project are paid too much money, according to Texas and Louisiana state auditors. More than $46,900,000 has been spent on the two states on the giant multiple pose dam and reservoir at Toledo Bend. Salaries since 1962 have totalled $82 million, audit report noted.

PROJECTS UNDERWAY — Contractors dredge and mark a 5,500-foot boat access channel at Goose Island State Recreation Park, 10 miles northeast of Rockport, has been awarded by the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Final plans now are being drawn for a 1,620-foot lighted fishing pier on Goose Island's eastern tip. Channel will extend from the boat ramp near the headquarters building in the park and extend eastward from the boat ramp to the headquarters building in the park and connect with St. Charles Bay Channel. Completed channel will be five feet deep, 20 feet wide and will permit use of the boat ramp at Goose Island State Park access to St. Charles Bay Channel and other fishing waters in St. Charles Bay.

New Texas Occupational Safety Board will interview applicants for the $100,000 per year chief safety engineer's post September 7.

Unreasonable tax increase

A newsletter from Senator John Tower leaves little doubt that one of Texas' senators will fight the administration's plans for a ten per cent tax increase. He says as much and points out some facts that support his stand. This is what he says:

"The Administration's call for a 10 per cent tax increase is a confession of past fiscal failure and a promise of failure to come. It admits the Administration's spending policies have undermined the economy, but it reveals that the Administration's blind solution is simply more and more spending. The facts are that this Administration's irresponsible spending policies already have subjected the American people to a massive dose of the most cruel of all taxations — inflation. This year we are faced with a federal deficit of 30-billion dollars. Even if there were a tax increase the deficit still would be in the 20's of billions.

"Such an enormous deficit, coupled with continued government spending and with pressure on interest rates leaves us only the prospect of more and more inflation. If the Administration is now given even more tax dollars, it will simply spend them and compound inflation.

"For months many of us in Congress have been warning this Administration that its deficit spending policies were leading us toward a $30 billion annual deficit and urging a cut in domestic spending. Now, the Administration asks individual taxpayers to bail it out of its fiscal irresponsibility.

"An income tax increase, on top of federally-spurred inflation, on top of a coming Social Security tax increase could only further and drastically increase the costs of living of every single American.

"Just last month that cost of living was forced up to an all-time high, and it now costs Americans $11.60 to buy what they could get for $10 about six years ago. Repressive taxation on top of such inflation could kick off a serious recession saddling the United States with that most dreaded of economic woes — combined recession and inflation.

"It has been estimated that if such a tax increase goes into effect on top of other increases, a worker getting $7,500 a year would have to get an immediate raise of $365 just to break even with his current annual purchasing power.

"Neither is it any justification to claim that this increase is some sort of "war tax" for future Vietnam needs. The big jump in federal spending has been in domestic, not defense spending, and the needs of Vietnam have been well known months before now.

"Since 1960 when the New Frontier-Great Society began its inflationary spending spree, defense spending has increased 68 per cent — chiefly because war in Vietnam broke out during the period — but non-defense spending has increased 97 per cent.

"Looking at it another way, since 1960 our population has grown 10 per cent, but federal government spending has jumped 83 per cent.

"Today, this Administration is asking taxpayers to save it from its bankrupt policies. And, if it gets away with that, it never will bring its finances under control but will continue to spend and spend and spend.

"This Federal inflationary spending has not achieved its loudly-proclaimed goals — reduced poverty, domestic law and order and more jobs. In fact, through high costs of living, this spending has contributed to the hardship of many Americans living on fixed income.

"By refusing to face the fact that it's on the wrong track, the Administration is simply stockpiling a time-bomb of problems just as it has stockpiled deficits each year since 1961 to a total of $60 billion. In those seven years the Administration has had to raise the Federal debt limit 14 times until interest on the debt now eats up a dime of every tax dollar.

"And these deficits do matter. To go into debt means to borrow. When the government borrows it adds to the money supply, inflating it and causing pressure from increased prices. When it borrows, the government competes with business for investment funds, driving up interest rates and soaking up private capital that might otherwise be creating new jobs.

"I, therefore, will oppose this tax increase because it is time to draw the line. It is time for the Federal government to understand that its citizens expect the value of their dollar to be protected and their living cost stabilized."

Poverty program suspicion

One of the federal government's latest boondoggles, the poverty program, has proved to be one of its worst. Headlines cropped up like toadstools last weekend regarding some highly suspicious activities connected with the multi-million dollar program.

One story told of a courageous civilian government employee who couldn't understand why the poverty program needed seven high-powered rifle sights. He ordered that the sights not be shipped, although the order appeared to be legitimate and had stamps of approval all over it. The order specifically stated that the sights were to be suitable for attachment to "any high powered rifle."

Another story related that three poverty workers in Kentucky had been arrested and charged with possessing seditious material. Among items confiscated from their homes were "Communist literature and films."

Still another incident had to do with charges that poverty funds had been used to pay for space and personnel who advocated a Black Power overthrow of the government.

And still another story reported that only one-tenth of those classed as being in poverty-level income groups were being reached by the government-aid program.

We have opposed the poverty program from its inception — not because the poverty-stricken of our land don't deserve help, but because the program is mis-handled and misdirected.

Testimony before congressional committees following tragic riots in Newark, Detroit and elsewhere have brought out clearly that many misguided poverty workers were inciting slum dwellers to riot, arson and even looting. This by people on federal

Can't afford guns and butter

As the proposed boost in the income tax gets closer, along with the announced increase in Social Security tax, the average wage earning American is beginning to take another look at the Great Society and wonder if he can afford it.

The Johnson administration has some glaring weaknesses, and one of the greatest is its inability to balance its non-defense spending against the rise in the cost of the war in Vietnam.

President Johnson told the nation in January that we are rich and well able to afford the cost of the war in Vietnam, along with the expanding cost of the Great Society welfare spending programs, indicating at the time that those who thought we couldn't afford it were either misinformed or of the opposite political party.

Well, it has turned out that either we can't afford it or we are reading the signs wrong.

The economy has suffered during the past year, and inflation is with us. The cost of living has risen enough already to amount to a moderate tax boost, and it looks like more is in store.

Probably a majority of the American people support the Johnson administration's actions in Vietnam, and it follows that a majority would support a tightening of the federal budget to put the country on something like a war footing.

This would call for a hard look at the budget and a placing of priority on what needs to be bought first.

If this country can afford to be on a spending spree like it has been for the past two years, well and good. But if it can't, as appears more likely, it is high time to cut out nonessential spending.

Even if it affects the politician's vote getting machinery.

In we trust

In a recent graphics contest in which the problem centered about the typographic illustration of "words we live with," first prize went to a white rectangle with bold block letters stating "In — We Trust." The point, as explained by Janet Horner, a 20-year-old student at Pratt Institute of Art School, is that "people today — rightly or wrongly — put their trust in many things besides God and I felt my design would have greater impact with the word reworded."

Aside from getting into the theological or denominational ambiguity of the familiar "In God We Trust" declaration — after all, which religion's God do "we" really trust in? — the prize poster painfully clarifies the difficulty of pinpointing something in which modern man does trust. While many people have managed to maintain their various faiths, there is a widespread questioning of values both spiritual and secular.

Give it a try: Art, Science, Psychiatry, the Corporation, the State, LSD, Love, Diplomacy, Logic Power? Any one or even a combination of these somehow seems inadequate in the face of frustrations in Vietnam racial disorders at home or a payrolls who were actively encouraging insurrection and revolt against the law of the land.

When the riots became widespread, the federal government had to call in National Guard troops to restore order. So we have the strange result of paying federal troops to put down riots that have been encouraged by federal employees.

We find ourselves in the strange position of pitting the strength of our nation against the encroachments of communism in other lands while paying those who sympathize with the communist doctrine in our midst.

We are spending millions in the poverty program, yet fail to reach 90 per cent of those who need help most.

What has been created is another self-perpetuating bureaucratic boondoggle that falls far short of its goals. We are taxing ourselves poor in order to do a poor job of helping the poor.

creeping vulgarity on practically a worldwide basis.

One of the most disturbing elements in some of the social and moral upheavals in contemporary life — and there are and have been many — is the all too frequent assault on a traditional base or belief with apparently nothing in the offing to fill in the subsequent gap.

Perhaps out of their very need will in time come a general restoration of belief. We do not profess to know; we merely note a mark of the age: An increasing unease among all types and classes of people that can usually only be described vaguely as a feeling of emptiness. And it is this sad state, this emptiness, that Miss Horner has graphically — even if unintentionally — illustrated.

The danger and opportunity

Amid public discussion of how to end urban riots, it is helpful to remember that the enemy is not the whites or the blacks, not the police on the one hand or the Negro extremists on the other. The enemy is hate itself.

Some black leaders, disillusioned with white society, are calling on blacks to build a totally separate society within the United States. Yet such separatism would solve nothing if hate should motivate the attitude of the races toward each other. Some white spokesmen, fearful of new violence, are calling for severe and vigorous repression of black disturbances. And while there is certainly a necessity for the prompt and firm curbing of lawlessness, the iron fist will solve nothing if race hate still simmers below the surface. Even the most carefully thought out programs of urban reform can do little if hate poisons race relations. Hate only divides and destroys — it builds nothing.

The danger is that current publicity and agitation will inflame animosities. Preoccupation with violence threatens to make people forget the genuine progress of the Negro has been making with the help of the white establishment. The Wall Street Journal cites government figures showing that Negro family income and education levels have been rising faster than those of whites; that unemployment among Negro men has been dropping much faster than unemployment among white men; that the portion of nonwhite families below the "poverty level" has been dropping faster than the corresponding portion of white families. While grievous disparities still remain and in certain respects have increased, and substandard housing and unemployment among young Negroes cry out for urgent remedial steps, still much progress has been made in recent years by intelligent and cooperative social action.

Neither white security nor black progress can be found by increasing the hate-content in public thought. That way lies madness and destruction. Those misguided revolutionaries (on either side) who are trying to inoculate the American public mind with the virus of hate must be stopped — by vigorous public rejection (black and white) of their evil counsel.

The American people must solve their race problem by working together, and it

The truth about lending

Truth-in-lending proposals are coming at a fast and furious rate. Senator William Proxmire has introduced a bill that would require the dollar and approximate annual percentage rate disclosure for all kinds of consumer credit, including cash loans and the credit sales of all consumer goods and department store accounts. He says the recent FTC staff proposals don't go far enough.

If Senator Proxmire's bill is accepted as proposed, a borrower would have to be informed in writing of the cash price, the down-payment and trade-in credits, unpaid balance owed, incidental charges, and insurance costs. He would also have to be given a written statement showing the finance charge in dollars and cents, an annual percentage rate, the time and amount of total repayments, and the terms relating to late or advanced payments.

Here's the way it might be for the consumer who wants to trade in a tire for a new one:

Con: "I'd like to buy a tire."
Clerk: "Yes sir. Cash or credit?"
Con: "Credit."
Clerk: "We have a tire that sells for $20. Finance charges amount to $2 annually, or 10%."
Con: "I'll take the 10%."
Clerk: "That's the same as $2."
Con: "Oh, Well, in that case, I'll take the $2."
Clerk: "Yes sir. Do you have a trade-in?"
Con: "Yes."
Clerk: "We allow $2 on the trade-in. Do you want the old tire removed?"
Con: "Yes."
Clerk: "We have a $1 labor charge for tire removals. And the new tire gets put on?"
Con: "Yes."
Clerk: "We have a $1 labor charge for putting on tires. How about insurance for the term of the loan?"
Con: "Insurance?"
Clerk: "Sure. If something should happen to you — God forbid — the wife and kiddies wouldn't be burdened with paying off this tire loan. It's only a quarter."
Con: "Okay."
Clerk: "Now, our usual term for this amount is 6 months. You have to pay on the tenth of every month. It amounts to (figuring) about $3.60 a month."
Con: "About?"
Clerk: "Yeah. Our credit manager used to figure these things for us, but he's out with a nervous breakdown. Let's see (figuring again). It's a 3% penalty, or 18 cents, if you're more than 5 days late with a payment."
Con: "I'll take the 3%."
Clerk: "It's the same as 18 cents. Okay, the 3%. If you pay off in advance, we figure 10% of the unpaid balance."
Con: "So, okay, I'll take it."
Clerk: "Would you take a seat in the lounge, sir?"
Con: "Seat?"
Clerk: "Yes sir. There are pool tables there and light snacks available. I'll have to put this whole thing in writing . . ."

Whiteface man ends Marine combat school

Marine Private Doyle E. Miller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle E. Miller Sr. of 21780 Highway, Whiteface, has completed four weeks of individual combat training at this Marine Corps Base.

During his more than 200 hours of training, he learned about weapons and combat techniques from combat veteran instructors. They taught him how to conduct combat patrols, detect and remove mines and booby traps, and use the standard Marine Corps infantry weapons.

He will now receive at least four weeks of specialist training before being assigned to his first permanent unit. Marines going to combat units will get detailed training in the particular combat skill they are designated for. Those who are going into technical fields will receive their advanced training at one of a variety of technical schools throughout the country.

Mrs. Lyndall Burleson homemaker of the week

The Tribune's homemaker for this week is Mrs. Lyndall Burleson. Both Mr. and Mrs. Burleson have lived in Morton since childhood. They have two children, Jay 5½, and Kent 3½. Mr. Burleson is associated with his father in Burleson paint and supply.

They are members of the First Baptist Church, and Mrs. Burleson is Circle chairman for the Helen Nixon Circle.

Mrs. Burleson says she enjoys sewing, reading, and collecting recipes, but most of her time is occupied with taking care of her little boys.

Mrs. Burleson enjoys cooking and taking care of her family. She was more than happy to share with us two of her recipes.

Well, hi again! It seems as if the weeks keep slipping by a little faster so that we'll have to start school that much earlier. The big day is Tuesday, September 5.

One thing I failed to mention in my last column was that my brother, Jimmy, and I played host to a party Tuesday night, August 8. Around fifty kids showed up to enjoy eating several different kinds of homemade ice cream. Then everyone piled on a trailer for a hayride.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kelly pulled the trailer with a tractor, and everything went just fine until everyone decided to get off and run. Guess who got left behind? Right, yours truly! But all in all, disregarding the fact that one girl flipped her wig and a boy almost got his ribs caved in, the party and hayride turned out pretty good.

Speaking of parties, the MHS Pep Squad had a party Monday, August 14, in the home of Alice Black, president of the Club. The girls held a small business meeting, after which they enjoyed refreshments. Then the cheerleaders showed the girls some of the new yells they learned at camp and told the club of some of their experiences there.

About twenty girls showed up to join the Pep Squad, but a lot more are needed. The purpose of the club is to keep up the school spirit by being present at all the football games and supporting other school activities. Any girl in MHS may be a member. The dues are 50 cents and a pattern for this year's uniform can be obtained from St. Clair's Dept. Store—Simplicity, No. 7165, 65 cents.

The MHS football squad is making ready for its first game, which will be played on their home field against Olton, Friday, September 8. The boys started two-a-days this last Monday morning. They meet every morning at 8:00 and every night at 6:30 to work out.

The MHS cheerleaders attempted to let the boys know that everyone is backing this year and really expect a great team. They decorated the field house with signs and posters and also hung up a petition signed by the townspeople stating, "Indians, we're behind you all the way." And we are!

Janice Hall, a freshman at Morton High School, received the title of Rodeo Queen last Thursday night after having sold more tickets than the other two entries, Rayla Griffith (junior), and Micheline Marina (freshman). Rayla was first runner-up and Micheline was second runner-up.

The Morton High School band will probably start band rehearsals next week as they have in past summers. I am not sure about Mr. Stockdale's plans yet, but band members should watch for an announcement in the paper or on the radio and try to come to these extra rehearsals if at all possible.

Well, here goes another week, another column. It's not long till school starts so students ought to start getting used to the idea of homework, etc.

But also with the starting of school, comes football games. We hope everyone will be sure and attend all the games this year and see our Indians on to victory after victory!

Charles Hill promoted to Airman First Class

Charles F. Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Hill of 609 N.E. Fourth, Morton, has been promoted to airman first class in the U. S. Air Force.

Airman Hill is a medical specialist at Sheppard AFB, Tex. He is a member of the Air Training Command which operates the world's largest technical school system to train personnel for Air Force duty.

The airman is a graduate of Morton High School.

His wife, Earnestine, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donaldson of 8735 Quincy, Detroit.

Ernest Chessier, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Chessier Sr., Rt. 2, visited Thursday night in the home of his parents. He also attended the rodeo. Ernest is working in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Selman of Minesand, N.M., recently visited the American Museum of Atomic Energy, Oak Ridge, Tenn., which has demonstrations and displays on peaceful uses of the atom.

Four accidents occur in county during July

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Cochran County during the month of July, according to Sergeant A. E. Roberts Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These creashes resulted in five persons injured and an estimated property damage of $2,275.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first seven months of 1967 shows a total of 17 accidents resulting in three persons killed, 15 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $9,696.00.

"School days" are almost here again. Many of the schools in this area will be starting classes before Labor Day. Many drivers have become accustomed to ignoring school zones and signs during the summer months with the thought, "why bother, school's out anyway." But now the time is rapidly approaching to start paying close attention to signs warning of school zones and buses.

Many parents will attempt to make the most of their coming Labor Day final vacation outing. "Don't let this outing be fatal," the Sergeant stated. Thirty-two lives were lost in traffic over the Labor Day weekend in 1966.

NEGLECT

This highway began to decay the day that it ceased to be used and repaired. Deterioration sets in with the onset of neglect. When a nation's spiritual life is neglected there is a possibility that nation will not long endure. Let us strengthen our nation and our society by attending church regularly and reaffirming our faith in God.

"And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching."
Hebrews 10:24, 25.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Cochran County cotton acreage is listed by Plains Cotton Growers

The season's first estimate of 1967 cotton production from the 23 High Plains counties represented by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. adds up to 1,173,500 bales, or from 1,278,616 bales produced in 1966 and 46 per cent below the 1961-65 average of over 2,175,000 bales.

This is the second year of a new four-county program enacted by Congress which offers strong payment incentives to farmers for reducing acreage by 35 per cent.

Under this program High Plains farmers signed up to plant 1,430,384 acres or 57 per cent of the 2,198,908 acres available for planting.

According to the first estimate, combined by PCG and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, total "standing" acreage in the 23 counties is only 1,250,000. Planting intentions were foiled by a lack of sufficient moisture until the planting deadline had gone by and other acreage has been lost to rain, hail and wind storms.

The Cotton Exchange and PCG makes estimates each year, using information gained from county agriculture agent ginners, producers, ASCS offices and others. The first guess is made each year on the first of August, then revised on the first of each month until the final estimate is made on December 1.

Cochran County had a 1967 planting intention of 48,392 acres. There is an estimated standing acreage of 47,000 with an estimated production of 48,000 bales.

Hardest hit by the spring drought has been Howard County, where only 30,500 acres of an intended 47,477 acres are now standing — a loss of 37 per cent to dry weather.

Almost every county in the area has been hurt to some extent by the other elements, but Hale County has the dubious honor of topping the list. Hale county farmers planted or planned to plant 104,168 acres and has lost about 33 per cent of that total, mostly to hail.

Lamb and Hockley Counties were also badly hurt in this category, losing 18 and 16 per cent respectively.

Cotton producers and people in cotton related businesses in four of the 23 counties that make up the territory of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. have elected directors to the cotton producer organization this year. The remainder of the counties will hold election meetings at a later date.

Twenty-one of the counties will elect only a businessman-director this year as a result of by-laws changes that were made in 1967. The other two, Hale and Swisher, held elections in 1966 prior to the change and have elected both producer and businessman directors this year. They elected their producer directors for one year and businessman directors for two years, this year, and in the future will elect producers on even numbered years and businessmen on odd years in accordance with the new by-laws.

Hale county re-elected John Smith, Plainview gin manager as their businessman director for 1968 and 1969, and re-elected Glenn Curtis of Petersburg for producer director to serve for 1968 only. Curtis will be up for re-election again in the latter part of 1968.

Swisher County elected Ed Devens of Tulia to replace Wayne Featherston, also of Tulia, as businessman director, and re-elected J. P. Jones of Tulia for producer-director. Jones, like Curtis, was elected for only one year.

In Crosby County Crosbyton gin manager Burt Flowers was elected businessman director, replacing John Brown of Crosbyton, who has moved from the county.

Castro County elected Ike Bennett of Hart as businessman director. He replaces Alan Webb of Dimmitt.

White family takes Michigan vacation

Nell White and children, Judy, Susan and Rosa went to Ranger to pick up her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy McCaugh and left on a trip to Marquette, Michigan to visit her brother, Mr. Roy McCaugh and family. He is a preacher in that city.

They went through 11 states. While in Michigan they drove to Canada. They took a boat ride through famous Soo Locks. They boarded the boat at Welch docks on Lake Huron, and went through the lock and were raised twenty-one feet, on their way back they were lowered.

They sailed on Lake Huron and Lake Superior. After the boat ride, they drove across the bridge into Canada. They went to Mount Marquette, a view which overlooks the town of Marquette and Lake Superior, however, on the day they climbed they were unable to see because of the fog. They climbed Sugar Loaf mountain, which is a three mile hike.

The view overlooks all of Lake Superior.

This view is really breathtaking. They saw huge ships come into the dock and load up with iron ore. The Whites saw the longest electric plant in the world. The whole trip was exciting and very educational. The further north they went, the larger the trees, and the house were, especially in the country.

Nell's parents are staying with them for the month of August.

* "Yes...

I Picked It Up in the City"

* a useful phrase for impressing neighbors with the way we get around but it comes high

FOR some strange reason, a lot of us are inclined to take more pride in some article that we have bought in a Big City Store than we do in an identical item bought at home.

PERHAPS a shirt or a hat, for example, bought in the City, becomes a sort of souvenir of our travels — a reminder of a pleasant break in the routine of life — instead of just another garment.

QUESTION IS . . . how high can we pay to indulge this little human quirk?

A DOLLAR SPENT away from home is a dollar less business in our community. Hundreds of thousands of these dollars ARE being spent that way every year by folks who live here. THAT MUCH MORE MONEY circulated in our community would supercharge its vitality.

CAN WE AFFORD to pass up the extra values that home-spent dollars give us in better schools, more jobs for more people, more prosperous businesses able to do a better job of serving our urgent daily needs?

ISN'T THE PRICE TOO HIGH . . . this whittling away at our own community's economic life . . . isn't this too much to pay for a few relics of our travels to the City?
